THE ARROW OF PI BETA PHI

SEPTEMBER, 1939

Volume 56

Number 1

EDITORIALS

With Apologies

THIS YEAR the Information ARROW comes to you in incomplete form, owing to an unhappy chain of circumstances which has so far prevented the holding of the annual meeting of Grand Council. In consequence, we shall send out with the November ARROW a supplement which will contain the minutes of that meeting, finally to be held in October, the reports of the members of Grand Council, and any announcements which may grow out of action taken at that meeting. Necessary business has been transacted by correspondence as usual, but much has had to be held over. We ask the indulgence of the Fraternity, and promise many important announcements in the November issue.

New Addresses

We present herewith the names of several new members of committees, province officers, etc., besides a number of changes of addresses of those already serving. Before writing any officer, club or chapter, please check carefully the address given in the Directory pages of this issue. Please make sure that your communication is going to the officer to whom it properly belongs, and so save delay in answering. In many cases material must be forwarded to another officer, with a consequent loss of time all around.

Settlement School

Grand Council announces with pleasure that Lillian Beck Holton has been induced to act as chairman of the Settlement School Committee for another year. This was done at the request of the committee, and seemed both necessary and desirable, at this time when changes are underway at the Settlement School, among them the establishment of a new Crafts Department, and the building of a new shop and workroom for Arrow Craft. We cannot too strongly express our appreciation of the fine work Mrs. Holton has done for the School and for the Fraternity. She has carried on splendidly the tradition of efficiency left by previous chairmen of the committee. Elsewhere we give in full the reports on the management of the School for the past year, and an interesting chronicle they are, indeed!

Hat Covers

When the Editor was traveling in the Spring there was forwarded to her a tiny package from Vera Kirkpatrick of the Lincoln alumnae club, containing an intriguing little envelope of plio film. Inside was a strange-looking accordion pleated object, also of plio film, with ribbon ties—a hat cover for rainy days! It was tucked in her handbag, and forgotten until one day in Chicago when there came a downpour—sudden and most inconvenient. Like a true Californian, the Editor carries no umbrellas, and she was ready to mourn the loss of a really nice hat, or take a taxi to save it. Then she remembered the little hat cover, brought it out, fitted it over the hat—a large one, by the way—and walked rejoicing back to the hotel. Twice on the way women stopped her, to ask where she had gotten the hat cover!

It went back into its original folds in its fascinating pleated way, was put away in the bag, and never thought of again until a later day at the New York World's Fair. Again there was a sudden storm, with everything to see and only one day to see it in. Again the hat cover came out—again it saved the hat, all through a long day's sightseeing. Again people stopped her, to ask if they could be bought anywhere on the Fair grounds.

That seemed like almost enough service for so small a thing, but not so. The next week the Editor was caught in the rain at the Naval Academy, at Annapolis—the Grand Vice-President will vouch for this, for she was present. Bancroft Hall is far from the home of friends in the Yard, at least far in the rain. It was a long wet walk, but the little cover was still in the bag—out it came, and the Editor still has the hat, as good as new!

The Lincoln, Nebraska, alumnae club will be glad to tell you more about this charming little invention of a Pi Phi—perhaps you have already heard from them.

On Pi Phi Journeys

The Editor has recently completed an interesting round of chapter and alumnae club visits, with two province conferences and several Founders' Day banquets to lend variety. They have brought with them added pride in our strength, added joy in the contacts that fraternity service means. Always there is special inspiration in contact with such old chapters as those in Iowa, in meeting women who have loved Pi Beta Phi through many years of their busy lives; always it is with an added thrill that we look at a Founders' Day gathering, when several hundred women express by their presence their loyalty and devotion to the fraternity ideal as expressed in Pi Beta Phi. Surely we have here something of permanent worth and lasting joy, something to be passed on to our incoming girls.

To the many Pi Phis who have made her journeyings so happy, the Editor offers most grateful appreciation for their friendship and hospitality.

A Chapter Reunion

Virginia Gamma chapter inaugurated this year a plan for retaining strong alumnae interest that promises success. Early in the Spring a notice went out to every member of the chapter wherever she might be, inviting her to come back to Williamsburg for their first five year reunion. They came from far and near! Including the active chapter ninety-nine were present at their formal luncheon at the Williamsburg Inn. There was a register, not only for those present, but for those who would promise to come back five years from that day. Perhaps your chapter already has some such plan. If so, may we hear about it? If not, why not plan one for yourselves?

After Rushing

Again most of our chapters have gone through their major rushing season, again with the new system of alumnae club recommendations in effect. Again hundreds of girls have been recommended, many of them "legacies"—again only a few of these could be taken, especially in cases where our rushing is limited by a quota system. Again we have to face an aftermath of joy and sorrow—joy for those who could be taken, sorrow for those who must be left out. How are we facing the situation?

Laura Storms Knapp, Theta Province Vice-President, voices in her annual report the ideal alumnae point of view, and we take the liberty of quoting her:

"We seem to be developing a fine cooperation in the matter of rushing. To have the clubs willing to recommend and to rush girls for the various chapters and then not be too disappointed when the chapters cannot pledge all these girls for different reasons, is a matter of education and fine fraternity loyalty."

Personal

The Fraternity has this summer suffered with Miss Onken in the serious illness of her father. We are happy to be able to say now that his condition is greatly improved.

The staff of the ARROW extends its sympathy to the editor of the Exchanges and College Notes section, Nita Day Carman, Minnesota Alpha, in the loss of her husband last Spring.

Please Note!

Notices of change of address for the ARROW and requests for extra copies (which must be paid for) should be addressed to Central Office. The mailing list is handled entirely by Central Office, extra copies when such are available are stored there. When such requests are sent to the Editor of the ARROW, they must be forwarded to Central Office in every case, with a resultant loss of time on the way and in the office of the Editor.

National Interfraternity Conference Ideas

The fraternity chapter has a greater possibility for character development and intellectual stimulus than the college.—Russell C. MacFall, retiring chairman National Interfraternity Conference.

The college in itself has no agency which can make an impression upon the social side of its students; the fraternity meets this need.—John A. Schaeffer, president Franklin and Marshall College.

The success or failure of the social fraternity is indicated by its intra-campus relationships.—Wilbur H. Cramblet, president Bethany College.

The development of good citizenship is the major objective in creating social-mindedness within the fraternity.—Harry S. Rogers, Polytechnic Institute of Brooklyn.

In the fraternity house the student should find respect for whatever is honest and decent and true together with contempt for whatever is slipshod and false and phony.—James E. Craig, editorial writer, New York Sun.

With dormitory competition no longer will the adolescent order of fraternity living be justified; an adult fraternity attitude must become a reality.—R. B. Sewart, controller, Purdue University.

Reports of National Officers

ASSISTANT TO THE GRAND PRESIDENT

IT WAS the privilege of this officer to take over the duties of the Assistant to the Grand President in August 1938, and during the past few months it has been a joy and an inspiration to work in close association with the Grand President, with the other officers of the fraternity, and with the eighty-one chapters of $\Pi B \Phi$ as far as rushing and pledge supervision are concerned. The alumnae advisory boards no longer come under the direction of this office but under that of the Grand Secretary.

Three questionnaires have been sent to rush captains, the first one being forwarded in August, which was not only to remind the rush captain of her duties prior to and during the major rush period, but also to get a clearer picture of rushing conditions as they exist on each campus where there is a Pi Phi chapter. The second questionnaire was to ascertain the rushing results of each chapter and to remind the group that the rush captain must be elected within one month of the close of the major rushing period and to hold office for one calendar year. Too many chapters in the past have been electing their rush captains too late in the year. The third questionnaire was sent in the spring for the purpose of urging rushing education of new members and early preparation for rushing. All committees for fall rushing should be formed before summer vacation, so that there may be the most efficient organization possible. Only through such organization will the members of a chapter be able to devote their real interest and efforts to sane rushing and wise choice of rushees.

A letter was sent to the pledge supervisors in the fall of the year in which these officers were reminded of their very great responsibility to the chapter and to the Fraternity in training the pledges. Response to this letter was quite good, and it was felt by the Assistant to the Grand President that there were many very fine pledge supervisors in office this year. The office of pledge supervisor is one of the most important and the future of the Fraternity and of the chapter depends largely on the training of the pledges.

Questionnaires were sent to the pledge supervisors this spring to learn of pledging and initiation results. The three reasons for non-initiation are failure to meet scholastic requirements, lack of finances, and campus regulations. Ability of a pledge to meet initiation requirements cannot be too carefully regarded and every effort should be put forth to aid the pledge in meeting these requirements.

The total number initiated during the year was 1314; last year, 1354.

60% of this year's pledges were initiated; last year, 61%.

69% of all pledges were initiated this year.

There were 1522 new pledges this year and 1630 last year. One reason for the decrease in the number of pledges is the increasing number of campuses on which the quota system is used.

Part of the duties of the Assistant to the Grand President is to make surveys upon the request of the Grand President, and this spring it was the pleasure of the Assistant to the Grand President to send a questionnaire to each chapter president in regard to the use of the health certificate for food handlers employed by chapter houses on each campus. A copy of the certificate used at the University of Illinois was sent with a letter to each chapter. In one case it was instrumental in having it accepted as a future campus regulation for all houses. This was at the University of Michigan, and a copy of the letter from the chapter president of Michigan B telling of this accomplishment was forwarded to each chapter with a note from the Assistant to the Grand President. The survey shows that all but ten chapters replied to the questionnaire and of these 27 did not have a house; 24 had never had a certificate of this type required; and 20 already had such a certificate required. The result of this survey will be apparent in the fall.

In addition the Assistant to the Grand President has had the pleasure of working with the pledge supervisor of Georgia A in connection with the training of the pledges of this chapter. This contact with Georgia A has been very much enjoyed.

The cooperation from the chapters has been splendid. Twice the province presidents have been written regarding cooperation and problems of their respective chapters, and the assistance received from these officers has been greatly appreciated. Also, many useful suggestions have been received from them and they will be put into effect next fall.

The outline for the chapter president's notebook was submitted to the Grand President by the Assistant to the Grand President last fall and after revision was compiled by the Director of Central Office. A similar outline for a pledge supervisor's notebook was prepared by the Assistant to the Grand President with the splendid assistance of the pledge supervisors and was submitted to the Grand President this spring. It will be ready for distribution this summer.

It has not been possible for the Assistant to the Grand President to visit any chapters this year, but it was her privilege to attend the Theta Province North Conference and in the absence of the Grand President to take over some of the duties of the Grand President. The experience was greatly enjoyed by this officer. She enjoyed, also, the Founders' Day celebration with the Winnipeg Alumnae Club and Manitoba Alpha chapter.

The first year for this officer in the capacity of the Assistant to the Grand President has been a very happy one. No words can express her appreciation of the ever ready interest and help given her by the Grand President at all times. She would also like to express her gratitude to the other members of Grand Council for their interest and to the Director of Central Office for her valuable assistance. Anything accomplished by the Assistant to the Grand President, little as it is, would not have been possible without the cooperation and interest of so many officers and members of the Fraternity.

Respectfully submitted,
ISABEL A. CLARK

ASSISTANT TO THE GRAND VICE-PRESIDENT

It is really the province of the Grand Vice-President to speak of the development of the Alumnae Department, but one cannot refrain from observing that with the growing interest in province conferences it is quite evident that the Fraternity continues to grow and develop; that alumnae clubs find it helpful to discuss with others their plans and problems, and to know the actives and their accomplishments and problems better; that individuals cherish more than ever fraternity friendships.

The organization of new clubs continues to be one of the important duties of the Assistant to the Grand Vice-President. Letters were sent out to localities suggesting the formation of an alumnae club. Other suggestions when made were followed up. New clubs have been chartered this year in Mohawk Valley, New York, Marin County, California, Northern Indiana, and Bergen County, New Jersey, making a total of one hundred and ninety-four alumnae clubs. It is interesting that each of the new clubs is composed of members from several cities combining so that they may have the pleasure of united fraternity contact. Members stationed at West Point, New York, have expressed a desire to become a chartered club, but several were transferred to other posts leaving the group without the required number for a charter. It is to be hoped that with the new families coming to West Point in the fall this difficulty will be overcome.

The interest of the West Point group was aroused through the activity of the Army and Navy Auxiliary. This branch of our Alumnae Department is under the supervision of this office and we wish to express to Mrs. Lingo and her chairmen appreciation for their cooperation.

Mothers' Clubs are the responsibility of this officer. No new groups have been formed this year, but interest has been shown by mothers living in Atlanta, Georgia, and undoubtedly they will organize in the near future. It was our pleasure to speak at one of the meetings of the Indiana Γ Mothers' Club. Letters were sent out to these clubs at the close of the year expressing the appreciation of the Fraternity for their interest in and service to their respective chapters.

It was the pleasure of the Assistant to the Grand Vice-President to represent $\Pi B \Phi$ at the Regional Panhellenic Conference held in Louisville, Kentucky, in the fall, and at the Greek Conclave at Ohio Wesleyan University in December. She was appointed secretary of the Louisville Conference and as such wrote up the minutes of the meetings. She also had the pleasure of attending the Delta and Gamma Province Conferences.

Constitutional duties such as letters to clubs chartered last year, greetings to new clubs, writing the minutes of the alumnae sessions of Convention, assisting Central Office in keeping the alumnae directory up to date, and last but by no means least, assisting the Grand Vice-President, have been discharged.

Each year brings new experiences and contacts which serve to increase one's appreciation for the Fraternity and the women who serve it. Your Assistant to the Grand Vice-President is most grateful for the opportunity of working with the members of the Grand Council and the province officers, and for $\Pi B \Phi$.

Respectfully submitted,
MARIANNE REID WILD

NATIONAL HISTORIAN

This year has been a pleasant one for the National Historian of $\Pi B \Phi$, for she has had the privileges of reading through the files of the Historian's office and of meeting many Pi Phis through correspondence. The routine duties of the office have been carried on. Letters of instruction have been written to chapter historians and an "Information Please" program prepared for active chapters so that they might become more familiar with the History of $\Pi B \Phi$ written by Agnes Wright Spring. The histories of the different chapters written by alumnae historians last year have been sent to the files of the National Historian. Four chapter histories which were not written in time to be submitted in the contest last year have been completed this year.

The National Historian has continued to add to the collection of tangible material of the early days of $\Pi B \Phi$ as begun by her predecessors. In order to build up this collection which will be of increasing value and interest as the years go by all who have pins, pictures, letters, books, or any other article or articles pertaining to the first thirty years of $\Pi B \Phi$ are requested to send them to the National Historian. These articles will be preserved in fireproof cases and cherished by all generations of $\Pi B \Phi$ to come.

A new collection for the files of the National Historian has been begun. It is to be that of a Pi Beta Phi library, composed of published books, poetry, music, and booklets written by members of the Fraternity. A compilation of all published magazine and newspaper stories and articles written by Pi Beta Phis is also being made.

The National Historian wishes to thank those who have aided her so graciously during the year.

Respectfully submitted,

MAGAZINE AGENCY

IT WAS decided at the 1938 Convention that the Pi Beta Phi Magazine Agency should be transferred to the Central Office for one year, as an experiment. In July, the Director of the Central Office went to Wichita, Kansas, to confer with Edith Updegraff Stephenson, who had so ably handled magazine subscriptions as chairman of that committee for the past six years. The files were moved from Wichita, Kansas, to Marshall, Illinois, and from August 1938 until the present date all orders were filled through the Central Office.

From August 1, 1938 through May 31, 1939 the present Director of the Magazine Agency has sent $2,716.58 to the Treasurer of the Settlement School. Of this amount, $2,671.61 was sent as commissions earned from subscriptions sent in by alumnae clubs, individuals and chapter, and $44.97 was sent as bonuses and prizes won from magazine sales for the year.

Below are the approximate profits for the past ten years:

|---------|---------------|------------|
| 1927-28 | Approximately | $1,200.00 |
| 1928-29 | Approximately | 1,100.00 |
| 1929-30 | Approximately | 810.00 |
| 1930-31 | Approximately | 950.00 |
| 1931-32 | Approximately | 1,500.00 |
| 1932-33 | Approximately | 1,400.00 |
| 1933-34 | Approximately | 2,050.00 |
| 1934-35 | Approximately | 2,000.00 |
| 1935-36 | Approximately | 1,450.00 |
| 1936-37 | Approximately | 2,366.48 |
| 1937-38 | Approximately | 2,445.09 |
| 1938-39 | Approximately | 2,716.58 |

The Pi Beta Phi Magazine Agency won $100.00 as third prize in the Hearst Publication contest.

This was the result of selling more subscriptions to Cosmopolitan and Good Housekeeping this year than last year. The prize and bonus money received from the sale of magazines has paid the office expenses of the agency this year.

Three mailings have been sent out to all magazine chairmen this year. The first one was a general letter sent out in September; the second one, sent out in January, gave the club totals for the half year; the third one, sent out in May, gave the yearly totals.

From this time on a subscription blank will be printed in the ARROW. It is hoped that this blank will stimulate magazine subscriptions among the isolated alumnae who do not belong to an alumnae club.

Only forty of the eighty-one chapters sent in magazine subscriptions this year, and it is hoped that next year all chapters will contribute to the Settlement School through the magazine agency.

The Christmas business is the most valuable of all to the agency. Last year we used the dead-line of December 15 for sending in Christmas orders for delivery as presents, but it was discovered that that date did not give the publishers quite sufficient time to guarantee delivery as Christmas gifts, so this year the dead-line will be December 5. This does not mean that magazine subscriptions will not be accepted after that date, but it does mean that if you wish efficient delivery the orders should be received in the Pi Beta Phi Magazine Agency by December 5.

The Director of the Magazine Agency wishes to thank all members who contributed to the success of the agency this year.

Below are statistics showing the eight highest total commissions per club. The eight highest commissions per capita are also given to enable the smaller club to receive credit that is due. The financial statement, magazine statistics, and commissions credited to alumnae clubs, chapters, and individuals are given below.

| Robes | 898.00 |
| Cook Books | 508.53 |
| Robes | 193.10 |
| Total | $2,700.27 |

STATISTICS: Below is a list showing the number of initiates into the Fraternity for the past seven years:

| | Chapters | Initiates |
|---------|----------|-----------|
| 1932-33 | 78 | 1,140 |
| 1933-34 | 77 | 1,085 |
| 1934-35 | 79 | 1,281 |
| 1935-36 | 79 | 1,237 |
| 1936-37 | 80 | 1,347 |
| 1937-38 | 80 | 1,354 |
| 1938-39 | 81 | 1,331 |

DIRECTORY: The actual Directory work began in May 1938, when return postal cards were sent out to the entire membership asking for up-to-date data for the correction of the Central Office membership files. The actual copy work was begun July 9, and the last page of proof was corrected and returned to the printer on November 30, 1938. There were six extra girls employed in the Central Office during the peak of the Directory work. Copy was read throughout twice, and the page proof was read once for corrections. This 1938 Directory contained 745 pages. The 1934 Directory contained 655 pages.

SUMMARY OF THE WORK FOR THE YEAR: The usual routine schedule of the Central Office has been followed throughout the year which includes mimeographing for officers; mimeographing of new publications; issuing of supplies to active chapters and alumnae clubs; handling of new initiation certificates; keeping the files up-to-date; running the mailing list for the ARROW. The following principal publications were issued through the Central Office: President's Loose Leaf Note Book; Revised Constitution; 2 Social Exchange Bulletins; 4 Leader's Digests; Consent to Pledge Blank; Manual for Pledge Sponsor; Convention Stunts. The new Pledge Supervisor's Loose Leaf Note Book is in the process of printing. It will be issued to all pledge supervisors this fall.

In April, 1938 a supply of cook books was sent to the Central Office for distribution and sale. Many clubs and individuals have purchased these this year. To date the Central Office has collected $508.53 for the sale of cook books.

Twenty-eight chapters have purchased initiation robes through the Central Office this year. Ten satin robes and two hundred and thirty-eight sateen robes have been sent out.

At Convention last year it was decided that all chapters who did not have white Bibles should endeavor to have them in their archives. Forty-seven chapters ordered white leather Bibles and they were sent out at a cost of $4.00 to each chapter that did not already have one in its possession.

All chapters were asked to revise their card files, Record of Membership Book, and Book of Initiates' Signatures, using the November 1938 Directory as a guide. Signed affidavits were returned to the Central Office after this work was completed.

SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE ARROW: During the year 1938-39 three members have subscribed to the ARROW for life, and thirteen members have subscribed to the ARROW annually.

VOCATION FILE: On the postal cards sent out to all members last year it was requested that information regarding vocations be supplied. This information was compiled from the cards and copies were sent to the Grand President and to the chairman of the Publicity Committee.

LOST LIST: The lost list last year counted 1541. This year it is 1361, indicating a decrease of 180. This is due to the publication of the Directory and a revision of the files.

FUTURE WORK: The summer work of the Central Office will consist in issuing new supplies; completion of the Pledge Supervisor's Note Book; issuing of stationery; remimeographing new supplies of blanks, and other routine tasks. Next fall postal cards will be sent out to all members requesting up-to-date information for the national files. The postal cards will then be sent to the active chapters for revision of their files.

The Director of the Central Office has had the pleasure this year of attending the Eta Province Conference at Decatur, Illinois, as a representative of Grand Council. She also addressed the Champaign-Urbana Club at its last meeting.

The Director of the Central Office completes the year's work with a sincere message of appreciation to all alumnae clubs and active chapters for cooperating with her as they have this year. She is grateful to all the national officers and members of Grand Council for the privilege of working with them.

Respectfully submitted,
BEATRICE S. PURDUNN

Times Have Changed

The following rules were in force at Mt. Holyoke College in 1837:

"No young lady shall become a member of Mt. Holyoke Seminary who cannot kindle a fire, wash potatoes, repeat the multiplication table, and at least two thirds of the shorter catechism.

"Every member of the school walk a mile a day unless a freshet, earthquake, or some other calamity prevent.

"No young lady shall devote more than an hour a day to miscellaneous reading.

"No young lady is expected to have gentlemen acquaintances unless they are returned missionaries or agents of benevolent societies."

"One national fraternity official," Stewart S. Howe, K Σ, wrote in a recent number of Fraternity Month, "wonders whether many university and college trustees, in anticipating more buildings for future increased registration, have made allowances for the less-than-ten-years'-distant expected enrollment drops for all colleges. This last is based on the fact that enrollments in the grade schools in the country are now steadily dropping due to the present much lower birth rate and the vanishing of new emigrants to United States, the beginning of a decreasing U.S. population. Experts predict the enrollment drops will reach the colleges, due to this situation, within a relatively few years. The mentioned fraternity official says his organization is taking cognizance of the fact in all new house building plans."

Settlement School Reports

CHAIRMAN OF THE SETTLEMENT SCHOOL COMMITTEE

MEMBERS of Grand Council and of the Settlement School Committee: It is a pleasure to report to you and to the Fraternity at large the progress that has been made at the Settlement School in the past year, and to outline to you some of the possibilities for future work. Last year I made an exhaustive report to Convention of the past, present, and future work of the School which, together with surveys by Edwin L. Holton and H. Lucher Stark, was published in the 1938 Information ARROW. I shall not repeat, except for emphasis, information contained in that report which was accepted by Convention. After the approval of that report, the Committee has gone ahead with plans suggested in it and I am now reporting the progress made along these lines in the year ending June 30, 1939.

The greatest change has been in the high school, brought about by the addition of a wing to the high school building. This wing contains the beautiful new home economics laboratory and a science laboratory. The latter is a light, airy room well equipped for work in chemistry and general science. Five hundred dollars of the cook book profits were used for the equipment of the home economics laboratory. The walls of knotty pine, the hand woven draperies, the cherry drop leaf tables and ladder back chairs are all appropriate to the mountain village as well as being most attractive. Sewing machines and unit kitchens with wood, oil, and electric stoves make sewing and cooking a pleasure for the girls. As a luncheon guest, I partook of an excellent, well-served meal and found the girls delightful hostesses. This new laboratory gave opportunity for expanding the home economics course into one which was approved by the state board of vocational education for Smith-Hughes aid and supervision.

Rosalie Ellis, Kansas B, began her second year as home economics teacher in the new laboratory and has been most successful in carrying on the vocational course. Marion Ryan, New York G, took charge of the high school library, now housed in a larger room, in addition to teaching the English courses and coaching the plays. Her work has been most satisfactory in every way and we are glad that she is to return. Three men, William King, principal and science teacher, Ben Fleming, history, and William Coe, agriculture, made up the rest of the high school faculty and all will return next year.

The older part of the high school building was improved by the addition of store rooms, toilets, and inside painting. The sixth, seventh, and eighth grades occupied two large rooms with a connecting office for Mr. Price, our fine elementary principal. This left only five grades in the five-room elementary building so that it was not overcrowded as it has been the last few years. An excellent staff including Ruth Rowe, Nevada A, Ruth Parker, Pennsylvania B, and Eleanor Pack, Tennessee A, has done fine work in the classroom and have entered into community activities. The two Ruths have taken charge of the Girl Scout troupe and Eleanor has organized and led the girls' glee club and a rhythm band, and had charge of the music for chapel and for all school activities. It is with regret that we accept the resignations of Eleanor Pack and Ruth Rowe for next year. Two Pi Phis will take their places, Mary Rupard, Missouri T, and Pauline Morris, New York G, both of whom come with the best of recommendations and with great interest in teaching at the Settlement School. Eleanor Brabson of Sevierville, Tennessee, who has taught ten years, has resigned to become post-mistress of Gatlinburg. We regret losing her as a teacher but know that she will continue to help with all community activities. Mattie Huff Lawson, Iowa G, who taught for us some years ago, will again teach in the elementary school. Pauline Sharp and Grace Kerley, county girls, will continue next year. Both are good teachers and community workers.

With another teacher added to the staff, it was necessary to add a bedroom to the hospital building, that being deemed the most convenient and the least expensive place to build. The room was built at a cost of less than $200.00 and is a very attractive and comfortable place for two teachers to live. Marjorie Chalmers has her combination bed and living room there. The rest of the staff were housed as before, Mr. King and Mr. Coe in the boys' dormitory, Miss Morse, house manager, and two teachers in the girls' dormitory, and the rest of the staff in Teachers' Cottage which was made more convenient by increasing the bathroom facilities. Annette Morse, Illinois A, took up her work as house manager last fall and has been competent, and a helpful adviser to the boys and girls in the dormitories. It is the first time that there has been a Pi Phi in this position. With the six Pi Phi teachers, Mrs. Snow, Mrs. Weaver, and Frances Brown, all Pi Phis, there are now ten Pi Phis on the staff, the greatest number that there has been since I became a member of the committee and, I feel sure, that there has ever been at the same time.

Marjorie Chalmers has carried on the health work in the same efficient, cheerful, and loving way that has endeared her to the whole community in the four years she has been with the school. She seems to do a little more than is humanly possible and she does it with a smile. With all her other work, she finds time to sing at church affairs and funerals, and if the high school glee club needs another alto she helps there too. This year the grade school brought home the Blue Ribbon health cup in the county contest for the third time, thus making it a permanent possession. Marjorie dreams of the time when some interested Pi Phi or other friend of the school may give a modern building for the health work, and if earnest endeavor and faithfulness to one's work could bring that reward, Marjorie's dream would come true.

That the work of the staff and weavers of Arrow

Craft has been excellent is attested by the many satisfied customers. In my own alumnae club in a town of 12,000, we have in the last four years sold in round numbers, $225, $275, $400, and $300, making a total of $1,200 worth of Arrow Craft products. This could not be done if customers were not pleased and if there were not variety in the stock, new things each year, and above all, high level of material and workmanship. A great number of alumnae clubs report a similar continued high amount of sales from year to year. Some clubs wish to stress the sale of products only every other year, or to leave out a year occasionally. This is left to the discretion of the clubs, but we want all clubs to know that we appreciate greatly the effort that goes into these sales. If all Pi Phi could attend, as I have, the Weavers' Guild, when nearly a hundred of our women weavers meet, and see and hear what this work means to them, there would be no need to urge clubs to sell their work. Our shops in Gatlinburg have had a good year, but we must still depend upon our clubs for the larger part of our business.

The Arrow Craft staff is the same as last year with Mrs. Ethel Snow, as director. Mrs. Snow is well and favorably known to those club members who have had charge of Arrow Craft sales. Even if she has to reprimand a chairman for not keeping to the rules, which by the way, are most necessary, she does it in such a way that there is no lasting hurt. When one realizes that she must deal by correspondence with over one hundred club chairmen, buy all the stock except the weaving, manage the packing and shipping, run a shop, and wait on customers, one knows that she is a busy and efficient woman. Her helpers, Edna McCarter and Ava Clabo, two of our Gatlinburg girls, are efficient in every line of the work, and customers find them attractive, quick, and reliable.

Mrs. Georgia Duffield is still to be found in the Mountain View Hotel where the guests spend much time, and money, in our Arrow Craft shop which she manages so well. Miss Georgie, as she is affectionately known, plays the piano for Sunday school, church, Young People's meetings, and Missionary Society and is always ready to help in trouble or illness. Her friends include those from the rich and prominent who come to the hotel to the lowliest in the burg.

In the weaving building, in some mountain home, or working with the garden club on a community project, one finds Gene Redding, our weaving supervisor. She does the designing and supervises the weaving for Arrow Craft. Her artistic ability along with good business sense is unusual and her management of the weavers combines teaching them to make products of high standard and making their lives happier and more comfortable. Lura Owenby is still her capable assistant. Frances Brown, Missouri I, is starting her third year as bookkeeper for Arrow Craft and the school. This is no small job with a business the size of Arrow Craft, and the school books besides, but Frances, in her quiet efficient way, does the work well and fills an important place in the community. These women have taken care of the increase in the Arrow Craft business with very little extra overhead. We pay our weavers more than any other shop in Gatlinburg and so can demand the best of workmanship and loyalty to Arrow Craft.

Due to our teaching of weaving over a long period, there are many more weavers in and around Gatlinburg than we can take care of, so many shops have been opened for the tourist trade, and "weaving for sale" is seen on many cabins along the mountain roads. Our shop sets a high standard, something for others to work toward, but which, as yet, no other shop has attained.

The profit of Arrow Craft will be shown in the report of our treasurer. It has increased steadily for the past five years. Now the committee, with the approval of Grand Council, feels justified in using a part of Arrow Craft profit each year, beginning with the 1939-40 school year, to add a crafts teacher to the high school staff, thus giving our boys and girls training which will give them an outlet for creative work and an economic income in their home environment. This will eventually add variety and attractiveness to Arrow Craft stock and thus bring monetary value back in proportion to that expended. Several applications have been received for this position and great care will be used in the selection. Miss Jessie Harris, Director of Home Economics of the University of Tennessee, our Asheville Convention initiate, is assisting the committee in getting this crafts work started. It is hoped that a new Arrow Craft building can be built within the next year, and then the Voorheis building can be used for a crafts laboratory.

Coordinating and supervising the work of the schools, the health center, and Arrow Craft is Mrs. Eunice Weaver, our director. Good judgment in making decisions and firmness in carrying them out, combined with a pleasing personality and a kindly disposition, make her respected and loved by all.

I have tried to give a brief review of the work at Gatlinburg and the staff who are carrying it on. This is all made possible by the contributions of clubs and chapters, and by the magazine agency as used by these clubs and chapters. For these contributions, made possible by work and sacrifice of club members, we are grateful. If our work is to continue as needed and planned, we must depend upon your continued support. The Magazine Agency has increased each year and this last year was placed in the Central Office where, under Mrs. Purdunn's management, it has had its best year. Its possibilities are almost unlimited and clubs should make the most of this means of helping the school.

The Settlement School Committee began the year with two new members. Irene Eldridge, Wisconsin B, took the place of Josephine McCleverty whose term expired. Although a busy teacher in the Milwaukee High School, Irene has given the necessary time to keep the books and to check the accounts kept by the bookkeeper at the school and Arrow Craft. This is no small task and in addition Irene has kept up her part of the general committee work, sending each member monthly reports of the school finances, and helping to decide all matters brought to the committee. Ethel Hogan Copp, California I, the second new member, became secretary of the committee and did her work most acceptably. Her enthusiasm and good judgment have made her an excellent member of the committee.

Jeffries Green Pace took over the editorship of "News from Little Pigeon" and has made that department of the ARROW readable and interesting to all. Her three years' experience on the committee made her advice on general matters most valuable. This is also true of Marie Bacon Hagee who has also served three years. She took over the publicity and club program part of the committee work and did it most efficiently. The Settlement School film was sent to many clubs. Great care was taken in working out a schedule so that the film could make the rounds of the Canadian clubs after a great deal of investigation in regard to getting the film into Canada. Unfortunately there was a mistake made in carrying out the schedule prepared by Mrs. Hagee so some clubs did not get the film at the time set, and one club did not get it at all. The committee regrets this and wishes to point out to clubs that their cooperation is necessary at all times in getting the film on to the next club on schedule time. An additional 400 feet of colored film depicting the whole process of weaving is being added to the film already available. Mrs. Hagee has also handled pictures and material for club programs and newspaper publicity for club sales.

The annual meeting of the committee was held at the school immediately following the Asheville Convention, with the four members above listed and me as chairman presiding. The minutes of that meeting with accompanying recommendations were sent to Grand Council and approved by them as well as by the committee. These included upkeep and improvement of buildings, approving plans for the elementary and high schools submitted by the principals, going over Arrow Craft business with the Director and Weaving Supervisor, reviewing and planning the health work with the nurse and making budgets for Arrow Craft and the school. The report of the Director covering all phases of the work and making recommendations for the year was the basis on which the committee worked. An addition to the social work in the community was suggested by Mr. Price and approved by the committee in the form of a summer recreation program for children. The cost was shared by the school and voluntary contributions of business men. A successful program was carried out last summer and is being continued this summer.

As chairman of the committee, I made a mid-year trip to Gatlinburg to see that the plans and policies were being carried out, and to aid the Director in planning for things which had come up during the year. I wrote a full report of this visit with recommendations to the committee and council. I timed my visit so that I could attend the meeting of the Mountain Workers' Conference in Knoxville with several members of the staff. I found time to visit all departments of the school and many of the extracurricular activities. I spent considerable time going into the various phases of the Arrow Craft business. I attended a meeting of the Weavers' Guild and one of the Parent-Teacher Associations, thus meeting many women of the community. The hospital and the farm were not neglected. A week's time is barely enough for this visit, even if the days do begin at six A.M.

During the rest of the year I kept in constant communication by letter with Mrs. Weaver and less frequently with other members of the staff. At least once a month and usually more often, I wrote to the committee after we received the monthly letter from Mrs. Weaver. Then each member of the committee wrote to me and voted on things which needed decision. Besides this, I have kept in touch with Miss Onken whose advice is valued greatly because of her knowledge of the school and her unbounded good judgment. There has also been much general correspondence and twice during the year I have edited and mailed the Settlement School News to all officers, clubs, and chapters. I attended the Delta Province Conference as an official representative of the Fraternity and spoke on the Settlement School.

During the four years that I have served on the committee, three years of that time as chairman, I have seen the high school grow from a two- to a four-year standard course, the agriculture and home economics put on Smith-Hughes vocational basis, and a new wing added to the building to take care of the increased attendance and improved program. The elementary school has also been much improved by better lighting and equipment of the rooms and by the addition of a grade school principal. Arrow Craft has grown from a barely paying business to one paying almost $10,000 yearly profit. The Health Center has increased in efficiency, and community work has been organized to fit into the growing community life. I feel satisfied with these accomplishments, but there are other things which should be stressed for development in the near future. The addition of a crafts teacher in the high school has been planned for next year. This should be the beginning of a larger plan for making our project at Gatlinburg a crafts center of national scope. A new Arrow Craft building, for which funds have accumulated, should become a reality in another year and a plan for future development decided upon. The grade and high schools are in excellent condition and most of the expense of teachers' salaries is being taken care of by the county, the health work seems adequate for the present and near future, so the expansion of the crafts work seems the logical way for our project to grow. I do not advocate great immediate changes, but a program of gradual expansion after an exhaustive study of future possibilities has been made. It is with this idea in mind that I have accepted the Chairmanship of the Settlement School Committee for another year and I hope that a report of progress and of future possibilities along this line may be made to Grand Council and the Fraternity at the 1940 Convention.

DIRECTOR OF THE PI BETA PHI SETTLEMENT SCHOOL, 1938-39

Community

GATLINBURG presents a new picture in this, the summer of 1939. With its four-lane highway, bordered on either side with walks, the way is made safe for pedestrians for the first time. Especially do we at the school appreciate this because of the 418 children in attendance.

The Garden Club has placed rustic benches along the highway, intended as resting places for tourists.

Preparation is being made for the dedication of the Great Smoky Mountains National Park on June 21, at New Found Gap, with President Roosevelt as the principal speaker. Mrs. Roosevelt will accompany the president. This will make their second visit here.

Old Timers' Day is set for Saturday, June 24. This annual event with its amusing contests of longest whiskers, homeliest man, best joke, hog-calling, and many other old-time features, is the favorite occasion of the mountain people.

A Regional Planning Board was organized, representing six Tennessee counties, including Sevier County, which is nearest the National Park. Its object is to assist this community in protecting its natural heritage in beauty, while growing and building. It will act in a purely advisory capacity. Mr. Medlin was chosen from Gatlinburg as one of the Sevier County representatives.

The Little Theater Guild has been organized by Mr. Charles Palmer, pastor of the Methodist Church. It meets and rehearses in the school gymnasium.

The Gatlinburg Business Men's Club has elected Mr. King, high school principal, as its president.

The Settlement School playgrounds offering recreation for all ages, is being supervised by Mr. Price, elementary school principal. After trying this out for a part of last summer, it was pronounced one of the best things the school has undertaken.

After a storm a year ago, the flood from the mountain streams did great damage to a few homes on Roarin' Fork, leaving two families destitute. The Red Cross, through the school, provided these families with all necessary supplies for two weeks and replaced some of their kitchen furnishings.

The School gave the usual Christmas entertainment with a Christmas play and a distribution of stockings filled with candy. If it were not for the school's party and the Christmas boxes from Pi Phi, many of our mountain children would not know Christmas.

High School

William King, Principal, History, Chemistry, Coach.

Ben Fleming, Mathematics, General Science.

Marian Ryan, English, History, Library.

William Coe, Vocational Agriculture.

Rosalie Ellis, Vocational Home Economics.

After being advised by the State High School Supervisor that our laboratories were too small, we were faced with the necessity of building larger and better ones and, along with this, making some minor improvements. Part of the building was made possible by the sale of a piece of land along the Little Pigeon River, owned by the Settlement School, but not adjacent to the school grounds.

A wing of stone construction was built connecting the high school building with the weaving building—large enough for both general science and home economics laboratories. By making certain structural changes inside the high school building, we were able to provide two new toilet rooms, two small store rooms, one off the gymnasium and one belonging to the general science room. The coat closet serving the eighth grade room was divided and one-half made into an office for Mr. Price. Vocational agriculture was given a larger class room. Another large class room was converted into a study hall-library with new tables, chairs, and a few new shelves. The whole interior was made lighter by painting walls a cream color.

One hundred steel folding chairs were bought for the gymnasium, also chairs and tables for the science laboratory. The home economics laboratory was equipped throughout by the Los Angeles Club. A new removable extension was built for the stage and a panel of wood placed above the stage, filling in the open space and giving a better appearance. A gift of $300 from Mr. L. E. Voorheis made possible the installation of a stoker for the big furnace in the school heating plant.

The Little Pigeon Alumnae Club presented to the library a new set of encyclopedias. Other books were sent by Pi Phi and some were bought by the school. The name "Grace Coolidge Library" on copper plate has been placed on the door. The home economics room has been named "Burton-Thomas" and the name "Voorheis Building" placed above the door of the weaving building.

The high school enrollment was 111, the average daily attendance 96.2. Students living in the vicinity of Pigeon Forge had transportation on the regular bus line into Gatlinburg for the same low rate the school charged them the preceding year when using the truck.

Marian Ryan, New York T, the new English teacher, met with real success in teaching and with the supervision of plays and entertainment. With the assistance of Eleanor Pack, Tennessee A, and Marjorie Chalmers, a girls' glee club was organized. This filled a long felt want on the programs of our school entertainments. High school assembly meetings which included sixth, seventh, and eighth grades had True or False contests, spelling matches, and debates.

At commencement time, May 12, James Waycaster was awarded the athletic cup. The Little Pigeon Alumnae cup for the outstanding senior boy was awarded to Wayne Cardwell. The F.F.A. cup was presented to Martha Butler for being the outstanding senior girl.

Elementary School

Pern Price, Principal, Seventh and Eighth grades.

Eleanor Brabson, First grade.

Ruth Parker, Second grade.

Grace Kerley, Third grade.
Ruth Rowe, Fourth grade.
Pauline Sharp, Fifth grade.
Eleanor Pack, Sixth grade.

Enrollment for the elementary school was 307, the average daily attendance 245.27, showing that the seventh teacher, granted us by the County Board, was needed.

Mr. Price has been striving to bring up the sanitary rating, and this year we stood within one of the top in the Sevier County contest. The new sanitary drinking fountain and the adjustable window shades were a help in this advancement. The silver cup awarded to the school by the County Board of Health is to be seen in a case above the fireplace in the school house.

Grades six, seven, and eight occupied rooms in the high school building. The elementary school accomplished many worthwhile things such as the starting of a newspaper, which later became a joint project of both elementary and high school. They had a Fall Carnival, taking in $60.00 which was later used to buy books for their library. They bought playground equipment with the proceeds from their play. Another contribution by the eighth grade was an American flag, which has just been mounted on a thirty-foot iron pole.

The P.T.A. organization has been stronger financially than ever before. Bulah Lowe took charge of cooking and serving the hot lunch in the children's lunch room.

Ruth Rowe and Ruth Parker were councilors for the Girl Scouts. A play was given by them and a formal tea at the Teachers' Cottage. They are trying to get enough money to fit up a room in the grade school basement as a place for Scout use.

Mr. Price was Scout Master for the Boy Scouts. They will camp at Lake Norris the last week of June.

Home Economics

Rosalie Ellis, teacher.

We were successful in having home economics made vocational the past year, and consequently we were granted state aid for 50 per cent of the teacher's salary. In moving the department into its new quarters, much of the old equipment had to be discarded. A few things were sold.

Into the new attractive laboratory with native wood finish and excellent lighting were built kitchen cabinets in such a way as to form five small kitchenettes. Jessie Harris, of University of Tennessee Home Economics department, working with the architect, Charles Barber, made the plans and assigned to a class in the U.T. summer school, the project of planning our equipment. The five new tables and the twenty-four chairs to match were made by native craftsmen, the chairs finished by the students. The curtains were woven by native weavers. As a result, we have a laboratory which the State High School Supervisor, L. E. Derthick, the State Supervisor of Home Economics, Margaret Brouder, and the East Tennessee Supervisor of Home Economics, Miss Herne, are referring to as a model. One new electric sewing machine, one electric cookstove, and one new oil cookstove were added.

Rosalie Ellis, Home Economics teacher, carried out her regular yearly program. The Settlement

School Chairman and I enjoyed being entertained for luncheon one day in March by the freshmen. We members of the staff had an example of cooking at Christmas time when we were invited to a fine Christmas dinner. This was followed by a stunt program. Again they showed good training in serving dinner for the Father and Son Banquet for the Future Farmers. This occasion proved the convenience of having the science and home economics laboratories adjoining, so that both rooms can be thrown together for community affairs.

At the University of Tennessee open house, one of our girls was asked to model a dress of her own making, at the style show. Twice at high school assembly the girls exhibited their dress-making.

Agriculture

William Coe, Teacher.

Ambers Ogle, Farmer.

Vocational agriculture has thrived and Mr. Coe has continued his work with great enthusiasm, though he was disappointed at the beginning of the year that there were not enough farm-minded juniors to institute a third-year class. However, there were twenty-two boys in the freshman class and sixteen made up the second year class. Everything possible is done to keep up a lively interest in farm work. First in importance of these are the evening classes held in the rural communities where the fathers and brothers of these students gather during the winter months to study farm problems.

Dormitory students are given as nearly as possible the kind of farm work they like best to do. Their products were exhibited at the county fair and prizes won on poultry, hogs, Jersey cattle, garden products, and shop work.

When the time came for "slaughtering" for the purpose of class demonstration, our entire family was interested. We enjoyed some very good meat as the result. Many snow white chickens adorned the hillside. There were 120 layers and 800 broilers.

The F.F.A. organization is quite important to the farmer boys and our chapter has been very active the past year. Their activities included a special basketball team, which won the fifth district championship, a public speaking contest, an experiment with renting an extra acre of land for potatoes, hybrid seed corn production, parties including the home economics girls, and last, the Parent and Son Banquet which was an innovation for the F.F.A.'s. It proved to be such a pleasant occasion that it will be given annually hereafter.

Although it was not absolutely required by the Vocational agriculture program, Mr. Coe went once a week to CCC Camp Morgan to teach a class of boys who formerly lived on farms.

Arrow Craft

Ethel Snow, Manager.

The Shops: Georgia Duffield, Ava Clabo, Edna McCarter.

Weaving Building: Gene Redding, Lura Owenby.

Arrow Craft shows steady growth and Mrs. Ethel Snow calls attention to the fact that in the last five years the ninety-seven clubs, fifteen shops and two active chapters which were purchasers have increased to 121 clubs, thirty-five shops, and thirteen active chapters. Business from these and the growing tourist trade have increased the profits by $7,863.64. Arrow Craft stood third highest among the Craft Centers in the amount of stock sold to Southern Highlanders, Inc.

We think the Convention's visit to the school last summer stimulated an interest in Arrow Craft products among active chapters. The new wine and blue scarfs designed by a Chicago alumna, have been much admired by chapters. Because of the World's Fairs, Miss Redding has curtailed somewhat her production for the coming season, feeling that we may have less tourist trade.

Price tags and stickers of new design have been ordered for fall. The fall price list will mention among its new things carved animals.

The Basket Room which is the front room of the Arrow Craft shop and used only in summer because of the difficulty in heating, has had some new cupboards and shelves added this spring. The bright-colored woven paper curtains are a curiosity to the customers.

The Weaver's Guild has been active. Their monthly meeting programs had a variety of subjects such as making their home surroundings attractive by planting flowers around the mail boxes and other conspicuous places. Mr. Coe lectured to them twice on poultry raising. They have started a new play. The annual picnic, held at the Chimneys Camp ground, and their Christmas celebration were their highlights of the season.

They have had occasion to make use, many times, of the loan fund started three years ago, for having eyes examined and glasses fitted.

Miss Redding, assisted by Lura Owenby, inaugurated a six weeks' course in weaving for the sophomore girls as a part of home economics. Because of the large number of girls for the number of looms we have, the time was extended several weeks longer.

Mrs. Duffield, in the branch shop in the Mountain View Hotel, wove more of her famous Afghans than ever before during the quiet winter months.

Despite her eighty-one years, Aunt Lizzy Reagan still comes to the loom room to weave and tells all visitors, "You'uns must hurry back."

Glenna Reagan has been added to the shop personnel for the summer season.

Jennie Nichol Health Center

Marjorie Chalmers, Nurse.

The Health Center has carried on its work unchanged except that we no longer have the monthly visits of Dr. Mayberry, the dentist. He moved away some months ago, and no one has yet been found to take his place.

Marjorie Chalmers, our nurse for the past three years, emphasizes her statements in her last report, that the modern trend here swings more and more toward preventive measures—people learning to stay well rather than suffer illness that might be avoided with proper care. So, in making the school examinations, great emphasis is laid on the correction of defects. The best inducements we have ever had for the encouragement of these corrections is the "Blue Ribbon Contest." In March the County Board of Health awarded the silver cup once more to our school for showing the highest percentage of healthy children. The Settlement School had won four times, three in succession, which assured us of the permanent possession of the cup.

This year, as usual, we received hospital supplies and aid. These included a generous check from Florida A, dressings from Washington Club and the Junior Alumnae of Chapel Hill, North Carolina, baby clothes from Indiana A, night-clothes from the Elgin Club, and diapers from Helen Bagley, Philadelphia. These have been given out when necessary, and sickroom supplies have been loaned.

We rely on the nurse's list of needy families for the distribution of Christmas baskets which contain provisions and toys.

A new bedroom was built onto the back of the hospital and two rooms were painted white. Another improvement was cement bases under the log bridge in the hospital yard.

The following statistics indicate the activity of the health department.

Dormitories

Annette Morse, House Manager.

Belle Lowe, Lura Hurst, Cooks.

Mertie Ogle, Laundress.

Arlie Watson, Superintendent Grounds.

Our home life has been slightly different the past year because of the division of rooming quarters. With three of the women on the staff living at the Hospital, three with the girls in the dormitory and eight in the Teachers' Cottage, the group as a whole has not been together as much as formerly. However, this rooming plan was generally considered a more comfortable arrangement.

Annette Morse, Illinois Δ, has fitted into the family in truly motherly fashion. Evening study hour has been supervised by staff members in turn. Our seven girls and eight dormitory boys have taken the lead in Baptist Young People's Union.

The bathroom in the Teachers' Cottage was made into two. This was paid for out of the fund contributed by the Los Angeles Club for improvements in the Teachers' Cottage. At the time grading was done on the highway, we managed to have our telephone wire leading to the office put under ground.

The business office with Frances Brown's second year as bookkeeper has been well managed, accounting for all departments promptly by the calendar. One day a month the office looks like a press room while the students are using the mimeograph and getting out the Arrow News.

There were times when funds got low, but the guardian angel or the Pi Phi spirit appeared just in time by the route of the Settlement School Treasurer. We were very happy when informed that Lillian Holton would continue as Chairman of the Settlement School Committee another year.

I want to thank the Committee for its ever thoughtful attention to our needs, Grand Council for its help at all times, and all Pi Phis for their faithful support through another year.

VOCATIONAL AGRICULTURE TEACHER

All Day Classes

THIS year's enrollment in this group reached the number of thirty-seven high school boys. Two classes were taught to the boys in vocational agriculture. One of these classes consisted of twenty-one freshman boys and the other was made up of sixteen sophomore and junior boys. We had planned to teach three units in vocational agriculture, but due to the lack of students for this class, we had to combine the second and third year boys. It is expected that next year we will be able to offer a third class in vocational agriculture. This year we had twenty-seven of the thirty-seven beginning boys complete the entire school year. These twenty-seven boys are at present carrying on very complete supervised farming programs.

Evening School Classes

Two night schools were conducted in two rural communities for those men who are established in the business of farming. One of these evening schools was held in the Laurel Grove community, which is located seventeen miles from the Settlement School. The other evening school class was held at the Laurel Lick community school house, which is located eleven miles from here. I had one class meeting in each community every week. These meetings numbered fourteen in the Laurel Lick community and twelve in the Laurel Grove district. The night school classes were held in the late fall and winter months. This time was chosen because the farmers have more leisure time at that season than at any other time of year. The course of study used in each community was somewhat different because this was my second year of teaching evening school classes in the Laurel Grove community. The courses were based on soil conservation, feeding problems, and breeding of livestock. This part of my school work I consider very interesting. In these groups lots of interest was shown and farmers are now using some of the improved practices they have learned of in our discussions. Each of these communities has expressed a desire to have these classes continued next winter.

Day Unit Classes

This year for the first time the State Department of Education has asked the agriculture teachers to work with the rural elementary school teachers in getting teaching material for the elementary student to study in order that he or she may determine more easily what occupation to decide upon so that upon entering high school, subjects may be selected accordingly. This work I have done in the two rural communities. The teaching of agriculture to students in the elementary schools as a subject, has been practically eliminated by the State Department of Education.

Part-Time Classes

This year one class is being taught to such a group at Camp Morgan, the CCC camp which is located five miles away from the school. One class is taught every Wednesday night. The course is based on vegetable gardening and poultry. The boys each have small gardens and as a group they have produced one hundred fifty-eight pullets and cockerels. The enrollment in this class has been from twenty-four to thirty boys who formerly lived on farms. These boys are mostly Sevier County boys. One of them was a student of mine who dropped out of our school a year ago.

The F.F.A. Chapter

The Future Farmer chapter has just completed what we think of as being a very successful year. The interest has been high in this organization and the boys have been able to do things through cooperation. We have taken part in the following outside activities of the school:

1. Showing dairy cattle at County Fair.
2. Exhibiting farm products, farm shop work, and poultry at the County Fair.
3. Sponsored F.F.A. and home economics socials.
4. Livestock and dairy cattle judging contest at the University of Tennessee. (Pi Phi placed fifth in livestock judging among sixty-eight chapters, and twentieth in dairy cattle judging.)
5. Sponsored Parent and Son banquet.
6. Public speaking contest at the university.
7. F.F.A. baseball and basketball teams. (Our Future Farmer basketball team won the Fifth district championship. Fifth district consisting of eleven counties.)
8. Presentation of the F.F.T. cup to the best all-round high school girl.
9. Two new boys are making plans to enter hybrid seed corn production.
10. We have rented one acre of land in which we are growing Irish potatoes. The work thus far is being done by the boys.
11. "The Endless Pig Chain," a method which we hope will improve the breeding stock of our surrounding communities.
12. Four high school boys and I attended the State Convention of Future Farmers of America of the Tennessee Association held at Nashville on April 28, 29, and 30.

The School Farm

This year we had eight boys in the dormitory who did the work on the farm and janitor work in the school houses. Six of these boys took vocational agriculture. Those boys who selected agriculture as one of their courses were given work on the farm and the others were given the janitor work. The farm boys were given charge of the enterprise which they liked, such as dairy cattle, hogs or poultry. In this respect the school farm is very valuable for teaching purposes. This seemed to work very successfully in that the boys like their jobs and, naturally, do better work. Last fall our Jerseys, poultry, hogs, and farm products exhibiting at the Fair all placed well. We made $12.00 above expenses on our Jerseys and won Grand Championship again with one of them.

This year we have increased our laying flock and decreased our broilers. We have 120 layers and 800 broilers. Eggs were incubated to produce this year's pullets for replacements of culls in the laying flock next fall.

Ten of our pigs were fed to market weight on corn, tankage, and pasture. Two of these hogs were slaughtered by classes, used as class demonstration and then sold to our kitchen.

As to the financial standing of the farm I present the following data:

| Date | Sold to Kitchen | Farm Expense | Farm Receipts |
|--------------|-----------------|--------------|---------------|
| July | $ 201.20 | $ 347.37 | $125.68 |
| August | 189.83 | 181.08 | 27.48 |
| Sept. | 163.37 | 140.81 | 48.99 |
| Oct. | 160.65 | 125.31 | 72.25 |
| Nov. | 151.14 | 112.58 | 23.75 |
| Dec. | 115.50 | 136.38 | 19.30 |
| Jan. | 151.40 | 200.56 | 90.32 |
| Feb. | 159.72 | 251.05 | 11.10 |

|-------------|------------|------------|----------|
| March | 151.54 | 270.81 | 43.56 |
| April | 126.60 | 215.25 | 146.80 |
| Totals .. | $1,570.95 | $1,981.20 | $609.23 |

Sold to kitchen plus cash income: $2,180.18.

Total income less the expense: $199.98.

Respectfully submitted,

RECOMMENDATIONS AND SUGGESTIONS FOR NEXT YEAR

1. Naturally, my interest is in my department and I would like to see farm boys living in our dormitory.
2. It is an absolute necessity that we have a mowing machine and there is very definite need for a disc harrow.
3. There is a need for a cheap work shop for agriculture boys, to provide sufficient space.
4. I merely suggest that the barn and farm buildings be painted this year, if possible.

WILLIAM COE

PRINCIPAL'S ANNUAL REPORT

ON THE opening day of school last fall one boy entered the building, looked around for a minute and exclaimed, "My, this place has certainly had its face lifted. You would have to be awfully dumb not to be able to learn here now." This seemed to be the general opinion of most of the students.

The new wing connecting the high school building with the weaving building had just been completed. This, with the many other changes, made the place look entirely different. The new wing with its knotty white pine walls, white ceilings, and large windows, houses the home economics and laboratories. A general rearrangement of the whole building was made to use the space to better advantage. A portion of the large room now used as an agriculture class room was cut off to make two very badly needed storerooms. One of these is the science storeroom and the other for general storage. A new storeroom for the gymnasium solved the problem of storing the chairs and benches during basketball season. A new extension to the stage was built in the form of three tables which were bolted together. One partition was removed to make an office for Mr. Price and another to enlarge a classroom. Part of the open court between the gymnasium and the side wings was converted into toilets for the grade school. The entire interior of the high school was painted a light cream, which helped the lighting wonderfully.

A great deal of new equipment was purchased, including one hundred metal auditorium chairs, sixty library and classroom chairs, ten combination science and classroom tables, eight library tables, and one teacher's desk. A class of graduate students at the University of Tennessee made a study of our home economics needs as a class project. They made out a detailed list of the needed equipment with the cost and where it could be obtained.

This made the job of selecting and buying the new equipment a much easier task.

Teaching Staff

The high school teaching staff was composed of William King, principal, history and science; W. S. Coe, vocational agriculture; Rosalie Ellis, vocational home economics; Ben Fleming, science and mathematics; and Marian Ryan, English, history, and library. Miss Ryan was the only new member of the staff, and she proved to be one of the best first year teachers that we have ever had. She went about her work from the beginning like a veteran. Mr. Coe and Mr. Fleming both did fine work, although Mr. Fleming was handicapped by bad health this year. Miss Ellis seemed like a different person altogether this year. She seemed so proud of her new department, took so much more interest in her work, and showed a general all-round improvement. The group meetings of the vocational home economics teachers seemed to inspire her to greater efforts.

Curriculum Changes

Vocational home economics was substituted for non-vocational home economics and French was dropped from the course of study this year. A third year course in agriculture was offered, but when only four third year boys elected to take it they were combined with the second year class. The freshman class had to be divided into sections because of its size. This added three classes to the schedule.

Testing and Guidance

A standard testing program was started with the first year group this year. A standard intelligence test was given the first week of school, and this was followed by an achievement test. These tests were repeated near the end of school to check their accuracy and to measure the progress during the school year, and for comparison with other schools. It is hoped that as more elective subjects are put into the curriculum, a worthwhile guidance program can be set up. A follow-up program for the high school graduates is taking shape with the idea of giving advice and encouragement to graduates. (Of the fourteen graduates last year, six entered college, three finished the first year, three were married, one entered nurses' training, two entered business schools, and three are employed in hotel work.)

Extracurricular Activities

Due to poor health Mr. Fleming was unable to coach basketball this year. From a standpoint of games won and lost the basketball season was not as successful as for the past few years, but nearly every boy in high school played on one of the three teams sponsored by the school. The Future Farmers team won the district basketball tournament.

The F.F.A. and Home Economics Clubs were especially active this year. They gave numerous parties and chapel programs, and the F.F.A. gave a Father and Son banquet with about forty parents present.

The junior class gave the play "Murdered Alive" last fall and the seniors gave the comedy "Crashing Society" in April. Miss Ryan coached both of these plays and showed much artistry in stage setting and decoration.

The glee club held regular meetings and under the direction of Miss Ryan and Miss Pack furnished the music for the commencement programs.

Commencement

Rev. Charles Palmer, pastor of the Gatlinburg Methodist Church, preached the baccalaureate sermon, and Dr. A. M. Philips delivered the commencement address. Nine seniors received diplomas.

THE HOME ECONOMICS DEPARTMENT

THIS year we were very fortunate in being able to move into a new home economics department. The new addition connects the high school with the weaving building and has been designed to fit in with the architecture of the other two buildings.

The finishing of the interior was under the supervision of Miss Jessie Harris, Dean of Home Economics at the University of Tennessee. Under her direction equipment was purchased which would be in keeping with the surroundings here in Gatlinburg.

There is one large room which is used for clothing and recitation classes. Connecting this are five unit kitchens, each equipped with built-in cabinets, sink, work table, and stove. The walls are of knotty pine, and excellent lighting facility is afforded by large expanses of windows which begin at the ceiling and go to within a few feet of the floor. Arrow Craft did its part by contributing gaily-colored handwoven curtains, which were especially designed by Miss Redding and made by the sophomore home economics class. In these surroundings is it any wonder that our year has been a most happy and successful one?

In the first year home economics class twenty-seven girls were enrolled. These girls were instructed in personal grooming, the fundamentals of clothing, planning and serving breakfast and lunch, child care, and selection and care of furnishing for the home. The girls made smocks, pajamas, and simple cotton dresses in class. After they completed the study of breakfast and lunch, they served meals to members of the faculty.

In the second year class there was an enrollment of eighteen girls. These girls spent the first two weeks in finishing the chairs for the new department. This gave them practical experience and at the same time helped to complete decoration of the new department. These girls were instructed in food preservation, making of a wool and a silk dress; planning, preparation, and serving dinners; and budgets. Miss Redding gave the class a six weeks' course in weaving. She taught the girls how to set up a loom and the fundamentals of weaving.

The home economics girls gave a Christmas dinner for all members of the staff. The sophomore class planned, prepared, and served the dinner, while the freshman girls made the decorations and provided the entertainment. This spring the girls prepared and served a banquet for the F.F.A. boys and their parents. This was given in the new science laboratory because of its convenience to the kitchen.

Because of our new department and equipment we are now able to have vocational home economics. The girls have projects which are done in the home under the supervision of the teacher. The girls derive much practical experience from them. Keen interest was shown by the girls in all their project work.

The Home Economics Club had fifty members. The club belongs to the State and National Home Economics Student Club Association. During the year it gave four parties for the F.F.A. boys. Two style shows were given by the girls in assembly.

Besides the home economics class, I taught general science, one eight weeks' course of adult teaching, planned the school lunches, and supervised the girls with home projects.

HOUSE MANAGER

SCHOOL started a little late this year, as the new building was not finished in time for the students, and I was still later, owing to a marriage in the family.

I found things going very smoothly, thanks to Mrs. Weaver, with the able assistance of Bess McCarter and Belle Lowe.

Our cooks have changed several times during the year, Bess McCarter leaving for a better position, Mrs. Phillips taking her place until the first of April, when Lura Hurst took Mrs. Phillips' place.

We had eight boys and seven girls till the first of November, when another girl came to us, making sixteen students to care for.

The boys and girls made good grades and on the whole have been very happy.

As to my work—I have given them three meals a day; some they have praised and some they have not approved of as to their variety. I have made sheets, pillow cases, aprons, dish towels, and curtains, and have mended endlessly those that were here.

WEAVING DEPARTMENT

THE weaving department has been running along on about the same schedule and general plan as in the past three years. It has proven to be a satisfactory and workable system for the number of weavers we employ and amount of weaving they can do. The weavers have become so expert in the handling of their looms that rather than encourage them to rush their work, we now have to limit the time in which they can have warps to three weeks, as the minimum time for each one. In the past year we have added no new weavers, but two new necktie makers. The necktie business has grown to be one of our most important and one of our all year round items. Four weavers and seven sewers are kept busy nearly all the time on this one thing.

Since this is not convention year, we have had a lessened weaving program for this spring. With the tourist competition provided by the World's Fairs, I have proceeded cautiously in weaving up a large supply for the summer trade. As is always true, from a production standpoint, it is almost impossible to predict just how much stock to make, which colors will be in demand six months after the articles are made, and how large the stock should be to provide adequately for a business that is approximately 50% consignment. From my observations over a period of years, it is necessary to weave at least 33% extra to carry on a consignment business than we would for an entirely cash business.

The six weeks' course in weaving that was given to the sophomore girls as a part of their home economics class had its good and bad points. It gave us an opportunity to say that we were teaching weaving in the high school. With a few exceptions the girls were interested in the work, but I felt that the lasting benefit they derived from it was practically nothing. The time was so short that by the time they made a warp and set up the looms they were able to weave only two small pieces. When we gave them an opportunity to come in and do more weaving, only a few of them came. Two girls failed to finish from lack of interest.

From my own personal standpoint in relation to my Arrow Craft work, I found that it delayed my spring work of starting new projects. This was not such a serious set-back this particular year due to our reduced weaving program. In convention year it would work a real hardship on us.

Because there were eighteen girls in the class, we divided them into groups of twos to set up the looms, then each group of nine had their weaving on the nine looms. This meant that instead of running the class six weeks, we had it nine weeks. A larger class would make it run correspondingly longer, unless we have more looms.

My recommendations for another year would be to have the weaving an elective subject in the junior and senior years with a minimum of half a school year required. If we have an arts and crafts set-up, either that instructor or the home economics teacher could take over the class. I would be willing to act in a supervisory capacity.

I would also recommend that the ceilings of the weaving building be painted white and that the lights be increased and inverted.

ARROW CRAFT

ARROW CRAFT SHOP has gone along with hardly a ripple the past year. There has been no change in personnel, only very minor repairs, and a goodly amount of business.

Within the month, as the number of visitors warrant, one more girl will be put on for the summer. That will allow us to keep the main shop open in the evenings and give Miss Georgia some assistance in the Hotel Shop. One of this year's graduates has been chosen for that job, Glenna Reagan. She had the highest average in her class and wants to go on to school next year.

Edna McCarter and Ava Clabo have been invaluable during the past year. The public likes them and they were untiring all through shipping.

The stone fence in front of Arrow Craft had to be taken down for the new highway. This highway is on a lower level than the old so three stone steps make it easier for the approaching customer. The roof of the old part of the building was painted an unobtrusive gray to tone in better with the rest of the roof. Some removable cupboards and shelves have taken the place of the rough open shelves in the basket room nearest the highway. That helps the looks of that room as well as being a better protection for the stock.

There are to be new price tags and stickers to go out with the Fall things. They are to cost less and will be an improvement I hope. Also there is to be a woven label to sew into the neckties.

Figures are usually boresome but I think these are very interesting and should prove that Arrow Craft has not stood still but has forged ahead considerably in the past four years.

My first report for 1934-35, which includes the first six months of my work with Arrow Craft, states that we did business with 97 clubs, 15 shops, and 2 active chapters. This year there were 121 clubs, 35 shops, and 13 active chapters. That year we made a profit of $2,992.04. The profit at the present date of the current year is $10,855.91, and with two more months yet to go in the fiscal year the figure should reach four times that of the 1934-35 profit.

The inventories have naturally crept up also but not in so large a ratio. The Hotel Shop was $597.07 in 1935 and $908.56 this April 30; the Weaving Supplies $2,928.53 and now $5,273.64; and Arrow Craft $13,536.76 against $6,874.06 in 1935, not quite double.

The ratio of Club Sales to those from other sources still remains about half and half. But you will remember that it was 75% Club Sales in 1935. The most interesting cash sale of the year just past was for over $600 for curtains for the bedrooms of the Mountain View Hotel. The most outstanding Club Sale was by Mrs. Williams of Portland, Oregon. One hundred and ninety-two of our Whig Rose doilies are to be used in the nicest tea room in that city.

The first year that Southern Highlanders, Inc., came into existence we sold them $724.58. So far this year it has amounted to $1,942.24. That same year, 1935-36, Allanstand bought $331.53. This year it is already $1,748.63. Since we have given them 25% discount the same as Southern Highlanders, Inc., they pay cash in ten days. Southern Highlanders does the same and no longer takes things on consignment.

Spring vacationers were along as usual. There may not have been so many this year but they were very kind to us with their purchases. With two Fairs going on we can only hope that there will not be too great a difference in the amount of our summer sales.

PI BETA PHI SETTLEMENT SCHOOL—REPORT ON AUDIT OF TREASURER'S ACCOUNTS YEAR ENDED JUNE 30, 1939

August 30, 1939

To the Settlement School Committee,
Pi Beta Phi Fraternity,
Office of Settlements School Treasurer,
Milwaukee, Wisconsin

DEAR MESDAMES:

We have examined the records maintained by the treasurer of your committee for the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1939. With the data drawn from these records we have combined the report prepared by Homer K. Jones and Company, public accountants, from the books kept for the school and its Arrow Craft Shop, at Gatlinburg, Tennessee, and we submit herewith the resulting attached statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheet and related statements of income and surplus present fairly the financial position of the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School at June 30, 1939 and the income and expenses for the fiscal year, subject to the extent of our own verification, which as indicated above did not include the Gatlinburg records.

We examined and tested the income from club and chapter contributions which are shown in detail in Schedule 3-a and from magazine agencies and we found adequate support and authorization for the expenditures made directly by the treasurer. The cash balances at Milwaukee were verified by us. The endowment securities and cash were certified to by the Harris Trust and Savings Bank of Chicago, Trustees for the endowment funds, and this Trustees' report was accepted without further verification except that we proved the accounting made of security changes and income from securities.

COMMENTS

Cash Balances—$24,374.78

The cash balances at June 30, 1939 consisted of the following:

Milwaukee Accounts:

|--|-------------|
| First Wisconsin National Bank— Treasurer's general checking account | $ 6,713.83 |
| First Wisconsin National Bank— Treasurer's savings account | 1,019.67 |
| Gatlinburg—School Accounts: | |
| Sevier County Bank—General checking account | 18.55 |
| Sevier County Bank—House account. | 268.70 |
| Gatlinburg—Arrow Craft Accounts: | |
| Sevier County Bank—General Checking account | 2,059.51 |
| Bank of Sevierville—Savings account | 4,000.00 |
| Hamilton National Bank—Savings account | 5,214.52 |
| Morris Plan Bank—Savings account | 5,025.00 |
| Petty Cash Funds—Gatlinburg | 55.00 |
| Total | $24,374.78 |

Accounts Receivable—$5,377.45

The accounts receivable arising from Arrow Craft sales were listed in detail in the report of Homer K. Jones and Company; it appeared that they consisted principally of alumnae club balances and were considered by your employees to be generally collectible. Accounts of $516.04 were charged off as bad debts during the year under review.

Inventories—$21,939.95

The inventories at Gatlinburg, which we did not verify, totaled $21,939.95 as compared to $22,602.83 at the close of the previous year. The inventory apparently consists to a great extent of finished stock, the supplies and materials amounting to $4,844.53.

Fixed Assets

During the year under review additions of $7,041.32 were made to the school and Arrow Craft plants. These additions are shown in Schedule 2, the largest item being the laboratory addition to the school house upon which $5,515.34 was expended bringing the total cost of the addition to $5,685.34. The special building fund created in 1938 for this purpose was used to pay for this construction.

A stoker was purchased at a cost of $485.00 and, as shown in Exhibit "C," contributions of $314.00 were received toward this specific expenditure. The balance of equipment and remodeling expenditures were made from current income.

Depreciation charged off on the books and included in expenses amounted to $2,746.45.

Income and Expenses

Income of the Settlement School proper exceeded expenses for the year 1938-1939 by $1,503.53. The operating expenses included depreciation of $2,746.45 mentioned above but not expenditures for new equipment and building additions which were capitalized in the asset accounts. A considerable portion of the depreciation is attributable to the Arrow Craft plant. This net income of $1,503.53 was $4,135.73 less than the corresponding amount for 1937-1938 as shown in Exhibit "C" but this difference was attributable almost entirely to the special contributions such as the Beta Alumnae Fund, cook-book fund, and other bequests received in the prior year.

The Arrow Craft Shop earned a net income of $8,879.45 for the year over all expenses, including losses on bank accounts and bad debts of $1,967.99, as shown in Exhibit "D." Before deduction of these special losses the net income of $10,847.44 showed a gain of $1,701.17 over the previous year.

The combined net income of the School and Arrow Craft Shop amounted to $10,382.98 of which $1,578.64, representing three-fourths of active chapter contributions, was appropriated to the endowment fund leaving $8,804.34 added to general surplus.

Endowment Funds

The endowment fund was augmented by the appropriation of $1,578.64 mentioned above but was decreased by a net loss on sale of bonds of $40.00 so that required endowment balance showed the net increase of $1,538.64 to a total of $42,771.25. This balance is represented by cash and securities of $37,174.39 plus a debt of $5,596.86 due from current operating funds.

This temporary debt to the endowment fund was reduced by $3,500.00 during the year 1938-1939. Transfers from current funds of this amount were made to the endowment trustees, $1,000.00 being remitted from the Treasurer's general funds and $2,500.00 from the Arrow Craft funds.

Respectfully submitted,

Reports of Chairmen of National Committees

COMMITTEE ON EXTENSION

THE Committee on Extension wishes, first of all, to congratulate our newest chapter at the University of Georgia, and to tell them how proud we are of the remarkable showing they have made in this, their first year.

Perhaps the establishment of our new chapter in the South has been an important factor in the interest shown from Texas this year. I might say that has been the most interesting, or interested, field we have contacted during the past few months, and Evelyn Howe has done some very fine work in that locality. Baylor University, in which the Fraternity has been interested for some time, has been one of the places investigated. Texas Technological College, which is reported to have the third highest enrollment of all Texas universities and colleges, seems to have very fine possibilities; but the fact that fraternities (national) have not yet been sanctioned by the authorities, makes it rather difficult for us to go further at this time. The committee would greatly appreciate any help from Pi Phi living in the locality of Lubbock. West Texas State College found, after some active correspondence with us, that the administration definitely would not sanction national fraternities at present.

We have corresponded with seventeen groups this year, but nothing very definite has developed from any center. I feel that with Convention on the calendar for next year some of these groups will become more active in working toward something definite.

Inquiries have come to us regarding our policy of extension from: West Texas State College; Bowling Green University, Ohio; Marietta, Ohio; Texas Technological College; Vanderbilt University (which seems to have good possibilities); Whitman College in Washington, and Lawrence College.

We are still very much interested in Baylor University, University of British Columbia, Buffalo University, Kansas City University, Lake Forest University, Louisiana Polytechnic Institute, McGill University, New Mexico, Storrs, Connecticut, University of Tennessee, and Willamette University in Oregon. Overcrowded conditions with too many groups already on the campus, too many chapters in a particular section, or the fact that the administration of some institutions have not seen fit to permit national groups to be established, still seem to be our principal difficulties in extension.

The committee will very greatly appreciate any assistance which may come to it from interested members of the Fraternity, and for the help which has been given this year, your chairman gratefully acknowledges her appreciation.

Respectfully submitted,
ISLA MCCAIN DONERT

COMMITTEE ON SCHOLARSHIP

AS USUAL actual results of this year's work will not be known until next fall; but the feeling of the Committee is that this has been a most successful year. The supervisors have kept in close touch with the chapters, making many valuable suggestions for improvement and the chapters have cooperated excellently.

The Committee believes that the two changes in functioning, endorsed by Grand Council last year, have had much to do with improving the cooperation. They are:

1. The appointment of an assistant scholarship chairman in each chapter with the requirement that either the chairman or the assistant chairman retain the position the following term.

2. The appointment of one supervisor for Alpha Province East and another for Alpha Province West.

The same number of chapters stand first this year as last, eleven. Thirty-five chapters stand in the upper third and six provinces have a general average of 26.6 or better, well in the upper third. The provinces are Delta, Epsilon, Zeta, Eta, Theta, and Lambda. Lists of the chapters are attached.

Eleven chapters have shown great improvement during this winter over their grades for the year 1937-38. They are:

Vermont A
Vermont B
New York F
Pennsylvania B
South Carolina A Michigan A

Kentucky A
Oregon A
Nevada A

The supervisors have done an unusually good job this year. With a few exceptions they have written regularly each month to the chapters, and have made many fine suggestions. Some of the methods suggested for improving scholarship are study cards, competitions, awards, charts, individual conferences, mother's teas, date restrictions, and reports on cuts. The Fraternity is fortunate in having so many women able and willing to help the chapters with this problem.

"Honors" were reported in the February ARROW. It is regretted that these were not as complete as they should have been. The chapters seem to have thought only senior honors should be reported and failed to send in the names of some juniors making Φ B K or Φ K Φ . We believe instructions are clearer for next year.

Graphs from the November reports on scholarship were published in the May ARROW, as was the Honor Roll for last spring of the members of each chapter making the greatest improvement in grades and the highest grade. The Honor Roll for the fall of 1938 will be published in the November ARROW. These Honor Rolls would be much more effective if they could be published immediately at the close of a term; but most colleges allow about six or eight weeks for making up "incompletes" and hold grades that long.

The Committee is most grateful to Grand Council for the inspiration of working with them, to the province presidents for their assistance, and to the chapter scholarship chairmen for their untiring efforts during the year.

Respectfully submitted,

MARIE BORRIES

COMMITTEE ON TRANSFERS

AGAIN the transfer committee followed the plan of placing the responsibility for reporting transfers on the girl's original chapter. In September, all corresponding secretaries received letters, including sample transfer blanks, in which they were requested to send these blanks for all their transferred members both to the new chapter and to this committee. In cases where no reply was returned, they received follow-up letters reiterating the request.

Province presidents received letters, also, in September asking them to pay special attention to transfers during their chapter visits and to check on the fulfillment of chapter obligations in this respect. Advisory board members were asked to cooperate in handling transfers and in helping chapters to understand their responsibility for them. Letters were sent also to the transfers themselves explaining: what they may expect of the new chapter, what the general practice is regarding affiliation, and what is expected of them in regard to the national organization and the local group.

Chapter secretaries were reminded in May of the transfer blanks to be sent in the fall, and they were asked to get as much as possible of the required information this spring in regard to contemplated school changes. Also, those chapters who failed to cooperate this year were reminded of this fact in the hope that this reminder will facilitate matters next year.

There were sixty-three transfers in thirty chapters this year as compared to fifty-seven in twenty-four chapters last year. Seven chapters failed to report as compared to fourteen last year.

Many interesting letters have come in, indicating that chapters are doing their share in making the new girls feel at home and are enjoying contacts with them. Province presidents and advisory board members, too, have helped; and the results are most gratifying.

The work has been very pleasant this year. My thanks to the Grand Secretary, the Director of Central Office, and all others who have helped so much.

Respectfully submitted,

BETTY STOVALL KING

COMMITTEE ON SOCIAL EXCHANGE

THE Committee on Social Exchange has sent out to all the active chapters during the past year, a questionnaire in an attempt to find the most advantageous times for the publication of the Bulletins of the committee. This included such items as dates for fall opening and spring closing of school, as well as dates for formal Rushing and Homecoming. Through use of this information we hope to increase the value of the Bulletins.

The Bulletin on Founders' Day was sent the first week in April, and the Bulletin on Rushing was sent just before the closing of school this spring for the use of the Rushing Chairman during the summer. The material for the Bulletin on Homecoming is on hand and will be published and sent out early in the fall.

May I take this opportunity to thank Miss Onken, Mrs. Purdunn and the members of this Committee for their interest and cooperation?

Respectfully submitted,

BETTY R. WOOD

COMMITTEE ON FRATERNITY MUSIC

THE last of January, letters were mailed from the Central Office to each chapter asking that a music chairman be appointed in the chapter and that the music committee be informed as to the girl's name. Up to the present time, only 31 chapters have responded to this call. It was interesting to note that the new "Symphony" was extremely popular and had been responsible for several chapters' winning first place on the campus during a college "sing." The booklets printed at the time of Convention no doubt were a great help, and I feel that the custom of printing the prize songs at Convention should be continued. Another very popular song was "Remember." The only other correspondence which the committee had was general miscellaneous letters which need not be reported on at this time. Next winter is the time for another song contest.

MARGARET KELLENBACH

COMMITTEE ON CHAPTER FINANCES, HOUSE BUILDING AND PLANS

THE advisory committee on chapter financing, house building and plans has received requests for information concerning chapter houses from five chapters this past year. One chapter, Michigan B, has sent in plans for the files.

California B, Utah A, and Kentucky A wish to remodel their present chapter house.

California F and Washington A plan to build new houses in the near future and have written for information.

The recommendations, submitted from the committee at the last convention, which were accepted by Grand Council, have been sent on to all inquiring chapters.

A sheet of valuable suggestions for chapter house building has been compiled to be sent to all chapters asking for suggestions.

The chairman of this committee is sincerely grateful for the tolerance shown her in her new undertaking, and deeply appreciates the splendid cooperation given her by the members of Grand Council and the officers of the Fraternity with whom she has corresponded.

Respectfully submitted,

DOROTHY H. THRASHER

COMMITTEE ON PUBLICITY

THE various members of the Committee on Publicity have tried to have every active chapter appoint a chairman and a vice-chairman of Publicity; and every alumnae club a chairman of Publicity and a committee.

The original plan that each committee member should contact every chapter and every club in her province has been fairly well carried out. In some provinces it has been remarkably successful; but there have been some committee members who have been hampered by ill health or family cares, one of the expected misfortunes of a committee composed of busy women. Sickness has prevented the chairman herself from doing much of the work that she had planned. We were sorry to have Mary Elizabeth White resign due to ill health.

However, a review of the year's work shows much accomplished. The committee is so new that it has had to feel its way; and the chairman has in consequence been duly grateful for both enthusiasm and criticism. Lelah Bell Davis expressed this when she wrote, "Let's not stress any more angles for awhile. We are a new committee and it takes clubs and chapters time to get used to us and our purpose."

On the other hand the letter which Mrs. Mackey sent out to her chapters and clubs was a masterpiece of enthusiasm as well as a carefully outlined plan for publicity procedure. I should like to quote it in full instead of confining myself to this brief quotation, "The tremendous growth of the influence of publicity in recent years is an amazing development. No organization, whatever its purpose, can hope to reach its greatest success without making intelligent use of this new development. To ignore it, or to rebel at what some feel to be an undue emphasis on it, is as futile as was the point of view of those who rebelled at, and resented, the locomotive, the automobile, and the airplane, like these things, publicity is 'home to stay.' Let us make the best and the most intelligent use of it in furthering the splendid objectives of $\Pi B \Phi$."

Mrs. Butterfield writes to her clubs and chapters, "I believe that this publicity program should be a strengthening factor for Pi Phi."

Mrs. Moon, "In regard to rushing publicity, I should think that the publicity that each girl might get in her home papers would contribute to the status of the Fraternity in rushing girls from those particular towns."

Mrs. Saul, "To girls looking toward careers in journalism this undertaking offers unusual opportunities to accumulate valuable experience, not only in preparing copy, but also in meeting persons actively engaged in journalistic work."

Mrs. Finsterwald, "There is always so much anti-fraternity agitation that we should see that the fine things about our own fraternity and its members be brought to the attention of the public."

Mrs. Caldwell said in answer to a question from your chairman about bringing out the value of the fraternity in developing friendship between leaders in Canada and the United States, "The Fraternity forms a strong bond between Canadian colleges and those in the U.S. Exchange of ideas along similar lines through the ARROW, friendships made at Convention, admiration for qualities in each other, all lead to lasting friendships after college."

But most cheering of all from Mrs. Caldwell comes, "Responses to publicity letters have come in very nicely."

And again from Mrs. Caldwell, "George Washington University wrote me, 'Feeling that good publicity is not only essential for the welfare of the Fraternity, but that it is an important asset in rushing, we made an appointment with the social editor of the Washington Times.'"

Since the work of the Committee is done by correspondence these quotations from letters give a picture of what the Committee is trying to do.

From the number of requests that the Committee has received for Settlement School data and cuts, all of which have been referred to Mrs. Hagee, has come the suggestion made at Alpha Province Conference that a brief account of our school should be sent out with invitations to Settlement School sales and teas.

There have been several requests from chapters for some sort of manual in publicity. This manual is at present under way, and will be brief enough to need little of the actives' time for its complete perusal.

Miss Onken has written me that Grand Council has authorized a contribution from $\Pi B \Phi$ to $\Phi B K$'s fund for the Defense of the Humanities and Intellectual Freedom. This is the best possible publicity for the Fraternity.

The chairman wishes to acknowledge her debt to those Committee members whose enthusiasm is carrying the work of the Committee along and whose ideas are an inspiration; and especially to Mrs. Ives who has been her long suffering—and always willing—and able right hand; and she wishes to express her thanks to Miss Onken who is never too busy to find time for everything that furthers the best interests of $\Pi B \Phi$.

Respectfully submitted,

MARGUERITE H. ELDER

COMMITTEE ON CHAPERONS

LAST June, this committee urged all corresponding secretaries to beware October 1 by having cards and data promptly and accurately in, so that this report could proudly announce that "100% perfect" so ardently hoped for. But that announcement seems to be like Prosperity "Just around the corner!" Corresponding secretaries, once more we hope—but we also urge and we remind you that hope long deferred does really make the heart sick.

Only nine chapters started this year with new chaperons, but three more made changes for the second semester. The new chaperons seem by experience and by education, well qualified for their position. Three are Pi Phis, making the total number nine—plus a Pi Phi mother.

This committee has profited by and enjoyed thoroughly Mrs. Finger's innovation—The Leader's Digest, a few leaves in silver-blue cover, coming to us quarterly, bringing "Paragraphs of $\Pi B \Phi$ Interest." Its aim is to acquaint committees with each other, with their work, and with their ambitions, thus uniting fraternity work and promoting fraternity friendship. Since we have stepped out in print as Leaders, may we meet our responsibilities and Lead!

Purdue for the first time offers a course, June 19-July 15, to train sorority and fraternity chaperons and youth counselors. The number of applicants grew from an expected thirty or thirty-five to more than sixty when registration had to be closed. There will be seven of our Pi Phi chaperons coming from widely separated chapters. Purdue's establishing the course, to be conducted by experienced faculty, and the quick response to it from all over the country, are indicative of interest in chaperoning as a work of great importance. It is the wish of this committee that such interest may grow and that chaperons may be to the chapter and to the house what deans are to the college.

To Grand Council for all they do at all times for this committee, I am greatly indebted and deeply grateful.

Respectfully submitted,

JESSIE LOCKETT

A New One for Rushees

Beta Theta Pi at Syracuse used a new rushing procedure this fall. Entering the house, rushees entered the library to fill out individual cards, then identification cards were pinned to their coat lapels, taken to the cloak room where a candid camera went into action.

Pictures were snapped, immediately developed and attached to the identification cards of each rushee. Later, when discussion of rushees arose, copies of the pictures were presented so that identification could be made.

Province Presidents' Reports

ALPHA PROVINCE EAST PRESIDENT

SCHOLARSHIP has been the chief point of concentration in Alpha East this year, and as a result Vermont A has moved up to first place on its campus, Vermont B now places third, and the other chapters have all raised their averages.

All chapters were visited in the fall by the province president and four of the five chapters were visited by the Grand Secretary in the early part of the second semester. It is gratifying to note the appreciation which each chapter has shown for our newest member of Grand Council and to see their response to her suggestions.

The weekly news letters from the actives to the province president were again required and in addition a monthly informal report was required from the treasurer, pledge supervisor, pledge president, and secretary of the executive council. This has furnished closer contact with the functioning details of the chapters and has made it easier to deal with any problems in their early stages.

Nova Scotia A had a transfer this year from Ontario B who was presented an award from the university girls' society for her activities during the year. Two new honors were won by the chapter—one the first time in the history of the college to a girl and the other a new contest for the college beauty queen. The chapter has maintained its room at the Lord Nelson Hotel with national assistance.

Maine A has shared half the expense of its room this year with the alumnae and the chapter continues to enjoy great alumnae interest. A Maine A senior was presented an award for all-round athletic accomplishment and one pledge was among the ten highest in the freshman class and was elected to Sophomore Eagles. President of one dormitory and of the Off-Campus group also were Pi Phi's.

Vermont A besides leading the province in scholarship has had two elections to Mortar Board and also won the province Amy Burnham Onken Award. Vermont A entertained Vermont B on Founders' Day and both chapters gain much from this joint meeting which is held annually. The "Sugaring Off Party" in the April 24 issue of Life shows the picture of two actives and a pledge of Vermont A. The chapter rooms in a Middlebury business block are spacious and attractive and the chapter gets much enjoyment from them.

Vermont B and Vermont A exchanged visits at their initiation ceremonies and banquets this year and appreciated very much this opportunity to get acquainted and to see another chapter carry out the plans for these events. From the profits of a fashion show the chapter has purchased new furniture for the living room of its house and the seniors presented the chapter with andirons for the fireplace. For the second year in succession Vermont B won the cup for the best float in the Junior Week "Peerade." The chapter has had one new election to Mortar Board among many other honors.

Massachusetts A this year had a transfer from Pennsylvania I and a graduate student from Montana A, both of whom the chapter found of great interest and enjoyment. The rooms in the Panhellenic house are attractive and the eight groups fostering this plan are experiencing much satisfaction at its success. This chapter had two outstanding honors this year—"Gamma Delta Girl" and an election to Scarlet Key.

Contributions to the Settlement School Fund were one hundred per cent and three of the five chapters contributed to the Loan Fund.

Other honors include: one Mortar Board, three beauty queens, coed major, six elected to Staff and Sandal, one to Sophomore Aids, thirteen Dean's List members, Presidents of Student Union, Y.W.C.A., W.A.A., women's editor of yearbook, II I M, junior marshal and many, many committee chairmanships.

Cooperation with the province president by the chapters, advisory committees, and national officers has been gratifying and has made the work of the past year a never ending joy.

Respectfully submitted,

HELEN SAWYER EVERETT

ALPHA PROVINCE WEST PRESIDENT

THIS second year as province president has given me a much broader and clearer understanding of my province, both the individual girls and the chapters themselves. It has been a real pleasure to work with these five chapters and to feel assured that they are making fine progress.

All of my visits were made in the fall with the exception of Ontario A which I visited in January. The deans of women, without exception, expressed admiration for the cooperation given them by II B Φ. They praised both the individual girls and the chapter as a group.

Each of the chapters of this province maintains a house and three of them own their houses. The new house at New York A has been completed and the chapter is much more conveniently located. The house is tastefully decorated and wisely planned and will accommodate all of the girls most comfortably. Ontario A rented a new house in the fall and they are now in one of the most desirable locations on the campus. Ontario B will move to new quarters this coming September.

During the spring, Mrs. Finger visited our province and all of the chapters have been most enthusiastic in their praise of her and the assistance that she gave them. She brought to each group a deeper appreciation of the Fraternity.

Rushing was very successful this year. There exist no rushing problems. Ontario A made the fine record of having initiated all of the twelve pledges this year. Three of the chapters are handicapped by quota systems and three have deferred rushing on their campuses.

Participation in activities has been very fine.

All chapters require each girl to carry at least one activity. We have, during the past year, held the highest office open to women students on two campuses, had an editor of a yearbook, Judge of Student Court; one girl had the distinction of winning the only athletic blazer given to a woman on her campus. She has earned 900 points in athletics. On another campus, a Pi Beta Phi won first place in the university swimming meet and a Pi Beta Phi pledge placed third. One chapter has the honor of claiming 5 of the 10 students who were chosen for the Honor Society of the University. The chapters have reported many elections to honorary societies this year, including some fine scholastic honors. I am sorry that limited space does not allow me to enumerate all of the many activities of the province.

All chapters have budgeted generously to the Settlement School and Loan Fund. I am pleased to say that we are 100%.

The Amy Burnham Onken Award for this province was given to Florence Dixon of Littleneck, Long Island, N.Y., a member of New York Δ.

As I complete my second year as province president, I wish to thank the chapters and their officers for the cooperation they have given and for the courtesies they have extended me throughout the year. There has been a fine spirit exemplified throughout the province. It has been a real challenge to me as an officer. I know that my five chapters join with me in expressing gratitude to Miss Onken for her help in all matters, no matter how small, and to the members of Grand Council for the inspiration and assistance that they have given throughout the year. I am grateful for this privilege of serving the Fraternity.

Respectfully submitted,
CLARA H. SIPHERD

BETA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

THIS report brings to a close three years which have been spent in close contact with the actives and many of the alumnae of Beta Province. These have been years of special privilege and of a deepening regard for the Fraternity—for its fine idealism and for its wisely planned organization. These years have deepened, too, my affection for the chapters of Beta Province, whose fine response to suggestion and loyal efforts to live up to our dreams for them have rejoiced the heart and made the more arduous days seem worthwhile. I know that we rejoice together in the gains which have been made.

Beta Province has just enjoyed its first conference, with the Columbus Alumnae Club and the Ohio B chapter as hostesses. The whole province joins me in expressing not only gratitude, but delight and praise because of the happy and rich experience which the Columbus Pi Phis has made possible. Missing Grand Council visitors to the chapters this year, we were fortunate in having Miss Onken and Mrs. Finger as honored guests on this occasion, bringing to many Pi Phis an enriched vision of their Fraternity through contact with their fine leadership. Actives of the province, who had not met her before, came to know our delightful Province Vice-President, Mrs. Johnson. We believe that the conference has meant a great deal to all of us and will bring rich returns in the years to come.

Scholarship continues to be a serious problem for every chapter and I do not feel that any chapter is lacking in concern for its standing, but some have succeeded where others have failed. Two chapters have made decided advance—Ohio B and Ohio Δ—and Pennsylvania B has the distinction of being in first place on her campus, with a leading average that was quoted by the campus news as being "imposing."

In the realm of campus activities, the chapters have made special progress in better distribution of chapter participation and in more careful study of pledge guidance. The special honors in the province have not been as spectacular as last year but the growth in general participation bodes well for the future. Five girls in the province are members elected to Mortar Board; one has been chosen as one of ten most representative women at Ohio State; two are named in the roll of Who's Who Among American College and University Women; one chapter is represented in nine honoraries on its campus by a list of twenty-one members; another has the distinction of having forty members holding offices and chairmanships in W.S.G.A.; two Pi Phis in the province have been president of Panhellenic; five have been R.O.T.C. Sponsors, one a Band Sponsor, and another Honorary Colonel of Scabbard and Blade; one pledge was the only freshman to be invited into membership in Alliance Française and into Quill Club; three province girls were princesses in the State Forest Festival, one was Makio Queen, two were Silver Mirror Queens; Pi Phi is represented strongly in dramatics on every campus; first place in Homecoming decorations was won by two chapters, another won first place with their Fun Fest Skit, and a pledge group won first place in an inter-sorority song contest, while the actives won second place. The roll of chapter honors is too long to continue here but each chapter has some claim to distinction and some have made excellent records both in individual honors and in group loyalty.

Rushing was especially successful this year. Several of these pledge groups have had members who have distinguished themselves and honored their chapter during the year. On one campus the pledges lead in scholarship by a wide margin and received comment from the campus paper.

Various chapters in the province continue to maintain their fine support of fraternity projects, records of which are not all in at this time. Both Pennsylvania chapters have a traditional dance for the benefit of the Settlement School, and Ohio B has an established gift of $69.00. The mid-year report declared Pennsylvania B as leading all active chapters in commissions from the Magazine Agency and Ohio A in fifth place. Every chapter has been loyal in maintaining its correspondence schedule, some more than others, and many individual letters have been a joy to the province president. Pledge Supervisors, Pledge Presidents, Rush Chairmen, Activity Chairmen, Scholarship Chairmen, and many others, including a complete list of faithful chapter presidents, have brought the life and accomplishments and problems of their chapters before me. To every one of these I am most grateful.

It is my privilege to bear tribute to three groups of women whose contacts with the girls are very important. Those who work most closely are the chaperons of which we have four; the three Mrs. Smiths direct the homes of Ohio A, Ohio Δ, and West Virginia A and Miss Hazel Hart, has substituted for Mrs. Clarke in her absence, during the whole school year, from Ohio B. We are deeply grateful to her for stepping so satisfactorily into the breach left by one of our finest house-mothers. And we are grateful, too, to each one of the others for every moment of thoughtful and loyal service which has been given to the care and guidance of our chapters. Another group of women who mean much to the chapters is that one bound by the deep ties of the Fraternity, the alumnae, whose service to the chapters is most often unheralded and sometimes not entirely easy, but always valuable as it lies in a loyal concern for the chapter's welfare. The third group is more detached than these because of responsibilities which bind them to many but also very vital, through the important influence which they have upon the girls because of their place in the scheme of student life and because of the wealth of understanding which they have to contribute. These are the Deans of Women and for their supervision we are also deeply grateful. We have noted many ways in which they have wisely guided Pi Phi girls by their constructive criticism and commendation.

One chapter in the province has enjoyed the privilege of a new home this year—West Virginia A. Their house is a beautiful, white-pillared structure, facing the campus, whose rooms are spacious and inviting. Ohio B has ended its second year in a beautiful new home and Ohio A its third in a house which they rent but which was carefully remodelled and furnished for their needs and which is most attractive. Pennsylvania B continues to use a dormitory suite which was redecorated last summer and is very lovely. Pennsylvania Γ and Ohio Δ are in second floor apartments in quaint old houses, and have taken pride in the attractiveness of their decoration and furnishing.

As the year closes, may I express once again my thanks to the Pi Phis of Beta Province for every courtesy extended to me and for the loyal cooperation which has made my work with you such a joy. Every gain you have made, every loyal service you have rendered, and every gracious thing you have done, has not only made my heart glad but has enhanced the structure of the Fraternity in the place where you are the builders. It is with heartfelt thanks that we, the chapters and the president of Beta Province, acknowledge the inspiration and help which we have received from Miss Onken and from the other members of Grand Council, and from many faithful fraternity chairman. If we have succeeded in any way, it is because we could not betray your trust.

Respectfully submitted,

LUCILE DOUGLASS CARSON

GAMMA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

THIS, my last official letter of the year 1938-39, rounds up a whole host of memories of a most exciting and pleasant nine months, and I am impressed with the certainty that I shall be lonesome this summer without constant word from my chapters. They have been so loyal in every way and so earnest in their desires for the best in all things that I feel that Gamma Province is united for the first time in several years and ready to cash in on its potential strength.

The year drew ideally to its end with the Gamma Province Conference, held in Washington, D.C. April 28 and 29. Two hundred and fifty-seven actives and alumnae attended, some of the chapters coming in chartered busses. One group from North Carolina A arrived in the chapter car, an ancient contraption which goes by the name of "Barkis"—willing but very slow about it.

The conference was beautifully planned by the competent Washington Alumnae Club, and it was a gala occasion because it not only celebrated the founding of our national fraternity but also the fiftieth anniversary of D.C. A, the local chapter. The honored guests included Ruth Barrett Smith, Adèle Taylor Alford, Marianne Reid Wild, Dr. May L. Keller, and Dr. Marv B. Harris. A formal banquet and dance at the Washington Hotel the last night of the conference left everyone reluctant to call it ended.

Only two of Gamma Province chapters, Virginia Γ and North Carolina A, have houses. Virginia A owns a lodge on college property, and the other chapters have apartments. Next fall South Carolina A will move into the new Panhellenic House.

Rushing was completely successful in almost every case last fall, and present active membership in the chapters ranges from 23 in the smallest to 52 in the largest. Maryland A has the distinction of initiating every one of its pledges for the second consecutive year, and North Carolina A will probably follow its example by the time grades are out in June.

Each chapter this year has had a functioning advisory committee which is the first time that has happened in several years because two of the college towns have so few alumnae. Great credit should go to these committees who have served so faithfully and helpfully. One alumnae group has adopted "little sisters" from the active chapter and pledge class and has had lots of fun getting really acquainted with them.

Conferences with the deans of women during my official visits were most interesting. On several campuses the deans are not in sympathy with fraternities and know the chapters only by the individual girls. Pi Phis were well spoken of in these cases and never did I hear that either chapters or individuals failed to cooperate in any way. On the contrary, I received the impression that administrations always depended on Pi Phis.

Gamma Province cannot brag about its scholarship this year, though we have tried every method known for raising averages. It is unfortunate that this report must be written before June averages are out because we hope then to have a different story to tell. D.C. A has made the most improvement this year, raising its position from 8th to 3rd place at mid-year.

The province's most noted improvement this year has been in extracurricular activities, and all chapters without exception have put themselves into the lime-light on their campuses through the achievements of individual members. There are 22 presidents of important organizations, 8 vice-presidents, and 18 secretaries and treasurers. There are 4 editors or associate editors of college papers or annuals.

Gamma Province has only one Φ B K this year, but has 5 members in Mortar Board, 5 in A K G, and 2 in Who's Who in American Colleges. One active won a scholarship for graduate work in the Fletcher School of Law. In the lighter vein, the province had one May Queen and several attendants in the different May Day courts, also a great many dance sponsors and leads in various dramatic productions.

The Province President's visits were made during October and November, and then in April the chapters were fortunate to have Grand Council visits from Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Alford.

Respectfully submitted,
ROSEMARY MOOREHEAD BARNWELL

DELTA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

THE most important event, during the 1938-39 year, was the Delta Province Conference. This conference was sponsored by the Fort Wayne Alumnae Club and held in Fort Wayne, Indiana, March 31-April 1, 1939. Mrs. Edwin Lee Holton, National Settlement School Chairman, was the guest of honor. Indiana B chapter, assisted by the other five chapters in the province, conducted the model initiation for Lynne Wainwright from Philadelphia, formerly of Fort Wayne and member of the Louisiana B petitioning group. Edythe Cale Thornton, Indiana B, from Fort Wayne, was awarded the Amy Burnham Onken Province Award. Each of the active chapters was well represented at the conference, and all the girls felt that they had gained much by their attendance.

I was very happy to make my official visits to the six chapters before Christmas. New as I was in the office, it was a great help to me to know the personnel of my chapters, their officers, and the alumnae advisory committees, so early in the school year.

The Deans of Women were complimentary to our chapters. Each Dean of Women mentioned one or more of our girls that were outstanding leaders on the campus.

In almost every case the cooperation of the alumnae advisory committees has been very good. Their work, with the respective chapters, has been inestimable.

I was pleased to find such charming women as chaperons. They seem to be genuinely interested in helping the girls.

All the chapters have been working hard to improve their scholastic standing. Two chapters, Indiana B and Indiana A, were first in scholarship for the first semester this year. If all the chapters keep their present attitude toward grades, I am sure that next year I can boast of more than two chapters that are first in scholarship.

All the chapters, except Michigan A and Indiana A, have some form of the quota system. Of course, this makes rushing more difficult and many new problems arise.

The chapters are well represented in extracurricular activities. Probably only one or two chapters need to stress this particular phase of campus life more.

I am very happy to report that our province is one hundred per cent in contributions to our two national projects, the Settlement School, and the Loan Fund. Four of the chapters had unpaid pledges to the Endowment Fund and these were paid in full.

We are very fortunate in Delta Province to have the girls so beautifully housed. Indiana B and Indiana G have practically new houses; Michigan B added a new wing just before school started last fall; Indiana A moved into a beautiful new house this past semester; the house in which the Michigan Alpha girls live is owned by the college and it has very recently been remodeled; and the Indiana A chapter is comfortably situated in a suite of rooms in the dormitory.

I want to thank all those that have assisted me in any way. I especially want to thank Miss Onken for her constant help and inspiration. Because of such cooperation, the office of Delta Province President has been an enjoyable experience—I am deeply grateful.

Respectfully submitted,
GERTRUDE DEER OWENS

EPSILON PROVINCE PRESIDENT

THOUGHTS of that marvelous Convention in Asheville last summer proved to be a great source of inspiration throughout the year. A province president's work is much easier after she has met the Arrow wearers who make up our superb Grand Council. Knowing the girls in the various chapters, too, has made my work so much more enjoyable. Perhaps I am prejudiced, but I feel sure the Epsilon girls are the finest anywhere.

Their scholarship records have made me very proud. Missouri A which ranked first last year, placed second for the first semester this year and was ten points above third place, a record worth emulating. Their ranking is still first for the last two semesters in spite of the fact that they were second last semester. Kentucky A was first on their campus the last semester last year and was first on their campus last semester. They won the scholarship cup. They were also above the campus average scholastically, a feat achieved by no other Greek letter group on campus. Missouri B girls really studied, because they brought their average up from seventh to third. Missouri Γ and Tennessee A have somewhat lower scholastic averages than last year.

Epsilon Province chapters have led their campuses in honors. I will mention only the most important extracurricular activities. Missouri A has three members on Mortar Board, secretary-treasurer of the Journalism school, three Σ Ε Σ members, 1 Who's Who, 1 Savittar Queen, 1 Freshman Commission member, Student Debate manager, Farmer's Fair Queen, winner of Sorority Horse show, vice-president of W.S.G.A., head of Judiciary Board, president of Senior Women, and secretary of Workshop. Missouri B has assistant business manager of Eliot, associate editor of Hatchet, treasurer of Freshman Commission, Hatchet Queen and one maid, president of Terion, president of Φ Ξ Ι, vice-president of Campus Y., May Fête chairman, vice-president of Quad Club, Ideal Campus Co-ed, Orientation chairman, vice-president of W.S.G.A., treasurer of W.A.A., and they won three athletic cups this year, tennis, badminton, and swimming. Missouri Γ has Y.W. president, 1 Who's Who, W.A.A. president, Panhellenic president, co-editors of Son'wester, 6 members Skiff, 7 out of 8 Beauty Queens, 2 on Student Council committee, Homecoming Queen and 5 attendants, and Girl Commencement speaker. Kentucky A has president of Θ Χ Δ, honorary chemical fraternity, president of Pallas Club (similar to Mortar Board), president of Home Economics Club, football queen, band sponsor, Freshman Sweetheart, outstanding senior woman, one of two outstanding freshman women, and winner of athletic cup for the year. Tennessee A has one member Alpha, honorary scholastic, three members Quadrangle, secretary of senior class, secretary of freshman class, 1 Who's Who, Miss University of Chattanooga, Most Popular, Most Beautiful, and Best Dressed Co-ed. The two leaders of the Junior-Senior Prom, only girl class night speaker, varsity song leader, senior class secretary, and vice-president of sophomore class. Missouri B sent a check for $100 to the Settlement School this year, double the amount given by any other chapter in the province, and also contributed $15 to the Undergraduate Loan Fund. Fifty dollars for the Settlement School and five dollars to the Loan Fund were gifts from Missouri Γ. Missouri Alpha's check to the Settlement School was $40, and their contribution for the Loan Fund, the largest in the province, was $45. Missouri A was the only chapter in the group which used the magazine agency profits for contributions to the Settlement School. Kentucky A gave $35 to the Settlement School and $10 to the Loan Fund. Tennessee A gave $35 to the Settlement School and $10 to the Loan Fund.

Housing conditions have been greatly improved in every chapter in the Province during the last year. Kentucky A girls plan to be occupying their own home for the first time in the autumn of 1939. Their plans which are being formulated this Spring are too tentative to be given now. Last Fall they did redecorate their apartment and made it very attractive. The Missouri Γ members have completely refurnished their apartment during the last year. With the assistance of the alumnae of Springfield a moving picture show benefit was sponsored, and the amount of the profits totaled $66. This money was applied on the purchase of a rug. An electric refrigerator was another large item added, and made the luncheons at the apartment more enjoyable. Missouri A has been the recipient of numerous gifts. The Kansas City mothers sent silver gravy boats. The other mothers of active members and pledges gave tomato juice glasses and enough money for lawn furniture. The glasses match their goblets. With their lovely china and their goblets and gravy boats their table service is most attractive. A combined radio and victrola was the pledges' gift in the Fall of 1938. Columbia alumnae gave a check for the redecoration of the smoking room, and the Kansas City alumnae sent a check for $50, $25 for rushing in Kansas City during the summer, and $25 to be spent as the girls choose. The latter amount was spent for sports equipment to be used in intramural activities and for a badminton set. Tennessee A redecorated the house inside and out. They spent over $250 on repairs. The alumnae painted the house inside and out with money from the Building Fund. The Mothers' Club with the active chapter, completely refurnished the house with slip covers. Their divans and chairs are decorated in blue and light tan and wine. The dressing room was done over. A kitchen shower added to the utensil supply. The Missouri B house committee redecorated the chapter's rooms in the Women's Building. The St. Louise alumnae, through the Missouri Beta's fund, gave the chapter a new permanent bridge table and chairs.

Successful rushing was reported to me by each chapter in Epsilon Province. The rushing rules at Washington University are the only ones which have been drastically changed for next Fall, the limitation system having been adopted. Each chapter then will be limited to 20 pledges in the Fall and may choose 5 others later in the year. One innovation has been adopted at the University of Missouri. Any rushee desiring to be released from a date with a fraternity after she has been entertained once by the same organization, may be released provided her name is on a list compiled by the chapter in question and sent in to a secret and impartial committee at the end of each rush day. Missouri Γ will again follow the quota system, which limits chapters to thirty-two members. University of Louisville will also continue to rush as in the past. The University of Chattanooga rush rules are the same.

Assistance given the various chapters by their advisory boards has been of great value. It is impossible to overestimate the importance of alumnae advice and support.

My work with Epsilon Province has been of inestimable value to me and the fact that I am resigning will not alter my deep interest in my Fraternity's activities, its constant growth and its altruistic project in the Tennessee mountains. It has been a rare privilege to work with our understanding and capable Grand Officers, and my contacts with other province officers will also remain in my book of memories forever.

Respectfully submitted,
HELEN MEREDITH PARKS

ZETA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

THE high spot of the year for Zeta Province was the installation of Georgia A. We are very proud to welcome as the newest addition to the province a chapter with the outstanding accomplishments this chapter has attained against great odds. The year has been a successful one, too, for the rest of the province.

Mrs. Smith visited the chapters in the Spring and brought invaluable inspiration, encouragement and assistance. The province president visited them early in the Fall and feels much closer to them as a result. The value of the National Convention last summer has been particularly apparent in the renewed ambition and progress of the chapters.

On the whole scholarship has improved. Alabama A and Florida A have maintained first place for another year and Georgia A missed it by the barest fraction of a point the first term. Florida B has moved up a notch to a most honorable third since they, too, are only two-hundredths of a point below first place. In spite of hard work Florida F has not succeeded in leaving the lower third, but its efforts should bring results next year. Alabama A initiated all its pledges and the percentage of initiation was much higher throughout the province.

All chapter members and pledges have been actively interested in some extracurricular activities, some attaining distinctive honors in their chosen fields. Each chapter has contributed its share to the imposing list. There were four Phi Beta Kappas, two Phi Kappa Phis, and six others with top scholastic honors on their campuses. Ten were members of Mortar Board or its equivalent, one as president, and two more have been elected from the junior class. Three were mentioned in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Many have been active in student government work, one as student body president, and several on Co-ed Council and sophomore councils. Two have been editors of the annual and newspaper and several have been assistant editors and contributors. Five Pi Phis were in May Courts, one as May Queen. Two Panhellenic presidents for next year are to be Pi Phis, and one is president of the Y.W.C.A. There have been many in Little Theater productions. In athletics, we have riding champions, the National Skeet champion, crew captains and members, and many participating in intramural sports. Some are prominent in debating and others in glee clubs and choirs. Such is the diversification of the interests of our members. But I would like also to give credit to those who have served in more humble capacities, who receive little glory but do so much toward building a firmer place for themselves and their chapters on the campus.

There has been no change in housing conditions this year though most of the chapters have re-decorated. Only Florida B now has its own house though Florida F has the equivalent in the use of one of the college dormitories, as much of it as they can fill. Florida A and Alabama A have a room in one of the school buildings and Georgia A has had an apartment in one of the old homes in Athens. Next year they will have a house. The two chapters who have chaperons are most fortunate in having women vitally interested in them and in the chapter's development.

Rushing was most successful this year, although somewhat handicapped by the quota system on three campuses. The chapter limitation system is being started on the Florida A campus next year, so that only Alabama A does not have this problem to contend with. The training of pledges was well planned and successfully carried out, with a high percentage of initiates. They have taken a very active interest in extracurricular activities and this interest is well diversified.

The chapters have been most fortunate in having active and interested alumnae advisory committees working closely with them, and their assistance has been invaluable. I should like to take this opportunity to express my gratitude for their cooperation and loyal support.

My office has been a constant source of pleasure this year because of the unflinching cooperation and friendliness of the chapters and their officers. I shall always treasure their friendship. To the members of Grand Council may I express for Zeta Province our gratitude for their interest and assistance and inspiration?

Respectfully submitted,
BETTY LARZELERE THORPE

ETA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

AFTER much thought and great trepidation I accepted the appointment as province president. It was no easy task to attempt to carry on the fine work of my predecessor, Inez Webster, and much credit for the accomplishments in Eta Province this year must go to her. These past few months have been a source of unforgettable joy and great satisfaction to me. I am grateful for the opportunity of serving my Fraternity, for the many new friendships and new college experiences added to my life, and for the unflinching help and guidance from Miss Onken and other members of Grand Council.

There were no official visits from Grand Council this year, but Illinois E was delighted to have Miss Onken as their guest while she was in Evanston for the regional Panhellenic Conference. A tea was given at the chapter house for her, and her many friends were happy to have the opportunity of seeing her again. My official visits to all seven chapters were made before Christmas, and it was a help to become acquainted early in the year with the girls and their individual problems. Their fine cooperation in writing me often and sending frequent reports made my new work much easier.

Scholarship reports in this province have been very gratifying. Illinois B-Δ is still in first place on Knox campus, for the tenth consecutive time. Illinois H is first for the third consecutive time, and Wisconsin B is in second place. All other chapters have shown improvement and are working so very hard that I feel sure next year will bring many more in first place.

Rushing was very successful in all chapters last fall. There are only two groups, Wisconsin A and Illinois A, which do not have a quota system, or some form of limitation. They pledged 22 and 15 respectively. The other chapters filled their quotas either last fall or at the beginning of the second semester. In all 139 girls have been pledged and 93 initiated, and a mighty fine addition they make to our Pi Phi family.

In extracurricular activities each chapter is outstanding on its own campus. It is a pleasure to see the genuine interest every girl takes in activities, and a real thrill as each day's mail brings me news of honors and awards won by Pi Phis. The list is far too long to give here in detail, so I will mention just the most important. There are seven Phi Beta Kappas, or its equivalent; eight elected to Mortar Board, and two to a similar organization. There are five members of Who's Who in American Colleges, three presidents and a treasurer of W.S.G.A., a president, two treasurers and three others on the cabinet of Y.W.C.A., three presidents, a vice-president, secretary, and two treasurers of W.A.A., the editor, assistant editor, senior, and three women's editors of the various college yearbooks, the editor of a school paper, many class officers, and several athletic championships. There is a goodly supply of beauty as well as brawn and brains among these girls and there are many queens, attendants, and maids of honor. Jean Rowe, who is editor of the yearbook, was selected by the faculty at Knox as the most outstanding junior on campus. Jane Johnson, of Wisconsin A, was the winner of the $\Pi B \Phi$ Fellowship for next year, and also of the Amy Burnham Onken Award for Eta Province.

I am happy to report that the province is one hundred per cent in its contributions to the Settlement School and the Undergraduate Loan Fund. In several instances the girls earned the money for their gifts by selling Arrow Craft products, giving a benefit dance or bridge party, and so have a feeling of more personal responsibility and greater interest in these two national projects.

Conferences with the Deans of Women in every college have been very pleasant. They have shown a genuine interest in the chapters and have expressed appreciation for the fine cooperation, the willingness to observe all rules and the splendid democratic attitude of our girls.

Wisconsin A, Illinois E, and Illinois Z all have large, attractive houses, accommodating between thirty-five and forty-five girls. Most of the girls in Decatur live at home, so Illinois H has a small but very lovely house, with seven girls living there this year. Wisconsin B has a house which they use only for meetings, initiation, and entertaining, because all girls must live in dormitories. Monmouth does not permit chapter houses, but does allow each group to have a room for chapter meetings. This year Illinois A moved into a much larger room, and with the help of the Chicago Alumnae Clubs is decorating and refurnishing it.

The third province conference was held in Decatur, April 21 and 22, with Illinois H and the Decatur Alumnae Club joint hostesses. Every active chapter and many alumnae clubs were represented. Illinois H entertained at a lovely tea at the chapter house Friday afternoon, and dinner that evening was served at the hotel. There followed a joint discussion meeting of actives and alumnae. The high point of the evening was a very interesting talk by Mrs. Beatrice Purdunn about her work at Central Office. The next morning the actives and alumnae met in separate sessions for discussion, then joined at noon for the Founders' Day Luncheon at the Decatur Club. Spring flowers and artistic table decorations made the room a beautiful sight. After a few brief speeches, living pictures of the Founders were presented, and the Candle Lighting Ceremony concluded the program and brought an end to the conference. The chapter and club in Decatur certainly deserve much praise for the efficient planning and the friendly atmosphere that made the occasion such a success.

I wish to take this opportunity to thank again all chapters, alumnae clubs, and advisory committees for their many courtesies extended me during my visits and for their help and cooperation during the year; and to Miss Onken my thanks and appreciation for her patience, advice, and inspiration.

Respectfully submitted,
MARGARET OWEN KEEGAN

THETA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

MY FIRST year as Theta Province President draws to a close with a strong feeling of gratitude to Isabel Clark, who left such a fine group of chapters to me, and with gratitude to the chapters themselves, whose splendid cooperation has helped me throughout the year, and whose many courtesies and acts of thoughtfulness made my visits last fall wholly enjoyable.

The Iowa chapters were fortunate this year in having visits from Mrs. Alford, while Miss Onken's presence at Conference in Iowa City added the inspiration of their meeting two Grand Council members in the same year.

Scholarship was high at the beginning of last fall term, with three chapters holding first place, one second, one fourth, and the other two below. Most of the chapters have raised their averages this year. Every chapter has made a serious effort to raise its place on the campus. Iowa Z boasts of three Phi Beta Kappas, Shirley Briggs, Florence Green, and Betty Sue McClelland; Minnesota A had one $\Phi B K$, Frances Healy; Iowa A had two equivalents, Margaret Hall and Genevieve Jordan; while Iowa B had one, Evelyn Faucett, and Iowa I three elections to $\Phi K \Phi$. Only one chapter was in the lower third last year.

Activities continue to be of the highest type in Theta Province, showing enthusiastic participation by both actives and pledges. There have been seven Mortar Boards this year, with nine newly-elected for next year. First places have been won in song contests, house decorations, and floats; presidencies of Y.W.C.A., U.W.A., W.A.A., W.S.G.A., Pep Club, $M \Phi E$, $Z \Phi H$, German Club, $N \Delta \Pi$, $\Sigma A I$, Matrix, Campus Camera Club; three Who's Who; Lady Stick of Arts; a soloist with University Band, dancers, a badminton champion, dramatics participants, and editors of publications. It is impossible to mention all the individual honors and activities. Ruth Kuerth, Iowa F, won the Amy B. Onken Award for Theta Province.

Contributions to the Settlement School and Loan Fund have been made by each chapter. Iowa F continues to enjoy its beautiful new home, while extensive redecoration of the homes of Minnesota A and Iowa Z have added new zest in those chapters. Iowa B continues to enjoy its lovely home, so often made attractive by Mrs. Sigler's artistic flower arrangements. Manitoba A has rooms in the Panhellenic house, while Iowa A is planning redecoration of its two rooms in a Mt. Pleasant residence.

Conferences with Deans of Women confirmed our belief that Pi Phis are always to be counted upon. Not one problem was reported by a dean.

Theta Province chaperons continue the same as last year, giving much inspiration to their chapters in appreciation of cultural as well as social standards. We are inexpressibly indebted to these women who stand in the place of mother to our Pi Phis.

Rushing was most successful this year, in spite of the fact that the quota system was in force in three places, making a serious predicament in the large chapters which have large lists of Pi Phi relatives in addition to the very large list of non-relatives. Some agitation for the quota system has been started on three additional campuses.

Cooperation of Advisory Boards has been of utmost value to all the chapters. The mutual understanding of each for the other has undoubtedly been one of the reasons for the general strength of all Theta Province chapters. I must express my appreciation to these fine Advisory Boards for their continuing interest in the chapters and cooperation with me.

Conferences held in Iowa City Founders' Day and in Grand Forks the following week were very well attended, remarkably well planned, and most enthusiastically enjoyed both by actives and alumnae. It was a great inspiration to all present at the Iowa conference to meet Miss Onken and hear her very fine address at the banquet. Her unavoidable absence from Grand Forks was most disappointing, but we were very happy to have Isabel Clark representing her. All Theta Province chapters have reported gaining much help from these two meetings, and we all would like somehow to arrange a conference in a place where the whole province could get together.

For her untiring assistance, I wish to express my sincere gratitude to Miss Onken. It has been most inspiring to work with her and Theta Province chapters this year.

Respectfully submitted,
GERALDINE M. RISTINE

IOTA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

THE work with the chapters in Iota Province this last year has in every case been very pleasant and in most cases gratifying. In each chapter there has been a willingness to accept suggestions and an earnest desire to uphold $\Pi B \Phi$ aims and ideals.

Chapter visits were made early in the year and so personal contacts were established which made the correspondence and contacts all the more interesting.

Four chapters rank in the upper half on their campuses in scholarship. There are many scholastic honors. South Dakota A has twins who are graduating Cum Laude, Nebraska B has a $\Phi B K$, Kansas B and Wyoming A have Phi Kappa Phis, and every chapter has members in some undergraduate honor fraternities such as $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$, $A \Lambda \Delta$, and $\Sigma A I$.

There are more extracurricular honors in the province this year than any year since the present province president has been in office. South Dakota A and Colorado B have both president and secretary of A.W.S., Nebraska B and Kansas A have president of A.W.S. Kansas B has president of Y.W.C.A. There are many represented in Who's Who, and every chapter is represented in Mortar Board—Colorado B has three Mortar Boards.

South Dakota A and Kansas B had Honorary Colonels, Colorado A and Wyoming A Junior Prom Queens, Kansas A Homecoming Queen; and many had Beauty Queens whose pictures appear in the yearbooks. Several chapters used the "Pi Phi Symphony" and won the interfraternity sings.

South Dakota Alpha's new home was the cover picture on the May ARROW. All chapters that live in their houses are very comfortably housed now. Colorado B is planning a new chapter house to meet the needs of an urban university chapter.

All the chapters have done something, either by themselves or with the alumnae, for the Settlement School. After visiting the school last summer more interest than ever before has been shown.

The cooperation from the alumnae advisory boards has been very fine, and their work with their respective chapters has been invaluable.

Iota Province President appreciates the many kindnesses and courtesies shown her by the chapters, the Advisory Boards, and the chaperons, and also wishes to express her appreciation to Miss Onken and the other members of Grand Council for their guidance and cooperation.

Respectfully submitted,
FAITH MARTIN HANNA

KAPPA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

AS THIS first year as president of Kappa Province closes, I feel that I have almost achieved what all Pi Phis long for—the reliving of active chapter days. My work with the seven chapters of this province has afforded me a real thrill and much satisfaction. Each one of them has a great many virtues and only a few shortcomings.

Scholarship has been decidedly improved in three instances, and has remained the same as last year in the other four. Only one chapter had the coveted first place on its campus—Oklahoma B—with the added distinction of having the highest scholastic average ever to have been made by a fraternity in the Association of Midwestern Colleges and Universities. The importance of high scholarship has been stressed in each chapter during the year, and it is our hope to hold many first places next year.

Pi Beta Phi has been prominent on each campus in extracurricular activities, and all seven Deans of Women have reported to me that our groups are definite assets on their respective campuses. Among our outstanding honors are seven Phi Beta Kappas; three presidents, two vice-presidents, one secretary-treasurer, and eight elections to Mortar Board; two selections for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities; one president, two secretaries of Student Associations; one secretary of Law Students' Association; three Council Members of W.S.G.A.; one president, two vice-presidents, one treasurer, and two Cabinet Members of Y.W.C.A.; one president and three elections to A A Δ; two Degrees with Distinction; one editor-in-chief of an important campus publication; one or more members in Ashbel and Pierian Literary Societies, Σ Δ Π, Ψ X, Σ Δ P, X Δ Φ, H Σ Φ, Θ Σ Φ, Ε Π, Π Ω Π, Σ Δ I, Α T, Π K Σ, Ε Σ, and Swastika. Six offices were held in these organizations, and several in other campus organizations. Kappa Province also boasts of seven Beauties and eight Queens of Balls.

Our chapters are very fortunate in having splendid women as chaperons. Two of them are new this year, and have fitted into their places happily, helpfully, and efficiently. Four of the chapters maintain homes, two of them have apartments for meeting places, and one a large room in a Pan-hellenic house.

Excellent advisory boards have been distinct assets to six of my chapters, but Louisiana B still has no board upon which to rely for advice and help. It is my hope that the alumnae in that section will be inspired by the progress of this new and splendid chapter to reorganize themselves into a club and help this group of young women to continue to grow in Π Β Φ.

Our province was 100 per cent this year in its contributions to the Settlement School, but one chapter failed to contribute to the Loan Fund. It is my feeling that all of these chapters have made progress during the year and that many individual members have gained a wider knowledge of the real meaning of their Fraternity. The Province Conference was marked with a general feeling of fellowship between the different chapters, and an apparent desire to make improvements in organization, methods, and scholarship during the coming year. Mrs. Alford was a most helpful, welcome, and delightful guest at the Conference.

This year of close contact with active chapters, advisory boards and with Π Β Φ officers has meant a great deal to me and my gratitude goes to each member of Grand Council for her help to me in the performance of my duties. What a feeling of security it gives to a new officer to realize that our Grand President is never too busy to aid her promptly in all difficult situations, be they major or minor ones, and I especially want to thank Miss Onken for her assistance to me and for the constant inspiration she gives me.

Respectfully submitted,

JUNE HARRIS GRANGER

LAMBDA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

IN REVIEWING my first year as Lambda Province President, I realize anew that the privilege of serving a fraternity whose ideals are so glorious, whose wisdom is so deep and far-reaching, and whose organization is so sound and efficient, brings with it an inspiration and value which increases steadily as the work with the chapters progresses. Association with the extraordinarily high type of girls who loyally serve Π Β Φ and who eagerly advance the development of their chapters has been to me an extremely happy and never-to-be-forgotten experience. For the wholehearted response, cooperation, and help given me by the entire province, I should like to express my deep appreciation.

It is a real challenge to be able to take up and carry on the work of a province which has been so well organized and cared for by my predecessor, Isla McCain Donert. In addition to her excellent leadership, the chapters have been strengthened and inspired not only by National Convention, but by the two Province Conferences of last spring and this. Due to all of these fine influences, the chapters have made great strides forward in strength and development, so that it is a pleasure to give an account of the conditions which exist in Lambda Province this year.

Fortunately I was able to visit all the chapters last Fall, and the advantage of becoming acquainted with the personnel of each chapter, its alumnae advisory committee, and its special problems so early in the year was helpful to me in my work. Personal knowledge of the character and organization of each chapter brought to me a pride in all of them which has steadily increased by the ensuing association with them through the year.

In the problem of scholarship, the attitude throughout the province is very commendable. On the University of Alberta campus no scholastic ratings are given, but the members of Alberta A take their school work with a seriousness which is not always to be found in our colleges in the States. Of the other six chapters, two, Washington A and Montana A, were first on their campuses. Washington B was also in the upper third with a definite improvement during the year to its credit. The other three chapters, Idaho A, Oregon A, and Oregon B were all in the middle third, the former having made a decided improvement over the preceding year. All of them are exceedingly scholarship-conscious, and should be highly commended for their determined efforts to improve their standings in this respect.

This year has been a banner year for the entire province in rushing, all of the chapters being most successful in both quality and number of girls pledged. The only problem seemed to be the quota system put into effect on the Washington State campus a year ago, which curbed Washington B in the number of desirable girls wishing to pledge that chapter. Fortunately the system was voted down in April. The Recommendations Committees have been of great assistance to the chapters in rushing, and special praise should be given to the committees in Portland and Seattle for the excellent work which both have been accomplishing.

The chaperons in our province are just the very finest to be found anywhere, and their influence on the chapters cannot be given too great praise. It is with genuine regret that the resignation of Mrs. Booth of Alberta A must be announced. We are exceedingly fortunate, however, to be keeping the other six, whose loyalty and devotion to the chapters have earned for them the love and confidence of their girls.

It has also been a great pleasure to become acquainted with the grand Deans of Women in Lambda Province. The high regard which they have for our chapters, their endorsement of and interest in our purposes are genuine and very heart-warming. Without exception they have expressed admiration for our Pi Phi chapters as maintaining the highest standards, and as being leaders in promoting better Panhellenic and student body conditions.

Our alumnae advisory committees are all working committees who in close cooperation and harmony with their chapters are striving to promote chapter strength and development. I have been very grateful to them for the wholehearted interest and effort which they have given to their work. I have found that when there is such mutual confidence and harmony existing between the chapters, their deans, their chaperons, and advisory committees, little problems do not grow into large ones, and an atmosphere of happiness exists which gives each chapter a wholesome basis for full self-realization.

The chapters of Lambda Province for the most part hold an exceedingly prominent place on their campuses in the field of activities. Though the rôle of honors won is too great to record all of them here, I should not wish to overlook the faithful service of those girls whose participation in less spectacular activities has made their chapters well represented in all fields on their campuses. I should also like to give special mention to Montana A and Washington B as the two chapters which have won the greatest distinction in college activities.

Lambda Province has this year to its credit one Φ B K; four Phi Kappa Phis; thirteen Mortar Boards, including two presidents and three other officers; two Who's Who Among American College Women; nine Alpha Lambda Deltas, including one president, one vice-president, and one treasurer; fifteen Spurs, including one award made to the most outstanding Spur; two Kwamas, including one president; three Talons, including a president and vice-president; four Cardinal Keys; two Washington Keys; one Σ E Σ ; seven Phi Chi Thetas; six Phi Upsilon Omicrons, including a vice-president; three Sigma Kappa Phis, including a vice-president; three Theta Sigma Phis, including one treasurer and two awards made to the outstanding freshman and outstanding sophomore journalists; one Γ B; one A K Δ ; one I Σ II; six Delta Phi Deltas, including a president, a corresponding secretary, and a historian; one National Collegiate Players member; two Radio Guild members; two Phi Theta Upsilon; one K Δ Φ ; one O N; one Σ Φ Σ ; one Δ Σ P; five Sigma Tau Alphas, including a treasurer and award to outstanding freshman journalist; one Σ Φ I; one Orchesis; two Lambda Phi Kappas; and one A P. There are eight A.W.S. officers, including two presidents and one vice-president; six W.A.A. officers, including two presidents; five class officers; one Panhellenic president. One girl was elected chief of the Women's Big Five on her campus. There are three editors and sixteen associate editors of major college publications. There have been presented one scholarship to Paris; one Tri Delt scholarship; one Woman's Day Psychology Award. There have been eight Beauty Queens and Princesses; two Maids of Honor to May Queens; one DeMolay Queen attendant; one Ideal Co-ed; one Sweetheart of Sigma Chi; one Dream Girl of I K A; and a good many R.O.T.C. sponsors. There have also been a good many honor roll students, important committee and cabinet members, and members of minor clubs. Lambda Province seems to specialize particularly in dramatics, music, and literature, with excellent representation.

The province was again 100 per cent this year in contributions to the Settlement School and the Loan Fund, Washington A making the most generous contribution to the Settlement School, with Oregon B and Idaho A second and third respectively.

All of the chapters in the province are in sound financial condition, with all of them but Alberta A owning their own homes, Alberta A rents a cottage directly across from the campus, and Washington A is looking forward to building a new home in the future. The other houses are all comparatively new, and all very charming and comfortable. The arrangement which Montana A has is rather interesting. It owns one section of a college built quadrangle, housing five other groups and served by a central kitchen. Many fine improvements have been made to some of the houses this year, with mothers' clubs and alumnae clubs contributing to the furnishings in some instances.

The most outstanding event of the year was the Province Conference held at Portland the middle of March. Too much credit cannot be given to the Portland alumnae and the two Oregon chapters who, as joint hostesses, made the Conference such an outstanding success. Miss Onken's absence, due to illness, was a grave disappointment to us all, but we were most fortunate in having with us two members of Grand Council, Ruth Barrett Smith and Lois Snyder Finger, who brought us great inspiration. Though examinations prevented any girls from Alberta A from attending, two girls came from our other distant chapter, Montana A. Ten girls and many alumnae represented Washington A, and a special Pullman was chartered to bring twenty-three from Washington B and Idaho A, the two chapters in the province who have the joy of being only nine miles apart. With practically all the members from the two Oregon chapters present, the delegation was large.

Panel discussions were the keynote of the meetings which resulted in intelligent and very lively and helpful discussions. Betty Anderson of Oregon

B, the pledge with the highest grades in the province, was initiated with Ruth Barrett Smith conducting the beautiful ceremony. The Amy Burnham Onken Province Award was presented to Hope Kimbrough, Washington B, as this year's outstanding senior. Full of national inspiration and Pi Phi spirit, blessed with the joy of making many new valuable friends, with closer bonds having been established among the chapters, all of the delegates took home overwhelming enthusiasm and eagerness to promote greater chapter development.

In conclusion, I wish to make grateful recognition of the encouragement and help received from Grand Council; my predecessor, Mrs. Donert, and the other officers of $\Pi B \Phi$; the assistance rendered by alumnae and advisory committees; the cooperation given me by the seven chapters and their officers; and the very special help and inspiration which Miss Onken has been to me. I shall always cherish the memory of this experience as well as the many beautiful friendships which it has brought to me, and I wish to thank Grand Council and my chapters for the great and happy privilege of serving the Fraternity as Lambda Province President.

Respectfully submitted,
JANET HAWKINS MONTGOMERY

MU PROVINCE PRESIDENT

WITH the closing of the college year it is time to review the work done in Mu Province and to plan for the coming year.

Mrs. Finger visited all of the chapters in this province during the year with the exception of Utah A. She was able to make many helpful suggestions which will strengthen the groups. This contact with members of Grand Council is always stimulating and inspirational.

Scholarship, with two exceptions, has improved this year. Nevada A tops the list by winning second place in the fall semester and first place in the spring. This house received an award of a plaque in recognition of the fact that their chapter had shown the most improvement of any group on the campus. Both semesters their freshmen were at the top of the list. California A was in second place on their campus for the year preceding. This was a very nice improvement in their scholarship. The other chapters, with the exception of two, all showed substantial gains. Anne Martineau of California A and Florence Brown of California B were both elected to $\Phi B K$. Kaye Smith of Utah A was elected to $\Phi K \Phi$. They do not have $\Phi B K$ on this campus.

All of the chapters boast of many fine positions in prominent activities this year. Probably the most outstanding honor was that of Virginia Keim of California Delta as vice-president of this large student body. Virginia was also chosen for the Amy Burnham Onken award for Mu Province because of her remarkable capacity for leadership, her personality, and her scholarship. Other outstanding honors were editor of the yearbook at Nevada; chairman of University Week at Utah; women's co-chairman of Convalescent Drive at California A. There were eight Mortar Board members and four elections to groups similar to Mortar Board; eight class officers; twelve junior honor societies; two $\Pi A \Sigma$; three Torch and Shield; president of W.A.A.; two presidents of Y.W.C.A. and one vice-president and one secretary of this organization; Chief Justice of Judicial Court; four Spur members; president of Freshman Club; two Regimental Sponsors, and three members of Guidon. There are many more, but from this list you can get a glimpse of the busy life our girls lead.

In rushing our province has been very successful with the exception of one group who were rushing some legacies of another house. The pledges chosen were of a splendid type and will make strong, loyal members in the future. Pledge supervision has improved in all of the chapters and this will show results as the pledges become active members.

The Deans of Women were all very much pleased with the progress of the chapters and had very few problems to discuss. At two of the seven universities, I met $\Pi B \Phi$ members serving as Deans of Women. They were Dean Mack of Nevada and Dean Pearle Aiken-Smith of Southern California.

There has been a large turnover in chaperons this last year. Only three of these women were with the chapters before. Mrs. Gardiner at California A has completed her twelfth year; Mrs. Scott of California B her third; and Mrs. Gill her second year at Nevada. Mrs. Peabody of California Γ is a Pi Phi from Colorado A; Mrs. Chaffee was with California Δ the first semester and then left for a trip to Egypt. She will be with this chapter again in the Fall. Olive Dickson of California A filled the vacancy this semester. Mrs. Hurneryager at Arizona and Mrs. Dwight at Utah complete the list of these capable women to whom we owe so much for the development of our chapters. There has been a real effort on the part of everyone to cooperate with the university, the Fraternity, and the chapter in making each house a suitable home for the members of $\Pi B \Phi$.

Financially the chapters are in splendid condition. All are living in houses owned by $\Pi B \Phi$ and are satisfactorily taking care of their financial obligations. Four of the houses will have work done on them this summer which will add greatly to the comfort and appearance of these houses. These houses are California B and Γ , Arizona A, and Utah A.

Too much praise cannot be given to the women who serve on our advisory boards. In Mu Province these women have been ever faithful in assuming, with the chapter, the problems that arise. In every chapter the feeling between the boards and the chapters has been excellent and the cooperation given me has been splendid.

In reading this report I hope that you will be able to visualize the chapters in this province. The girls represented are interesting, happy persons who are very much concerned in the welfare of their chapter and the general welfare of the Fraternity. To work with them has been my pleasure.

Respectfully submitted,
ANN M. D'AULÉ

Province Vice-Presidents' Reports

ALPHA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

DURING the club season 1938-39 one new name has been added to our roll, that of the Mohawk Valley Club, bringing our number to eighteen in all. Since the 1938 Convention I have visited all of these clubs and have found them working hard in the effort to solve their various problems, and endeavoring to make some contribution to the needs of their own communities and resident chapters, as well as to our own national fraternity projects. It is obvious during these visits that in their Pi Phi contacts the members are finding an enjoyment that no other type of club work can give them, and it has been a distinct pleasure to me to see the growth in their interest in each other and in the workings of their Fraternity.

Arising out of the desire of some of the Alpha Province club delegates at the last Convention an alumnae conference was held in New York City on April 28 and 29. Thirteen clubs were represented, those of Montreal, Portland, and London, respectively, by Lois Snyder Finger, our Grand Secretary, Hazel Sawyer Everett, and Clara Hall Sipherd, presidents of Alpha Province East and West. Much constructive discussion took place and recommendations and suggestions were sent to Grand Council for consideration at their annual meeting. The three hostess clubs, New York City, Northern New Jersey, and Westchester, headed by their chairman, Helen McKendrew of the New York City Club, vied with each other to entertain us. All who were present at the meetings and at the luncheon in honor of our Founders which made an unforgettable finish to the conference, felt that the effort involved in the undertaking had been well worth while.

I am hoping that many of the clubs in this province will be represented at the next $\Pi B \Phi$ Convention, even if they have to cross the continent to attend it.

In closing I would like to repeat my statement in reports of other years, viz., that no province officer could meet with more consideration than I have experienced in my work in Alpha Province. I thank the club members, one and all, for their cooperation.

Respectfully submitted,
MARY HERDMAN SCOTT

BETA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

CORRESPONDENCE plays a very large part indeed in the conduct of the duties of any fraternity officer. A province vice-president, making a sincere effort through her letters to clubs to establish with them a friendly and mutually helpful relationship, must depend upon letters from the clubs for assurance that she is successful in the effort. If a club never comments on any one of my letters, or never asks for suggestions or for material or to have some point clarified, then, I feel, something must be lacking in the letters I am writing to that club. This year, I am happy to say, I have felt closer to the province as a whole than I did last year, for practically all the clubs have written the kind of letters it is a satisfaction to receive; with only one or two have I felt at a loss.

I think this must be due, at least in part, to the fact that last summer's convention carried much of inspiration to those Beta Province Pi Phis who were there. If it is, then I look forward with confidence to next year, for nine of our sixteen clubs were represented at the province conference in Columbus in April, and the presence of Miss Onken and Mrs. Finger surely attested its national scope, and provided stimulus for increased interest in our Fraternity.

For the success of the conference, I want here to thank the Pi Phis in Columbus, both the alumnae and Ohio B. Their hospitality was most generous, their plans carefully made and efficiently carried out, and the enthusiastic appreciation of all in attendance was fully warranted.

Beta Province membership for the year is 562, an increase that would be entirely gratifying except that there are yet so many, many Pi Phis in the province who should be enrolled in organized alumnae clubs and are not.

For the continuing helpfulness of national officers, for the cooperation of club officers, for the cordiality of all Pi Phis with whom I come in contact, I am grateful.

Respectfully submitted,
CANDACE CLOYD JOHNSON

GAMMA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

GAMMA PROVINCE again has welcomed a new club, Asheville. The seven others have supported all Pi Phi projects. I am especially pleased that the two clubs chartered last year have taken their places as full-fledged alumnae clubs; in addition to fulfilling all club obligations Tri-City had a big sale of Arrow Craft and Charlotte made many bandages for the nurse at the Settlement School. Each club which has a nearby chapter has worked well with the chapter.

Two Junior Groups, one in Washington with over fifty paid members and one in Chapel Hill were organized and have worked with enthusiasm.

The outstanding event of the year for the province was a conference held in Washington, April 28 and 29. The Founders' Day banquet celebrated not only the founding of the national fraternity but the fiftieth anniversary of District of Columbia A.

Again it has been a pleasure to work as province vice-president. I can't tell you how much all the contacts have meant to me. Once more I thank all

Grand Council and club officers, who have done their share to make this report possible.

NELL A. SPRUCE

DELTA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

THE Delta Province Conference and the organization of a new club are the most outstanding events of the year for this province. The conference was held March 31 and April 1, at the Woman's Club in Ft. Wayne, Indiana. Lillian Beck Holton, chairman of the Settlement School committee, attended as the official representative of the Fraternity. One hundred and one Pi Phi's, representing eighteen different chapters, were registered. It was a distinct pleasure for those attending to witness the beautiful initiation ceremony conducted by Indiana B, and to welcome Lynne Wainwright into II B Phi.

The new Northern Indiana Club was chartered in March with sixteen members. Mrs. Mark Disoway, Illinois E, living in Goshen, Indiana, is serving as its first president. This club is looking forward to an interesting and successful year in 1939-40, with many plans for future development.

Membership in Delta Province has increased this year from 425 to 494. This is most gratifying to the province vice-president, for it indicates an interest on the part of the clubs in trying to secure new members, as well as an interest on the part of the new members in the desire to become affiliated with a chartered club. Only three clubs showed a slight decrease, one kept the same number it had last year, and the remaining twelve reported substantial increases. Bloomfield Hills, Ft. Wayne, and Southwestern Indiana are 100 per cent in membership. The success of Detroit's new Junior group has added immeasurably to that club's enthusiasm, as well as being a contributing factor to its large increase in membership.

Clubs contributing to the Settlement School numbered thirteen. Twelve clubs sent donations to the Loan Fund, eight clubs sold Arrow Craft products, and thirteen clubs supported the school further by the sale of magazines.

For individual achievements we may mention Detroit, with the greatest increase in membership and the largest contribution to the Settlement School. Indianapolis had the highest sales of Arrow Craft and magazines. Not to be overlooked, however, are those clubs not able to contribute heavily with financial support, but whose loyalty, interest, and cooperation cannot be measured by any set standard.

The gavel, awarded each year to the club making the greatest progress, and held last year by Franklin, has been awarded this year to Southwestern Indiana. This is by no means a reflection on the activities of the Franklin Club, but rather a recognition of the improvement of the group at Evansville.

Your Province Vice-President wishes to thank every member of II B Phi in Delta Province, for her continued support and cooperation. It has been a distinct pleasure to serve again in this office, and to have the opportunity to express deep gratitude for the inspiration and counsel from Miss Onken, Mrs. Smith, and Mrs. Wild.

Respectfully submitted,

HELEN ANDERSON LEWIS

EPSILON PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

SUMMARIZING the accomplishments of the alumnae clubs in Epsilon Province for the year 1938-39 affords real satisfaction to the province vice-president. The clubs themselves should feel a sense of pride of achievement in what they have done.

Membership has been the chief problem of this province in the past, but this year there are 427 paid members, including twenty affiliated seniors, a gain of sixty-two over last year. All clubs except two have more paid members this year than last, and the increase with most of them is substantial. All Pi Phi living in Gatlinburg and four from out of town are paid members of the Little Pigeon Club. Attendance at meetings has been greater this year in proportion to the membership.

Again this year all of the Epsilon Province clubs gave generously to the Settlement School and to the Undergraduate Loan Fund. A total of $1,222.02 was sent to the school, and $47.00 to the Loan Fund. Five of the smaller clubs made material increases in the size of their donations. The Little Pigeon Club has bought a set of encyclopedias for the school this year.

These ten clubs have continued to support the Settlement School by selling Arrow Craft products and taking subscriptions for magazines. The Arrow Craft sales for eight clubs amounted to approximately $1,188.00, a gain of more than $300.00 over last year. At the time this report is being written, complete figures on magazine commissions are not available, but judging from the mid-year figures, this will be a record year for the province. In seven of the nine clubs having a magazine agency remarkable progress was made. Complete statistics will be found in the chart for Epsilon Province.

The Missouri B and Tennessee A Mothers' Clubs generously sent gifts to the Settlement School and to the Loan Fund.

Interest in active chapters has not been confined to clubs located where there is a chapter. The Nashville and St. Joseph clubs helped with rushing, and the Kansas City club sent $50.00 to each of the nearest chapters. Other clubs made gifts of money and furniture to the local chapter, in addition to giving rushing assistance.

A province conference was held in Columbia, June 7 and 8, at the Missouri A chapter house, with Lois Snyder Finger representing Grand Council. The atmosphere was one of a large house party, and all who attended will remember forever the hospitality of the Columbia club and Missouri A.

It was the privilege of this officer to visit all clubs in Epsilon Province this year. The friendships made on these trips will be cherished always. Two clubs in Epsilon Province, St. Louis and Kansas City, were extremely fortunate in having Adèle Taylor Alford present at their Founders' Day banquets. The Columbia club is grateful for the opportunity to entertain Amy Burnham Onken. To the clubs of the province for their cooperation, and for their achievement this year, and to Grand Council for its invaluable assistance, the Epsilon Province Vice-President is deeply indebted.

Respectfully submitted,
KATHARINE KIBLER LYONS

ZETA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

ANOTHER fraternity year comes to a close and we experience again the feeling of new friendships formed and old friendships deepened through $\Pi B \Phi$. For myself I cannot express adequately in words just what this year has meant to me, both because of my office as Zeta Province Vice-President and because it has been my great privilege to work closely with the Georgia A chapter.

All the clubs in Zeta Province have taken a real interest in the forming of George A—the eighty-first chapter of $\Pi B \Phi$. It was fine to be able to have present at the installation of the chapter several members of the Birmingham Club as well as actives and alumnae from various parts of the country. For all of us who were there it was a wonderful experience and one never to be forgotten. Miss Onken's presence was an inspiration to every Pi Phi present as well as to the new initiates.

Seven out of the ten clubs in Zeta Province are 100 per cent in their contributions to the Settlement School and the Undergraduate Loan Fund. The Lakeland Club is again the only club in the province with 100 per cent paid membership. There has been an increase in membership in four clubs, one club has maintained the same number of paid members, and five clubs have had a slight decrease in the number of paid members.

Several of the clubs have had a sale of Arrow Craft products with Birmingham leading in the amount of sales, which was $80.15. Tampa was a close second, having sold $73.36.

All the clubs located where there are chapters have continued to help these chapters both financially and in other ways. Other clubs not located where there is a chapter have helped through rushing and with gifts to nearby chapters.

Several of the clubs had the pleasure of entertaining Ruth Barrett Smith, Grand Vice-President, when she visited the active chapters in Zeta Province. I wish every club could have had this privilege.

Again I want to say that it has been a privilege to serve as Zeta Province Vice-President. May I express my deep appreciation to the clubs for their cooperation, and to Miss Onken and to Mrs. Smith for their help and inspiration.

Respectfully submitted,
WINIFRED SMITH PAIGE

ETA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

ALTHOUGH Eta Province can boast no new clubs chartered this year, we have "hopes" for next year. Our two new clubs of last year have developed into fine Pi Phi clubs, each doing a share of the province work. Joliet had a special project this year of making nightgowns for the loan closet of the nurse at the Settlement School. Jacksonville held its first Arrow Craft sale and sold almost $150.00 worth of articles for the shop and the school.

Besides aiming for wider membership in clubs, for more generous support of Pi Phi projects, both the School and the Loan Fund, and for the establishment of funds in the budgets to take care of expenses of delegates to National Conventions and Province Conferences, we tried this year, especially in our clubs to create a closer contact and a more personal one with active chapters and active girls. Among those clubs where there is no chapter, which found a point of contact, are the Chicago North Alumnae Club which helped the Monmouth active chapter furnish a new and larger chapter room by contributing $115.00 to this purpose; the Chicago South Alumnae Club, which added $35.00 to this same fund; the Elgin Club, which gave a silver scholarship cup to the sophomore at Wisconsin B who made the most improvement in scholarship this year; the Avon Club, which helped the Monmouth chapter; Rockford Club, which visited the Wisconsin B chapter and contributed a gift; and the Milwaukee Club, which studied, entertained members of, and donated gifts to, each of the two chapters in the state. Every club in the seven active chapter centers has given money, effort, time, and scholarship awards to that chapter. Several rushing parties were given last summer by clubs, and active girls were entertained at Christmas time by several.

Eta Province is proud to report that its clubs and active chapters are again 100 per cent in donations to the national projects of the Fraternity. These gifts have, in the most part, increased over last year. Arrow Craft sales have increased over last year by $120.00, from reports received to date. Membership has grown by a total of twenty more paid members this year than last, paid memberships now reaching 759 in the province.

Our Province Conference was held this spring at Decatur, Illinois, April 21 and 22, when Illinois H and the Decatur Alumnae Club were hostesses to the clubs and chapters in the province. The conference was a very successful and interesting one not only from the point of view of the beautiful entertainment offered by the hostesses, but also for the alert interest shown in the work of the fraternity, and for the cordial, friendly contacts made by the fourteen alumnae club delegates and the seven active chapter delegates and the many alumnae and actives who attended. It was decided to rotate conferences every two years, the next one to be held at Galesburg, Illinois, in 1941.

The province vice-president feels that each club deserves praise for that which it has accomplished during the year, and she wishes to express her appreciation to the members in each for their friendly cooperation with her and their loyal support of the Fraternity. It is a real privilege to work with such friends, and with the members of Grand Council who are ever helpful in counsel and advice.

Respectfully submitted,
HAZEL M. MURKLAND

THETA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

FOR the fifth consecutive year Theta Province reports being 100 per cent in gifts to the Fraternity projects. As this indicated we have had a good year. We have a few less paid members than a year ago, all of which loss is accounted for in one club, but since this group gave to the various Fraternity philanthropies and to its local chapter an additional $144.00 over its gifts of a year ago we know that there is a material increase in interest. We hope that the coming year will find many of the old members again attending the club meetings.

One of our smaller clubs has made wonderful improvement during this year. From fourteen paid members of last year they have grown to twenty-two and almost doubled their gift to the Settlement School. They also sold $82.00 worth of Arrow Craft goods this year.

Miss Onken's and Mrs. Alford's visits to the chapters have meant a great deal also to the clubs. These contacts with national officers are invaluable to alumnae in added interest and inspiration.

During the biennium we have visited all the clubs in the province. In 1937 we went to Cedar Rapids, Iowa City, Burlington, Mt. Pleasant, Council Bluffs, and Sioux City, and in the fall of 1939 visited the remainder of the clubs, Minneapolis, St. Paul, Grand Forks, Winnipeg, Duluth, Des Moines, Ames, and Indianola.

The attendance at each meeting was most gratifying and the interest in the Fraternity grows each year. We seem to be developing a fine cooperation in the clubs in the matter of rushing. To have the clubs willing to recommend and rush girls for the various chapters, and then not be too disappointed when the chapters can not pledge all these girls for different reasons, is a matter of education and fine fraternity loyalty. I believe we are making progress in this important line.

Our two province conferences were wonderfully successful. The attendance was not as large as at those held two years ago due to the fact that Iowa City and Grand Forks are not centrally located, but in each case there was a gratifying attendance. The conferences were two days each in length and we think this a decided advantage over the one day conference, for there is then time for discussions, visiting and the desired social functions.

Miss Onken, Mrs. Ristine, and I were in Iowa City and Miss Clark, Mrs. Ristine, and I in Grand Forks. Of course the entertaining group receives the greatest benefit for it has the greatest number present, but in each case there was a good representation from the other groups.

Nineteen hundred thirty-eight and thirty-nine has been a good year in Theta Province because of the loyalty and cooperation of the various club officers and I am glad to express my appreciation of their fine work. Contacts with them and the many other loyal Pi Phis in the province have been most pleasant. I would like also to express appreciation for the help and understanding and ever ready assistance of Grand Council.

Respectfully submitted,
LAURA STORMS KNAPP

IOTA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

THE fifteen clubs of Iota Province have remained loyal to $\Pi B \Phi$ by 100 per cent contributions to the Fraternity projects. There has been an increase of twenty-three members for the year 1938-39, with 478 paid members. Settlement School contributions of \$909.73 showed a small increase over last year, as did the gifts to the Loan Fund. These amounted to \$85.50 in comparison with \$73.50 last year. A fine showing was made in Arrow Craft sales with the amount reaching \$1,260.59, an increase of \$66.00. One club sent \$3.00 to the Endowment Fund, while another sent \$2.50 to the Fellowship Fund. The clubs of Iota Province have maintained their usual standard in the magazine agency.

The clubs located where there are active chapters have done much either with gifts for the houses or assistance with money. The cooperation between the clubs and chapters is very fine and there remain only the rushing problems caused by local Panhellenic rulings to be adjusted.

The courtesy, hospitality, and cooperation shown the Iota Province Vice-President by the clubs, both on my visits and through correspondence has been delightful and I feel it has been a rare privilege to serve in this office. It has been such pleasure to work with Miss Onken, Mrs. Smith, and Mrs. Wilde, and may I express my sincere appreciation for their help and counsel?

Respectfully submitted,
MARJORIE HARBAUGH COLVIN

KAPPA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

THE year of 1938-39 has, for the most part, been a year of progress throughout Kappa Province. The total membership has increased, even without the addition of any new clubs. Several clubs have made a substantial increase over last year: Austin, from 49 to 69; Dallas, from 56 to 76; Little Rock, from 29 to 45; Oklahoma City, from 47 to 72; and Tulsa, from 58 to 96, the highest paid membership in the province. Two clubs, Okmulgee and Texarkana, have 100 per cent paid memberships in each city.

It is gratifying to note that the sale of Arrow Craft products has also increased in the province. The number of clubs holding sales this year was larger than for several years past. The "perfect contribution mark" was not quite reached. However, only one club failed to make a donation to the Settlement School. Sabine District stands at the head in Arrow Craft sales with $817.22, followed by Houston, Dallas, Austin, and San Antonio, with over $500.00, $400.00, and $300.00 respectively.

Official visits were made to a majority of clubs in the Province this year, and I found everywhere an effort being made toward a more efficiently run club. The plan of organizing a Junior group, as well as a Business group, has been most successfully carried out this year by the Dallas Club. Their plan is very workable, and has not seemed to draw a dividing line between the different units. Several others of the larger clubs are considering the formation of similar groups.

There has been a concerted effort on the part of province and club officers to better materially the recommendations sent from clubs to chapters, and I believe that much good is being accomplished. With the abolishment of courtesy dates, and a more uniform basis of recommendations to all chapters, I feel that friction between clubs and chapters will be abolished. I have met with, and talked to all but two chapters while making club visits, and I have found everywhere a spirit of willingness to cooperate, and a desire for improvement.

The climax of the year was the Province Conference held in Houston, June 20 and 21, at the Rice Hotel. We were most fortunate to have present our ARROW Editor, Adèle Taylor Alford, and the National Historian, Frances Rosser Brown. Their help and inspiration will long be remembered by all those present. The Houston Club had spared no effort to make this meeting a success, and it will long remain in the memories of the two hundred Pi Phis attending as a time of supreme enjoyment and inspiration. The climax of the meeting was the beautiful banquet held in the Empire Room of the Rice Hotel, and presided over by Kappa Province's beloved Nita Hill Stark, former Grand Secretary.

It has been a pleasure to serve Kappa Province another year as its vice-president, and I wish to express my thanks and appreciation to the loyal officers who have helped so greatly in making this year a success. I also wish to thank Grand Council for its ever-ready help and inspiration.

Respectfully submitted,
OLIVIA SMITH MOORE

LAMBDA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

A LAMBDA PROVINCE CONFERENCE the last of April 1938, and the National Convention in June gave impetus for an enthusiastic start for alumnae clubs last fall. The effects of the delightful conference in Seattle were reflected throughout the year. The hospitality of the hostesses and happy congenial fellowship of so many Pi Phis have been the means of strengthening the fraternity bond in the province; the opportunity of becoming so well acquainted with the Grand President and the Grand Vice-President and hearing their inspirational messages, created marked interest in the Fraternity and its national officers. A more unified program for actives and alumnae has resulted from the joint discussions, and a better understanding of the problems that both the actives and alumnae have in rushing has brought more harmonious cooperation this year. Only a few alumnae in this province could attend the Convention at Asheville, but nearly all of the clubs have had reports from active chapter delegates and national and province officers.

Lambda Province is again 100 per cent in the support of the Loan and Settlement School Funds; nearly all alumnae dues were paid before the first of the year; four clubs, Calgary, Corvallis, Olympia, and Wenatchee, had 100 per cent paid membership in November; all the dues of the active membership of seven clubs were paid in November. The paid membership has increased from 470 in 1937-38 to 527 in 1938-39, a gain of 57. Except for four clubs that have had a loss of from one to three paid members, all of the clubs have made a gain in membership or held the same number as last year. Portland and Seattle tie for the largest paid membership with 96; Portland made the highest gain with 15 new members.

Eleven clubs have had successful Arrow Craft sales, amounting to $1,793.62, which is an increase of $288.49 over that of last year. The two large clubs had sales of products amounting to $443.83 for Seattle and Portland $418.10; Wenatchee, with a membership of twelve, leads in the amount sold by the smaller clubs with $146.05, and Everett, Boise, Olympia, Tacoma, and Yakima were not far below this amount.

An increase of $46.00 has been made in contributions to the Settlement School. Spokane made the largest contribution of any of the clubs in the province with a gift of $100. The contributions to the Loan Fund have doubled those of last year and the help given the active chapters cannot be estimated in cash, although many gifts of money have been made.

Five clubs, Bozeman, Corvallis, Edmonton, Eugene, and Seattle, are located where there are active chapters; each has given the chapter a very great deal of assistance financially and in many other ways and there has been splendid cooperation and harmony between the two.

All the clubs have celebrated Founders' Day in some delightful manner. Clubs and chapters have joined in celebrating this occasion where distance would permit; Butte Club, represented by eight members, motored over 100 miles to enjoy the festivities with Montana A and Bozeman Alumnae Club.

Portland Alumnae Club, Oregon A, and Oregon B were hostesses for Lambda Province Conference, March 18-19, at the Multnomah Hotel, Portland.

With Isla Donert as general chairman, the club and committees arranged a most enjoyable program for the two days. Inspirational messages were given by two National Officers, Ruth Barrett Smith, Grand Vice-President, and Lois Snyder Finger, Grand Secretary. Discussion groups and a lovely luncheon sponsored by the Salem Alumnae Club were the outstanding events of the day, then a beautiful and inspiring banquet honoring the Founders was a fitting climax of a perfect day. The impressive initiation ceremony was conducted by the Grand Vice-President, Sunday morning; Betty Anderson, Oregon B, was the honored initiate. A tea at one of Portland's most luxurious homes, Sunday afternoon, gave everyone an opportunity to express her last minute appreciation to the Portland alumnae for their wonderful hospitality and for the very delightful two days with them, for their untiring and successful efforts in making the conference one that met the needs of all seeking fraternity inspiration and understanding, and closer fellowship with old and new Pi Phi friends. Lambda Province wishes to thank the chairman and all of the committees and hostesses again for their very cordial entertainment and for a very successful conference, and expresses to the Grand Vice-President and the Grand Secretary a very deep appreciation for their presence, their inspiration, and their sympathetic interest and help in all the discussions. It was a great disappointment that the Grand President was unable to attend this conference, because of illness. Lambda Province regrets that its beloved Founder, Inez Smith Soule, could not be present at the conference or Founders' Day celebration this year.

Another year has passed, another year of cherished experiences in the service of $\Pi B \Phi$ Fraternity. The duties of my office have been made pleasant and agreeable through the loyal and enthusiastic help of the club officers and alumnae club members. Every club in the province may well be proud of its achievements, for each has added its best effort toward making Lambda Province one upon which the Fraternity can depend for cooperation and progress; for these accomplishments which have made this another successful year, I wish to thank each club, and express to the officers and club members my sincere appreciation for their continued friendship and cooperation. I am deeply indebted to Ruth Barrett Smith for the unlimited amount of help she has given me and the province. The prompt and efficient help given by the Director of Central Office, Beatrice Purdunn, is greatly appreciated. I wish to express my sincere thanks to Miss Onken and other members of Grand Council and to Marianne Wild for their interest and encouragement.

SUE WINTON FLETCHER

MU PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

FIRST, may I present the new member of our Mu Province family, Marin County Club, chartered in February with a membership of fourteen. And a most promising young addition she is, for even at the tender age of four months she has begun to contribute to the support of the family with a gift of $20 to Settlement School.

In thinking back over the events of Mu Province during 1938-39, it is a very happy reflection to realize that among the now twenty-two clubs there has been a total of 187 opportunities to gather together in regular meetings and that of this opportunity, Pi Phi in toto availed themselves approximately 4900 times. The best of it is that many clubs have commented that they have had a good time together, enjoying their club and each other.

But they have done more than merely have a good time. We see evidence of this in the fact that, outside of magazine commissions and Arrow Craft which are sent through other channels, approximately $2,300 have passed through my hands on their way into National's various enterprises. It may seem that any club's one small contribution is insignificant and its omission would not be noticed but this shows what these seemingly unimportant sums amount to. Can anyone in the province help a thrill of pride over what her effort has helped to produce?

All clubs and chapters contributed to Settlement School. All chapters and, with the exception of three, including the baby, all clubs gave to Loan Fund. Even though Endowment was completed last year, two clubs this year made an over and above gift.

That Settlement School contributions were slightly lower this year than last was certainly no fault of Palo Alto Club who trebled her last year's donation, nor of Honolulu, Long Beach, Ogden, Sacramento, or Santa Monica who doubled theirs, nor yet of Glendale, Phoenix, or San Francisco, all of whom showed an increase.

Outstanding on our Arrow Craft sales force are Honolulu Club who, in spite of her great distance from Gatlinburg, sold more than $1,000 worth of Arrow Craft this year, and San José who with only ten members sold $280 worth of goods.

That in their zeal for their own beloved projects, Pi Phi has not forgotten the needs of those at their own doorsteps, we realize when seven clubs in the province give to local causes.

Financial help to active chapters increased this year and at least five chapters are offered scholarship awards by clubs. Gifts are numerous, such, for example, as the six dozen napkins in silver blue with wine monograms which El Paso Club gave to her adopted chapter, Arizona A, and the silver trays which were Berkeley's gift to California B. More important than tangible gifts is the greater confidence and comradeship growing between alumnae and actives, flowering in mutual help and cooperation. To our effective workers on our alumnae advisory boards we must express our thanks for this.

In January it was my privilege to visit eight of the clubs. It is too bad that this most happy experience cannot come to all of us. For not only is it delightful to meet and know these stimulating Pi Phis, but seeing Pi Phi at work is to have the thing we know passively, the power and beauty of the Fraternity, made vital and living and realizable before one's eyes. Each unit is so individual in methods, situation, and personality, and yet so united in loyalty and effort and object.

The close touch with the Fraternity as a whole and with its splendid objectives is always renewed in the official visits of Grand Council. Mu Province has recently enjoyed such a visit from Mrs. Finger, with all its attendant benefits.

Not only have they had Mrs. Finger for official visits, but clubs in the Los Angeles district have had Mrs. Stoolman as well. Wintering in Los Angeles with Mr. Stoolman, Mrs. Stoolman has been generous with her time and presence, always seeing to it that she was available when any club appealed to her. Her experience and help have been at their disposal at all times and these clubs feel grateful, indeed.

The accomplishments of Mu Province have been due to the efficiency and cooperation of the officers of her clubs, and to them for their work and interest we owe a great deal. They have made possible many things.

Back of all these officers and their clubs, as well as back of their province vice-president, have stood the members of Grand Council.

For their unflinching confidence and backing and inspiration as for their untiring efforts for their Fraternity and ours, we tender grateful thanks. Would that we might express them as warmly as our hearts dictate.

Respectfully submitted,

HELEN M. WAUGH

ALUMNAE CLUB REPORTS

The St. Louis Club has adopted a system of trying to introduce new members of the club to each other before the regular meetings. One person is in charge who sees that they have small luncheons and parties and thus feel more at home before attending the meetings.

The Cleveland Club featured at its Founders' Day celebration a review of the music of Pi Beta Phi from the earliest songs down to the Pi Phi symphony.

The Pittsburgh Club had the unique idea of having on its Founders' Day program a "Bluebook of Etiquette—Then and Now." Rules of conduct for young ladies of the 1860's were read first and these were followed by what Emily Post says on the same subject. What a difference!

ALPHA PROVINCE

BOSTON CLUB

The Boston Club held the first meeting of the 1938-39 season at the home of Mrs. Fred Stock in Wellesley Hills. Forty-one members enjoyed a real Pi Phi cooky-shine and we were fortunate in having as our guest and speaker our Province Vice-President, Mary Scott, who gave us much inspiration in her talk on Convention. Settlement School articles were on sale under the management of Mrs. Robert Monroe.

During the winter months the Club held small group meetings on an average of once a month. One interesting event was a dinner served to the active chapter by the North Suburban group. Another was the Christmas party of the Metropolitan group held at the home of Mrs. Philip Adams. And a third was a most successful Penny Sale run by the Newton group at the home of Mrs. Franklin Scott which netted $15.00.

On May 6 the Club celebrated Founders' Day by a luncheon at which forty-two were present. The annual business meeting together with the reports of group heads and the election of officers followed. Again we were pleased to have as speaker Mary Scott who talked on the results of the Alpha Province Conference held in New York in April. At that conference the Club was represented by Miriam Taylor Rae.

There are forty-one paid members. The Settlement School was sent $63.45; the active chapter given $30.00; and the Loan Fund $2.00.

RUTH K. HOWLAND

BUFFALO CLUB

The Buffalo Alumnae Club held its last meeting of the club year at the summer home of Mary Griffith Halbin, at Bertie Bay, Ont., Canada. Irma Brasher Woods gave an interesting report on the Alpha Province Conference held in New York in April. At this meeting it was decided to have a September picnic instead of one in June, as has been the custom in former years.

During the first part of the year, Ruth Minard Miller served as president, and Irma Brasher Woods was installed as the new president at the March meeting.

Edith Wilson Brown, as chairman of the membership committee, has successfully carried out a plan of providing transportation of members to and from meetings. The club has 29 paid members at this time.

A special meeting was held at Ruth Miller's home last July where everyone enjoyed her complete report of Convention.

At the November meeting a demonstration by a representative of the Stanley Brush Products Company was given and the club received twenty cents for each member present.

A Panhellenic organization, with all national sororities represented, was formed in Buffalo this year. Pi Beta Phi, being the oldest national fraternity for women, was given the honor of having its representative, Margaret Nicholson Ray, act as president of Panhellenic this year. This organization is planning to hold an annual banquet, the first to be in October.

Twenty-five Pi Phis and their husbands greatly enjoyed the annual Christmas party, which was planned under the chairmanship of Lorinda McAndrews Voelkle. Officers of the club were installed in March. Adelaide Robertson, as chairman of the Settlement School committee, was in charge of the sponsoring of a movie which netted the club a profit of $34.15.

Founders' Day was observed by a high tea at Hamilton, Ont., Canada. The active groups present included Ontario A and Ontario B, the chartered Alumnae Clubs being London and Toronto, Ontario, and Buffalo. Sally Fulton Knowles of the Buffalo Club was in charge of the program and acted as toastmistress.

Mary Scott, vice-president of Alpha Province, was a guest at the April meeting.

Mary Halbin has reported the club's commission from the sale of magazines as twelve dollars. Fifty dollars was given to Settlement School.

ANN LAVELY

HARTFORD CLUB

The Hartford Alumnae Club has enjoyed a pleasant 1939. The January meeting was held in the form of a luncheon at noon at the Broad Street Y.W.C.A. in the hope that some out-of-town members who are unable to come so far for evening meeting would attend. The February meeting was held as a dessert meeting at the home of Mrs. S. H. Whipple, Tennessee A. In March we were entertained at the new home of Mrs. C. F. McCormick in Manchester, Conn. Members were examined on the constitution at this meeting.

No meeting was held in April, but 5 of our members attended the Founders' Day luncheon in New York on April 29. Mrs. Roy Elben attended the entire convention. On May 5 Adèle Taylor Alford, ARROW Editor, and Mary Herdman Scott, Alpha Province, Vice-President, were our guests at a dinner at the Mavfair in Hartford. This was followed by an informal and informative business and social meeting at the home of Mrs. Robson Brown. The new officers were elected at this meeting.

The final meeting of the year was a picnic at the home of Mrs. Lois Harper Baker's mother. Delegates to the recent Panhellenic meeting reported that Hartford plans to make its Panhellenic more active another year, which will be of interest to members of sororities with small representation in this city. Mrs. Hannah Townsend (Mrs. Frank), Nebraska A, was welcomed to our club.

LUCY FROST

NEW YORK CLUB

The New York Alumnae Club of $\Pi \beta \Phi$ has had a successful season. As usual, there have been eight meetings, a cooky-shine at which the president gave the report of Convention, two teas, four program meetings and the annual meeting. The membership has been about the same size as last year, but the "Deb" group—girls three years or less out of college—has grown and some of our old members have returned to the city.

At the three sales of Arrow Craft material $608 worth were sold. The Debs raised $10.60 for the Settlement School in various ways, notably a dance, and the general membership of the Club contributed about $80. The club stands second in Alpha Province in Magazine Agency Sales. The $50 credit represents a substantial increase over last year's sales. There have been various other money raising activities, notably a used book sale in the fall.

Most of the club's activities have focused on two objectives this year; the Alpha Province Convention at Founders' Day and Panhellenic Week at the World's Fair in July.

At the Province Convention the Northern New Jersey and the Westchester Clubs joined the New York Club as co-hostesses. Thirteen out of the sixteen alumnae clubs in the Province were represented. There were three business sessions, a cooky-shine, a dinner during the Convention proper as well as theater parties and broadcast parties for the festive note. The Founders' Day luncheon on April 29 was a fitting climax. Mrs. Finger, Grand Secretary, and the Presidents of Alpha Province East and Alpha Province West were our guests. Mary Herdman Scott, Alpha Province Vice-President, presided at the sessions and spoke at the luncheon. Helen McKendrew and her committee drawn from the three clubs deserve much credit for the success of the Conference.

Pi Phi is well represented on the Panhellenic World's Fair Committee. Sophie Woodman is chairman and Beatrice Ecks is in charge of the Panhellenic Essay Contest which is to be featured on Panhellenic Day. Two of the four speakers on the Panhellenic Day program are Pi Phi. Carrie Chapman Catt and Josephine Schain.

Any Pi Phis who are planning to be in New York next fall are urged to come to the club meetings. The Corresponding Secretary, Margaret Griffin, will be glad to send notices of meetings.

FRANCES D. KRETSCHMAN

NORTHERN NEW JERSEY CLUB

The Northern New Jersey Alumnae Club opened its club year in September, 1938, with a tea at which the convention delegate, Mrs. W. W. Elder (Marguerite Harwood, Vermont A), gave her report on the national convention. There followed regular luncheon meetings at the homes of members, on the third Monday of each month. In December, however, a dinner dance was given at the Canoe Brook Country Club, Summit, in place of the monthly meeting.

April 28 and 29, 1939 were the dates for the Alpha Province Conference of Alumnae of $\Pi B \Phi$ in New York City for which this club was joint hostess with the New York City and Westchester Alumnae Clubs. The following Monday a Founders' Day luncheon was given in New Jersey, particularly for those members who had been unable to attend the convention. Mrs. Ray H. Finger, Grand Secretary, and Mrs. Robert B. Scott, Alpha Province Vice-President, attended this luncheon.

The programs at the regular meetings have included a white elephant bridge, a talk on the New York World's Fair, reviews of current plays and books, and a travel talk; the year closed in June with a picnic.

In October, in addition to the monthly meeting, the club sponsored a tea and sale of Arrow Craft products at the home of Mrs. Clarence Pyle (Elizabeth Johnson, Pennsylvania A), in Millburn. Total sales amounted to $380.00. A contribution of $125.00 has been sent to the Settlement School.

It was voted that the date of next year's meetings be changed to the second Monday of each month. Accordingly, the first meeting next September will be held on the eleventh under the direction of the new president, Mrs. Lee L. Jordan (Charlotte Merwin, New York Alpha).

MARGARET LOOP DECK

ROCHESTER CLUB

The Rochester Club decided to have its Founders' Day Banquet on April 24 as Mrs. Scott was to be in Rochester at that time. She reached the city in the morning and was the overnight guest of Dr. and Mrs. Lynn Rumbold.

Mrs. Wilbur Dunke entertained the officers and Mrs. Scott at luncheon and they went from there to the home of Mrs. Emory Brownell for bridge.

At the evening banquet, twenty-two girls were present and we enjoyed an informal discussion of matters to be brought up at the Alpha Province Convention in New York.

Our regular June picnic was held at the summer home of Mrs. Harold White at Forest Lawn. The bridge group met at two o'clock and the other members and husbands joined us at six o'clock. There were forty present.

Mrs. Stuart Mackey, District of Columbia A, was an efficient chairman and was ably assisted by Mrs. Harold Baker, New York A, and Evadna Burgett, Wisconsin B. We are planning another get-together at the summer home of the Harold Bakers on Canadice Lake on June 21.

MILDRED B. WHITNEY

SYRACUSE CLUB

Syracuse Alumnae Club has held twelve meetings this year, all of which have been reported in the ARROW, with the exception of a supper meeting during the Easter vacation, at which the club entertained husbands of members, which proved such a success that it was determined to do it again.

In April, we had a visit from Mary Scott, and held a luncheon for her at Drumlins Country Club.

Founders' Day was celebrated with a joint dinner with the actives at the chapter house, our first in the new house. We made the scholarship awards to the actives at this time, bracelets, to Helen Spence and Natalie Caston; ring to Ann Herrington; scholarship cup to Jean Vercoe. Mrs. Elliott Rockwell, Mrs. Sharples, Gwen Mason, Mrs. Taylor, Henrietta Gamble Scripture, Vance Sullivan Reid, Mary Barrett Stahley, Grace Saunders Ruby, and Mildred Egenhofer Kelley came from the recently formed Mohawk Valley Club to celebrate Founders' Day with us.

We have made small contributions of $5 to both the Settlement School and Loan Fund, in order to make Alpha Province 100 per cent. We were unable to make our usual contributions due to our great project, the new house. During the winter we have sold $160.00 worth of Settlement School products.

We made our budget this year by means of two money-making projects, a play review, and a large card party. We have purchased during the winter, a beautiful new mirror, some new dishes, and paid $100.00 on a new hall rug for the chapter house.

The June dinner of our club was largely attended, as always, as it is the highlight of the entire year. We had the seniors as our guests, and welcomed back from out-of-town, Nancy Ferguson Kuhl, Maude Cabell Olmsted, May Bull, Louise Cerow Sherman, Margaret Glanding Rupp, Emily Guild Shinn, Doris Onderdonk Jelke, Ella Donnocker, Mabel Beadle Rich, Arlene Stevens Grant, Ruth Gray Larrabee, Marion Clayton Link, Mary McInroy, Agnes Warner Kittle, Hazel Moon Barnes, Florence Ford, Betty Fernald Nelson, Carola Wyker Hoyt, Edna Cole Younglove, Dorothy Carr Mulholland, Irma Porter Manning, and Marion Gardner.

The scrap book we are making in connection with the history of the chapter, is progressing nicely. Old group pictures and snap shots back through the years, are greatly desired. Please send them to Mrs. Gay J. Chaffee, 2827 E. Genesee St.

CHARLOTTE N. CHAFFEE

WESTCHESTER CLUB

The Westchester Alumnae Club closed its fourth year with a business meeting at the home of Mrs. S. Murray Jones (Norma Hopson) of Scarsdale. The club had a very successful year, adding many new members and increasing considerably the amount raised by sale of Settlement School products. We were delighted to be able to send $50 to the New York Gamma Chapter. As it was considered of first importance to send a delegate to the next Convention a fund was established for that purpose.

The Book Group read "Valedictory," by Cantor for its closing meeting at the home of Mrs. John Stahr (Jean Bouslog).

As formerly the Bridge Group continued to meet the second Monday of each month throughout the summer.

As in any cosmopolitan area there is a constant shifting of population which makes it difficult for the alumnae club to maintain a correct mailing list. We are very thankful to the newcomers who have informed the corresponding secretary of their arrival and hope all the others will do so at once in the fall.

BETA PROVINCE

AKRON CLUB

The Akron Alumnae Club has completed a very satisfactory year. Our attendance increased over last year and we were pleased to welcome five new members.

Founders' Day celebration was in form of a cooky-shine. Mrs. Warren Jones gave her report of the Beta Province Conference in Columbus at this meeting.

It was a great pleasure and inspiration to have Mrs. Johnson as our guest of honor at the last regular meeting of the year. Our new president, Mrs. R. G. Crisp, was installed at this time. Much credit is due to our retiring president, Mrs. B. J. Humphrey, for our successful year. One hundred dollars was sent to the Settlement School.

A picnic is being planned for later in the summer and we are looking forward to another interesting and prosperous year.

HELEN H. HOGUE

CLEVELAND CLUB

The Cleveland Alumnae Club has closed a very successful year with the installation of her new officers at the final meeting in June. The club's contribution to the Settlement School this year ran over $600, the Arrow Craft sales amounted to $532.60 and $10.00 was sent in for the Undergraduate Loan Fund.

Mrs. J. E. Kewley gave her annual party for the benefit of the Settlement School and at this time the yearly bridge tournament was played off by the winners from each of the eight bridge groups.

A most interesting program was planned for the celebration of Founders' Day, featuring a review of the music of Pi Beta Phi from the earliest songs down to the Pi Phi Symphony. A history of the Cleveland Alumnae Club was also given by one of its founders.

One of the big events of the year was the formation of a Junior Auxiliary for girls who have graduated since 1931. Eight years from date of graduation, the girls will automatically pass into the senior group. The Auxiliary will meet three times a year with the club. Founders' Day being a joint meeting. The chief functions of the Juniors will be to take over the work of the Recommendation Committee and to interest graduates immediately in alumnae work. A tea is being given June 18 for these seniors.

CAROLYN PITZER PARSLEY

DAYTON CLUB

The Alumnae Club of Dayton made the following contributions during 1938-39: Settlement School, $50.00; Endowment Fund, $15.00.

FRANCES L. HARKINS

SOUTHERN NEW JERSEY

The Southern New Jersey Alumnae Club opened its 1938-39 season with a luncheon and business meeting at the Moorestown home of the president, Mrs. Donald Powers (Margaret Sale), when plans were laid for the November Bridge for the benefit of the Settlement School. This party, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Stanley Heilbron (Ruth Dotter) netted the club a little over $35.00. The December meeting was held in Moorestown again, at the home of Mrs. G. Edmund Strattan (Deborah Ferrier). Marian Sallee Williams, formerly of the San Carlos Opera Company and a guest, talked on "Opera for Children." In March the club met at the Homestead Coffee Shop in Woodbury for luncheon. Mrs. Russell De Hart spoke on "Early American Glass," illustrating her talk with beautiful examples of glassware, and emphasizing that produced in southern New Jersey.

Founders' Day was observed informally with a dessert luncheon at the home of Mrs. Alfred Parent (Marion Keighley) in Pitman. The club was happy to welcome Mrs. C. W. Walker (Winona Ballenger, Pennsylvania B) of Pitman as a new member. The membership now numbers 23. It was announced that the total amount realized from the sale of magazines has been $45.50, and from the sale of Settlement School articles, $50.00. The program for the day was a description given by Mrs. Powers of her visit this spring to the Settlement School.

The year will close with a trip up the Delaware to the Artists' Colony at New Hope, Pennsylvania.

VIRGINIA LORD

PITTSBURGH CLUB

It was with real regret that the Pittsburgh Pi Phis separated after the last meeting of the year on May 13, held at the home of Dorothy Wiggins. We felt we had had a happy and successful year together with Helen Bodine Newcomb as our well loved president and it seemed a long time until fall when we all get together again.

At this final meeting the new officers were installed and we look forward to next year under the efficient leadership of Lillian Wilson.

The Founders' Day luncheon was held April 29 at the College Club, with Ruth Johnston Steele as chairman of the event. The South Hills Club joined with us to celebrate this seventy-first anniversary. The program was in charge of Arvilla Weisel Myhre, who had the unique idea of having a "Blue Book" of Etiquette—Then and Now. She read first the rules of conduct for young ladies of the 1860's; then what Emily Post says on the same subject—and what a difference!

Helen Newcomb, Lucile Carson, and Lillian Wilson attended the Beta Province Conference held in Columbus in April and they had enthusiastic reports of a very successful conference.

ANNE RODDY KINTER

SOUTH HILLS CLUB

We count ourselves fortunate in being able to close this club year having attained the same degree of success in some of our projects and surpassed our previous records in others.

We found it stimulating and pleasant to have added to our group young women from Missouri, West Virginia, Illinois, and Ohio. Some have been our guests, others have joined our ranks, and one is to help us carry on by being an officer next year.

Since the last letter to the ARROW we have celebrated Founders' Day with the Pittsburgh Club at the Pittsburgh College Club. Our club was especially grateful to Mrs. Floyd Carson for her report on the Beta Province Conference. It was undoubtedly an inspiration to all those who were in attendance. We regretted that of the several members who had anticipated attending the Conference, none found it possible to carry out their plans. We appreciate the fact that we lost a valuable opportunity for instruction and fellowship in the fraternity.

It is a singular fact that our May club meeting has magnetic powers. It is quite a boon to the new officers for all in attendance seem in a receptive mood for the challenging tasks of another year. We have established the system of ascertaining by means of a questionnaire which committees each member is interested in serving. Therefore, when the president begins to organize her committees she has merely to refer to these questionnaires and rarely is she refused for we all seem to realize that to continue to function as a club each of our small number must perform some small task. The most valuable suggestion for improvement embodied the proposal to have our four business meetings and to eliminate from all other meetings any business procedure. During the interim of business meetings the executive board will consider and act on all business. The creation of a ways and means committee to function with the program committee is another innovation for which we have great hopes.

At the present time the committee is at work planning our annual picnic at which we entertain our husbands. It is a pleasant finale for the year.

By way of statistics to report, we find that our paid membership for the year was twenty-two members. Our contribution to the Settlement School amounted to $75.00 and to the Loan Fund $5.00.

GAMMA PROVINCE

BALTIMORE CLUB

The first meeting of the year 1938-39 was called to order on Monday, October 3, at the home of Mrs. A. D. Kennedy, president of the club. Two important projects were discussed and voted upon: (1) To back a joint theatrical project sponsored by all fraternities in order to raise money for Panhellenic; (2) To sponsor an open house at the fraternity rooms during Goucher's Fiftieth Anniversary Celebration. Following the business meeting, Mrs. Isabel Heubeck, alumnae delegate, reported upon the work accomplished at Convention.

The November meeting was held at the home of Caroline Diggs. The alumnae learned with pleasure that the Goucher Pi Beta Phi had pledged thirteen girls, the second highest number on the campus. The meeting was concluded with the "barbecuing" of the china pigs which yielded $23.50.

The January meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Isabel Heubeck. The first part of the meeting was devoted to club business, but during the latter part of the evening the alumnae were most fortunate in having Mrs. Spruce, Province Vice-President, as their guest. Mrs. Spruce gave a very interesting and inspiring talk on alumnae work in the fraternity.

In February the club entertained the active chapter with a bowling party at the Arcade Bowling Alleys. A few veteran bowlers among the group helped the many novices and everyone thoroughly enjoyed the sport. Cookies and soda pop were served at the rooms; both the actives and the alumnae voted the evening a big success.

The March meeting was held at the home of Mary Carr. There was a short business meeting followed by the election of officers, in which Mrs. A. D. Kennedy was again unanimously elected president. The chapter contributed $65.00 to the Settlement School and $10.00 to the Loan Fund. The meeting was adjourned and the guest of the evening, Mrs. Edward McGinley, gave an excellent discussion of contemporary affairs.

The Founders' Day banquet in April was held in Washington, D.C., during the Gamma Province Conference. Many of the Baltimore alumnae attended both the Conference and the banquet and found it both interesting and inspiring to know more concerning the work of II B Φ.

A special meeting was called on May 2 at the home of Catherine Donnelly, to meet Mrs. Warren Smith, Grand Vice-President, who gave a stimulating talk on fraternity work. A report on the Gamma Province Conference was given by Catherine Donnelly, and she returned with some helpful suggestions for cooperation between the alumnae and the actives.

The final meeting will be held June 13 at the home of Mrs. J. W. Tottle, who annually gives a luncheon and swimming party at her home for all alumnae and their children.

DELTA PROVINCE

BLOOMINGTON (IND.) CLUB

We are well pleased to look forward to another year under the guidance of our capable president, Mrs. Walden. We have contributed $5.00 to the Loan Fund, $25.00 to the Settlement School, and made a Christmas gift of books and aprons to the Settlement School.

The freshman and senior classes of the active chapter have been entertained at dinner by the alumnae club during the year. Our most helpful contribution during the year and one of our fundamental reasons for existence is the personal and group interest and service which we give to our active chapter. Their excellent response definitely merits our continued support.

JANICE M. CLEVELAND

FORT WAYNE CLUB

Our Delta Province Conference was most enjoyable and successful due to the fine leadership of Mrs. Edgar N. Mendenhall and the cooperation of her committees. We were happy to have the following National Officers present: Mrs. Edwin Lee Holton, chairman of the Settlement School Committee, who spoke at the luncheon, giving us interesting news and facts about our Settlement School;

The Baltimore Club feels that it has enjoyed an interesting, successful, and profitable year and is looking forward with enthusiasm to an even better season next year.

RUTH K. COUSE

CHAPEL HILL CLUB

Post-Convention year has been marked for our club by the forming of a group of juniors out of recent North Carolina Alphas and some of last year's seniors continuing in college for this year. The result has been that a small, effective set of workers, congenial with actives, have relieved the senior group of all hospitality duties and are in training for future alumnae club officers.

The two groups united with the actives in working for our national project, the Settlement School, by conducting an Arrow Craft Sale and the Towle Silver Display. Founders' Day all gathered at the chapter house for a cooky-shine supper arranged by the juniors. After supper the impressive Candle Lighting Ceremony in commemoration of the Founders of our fraternity was conducted by junior officers and the incoming active president.

Our social gatherings have been due to the presence of national officers: Mrs. H. A. Johnson, Beta Province Vice-President, our own province president and vice-president, Rosemary Moorehead Barnwell and Nell Anderson Spruce, and our Grand Vice-President, Mrs. Warren Smith. Twelve of the active chapter attended province conference and the secretary was club delegate.

Membership has increased; we were happy to have loaned us for the college year from the Washington, D.C., Club, Marguerite Smith of D.C. A; Frances Wagstaff Cox spent the winter with us and Elsie Lawrence returned permanently.

Contributions to national projects are: $15.00 to the Settlement School and $5.00 to the Loan Fund.

EDITH BAKER GIDUZ

CHARLOTTE CLUB

The Charlotte Alumnae Club opened and closed its year with a membership of twenty-five. Five members were lost and five members were gained during the year.

Six meetings, including the Founders' Day dinner, were held. The May meeting was in Salisbury where three of our members live. During the year an interesting touch was added to our programs by having one person review and lead a discussion on the current issue of the ARROW.

We decided that our best contribution toward rushing would be publicity for II B Φ in this vicinity, and have carried this out in the newspapers.

MRS. J. L. McEWEN

FRANKLIN CLUB

The Franklin Alumnae Club met with its president, Mary Ritz, for the March meeting. This was talent night for the club and the program was given by several of the members. Plans for the Delta Province Convention which was held in Ft. Wayne, Indiana, were discussed. Mrs. Roger Owens, Delta Province President, and Mary Ritz attended from the alumnae club with several girls from the active chapter.

Miss Ethelyn Miller gave an interesting and instructive talk on "Modern Art" at the April meeting which was held in the chapter rooms at the dormitory. A report on the Delta Province Convention was given by Mrs. Roger Owens and Mary Ritz. The convention proved very inspirational and helpful to all those attending it.

Founders' Day was celebrated in Indiana with a luncheon at the Indianapolis Athletic Club April 22. The principal speaker at the luncheon was the ARROW Editor, Mrs. T. N. Alford. The active chapter and many alumnae attended from Franklin.

Officers for the coming year were elected and installed at the May meeting. The beautiful installation ceremony written by Florence Deppe Deere was used.

A Commencement Dinner was held at the Hillview Country Club June 12 in honor of May Cox, Marjory Dickson, Elizabeth Hougland Ferrara, Ruth Hicks, Mary Hosier, Charlotte Hyde, Jeanette McElroy, Helen Means, and Betty Reed, who graduated. One hundred actives, alumnae, and patronesses attended.

The past year has been a successful and interesting one for the Franklin Alumnae Club, with a membership of fifty.

MARY FRANCES TEMPLETON

HILLSDALE CLUB

Fifteen members were present at the April meeting of the Hillsdale Alumnae Club which was held at the home of Mrs. E. T. Pridaux. Election of officers was held and plans for next year were discussed. We are hoping to have monthly meetings and plan an interesting program.

Founders' Day was celebrated with the active chapter at the house. A one o'clock luncheon was served, after which a program planned by the actives was enjoyed.

ALLENE ACKLEY BIRK

EPSILON PROVINCE

COLUMBIA, MISSOURI, CLUB

The Columbia Club has had a very successful year with Shirley Storm Dickinson as president. We have been honored by visits from Miss Onken and Katherine Lyons, Province Vice-President. As usual the Settlement School sale and tea were held at the chapter house with the aid of the active girls. Also during the year Ruth Scurlock was chairman of two rummage sales which the club sponsored. Magazine sales have been most profitable this year.

On June 7 and 8 Missouri A and the Columbia Club were hostesses to the Epsilon Province Conference. A banquet at the Country Club climaxed the meetings which were attended by more than seventy-five Pi Phi.

SUSAN SMITH

KANSAS CITY CLUB

The Kansas City Alumnae Club has had 111 active members this year to enjoy an interesting and successful program. Six regular meetings, a cooky-shine, and a Founders' Day banquet were held. An illustrated talk on the Settlement School, movies showing Navajo Indian life, a display of century-old water colors depicting pioneer life, a bridge party, and a discussion of artistic floral arrangements for many occasions were among the varied topics of the year. Convention news, rushing reports, and study of the Constitution and History of the Fraternity were also included.

Two rummage sales, a Towle silver display, and a benefit lecture by Boake Carter were special money raising projects, in addition to the magazine subscriptions and the sales of Settlement School products.

The Kansas City Alumnae Club Scholarship for a girl in the University of Kansas City has again been granted.

We are looking to our new president, Mrs. William Cozad, to carry on with the same splendid leadership that Mrs. O. B. Simmons has given us for the past two years.

ROSE MCCOLLOCH DRESSLER

NORTHERN INDIANA CLUB

The Northern Indiana Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club was organized on February 8, 1939, with fifteen charter members drawn from a forty-mile radius. The first meeting was held March 8 at the home of Mrs. Mark Disoway in Goshen, Indiana.

Founders' Day was celebrated on April 28 with a dinner at the Pine Tree Inn near Goshen. Ten members and three guests were present. One of the guests became a member of the club at the meeting following the dinner.

Plans were made for a dinner to be held on June 29 at the South Shore Inn on Lake Wawasee, to which all alumnae and actives of this district are to be invited to attend.

A picnic meeting for August was planned for the summer meeting.

MRS. CHARLES ROCK, JR.

SOUTHWESTERN INDIANA CLUB

The Southwestern Indiana Alumnae Club has had a very pleasant and profitable year. Dinner meetings were held on the second Monday of the month, each hostess having two assistant hostesses.

An attractive Christmas luncheon was given for the actives and was attended by many out of town alumnae who are not always able to attend the regular meetings.

The Settlement School products were displayed and also given as prizes at a bridge party held at the Elk's Club. Profit on the bridge party amounted to $26.85. The monetary and social angle were so satisfactory that the bridge party was voted to be an annual affair.

Plans are being made for summer rushing. A committee of three will contact the prospective rushers and entertain them in small groups, as this type of rushing gives more intimate contacts with the individuals.

The annual husband and wife picnic is planned for June. The actives are to be guests of the alumnae.

JANE ORR NEHRBAS

LITTLE PIGEON CLUB

The past year has been a very successful one for the Little Pigeon Alumnae Club.

Instead of having monthly benefit bridge parties as heretofore, the members were divided into groups, and each group sponsored an evening benefit. This contacted a great many more people and each party seemed to be enjoyed more.

The new film of the Settlement School added a great deal of enjoyment at one of our meetings.

A greatly needed set of encyclopedia for the high school library was made available through the club.

Money was also contributed to the Jennie Nicol Hospital to be used by the nurse to loan to families wherein one of the children might need glasses or some medical aid.

Contributions by Little Pigeon Alumnae Club, 1938-39: $35.00 to Settlement School (to purchase of encyclopedia); $5.00 to Loan Fund; $5.00 to local charities.

Founders' Day was celebrated with a cooky-shine at the lovely home of Miss Ida Anders and Miss Jessie Harris. This event concluded the activities of the club until August, when the Settlement School will begin the new school year.

MARIAN RYAN

LOUISVILLE CLUB

The Louisville Club began a successful year with fifty members present at the September meeting. Headed by capable Helen Simons the club planned several projects which have all been carried out. Instead of having all Tuesday night meetings we have held half of them on that night and the other half on Saturday afternoons. This method has worked well because in this way everyone was suited. Programs have been interesting and attendance good. In October we had a delightful benefit bridge and in November a Settlement School tea. Our big project has been acquiring a small house near the campus for the active chapter to use for chapter rooms and social headquarters. We hope this house will be ready for occupancy by September.

MARGARET DERR

NASHVILLE CLUB

The Nashville Alumnae Club has just completed a most successful year with an increase both in the number of active members and in the average attendance at meetings. Among our activities for the year were the sale of Settlement School articles in December which was quite a success and the sale of magazines was reported by Mrs. Hunt to have been about twice the amount sold last year.

We celebrated Founders' Day this year with a cooky-shine at the home of Mrs. Marshall on Graybar Lane. The attendance was the largest in the history of our club, and we were glad to have those who are unable to attend the luncheon meetings with us as well as those from out of town, including Mrs. Bruce Huffaker of Old Hickory and Virginia Keen of Clarksville. The program consisted of a skit based on the history of the beginning of the Fraternity, Pi Phi songs, the sale of Pi Phi cook books, and the raffling of a few articles left from the Settlement School products.

We are looking forward to a summer gathering later in the season to be held at the home of Evelyn Braden on Woodlawn Drive.

VIRGINIA HINDMAN

SPRINGFIELD CLUB

Officers for the coming year were elected at an evening meeting held in the home of Mrs. Frank Adams, April 17. Following the election, Mrs. Nick Adams, active in the Springfield Little Theater, reviewed S. N. Berhman's "Amphitryon 38." Plans were made for a picnic meeting in June.

The most significant event in recent months among Springfield Greeks is the organization of a new local Panhellenic Association. A local Panhellenic started in 1916, but was voluntarily disbanded in favor of war work. Mrs. Paul Jezzard, a Drury Z T A and now a province president, originated the idea and Springfield women have agreed it will do much to bring a closer union among Springfield national fraternity women. The initial luncheon was held at Heer's Tea Room with eighty-six in attendance. By virtue of National Panhellenic rules a Pi Phi was elected president, a Kappa Alpha Theta secretary and a Kappa Kappa treasurer. The executive committee meets monthly and the entire association meets quarterly. Dues are twenty-five cents a year. There is no special project outlined for the group but at present they are cooperating with the Springfield Public Library by collecting magazines and books for the library's use. National fraternities for women represented in the association are many—Pi B Phi, K K Gamma, Xi Omega, Kappa Alpha Theta, Alpha Xi Omega, Zeta Tau Alpha, Delta Delta Delta, Kappa Delta, Alpha Delta Pi, Alpha Phi Omega, and Delta Gamma.

In the early spring, the Associated Retailers sponsored a play, Maxwell Anderson's "Wingless Victory," which was cast by the A.A.U.W. Drama Group. The play, a part of the entertainment for the Teachers' Convention, was a tremendous success. Quite a few members of the cast were formerly in Drury Players, an organization which acquired local fame several years ago because of the number of excellent plays it presented in the professional manner. Mrs. Harry D. Durst, Jr. (Mary Margaret Ragsdale), Mrs. Flavius Freeman (Frances Ferguson), and Pollyana Plummer, alumnae club members, had prominent rôles.

The Springfield Alumnae Club wishes for the other alumnae clubs, as well as themselves, much success in their work during the coming year.

MARTHA HAYES GARDNER

BIRMINGHAM CLUB

The Birmingham Club had monthly meetings on the second Monday evening of each month, beginning in September, through May. We met with the active chapter on several occasions, giving a cooky-shine in their honor in January, and joining with them in a cooky-shine when Mrs. Thorpe, Province President, was their guest. We also met jointly to celebrate Founders' Day, the occasion being our annual formal banquet. In December the annual Arrow Craft tea was held and more than $80 worth of goods were sold.

Election of officers was held at the May meeting and committees for the coming year were appointed.

The Birmingham Club was pleased to have three repre-

ST. JOSEPH, MO., CLUB

The year 1938-39 has been a most successful one for the St. Joseph, Missouri, Alumnae Club, which was under the very able leadership of Miss Noel Pinkston until May. We have had more than the required number of meetings with large attendance at every one, and our active membership is larger than ever before. We had very few prospects for rushing last year but we did have our rushing tea last summer. However, the number of girls going away to school is larger this year and we are making big plans to entertain and rush them.

Miss Betty Royse, our representative to Epsilon Province Convention, went to Columbia the first part of June and came back with glowing reports of what went on there. While our club has not done much in the way of raising money, we found from her reports that our Settlement School tea had been even more of a success than we had imagined. We are planning to make even more of a success next year for St. Joseph is becoming more and more Settlement School minded.

We hope that other alumnae clubs are as encouraged by the past year as we have been. We feel that we have taken great strides toward improvement and we sincerely hope that the next year will be even more successful.

MARY J. SYMON

ST. LOUIS CLUB

The St. Louis Alumnae Club has just completed nine of its ten annual meetings. The committee arranged a varied and interesting program and it was enjoyed by all. The last meeting will be the picnic supper.

We were shown a very interesting and beautiful movie of South America by Mrs. Charles Manassa, a member of our chapter. Mrs. George Hagee spoke to us about the Settlement School and also showed us movies. At the Christmas meeting a silver collection was taken and donated to the Settlement School. We also had a constitution meeting and an amateur night. A prominent St. Louis florist gave a very interesting talk on flowers and their care and arrangement, illustrated with plants and fresh flowers. The next two meetings were a book review and the Senior Ceremony.

At the November meeting we had as our guest Mrs. Donald Lyons, the Epsilon Province Vice-President, who lives in Kansas City. Everyone enjoyed Mrs. Lyons' visit so much.

We had two money-making projects, which were quite successful. The first, a tea at which Settlement School products were sold. The second, a theater benefit at which we cleared quite a lot of money. We bought out the house, so we were quite pleased at our success. The name of the play was "What a Life!" a George Abbott production. It was very well done and enjoyed by all.

In February the alumnae club entered the Time magazine contest pertaining to current events. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed it.

The St. Louis Alumnae Club has adopted a system of trying to introduce new members of the club to each other before the regular club meetings. There is someone in charge who sees that they have small luncheons and parties and thus feel more at home before attending the meetings.

Financially we have contributed $525 to the Settlement School Fund, $10 to the Loan Fund, and $52.75 to the Missouri Beta Fund, which in turn contributed to the active chapter as needed.

We have had a very pleasant and successful year.

representatives attend the installation of Georgia A chapter, each of whom brought back inspiring reports.

MARION BRIGHT WHITING

DE LAND CLUB

The De Land Alumnae Club opened the club year with the usual interest in rushing at Florida A. Several members attended the annual progressive dinner party and the club contributed $8.90 toward rushing expenses.

In November the alumnae club and chapter held a luncheon at the Hotel Putnam to celebrate Homecoming.

The annual benefit bridge party, held at the College Arms Hotel, was very successful this year and the assistance of the chapter was greatly appreciated. From the proceeds, $20.00 was contributed to the Settlement School, $5.00 to the Loan Fund, and $10.50 to the chapter for initiation robes.

The club enjoyed meeting Mrs. Smith at a tea given by the chapter when she visited here this spring.

The past three meetings have been suppers, followed by business and bridge. These meetings have been so well attended that the plan will probably be continued next year.

MARY BRISCOE DYKES

ORLANDO CLUB

Members of the Orlando Alumnae Club enjoyed the opportunity of meeting Ruth Barrett Smith at the time she made her inspection of Florida's active chapters, both at a tea given by Florida I and at an informal luncheon by the alumnae club.

The Current Affairs Test arranged by Time Magazine constituted the program of our January meeting. Georgia Kirby of Mount Dora proved herself to be the best posted and chose as her award Rachel Field's "All This and Heaven Too."

As has been our custom, we celebrated Founders' Day with the Rollins Chapter. This year the actives entertained us with a buffet luncheon at the chapter house. All present considered it to be a more successful joint meeting than the formal luncheons of other years.

Pi Beta Phi alumnae acted as hostesses at the last meeting for the year of the local Panhellenic group. Members of the club have been interested this year in the reorganization of Panhellenic in Orlando as the group has been inactive for several years.

Mary Ellen Daetwyler entertained the club in June with a most attractive Smorgasbord. The meeting was held somewhat later this year so that the college girls might attend.

Although the year officially closed with the June meeting, we will not be entirely inactive. Several of the members are looking forward to attending the Province Convention to be held in Miami in June. Under the leadership of Louise Fosgate the club will assist with informal rushing of local girls during the summer months.

MARJORY McMICHAEL PICKARD

LIBBIE BROOK GADDIS CLUB (AVON)

The Libbie Brook Gaddis Alumnae Club has a membership of fourteen, with an average attendance of nine during the past year. Thirteen guests were also present.

It has paid its usual quotas to the Loan Fund, the Endowment Fund, and the Settlement School. A Christmas box was sent to Gatlinburg.

Money has been raised by the sale of Pi Beta Phi cook books and the Accordion Hat Protector.

A gift of a Bible was made to one of the nearest active chapters, Illinois A.

January 28 a talk on Settlement School work was given by Miss Torley, a former teacher in the school.

Founders' Day was celebrated by a cooky-shine, and later in the day flowers were taken to the grave of the Founder from whom the club takes its name.

EDITH CRISSEY

CHICAGO BUSINESS WOMEN'S CLUB

Due to the scattered and somewhat transient nature of our membership, it is difficult to show the accomplishments we would like, but we feel that the past year has been pleasant and successful nevertheless. We had a very good percentage who paid the national dues, were able to send $30 to the Settlement School Fund, and $10 to the Loan Fund.

Each month we arranged to meet for dinner at some different, interesting place in or near downtown Chicago, with a program following. This past year we had two extremely interesting travel talks: one of a yacht trip to the Galapagos Islands, and also Mrs. Hope W. Graham's fascinating talk on France, which was given primarily from the political angle. We also enjoyed a lecture and display by Mr. Robert H. Emmerson of the Eastman Kodak Company; went on a tour of the Chicago Tribune, and attended a WGN broadcast by the North-erners.

In December our group had a tea at Ruth Greenfield's for the display and sale of Arrow Craft products, and also in that month we had our Christmas party at the home of Marjorie Jenkins, where in addition to our grab bag for the Settlement School, we saw moving pictures of the School. We did particularly well with the sale of Christmas cards and wrappings.

A good number of our members attended the Founders' Day luncheon at the Edgewater Beach Hotel in April; and in May our delegate to the conference in Decatur, Margaret Lindsay, gave her report of the meetings there. We are looking forward to a picnic and beach party on Lake Michigan this summer.

We were glad to welcome many new and young members this year, and extend a cordial invitation to any Pi Beta Phi working in Chicago to attend our meetings.

LUCILE GROVER

CARTHAGE CLUB

The club has held six meetings this year. We have had the required programs at the meetings. Founders' Day was celebrated with a dinner.

Following the social time, a business meeting was held and the officers were elected for the coming year.

We regret that we are losing two out-of-town members; one is ill and the other is moving away.

Two of the members had planned to attend the Eta Province Conference at Decatur, but sickness prevented.

We have contributed $5.00 to the Loan Fund and $5.00 to the Settlement School.

We are looking forward to the annual cooky-shine at Clara Parks' residence at Hamilton. Our club and the Keokuk Pi Beta Phis are hostesses.

MIRIAM E. WILLIAMS

CHAMPAIGN-URBANA CLUB

Our final meeting of the year was held at Mrs. Frank Murphy's home May 21, and was a grand conclusion to a successful year. As is our annual custom, the senior active members are entertained at dinner, and are welcomed into the alumnae group at this time. Mrs. Purdunn, from the Central Office, was a guest of the club at this meeting and gave a very comprehensive report of the workings of the Central Office. This was very enlightening to those who have never visited this office at Marshall, Illinois.

BETTY TRENKLE COLTON (MRS. E. J.)

NORTH SHORE CLUB

The North Shore Alumnae Club had ninety-three paid members this year; this is twenty more than last year. Rita Pool was our very capable president, and she will serve again next year.

One summer meeting and monthly meetings from September through May were held. Four of the programs were presented by Pi Beta Phi alumnae. In September, Mrs. Harris Frazier, convention delegate, reported on Asheville activities and discussed the Constitution, and Marie Ranstead presented several piano solos; Mrs. Edward Middleton described the Pi Beta Phi European tour which she conducted in 1938, at the November meeting; Jean Burns presented a program of readings in March; and Mrs. Hope Whitcomb Graham talked on Russia, in May. Other programs included a talk on Mexico and bridge playing. New officers were installed in May.

Mrs. Kirk Keegan, province president, was a guest at the March meeting. Seniors from Illinois E and Peggy Wagner, chapter president, were guests at the final meeting. This year's gift to the chapter, two argental vases, was presented.

Founders' Day was celebrated jointly with Illinois E and other Chicago area clubs by a luncheon. Mrs. Keegan paid the tribute to the Founders. A report on the province conference held in April was given by Mrs. Earnway Edwards, delegate, and the actives sang and presented skits.

Outstanding money-making projects included the annual rummage sale which cleared $162.93. The annual benefit bridge party cleared $156.36, and the two Settlement School sales netted $106.36. The club contributed $200 to the Settlement School and $10 to the Loan Fund. Dues were reduced from $3 to $2.

A great many attended a tea given in honor of Miss Onken by the actives in December. Also in December a large Chicago area tea honored Mrs. Keegan. Mrs. Philip Murkland, province vice-president, was also a guest. The idea of this tea originated with the Chicago South Club, and other clubs assisted in arrangements.

BETTY LEE SHAFER JENS

CHICAGO SOUTH CLUB

Contribution to Settlement School, $200; contribution to Loan Fund, $10.

In conjunction with Chicago North Club, we gave $35 to the Monmouth chapter, to assist them in furnishing their chapter room.

Our general get-togethers consisted of two cooky-shines, a Settlement School tea, Founders' Day luncheon, Chicago area tea, and numerous husbands' parties.

We have a printed yearbook, and we paid half the expenses of our delegate to National Convention.

Eight members of our club attended the Province Conference at Decatur, the highest number from any club.

EUGENIA S. PENNINGTON

MILWAUKEE CLUB

The Milwaukee Alumnae Club has held ten monthly meetings during the past year, seven of the entire club of sixty members and three of the separate east and west side groups. We celebrated Founders' Day with our usual dinner at the White Manor Inn. In May, twenty-six Wisconsin A actives were entertained at a picnic at the beautiful country home of Mrs. Val Blatz near Oconomowoc and Mrs. Norman Dengel opened her home for the closing luncheon in June.

From the proceeds of a rummage sale in October we were able to send $200 to the Settlement School. Our contribution to the Loan Fund was $10. We undertook a bridge luncheon in December as a money-making project and have been selling paper products during the year. Our sales of Arrow Craft amounted to $171.65. We sent our president, Mrs. Holland Thomson, as delegate to the province conference at Decatur. The club supported the Milwaukee Panhellenic benefit bridge which netted $500 to aid needy high school girls and individual members assisted with the sale of Christmas seals for the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis Association.

Our president for the coming two-year period will be Mrs. Harlow Leekley and our secretary, Mrs. Dale Snyder.

ALICE M. ECKSTEIN

THETA PROVINCE

DULUTH-SUPERIOR CLUB

Our club has had a most successful year and we feel especially grateful to Eleanor Abbett for the prodigious amount of work she did in promoting the sale of Settlement School and Arrow Craft products. Our total sales amounted to almost $500.00 and we are very proud of our contribution.

We had a very enjoyable Founders' Day luncheon at Lucille Lomisin's home with Ruth Russell and Margie Dunn as assisting hostesses.

RUBY BURTNES OLNSTEAD

IOTA PROVINCE

BOULDER, COLO., CLUB

The Boulder Alumnae Club has had a successful and pleasant year, with the usual supper meetings, for which we each pay fifty cents. We have contributed to all of the Fraternity projects. Colorado A and Colorado B always join in celebrating Founders' Day. Colorado A was the hostess chapter this year, and the luncheon was given at the Brown Palace hotel in Denver.

Miss Onken visited the Colorado chapters in March, and Mrs. Colvin, our province vice-president, was a guest at our alumnae meeting in March.

Plans are being made for a summer tea to be given at the chapter house as a courtesy to Pi Phi who are in Boulder this summer.

We keep in close touch with the active chapter here, and have their interests very much at heart. A report of their activities is brought to us at each meeting, and we rejoice in the honors they win for Pi Beta Phi.

The last meeting of this year was held in May and officers were elected.

LOU H. MCALLISTER

LARAMIE CLUB

During the winter 1938-39 this club has fulfilled these annual routine obligations: in September, assistance in rushing; in November, the combined card party, style show and Settlement School sale; in December, gifts to the chapter; and in April, celebration of Founders' Day with the chapter, scholarship recognition, and election of officers. In February we entertained Mrs. Colvin, our province vice-president. Our two new activities whose initial success should assure their continuance were in October, a "get acquainted" box supper with the chapter and in March a rummage sale the proceeds of which are replenishing furnishings in the chapter house.

The club has contributed $10.00 to the Loan Fund, $25.00 to the Settlement School in addition to amounts earned by the magazine subscriptions and Settlement School sale, and $125.00 to house furnishings.

HARRIET A. CORTHELL

TOPEKA CLUB

Our club held its last meeting of the year in May at the home of Mrs. Will Beck in Holton. Mrs. Beck was assisted by Mrs. Wilcox. Installation of officers for the coming year was held and we were all much impressed with the new installation service and think it adds much in dignity and beauty. As we look back over our year's work we feel that it has been a success. A rummage sale in October, a Settlement School tea in November and the Founders' Day dinner in April have been outstanding events. We sent $25 to the Settlement School, $5 to the Loan Fund and we also contributed to the Girl Scouts.

GENEVIEVE STUBBS

VERMILLION CLUB

The Vermillion Alumnae Club, though small, has spent a busy year. In October the group were hostesses to the patronesses of the local active chapter at the home of Mrs. Clark Gunderson, with Mrs. Walter Meisenholder and Ruth Radschlag as assistant hostesses. Following the regular order of business a contest was held to arouse interest in the activities of Pi Beta Phi.

In November Mrs. Colvin, province vice-president, visited Vermillion and brought the group a great deal of inspiration. She was entertained at a pot-luck supper at the home of Mrs. R. McIntyre.

It is the custom of the club to have a Christmas party at which the members exchange gifts of small value, drawing names for the exchange. This year the custom was followed, but, in addition, members brought 25 cent gifts to be wrapped and delivered to needy children of some poor family in Vermillion.

Relations with the active chapter have been quite close. The Settlement School tea was held jointly with the active chapter this year at the chapter house. Uniting with the actives on another occasion, the alumnae entertained the patronesses and local Pi Beta Phi mothers at a tea at the house. A short musical program was presented, after which the guests were conducted through the new house. The alumnae entertained the prospective initiates the night before initiation, and were entertained at a cooky-shine at the house in May.

Mrs. Alice Schull moved to Stevens Point, Wis., in January, so the girls had a small farewell party before her departure, and presented her with a bracelet from the Settlement School. Mrs. McIntyre was entertained at a farewell party in May, since she is moving to Irene, S.D., where her husband will be superintendent of schools. She was presented with an hors d'oeuvre tray.

The club contributed $1.00 to the loan fund this year.

LUCILE PIXLEY

WICHITA CLUB

The Wichita Club enjoyed a most successful year under the able leadership of the outgoing president, Miss Kathryn Moore. Paid membership numbered thirty-seven. The past season, three teas, three luncheons and the cooky-shine were held.

Money was raised by holding a rummage sale and selling 25 cent chances on women's wearing apparel in conjunction with one of our stores.

The Founders' Day cooky-shine was again held at the beautiful country home of Mrs. Courtney Davis. Husbands and escorts were included and one hundred and twenty attended. A barbecue supper was served.

The yearly contributions from the Wichita Club to the various activities are as follows: Settlement School, $85.00, Loan Fund, $5.00, and Magazine sale profit, $61.77.

We were proud to rank fifth in the United States in Magazine sales, and second in the province.

KATE S. MCKAY

KAPPA PROVINCE

ARDMORE CLUB

The Ardmore Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi is happy to report a very successful year.

In September three girls from Ardmore were pledged at the University of Oklahoma. We were very proud when these three girls, Ruby Porter, Adele Dillingham, and Catherine Collier were initiated this spring.

We have had regular monthly meetings throughout the year, three members of our club acting as hostesses for the luncheon which preceded the meeting.

Our annual showing of Settlement School products was received with much interest. The results were very satisfying and the profits were sent at once to the Settlement School Fund. Contributions were sent to the Settlement School Fund and the Loan Fund.

It was decided to contribute $25.00 to the local milk and ice fund as our charity project.

Founders' Day was celebrated with a luncheon at the Ardmore Hotel with a large number of our members in attendance.

A large rush party was held in June in the form of a formal dinner at the Dornick Hills Country Club with twenty of the actives from Oklahoma A assisting.

We are looking forward to a busy summer with rushing activities being the main interest. We are extremely sorry to lose our president, Mrs. George Carlock, who is moving from Ardmore in July. Our vice-president, Mrs. William Williams, will assume the duties this summer.

MARGARET FLOW COHENOUR

FORT SMITH CLUB

Fort Smith Alumnae Club had a very enjoyable and successful year under the leadership of Tachee Sicard.

The club held nine meetings with an average attendance of twelve. We are happy to announce four new members for this year, making our membership nineteen.

Contributions were given to the Settlement School and Undergraduate Loan Fund. The Chairman of the Magazine Committee sent subscriptions to the amount of twenty-two dollars through the Central Office.

A cooky-shine in celebration of Founders' Day was held at the home of the President with twenty-two Pi Phis present. A poem "Our Founders," was read by Mattalou Marshall in connection with the candle lighting ceremony in memory of the Founders. An original skit "The Founding of I. C. Sorosis," by Jennie Morton-McCanne and Ruth Morton was broadcast by five members.

Plans for the summer rushing were made at the May meeting.

RUTH NORTON

HOUSTON CLUB

The Houston Alumnae Club meets on the last Friday of each month from September to May, inclusive, in the homes of members. During the summer months the executive, Settlement School, rush, and recommendations committee remain active.

We have eighty-five paid members. Mrs. Joseph Russell and her Membership Committee welcomed eighteen new Pi Phis to Houston this year. This year, as for the past several years, we issued a club year book containing complete information on members, committees, and meetings.

Mrs. David Ball, chairman in charge of publicity, has, in line with the policies of the newly appointed National Committee on Publicity, kept news of our activities in each of Houston's three papers. She obtained especially good publicity at the time of our Settlement School tea last fall.

Our Recommendations Committee functioned perfectly under the chairmanship of Mrs. John Townes. Each girl recommended was pledged.

During 1938-1939 the Houston Alumnae Club contributed $200.00 to the Settlement School; $25.00 to the chapter at the University of Texas; $10.00 to the Loan Fund; and we have in our treasury $100.00 allocated for use in entertaining the Province Conference which meets in Houston this year, and $50.00 allocated toward a fund to be used by a delegate to national convention. We sold $559.00 worth of Arrow Craft; raised $75.00 by an exhibit of Towle silver; $36.65 by magazine sales; $146.00 by a Christmas dance; and $54.00 by vanilla sales.

Mrs. Virginia Scofield of our club has been elected recording secretary of Houston Panhellenic. Pi Phi sold forty-eight tickets to the annual Panhellenic benefit.

We celebrated Founders' Day with a dinner to which our husbands and escorts were invited. It was held at one of the most famous spots on the Gulf Coast, the San Jacinto Inn, located at the San Jacinto Battleground, twenty-five miles from Houston.

In line with the Panhellenic ruling at the University of Texas we are having only three rush parties, all to be given during the summer, and to which only girls who have been graduated from high school can be invited.

The Kappa Province Conference is meeting in Houston June 20 and 21. Mrs. R. E. Brooks, Jr., is general chairman on arrangements. Everyone in the Houston Alumnae Club is looking forward eagerly to the Conference, working hard on arrangements for it, and hoping to make it a happy and memorable experience for everyone who attends. We are hoping to have Mrs. Alfred, Editor of THE ARROW; Mrs. Brown, National Historian; Mrs. Granger, Kappa Province President; and Mrs. Moore, Kappa Province Vice-President, at the Conference. Most especially we are hoping that Nita Hill Stark, who has rendered so many years of distinguished service to the Fraternity, will be able to preside as toastmistress at the Conference formal dinner.

The Houston Alumnae Club is fortunate in having induced Mrs. George Watson to accept the presidency for a second term, and we are looking forward to another happy and successful year under her leadership.

ALICE HURLEY MCKEY

OKLAHOMA CITY CLUB

The Oklahoma City club closed a most successful year under the splendid leadership of Mrs. Donald Bretch, with the May meeting. This meeting took the form of a cooky-shine. The officers for the coming year were elected at this meeting. We were fortunate in having the National Historian, Mrs. Stacy Lewis Brown, of Muskogee, Oklahoma, as a guest at this last meeting. She gave an interesting account of her work and told of some of the amusing letters she receives.

The club met with Oklahoma A in Norman, Oklahoma, April 27, to celebrate Founders' Day. After the banquet a song festival was held at the chapter house.

This year has been a successful one from all viewpoints. The average attendance for the year was fifty, with seventy-five members paying national dues. In February, a style show was given at a downtown hotel with six hundred and twelve persons attending. The club treasury was benefited greatly by the $117.00, which was the net profit. Several other projects were equally successful.

At the April meeting, Miss Margaret Gessner, Assistant to the Counselor of Women, at the University of Oklahoma, spoke to the club on the Limitation system and how it is functioning at the University.

We are looking forward to attending the Kappa Province convention at Houston and hope that we may see many of our friends there.

We look back on the past months and see that they have been full of work and cooperation on the part of the members and officers, and trust that the next year will bring even more.

MARY LOUISE CARNAHAN

LITTLE ROCK CLUB

The Little Rock Alumnae Club started the new year with the Founders' Day Dinner at the Frederica Hotel, April 28, with 26 members present. Our new officers were installed.

The meetings this year are to be a luncheon on the second Saturday and a night meeting on the fourth Tuesday of each month.

Mrs. Jack East, our rush captain, has planned a series of rush parties for the summer, the first to be a swimming party at Spring Lake Country Club, June 20.

Mrs. Lawrence Scott and her handkerchief committee are very busy making Pi Phi handkerchiefs to send to the Province Convention in Houston, Texas. Marion Moody is to be our delegate.

The Little Rock Panhellenic Board sponsored a benefit bridge party and our alumnae club took a very active part in making this a financial success.

JANET JACKSON

LAMBDA PROVINCE

BOZEMAN CLUB

The first meeting of the year was held on September 15 at the home of Mrs. Frank Cowan. A dessert supper was served with our meeting and program following. Plans were discussed for raising money for the Loan and Settlement School Funds and committees appointed. Olga Ross Hannon was appointed Program Chairman for the year.

The October meeting was a cooky-shine for Montana A pledges, a custom followed each year, as it enables the two groups to get acquainted.

The meeting in November was held at Mrs. Hannon's and we heard a report on Convention from Sigrid Solberg, the chapter president.

The meeting January 19 at Dean Ethelyn Harrison's home was devoted to a talk on Opera by Mrs. Frank Cowan who studied last summer under Maestro Cimini in Los Angeles.

In February we met at Mrs. Arthur Post's and heard a very interesting review of the book, "My America," by Louis Adamic given by Lois Payson.

New officers were elected at the March meeting held at Mrs. Stuart Lovelace's. Mrs. Lovelace also gave a very enjoyable talk on Early American China and Glassware, and showed us some of the lovely things she has collected.

Founders' Day was celebrated with Montana A and the Butte Alumnae Club with luncheon at the Hotel Baxter. An interesting program was given with both the alumnae and active chapter taking part.

The last meeting of the year in May was held at the summer cabin of Mrs. Stuart Lovelace in Gallatin Canyon and we had a grand time reminiscing and making plans for next year.

We now have thirteen paid memberships—and don't think we are a bit unlucky!

EDITH WATERMAN ANDERSON

BOISE CLUB

Our club has completed a delightful and profitable year with Amy Wood Wescott as president. The meetings were held the first Monday evening of each month with an average attendance of sixteen.

A potluck supper opened the October meeting when plans were made for the year. The Settlement School sale was held in November and $130 worth of articles were sold. In December a rummage sale brought us $35. Founders' Day was celebrated with a lovely candle-lighting ceremony and the singing of Pi Phi songs. In May we heard reports of the Lambda Province Convention held at Portland.

The bridge parties held during the year have been a grand way of getting better acquainted, getting inactive members interested and helping our treasury. Our donations during the year include $40 to the Settlement School, $10 to the Loan Fund, and $5 to the active chapter at Moscow. We look forward to another enjoyable year.

HELEN CLOCK MOORE

DALLAS CLUB

The inspiration brought from National Convention by four members, added to the progressive ideas of the President, Mrs. A. A. Rowland, and her officers and committee chairman made a year filled with achievements for the Dallas Alumnae Club.

Two groups, one newly organized in the fall for members out of school less than five years, held regular monthly meetings, with three joint sessions for the adoption of the year's program, study of fraternity information, and annual reports. Meetings of the senior group were alternate luncheons and teas, with a speaker at each luncheon and a business meeting at each tea. Both junior and senior groups collaborated on the Settlement School Exhibition Tea, the annual Bridge Tournament and Style Show, and, with Texas B chapter, gave a tea honoring the province president, Dallas' own June Granger, and the province vice-president. Founders' Day was celebrated with a cooky-shine for actives and alumnae.

This spring an additional group of twenty-five professional members organized, to meet one evening each month. Total paid membership for the year was eighty-five, with an average attendance of fifty-five.

Dallas Panhellenic Council entertained the regional meeting this spring, and Pi Beta Phi was well represented on local committees.

Financially, the year was most successful, money being raised by the sale of advertisements in the year-book, the Bridge Tournament, and the display of Towle silver. Fraternity projects were aided by sending $200.00 to the Settlement School, $50.00 to the Loan Fund, selling $425.00 of Arrow Craft and magazines which netted a $40.35 profit, and giving Texas B five dozen knives, thirty-five new robes, and $47.00 toward Province Conference expense. Local charities were assisted by a Christmas gift of $10.00.

Besides this, the club starts the coming year with an adequate treasury, a new constitution, records in good condition, and plans for the year's program completed.

MILDRED ODELL SALE

EUGENE CLUB

A most successful year under the leadership of Jessie Rae Atwater ended with the May meeting of the Eugene Alumnae Club.

The fall meetings were concerned mainly with business and ways of raising money for the Settlement School and other contributions.

At the March meeting the officers were elected to hold office during the year of 1939-40.

The amounts of the various contributions were voted upon at the April meeting.

Founders' Day was celebrated with a banquet held at the Eugene Hotel, April 30. Oregon A and the Eugene Alumnae Club were hostesses to Oregon B and Corvallis Alumnae Club. A very inspirational program was given.

At the May meeting final plans for fixing up a town girls room at the chapter house was made. The room is now completed and being used. Other business was taken care of, and the members closed a most successful and enjoyable year.

CARIE BOULTINGHOUSE MILLER

PORTLAND, OREGON, CLUB

The Portland Alumnae Club has had a most interesting and progressive year under the capable leadership of Mrs. Stewart Tuft (Lou Ann Chase) and we feel that much has been accomplished in growth and fellowship.

Our dance in November was a real success and the Lambda Province Conference which we entertained in March, gave us as much real pleasure as hostesses as it gave to those whom we entertained.

We have contributed $75.00 to the Settlement School and $15.00 to the Loan Fund.

Settlement School sales were unusually gratifying and we give credit to our Settlement School Chairman, Mrs. S. W. Williams (Elva Prescott) who "landed" one order alone for one hundred ninety two place mats to the Lloyd Coffee Shop. We held our April meeting, a luncheon, at Lloyd's and would like to suggest to traveling Pi Phis that they stop at Lloyd's when in Portland and see our mats and try Lloyd's delicious food.

Our May meeting celebrated our club's 25th anniversary and the program consisted of a roll call of all past presidents available and their accounts of the year's work under their direction. It was most interesting.

We ended up our year with a picnic at the Oswego Lake home of Mrs. T. C. Young, where we all had a wonderful time and promised each other we would be ready for another good year in 1939-40.

VERA BEHMER ADAMS (Mrs. C. L.)

SEATTLE CLUB

The Seattle Club brought a very pleasant and successful year to a close with a Senior Breakfast, honoring Washington Alpha's twelve graduating seniors on Commencement Day at the chapter house.

Throughout the year the plan of alternating afternoon and evening meetings was carried out. We were able to increase our paid membership materially and contributed to the Loan Fund and the Settlement School. For the active chapter, we created a Furnishing Fund awaiting the day when it can help furnish a new house for the girls.

No regular meetings are held during the summer but we assist the actives where we can with rushing and make plans for the coming year.

ALICE PENNINGTON TENNANT

SPokane CLUB

The first meeting of the year was held at the home of Mrs. Archie Buckley. Committees were named and projects planned for the year. A rummage sale in October brought us a profit of $81.75. Our program chairman brings an interesting speaker for each meeting. Harriet Schlomer gave us a book review at the November meeting and a Christmas party for the active chapter was given in December.

In January Joan Wickersham told us about her bicycle trip through Europe. A Valentine dance in February netted us $60.50. At our March meeting Mrs. Thompson gave a report of the Lambda Province Conference. In April we celebrated Founders' Day, and we finished the club year with our May meeting when we heard reports. We have given $100 to the Settlement School, $10 to the Loan Fund and $25 to the Spokane Federal Art Center.

MARY LÉGORE SWANSON

MU PROVINCE

TUCSON CLUB

Our alumnae club this year under the expert guidance of our president, Ann Wallace Pickrell, has had a most successful year. Our chapter numbered thirty-four members, and each had a number of winter visitors attending. We were fortunate to obtain three new members; Francis Loftus Beal, an old Arizona alumna who has been living in Los Angeles; Mrs. W. H. Riddall from a Florida chapter whose husband is connected with the university; and Mrs. Tingle who is the new hostess at the Conquistador Hotel.

The first meeting of the year was held at the chapter house. The alumnae had coffee with the girls, and the meeting followed. The November meeting was a business one, and committees were appointed for the Settlement School tea. For the January meeting a book hour was held. Virginia Culbertson Dalberg was chairman, and Helen O'Malley Powers gave a reading. The Constitution meeting in February was one of our most interesting. Betty Strickler was chairman, and had asked Jean Metcalf to give a short history of the local chapter. Jean had done so much research on the subject that it delighted all. The last meeting of the year was a joint meeting with the Phoenix group, the active, and our group. We all met for lunch at the Vahkai Inn in Coolidge, a unique inn.

The Settlement School tea was held at the chapter house before Christmas. Betty Jo Bejeck was in charge of arrangements, and $144.00 worth of material was sold. During the year the actives gave three large teas to which the entire alumnae club was invited. In November the Club entertained Mrs. D'Aule, our province president, at a luncheon at the El Merendero tea room. The Founders' Day banquet was truly lovely. Mickey Chambers was in charge of arrangements, and the actives decorated the tables with old fashioned bouquets.

We all felt that this year had been one of our best. The entire chapter seems to have cooperated with our officers, and we feel quite close to them.

HELEN UPHAM VINSON

BERKELEY CLUB

The Alumnae Club year just closed has been a very successful one socially. The Treasurer's report will not show a tremendous financial gain since only one benefit party was given, but more interest was shown at each of our functions as evidenced by a larger attendance. Everyone was interested in all Pi Phi news and activities.

The year opened with a Board Meeting followed by a tea for the club as a whole at the chapter house on September 28. The next general meeting was a dessert cooky-shine on November 29 at the home of Mrs. Paul Thelan. At this time Miss Nichols of the Wold Book Shop in Oakland gave a most interesting Book Review. On this occasion the alumnae club gave Mrs. Samuel H. Strite a recognition pin. She is one of our most beloved members of the alumnae club. She was a member of I. C. Sorosis and has been active in our club since it was formed. Her granddaughter, Eleanor Rowley Farnsworth, was a member of California B.

On January 16 a tea was given in honor of Miss Helen Waugh, our province vice-president, at the home of Mrs. Claude Faw. Everyone enjoyed meeting Miss Waugh so much and hearing her talk to us about the Convention.

The Initiation Banquet, which is always one of our outstanding events, was held at the Claremont Country Club on February 8. There was a large attendance on the part of the alumnae club. A very delightful sight was a grandmother and her granddaughter at the speakers' table, the latter having just been initiated.

February 23 was the date set for our Five Way Party. The Berkeley, San Francisco, and Palo Alto Clubs, with the Berkeley and Palo Alto Mothers' Clubs gave a joint party at the St. Francis Hotel in San Francisco. Miss Beatrice Edmands gave a dramatic reading which was most entertaining.

The last general social function for the club was the Founders' Day Luncheon which was held at the California Building on Treasure Island. It was a most happy occasion and was largely attended. The girls from the active chapter at Stanford and at the University of California were there, a great many members of the Berkeley and Palo Alto and San Francisco Alumnae Clubs, as well as representatives from the Marin County, San Jose, and Sacramento Clubs.

Throughout the club year various board meetings took place as well as meetings of our several bridge groups. The alumnae club was delighted to be able to help the active chapter during rushing and at Open House by making salads and arranging flowers in the house.

BERYL HOLMES WHITE

GLENDALE CLUB

Under the able leadership of Mrs. Ralph Core (Nell Vale, Iowa B and California I') our club had a most successful year.

The four outstanding events were: the Settlement School Tea at the Tuesday Afternoon Club, a hobby show at Mrs. Frank T. Wolfe's (Jessie Morton, Wisconsin A), Founders' Day Luncheon at the Oakmont Country Club, and a Husbands' Party at the beautiful home of our new president, Mrs. Kelso Barnett.

Mrs. Stoolman and Helen Waugh were our honor guests on Founders' Day.

At our first meeting in September, Mrs. Joseph P. Copp talked to us about her recent visit to the Settlement School. Mrs. Paul O. Morgan (Irene Tolliver, Kansas B) sold over $300.00 worth of Settlement School goods during the year.

At the May meeting at Mrs. George E. Silver's (Vera Halcomb, Missouri A) it was voted to give California F and California A chapters each $10.00; also a recognition pin to one freshman in each chapter who received highest grades for the year. A quiz on the constitution was held and new officers installed.

MATHILDE M. HOGABOOM (Mrs. H. R.)

LOS ANGELES CLUB

The Los Angeles Alumnae Club has had a most interesting and enjoyable year under the guidance of Mrs. Dana Latham (Olive Eams), our retiring president. Programs for the meetings have included a speaker on ceramics, travel talks, readings and a musical program. In addition to our regular business meetings, we held our annual Christmas dinner honoring the seniors of California F and California A chapters, the Founders' Day Banquet and the Settlement School Benefit party. Our Book Group and various bridge groups also met monthly.

We celebrated Founders' Day with a formal banquet held at Chapman Park Hotel, which was attended by over 200 members. A delightful musical skit of II B & G songs which was presented, was written and directed by Mrs. Charles Jeffries (Frances Keen), who was chairman of the banquet. We had with us at this time Mrs. Lois Lois Stoolman, Grand Treasurer, and several I.C.'s.

A contribution of $25.00 was sent to the Undergraduate Loan Fund. Over $200.00 worth of Arrow Craft products were sold exclusive of the sales of the Assistance League, who are also handling these products for us. The Annual Settlement School benefit, held this year in the form of a play reading and fashion show, produced the greatest portion of a contribution of $751.00 sent to the school.

This is the second year of our Junior Group and it is growing rapidly in members and enthusiasm.

In early April we had the pleasure of a visit from our Grand Secretary, Mrs. Lois Finger. A tea was given in her honor at the home of Mrs. W. H. Montague. It is always a pleasure to have these visits from Grand Officers since it helps to keep our viewpoint broad and national in scope.

The officers for the coming year were elected and installed in May.

The club year ended on June 9, with an all day picnic and games at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Austin in Arcadia.

Our club extends a cordial welcome to all Pi Phi in and near Los Angeles.

EVA WALSH EPLER

HONOLULU CLUB

The outstanding event of the year was the visit of the new Grand Secretary, Mrs. Ray. H. Finger, to Honolulu in August. She brought us a vivid account of Convention, news of the active chapters and of Grand Council, and filled us with new Pi Phi enthusiasm.

We have added twelve new members to our club this year, many of them girls just out of college, bringing new ideas and suggestions for making the club more attractive. Mary Burnet, whose singing was so greatly enjoyed at Convention, is one of our new members.

We have had nine luncheon meetings and three teas, including the Settlement School sale to which guests were invited. Attendance at meetings has been excellent, averaging twenty-five.

Sent to Settlement through province vice-president,—$50.00; Endowment Fund,—$10.00 total amount Arrow Craft goods sold,—$1,005.30.

KATHRYN ROHLFING

LONG BEACH CLUB

The Long Beach Alumnae Club has had a very fine year under the guidance of Calista Thurston Cody (Mrs. E. F.).

Our stress this year was for increased attendance and we have had some success by meeting on the third Monday in each month, alternating afternoons and evenings.

The summer meetings have been picnics, steakhakes, and beach parties in which members of our families participated. Other affairs were dessert bridges, teas, covered dish luncheons, suppers, and the cooky-shine, and an annual dinner for our men. One meeting during the year is given over to Founders' Day, Settlement School, and a constitutional quizz at the election of officers.

The club sent $10.00 to the Friendship Fund. Arrow Craft sold through the year amounted to $42.11 and funds from the benefit for the Settlement School was $50.00. The magazine chairman reported a commission of $5.70. The Panhellenic representative reported an enjoyable year.

On March 6, we were entertained at a dessert bridge in the evening at the home of Mrs. H. H. Morris, assisted by Miss Kitty B. Freed. The Settlement School Benefit was held on March 17, at the Army and Navy Officers' Club.

On April 17, at six o'clock the cooky-shine, celebrating Founders' Day was held at the home of Mrs. H. P. Miller with Mrs. Anne Littlefield and Mrs. A. J. Bower as assistant hostesses.

On May 22, we met for the election of officers at a covered dish luncheon with Mrs. William Hatfield as hostess, assisted by Mrs. Eva Hatfield and Mrs. Frances Hayes.

FRANCES J. PATCH (Mrs. L. A.)

SAN DIEGO CLUB

The San Diego Club completed its year with a luncheon meeting on May 27 at the home of Mrs. O. J. Hinman, on a height in beautiful La Jolla overlooking the Pacific. The club has followed for some years the plan of monthly luncheons as a painless way of supporting the treasury while having a really enjoyable time.

This year it was the decision of the club not to give the usual benefit party but to contribute directly to the Settlement School, to take a short breathing spell as it were from the labors and vicissitudes of benefits!

The April meeting was combined this year with the Founders' Day celebration and took the form of a dinner party at the Cuyamaca Club. Flowers in wine and blue and the candle lighting ceremony added charm to the occasion, but its chief attraction was the fact that we had as honor guest and speaker our Grand Secretary, Mrs. Finger.

This year's president, Eleanor English, has been drafted for another year's service and the club looks forward to another year of work and fellowship under her guidance in 1939-40.

ESTHER BIGGER JENKINS

SAN FRANCISCO CLUB

The San Francisco Alumnae Club feels that it has made great progress in this last year. This is proven by the larger attendance at meetings and the general enthusiasm of the group. The club has tried to have entertaining programs and dividing the club into congenial groups has met with great success. The Beatrice Edmunds program again proved to be the outstanding financial success.

A business meeting was held, Monday, April 27 for the election of new officers. The financial report was read by the Treasurer. The club was particularly happy to be able to make a larger contribution to California A, the active chapter that the San Francisco Club assists.

The San Francisco Club was in charge of the Founders' Day Luncheon this year. The groups attending were from California A, California B, and the alumnae of Berkeley-Oakland, Palo Alto, San Jose, Marin County, and San Francisco Clubs. The luncheon was held, Saturday, April 22, in the California Building on Treasure Island, the site of the Golden Gate International Exposition.

April 11 was the last meeting of the year. The past and coming officers met to close the season of 1938-39. Many new plans and ideas were discussed to make the 1939-40 year an outstanding one for the San Francisco group.

STEPHANIE GRAY

SANTA MONICA CLUB

We have just closed a very happy and profitable year under the able direction of our President, Helen Hill. All of the required meetings were held, including the observance of Founders' Day, which we shared with the Los Angeles Alumnae Club, and the two active chapters. As has been our custom for the past several years, recognition pins will be presented to the freshman girl of California A and California F having the highest activity points. A gift was made to the Settlement School, also the Loan Fund. We sold approximately $75.00 of Arrow Craft products. And, best of all, we have a substantial sum in our treasury to begin the new club year in the Fall, as well as many new members.

It was a real pleasure to have Lois Finger, Grand Secretary, and Helen Waugh, our province vice-president, with us in April. Mrs. Finger told us of the accomplishments of the Fraternity during the past year. It is always an inspiration to have one of our Grand Officers with us. We are looking forward to our "official visit" from Helen Waugh sometime during the coming year. She is always a most welcome guest.

VIRGINIA MILLER TATOM

Our last meeting of the year was held at the home of Helen McCreary Majors with Frances Hall and Janet Daggett assisting hostesses. At the close of the meeting Helen Hill was presented with a gift, in appreciation of her year as president.

EDITH BACON

PASADENA CLUB

The Pasadena Alumnae Club have had an usually nice year. By this I mean we have had some most interesting meetings which was partly due to the fact that several of our grand officers have been guests at various times. On one occasion we had the pleasure of having with us four celebrities, Lois Snyder Finger, Grand Secretary, Lois Franklin Stoolman, Grand Treasurer, Ann McDonald D'Aule, Mu Province President, and Helen Waugh, Mu Province Vice-President. They all told interesting experiences and activities of their own work.

As usual we held our tea and Arrow Craft sale in November. This is the third year we have entertained our friends in this way and each time the attendance has been a little larger. This year our Arrow Craft sales far exceed other years.

Mrs. Margaretta Tuttle, mother of Katherine Tuttle, talked to us one evening and it was most entertaining. Mrs. Tuttle is now in Hollywood gathering material for a series of articles on the moving picture industry. In her talk she told of some of her personal experiences with noted people in the pictures. She had us all laughing most of the time. This is the second time Mrs. Tuttle has favored us with a talk and both times we enjoyed her immensely.

Miss Lona C. Dunham, of the Visiting Nurses Association of Pasadena, gave us a talk and showed pictures of duties a visiting nurse performed in a day. It was very educational and interesting.

We had our usual Founders' Day banquet at the University Club of Pasadena this year. Mrs. Stoolman was our guest of honor and we are always pleased to have her with us. Pauline Downey Tompkins, California A, gave us a reading and was accompanied by Ethel Harwood Nelson, Minnesota A. Mrs. Nelson favored us with several piano selections. We always enjoy her music. Maudie Doyle, Wyoming A, gave a very clever reading.

We will end our year with our Mothers' and Daughters' picnic this month.

ADRIA LODGE

OGDEN CLUB

Ogden Club closed a successful year with a feeling of satisfaction over the completion of our projects. The Settlement School tea was a social and financial success enabling us to make our contribution to the Settlement School. In February we were honored by a visit from Helen Waugh, Mu Province Vice-President, who gave us many helpful suggestions.

The Founders' Day banquet was held with Salt Lake alumnae and actives in the Hotel Utah Starlit Gardens. At this banquet we furthered the idea of getting a new chapter house. Miniature houses decorated the tables and the place cards were tiny blueprints.

BETTY WILLIAMS

SALT LAKE CLUB

The Salt Lake Club closed a successful year under the capable leadership of Mrs. Richard L. Bird (Mina Jacobs). We have held two meetings a month, one a Tuesday afternoon luncheon and the other a Wednesday evening dessert meeting. At the October evening meeting an address was given by Mrs. Elbert D. Thomas, wife of the U. S. senator from Utah. In December our evening meeting was a White Elephant party. During January several small teas were given at which Settlement School articles were sold. A cooky-shine was given in honor of the actives and rushees. At the February evening meeting an outstanding talk on Spain was given. Founders' Day was celebrated jointly with the Ogden Club and we closed the year with election of officers in May. We have sent $30 to the Settlement School and $5 to the Loan Fund.
