The Centennial Fund Committee.

Last June Convention voted to establish a new Fraternity project, one which should prove to be our greatest undertaking.

In 1967 Pi Beta Phi will celebrate the 100th anniversary of its founding. It will be signaled throughout this country and Canada with gatherings of every kind as a matter of course; but Convention decided that something more should be done, something of real significance, and something embodying the gratitude and reverence of Pi Phis everywhere for those twelve women who gave us so much and whose ideals and principles led to the development of the Fraternity as we know it today.

The six alumnae clubs to be represented on the Centennial Committee by their representatives were chosen at Convention, and the resulting appointments were printed in the Winter ARROW. In case you missed it, we repeat it here.

Chairman—Mrs. T. Leonard George, 5708 West Franklin Street, Richmond, Va.

Miss Elizabeth Johnson, 5645 Vista Del Monte, Van Nuys, Calif.

Mrs. D. D. Jack Adams, 1801 N. Woodward, Oklahoma City, Okla.

Mrs. Bertrand Heflin, 101 Brookdale Gardens, Bloomfield, N.J.

Mrs. Edwin R. Hodge, Jr., 2100 North 89th Street, Wauwatosa, Wis.

Mrs. William Harrison, Box 128, Bowness, Alberta, Canada

As the ARROW's contribution to the project, we give our cherished editorial space to the announcement which has gone out from the committee.

The Editor bespeaks the support of Pi Phis everywhere for the work of the committee. We who have been honored with membership in Pi Beta Phi can by our support make this response so great that in 1967 we shall have a fund so large that a truly great and perpetual memorial may be created. You and only you can make this possible.

FROM THE HOLT HOUSE COMMITTEE:

The Holt House Committee met in Monmouth October 28 and 29. The new members of the committee, appointed at Convention, are Mrs. Charles Fisher of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and Mrs. Elizabeth Clark of Joplin, Mo. The change in time of meeting from February to October met with approval of all. February can be a pretty dreary time of year. While the maples, which give Monmouth her name, "The Maple City," had lost part of their glory, the aspect was much better than bleak February.

Under the efficient leadership of Maurine Cook, the committee inspected the house, heard recommendations of the hostess, Mrs. Johnson, and then made the decisions as to work to be done. Mrs. Johnson's bedroom has been papered and looks fresh and bright. A bookcase was purchased for the upstairs lounge and is now filled with books by Pi Phi authors. These had reposed in boxes which took up much room in the closet. Another bookcase is an immediate need.

In the spring some work must be done in the backyard. Outside painting is becoming a necessity.

Holt House has become quite an institution in the life of the town. It is used more and more as a meeting place for clubs and for private parties.

However, this does not mean that income equals outgo. Gifts are most urgently needed and most welcome. This is a memorial to the twelve founders of Pi Beta Phi and as such is worthy of your support.

A NEW KIND OF RUMMAGE SALE

From Jean Viney, Albuquerque, comes an interesting story. "Each fall and spring a caravan of cars and station wagons, loaded to no-visibility from any window, leaves Albuquerque and drives into the Indian country some 40 miles away. Through one of the alumnae, whose family was known there years ago, we rent a "fair weather" dance hall for the afternoon. This dance hall is centrally located between two pueblos. There has been advance publicity about the Pi Phi Rummage Sale, and so, when we all arrive, they are there. Some fathers, many mothers with their babies supported on their backs with their blankets, some in papoose fashion. The people are appreciative and we are dead tired but terribly thankful to be able to bring to these nice people usable goods at a minimum cost. At first, the Indians bought junk first and necessities later. Now, they rush for blankets, rugs and children's clothing. Then they look at clothes for themselves."

→ THE LAST ARROW announced that Elizabeth Waitt Rue (Mrs. Nelson B., Iowa Gamma) had been chosen the Kentucky Mother of the Year 1954 and in this number the Settlement School Committee is pleased to introduce her as the new Manager of Arrow Craft.

Elizabeth Rue was born and reared in Sioux City, Iowa, where she was graduated from High School. She attend Iowa State College at Ames and was initiated into Iowa Gamma. There she married Nelson Bright Rue, a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon. For seventeen years they lived in Franklin, Tenn., on a three hundred acre farm and apple orchard. Elizabeth operated the farm while her husband statement appeared in the Gatlinburg PRESS last spring. Through the Craft Workshop, jointly sponsored by Pi Beta Phi and the University of Tennessee for eleven years, interest and skill in the crafts have been fostered. An excellent faculty will instruct those interested in learning crafts under outstanding craftsmen whether it be for fun, profit or college credit.

We are happy to announce that Mr. Kenneth F. Bates, an international authority and teacher of the art of enameling, will be back this summer. Mr. Bates is with the Cleveland Institute of Art and author of the only complete work on the subject of Enameling since 1902. He is a colorful personality and an inspiring teacher.

Miss Winogene Redding, for many years the Designer and Supervisor of Weaving for Arrow Craft, is to be Weaving Instructor. She is Master Craftsman and the designer of Reddigraphs which are original designs for handloom weavers. It is a double pleasure to welcome Miss Redding back to Settlement School.

Miss Jane Glass, a producing craftsman, and Miss Helen Worrall will again be on the faculty. Miss Sara Young of Eagle Bend Pottery, will teach pottery. Miss Marian Heard will head the Workshop and teach Advanced Jewelry.

The Craft Workshop will be in two half-sessions from June 13 to July 16. A full session provides opportunities to visit craftsmen and centers in the area. Interesting, talented people, outings, and the beauties of the Smoky Mountains combine to give a delightful, profitable vacation.

Last year Sevier County raised 6% of the funds for school operation in the County and the State contributed 94%. The proposed change in the allocation of funds for education to the various Counties will necessitate a curtailment of the program in the Sevier County schools or the raising of more money locally. The problem of dividing the funds will fall to the next legislature. The enrollment has increased which means more teachers are required. Is there any doubt that the Pi Beta Phi teachers are needed?

→ WHEN announcement was made at the Denison University homecoming football game Oct. 10, 1953, that Pi Beta Phi had accepted the invitation of university officials to colonize here, I must confess that we Pi Phi alumnae in Granville received the news with mixed emotions.

On the one hand, we were thrilled to know that Pi Phi had been chosen and that we soon would be active again in work for our Fraternity. On the other hand, we knew casually of only five Pi Phi alumnae in the community, and the task before us seemed almost insurmountable.

Denison is a privately administered and financed co-education college of liberal arts and sciences. It is situated in Granville, Ohio, 27 miles east of Columbus. Founded in 1831 under the auspices of the Ohio Baptist Educational Society, it is non-sectarian and accepts students without regard to race or creed. The beautiful campus of 350 acres rises on a horseshoe-shaped ridge north of the business district of Granville, which itself is a typically "New England" village nestled in the hills of central Ohio.

Greek letter groups play an important part in the life of Denison's approximately 1300 students and there has always been a healthy Panhellenic relationship among the eight (including Pi Phi) national women's groups on the campus. The University has aimed as high as 95 per cent sorority affiliation, but due to increases in women's enrollment the average fell to around 80 per cent two years ago.

When the 1953-54 admissions were closed, the school administration realized that in order to maintain this high per cent of sorority affiliation, two courses were open: the sororities already on the campus could increase the size of their pledge classes or a new sorority could be given a chance to form a chapter at Denison. The problem was presented by President A. Blair Knapp at a special meeting of all women's fraternities at Denison and after discussion by the Student-Faculty Council and the Panhellenic Council it was decided that a new women's fraternity be invited to colonize at Denison and that rushing for the 1953 fall semester be deferred to a later date. Students and faculty alike agreed that Pi Beta Phi was the organization best fitted to handle the job of colonizing, and an invitation was extended.

It was not long after the announcement was made of Pi Phi's acceptance of the invitation to colonize at Denison before it became apparent that we were to have able assistance from our province and national officers. Edith Hoyer Rankin, then President of Beta Province, and Velva DeMoss Shortz, Beta Province Vice-President, came over from Columbus on Nov. 4 to help organize an alumnae club at a luncheon meeting at the Granville Inn. A short item announcing the meeting was placed in the local newspaper, and miraculously 21 Pi Phi Alumnae from Granville and the nearby towns of Newark and Johnstown attended and became charter members of the Newark-Granville Alumnae Club. Thelma Johnson Davis, Indiana B, was elected president of the new club and a six member advisory board, headed by Florence Sparks Preston, Ohio A, was selected. It also was discovered that there was one undergraduate Pi Phi at Denison—Sandra Dicus, Colorado A; she became our Panhellenic representative.

The first immediate problem which faced us was housing. Although women students at Denison all are housed in residence halls on the campus, each sorority maintains an attractive chapter house which is grouped close to or near Sorority Circle, one of the loveliest spots on the campus. It was a real problem therefore, to find an attractive house, large enough and near enough the campus and Circle. Early in November, Marianne Reid Wild, Grand President, and Lucile Douglass Carson, then Grand Secretary, along with Edith Rankin and Velva Shortz, came to Granville to confer with college officials, and negotiations were completed to lease a charming red brick house at 425 West College Street. The house is of Georgian-Colonial architecture with a large entrance hall, powder room and chaperone's suite on the street level. A winding stairway leads down to a spacious living room and terrace at the rear of the house.

Π Β Φ House

Adjacent to the living room is a modern kitchen and storage room.

During December and January, Edith Rankin kept the road from Columbus to Granville hot, for the responsibility of furnishing the house fell to her and to Jennette Coen Johnston, Ohio A, one of our local alumnæ. Through their efforts, and through many generous gifts from individuals and alumnæ clubs throughout the country, the house was ready and waiting for

Ohio H Pledge Class

Rush Week, which began February 5. Mrs. Joseph Mulbarger of Columbus, was selected as housemother and Elaine Fallon, then a senior from Ohio B, was to be our student counselor. We had learned when Mrs. Wild visited us in November that the new colony was to be called Pi Phi Eta Colony of Pi Beta Phi.

In addition to deferring Rush Week to the between semester holidays, the Denison Panhellenic Council working with the office of Mrs. Leona Wise Jones, Dean of Women, waived other rules to facilitate the colonizing process. Active Pi Phis from Ohio Alpha, Beta and Delta chapters were allowed to do our rushing for us and a more attractive, enthusiastic group of girls there never was. Two members of Grand Council—Helen Anderson Lewis, Director of Rushing and Pledge Training, and Ruth Williams Hansen, Director of Extension, also were here to give their invaluable guidance to us all. So proficient were our "rushers" and so enchanting the name, Pi Phi Eta Colony emerged triumphant with 36 top-notch pledges—26 freshmen and ten upperclass transfers. Two alumnae were asked to become members of the colony—bringing the total to 38.

Almost immediately following pledging into Pi Phi Eta, the girls were plunged into a whirl of activity. By the time Pledge Formals arrived on March 5, Pi Phi Eta Colony felt itself an accepted campus group and ready to undertake the first big social event that it would give. Preceded by a "dessert" at the house, the dance was held at Granville Inn and was a great success. There followed shortly a tea and reception given jointly by pledges and alumnae to introduce Mrs. Mulbarger to faculty and townspeople. Finally came the long-awaited initiation into the Colony, followed by a buffet supper at "Heidi," the charming home of Florence Adams Poste, Louisiana A.

Mrs. Wild again visited Granville en route to Columbus where she was to speak at the Founders' Day Banquet April 28, to which Pi Phi Eta was invited. While at Denison she was honored by a tea which Alumnae of K K F gave for her and for the local Pi Phi alumnae club.

Needless to say, we all breathlessly awaited the news from the Miami Convention that the Colony had been unanimously granted its charter and that the chapter would be installed and Colony members initiated in September.

The climax came, of course, Sept. 17, 18 and 19 when more than 100 Pi Phis came to Granville to see Pi Phi Eta Colony become Ohio Eta Chapter of Pi Beta Phi and to hold initiation for the 34 who had fulfilled the Fraternity's requirements for initiation. The event began on Friday Sept. 17, with registration at the chapter house.

Mrs. Wild conducted pledging at 1 p.m. Friday at the chapter house. This was followed by the traditional cooky-shine and the reading of the Constitution. Due to lack of space at the house, initiation was held at the College-Town House, a large old Victorian home which has been converted into a meeting place for organizations in Granville. It began at 8:30 Saturday morning, and continued throughout the day with a break for luncheon, which was served there by members of the Newark-Granville Alumnae Club. Mrs. Wild conducted the impressive initiation-installation ceremonies, assisted by Ruth Hansen, Helen Lewis, Edith Rankin and Velva Shortz, and by representatives from active chapters and alumnae clubs throughout Ohio, Michigan, Pennsylvania, Indiana and Kentucky.

The formal initiation banquet was held at 7 o'clock Saturday night in the main dining room of the Granville Inn. The lovely stone-walled dining hall was aglow with wine and blue tapers and the shining faces of the 34 girls who wore their Arrows for the first time. Programs at each place featured a steel engraving of Denison's beloved Swasey Chapel and were printed in wine colored ink on blue paper.

Toastmistress was newly-initiated Barbara Werner, vice-president of the new chapter. Those giving brief toasts were Mrs. Wild, Edith Rankin, Velva Shortz, Ruth Hansen, Helen Lewis, Florence Preston, and Nansi-Lee Smith, Decatur, Ga., president of Ohio H. Special tribute was paid to Florence Preston, head of our advisory board, and to Edith Rankin, who both in and out of her capacity as Beta Province President, spent many hours of painstaking effort in coordinating and organizing the new group at Denison.

Unfortunately, Elaine Fallon, the Colony's student counsellor, had not yet returned from a trip abroad. She was represented by her mother, Nellie Winkler Fallon, Ohio B, at the speakers' table. We were also happy to introduce Nancy Kirwin, California E, who had just arrived to take over the job of Counselor to Ohio Eta Chapter.

The following day, Sunday, the initiates attended church as a group and a reception for 300 townspeople, students and faculty was held from 2 to 5 at the house. The entrance hall, powder room and living room overflowed with floral arrangements sent by various campus organizations, alumnae clubs and active chapters. In addition to our National and Province officers, members of our alumnae club stood in the receiving line to welcome the guests.

Radcliffe College

Ten full-tuition fellowships will be offered next year by the Management Training Program, a one-year graduate course for women, jointly sponsored by Radcliffe College and the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration.

The Program which has been closely associated with the Business School for eighteen years, helps prepare women for administrative positions in business, government, non-profit organizations and education.

Two full-time job assignments of four and six weeks respectively are integrated with six months of classroom work based on a case-study method. The cases—descriptions of actual operating situations of business organizations—are drawn from the Business School's collection, and instruction, for the most part, is by members of the Business School faculty.

Classroom work includes courses in human relations, management methods, marketing, accounting, and personnel, while the field-work gives the students practical experience.

In addition to the ten full-tuition fellowships, two partial fellowships, as well as college loans, are awarded on the basis of merit and financial need. For more information, write to the Management Training Program, Radcliffe College, Cambridge 38, Massachusetts.

At Christmas time, Iowa Beta Golden Arrow members write to the chapter, then the letters are mimeographed and all sent back to each member. We would like to have letters from other G A members about your activities in college and since, and if you write, we will send you a copy of all the letters. Write before Nov. 15 to

The Friend You Need Is the Friend in Deed

By JOHN O. MOSELEY,  $\Sigma$  A E
Eminent Supreme Recorder
Past Eminent Supreme Archon

Fraternities are built on friendship. Not only is this friendship necessary among the membership, but also it must be extended to the fraternity itself.

If you are a true friend to a man, you want to help him; and not impose on him. You can help a friend in various ways: setting a good example, words of encouragement, assistance in time of need; but the purest manifestation of

COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS, ELECTS KAPPA JUDGE

For the second time in the history of Cook County, Illinois, a woman was elected to the Circuit Court. Not for 20 years, since Judge Mary Barthelme retired from the bench, has a woman held this honor. On November 3, 1953, Kappa B. Fain Tucker, I-DePauw, was accorded the position.

B. Fain Tucker was sponsored by the Women's Bar association of Illinois, a nonpartisan organization, who broke precedent on her endorsement.

KATHLEEN CASEY, KAPPA ALPHA THETA, IS NEW EDITOR OF GLAMOUR

The girl with a job today—whether that career is home-making or a job outside the home—is the concern of Glamour magazine's new editor-in-chief, Kathleen Aston Casey, best known as "Katie" to her Kappa Alpha Theta sisters of Beta Epsilon Chapter.

The big-time fashion world's newest editor was graduated from Oregon State college in 1938 after rolling up an impressive list of activities that foreshadowed her coming career. A major in home economics, she was most active on the college newspaper in various editorial jobs and with her column of fashion notes called "Katie's Komments."

When Governor Frank G. Clement was inaugurated a year ago as chief executive of the Volunteer State of Tennessee, he promised a government more efficient and economical, to which end he supported, for the first time in history, a woman as one of the three constitutional officers. This was Jeanne Stephenson Bodfish, K A Θ, who was named by the General Assembly as comptroller of the state treasury.

The new lady comptroller came to her office from the faculty of her alma mater, Vanderbilt University, where she lectured in American government.

"BEST" COMPLEXES

Like all human beings and organizations, fraternities have "best" complexes. Everything about a chapter is the "best" on campus. While it is human to declare that what we are associated with is superior to all others, it is a dangerous philosophy. It is inclined to make one self-satisfied, smug and lazy. In the business world, executives and employees of a firm speak enthusiastically of their company and its product, but they are striving also always to improve for they know that young and vigorous competitors are right on their heels. So it is with fraternities, we cannot rest on past laurels. If we do not keep campus leadership through constant effort, others will take it from us. The same is true of our own chapter endeavors. After Calvin Coolidge left the White House he wrote, "Nothing in the world will take the place of persistence. Talent will not; nothing is more common than unsuccessful men with talent. Genius will not; unrewarded genius is almost a proverb. Education will not; the world is full of educated derelicts. Persistence and determination only are omnipotent. The slogan 'press on' has solved and always will solve the problems of the human race."

From DEAN HELEN REICH's speech at Oklahoma installation as reported in Themis of Z T A.

friendship is to do nothing that would ever cause that friend to doubt your loyalty. Once loyalty is shaken, the whole structure begins to crumble.

How about your fraternity, Mr. Fraternity Man? Are you its friend or its foe?

You may wear your badge proudly. You may praise your fraternity loudly. You can participate enthusiastically in all the projects of your chapter, attend faithfully your regional and national meetings and even serve brilliantly on committees and in the officer ranks. The real test of your loyalty comes when you are faced with the choice of doing or not doing something that will reflect upon the good name of your fraternity.

ALPHA PROVINCE EAST

NOVA SCOTIA ALPHA—DALHOUSIE UNIVERSITY. Chartered 1934. Nova Scotia A had a very busy autumn term. Fall rushing, as usual, consisted of an informal coke party, which was very successful. A  $\Gamma \Delta$  joined with Pi Beta Phi in a Panhellenic tea to give freshettes who were rushed in January a better idea of fraternity life.

An important event was a party given for St. Joseph's Orphanage by all the fraternities and sororities on campus.

We greatly enjoyed the visit of Marianne Reid Wild, Grand President, who was with us early in November. She was extremely helpful in giving us a fuller understanding of the meaning of Pi Beta Phi.

Our project at the moment is knitting booties and sweaters for the Infants Home and the output so far is quite creditable.

The short term was greatly enlivened by the fact that the Dalhousie Tigers won the Nova Scotia Football League championship for the first time in three years.

SANDRA FRASER

MAINE ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MAINE. Chartered 1920. Pledge Day, December 12, 1954. INITIATED, October 3, 1954: Joyce Carlson, Worcester, Mass.; Myra Goldman, New Rochelle, N.Y.; Joann Hansen, Machias; Alice Osier, Medomak; Lois Whitcomb, Belfast; Joan Williams, Bar Harbor.

Maine A was greatly honored to have Mrs. Wild visit the Maine campus in November. Her visit made the members feel even more deeply the chain that binds us.

The alumnae entertained the actives and new pledges at a delightful Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Douglas in Orono.

Big events before finals in February were basketball games, ski meets, and the Military Ball. Candidates for Honorary Lieutenant Colonel were Rose Ellen Wedge and Barbara Ilvonen.

Myra Goldman was a candidate for Calico Queen at the Farmers' Fair. Although she didn't win the title she placed second in the cow milking contest.

The Pi Phis were entertained at a tea given to them by the Sigma Nus. Speakers and music were enjoyed in the candle lit atmosphere.  $\Phi \Gamma \Delta$  gave us a spaghetti supper. After supper, slides and dancing were enjoyed.

Seven Pi Phi among forty other campus students, were invited to join  $\Sigma \Pi \Sigma$ , the honorary psychology fraternity. They were Gwyneth Bryant, Joan Gerrish, Jane Wiseman, Elizabeth Smith, Mary June Renfro, Judith Barker, and Barbara Ilvonen.

Among the nine initiated into  $K \Delta \Pi$ , the educational fraternity, were Joan Gerrish and Gwyneth Bryant.

Other honors include Mary June Renfro, Home Ec president, Anita Ramsdell, Tumbling Club president, and Barbara Willey, vice president of North Estabrooke Dormitory.

BARBARA ILVONEN

VERMONT ALPHA—MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE. Chartered, 1893. Pledge Day, March 13. A Christmas Gift Sale for the benefit of the Settlement School and Vermont A's foster child was a great success, and many found that the handmade items from Gatlinburg made lovely Christmas gifts. One meeting was devoted to making gay octopus dolls for the Women's Forum Annual Christmas Sale, and members were entertained at another by a vivid account of bull fighting in Spain by a Spanish professor. A highlight of the season was the annual caroling party with  $\Delta \Delta \Delta$ , followed by a party at the  $\Sigma \kappa$  rooms. A jolly  $\Sigma \kappa$  Santa Claus entertained all, while Florence Hildreth and Janice Netland represented the chapter in a hilarious talking contest.

A quiz tested members' geographical knowledge on Scholarship Night, while slides of Holt House were the feature of a Pi Phi Night. An archives party is planned as educational entertainment. Plans for rushing parties and open houses have held the center of attention.

Leda Cocco, Vermont A's Italian foster child writes that she is well and appreciates the many letters she has received from her "foster mothers" of Pi Beta Phi.

PLEGDED: Alita Davis, Greenwich, Conn.

JULIA KING

VERMONT BETA—UNIVERSITY OF VERMONT. Chartered, November 24, 1898. Pledge Day, November 23, 1954. INITIATED, October 11, 1954: Janice Bailey, Hanover, N.H.; Joan Bugbee, Burlington; Nancy Bush, Hingham, Mass.; Susan Connelly, White Plains, N.Y.; Susanne Lowell, Grand Haven, Mich.; Linda McKerley, Rutland; Nora-Jane Palen, New York City; G. Ann Ten Eyck, Altamont, N.Y.

Vermont B is the scene of much concentrated effort since each girl is trying her very hardest to aid Pi Beta Phi to become scholastically on top this semester.

Many preparations are underway for the UVM winter carnival, Kake Walk. This year should be a good one for adding more trophies to the collection since the vivacious candidate for queen, Elizabeth Semans, has no many willing and loyal supporters already hard at work.

It doesn't seem possible to believe that the first semester has ended and that Mrs. Wild has come and gone, leaving behind so many wonderful ideas and members wishing she could remain in Vermont the year around!

MARILYN FALBY

MASSACHUSETTS ALPHA—BOSTON UNIVERSITY. Chartered, March 17, 1896. Pledge Day, November 8, 1954. INITIATED, December 4, 1954: Joanne Gough, Nancy Linn, Geraldine Miraldi.

Massachusetts As joined with the  $\Delta \Delta \Delta$ s and the  $K \kappa \Gamma$ s for a dance in January; Initiation Dance was held in February, and the Annual Greek Ball was anticipated for early spring. The 1954 Football season at Boston University was one of which we are all proud. The team did a tremendous job with a record of 7 wins—2 losses. Also of interest in the world of football was the fourth consecutive win of the Pi Beta Phi in the "Powder Bowl." ### PENNSYLVANIA GAMMA—DICKINSON COLLEGE. Chartered, 1903. Pledge Day, February, 1955.

Pennsylvania  $\Gamma$  has had an active and successful Fall Semester. We began with the annual serenade, after which the SAEs invited the chapter over for cookies and coffee.

Next on the agenda was the chapter's social service project for the semester. South College was transformed into a carnival tent for "Pi Beta Phi Carnival Time," held for the benefit of the Settlement School. Amusements offered ranged from "Throw the Sponge at the Professor" to a side show featuring Katy Schecter as a torch singer, Joyce Seto as a hula dancer, and Marge Connelly as a comedian.

Pi Beta Phi attended the Panhellenic Punch Party, an affair held annually for the women of the college. A rummage sale sponsored by Pennsylvania  $\Gamma$  was ably directed by Carole Fischer. Sunday morning breakfasts in the rooms were enjoyed by chapter members once every six weeks during the semester. Beta Province's new president, Mrs. Ben F. Hopkins visited the chapter. It was a pleasure to have her and we hope to see her often.

The Christmas season was celebrated extensively, beginning with the "Snow Ball" annual senior formal. For this affair the underclass Pi Beta Phi decorated the B  $\Theta$  II House with a Christmas theme under the direction of Jo Creveling. The chapter then busied itself with preparation for open houses for the men's fraternities, starting on December 10 and continuing through next semester. January 6 found us at a buffet for the faculty, after which the chapter was occupied with plans for rush, which began January 31.

The students' return to campus after the Christmas vacation marked the opening of the new ice skating rink on campus. This rink is shared by town people and students alike and features instruction in figure skating.

The spirit of Christmas directed the activities of the members of Pennsylvania E both in enjoying the holiday festivities and in doing philanthropic work. The Pi Beta Phi and the  $\Sigma$  A Es held a Christmas party for fifty first grade children from a near-by school. After the children played some games, an  $\Sigma$  A E Santa Claus distributed the gifts, and refreshments were served. The members joined with Acacia in an evening of caroling. In a more serious vein, pledges helped repair toys which were then sold at a minimum price to the parents of underprivileged children. The proceeds from this sale were used for a playground in an underprivileged area.

The Panhellenic Council recently approved a plan permitting rushing second semester freshman women who have attained a certain scholastic average. This plan will go into effect in the spring semester of 1956.

Nancy Bird, Beverly Fish, and Shirley Kerr are three members of Pennsylvania E who were accepted into Angel Flight, a very new kind of organization on campus. NORTH CAROLINA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA. Chartered, 1923. Pledge Day, September 29, 1954.

After a hard, but most satisfactory rush week, twenty-six new Pi Beta Phi pledges were introduced to the campus at a study break. In return the chapter was entertained by the  $\chi \Psi$ ,  $\Phi K \Sigma$ , and  $\Phi \Delta \Theta$  fraternities.

Soon came football season bringing with it Homecoming and the Fraternity displays. The pledges took over, using the slogan "Tarheels Take the Gamecocks for a Ride." The front yard was resplendent with a merry-go-round and a huge clown face.

All the members eagerly awaited the annual Pi Beta Phi pledge week-end, including a formal dance and dinner party. In the meantime, a giant green caterpillar was being built for the "Beat Dook" parade, in which Anne Penn graced the Queen's Float.

December was a busy, but happy, time. Along with the  $K \Sigma$ s, the chapter played Santa Claus to twenty orphans. North Carolina A then had its own party and, according to tradition, went Christmas caroling around the campus. Evidently the efforts were appreciated, for the  $K \Sigma$ s caroled back after hours and Santa brought everyone a candy cane.

The alumnae supper was a tremendous success, as the good food and company helped to strengthen our Pi Beta Phi bonds and friendship.

Dorothy Figel was elected to Student Council, while Lu Anne Thornton has become a member of the Student Legislature. Jane Edwards and Trisha Permenter were chosen for the beauty section of the Yackety-Yack, the yearbook.

Sorority bonds on campus have been strengthened by exchange dinners and all fraternity women have been working on the forthcoming Panhellenic Workshop, which is headed by Dorothy Figel.

Examination time has come to the University of North Carolina and the members are again striving to regain the scholarship award, while they look forward to a visit from Mrs. W. S. Bizzell, Gamma Province President.

For the DePauw Pi Beta Phis, the month of October was devoted to studying for first exams, going to football games, and getting better acquainted with the pledges. Indiana E has a wonderful pledge class of nineteen, with Kay Culver already a cheerleader and a member of the swimming club. Old Gold Day was October 23, and the alumnae came back to watch the groundbreaking for a new library. The following week, Carol Rudolph, a sophomore, was selected one of five yearbook beauty queens.

MISSOURI BETA—WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1907. Pledge Day, October 18, 1954. INITIATED, October 17, 1954: Deborah Barns, Kenosha, Wis.; Shirley McDonald, Monroe, La.

This fall, Washington University had many new faces, including Chancellor Ethan A. H. Shepley. Among them were four Pi Phi transfers who have since affiliated with Missouri B, Nancy Hiller, Judy Heuer, Pat Krebs, and Beverly Bauck.

The chapter was well represented in the Homecoming Court this year with Gene Smith as a queen candidate. Soon to follow the gay Homecoming Weekend was Missouri B's house party at Pere Marquette State Park. It was very successful and all had a wonderful time. Because it took place so soon after pledging, it enabled the actives and pledges to become closer friends.

Missouri B's fall Pledge Formal was also a wonderful success. The room was decorated with profile pictures of the pledges, made of silver paper mounted on black, serving as wonderful souvenirs for the future Pi Phis.

The chapter was again selected to be one of the four sororities participating in the Washington University Bearskin Follies Show, which will take place next spring. Missouri B is hoping to defend its first place trophy won last year, with the 1955 skit entitled "A Roman's Holiday."

Sportswise Missouri B has done quite well this fall, having won first place in the Volley Ball Tournament, second place in the Archery and Table-tennis Tournaments, and third place in the Swimming Meet.

In place of the Christmas party this year, the chapter had a tea during the holidays in honor of all the Pi Phis actives and pledges in the St. Louis area. It was wonderful to be able to meet and get to know all of these Pi Phis who attend colleges throughout the country.

Under the direction of Addie Stephenson, president of Panhellenic, and also a very active Pi Phi, Washington University Panhellenic is planning what will surely be a most successful Spring Rush.

After Christmas vacation, campaigning began for our Prom queen candidate, Carol Stephenson.

KANSAS BETA—KANSAS STATE COLLEGE. Chartered, 1915. Pledge Day, September 10, 1954. INITIATED, October 18, 1954: Norma Mase, St. John; and Gloria Schneblin, Peoria, Ill.

Surprises were at every turn for Kansas B this fall—and the twenty-four pledges were responsible. Everyone was greeted with a prayer at her place when she entered the dining room for Thanksgiving dinner—prepared by the pledges. During dinner they gave a poem of thanksgiving. Though the actives were the pledges' guests at the surprise Christmas party December 11, they furnished the entertainment—and enjoyed it! The meaning of Pi Beta Phi was the theme of the skit the pledges gave after the Christmas dinner.

Miss Ruth Louise Dierks, Iota Province President, visited Kansas B in December and was their honored guest at traditional dinner December 15.

Santa delivered presents to seventy-six girls at the Girls' Industrial School of Beloit from Kansas B.

The faculty members came when Kansas B honored their new housemother, Mrs. E. W. Price, with a tea on November 21.

The King and Queen of Hearts and blues singers highlighted the Pi Phi Blues party on October 29. This was the costume party which the pledges give the actives each year.

Homecoming brought two queen attendants, Becky Thacher and Sondra Tate, and honorable mention for house decorations to Kansas B. Carol Miller was attendant to the queen of the K  $\Sigma$  Pretzel Bowl. The chapter's float received second place in the Flush Bowl parade.

Kansas B was first in both teniquots and swimming intramural events. Serena Rankin is president of the national pep club and Marilyn McCready is corresponding secretary. Phyllis Ruthrauff was initiated into  $\Theta$   $\Sigma$   $\Phi$ , honorary fraternity for women in journalism.  $\Phi$  A M invited Joan Sargent and Carol Clark to join the honorary scholastic society for junior and senior women. #### COLORADO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO. Chartered, 1884.

Wintertime for Colorado A was highlighted by Christmas festivities. The sophomores held a beautiful formal in honor of the pledges. The unusual motif of black and white and Christmas mobiles created quite a sensation. Another fun event was the now-annual faculty caroling party, when the Pi Beta Phi invited their favorite teachers over for dessert and coffee. Closer and friendlier relations and a good time were the results of the party.

Colorado A is very proud of Jane Miller who is a finalist in the Colorado Queen contest.

The Greek organizations of the University of Colorado held another Greek Week this year, which with continuing success will become an annual event. Panel discussions of Greek problems and lectures by prominent alumnae of various fraternal organizations highlighted the week which was climaxed by a Greek dance held in the new memorial. There was almost 100% attendance.

The University has added two new buildings in accordance with the enlarged enrollment. The first, opened in September, is a large two-story building to house the business school. The second, to open in February, is a modern, one-story building to house the music school. The latest facilities and practice rooms for choirs, orchestra, band, and individuals are included.

Many new dorms for both lower and upper classmen are in construction.

COLORADO BETA—UNIVERSITY OF DENVER. Chartered, 1885. Pledge Day, September 20, 1954. INITIATED, October 22, 1954: Pat Phillips, Denver.

Fall quarter was indeed exciting for everyone at the University of Denver as the Pioneer gridsters captured first place in the Skyline conference.

"Accent on Fantasy" was the theme for the homecoming festivities. House decorations, floats, the all school show, the variety show, and the Cinderella ball were patterned after fairy tales and nursery rhymes. Colorado B won first place for their giant float of the "Gingham Dog and the Calico Cat" and second place for their house decorations depicting the "Three Little Pigs" cooking the wolf and preparing to cook the "Cougars" (Denver's opponents) next. The chapter also took first place in skit competition and won the traveling trophy for the highest number of points earned during the entire homecoming celebration.

Pat Phillips was elected "Miss Beanie" at the annual  $\Sigma X$  rodeo while the chapter pledges took home the first place trophy for their speed and endurance in the relay races, tug of war, and other such invigorating games.

Just before finals got underway, the pledges planned and presented the annual pledge dance. This year's theme was "Angelic Antics."

Everyone agreed that all the studying had been worth the effort when Colorado B was presented the Panhellenic scholarship trophy for having the highest average for three consecutive quarters.

Fall quarter wound up with a promising note when members of Wyoming A returned from Christmas vacation to learn that over half of the chapter made between an A and B average. Everyone is working hard for the scholarship cup again.

Before vacation Wyoming A had a Christmas banquet and party. The pledges gave a clever program with singing and a skit portraying actives. That evening Mrs. Alma Sutherland, the chaperon, had open house and a party in her apartment for all of the chapter.

The Pi Phis copped one of the biggest Homecoming honors in October when they won the Homecoming sing. Colleen Wood directed the group singing The Continental and Greek Archipelago and won a beautiful trophy.

OKLAHOMA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA. Chartered, September 1, 1910. Pledge Day, September 3, 1954.

The holiday season officially began for Oklahoma A when members and pledges entertained their dates at the annual Christmas dinner-dance. All varieties and sizes of dolls filled the house for the pledges' Doll Dinner project, with everyone bringing a doll to be given to the Crippled Children's Hospital. Two parties in the chapter house were held the week before vacation. The first was a turkey dinner and gift exchange, with Santa arriving just in time to distribute gifts to members and their "little sisters." The following evening, things were reversed, with seniors serving dinner to the cooks and houseboys, who were also presented with gifts from the chapter. Members brought toys and articles of clothing to be given to children at the Concho Indian School; and spent an evening caroling at the mental hospital.

The "Golden Arrow Casino" brightened one corner of the Campus Chest carnival, as Pi Beta Phi helped to raise money for the campus drive. The members also took the job of directing the publicity for the World University Service one of the branches supported by the Campus Chest drive.

Three new queens and an honorary Cadet Captain were elected from the ranks of Pi Beta Phi. Sylvia Stoutz reigns as A T  $\Omega$  Esquire Girl, Joan Gentry was chosen as H K A Dream Girl, and Merica Shawver was crowned Feudal Princess of A T at their Feudal Dinner. Representing the military, Nan Scoot was selected as Honorary Cadet Captain of the Army ROTC. Suzie Reily was selected as a Campus

OKLAHOMA BETA—OKLAHOMA A & M COLLEGE. Chartered, August 12, 1919. Pledge Day, September 11, 1954. INITIATED, October 24, 1954; Nan Massey, Bristow; Donna Kaufman, Bartlesville; Janie Goodpasture, Vinita; Betty Small, Tulsa; Robin Hrbac, Stillwater.

Homecoming came early to the Oklahoma A & M campus this fall, and Oklahoma B showed the usual spirit and ability as it placed first in originality among floats with its huge pink and black argyle sock and the caption "Ar-guy'll Sock 'Em." Although the house decorations did not place, the entire campus was amused at the forty-foot orange and black arrow with a football player on the end which said, "Shaft 'Em, Aggies!" Gerry Wyatt was attendant to the O Club Queen.

Oklahoma B again made a good showing and added another trophy to the collection on Parents' Day when the Pi Beta Phi had the best representation of parents present.

A fall house party with the theme of Heaven and Hell was a huge success. The first floor of the chapter house was decorated to represent Heaven and the basement served as Hell, complete with red lights and piping hot refreshments!

Oklahoma B enjoyed a visit from Mrs. Helen Anderson Lewis, National Director of Rushing and Pledge Training, this fall.

A number of individual honors have come to various members. Jean Ranck and president Betty Taylor were selected for "Who's Who," and Jean Ranck and Georgeann Hickman were chosen for  $\Phi K \Phi$ . Jo Ann Hankins was elected Sophomore Queen, pictures of Nancy Brown, Margie Hudson, and Judy Thompson will appear in the beauty section of the yearbook, and Nancy Brown was first runner-up in Oklahoma's contest for Maid of Cotton. ARKANSAS ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS. Chartered, December 29, 1909. Pledge Day, September 22, 1954. INITIATED, October 27, 1954; Molly McAmis, Charlotte Smith, Little Rock; Pat Grant, Stuttgart.

Arkansas has concluded its most successful football season in years by playing Georgia Tech in the Cotton Bowl, and even though the Razorbacks lost the game we still think our "twenty-five little pigs" are pretty great.

Arkansas A really shone Homecoming weekend with Ann Williams being a maid in the Homecoming Court, the chapter's float winning first place and house decorations an honorable mention. The float featured a huge pink and black train with the slogan "We Twain 'Em Wyatt" underneath. The house decorations consisted of a top-hatted stork holding a bundle and a clothesline hung with diapers spelling out "We're Expecting Victory."

Both pledges and actives enjoyed the recent visit of Helen Anderson Lewis, Director of Rushing and Pledge Training. It was both an enjoyable and educational experience which made the chapter realize more fully the extent of our fraternity and its business.

The chapter is fortunate enough this year to be sponsoring an exchange student, Anne Kempers, from Amsterdam, Holland. It is a wonderful lesson in foreign relations to live in the same house with such a charming representative of the Netherlands. Anne spent Christmas in Little Rock and her vacation was brightened by the presence of her fiancé who is an officer in the Dutch Royal Navy and is stationed in California.

RUTH GALE

TEXAS ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS. Chartered, February 2, 1902. Pledge Day, September 14, 1954.

The pounding of hammers and the buzzing of saws have become familiar sounds on the UT campus as work continues on a new English building and a four story women's dormitory. Both these air conditioned buildings are to be ready for occupancy next fall. Much interest has been shown by the student body in the Great Issues series, which has offered outstanding lecturers speaking on the subject "Free Minds and Free Men." Dad's Day was held October 30, at which time Sidney Howell, Texas A president, was named Best All Round Woman Student.

Margaret Preston was chosen one of the Ten Most Beautiful, Jo Richardson and Kathleen Kimbro were among the Five Most Beautiful Freshmen. Margaret, Ann Harrell, and Carolyn Kongabed were named R.O.T.C. Sponsors, and Carolyn and Dianne Hill were picked for sweethearts of  $\Phi K \Sigma$  and  $\Sigma A E$  respectively. Three members of the chapter have recently been elected to membership in honorary fraternities. They are Marthanne Hodges, June 1954 graduate, to  $\Phi B K$ , Jere Campbell to  $\Pi A \Theta$ , and Mary Ann Finck to  $M \Phi \Sigma$ . At the annual Greek Sing Song first place among sororities went to Pi Beta Phi directed by Terry Williams, and  $\Pi K A$  won the fraternity division for the second year. The traditional bonfire before the A & M football game was a little larger because of Texas A pledges who worked for days collecting enough wood to win a first place trophy in the wood gathering contest and meet successfully the challenge that had been offered them by the pledges of  $K K I$ .

The week before Christmas vacation was highlighted by many social events including a reception given at the chapter house for alumnae and their husbands. At Pi Phi Night actives and pledges exchanged gifts, and house members had their annual party and presented each other with toys which were then given to needy children.

TEXAS BETA—SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1916. Pledge Day, September 17. INITIATED, October 3, 1954; Betty Rae Lowell, Beaumont; Betty Jo Schroeter, Houston; Jann Hall, Meridian, Miss.; Allison Galt, Dallas.

Texas B is now spending its time polishing the much-coveted Homecoming Float Trophy, which the chapter won for having the most original float. Homecoming this year at SMU was particularly successful. The theme, "SMU Hit Parade," suggested many clever variations. Pi Beta Phi chose "The Hostess with the Mostes on the Ball" for the float. Since the homecoming game was against Texas A & M, there was represented an Aggie being crushed by a football, atop which was perched a fiery Pegasus, the SMU mascot.

With the rest of the campus, Pi Beta Phi has recently participated in "Student Center Week at SMU," to acquaint themselves with the facilities offered in the new two-million dollar Umphrey Lee Student Center. To be fully opened in May, the Center will feature many wonderful recreational opportunities, including the provision for an eight-lane bowling alley; student publication offices; a post office; a thousand-student-capacity cafeteria; a music-listening studio; and numerous beautifully furnished meeting rooms for the many campus activities. Named for its beloved Ex-President and Chancellor, the Center is an addition of which the University can be most proud.

Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities has recently named Arden Bowers and Ann Duckett. The two outstanding girls were also initiated, along with Janet Myers and Nancy Campbell, into Kirkos, the SMU honorary society for outstanding junior and senior women. Patti McCall has been named A T  $\Omega$  Pledge Sweetheart.

SMU is fortunate in having a very active Social Council, which serves to coordinate all activities and to promote inter-school functions. One of the most enterprising get-togethers is the all-school coffee hour, which is held at the present Student Union each Tuesday. Each week this function is sponsored by a women's and a men's fraternity.

In November the annual "big sister-little sister" breakfast was held after which everyone attended church services in a group.

During the half-time of the Charity Bowl, an annual fraternity football game, Pi Beta Phi and B Σ O teamed up against X Ω and Δ Δ Δ and defeated them 7-0. Coaches for the teams were members of the LSU varsity squad.

Emerging from a potion of witches brew were Roan Geisenberger and Ann Osborn when they were presented as members of the LSU Beauty Court at the Christmas Gumbo Ball, the theme of which was "Black Magic." They were elected to positions on the six girl court by the male students on the campus. Roan was also elected to the Block and Bridle Club rodeo court.

Louisiana B is always pleased to have Kappa Province President Mrs. Floyd Hightower, and certainly this year was no exception. In order that she might meet some of the Baton Rouge mothers who work so hard on our monthly pledge-active suppers, an afternoon tea was held in her honor.

Attired in loud flannel nightshirts, the pledges welcomed the actives to a Christmas party. Another Christmas party enjoyed by all was the A T Ω-Pi Beta Phi party for orphans.

So far this semester Julie Mellor and Judi Wood have been awarded the Coed of The Month trophy. This is awarded by the Associated Women Students to outstanding women on the campus for their leadership ability, scholarship, and activities.

The fall play, presented by the drama department, featured Elizabeth Winship in "She Stoops to Conquer," by Oliver Goldsmith.

The Sweetheart of Σ X was selected this semester. One of Oregon Γ's pledges, Carol Lusch, was chosen for this honor. Carol has also been selected to run in the national Σ X Sweetheart contest.

Christmas brought the pledge-member party, the alumnae party, the caroling of the mental hospital with the men of Φ Δ Θ.

MU PROVINCE

CALIFORNIA BETA—UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA. Chartered, 1900.

The visit of Mu Province President, Mrs. Roy D. Hansen, highlighted our busy fall semester. A tea given at the chapter house climaxed Mrs. Hansen's three day visit.

Contests of all sorts seemed to dominate the fall calendar. The Campus United Crusade drive featured a "Man with the Most Beautiful Legs" contest which was won by California B's sponsored Jim Willet, B Θ II. A Pi Beta Phi transfer and pledge also won honors. Pat Corrigan, from Texas B, was chosen Homecoming Queen, while California B pledge, Peggy Hansen, was selected as Sweetheart of Σ X.

The Women's Athletic Association's annual Field Week Dessert brought forth several awards to Pi Beta Phis. Kieffe McDuffee was honored by recognition from Women's C Society. Both Kieffe and Molly Merkle, because of their hard work on the swim team, won the All Cal Award for Swimming.

The latter part of the semester was taken over by holiday parties and activities. A pre-holiday party was given in honor of California B's housemother, Mrs. Perigo.

Christmas brought forth carolers from all parts of the campus, a huge Christmas tree in front of Dwinelle Hall, the annual party for pledges and actives, and the Christmas at Cal Contest. Pi Beta Phi's entry took second place among the displays on campus.

CALIFORNIA GAMMA—UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA. Chartered, July 27, 1917. Pledge Day, September 18, 1954. INITIATED, October 9, 1954: Mary Jo Darcey, Margaret Griffith, Barbara Haase, Gail Hicks, Barbara Osthaus, and Peggy Scoble.

Homecoming was perhaps the biggest project for California Γ, with house decorations, a skit for Trollos and floats for the parade. Vivacious Pat Broderick was chosen as a Homecoming princess. The prize for the most symbolic house decorations went to California Γ. Belta Jo Turner and her group of ham actors won third place in Trollos with their interpretation of "The Challenge of the White Bucks."

Dody Currie was given the honor as Southern California's Maid of Cotton and was sent to Fresno to enter the state competition where she placed second.

Mary Ann Cassidy was Secretary for Homecoming. Mary Laird was the Senate chairman of High School Relations and Shiela Smith was President of the Red Cross. Marnee Mae Tyler was elected Secretary of the Freshman Class and her sister Jerri Tyler was elected Treasurer of the Sophomore Class. In the Senior class, Shirley Tanner is Vice President and Pat Hurley is Secretary.

November 29 was the official house warming for California Γ's newly remodeled house. The entire school was invited for refreshments and entertainment by a Dixieland Jazz Band. Preceding the U.C.L.A. game was the Golden Arrow Ball which was held in conjunction with the U.C.L.A. Pi Beta Phis.

PLEGDED: Nancy Borton, Perta Coughlan, Nancy Ellis, Marcia Friedline, Margie Gillespie, Audrey Helmick, Valley Hoffman, Carolyn Kent, Ann Leahy, Doris Lyons, Diane

Olson, Mary Ann Pennington, Pat Rosedale, Alyce Sexton, Pat Sweeney, Marilyn Taylor, Duchess Tomson, Belva Jo Turner, and Marnee Mae Tyler.

CALIFORNIA DELTA—UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT LOS ANGELES. Chartered, 1929.

California  $\Delta$  again experienced a very active fall semester. The entire group participated in a host of campus and social activities.

Highlighting the week of Homecoming was the winning of the homecoming float trophy for first place in the sorority-fraternity division. The float was built with  $K \Sigma$ , and the following Monday night, the boys presented the trophy to Toby Livingston, Pi Phi float chairman, and gave the girls a serenade.

This year's Sweetheart of  $\Sigma X$  was Sandy Swartzel, a California  $\Delta$  pledge. Jere Wright, active, was chosen the Sophomore Sweetheart at the annual sophomore dance, and Toby Livingston was an ROTC princess at the Military Ball.

Joyce Clasen was chosen as a new member of Cal Club, an honorary with membership on the various campuses of the University of California. Its purpose is to promote spirit and a friendly relationship between the respective schools.

Gleodan Kerkmann is a new member of  $\Delta E$ , art honorary. The pledge class was sold at an "auction" to raise money for UCLA's Fall Drive. They did various services on campus for their "buyers," and the house supported a candidate for the "Little Man on Campus" contest as another money-raising project of the drive.

This Christmas, instead of exchanging gifts, the girls gave their presents to the Uni-camp children chosen by the University Religious Conference.

On the social calendar, the girls circled the date of November 19 as one they would long remember. The "Golden Arrow" dance was held at that time at the Beverly Wilshire Hotel in the Terrace Room.

The  $\Phi \Delta \Theta$ 's and Pi Beta Phi enjoyed a German Polka party. A swimming party was shared with  $\Phi K \Psi$  followed the next month by a beach party with  $\Delta T A$ .

JOYCE CLASEN

CALIFORNIA EPSILON—SAN DIEGO STATE COLLEGE. Chartered, September 21, 1954. Pledge Day, October 15, 1954.

The fall of the year is spotlighted by Homecoming at which time California  $E$  has its annual chrysanthemum sale. This year the proceeds went toward a marquee for the campus Little Theater. The Pi Beta Phi float jointly built with  $\Sigma X$  won first in the mixed division and also best portrayal of theme. Jackie Schneider and Betsy Bruset were attendants to the Homecoming Queen.

It was learned at the annual fall Associated Women Students Banquet that Betty Tyschen had been tapped by Cap and Gown and that Nina McConnell and Beverlee Deem were tapped by Cetza.

Gerrie Berkman, Olivio Rosa, and Kay Moran were three of the five finalists for the Sweetheart of  $\Sigma X$ .

A tea was given by the Mothers' Club late this fall in order that the actives and their mothers could get better acquainted with the pledges and their mothers.

The Christmas holidays found California Epsilon out caroling with  $K \Sigma$ . There also was a big and little sister party at which time gifts were exchanged and the pledges put on an entertainment. Christmas night found all the girls at the annual Pi Beta Phi Christmas Formal.

PLEGDED: Connie Limon and Joanne Tracy.

MARIANNE BENJAMIN

CALIFORNIA ZETA—UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT SANTA BARBARA. Chartered, February 2, 1950.

Pledge Day, September 18, 1954. INITIATED, September 26, 1954: Marjorie Gulbranson, Long Beach; Marja Wright, Torrance; Georganna Allen, Marjorie Frank, Santa Barbara; Betty Young, Sacramento.

November was highlighted with a rush meeting with two members of California  $\Delta$ , Jere Wright and Johanna Clark. The chapter went through a mock-rush, Jere and Johanna being the rushees and California  $Z$  the rushers. When the members finished the rushing procedure the two guests told how the chapter could improve its rushing techniques and gave some helpful tips on California  $\Delta$  rushing procedure. In November the chapter had a pledge-active picnic. The picnic was a surprise to the pledges; they were led to believe that they were to be in for a day of hard work and no play.

The California  $Z$  Christmas Party was a big success with the pledges giving all the actives key chains in the form of golden arrow heads. The pledges worked out two very clever songs and presented them to the active chapter; they also presented pledge books and paddles to their big sisters. After the chapter's own party and singing of Christmas Carols they serenaded their neighbors with favorite carols.

The first meeting of the active chapter in January was devoted to elections of officers for the next semester.

PLEGDED: Shirley Roginson, Altadena; Margaret James, Covina.

BARBARA BALBACH

ARIZONA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA. Chartered, August 1, 1917. INITIATED, October 23, 1954: Pam Crane, Burbank, Calif.; Nancy Jo Holter, Kansas City, Mo.; Carol Mather, Glendale, Calif.

Arizona  $A$ s added up many individual honors in a busy first semester. Jinx Brown was elected vice president of the senior class. Alpha Epsilon chose Jan Hanson and Eleanor Walker to membership. Joyce Ballard and Teta Martyn were named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Mermaids, swimming honorary pledged seven Arizona  $A$ 's while the Pi Beta Phi tennis team brought home the first place tennis trophy. Mimi Means was a finalist for I.F.P.C. queen. Joanna Bonecutter was runner-up in the Miss Arizona contest. She will also reign over the 1955 Fiesta de los Vaqueros, a rodeo held annually in Tucson.

Sororities and fraternities on the UA campus have never previously worked together on Homecoming floats. This year as an experiment to see if two groups could work together, the chapter built the queen's float with the  $\Sigma A E$ 's. It featured a sleigh drawn by three swans. Besides having so much fun, the house also received many congratulations.

Pi Beta Phi and dates trekked to the mountains for the annual Barn Dance and spent a real Western evening. Members of  $A \Phi$  and  $\Delta I$  were our guests at the Christmas formal where  $\Sigma A E$  Ken Cardella was chosen our Pi Phi Man. Other Christmas activities were our annual party for the Yaqui Indian children and caroling with  $A E \Phi$ .

VIRGINIA BROWN

NEVADA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NEVADA. Chartered, 1915. Pledge Day, February, 1955.

During half time at the first football game, Eunice Smith, Joan Ward, Sybil Jones and Susan Kypers were named song leaders for the year. Beverly Griggs was appointed as Rally Chairman for the fall and spring semesters.

The chapter's candidate for Homecoming Queen was Joan Ward. At the Homecoming Dance, the chapter was awarded the Dance Attendance Cup. The chapter's candidate for Military Ball Queen was Beverly Ricketts.

The Christmas Formal was held at Lawton's Hot Springs. Santa appeared during the dance to distribute gifts. December 15 the chapter had its usual Christmas party, but this year four underprivileged children were guests of honor. Instead of big and little sisters exchanging gifts, each member of the chapter donated to give gifts to the children. Santa appeared and distributed the gifts after the children had had Christmas dinner.

From the pledges to the Active chapter came a map of the United States, indicating all Pi Beta Phi chapters and Provinces throughout the country. The chapters are indicated by an arrow, and each province is a different color.

PLEGDED: Myram Borders, Las Vegas; Monty Sue Boswell, San Francisco, Calif.; Ann Hancock, Reno; Elaine Zeideman, Lovelock.

MARY STATHES

NEW MEXICO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO. Chartered, September 11, 1946.

In November, New Mexico  $A$  sang with  $\Sigma X$  in the annual Spirit Sing, and took second place. At Homecoming, they won first place for house decorations and copped the grand prize trophy for the outstanding float.

Sally Stringer was elected secretary-treasurer of the junior class, and two fraternities each selected a  $\Pi B \Phi$  for their queen; Sara Curtis was chosen  $\Phi \Delta \Theta$  Dream Girl, and Carol Townsend was  $\Sigma A E$ 's Violet.

In November the pledges gave a surprise party for the actives, with "On The Boardwalk" as the theme. They served punch, and the agenda consisted of skits and a taffy pull.

December 11 saw every member busied with decorating for the Winter Formal. Their big living room was filled with greenery and a huge Christmas tree, and suspended from the ceiling were tumbleweeds sprayed silver and decorated with wine and blue ornaments. A local band displayed their talents that evening, and everyone had a wonderful time. The next morning every active got up early to bring her pledge daughter to a surprise Christmas breakfast. First they gathered around the fireplace to have their stockings and open gifts from their pledge mothers; by that time they had waked sufficiently to eat breakfast.

During the Christmas season the chapter had a marvelous time playing host to thirty-nine small boys from Saint Anthony's Orphanage. They played games, then each boy got his Christmas stocking from around the fireplace and settled down with cocoa and cookies to watch "Santa Claus" take inventory on Christmas wishes. They listened to a Christmas story and carols, then went home, each happily clutching his gift.
