University of Cincinnati President Likes Fraternities

Dr. Walter C. Langsam, University of Cincinnati President, called fraternities and the fraternity system "a distinctive and praiseworthy feature of American college life" in a welcome for freshman men at the Cincinnati University's Interfraternity Council's traditional campus smoker. Langsam is a Phi Gamma Delta, Phi Beta Kappa.

"Both as a fraternity man and as an educator, I firmly believe in the value of fraternities—when they are properly managed and under good leadership, and when it is clearly recognized that the fraternities exist because of the University and not the other way around," Dr. Langsam declared. He listed fraternity advantages for those who wish to join. Fraternities, he said, "give training in financial and in administrative responsibility to the officers; teach all members valuable lessons in living together and in the need for rules to govern society; demonstrate and teach the value and the joys of teamwork and co-operation; point up the relevance of religion to all human activity; provide ample opportunity for acquiring important social graces; make it very clear that privileges also entail responsibilities and obligations; encourage excellence in scholarship as well as in athletics; produce wonderful lifelong friendships, and bring home to each member the true meaning of loyalty—one of the greatest of all human emotions. A system which provides such things is a splendid system," Dr. Langsam concluded. "A good fraternity man in the best sense of that phrase is a good member of his university family and therefore also a good citizen of his country."

Minutes of the 41st Biennial Convention

The New Ocean House, Swampscott, Massachusetts
June 22-June 28, 1958

The forty-first Biennial Convention of Pi Beta Phi Fraternity opened Sunday evening, June twenty-second, eight p.m. in the Convention Hall of the New Ocean House. Convention guests and officers were seated on the convention hall platform; the hall was decorated with pine trees, trailing foliage, floral baskets, the American Flag, the Canadian Flag, and soft green drops. The Grand President, Marianne Reid Wild, officially opened the forty-first biennial convention and presided over all regular meetings of the convention. The assembled convention sang "The Star Spangled Banner," led by Anne Logan Heflin, and "God Save the Queen," led by Jerry Fruin Beltz. The Reverend Howard A. Andrews, pastor of the Swampscott First Congregational Church, gave the invocation. The Convention Committee was presented to the convention; the committee personnel included Convention Guide, Ethel Sanford Adams; Hospitality chairman, Adeline Pate Prentiss; Registration chairman, Dorothy I. Warner. Seven hundred and thirty-two official delegates and visitors were in attendance and the convention committee included fifty Pi Phis who were daily workers and made the Pi Phi Pilgrimage worthy of successful deliberations and harmonious associations. The Pages for the opening meeting were chosen from the 1957 Honor chapters; they were: Kansas Alpha, Alice Gould; Texas Gamma, Marilyn Miller; Kansas Beta, Nancy Irvine; California Epsilon, Barbara Allen.

Special introductions were made by the Grand President. These included the special guests of the convention, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Balfour, and Colonel and Mrs. Clement Kennedy. The fraternity recognized loyalties and fraternity friendships of Mr. Balfour and Colonel Kennedy in the presentation by the Grand President of brother pins. The President Emeritus, May L. Keller, the Honorary Grand President, Amy Burnham Onken, the Grand Council, the national officers, committee chairmen, former Grand Council officers, former national officers, and the two convention initiates, Marjorie Chalmers, and Doris Littlefield Marden, were introduced. Special demonstrations included scholarship, extracurricular activities, and convention attendance, which included mother-daughter attendance, plus queens.

The opening meeting concluded with the Memorial Service, a tribute to Pi Phis who have died since the 1956 Convention. The impressive ceremony was led by active delegates, all wearing silver blue dresses and carrying wine carnations. The procession moved down the center aisle, divided at the stage and placed carnations in silver vases as they returned to their seats. A chorus of Maine Alpha actives sang the Memorial Hymn during the service. The Reverend Andrews offered a benediction which concluded the opening meeting.

REGULAR SESSION—FIRST BUSINESS MEETING

The first business meeting of the Regular Session of the forty-first biennial convention opened Monday, June twenty-third, nine a.m. The Anthem was sung, the Ritual observed, and a devotional was given by the former Grand Secretary, Lucile Douglas Carson. ## "LET'S TALK ABOUT SORORITY MEETINGS"

By Dean Mary B. Merritt, Phi Mu, Retired Dean of Women, University of Miami, Coral Gables

Someone has aptly said that life is just one meeting after another, and so it seems. In this busy age there are so many interests and activities which are promoted by meetings of various groups and kinds that a major portion of one's supposedly free time can be and often is taken up by preparing for meetings, by attending meetings, and by carrying out the plans formulated at the meetings.

Granted that meetings are necessary to carry on the work of any organization, what can be done to simplify them, to make them more practical and meaningful, to create in them the real spirit of friendly co-operation by helping the members to understand and wish to carry out the plans made. The following suggestions are specifically for sorority meetings, but might be helpful to any other organization.

(1) There must be a definite time for the meeting to begin and to end, and the times strictly observed. Such a policy has surprising results in obtaining prompt and regular attendance.

(2) There should be an established and regular meeting place set up beforehand with the necessary furniture, including comfortable chairs, but not too comfortable. Pleasant temperature and proper ventilation are important as is the proper lighting, which means that it should be bright enough for the participants to read whatever is necessary to be read, but with no lights shining in the eyes of anyone.

(3) An arrangement of flowers or of plants or even one flower can make a room attractive and set the tone of the meeting.

(4) Every participant in the meeting should have with her and easily accessible whatever material she needs. What is more annoying to a group and embarrassing to a speaker than for one to be scrambling around during a meeting for her reports or notes?

(5) The president with the other members of the executive board should have in previous meeting discussed thoroughly all possible business and made out the agenda.

(6) The reports of the officers should be brief and to the point. They should be presented so that all can hear them, and a legible dated copy of them on uniform paper should be given to the secretary for filing. This procedure will facilitate reference to them.

(7) Not just the president, but each member should know and understand parliamentary procedure, which should be followed in the business meetings. The wise president knows how to stimulate discussion and how and when to end it.

(8) Courtesy is a must at all times in conducting and in participating in a meeting.

(9) The business finished, a well planned program should be introduced briefly and ended on time. Long-drawn out meetings, no matter how interesting, lose their effect when they encroach on the time of other planned activities and necessary schedules.

(10) No doubt there is much talent in any sorority group, which could be discovered and developed and utilized in making programs. On a college campus and in a college community there are so many intelligent, well trained people that a sorority should always be able to get some one to speak intelligently and entertainingly on such subjects as current events, the arts, or vocations for women. Alumnae and visiting sorority officers have much to offer the sorority women in helping them to understand and to enjoy their experiences in college and later in the sorority and Panhellenic world as well as in the world at large. Above all, remember our pledges need the experience of speaking to a group and can be trained to speak effectively.

The observance of the above suggestions will assure any group of looking forward and backward with pleasure and profit to its meetings.

No fraternity chapter will accomplish anything which is good and right and desirable unless there are leaders in that chapter who believe enough in what is good and right and desirable to set the standards for the chapter and make them stick. Leadership produces leadership. Like an endless chain, the strength of a good chapter and a strong fraternity is handed down. Greatness begets greatness—and the dud begets the dud. If you are satisfied with average performance, then your chapter will be average and no better. This will be true even though your chapter may be filled with outstanding individuals—the cream of the crop. Your chapter is under obligation to enrich that cream—to add to the inherent talent of every one of its members the special advantages and special inspirations which college fraternal life at its best can give. Therefore, you have a special obligation to build and maintain a good chapter.

MESSAGE OF THE GRAND PRESIDENT

To Pi Beta Phi:

For America it all began in Massachusetts and Virginia. Being now in the land of our Pilgrim Fathers we should consider briefly the history of that Colony of English adventurers who came to the new world to obtain relief from the feudal restraints of their day. Thus we may gain an insight into our American heritage.

These groups of men and women, after many delays and misadventures, set sail to land as they thought in the Hudson River area. But their efforts failed in that respect, and they found themselves north of their intended goal. The main party remained on the Mayflower for five weeks while Miles Standish and a group of men explored the region to find a suitable location for their colony. This accomplished, all the ship's company stepped to land on a large boulder which we now know as Plymouth Rock.

One story told of those early days lets us know that Arrows were as important then as in 1867. An Indian Tribe known as the Narragansetts sent to Plymouth a bundle of arrows tied with a snake's skin, which for them signified a challenge of war. Governor William Bradford knew it would be fatal to hesitate or to show fear so he promptly stuffed the skin with bullets and sent it back with some threatening words. This alarmed the Indians who thought the skin had been bewitched by evil spirits. They retreated and that ended that particular incident.

In the beginning the Pilgrims undertook the practice of communal living, but soon thereafter Governor Bradford made a great change in the living and industrial system of the Colony. At Plymouth it was found that Communism bred confusion and discontent. Scholars have verified that Bradford said concerning "brotherhood Communism"—"That it is inherently immoral because it strikes at the very root of human liberty." He then tried the experiment of assigning to every family in proportion to its size a tract of land. When harvest time arrived the wisdom of the change from communal living to private enterprise was demonstrated for instead of misery and scarcity, there was happiness and plenty.

Historians say of the settlers that they "were in the main a homogeneous group both as to social class and to religious views and purposes." This Plymouth Colony was conspicuous in history because of the faith and courage of its people. Much of their greatness stems from their humble and simple life, and their example of virtue.

You may be wondering what, other than historical background, all this has to do with Pi Beta Phi. The answer is best given in this quotation, "Our deeds are seeds of fate, sown here on earth, but bringing forth their harvest in eternity." The deeds of our forefathers were the seeds of our culture sown in those early days which we as freedom loving Americans are now enjoying. Our Founders as pioneers in societies for women scattered the seed for what has become the fraternity system among women. We have reaped many benefits, but we must continue to nurture the plant that it may continue to flourish for future generations of Pi Beta Phis to enjoy as it has been our privilege to know and to share in our particular and intimate bonds of love and friendship made possible for us by our colonial antecedents, and created for us by those beloved young ladies of Monmouth.

We can take strength and guidance from our past. But we cannot live on the past alone. We must add something to it. We must build on what we have inherited. In the cold light of the present we can look at our fraternity—see its strength and its vulnerable points and set about to meet the challenges that that view of ourselves offers.

This Convention presents the perfect opportunity.

Andrew Carnegie said, "No single mind is complete as far as great achievements are concerned; great achievements are always the results of a coalition of many minds working together in a state of perfect harmony." As we work together our many minds will undoubtedly find the solutions to our problems and evolve plans for bettering that which we now have in our fraternity structure.

Our objectives as taught to us in our ceremonies and rituals are noble ones. They are more than words to be repeated again and again. We must see to it that they are given substance and reality. What, then, are the things we need to consider for future planning? We should concern ourselves with those things which in themselves are a part of the design for Pi Beta Phi as well as those, which neglected, give ammunition for criticism of the fraternity system.

For some months, even years, much has and is being said and written on the subject of education. Closely connected as we are with educational institutions we have an interest in such discussion. When in a fraternity examination one member identifies one of the states of the Union as "West Ohio" there can be little quarrel with the contention that the quality of education leaves something to be desired. The post-Sputnik hysteria brought forth feverish plans for both increased scientific training, and thousands of additional scholarships when, according to informed sources, many scholarships already go begging. The method for selecting the proposed scholars seems open to question. In our opinion, the value of good general education should not be lost nor should its direction be handed over to a central agency through Federal Aid to Education.

We as educated women, as students and as alumnae of our alma maters, must not sit idly by while those who would weaken America see to it that the quality of our educational system is inferior in its curricula, its text books, and, often, its teachers.

Scholarship within each chapter must be constantly emphasized. This can scarcely be overdone. Each failing student does a disservice to herself as well as her chapter. We are proud of those chapters which stand first comparatively on their college campuses, but we would wish that the percentage of such chapters among those on our chapter roll were higher. We regret that there are a few chapters which have fallen below even the all women's average. We exhort them to greater effort.

For all, the good scholarship campaign begins with the proper selection of its pledges. Few who come to campus with a poor record ever improve it. The generally poor preparation which many high schools give in "How to Study" demands that all chapters give their pledges close guidance and supervision.

A recent magazine article on College enrollments pointed up two facts which we would do well to bear in mind in our rushing program. The article stated that the Press has alarmed the public over the "college crisis" to such an extent that parents and high school students are sending applications reportedly to as many as twenty different institutions to assure acceptance by at least one of them. If this is true, chapters will find duplications of names on their lists of prospective rushees. Complications could possibly arise if the duplications fall between campuses which do or do not permit summer rushing.

The second point is made in a statement of the American Council on Education which shows that in seventeen states enrollment declined 9.7% in number of students attending college for the first time. To quote the statement it says in part, "Far from being overwhelmed by Freshmen, a number of colleges have quietly lowered entrance requirements and recruited students who barely slipped by in high school." The Norwine Questionnaire reports that 50% of the 150 colleges answering the questionnaire say they gladly accept high school students in the bottom one-third of the graduating class. Such statements alert us to the need for alumnae recommendations committees to supply accurate scholarship information in submitting recommendations and for chapters to be cautious, especially where clubs are not able to furnish that kind of background.

Our objective, then, for actives and pledges alike is for worthy scholarship to the extent that each does her best and makes the most of her opportunity. A sober approach to the reason for being in college will benefit every chapter in many ways. This we need to think about.

More frequently than we like to hear, it has been said by administrators and deans that one fault of the fraternity system is that it develops loyalty to the group rather than to the college or university. We know that isn't true for one's first contact through the Pledge Ceremony stresses that responsibility. But perhaps we need to demonstrate through appropriate actions and attitudes that we appreciate the privileges of our college home. More chapters this year took steps in that direction by giving a Valentine to its Alma Mater. This is a program of service which where it has been rendered has met with grateful enthusiasm and in some instances pleased surprise. We believe that this program has real merit and would urge more chapters to accept it.

Fraternities through their Homecoming plans encourage many alumnae to return to their college campus who might not otherwise go back for these reunions. They are assured of a home to which they may go. Another way college loyalty can be shown is through participation in campus activities. These should be chosen wisely and in accordance with each person's available time without neglect of academic work, but chosen so that real leadership qualities can be used. Too often fraternities, because they are organized groups, are asked to take the lead in all manner of activities. Be selective in what you do, then do them well. It is our belief that deans would welcome an opportunity to evaluate the various campus activities with a view to eliminating duplication of effort and dispensing with those which serve no real and valuable purpose. That is another objective—campus citizenship and loyalty—about which we need to think.

It is a natural sequence to consider now what we give each member. They have given their best, we hope, in scholarship and in activities. In a sense, those are the things they give of themselves. It is the things which the chapter does as a group—the goals it sets for itself which help to develop the personal potential of each member and gives in return. There are the tangibles and the intangibles. They run the gamut from pledge training; ceremonies, meaningfully presented; officer training and sound fraternity education, to setting goals, and working to achieve them; good Panhellenic relations and esprit de corps. They are the things which end up on the Standardization and Survey Report as National Viewpoint, Internal Organization, atmosphere, group personality and ambition. They are the things which make a Dean of Women say of a chapter, "The strength of the elected leader has made the chapter even stronger, and the support of other leadership has made them a positive force that is hard to achieve year after year. Its standards have made our fraternity system come of age more rapidly than one would believe possible."

They are the things which prompt a president of a chapter to write her Province President and say, "I had been discussing with a friend of mine the relative merits of fraternities and sororities. He was surprised at my saying that it is one of the easiest—although time consuming jobs in the world to be sorority president. I went on to explain the close organization that exists—and when I said all one had to do was to delegate responsibility, I was accused of exaggeration. It was hard to convince a person who has never worked with Pi Phis of the tremendous give and take relationship that exists. I can't imagine a more rewarding and satisfying position." These, too, are things about which we must think.

One facet of the things we do together deserves more complete examination. We refer to the social standards of the group and of the individual. It is by these we are judged by the outside world. First of all, the social program of a chapter should be held in balance and perspective so that a true picture of fraternity life and its objectives is given rather than the description one Dean of Women bestowed on fraternities in general in saying of them, "It is a Country Club kind of existence." Then having put social things in balance with scholarship and general campus life and programs for personal development, we must assure that they are carried out with dignity and good taste. George Sokolsky in writing of the recent rioting which took place at Cornell University following administrative regulation of women visiting off campus apartments of the men—students said, "A University is a place to which men and women go for scholarly purposes. The side shows which are inevitable when young people get together, such as fraternities and sororities, football games, glee clubs, et cetera, are froth on the beer." That is an unfair generalization to be sure, but the unfortunate isolated incidents of pledge sneaks which result in vandalism, of girls throwing unmentionables out windows to encourage panty raids, of stealing lumber from a construction job to erect a booth for a campus carnival which resulted in the death of one of the students when police attempted to apprehend the culprit, not to mention the general subject of drinking, have all contributed to such an unwarranted condemnation of a phase of college life which we as fraternity women know to be fine and an experience which has made better women of each of us. This deserves our reflection.

In thinking of those things it is well for us to consider our position when and if such things happen within our own ranks. In our ritual we say that every member extends to every other member any aid that may be within her power. That implies being helpful in time of need and places upon each chapter the responsibility of working with an offending member at the earliest sign of trouble, and not just hoping that the situation will rectify itself. But each initiate leaves the initiation room with the final words, "Seek ye the beautiful and the good" ringing in her ears. She must know, and if she does not the chapter must teach her, the value of irreproachable personal conduct. In such instances of misrepresentation of the fraternity's standards it is misplaced loyalty to both that person and most emphatically to Pi Beta Phi for a chapter to fail to take action commensurate with the offense. We must think about such things.

In the beginning I said that failure to consider certain aspects of fraternity life furnished ammunition for the critics of the fraternity system. Actually, it is not those factors which we have just discussed which in themselves bother our critics so much as that they offer a target at which they can shoot to accomplish their more ulterior motives. Early this spring "Life" magazine published an article titled, "The Unsilent Generation" which was a composite of the background of half a dozen students at Princeton University and in which each expressed his opinion and philosophy of life. One, in speaking of the trends of the times used the phrase, "Keeping Down with the Joneses," to describe a state of affairs which he deplored. This kind of philosophy is implied in the movement on some campuses to sponsor and require 100% rushing. A plan whereby chapters must keep on rushing and extending bids until every student who wishes to pledge is accepted into membership by someone of the groups. Even in schools with highly selective enrollment there can be some who want fraternity membership but are not personally adjusted to group life.

The tendency is to confuse civil rights with social rights when the proposers of such a program advocate that every student has the right to membership in a group which on a friendship basis should be selective in choosing its members. From the time of our Pilgrim Fathers we have had the right of choice and this right became permanently guaranteed to us in our Federal Constitution and in the Bill of Rights.

The National Interfraternity Conference's Special Committee on Autonomy presented through its Chairman, Mr. Herbert L. Brown of Phi Sigma Kappa, past Chairman of the National Interfraternity Conference, and presently a member of its House of Delegates, a report which said:

"We have witnessed a campaign against the fraternity system through attacks on membership clauses in constitutions and laws, following attacks upon such clauses in rituals, and in practices, and in the introduction of laws in legislatures and appeal for a ruling by an Attorney General. The pattern has been too well set to make the movement in any way subtle. If it is not the purpose of the advocates of the campaign to destroy the fraternity system, the least that can be credited to them is that they will so alter its basic concept, that it will, in effect, be destroyed."

The National Panhellenic Conference at its meeting last November passed The Declaration for Freedom and a Statement of Rights in which all delegates, and through them their organizations, stated unequivocally their stand for the rights of Voluntary Associations. Copies of these documents have been sent to all chapters, they have been printed twice in The Arrow, so all should know their content and implications.

The National Interfraternity Conference at its annual meeting also made a statement in which that group too gave voice to its belief in the rights of groups to define their own membership criteria. A special Committee was appointed at that meeting to explore the question "What is a Fraternity?" in relation to the problems of membership. Three items in that report are significant. They say:

- (1) The choosing of one's own friends and associates is a social right which cannot be confused with civil rights and, therefore, is not subject or amenable to edicts, regulations, laws, and legislative fiat abridging that social right.
- (2) Each college fraternity is a social organization, voluntary in membership and, as such, is entitled to exercise its fundamental American right to choose members in accordance with its own standards.
- (3) The fraternity family is national in scope and the entire fraternity at its regular convention through democratic processes establishes the standards binding upon all of its constituent chapters."

We are convinced that the membership at large is generally unaware of the complexity or of the subtlety of these attacks upon fraternities. In the Panhellenic Questionnaire this spring which your NPC Delegate sent to chapters questions were asked as to whether any campus action of any sort had been taken which might infringe upon the rights of groups to select their members, and also as to whether or not questionnaires had been circulated to local Panhellenics or to the individual chapters. With few exceptions the answers were in the negative. And yet national officers know that there are rumblings on approximately seventy college campuses, thirty-four of which have stated deadlines for when restrictive membership clauses must be removed. One campus faculty group even goes so far as to urge that not only should clauses be removed, but in its place there should be a clause which states that the group does not discriminate in its selection of members on the basis of race, creed or color.

Questionnaires can indeed be seemingly inoffensive and harmless and tend to make us forget our 1949 NPC Agreement which requires that questionnaires be cleared for validity before answering. We learned of one, for example, sent to every tenth woman enrolled on that campus on the subject of drinking. This came from a class in statistics, but after its compilation one of the students admittedly said he intended to use the information gathered to show that fraternity women drank more than nonfraternity women and further that fraternities encouraged their pledges to drink. Some questionnaires are sent out requesting immediate replies, others are surveys conducted by telephone, while still others use the "inquiring reporter" technique. It isn't just the questionnaires concerning specifics of Panhellenic and fraternities about which we need to be cautious and to think. It is the hidden motive which concerns us.

There can be little question but that these activities are communist inspired. We do not say that all involved are themselves communist, but we do say that they are unsuspecting dupes who are being used. Words have changed meaning these days and frequently we are lead astray by high sounding titles, names and objectives which mean other things to other people.

We are not crying "witch" in giving this warning of the dangers which lie ahead and of the need for all of us to know our historical rights and speak out for them. They are real and present dangers. Mr. Richard Arens, Staff Director for the United States Senate Un-American Activities Committee, said in a television address that those who minimize the dangers of communism are either uninformed or they are dangerous. The danger seems more apparent when we realize that 40% of the world population and one-fourth of the land mass of the world is communist dominated.

Elisabeth Churchill Brown, wife of the columnist Constantine Brown, and herself author of the recently published book, "The Enemy at His Back" said not long ago, "In politics, as in war when a frontal attack is too costly, it is frequently advisable and no less effective to utilize a flank attack." We are now witnessing in some areas the change from the frontal to the flank attack on fraternities."

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, said in his new book, "Masters of Deceit," "Apathy is the way to public suicide." If we are apathetic about our fraternity and our inherent right peaceably to assemble, we shall wake up one morning to find not only our fraternities gone, but also our churches and all other kinds of voluntary associations with them. Our fraternity associations in Pi Beta Phi are too cherished a thing to give up without a struggle. We must all educate ourselves first of all about our own historical background and then we must learn to recognize the danger signals. When we do, we must not then lose by default. We must use our knowledge and our influence as a stronghold against infiltration of our American institutions, and as a Gieger counter to discover the untruths in propaganda.

All is not on the gloomy side, for more and more friends of fraternities are beginning to speak out in our behalf. Let us give them the good things to say of us and eliminate the "side show" and the unthinking actions which bring discredit upon us. Many new colleges and universities are inviting national fraternities to their campuses, recognizing for one thing that student bodies are growing too large for the individual to gain desirable group associations and that fraternities offer an educational experience they are not prepared or able to give. We cannot, therefore, be as black as we are sometimes painted.

No report to Convention would be complete without some reference to the year just drawing to a conclusion. Other officers and Committee Chairmen will, in their reports, speak of the work and accomplishments of their particular departments but we would express to each of them the appreciation of the fraternity for their devoted and excellent service. Louise Wheelock Dobler is this year the retiring member of the Settlement School Committee. A special word of appreciation goes to her as we welcome Helen Moffet Russell in her place. Mrs. Russell will next year assume the chairmanship of the Committee. Virginia Brackett Green, who has served so ably as chairman has consented to serve in that capacity for another year while Mrs. Russell becomes familiar with the many and varied duties of the Committee. It will be of interest to the fraternity that, like other First Ladies of our country, Mrs. Eisenhower was presented with an afghan specially woven for her at Arrowcraft. Our work at Gatlinburg seems to us to be characterized by the words of Wordsworth:

"The primal duties shine aloft like stars;
The charities that soothe and heal and bless,
Are scattered at the feet of man, like flowers."

Our associations have been particularly close with the Province Presidents, and through them with the chapters. The wise guidance and leadership of these officers in piloting the affairs of our active members are ever apparent and play a large part in the outstanding record of our chapters of which we may all be so proud. Our chapters build the reputation and prestige of the fraternity from coast to coast and each year give new life blood to Pi Beta Phi through the new members they select and through seniors they graduate into the ranks of the Alumnae Department. Words are inadequate to express our thanks to those Province Presidents. We regretted having to accept resignations during the year from Gladys Watkins Westcott, Margaret Hughes, Mattie Maris Severson, and Frances Brigance Calvert, but were happy to welcome as their successors Elizabeth Newberry Motycka, Janet Skidmore Skinner, Elizabeth Daubenberger McGhie and Mary Zimmerman Knipmeyer.

Janet Patton after five years of conspicuously fine service as our Director of Central Office resigned to be married. Margaret Dick, as her successor, has in this one short year ably grasped responsibilities of that office and the work of the fraternity never faltered for a moment. She has endeared herself to all of us through her efficiency and her constant understanding of our needs.

As your Panhellenic Delegate we attended, with the other members of the Grand Council, the biennial meeting of the National Panhellenic Conference. At the conclusion of that meeting we assumed the chairmanship of the Joint NPC-NAWDC Committee and became a member of the Awards Committee, while continuing to serve on the Research and Public Relations Committee as well as being reappointed as one of the NPC representatives to the Interfraternity Research and Advisory Council. During the year we attended two Greek Week occasions and spoke at two other Universities in connection with Panhellenic affairs. We regretted that illness intervened to prevent our participation in one other such program as well as attending the NAWDC annual meeting and participating in one of its programs. It also meant the necessary cancellation of a planned visit to West Virginia Alpha. We were happy to meet with the chapters and alumnae clubs of Xi Province. Personal contacts of that sort are always stimulating and heart-warming. We thank each Pi Beta Phi for the cordiality of her welcome.

Your Grand Council has, during the year, tried to keep abreast of fraternity trends. It has also been aware that these trends often place new and increased demands upon the time of all officers as well as to create needs for new fraternity planning to meet the urgencies of the times. With these needs in mind it sent to club and chapters recommendations which it proposed to submit to the Convention. From annual reports, and from discussions with officers other recommendations for action have been added to them. We commend them to you for your future consideration.

Now it is time for our "many minds" to apply their best efforts to charting our future course. We have much food for thought. We are keenly aware of our responsibilities given to us not only by our special privilege of membership in Pi Beta Phi, but also as elected delegates to this Convention—the supreme governing body of the fraternity. May God guide us in our deliberations so that our deeds will be seeds of fate which will bring forth in eternity a harvest of things worthwhile, and a wealth of fraternal love and loyalty.

MARIANNE REID WILD, Grand President

MESSAGE OF THE GRAND VICE PRESIDENT

It is truly a pleasure and privilege to report to the Alumnae of Pi Beta Phi on the progress and growth of the fraternity's Alumnae Department. The growth is no longer by leaps and bounds, but slowly and steadily we gain in members, in strength, and so increase our ability to give that service to others which was the dream of our Founders.

The record of total alumnae activity for the two years, since the Pasadena Convention, is a proud one in which small losses, here and there, are more than offset by gains—gains in number of clubs, in number of paid alumnae members of clubs, and increases in donations to both Pi Phi and local projects. Each Pi Beta Phi alumna is urged to read carefully in the Information Issue of the ARROW the reports of the chairmen of the national projects, and to study the charts prepared by the Province Vice-Presidents, for there she will find the figures that are a result of highly successful efforts.

Proud as we may be of this record, we have still more to be proud of, in the people who made the achievement possible—the Pi Beta Phi Alumnae, who in their adult lives, have put to good use the training given them by the Fraternity in their undergraduate days. In every field open to women we find Pi Beta Phis bringing honor to the fraternity because of their outstanding performance. And in our own alumnae groups we find strong leaders guiding our clubs, planning programs, planning and carrying out highly successful money making projects, and leading our clubs into civic enterprises. Needless to say, these leaders could not accomplish all this without the devoted members whose loyal support makes it possible to carry out ambitious projects.

Adding up the total donations of our clubs to national projects, and local club projects, we reach a figure of over 47,000 and we wonder if any critic of the fraternity system can mention any other organization originating on a college campus that has done more proportionately for people outside its membership.

Nor have the Pi Phi Alumnae failed in their support of the active chapters of the fraternity. The Alumnae Advisory Committees devote long hours to helping chapters to work out their programs, ever ready with advice, with sympathy and understanding, and with praise for worthwhile efforts. The members of House Corporation Boards show what amounts to financial genius at times in managing to carry out tremendous building projects, undaunted by the enormous loans that must be repaid. And clubs, whether or not located near chapters, have shown interest by financial gifts, awards for activities or scholarship, and by careful and thoughtful recommendations of prospective Pi Beta Phi members. Which all points up the truth of what one chapter president wrote to her Province President—she said, "I hope I may do my part as an alum, as I know they are the backbone of Pi Phi. Without alums and their wonderful work, there would be no chapter 'x' chapter or any other chapter."

One of the most interesting facets of our alumnae progress in recent years has been the development of our Junior Alumnae Groups. These groups began in the large cities and for various reasons, one being the difficulty of finding meeting places large enough to take care of the club meetings. Another reason is that, while older alumnae often like luncheon meetings, the younger members prefer to meet at night because of jobs or because husbands are at home then to act as baby sitters. And still another reason is that though they are interested in the Fraternity, they are not quite ready to settle down into the serious business of alumnae work. The wise leaders of these young groups have done a magnificent piece of work in suiting the program to the needs. They have set up social activities, such as bridge groups, parties with husbands, etc.—and have found service projects that can be carried out with a minimum of expense for baby sitters. The leaders of these groups are members of Club Executive Boards, and the Junior Groups have joined the Senior members of the clubs for the four required meetings, and have given outstanding support to club projects. Since the 1956 Pasadena Convention the Junior Alumnae Groups have emerged on the national scene of the fraternity, with a national project of their own. For the second time they are giving a scholarship to a Pi Phi active for use in her Junior year at college. As this scholarship is set up, the groups contributing are to take turns choosing the winner. In a letter from the chairman of the committee of the Cleveland East Junior Group, which chose this year's recipient, we find these words—"We were impressed with the number of Pi Phis who really do need help, and feel that as the job of selecting a recipient passes from group to group, greater interest and understanding of the scholarship will develop, and it will be built into an even greater and more generous fund to help just such worthy Pi Phis as these applicants."

In 1949 Province Vice-Presidents aware of the development of the Junior Alumnae set-up devoted time at their annual meeting to a discussion of the situation and made some suggestions that have proved to be very wise ones. It is the hope of this officer that all alumnae will recognize the value of these young Pi Phis, for she feels that in the Junior Alumnae Groups once again Pi Beta Phis are pioneering, and that these groups will serve to strengthen the fraternity.

As officer of the Pi Beta Phi Alumnae, the Grand Vice-President writes a monthly letter with fraternity news to the Province Vice-Presidents, a fall and spring letter to alumnae club presidents, an annual greeting to all alumnae, a Founders' Day message to all Pi Phis, and a welcome into alumnae circles to all graduating seniors. She makes up the annual questionnaire sent out to club presidents and answers comments and questions that she receives as a result. Another of her duties is to issue charters to new clubs, and the arrival of signed applications, from groups wishing to be chartered alumnae clubs, always marks a "red-letter" day. For the 1957-1958 year eight new clubs have been chartered: Park Ridge-Des Plaines; Montgomery; Covina-Pomona area, California; Kokomo, Indiana; East Texas; Whittier area Colorado; Clay-Platte Counties, Missouri; and Berkshire, Massachusetts. And since the books were closed on April 15th, four more groups have joined the "sisterhood" of alumnae clubs: Scotts Bluff or Panhandle, Nebraska; Odessa, Texas; Duncan, Oklahoma; and South Bay, California. These with the seven chartered in the 1956-1957 year make a total of 19 new clubs since the Pasadena Convention, and bring the total of Pi Beta Phi Alumnae clubs to 281.

One hundred and eighty-four club year books were received by the Grand Vice-President this year. As usual these varied from simple mimeographed lists of members put together inside various types of attractive covers, to printed booklets. These are extremely useful and each alumnae club is urged to make up some sort of book, no matter how small its membership.

Ingenuous club program chairmen have arranged some clever games and skits this year. This officer is extremely grateful to them for their reports. Some of them have sent in copies of programs complete in every detail. Many of these may be adapted by other clubs for their uses, and will be mimeographed and sent out to all clubs.

With the Director of Extension and the counsellor for Chapter House Corporations the Grand Vice-President chooses the recipient of the Ruth Barrett Smith Scholarship given annually from Alumnae Funds. The winner will be announced at the Convention banquet.

Each member of Grand Council makes chapter visits. Travel for the Grand Vice-President this year included visits to eight chapters of Omicron Province, to Manitoba Alpha, and Missouri Alpha. Several times her visit coincided with some function of an alumnae club and she was able to attend the Executive Board Meeting of the Portland Club, the October meeting of the Salem Club, was entertained at a luncheon meeting of alumnae in Moscow, Idaho, and at a buffet supper by the Executive Board of the Seattle Club. The gracious hospitality and thoughtfulness of the Pi Phi actives, the alumnae and the Pi Phi Mothers' Clubs were much appreciated, and these contacts with Pi Phis in varied parts of the country were truly inspiring. In addition to these chapter visits, the Grand Vice-President attended the meeting of the National Panhellenic Conference held at French Lick, and the annual meeting of the National Association of Women Deans and Counsellors held in St. Louis. She was guest speaker at the Missouri University Panhellenic dinner at which incoming officers were installed, and the speaker at the Founders' Day luncheon of the St. Louis Pi Phis.

In the past year there have been several changes of Province Vice-Presidents due to resignations—Bette Phares Shelton of Iota Province was replaced by Edna Earl Duncan, and Evelyn Wilie Moody of Nu by Josephine Powell Sangster who are carrying on the fine work done by their predecessors.

At the end of a year and of a convention interim we find we are inclined to retrospection. To serve this fraternity as Grand Vice President in the company of the other members of the Grand Council and the Province Vice-Presidents has been an extremely enriching experience. Grateful thanks go to them—to the Director of Central Office and the standing committee members for their strong support and outstanding accomplishments. It is heart warming to think back over these two years—for they have been good years—years in which Pi Beta Phi Alumnae have once more proved by their actions how well they accept the responsibility that has come to them with the privilege of membership in our fraternity. For in these serious times alumnae must take a leading part in upholding the standards and ideals of Pi Beta Phi. They must set the example for adherence to those standards, and they must use extreme care in the field of recommendation for membership, bearing in mind the needs of chapters. It has been truly said that a fraternity is like no other organization to which one may belong. In our undergraduate days we join because we like the girls who invite us into membership. We find the prospect of fellowship and fun completely alluring. Then bit by bit we learn that similar interests in our daily campus life, and common interest in welfare of the agency that brought us together, provide a basis for mutual understanding and the development of friendships. And, as alumnae, progressing through the successive interests and stages of alumnaehood, and continuing to give support and time to the fraternity, our fraternity comes to have a deeper meaning for each of us.

Pi Beta Phi is a friendship organization and from our college days on through our lives, it fills a place that changes as we change and develops as we develop—until as mature women we recognize the truth of this saying:

"As gold more splendid from the fire appears so friendship brightens with the length of years."

Alice Weber Mansfield

GRAND SECRETARY

An analytical review of the fraternity program for a twelve month period offers many challenges and reveals many prides . . . leadership accomplishments, shared membership privileges, and the increasing importance of unity through intrafraternity planning which results in and assures the continued development and growth of Pi Beta Phi.

Annual report presentations share ideas and future plans based on past and present policies. One of the functions of history is to provide background for the present and cautious vision about the future.

There can be a limitation in accurate word expression; the review of a fraternity year may be likened to a tone poem—unity of planning, enthusiasm of accomplishments, integrities, loyalties in service, real love, honor and liberties—aspects of each unite in the single harmony of expression which is Pi Beta Phi.

The true worth of such privileges has been proven through the years of enduring friendships. Each accepts with pride the heritage of Pi Beta Phi; and feels the grave responsibilities of qualified planning and representation. The challenges are great; opportunities limitless.

Events spring from people; people in a certain relation to each other form a field of force in which events take place. Evidence of this is provided by the capable and conscientious committee chairmen and committee members.

Scholarship: The National Scholarship Chairman, Marie West Wever; the assistant chairman, Clover Johnson, and the assistant chairman for Canadian chapters, Madeleine Mader, have given every assistance to the chapters and to the individual. Comments directed toward scholarship planning and policies have been studied meticulously. Clarification and a uniform evaluation of the S&S grading for scholarship have been a prime responsibility of the committee in this academic year. Presently, the forty percent scholarship average on the S&S grade scale has been developed through a twenty percent divisional inclusion for ranking and improvement; and twenty percent for scholarship program planning. The most helpful and necessary observations of the province presidents to the province scholarship chairmen, plus the Alumnae Advisory Committee's counselling in chapter planning have been important factors in successful average determination. The importance of scholarship increases; Pi Beta Phi has been and continues to point with pride to scholarship accomplishments and appreciates the efforts of those directing this successful planning. This committee continues to investigate and report on expedient and effective scholarship planning.

Transfers: Margaret Strum Acheson, chairman of the National Transfer Committee, has provided able assistance to the individual transfer and to the chapters. Enduring friendships have great meaning to the Pi Phi who transfers through the guidance of the transfer committee; the program continues to develop and provide mutual advantages to the individual, to the chapter, and to the alumnae organization.

Fraternity Study and Examination: Mary Foster Haney, chairman of this committee, supplied a worthwhile and meaningful review for pledges and actives of the fraternity. Every effort has been made to provide information through this annual review which will enhance the value of fraternity membership and supply knowledge which will result in an informed membership. Suggestions and areas of need have been carefully studied so that this specific phase of fraternity planning would be a current and mutually beneficial program.

Pi Phi Times: Mariantha James Williams accepted the chairmanship of this committee in which reorganization of the previous Social Exchange Committee developed through the analysis of need of shared programs within active chapter planning. The "times" of the fraternity in its many facets have been compiled and shared through issues of "Pi Phi Times." The committee has provided introductory issues this year which have been unusual and clever. Shared planning is a great attribute of fraternity organization; every effort is made to provide this in varied programs. The committee is to be congratulated on its concept of need and materials submitted.

Fraternity Music: The newest and oldest chapters find enjoyment in song and music. Dorothy Anderson Lanning, as chairman of the fraternity music committee, realized the worth of shared music and has been a most conscientious and enthusiastic chairman. The presentation of music to the fraternity within the year will be enjoyed in chapter planning as well as carried into alumnae organization—future phases of music participation will be developed for the enjoyment of all.

Chaperons: Helen Moffett Russell, as chairman of the National Chaperon Committee, has met a great need within active chapter planning. The program provides concrete guidance and suggestions; chapter planning and the chaperon's position within fraternity development are given careful consideration and wise counsel outlined.

It is always a privilege for the members of the Grand Council to visit with chapters, clubs, and individual Pi Phis. This year the Grand Secretary enjoyed many such associations. The visits with the active chapters in Zeta Province were stimulating and rewarding; these chapters have accepted the doctrines of fraternity membership and have represented themselves well on the campus and in the community. It was the privilege of the Grand Secretary to visit the Missouri Beta chapter and to share with the chapter and the St. Louis alumnae of Pi Beta Phi in a stimulating Founders' Day observance. The Grand Secretary and the Director of Rushing and Pledge Training shared in Alabama Gamma's first fall rush as a chartered chapter of the fraternity; shared planning was again in evidence through the enthusiastic and qualified assistance supplied by rushers from Tennessee Beta, Alabama Alpha, and Florida Beta.

It has been a special and stimulating experience to work closely with the two new chapters of Pi Beta Phi, Texas Delta, Alabama Gamma. The policy of the fraternity includes assistance and counselling for new chapters for a two year period after chartering; the Grand Secretary assumes such guidance. These fine new chapters have represented themselves well in all phases of fraternity planning and are proud units of Pi Phi on their respective campuses. Every good wish is extended as they develop in the future.

The Grand Secretary has respect and appreciation for all phases of chapter planning and has enjoyed participating in specific development and organizational planning of Pi Phi chapters. The chapter which indicates need for assistance is given all possible guidance; the cooperation entailed, strong and progressive planning inculcated have been observed and sincerely appreciated.

The underlying success of basic chapter planning may be directed toward the wisdom and mature qualified counselling supplied by the alumnae advisory committees. Future plans can and will include specific guides and assistance programs which will assure the continuation and strong development of this phase of fraternity planning.

The experiences shared by each of us within a year continue to emphasize the mounting prides in the fraternity—and the rare opportunities that have come to each of us through shared membership privileges. Without qualification, there is true appreciation for the "things of worth untold."

VIRGINIA VOORHEES SPEAKER, Grand Secretary

REPORT OF GRAND TREASURER

In addition to the duties directly connected with finance, the Grand Treasurer had the pleasure of visiting Alabama Alpha, Beta, and Gamma; Georgia Alpha; and Florida Alpha, Beta, and Gamma. It was a great pleasure and inspiration to know the girls in such fine chapters as well as an education to visit the various campuses.

The business of Central Office was checked each month, and an audit made of receipts and disbursements. The Holt House treasurer's books were audited, insurance premiums were paid on officers, and all officers handling money were bonded.

There has been a great deal of correspondence concerning chapter house loans, and general correspondence as a member of Grand Council has been carried on. Letters to chapter treasurers have been written, and also letters to the parents of actives and pledges relating to fraternity finances. Biennial deposits of monies received from the Treasurer of the Centennial Fund have been made and these funds have been invested in Government Bonds while being held in trust.

It is with great pleasure that the Grand Treasurer announces that all nineteen funds of the fraternity are in the black.

It has been a privilege to serve the fraternity.

Texarkana, Texas

DEAR MRS. MOORE:

We have audited the books, records, and supporting data of the Grand Treasurer of Pi Beta Phi Fraternity for the year ended June 30, 1958. This audit was conducted in accordance with generally accepted accounting standards and included such procedures as we considered necessary in this instance.

In our opinion the attached balance sheet and statement of fund receipts and disbursements properly reflect the financial position of the Grand Treasurer of Pi Beta Phi Fraternity, together with the fund operations for the year ended on June 30, 1958.

We wish to commend the members of Grand Council for their diligence displayed in handling the fiscal affairs entrusted to them.

Very truly yours,
JOHN W. DORNBLASER, C.P.A.

ARROW EDITOR

Again the ARROW has been following an enforced austerity program for the past year, and the Editor feels that the resulting issues have been far from fulfilling the desires of our members for their magazine, nor have they represented the ideal issues of the Editor. Certainly a fraternity of the size and importance of ours should have a magazine rather superior to those of most of our rivals, a thing unattainable under our present finances.

It is true that the increase of funds which came to the ARROW as a result of the action of the last Convention would have allowed an increase in some of the parts of the magazine, especially in feature material and in a more liberal use of pictures, something most often asked for by our readers. However it was the decision of Grand Council that for the present the increased money must be put aside as a fund to be used for the publication of a revised history of Pi Beta Phi, to commemorate the one hundredth anniversary of the Fraternity in 1967. Hence we have again had limited issues. As a result there will be a history published in the anniversary year, and that of course carries out one of the ideas advanced at the Huntington convention, that some such plan be carried out, either as an entire history, or as a supplement to the already existing volume. More about this will appear in the report of the Historian and that of the chairman of the committee which is working on the project.

As a result of the decreased size of the ARROW, there has again been a marked decrease in the former flood of material which came to the Editor's desk. This is not good, and the Editor hopes that Pi Phis everywhere will send in material. We want especially personality stories with pictures, relating both to active and alumnæ members—in other words, the story of what Pi Phis are doing everywhere. Only with the aid of such contributions can our magazine be made truly interesting and truly representative of our Fraternity.

Since the last Convention eight issues of the ARROW have been published, again under the fine direction of Harold Bachmann at the George Banta Company. The total number of copies printed was 409,875; the total number of pages was 628; the cost per copy for that period was thirteen cents. The ARROW for May went to 53,000 members. The complete story of the cost of the ARROW publication will be found in the report of the Grand Treasurer who handles all financial matters for the magazine.

This year the use of standardized pages for the honors section in layout of pictures has resulted in the accommodation of many more pictures to a page than previously. They have been effective pages, and we have had favorable comment on them.

A series of new and artistic covers has been used this year. A design and colors typical of each season in which the ARROW is published has been created. The series will continue through the Fall issue. It is expected to inaugurate a new series of designs and colors beginning with the winter issue of 1958. Judging from the fine letters which so many people have written, the change was a popular one, and has attracted favorable attention.

There has been no announcement of any increase in costs for the coming year, but the labor contracts at the publishers are about to expire, and there may be changes. The new postal rate will eventually add a considerable sum to the cost of the mailing of the magazine.

It has been as always an honor and a pleasure to serve Pi Phi, and to have so many fine contacts everywhere. It was a matter of real regret that chapter visits to the Tennessee, Missouri, and Kentucky chapters had to be canceled following the illness of the Editor, and that she was ill during the entire meeting of NPC. In the Spring, a round of Founders' day trips was made—to the always large and inspiring luncheon in Los Angeles, to a delightful gathering in Riverside, and at home in San Diego. The Editor was sorry to be forced to miss Founders' Day with the South Coast club.

ADELE TAYLOR ALFORD

DIRECTOR OF RUSHING AND PLEDGE TRAINING

During the year 1957-58, the usual duties of this office, as required by the Constitution, have been carried out. In addition, there have been some added responsibilities, as directed by the Grand Council. The Director of Rushing and Pledge Training works with the chapter rush captains, the pledge supervisors, and the State Rush Chairmen. The health certificates, which are required from chapters having employees who handle food, are sent to this office for filing.

Following the annual meeting of Grand Council in June, 1957, letters were sent to the rush captains and the alumnae club recommendations chairmen. Corrections were made in the pledge supervisor's notebook, and revisions were made on the ten basic pledge lessons, following the outline which was approved by the Grand Council and the Province Presidents. Work was started on the new manual for the State Rush Chairmen, this being completed later in the year and sent out in the Spring. Additional letters were sent out in February to the rush captains, in March to the convention delegates, in April to the college Panhellenic delegates, and in May to the State Rush Chairmen.

Health certificates were due from sixty-six chapters this year, with fifty-eight chapters reporting.

The two letters to the rush captains contained suggestions and reminders as well as detailed instructions regarding the recommendations requirements of the fraternity. During the past year, a total of 2,488 girls were pledged. Included in the number were 19 repledges. We are sorry to report that we lost 137 pledges as a result of pledge withdrawals from school and broken pledges. Sixty-two girls were pledged on basis of information supplied by the State Rush Chairmen. We have found that many alumnae have made use of the recommendation blank which was printed in the summer issue of the ARROW. We do not have any total figures as to the number of such blanks which were sent to the various chapters, but there were thirty-three pledges who were recommended by means of the ARROW blank. During the year, 2,065 girls were initiated into Pi Beta Phi.

Suggestions and reminders were given the alumnae club recommendations chairmen in the letter which was sent to them. During the year, there was some correspondence with many of these chairmen who were encountering difficulties in the matter of obtaining necessary information for the chapters, and with some who were not satisfied with the type of cooperation being given them by a few chapters. Mutual problems must be faced by chapters and clubs and we are striving constantly to create a better spirit of cooperation and understanding.

The letter to the pledge supervisors went out in the fall mailing together with the new pages for their notebooks. The request that a letter be sent to this officer by October 30 was not heeded by some, for only sixty-five pledge supervisors responded; just slightly better than two-thirds of the chapters.

Convention delegates were given some instructions concerning their preparation for convention, as well as additional information which would be helpful to them. A questionnaire was included to be returned by May 1, asking for names of girls attending convention who were talented in music and journalism, also those college Panhellenic presidents who planned to attend. These names were used by the Music chairman, the Editor of the CONVENTION DAILY, and the Grand President. The response to this questionnaire was excellent, for ninety-seven were returned, a few being late.

College Panhellenic delegates were sent a list of correct statements and information of the type that is used in Panhellenic booklets. As we have received copies of these booklets in the past, we have found some incorrect information concerning Pi Beta Phi, and it was felt that such listings should go out, perhaps each year.

The State Rush Chairmen were requested to make a report in the form of a questionnaire which was to be returned by June 1. These were due from 53 State and Canadian Province Chairmen, and 35 were received by June 8. From the information given on these questionnaires, we came up with some interesting statistics. The chairmen received a total of 832 requests from chapters during the year, and of that number, there were 608 requests filled. One chairman handled as many as 122 requests, while still another had none during the year. The office of State Rush Chairman continues to be a helpful addition to our system of securing recommendations and information for the chapters, and the women who serve in this capacity so well, deserve the gratitude of the entire membership.

It was our pleasure to assist Alabama Gamma chapter in September, with its first formal rushing program after receiving a charter from Pi Beta Phi. Others who participated and gave invaluable help were the Grand Secretary, the Theta Province President, the fine local alumnae in Auburn, and actives from Alabama Alpha, Florida Beta and Tennessee Beta. Our efforts were well rewarded by the pledging of 20 fine girls to the new chapter.

Chapter visits were made to the three Michigan chapters in October and November, and to the six chapters in Beta Province during the month of March. There is no greater inspiration than that which comes from personal contacts with our active chapter members, the members of the alumnae advisory committees, and other alumnae in the areas visited. For the warm welcome and gracious hospitality she received, this officer is most grateful.

The biennial meeting of the National Panhellenic Conference was held in November at French Lick, Indiana and all members of Grand Council were in attendance. The time together afforded an opportunity for a short Council meeting, at which time convention plans were discussed, and proposed recommendations to convention were formulated.

In December we made a brief visit to the campus of Albion College with the Epsilon Province President and Vice President. As a result of our visit we recommended that Grand Council approve Albion College as a field for extension, contingent upon the approval of the chapters and clubs in the province, the final decision to be made by convention.

Founders' Day was celebrated with the Arlington Heights and Park Ridge, Illinois alumnae clubs, and the annual Indiana State Day in Indianapolis. We regret that absence from the city prevented attendance at the Detroit Club Founders' Day meeting. Also in April, we were fortunate in being able to attend the annual luncheon given by the Detroit City Panhellenic Association.

The final official Pi Phi trip of the year came in May when we enjoyed being the guest of the Bloomfield Hills, Michigan club.

For the opportunities of close association with Pi Beta Phis everywhere, for the friendship and cooperation of the members of Grand Council, and for the privilege of serving Pi Beta Phi, the Director of Rushing and Pledge Training is most grateful.

REPORT OF DIRECTOR OF EXTENSION

Another busy and interesting year began with the annual meeting of Grand Council and the Province Officers' Workshop held in Gatlinburg in June. In November the Director of Extension, with the other members of Grand Council, attended the biennial meeting of the National Panhellenic Conference, at French Lick-Sheraton Hotel, French Lick, Indiana. The report of the NPC Committee on Extension seemed of particular significance. At a time when there is much criticism of the fraternity system, it is gratifying not only to members of fraternities but to all who believe in the right of voluntary association, that during 1955-57, twenty-five additional campuses were opened to NPC groups. Between 1947-57, there has been a fifty per cent increase in the number of NPC chapters, for a grand total in November 1957 of 1859 chapters of NPC groups. It was stated that at the present rate of growth in members, there will be a million members of NPC groups by 1960!

During 1957-58 inquiries of various kinds about extension were received by Pi Beta Phi concerning twenty-two different campuses. Deans of Women on six campuses sent inquiries, one inquiry came from a college Panhellenic, and thirteen local groups on eleven different campuses expressed interest and requested information. During the year nine campuses were recommended by our own members as desirable fields for extension. Inquiries or recommendations were received concerning the following campuses; Albion College, Albion, Michigan; Alma College, Alma, Michigan; Arizona State College, Tempe, Arizona; De Paul University, Chicago, Illinois; University of Detroit, Detroit, Michigan; Evansville College, Evansville, Indiana; Gettysburg College, Gettysburg, Pennsylvania; Hanover College, Hanover, Indiana; Kentucky Wesleyan College, Owensboro, Kentucky; Memphis State University, Memphis, Tennessee; Queens College, Flushing, New York; Ripon College, Ripon, Wisconsin; Thiel College, Greenville, Pennsylvania; University of South Florida, Tampa, Florida (a new university to be opened in 1960); Valparaiso University, Valparaiso, Indiana; University of Mississippi, Oxford, Mississippi; University of California, Riverside, California; University of Florida, Gainesville, Florida; University of Wisconsin at Milwaukee, Milwaukee, Wisconsin; Wayne University, Detroit, Michigan; Wagner Lutheran College, Staten Island, New York; West Texas State College, Canyon, Texas.

No local groups were allowed to petition and no new colonies were started during 1956-58. Preliminary information concerning Albion College indicated that Albion might be an opportunity to have an exceptionally fine chapter, since the college has a long and very creditable record, exceptionally high academic standards, a generous endowment and fine physical plant, and an administration long friendly to the fraternity system. The Director of Rushing and Pledge Training and the Epsilon Province President and Vice President who visited the campus at the request of the Grand Council were delighted with every aspect of the college and with the opportunity it offers to Pi Beta Phi. All clubs and chapters in Epsilon Province have recommended that a colony be established at Albion, and the final decision will be made by Convention.

The Director of Extension has the happy privilege of serving as the contact between the Fraternity and the Mothers' Clubs. In the fall a letter of general fraternity news was sent to all Mothers' Clubs, accompanied by the "Mothers' Club News Letter" which is a brief summary of the activities of all clubs which have reported. In the spring a letter was sent to the Mothers' Club Presidents, attempting to thank them for their fine work. We are happy to welcome new clubs in Fort Worth and Lubbock, Texas, but we are still far short of our goal of having a Mothers' Club for every chapter. Our Mothers' Clubs are of inestimable value to our chapters, and Pi Beta Phis who are mothers of actives could do a real service to the Fraternity if they would take the lead in starting new clubs. Procedures are simple and there is no red tape!

Letters of instruction to Chapter Program Chairmen were sent out in September and February, and help and suggestions were given about programs when requested. The new Manual for Chapter Program Chairmen, re-written by this officer last summer, has eliminated much of the former volume of correspondence, and program requirements have been more carefully fulfilled by chapters than formerly. Instructions for the four required Pi Phi Night Programs were sent out, with the first program of the year an original program prepared by the Chapter Program Chairman. From these programs, the three best programs are selected by the Director of Extension and sent out to all chapters as the three other required programs. Programs used this year were: "A Case of: What A Pi Phi Should Know and Why," prepared by Wisconsin Alpha, "Public Relations," prepared by Illinois Epsilon; and "Awards and Scholarships of the Fraternity," prepared by California Gamma. So many excellent reports were sent in this year that decisions were difficult. There has been a noticeable improvement in the calibre of the programs and in the number of chapters fulfilling all of the program requirements, indicating that chapters are increasingly aware that this is an important area of fraternity education.

Charters were granted to new clubs in Park Ridge-Des Plaines, Illinois; Montgomery, Alabama; Covina-Pomona Area, California; Kokomo, Indiana; East Texas; Whittier Area, California; Clay-Platte Counties, Missouri; and Berkshire, Massachusetts. Four clubs were chartered after May 15: Scotts Bluff (Panhandle), Nebraska; Odessa, Texas; Duncan, Oklahoma; and South Bay, California, making a grand total of 281 chartered alumnae clubs. Since nineteen new clubs have been chartered since the Pasadena Convention, a goal of 300 clubs by the 1960 Convention appears to be an attainable goal.

Eight chapters were visited this year. Ontario Alpha and Ontario Beta were visited in November, and the six chapters in Iota Province—Illinois Alpha, Beta-Delta, Epsilon, Zeta, Eta, and Theta—were visited in March. Each chapter visit was a joy and an inspiration. It was a special pleasure to meet members of the Mothers' Clubs in Toronto, Evanston, and Peoria, and to meet many alumnae in London, Evanston, Galesburg, Peoria, and Decatur. The large number of old friends, and friends of friends, seen in Illinois made the trip a real "sentimental journey." One of the high lights of the year was visiting Central Office, at the time of the visit to Illinois Eta. Margaret Dick, our charming new Director of Central Office, and her efficient and loyal staff, deserve high praise and the gratitude of every Pi Beta Phi.

To serve Pi Beta Phi is a cherished privilege, a joy "beyond compare."

COUNSELOR FOR CHAPTER HOUSE CORPORATIONS

Beginning the new year's work in the fall, letters were sent to all the corporation treasurers telling them of their main responsibilities with particular attention being given to the purpose of the Fire Protection Affidavits and the importance of an adequate budget to include future needs as well as the immediate ones. The results in these two areas are most gratifying.

The Fire Protection Affidavits show a decided improvement in the chapter houses' fulfillment of safety and health regulations. A few chapters were given an extension for filing in order to complete the improvements outlined by the inspecting fire marshal. There have been new fire-resistant ceilings in basements, fire-proof doors to stairways, additional electric circuits and outlets installed, fire escapes built, exits equipped with exit lights, fire alarm systems improved with automatic controls to transmit the alarm direct to the local fire department, and additional extinguishers put in. All of this work in addition to the regular cleaning, repair, and decorating has been a burden on some corporations.

To meet corporation budgets, eight chapters have increased the building fund payments to the corporation. Seven chapters have just started payments. Of the seventy-four existing corporations, sixty-three are now receiving periodic payments and it is the fervent hope of this office that the remaining ones will start accumulating a fund as soon as the financial position of the chapter concerned will allow it. Nine chapters that have housed corporations looking after their property do not own houses but live in rented houses or apartments.

Missouri Beta and Texas Gamma are our newest corporations. Virginia Alpha, Louisiana, and Nova Scotia Alpha are either in the process of organizing or plan to organize, and Florida Gamma, Alabama Alpha, and Tennessee Beta are interested. Copies of bylaws have been sent to the chapter president or an alumna member with letters explaining how a corporation should be organized and what its purpose and function is. Louisiana Beta has just completed its organization but has not filed a report and Wisconsin Gamma, recently reorganized, will be re-instated on the roster next year.

Washington Alpha and Oklahoma Alpha have retired their mortgages, bringing to twenty-three the number of debt-free house corporations. Nine others owe less than $10,000. Idaho Alpha is building an entirely new chapter house after selling the old one, Michigan Beta is adding a new wing that will enable the chapter to house twenty-nine additional members, Virginia Alpha is replacing its lodge that was destroyed by fire last winter, Missouri Alpha is adding six bedrooms and other improvements to its lovely home, and Texas Alpha has installed an air conditioning unit. California Epsilon has acquired a house that it plans to add to when the need demands. Planning to rebuild or remodel are Ohio Beta, Oklahoma Alpha, and Oregon Beta, Kansas Alpha, and Kansas Beta.

Oregon Beta has completed arrangements for the corporation to take over the furnishings. This brings down to eight the number of chapters that have not yet relinquished the furnishings to the house corporations. The approximate value of all the Pi Beta Phi houses, lots, and furnishings representing the real property, as determined by this year's reports from the corporation treasurers is $7,417,664.74. Liabilities amount to $1,723,103.97 which leaves a net worth of $6,207,572.40. Last year's figures were used for the two corporations whose reports are not in.

Correspondence with the treasurers has been interesting and gratifying. They report that their chapter houses are being well managed and kept in good repair and they themselves have a realization of the importance of these physical things that help so much in keeping our college members well and happy. They and their committee members have been on hand to supervise repair work, the replacement of furnaces, remodeling kitchens, tearing out the old plumbing and putting in new, replacing boilers and the roof, landscaping the grounds, and redecorating in general. They have helped raise the money to buy new lots upon which to build in the future or start a project now. The fraternity is grateful to them for their unselfish interest and their cooperation to maintain the chapter homes according to Pi Phi standards.

The notes and notations from the Province Presidents and those from the Grand Council members when they have sent in the chapter or corporation statistical reports have been a great help in determining the physical and financial conditions of the chapter houses that do not always show up in the figures themselves. Their interest in the efforts of this office is deeply appreciated and it is unfortunate there are not more hours in the day to carry out this contact.

To the Grand President and the Grand Treasurer whose knowledge of fraternity affairs seems boundless and whose sharing of it is so generous there is special appreciation. This has been a happy and fruitful year.

NATIONAL HISTORIAN

Two separate research projects occupied much of the time and thought of the Historian during the past year.

As a member of the Committee for History Publication Research, the Historian studied the histories of five others fraternities, conferred with two book publishers, and entered into correspondence with authors of histories. Groups of members were interviewed as to preferences in regard to content, make-up, binding and method of distribution. Suggestions have been passed on to Lucille Douglas Carson, chairman of the committee, who will report at the 1958 convention.

The second project involved the coat-of-arms and its reproduction in color. Discovery of the color specifications, as outlined in 1914 by the Philadelphia jewelry firm of Bailey, Banks and Biddle, proves beyond question that the coat of arms was designed to be reproduced in gules (red) and argent (silver)—and in no other colors.

Miss Marian Gault, a Kansas City artist and expert on heraldry, has prepared a hand-drawn enlargement of the device, which is correct in both color and design. The enlargement is being matted by Virginia Jennings (Kansas Alpha) of Independence, Missouri. It will be displayed for the first time at the 1958 convention.

From a negative in the archives, several prints of the coat-of-arms have been made. These have been hand-colored as an experiment—with the objective of discovering some inexpensive process for quantity reproduction and distribution to clubs and chapters.

In accordance with a Centennial plan, adopted four years ago, the Historian prepared a short biographical paper on Founder Ada Bruen Grier. Mimeographed copies were sent by the Director of Central Office to all clubs and chapters, for use at Founders' Day celebrations. Mrs. Grier was the fourth of the Founders to be so honored. Each of the remaining eight will be similarly honored in the years between now and 1967. The Historian would like to suggest that club and chapter program chairmen bear this in mind when making Founders' Day plans. With the number of alumnae clubs approaching 300, and the number of chapters exceeding 100, there will soon be 400 such separate units in the fraternity. If every program chairman were to request the Historian to do a special research project to supply original material for one program each year, there would not be enough days for this officer, working unassisted, to supply the demand. The only present alternatives are for the clubs and chapters to use the material which is sent to them, or to do their own research from the copies of the old History which are still available.

Requests are increasing for data concerning prominent Pi Phis. The national archives contain no up-to-date information on the subject. The Historian would like to suggest that a committee be appointed to compile such a list, classified as to vocations and special activities.

The Historian has added several items to the historical collection which will be exhibited at the next convention. Older items have been refurbished for the occasion.

A history talk on the Pi Phi Pilgrimage theme is being prepared for convention delivery.

The Historian was honored in being asked to speak before the Kansas Alpha Mothers' Club of Kansas City, Kansas, in the fall of 1957. The occasion was an historic one for the mothers, in that their daughters were, at the time, proudly displaying two Balfour Cups on their trophy shelf. The chapter had just won its fifth such award over a period of eight years.

Later in the fall the Historian was honored by the invitation of Arkansas Alpha to represent the national fraternity at the dedication of the chapter's beautiful new house. The wise, long-term planning of the Arkansas Alumnae has produced a house which must certainly be one of the most beautiful and liveable in the nation. Special recognition was given to Alumna Mary Gregory (along with Mr. Gregory) and to former Housemother Leila Clifton, who journeyed to Fayetteville from Indiana for the dedication. Arkansas Alpha's unexcelled hospitality made the occasion a memorable one for parents, friends, and faculty members.

Acquisitions to the archives for the year 1957-1958 were as follows:

Three articles, written during the 1920s and 1930s, describing persons and incidents at the Settlement School during those decades—from Honorary Grand President Amy Burnham Onken, Illinois Epsilon.

Old style stickpin guard in the shape of a "B" and set with diamonds and garnets, originally the property of Marie Bradford Whitted (Mrs. James A.), Iowa Beta 1889; small gold plated bar pin bearing the three Greek letters (bar pin was a gift to the donor from Sara Eikenberry Sigler, former National Historian)—from Dorothy Whitted (Iowa Beta).

A true original of the first ARROW; an ARROW for December, 1886; a "cookie-shine apron," originally the property of Mary Elizabeth McElhinny, a charter member of the Mt. Pleasant Seminary chapter—from Madelon C. Medes (Iowa Alpha).

A 1921 convention group picture; glass plate negative of the Kansas Alpha exhibit at the 1921 convention—from Jane Griffith Stevens (Mrs. Richard), Kansas Alpha.

A Busy Life, a tribute to the memory of Reverend David A. Wallace, former president of Monmouth College, written and published in 1885 by Reverend H. F. Wallace; a catalogue of the literary societies at Monmouth College from 1856 to 1890—from Mrs. Don Allison, chaperon at Oklahoma Beta.

A biographical sketch of President Emeritus May Lansfield Keller, from the Richmond Times-Dispatch of March 24, 1957; clipping from the New York Herald-Tribune of April 13, 1957 concerning the death of Vera Boardman Whitehouse (Mrs. J. Norman), Louisiana Alpha; folder (with photograph on cover) describing the lecture topics offered by Sarah Pomeroy Rugg (Mrs. Francis A.), former ARROW Editor, after her return from Europe in the winter of 1911-1912; a notice of a New York Alumnae Club meeting of December 7, 1929; a photograph of Anna Robinson Nickerson (Mrs. David A.), former Grand Vice-President—from Sophie Parsons Woodman, New York Beta.

Data concerning the founding of Zeta Epsilon Chi, the local, established in 1889 at Monmouth College, which was destined to become the present Illinois Alpha chapter of Pi Beta Phi—from Illinois Alpha chapter.

Data concerning Pi Beta Phi history on the Monmouth and DePauw campuses, as verified in a letter of May 30, 1956 to—Agnes Wright Spring (Mrs. Archer T.), former National Historian.

A newspaper account of the speech—advocating establishment of the Settlement School—delivered by Commodore Richmond Pearson Hobson at the Swarthmore convention of 1910; a Settlement School Committee program and a banquet program from the Estes Park convention of 1923—from Blanche Charlton Curtis (Mrs. P. H.), Massachusetts Alpha.

A collection of Settlement School snapshots—from Betty Rowton Holt (Mrs. Joseph R.), Kansas Alpha, Lambda Province Vice-President.

The Historian would like to express her appreciation to the members of Grand Council whose encouragement, friendship and understanding have made Pi Phi service a rewarding experience; to the Director of Central Office for her attention to accurate mimeographing and prompt mailing; to those donors to the archives, with whom the Historian has enjoyed a pleasant and instructive correspondence; and to all the members of the fraternity who have shown genuine gratitude for favors done, along with understanding for the limitations of office—which sometimes prevent other favors from being done.

MARIAN KECK SIMMONS, National Historian

NATIONAL SUPERVISOR OF CHAPTER HISTORIES

This year has effected some changes in the chapter historians' work. It is now customary and expected that one girl serve the entire year as historian, with an assistant historian to help her. In some cases this assistant has been talented in art, and has developed the theme of the book. With such an arrangement, there is a continuity of presentation which is greatly desired.

The date for submitting the second semester carbon and (in non-convention year) the history, has been advanced from June 10 to May 15, making it possible for the Supervisor to check over carbons before convention, and will enable her to grade histories less hurriedly and thus more fairly in nonconvention year, before reporting the winning books to Grand Council in its June meeting.

The Supervisor has continued to report chapter cooperation to the Grand President and the Province Presidents, which has included preparing duplicate grade sheets. She would like, at this time to express her deep appreciation of the splendid cooperation and assistance she has received from these officers. She would like to mention also, that more than the usual number of chapter historians have sought personal counsel in their work, indicating increased interest in compiling good histories.

Every chapter exhibited a history at Convention this year.

The quality of the books was very good, especially in regard to completeness of material. Originality in theme was not as pronounced as in some years, but those introducing themes developed them well.

The winner of the Nita Hill Stark Vase for the best chapter history during the year 1957-58 was Ohio Epsilon, with Dennis the Menace enlivening its pages. Marianne Mitchell was the historian and Carol Tille, assistant historian.

The Historians Cup for the second best history was awarded Maine Alpha, whose historian was Alice Lane with Charlene Manchester as assistant historian.

Honorable Mention was given to Illinois Alpha (historian, Nancy Nevius); Oklahoma Alpha (historian, Ann Houck, assistant historian, Fran Dexter); Colorado Gamma (historian, Pam Schaeffer); Washington Beta (historian, Diana Gibson, assistant historian, Ellen Hougland); Vermont Beta (historian, Alberta Kauzmann, assistant historian, Helen Riegels); D.C. Alpha (historian, Terry Root, art work, Pepita Lesalle and Faye Motycka); California Zeta (historian, Nancy Woods); and Texas Gamma (historian, Mary Herrington, assistant historian, Patsy McMahon and art work, Delia Close).

A check for this amount has been sent to the Settlement School. In the province reports the last two years' commissions are given for the purpose of showing gains and losses.

As Director of the Magazine Agency I wish to thank the 98 chapters and 217 alumnæ clubs which sent in subscriptions this year for their fine support. Our check to Settlement School was $94.57 less than last year. Let's make up for this with a sizeable increase for 1958-59.

Committee Reports

CHAIRMAN OF THE SETTLEMENT SCHOOL COMMITTEE

Fellow Shareholders:

It is a great responsibility to present the annual report of our investment in Pi Beta Phi Settlement School at Gatlinburg, Tennessee. Such a statement should reveal the returns on the long-term investment and also analyse the prospects for the future. This must include more than statistics for there are human values that lie behind the facts.

It is impossible to estimate the influence of the Settlement School on the lives of thousands. This diversified program has placed emphasis on education, health, and the preservation and promotion of crafts. The wisdom of this practice, during the 46 years, has been borne out in the passing of time. This report will show the progress made in the various fields during the 1957-58 year.

Education

Rewarding dividends have come from Pi Beta Phi's original investment in education, at the time when a narrow wagon trail was the only entrance to Gatlinburg and the hamlet numbered 6 houses, a blacksmith shop, and the Baptist Church. People settled near the school so that their children could profit by education, and because of Pi Phi, a town grew. The school still bears the name of Pi Beta Phi although the County maintains it. At no time has Sevier County been able to carry on an adequate school program without state aid; so again this year Pi Phi augmented the basic minimum curriculum with teachers for Physical Education and Health, Arts and Crafts, Woodworking and Music. Exceptionally fine instructors were secured and Mrs. Mueller, Director of Settlement School, continued to serve in an advisory capacity with the school principal and the County Board of Education. Due to the high standards and persistent efforts of Mr. Carl Lewelling, the principal, the school once again received an "A" rating.

There is more than one way in which to invest in education at Settlement School. The most gratifying returns have come from the dormitory program for mountain young people who live too far from a high school to travel daily by school bus. The fall of 1957 found 17 boys and girls registered for a place in the dormitories. Supervised by Mrs. Mueller and Mrs. Ruth Spelman the House Mother, the children worked for a certain number of hours, in addition to the monthly $5.00 payment, for the privilege of living in the dorm. The training received from work experience offered an extra dividend in addition to the classroom instruction. Study tables were established for those coming from rural schools. The Brendel scholarship legacy made it possible to secure remedial reading for a freshman and also to award a scholarship to an outstanding dorm girl whose family, because of illness, found it difficult to keep two children in school. The Director always found time to advise when asked and attempted to help the individuals to find work or to solve a personal problem. She drove the children to some of the high school football and basketball games and planned seasonal parties with the assistance of committees from the young people. This coming year, the Director will have the co-operation of her new Assistant, Sharon Dexter, Illinois Zeta, and so the dorm program will continue to make an impression on the lives of the mountain young people. It is wonderful to have a young Pi Phi on the staff. Besides, character-building is done by piecemeal and that requires a full staff. It was possible to give one of the dorm girls, who graduated this May, a scholarship for advanced study from the Alspaugh Scholarship. Were it possible to tell of the various children, Pi Phi would be proud of her foresight in investing in these young people. Each member should realize and be glad that every Settlement School gift not only contributes to the maintenance of staff and buildings, but also underwrites the opportunity for a high school education for those who otherwise might not have the chance.

The staff house lodged the resident staff and furnished reasonable, pleasant living for out-of-town teachers. This was another way Pi Phi furthered education for, with the low salary scale for Tennessee teachers, there is difficulty in attracting and holding qualified teachers. In the summer, the staff of the Summer Craft Workshop was housed in this building while the entire student body ate in the large dining-room.

The fourth type of investment in the educational field, the Summer Craft Workshop, is one that made use of the plant in the summer. The dormitories, which housed the mountain young people in winter, and the classrooms were taken over by adults from all over the U.S.A. and abroad. The Workshop, jointly sponsored by Pi Beta Phi and the University of Tennessee, long ago passed the experimental stage. The 14th annual Workshop was noteworthy for enthusiasm and exceptionally fine work. After setting up and getting the Workshop off to a good start, Marion Heard turned it over to her co-director, Jane Glass. Marion left to be the instructor for the second Pi Beta Phi-University of Tennessee Foreign Study Craft Tour. The Staff of the College of Home Economics at UT, as usual, gave excellent co-operation. Dean Jessie Harris, whose valuable counsel is responsible for much of the success of the project, retires this fall. Words are inadequate to express the fraternity's appreciation for the assistance of this capable Pi Phi. It is a comfort to know that the Settlement School Committee will work with Acting Dean Ida Anders who is a loyal Pi Phi, well-informed concerning the Workshop.

Already there are significant reasons indicating the 1959 Workshop should be much larger. First, the Workshop session will start a week later; those who found this year's early beginning date inconvenient, will be pleased. There will be neither a Pi Phi Convention nor Foreign Study Craft Tour to offer a counter-attraction. The deciding factor for many will be the need tax ruling which allows deduction for expenditures made for education undertaken primarily for the maintaining or improving of skills required in the individual's employment, trade or business. While this will not apply to those in pursuit of a hobby or the community volunteer, it will encourage producing artists, teachers, physiotherapists, and welfare workers to seek additional skills, provided that living expenses and tuition are in line.

One hurdle to overcome is the inadequate housing plan. The temporary plan of 14 years' standing, which requires the conversion of the 42 year old grade school building into a dormitory, presents almost insurmountable difficulties. In spite of herculean efforts on the part of the staff, the results are not up to Pi Phi standards.

The Southern Highland Guild held a short Weaving Workshop at Settlement School just before the opening of the Summer Craft Workshop. The resident staff proved most efficient in serving the meals with the help of several dorm girls. This challenges the Committee to make even greater use of the facilities at Settlement School and to meet important, present day opportunities for service. Pi Phi came to Gatlinburg to bring educational opportunities but found the native crafts which it could help the mountain people share with the rest of the world. It is thrilling to dream of short Workshops, national in scope, for occupational therapists, craft instructors for crippled children and many others who would find it pleasant in the Smokies in the spring, late summer and early fall. Recently an educator confronted us with a new trend. Just as the seniors of Pi Beta Phi school take a trip to Washington each spring, students and teachers in large cities need to come to such a place as the Smokies. They could be brought into the area for several days in workshops to study early American life, Indian life and lore, and wild life and nature study. What a chance to pioneer again in Gatlinburg! There is no use to go back to seek a lost opportunity; someone else has found it. As mentioned in the 1956 report, the red barn strategically located near the staff house dining-room, could have a future. This could be the answer to the housing problem and greater use of the Settlement. Well, one can dream! Here is a prospect for the future advancement of education, health and crafts to which we are committed at Settlement School.

Health

Mrs. Marjorie Chalmers is now the Pi Phi nurse in more than one way. For over 22 years she has been in charge of the Jennie Nicol Memorial Health Center, and at the Swampscott Convention, she was initiated into Pi Beta Phi. In the 38 years since the fraternity established the health service, Gatlinburg has changed from a sleepy little village. The health service has changed, too, for the policy has always been to meet the needs of the community and area whenever possible. Early in the history of the Health Center, the diseases which were then prevalent, were attacked and soon the community was almost free of hookworm, typhoid and diphtheria. Now 93% of the Pi Beta Phi school children have had all 3 Salk inoculations; Health Center has given nearly 3000 doses. Classes in bedside care and health education steadily reduce the demands on the community nursing service; however there is increased pressure for better instruction, for more protection from accident and disease, and early recognition of correctable defects. Marjorie visited the one remaining rural school in the Gatlinburg area and gave the usual examinations and inoculations. Her article in the Summer ARROW gave a glimpse of that part of her work. Maternal and infant welfare continued to be an important phase of the health service. Every Friday was set aside for the well baby clinic. Other clinics were carefully planned from time to time. Detailed records were filed for future reference. Nurse Marjorie continued to be as active as time permitted in various community activities such as Community Chest, Civil Defense, Social Service, Committees of the Church, and Scout Counciling. The nurse believes community service is her mission in life.

The returns on an investment in health services can scarcely be reckoned. Better a fence at the edge of the precipice than a hospital at the foot.

Crafts

One of the important "securities" in the Settlement School investment portfolio is the Arrowcraft project development. Native crafts were fast dying out when Pi Phi introduced the cottage crafts to the mountain folks who needed this economic security. In elevating the traditional crafts to an art, Pi Phi has developed an increased self-respect among the mountain craftsmen and a deeper appreciation of their heritage from the past. The Settlement

School has been instrumental in making Gatlinburg a major craft center and leading area for hand weaving in the country. Thus Pi Phi continues to contribute to the American culture.

Winogene Redding returned to assume the duties of Weaving Supervisor and Designer. Gene was the first Designer and even helped to name the project "Arrowcraft." A report of her years at Settlement School reads like a pioneer story. Gene had 54 of the best weavers busy this winter and called on more when the designs were ready for quantity production in anticipation of the fall sales. About 14 newly designed articles were ready for Convention and the delegates were most complimentary in their comments. Our former Designer, Mrs. Tina McMoran, dropped in at Arrowcraft now and then during the coffee break and kept up her contacts with the staff at Guild meetings.

Elizabeth Rue, the friendly Arrowcraft Manager, met at Convention many of the officers from the 234 clubs which ordered from Arrowcraft Shop. This was a happy experience for these clubs furnish the principal markets for the mountain handcrafts. The tourist trade at Gatlinburg continued as visitors came to the Smokies in the fall, spring and summer months. The Arrowcraft Shop remained open at night during the summer tourist season. Most Pi Phis came to the Shop when in the Burg and Mrs. Rue was pleased to meet them when possible; however she was always ready to put them in touch with Mrs. Mueller, the Director, who could arrange a tour of the grounds. The local mountain girls served in the shop most capably. Arrowcraft had an exhibit at the Craftsman's Fair at Asheville. Next year the Fair will return to Gatlinburg.

The newly revised Manual for Chapter and Club Settlement will be ready for fall and each chairman is urged to become familiar with the contents. There will be some new items on the Arrowcraft price list. Settlement School note paper with etchings of Health Center and Arrowcraft Shop will sell at ten for 50¢. An attractive addition to the Arrowcraft sales will be blue sacks imprinted in wine with the Arrowcraft trademark. These will come in three sizes. The Cook Books were ready in November; in less than six months 10,000 copies were sold. The second edition is ready for shipment and with a systematic plan of contacting the membership, clubs should have even larger sales of the book.

Mrs. Emily Cantwell, the new Arrowcraft bookkeeper, reported more clubs paid by invoice. It is obvious the reason this request was made last year, Arrowcraft must meet the monthly bills and if all waited until May 31 to settle their accounts, this would be impossible. There are other ways in which clubs can help. Care should be taken not to over-order since this takes stock from other clubs when needed and leaves Arrowcraft in difficulty when returned after the holidays. Also, clubs should note there are some articles which cannot be returned. Neither can the club order be filled and mailed to various addresses. This demands too much time from the girls during the rush period and requires too much in the way of shipping supplies. Pi Phi owes a debt of gratitude to the clubs which had the courage to step forward and do their best. The following 22 clubs deserve special mention for these bought and paid for at least $1000 worth of Arrowcraft during the past fiscal year.

The efforts of the other 212 clubs contributed to the success of Arrowcraft in securing a market for the mountain handcrafts. During the last 5 years, Pi Phi has paid $276,556.24 to Craftsmen. One of life's greatest dividends is the feeling we have helped others in some way. When we sell Arrowcraft, we sell quality. Others may imitate but none duplicate!

Facts and Figures

All investments require money. It is gratifying to record that approximately 50 groups sizably increased their annual gifts to the Settlement School. This was a step towards overcoming inflation. Someone has said inflation is the art of cutting a dollar bill in half without touching the paper. Recent figures state that $1 out of 5 is eaten up by inflation. This means that what $4 bought 10 years ago, now costs $5. This also means that group gifts, which this year were the same as that given a decade ago, did not accomplish as much at Settlement School. The Committee gratefully received gifts for Settlement School from 102 chapters; this means there was only one which did not respond. Surely this year the chapters can be 100% which will be an achievement. The Clubs in the following Provinces were 100% in support of the national philanthropy:

Beta	Eta	Mu
Gamma	Theta	Xi
Epsilon	Lambda	Pi

The active chapters invested $2562.47 this year in Settlement School. This was an increase of $256.98 over the previous year. The alumnae clubs added $9359.45 which was a gain of $505.28. Texas Beta joined the ranks of chapters sending $100 or more; the other three have been regular members of the $100 club.

Texas G	.....$150.00	Texas A	.....$100.00
Texas B	.....$100.00	Missouri B	.....$100.00

The following 10 clubs invested $150 or more during 1957-58; those marked (*) made substantial increases over the previous year.

St. Louis	.....$800.00	*Pasadena	.....$350.00
Cleveland East	.....510.00	Philadelphia	.....235.00
Kansas City, Mo.	.....500.00	Milwaukee	.....225.00
*North Shore, Ill.	.....500.00	Indianapolis	.....220.00
*Los Angeles	.....400.00	Denver, Sr.	.....150.00

The above sums were increased by $9,048.18 from the Magazine Agency. This was $94.57 less. Elsewhere is printed the report which will give proper recognition to the faithful chairmen. Well executed plans could bring bigger returns next year.

Many sent Christmas gifts to the School and Health Center. Boxes of good clothing were received and distributed as the need arose. At Convention $72.50 was collected for books in the Grace Coolidge Library at Settlement School. This gift was in memory of Mrs. Coolidge who lived in Massachusetts and had served as a Province officer. Mrs. Mueller will supervise the selection of the needed books.

More Pi Phis are realizing that it is appropriate to send gifts to the Settlement School treasurer in memory of friends who were members of the fraternity. Upon receipt of the contribution to the Memorial Fund, a suitable card is sent to the family. This fund was spent many times over, that is, in the minds of the Committee. A real attempt is made to choose very special purchases with this money and since there are so many places to use it, careful thought must be used. Another deep freeze would be a useful addition since the garden and chickens soon fill the one at Staff House. A station wagon could well replace the 1951 car; however there are some items high up on the Wishing List which require that the Fund should grow.

Legacies have not been stressed too much in recent years; however to remember Settlement School in a will is one way to invest in the future. These gifts have been used for major improvements or building. This year the bequest from the Marian Stoner Huey estate was received and it is hoped that too much time will not elapse before the Joanna King Hempsted estate can be settled. A legal form will appear in the ARROW as a reminder of this opportunity to invest in a living memorial.

The above figures reveal vast investments of time, talents, and efforts on the part of many members in order to give substantial support to Settlement School. In spite of the generous gifts sent by a number of loyal groups, it should be called to attention that approximately $30,000 in discounts went INTO the club treasuries from Arrowcraft sales and that little over $9,000 was sent FROM the clubs to support Settlement School. It would appear that instead of supporting Settlement School, some clubs were counting on the Settlement School products to support the local club and its projects. This is an arresting thought. As Lois Finger, the new chairman for Settlement School Publicity, stated so well in the fall letter to Pi Phi groups: "When you contribute to Settlement School, you do not contribute to Arrowcraft. Settlement School contributions go to maintain the buildings and grounds; to pay the salaries of our maintenance people, our teachers, and our staff; and to support the Health Center. You contribute to Arrowcraft, and so to the welfare of the mountain people, when you buy and sell Arrowcraft articles. When you hold Arrowcraft sales and contribute the net profits of that sale, you are contributing to ALL of the work at Gatlinburg."

Unexpected demands were made on the Settlement School funds. This winter, Gatlinburg endured the longest and coldest period it has experienced in years. This required extra fuel and repair of pipes which burst after 30 years of service. At the end of the fiscal year, a water heater had to be replaced before Summer Workshop. Teachers' Cottage must be painted for the first time in six years. From now on, it would seem wise to paint one of the buildings each year. Fortunately paint holds up well in the Burg. Committee agreed some time ago it would never again tax the purse by painting everything at once. It is evident Committee must face surprises as well as inflation.

Louise Dobler retired from the Committee after serving a term of 5 years as Publicity Chairman. She will be missed in many ways but one thing sure, she will be working for Settlement School and Arrowcraft in Everett, Washington. Smart program chairmen in that area should invite her to present their Settlement School program. Helen Russell joined the Committee to serve as Chairman of Slide Distribution. Helen brings a fine background of fraternity service as a former Province officer and member of the Committee on Chaperons.

Future

The true test of successful investing is achievement over a period long enough to include varied experiences and conditions. Settlement School has stood the test of time.

New and intriguing opportunities constantly come to Pi Phi. The Chamber of Commerce in Gatlinburg, recognizing the ability of the Director of the Settlement School, elected her to be the president of that important civic organization. In addition to her strenuous schedule at Settlement School, Marion found time to participate in the Garden Club, PTA and various other groups.

It is a challenge to realize that 5 girls, who wished to be in the dorm next year, must be refused. . . . The Arrowcraft "cottage industry" can demonstrate even more effectively to foreign visitors what can be done to help people help themselves. . . . The same improved housing facilities for Workshop could afford greater use in the educational craft program. . . . Pi Phi must face the fact that its influence through this channel is making a significant contribution to American culture and that its influence is ever expanding. Future plans must be flexible and forward looking to make the best use of the Settlement School for education, health service and crafts.

Your Settlement School Committee appreciates the trust you place in us. We assure you of our sincere belief in the soundness of your investment and foresee many opportunities for increased dividends.

SETTLEMENT SCHOOL DIRECTOR

Gatlinburg is a tiny dot on the map at the edge of the Great Smoky Mountain National Park. The vast part of the Smokies lies within an easy day's drive of more than half of the nation's population. Actually, Gatlinburg is a two-mile long village of less than two thousand population at the junction of highways 73 and 441. These highways lead to:

Loafing amid mountain splendor
Fishing in crystal clear streams
Hiking to skyline lookout points
Trail riding to unopened valleys
Gatlinburg
And SETTLEMENT SCHOOL.

Gatlinburg is a tourist town with approximately ninety motels and four hotels; a convention town with an auditorium with seating capacity of two thousand. The area has long been recognized for its many crafts. Settlement School is in the heart of Gatlinburg at the junction of the two highways. Even though we mingle with the townspeople, much of our activity is with the rural folks.

This is also a land of superlatives with its lush vegetation and natural beauty. The place where we live is easy enough to find—yes, easy to find, but difficult to forget! Here one finds the old, the new! Gatlinburg area is a combination of yesterday and today. We have neon signs, swimming pools, modern motels and hotels, many shops in the burg; and not too distant there are waterfalls, swimming holes, looms and log cabins. Pi Beta Phi memorial to our Founders is in the midst of such an area. It is a challenge to Pi Beta Phi to meet these changes as they arise. We trust that these changes from yesterday to tomorrow will be progressive.

Due to all these attractions, there are many visitors, many of whom are Pi Phis. If you ever come this way, the Settlement School WELCOME MAT is out to each of you.

Arrowcraft

Coming in on either highway one soon sees the Arrowcraft Shop. Undoubtedly this is our largest contact with Pi Beta Phis everywhere. Manager Elizabeth Rue greets folks whenever possible. Pi Phis can be proud of the splendid record of their Alumnae Clubs—the nucleus of Arrowcraft business. With the many successful sales conducted by our Settlement School chairmen and helpers their slogan could be "the reward of a thing well done is to have done it!" North, South, East, and West—you have done it! Many thanks to each of you.

The new price lists will picture many of the new articles. Chairmen will doubtless have trouble choosing—there is such a large variety. The Cookbooks have sold well, being in the second printing (10,000 each printing) in less than a year.

Several changes in personnel were made at Arrowcraft—Gene Redding returned as designer, having been away since 1945. As a consequence there are many new designs. Gene succeeded Tina McMorrin who is now retired and free-lancing in her home with weaving specialties. Edna Cook, who served as salesgirl or assistant to the weaving designer for ten years, was married and lives in Detroit. Faye Cook succeeds her sister. Emily Cantwell is now bookkeeper, succeeding Eunice Cole. Nella Cook Hill, Nadine Grooms, Charlotte Moyer, and Susie Maples complete the staff. Mrs. McCutchan continues to sell Arrowcraft in the Mountain View lobby.

Health Center

Perhaps the biggest event at Health Center was the initiation of our nurse Marjorie Chalmers at Convention. We are happy to have Marjorie wearing the Arrow. To summarize her work one might say it is preventive—a gradual change from years past. This includes the maternal and infant clinics, preschool clinic, T.B. x-ray clinic, physical examinations and inspections in all the rooms, follow-ups when necessary, and inoculations.

Community Projects

We believe that good public relations make for better community service and community service is one of our missions in life. Several staff members participate in one or more projects, among them Community Chest, Civil Defense, Committees of the churches, Scout counseling, Chamber of Commerce president, P.T.A., and Garden Club vice-president.

Dormitories

The dormitory part of our program is perhaps the most challenging activity at Settlement School because of its far-reaching scope. Many of the results are immeasurable. Fifteen children (eight boys, seven girls) completed the school year in our dormitory. Several were good students, several very poor. Naturally, I am concerned about the latter. A trade school might be the answer. Not having that, it is difficult to convince them that an education is important. Three dormitory girls made Beta Club, one boy and one girl were on Student Council, and three were on the football squad. One girl paid for music lessons by doing extra chores. A dormitory Halloween party with guests, a Christmas party with gift exchange, Valentine party, Class party, and picnic were the larger events during the year. There was evidence of dormitory "spirit." Two girls came back during the summer to chat. Linda said "Gee, I sure do miss this place!" The other replied "Me, too."

Dwight has lived in our dormitory three years, going to Pi Beta Phi high school. His home is twelve miles out in Wear's Valley. Dwight loves the outdoors, and is a dreamer, a young poet. When asked what he was doing on his vacation, he replied, "just settin'." I know he would "just set" as much as possible. The following is an example of his dreaming (he says he wrote this in algebra class):

THE WANDERER

I walk this winding, upward path
That few human feet have trod,
Wonderous beauty all around,
Created by the hand of God,
And as, alone, I walk along
I think of things I've left behind
And how the Lord looks down on me
By giving me this peace of mind.

Across the way the sun now shines,
Across the glen a bird now sings;
Through the tall green hickory trees
A frisky little squirrel swings.
The day grows older with each passing hour,
The sun climbs higher, so do I;
To the top of the towering peak I climb,
To the top of the tower, into the sky.

From this point I look about
And wonder more upon the sight;
Far out across the tree-clad hills
A great bald eagle makes his flight;
To the west and north is a man-scarred land
With cities, factories, smoke, and noise;
To the south and east lies God's great land,
Wild with freedom, love, and joys.

I may wander far and near
But when my heart beat doth cease,
'Tis here I want my body laid
To rest in quiet, solemn peace.

—DWIGHT DAVENPORT

One day each week two music teachers give private piano lessons in Teachers and Stuart dormitories—thus adding a bit of culture to our program.

School

Again Pi Beta Phi school was rated grade "A" for the year. There are approximately one hundred seventy-five high school students with a graduating class of forty. Pi Beta Phi provided the Arts and Crafts, Woodcraft (two classes), Music, Physical Education, and Health Center with a full-time nurse. Hiring the Physical Education instructor is to be discontinued this year—'58-'59. Tennessee schools rate very low in the nation, and our Sevier County very low in the state. So, there is still much room for improvement. The much-needed new lunch room has been added to the County gymnasium and is to be ready for school in September.

Anna Belle Lee, who graduated from the University of Tennessee in June, is to teach Arts and Crafts for '58-'59. Mrs. Walter Enlow is to teach Music, and Carl Huskey teaches Woodcraft. One rural school, The Glades, is the only one-room school in our twelve mile area. Gradually they are disappearing; however, there are still eleven in the county.

Farm

To call our gardening and chicken-raising a farm is a misnomer. Actually much of our acreage is not tillable. There is considerable wooded land. Most of the garden produce finds its way to our table, directly or via the freezer. Richard Watson has been with us about eight years as farmer. His avocation is the ministry. Baptist, of course!

Maintenance

This could well be termed the most important department of all. There is much to maintain—78 acres, 12 buildings. Honestly, there is hardly a day that there is not some repair, somewhere. Having the second highest rainfall in the United States, there is much water damage. Much of the repair is negative. If it were not done, the result would be "sorry." Orlie Watson takes pride in the various lines of duty through his thirty years at Settlement School. He is carpenter, plumber, janitor, painter—all in one day. Neal works with Orlie wherever duty calls. He, too, could be called "handyman." Orlie and Neal ship the many cartons of express from Arrowcraft to our Clubs. Weather never interferes.

Pi Beta Phi—University of Tennessee Workshop

Marian Heard served in setting up Workshop, then prepared for leading the Pi Beta Phi—University of Tennessee Craft Tour to Europe for six weeks. Jane Glass continued to guide Workshop through its fourteenth season. Each year I am amazed at the individuals coming from all walks of life and various ages for a common purpose—to study crafts. Each year the results seem to exceed the previous year in workmanship. Beginners surprise themselves and usually are quite proud of their work. There are several reasons why it is desirable to replace the temporary, makeshift dormitory in the old white school building. Our sturdy red barn could be converted to fill this need. This improvement for Settlement School would have untold possibilities with other projects, both in housing and workshops with multiple-purpose rooms. This could be kept on an educational level—thus maintaining the goal of our Founders. Pi Beta Phi everywhere should be proud of this evidence here at Settlement School—evidence of many hours and years of tireless and devoted effort of many of their members.

Staff

Starting my fifth year as Settlement School director I actually have a "queer" feeling. Why? Because for the first time I have a complete staff at the beginning of school. Even though several have years of service to their credit, usually someone is making or about to make a change. Sharon Dexter, Illinois Zeta, has recently come to serve as assistant to the director. I am sure Sharon will become very valuable to Settlement School. Ruth Shantz Spelman, Illinois Epsilon, has been with us a year as housemother, literally filling a need with the dormitory children. Gene Redding's return as designer at Arrowcraft is a homecoming because she was here sixteen out of twenty years—1925-1945. Susie Maples assists Gene Redding in the weaving department in addition to part-time selling at Arrowcraft. Mrs. Lela Adams is beginning her sixth year as cook for staff. She not only cooks, but supervises the deep freeze, canning and jelly making.

Something New

In June the Southern Highland Guild sponsored a three-day weaving workshop at our school. We were happy to serve as hosts for this educational project of the Guild. Approximately sixty attended. The Guild is planning future workshops in other crafts.

For the first time in eight years the Southern Highland Guild Fair is to be in Gatlinburg in 1959. This is an event that many follow. If you have never been to the Craftsman's Fair, that would be a wonderful opportunity to see craftsmen at work, and to buy choice pieces. Experts in over forty crafts bring their displays and sales during the five-day period in late July. Of course, our Arrowcraft shop sells and exhibits.

Theatres

Good entertainment for the tourists was available during the summer. Mr. John Richards brought his company from the New York American Academy of Dramatic Art for the twelfth season. The high school auditorium has been the location of this so-called Gateway Theatre. As usual a repertory of five plays was offered—"Bus Stop," "Street Car Named Desire," "Come Back Little Sheba," "Outward Bound," "Mouse Trap."

The Old Timers met again for their annual Harp Singing and celebration the last Saturday in June. "Chucky Jack" depicting the early history of Tennessee completed its third season as an outdoor pageant in a natural setting four miles east of Gatlinburg.

Gifts

Words are inadequate to express our appreciation of the many gifts to Settlement School—gifts for the dormitories, Health Center, Christmas, clothing and books. All these gifts have been listed elsewhere. Again, I wish to extend our appreciation to each donor. It is heartening to receive them. When these gifts from everywhere arrive one realizes the magnitude of this project of Pi Beta Phi.

Thank you

To Grand Council, to Settlement School Committee, to Province Officers, to the many Pi Phis everywhere I extend a great big THANK YOU for your cooperation in helping to make this project something of which our Founders would be proud. Our slogan might be:

"There is hope for the future
And help in the past
But for WORK
There is only TODAY"

Respectfully submitted,

HOLT HOUSE COMMITTEE

When one steps through the door at Holt House, a warm feeling of pride envelops one, and an awareness of the great privilege it is to serve the Fraternity through this shrine to our Founders. Once again, we must repeat how fortunate we are to have Mrs. Johnson as our gracious hostess, doing much beyond her regular duties to give Holt House its shining appearance and charming air.

Removal of trees in the back yard and repair of the stone wall in front has been completed. The dehumidifier was put in operation last summer. Decorating was completed in the Founders' and Memorial rooms also. Now our kitchen is graced with a new stove with a large oven, which should better serve the needs of the house. The old one ceased working and was beyond repair.

The house was used 91 times from September through April, by various organizations including P.E.O., Newcomers, A.A.U.W., the active chapter, alumnae club, and private parties, including three wedding receptions.

Three alumnae clubs and one active chapter used the Holt House film during the year. Four active chapters and six alumnae groups used the slides.

COMMITTEE ON LOAN FUND

During the year 1957-1958 we have made only four loans, one graduate and three undergraduate. Province Presidents, Chapter Presidents and Advisory Boards should keep the Loan Fund in mind, and suggest it to girls who may find they need loans to help them finish college. Graduates may also obtain loans for advanced work.

Herewith report of operations for the year:

COMMITTEE ON SCHOLARSHIP

The 1956-1957 statistical report for Pi Beta Phi chapters shows a very slight decrease in chapters first in scholarship on their campuses and in the upper third, as compared with the two preceding years. A peak was reached in 1955-1956, when several records were broken. A previous peak was recorded in 1952-1953. With keen competition from other NPC chapters we cannot expect that the record for each year will break those of all previous years. However, this committee is still working towards the scholastic goal suggested many years ago: EVERY PI BETA PHI CHAPTER IN THE UPPER THIRD.

In the following table the figures for 1954-1955 are based on the results obtained from the use of the scholarship formula. The figures for 1955-1956 and 1956-1957 are based on actual campus scholastic rankings.

	1954-55	1955-56	1956-57
First on their campuses	12	15	13
Others with averages in the upper third	44	49	49

Middle third averages	30	27	30
Lower third averages exclusive of lowest	10	7	7
Lowest for the year	4	3	4
Lowest for one semester	9	5	3

The following is the second annual report based on actual scholastic rankings of chapters among the National Panhellenic Conference chapters on their own campuses. The use of the scholarship formula was discontinued after 1954-1955.

BEST PROVINCES: Three provinces, Mu, Nu, and Omicron, share the honor of having all chapters in the upper third. Mu had two chapters first on their campuses, and Nu and Omicron each had one first chapter. Gamma Province had all chapters except one in the upper third. This is the second consecutive year that Nu has reported all chapters in the upper third.

HONOR STUDENTS: The Winter issue of The ARROW listed the names of 106 members of Pi Beta Phi elected to Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi, the second largest number on record. Thirty-nine were elected to societies similar to Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi. Twenty-nine chapters reported 91 graduation honors.

SCHOLARSHIP ACHIEVEMENT CERTIFICATES: These certificates were sent to the 89 chapters whose scholarship chairmen requested them. They are awarded to the girl in each chapter who has the highest average for the year extending from mid-year to the next mid-year.

ADDA PRENTICE WILLIAMS CHAPTER SCHOLARSHIP CHAIRMAN'S AWARD: Katie Elliott, Oklahoma Alpha, is the winner for 1957-1958. This award is presented annually to the chapter scholarship chairman who "has set up the most effective chapter scholarship program."

Each year it became more difficult to choose the winner of the APW Award, as more and more scholarship chairmen submit programs which approach the ideal program for their respective chapters. The programs of seven chairmen, nominated by the Province Scholarship Supervisors, were selected as most outstanding: Oklahoma Alpha, Texas Gamma, Missouri Beta, Kansas Beta, Illinois Eta, Indiana Zeta, and California Epsilon. All seven are diversified and comprehensive in their coverage of the basic requirements for adequate scholarship programs, as outlined for them in communications from this committee. All have provided for guidance for members, in addition to that for pledges. All are attempting to supply training in how to study better, a necessary skill which many college students of today have not learned. All are helping members and actives to budget their time to allow a proper distribution of time for the many phases of college life, with enough time for study.

Oklahoma Alpha, although it has an established tradition that "it is the duty of each Pi Phi to make the average that represents her ability," has a program outstanding in detailed organization, in addition to its other excellent points.

The province nominees are:

ALPHA—Dorothy Dever, Vermont A
 BETA—Frances Ireland, New York F
 GAMMA—Nancy Arndt, Ohio Z
 DELTA—Emily Welch, West Virginia A
 EPSILON—Cynthia Lister, Michigan B
 ZETA—Nancy Leininger, Indiana Z
 ETA—Mary Lois Eskridge, North Carolina B
 THETA—Dena Hugelley, Alabama B
 IOTA—Pat Gebhart, Illinois H
 KAPPA—Betty Ann Rost, Minnesota A
 LAMBDA—Marjorie Ann Thieme, Missouri B
 MU—Jo Ann Lydick, Kansas B
 NU—Katie Elliott, Oklahoma A; Karen Williams, Texas F
 XI—Nancy Ball, Colorado F
 OMICRON—Frances Stockdale, Idaho A
 PI—Brenda Heiman, California E
 CANADA—Diane Dixon, Alberta A

NATIONAL SCHOLARSHIP PLAQUE: Texas Gamma was awarded this plaque at the convention banquet. It is awarded at each convention to the chapter which has been first in scholarship on its campus for the longest period of time, the most consecutive semesters or quarters, ending with the year preceding convention. Texas Gamma has the unusual record of having been first on its campus for each semester since it was chartered in April, 1953.

UPPER THIRD FOR FIVE YEARS: Three years ago this committee reported that 16 chapters had been in the upper third in scholarship on their own campuses for five consecutive years. I am happy to be able to report that we now have 26 chapters which have been in the upper third for each of the five years ending with the college year, 1956-1957, as follows:

Vermont A	Alabama B	Kansas B
Connecticut A	Illinois E	Oklahoma A
Ohio A	Illinois Z	Oklahoma B
Ohio E	Iowa A	Iowa A
Ohio Z	Iowa B	Texas F*
Michigan F	Iowa F	Wyoming A
Indiana B	Iowa Z	Idaho A
Indiana Z	Kansas A	Washington A
Alabama A		California E

* For each of the four years since it was chartered. . . . Indiana Zeta has been in the upper third for each of the five years since it was chartered.

The following fifteen chapters were in the upper third for four of the five years ending with 1956-1957:

Ohio A	Colorado A	Louisiana B
Michigan B	Maine A	Texas B
Indiana F	Massachusetts B	Colorado B
Indiana E	Ohio B	Montana A
North Carolina A	Missouri B	Oregon F

PARTIAL REPORT FOR 1957-1958: Following is a summary of the reports on campus rankings in scholarship for the first quarter or first semester of 1957-1958 for the chapters which had sent their blanks before this report was written:

CHAPTERS REPORTING	76
FIRST	18
OTHERS IN UPPER THIRD	20
MIDDLE THIRD	33
LOWER THIRD EXCLUSIVE OF LOWEST	2
LOWEST	3

The above reveals a decrease in the proportion of chapters in the upper third, and an increase in the proportion of chapters in the middle third. Perhaps this proportion will change for the better when the other chapters which receive the NPC comparative averages each semester or quarter can be included.

Chapters first for the first semester or first quarter:

Maine A	Tennessee A	Iowa B
Nova Scotia A	Florida A	Oklahoma A
Vermont A	Illinois Z	Texas F
Ohio A	Illinois H	Montana A
Ohio B	Missouri B	California B
Michigan A	Iowa A	California E

ASSISTANT CHAIRMEN: Madeleine Mader, Scholarship Assistant for the Canadian chapters, has capably assisted these chapters this year in the development of effective scholarship programs suitable for them.

I cannot praise too highly the work of Clover Johnson, the Assistant Scholarship Chairman, in charge of lowest chapters, and my general assistant. The value of her guidance and instruction of the lowest chapters is reflected in their marked improvement in scholarship, some of them attaining first place.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS: As I end my sixth and last year as chairman of this committee, I want to express my unbounded gratitude to the hundreds of Pi Beta Phis who have helped to uphold the traditionally high standards of scholarship for our chapters. Grand Council and the Province Presidents have given support and advice. The counsel of the Grand Secretary has been invaluable.

The chapter scholarship chairmen have been conscientious and earnest in their challenging task of maintaining scholarship morale, and of devising programs for promoting better scholarship. The chapter Alumnae Scholarship Advisers are an important link in the work of this committee.

The fraternity is indebted to the Province Scholarship Supervisors, a faithful group of devoted alumnae, who have given countless hours each month to the cause of good scholarship. I am deeply appreciative of their cooperation. They have served loyally and well.

Finally, my six years as chairman of this committee have given me a broadening and rewarding experience for which I am truly grateful.

 MARIE WEST WEVER

COMMITTEE ON TRANSFERS

Another college year has come to a close leaving with us many memories of an exciting year of new knowledge and new friends. This year 177 Pi Beta Phis spent part of their time becoming acclimated to new campuses and new Pi Phi sisters. Many more Pi Phis changed to colleges and universities where there were no Pi Phi chapters. Our chapters can be proud of the job they are doing in behalf of the Transfers. A new understanding has been born in these times of moving around. A large percent of the chapters have had the privilege of sharing ideas with sisters from other chapters.

By the first of May this committee had received 88 Approval For Affiliation blanks and 72 Note of Affiliation blanks. These numbers will increase by the end of the school year as many affiliations are made at the end of the year.

This committee receives excellent cooperation from a majority of the chapters each year. However, there has never been a year when all chapters have sent in a report. This year Montana Alpha failed to respond to any of the four letters which it received. This meant that Xi Province was the only Province without all chapters sending in a report of some form. The nine Provinces which sent in reports from all chapters by October 31st were: Beta, Delta, Zeta, Eta, Theta, Iota, Kappa, Lambda, Nu.

The perfect grade for cooperation from this committee is ten. There were 59 chapters which received the top grade this year. They are: Maine A, Vermont A, Vermont B, Massachusetts A, Massachusetts B, New York A, Pennsylvania B, Pennsylvania G, Pennsylvania E, Ohio A, Ohio E, Ohio Z, Ohio H, D.C. A, Virginia F, West Virginia A, Michigan A, Michigan B, Ontario A, Indiana B, Kentucky A, Tennessee B, Tennessee F, North Carolina A, North Carolina B, Alabama B, Florida A, Florida B, Illinois E, Illinois Z, Illinois H, Illinois T, North Dakota A, Minnesota A, Missouri A, Missouri B, Arkansas A, Louisiana A, Iowa A, Iowa Z, Nebraska B, Kansas A, Kansas B, Oklahoma A, Oklahoma B, Texas A, Texas B, Texas F, Texas G, Texas H, Texas I, Texas J, Wyoming A, Washington F, Idaho A, California B, California A, California E, California Z, Arizona A.

As was the case last year, Nu Province reported the largest number of Transfers with a total of 24. Gamma Province was next with 21 then Delta with 20. Alpha Province reported only four Transfers which was the fewest reported by any Province.

This was the first time in two years that a Province had all chapters receiving a perfect grade for cooperation. This distinction goes to Nu Province. Nu Province is the only Province ever to achieve this honor and did so for the first time two years ago. It is interesting to note that the Province with the most Transfers to report is the only one which can get the information in on time. The following Provinces had better than half of their chapters receiving the grade of 10: Alpha, Beta, Gamma, Delta, Epsilon, Eta, Iota, Lambda, Mu and Pi.

Since many Pi Phis don't Transfer until the middle of the year, it is necessary for chapters to send reports to this committee at mid-term if they have had girls leave the chapter. Many Introduction Transfer Blanks were received following the beginning of second semester.

As each Transfer was reported, a letter of welcome and instruction was mailed to her from this committee. Seventeen girls replied to the letters showing their appreciation for the interest shown in them. They also had glowing reports of the many new friends which they were making in the new chapters. This was made possible largely through the efforts of the Original chapters. It is very necessary for each Transfer to have an Introduction Transfer Blank mailed to her new chapter so that she will have the best opportunity of meeting her new friends.

It has been a great joy to work with the chapters this year. For the most part, they have done an excellent job of reporting the Transfer situation. Next year we will renew our efforts to make a perfect report from every chapter and a thorough appreciation of the responsibilities to our Transferring Pi Phi sisters. My deepest thanks go to Mrs. James F. Speaker for the wonderful help she has been to the committee this year. Also to Central Office and Peggy Dick, many thanks for your cooperation throughout the year.

The work of the Fraternity Study and Examination Committee has been generally satisfactory this year. There have been good contacts between supervisors and chapters and no more than the usual number of problems of procedural detail.

This year the pledges as well as the actives and their supervising alumnae were asked to sign the honor pledge indicating the examinations were taken under conditions which would meet Pi Beta Phi standards. This step had been advocated last year after the honor pledge was introduced for use by the actives.

This committee has made sincere efforts to include in the annual fraternity examination questions which would contribute interesting and worthwhile knowledge for the girls. Since an active girl normally takes three such tests in her college years, again this year questions were considered in relation to those of the previous two years. One question asked for suggestions for topics to be considered for use in future examinations. The answers were gratifying and will provide a working basis for questions to be used in years to come.

This committee has tried to establish and maintain close contacts between supervisors and chapters and to develop the right attitude of the chapters and their alumnae advisory boards toward the fraternity examinations. The Province Presidents have helped the supervisors in many cases and their cooperation is greatly appreciated. It is the sincere hope of this committee that each girl will look forward to gaining the knowledge of Pi Beta Phi and the fraternity world which is to be found in each examination.

This report is submitted with appreciation directed to the Province Supervisors whose diligent efforts have made possible the correct functioning of this committee. Their comments and suggestions have been received with thanks for the thought and interest they denoted. Also thanks go to the chapters and their officers whose cooperation has helped so much in making the fraternity examinations a meaningful part of their Pi Phi experience. Gratitude also goes to the Grand President and the Grand Secretary for their invaluable assistance and to the Director of Central Office for her able help in carrying out the routine.

Respectfully submitted,
MARY FOSTER HANEY

SOCIAL EXCHANGE COMMITTEE

Fall 1957 brought a new look to the Social Exchange Committee! The Gatlinburg meeting of Grand Council and province officers brought forth the idea of a short news bulletin for chapters entitled Pi Phi TIMES—a play on the word "times" as a newspaper and "times" as special Pi Phi occasions. It offered an opportunity of expanding the usefulness of the old Social Exchange Bulletin—a shorter form, more frequent issues, and containing an exchange of ideas from all chapters for all types of original planning. Basic programs of rush, homecoming, Founders' Day are a continued part of the planning. But in addition, any of the special planning a chapter does customarily or introduces throughout the year which offers a challenge or becomes a tradition will be reported.

Province Chairmen for the Social Exchange Committee have become our Province Coordinators; chapter Social Exchange Chairmen are the Pi Phi TIMES reporters. Due to a brand new national coordinator a lack of copy on hand for use, actual publication of the TIMES had a rather slow start. February brought the first issue to the chapters, with much of the material aimed toward initiation. April issue brought ideas for Founders' Day planning. We hope that Reporters will be sending enough material so that Pi Phi TIMES will be published more often in the coming year.

Ninety chapters filed their copy with the Province Coordinators. Just as in the past, this material was graded and the ideas most original and adaptable for general chapter use were forwarded to National Coordinator. The following chapters made a perfect cooperation grade: Maine Alpha, Pennsylvania Gamma, Ohio Alpha, Ohio Epsilon, Ohio Zeta, Ohio Eta, Virginia Alpha, Michigan Gamma, Ontario Beta, Indiana Epsilon, Florida Gamma, Kansas Alpha, Kansas Beta, Oklahoma Alpha, Oklahoma Beta, Texas Beta, Texas Gamma, Texas Delta, Washington Alpha, Idaho Alpha, California Epsilon, California Zeta, and Nevada Alpha. Provinces with all chapters reporting are: Gamma, Epsilon, Zeta, Eta, Iota, Kappa, Lambda, and Omicron. Of these eight provinces there were three that had an average grade of 9.3 (out of possible 10) or better: Omicron, Lambda and Iota.

The former Social Exchange Award has become the new Pi Phi TIMES award. Points considered are promptness, presentation of material, originality, and adaptability for general chapter use of ideas submitted. Winner of this award is Kansas Alpha for their beautifully prepared reports giving detailed information on every chapter event, including snapshots, hand-painted sketches, programs, samples of decorations, and invitations. Cover sketch of first issue of the TIMES was from Kansas Alpha. Honorable mention for complete, prompt, and interesting reports goes to Ohio Epsilon, Oklahoma Alpha, and Nevada Alpha. Special mention for excellent rush reporting goes to Texas Delta.

A very special word of appreciation goes to each of the Province Coordinators for their high degree of cooperation and their willingness to help organize this new project to serve the best interests of the chapters. My heartfelt thanks to Mrs. Wild and Mrs. Speaker for their unflinching assistance. And a very special wish to all chapters—that has become my slogan for the past few months—

Good plans—good TIMES!

COMMITTEE ON FRATERNITY MUSIC

The Music Committee with the aid of the Long Island Alumnae Club (Marie Boltz, Chairman) and Central Office sent out to all chapters' music chairmen, a booklet containing all contest songs. All chapters will vote in the song contest at convention. We do not have a complete list of the chapters' chairmen and in the fall this list should be completed. In going over the manuscripts of the past ten years, a number of fine short songs have been discovered and should be passed along to the chapters. The future holds a great deal for the music of Pi Phi but in order to do this the recommendation has been made to Grand Council that a joint program of manuscript making, editing and mimeographing be carried out through and by the Alumnae Clubs, by Provinces. The national scope of this type of program is too large and difficult for one committee (as the National Committee).

A ten year program should be set up so that any new incoming national chairman would have a fine nationwide music team already in action. When handled by Provinces a great deal of correspondence will be eliminated.

The actives need this aid in editing and mimeographing. I feel sure that the pride the chapters take in their music programs is justified and they can use all the help we can give them.

My correspondence shows that many times Pi Phis have won the Campus Interfraternity "sings." I am suggesting that all music chairmen send me a postcard with the date and the honors won by Pi Phi singing chapters, at the time of the winning. It is important that this be on a post card for filing.

We need a small pamphlet on the history of Pi Phi music. This could be expanded by stories from the alumnae. The history of Pi Phi music in the February issue of the ARROW, 1936, could be lifted out and made available to groups and chapters who wish to use it for programs. We have had such requests for this material this year.

BETTER MUSIC—BETTER PI PHIS!

COMMITTEE ON CHAPERONS

New procedures started four years ago regarding chaperons were continued during 1957-58. Spring and fall letters were again sent by the committee to both chaperons and to advisory committees. It continues to be the rule that every chaperon of a Pi Beta Phi chapter is required to have a fraternity application blank on file with the national committee. Statements of employment terms (or copies of actual contracts) are required annually. Reports from the chairmen of advisory committees each year help summarize locally and nationally the effectiveness of chaperons for the past year, and tend to focus attention on plans and terms for the year ahead.

Three chapters had unexpected chaperon changes last year and these are always especially difficult adjustments to make. As far as is known fifteen chapters will have new chaperons at the opening of the fall term. The general trend, noticeable in recent years, is toward increased chaperon salaries. Most chapters pay on a ten month basis and several pay on a twelve month plan. Almost every chapter has social security coverage for its chaperon.

The committee could cite many individual chapters and advisory committees for one hundred per cent promptness and completeness of reports. For efficiency during the past year, the following provinces have been outstanding: Alpha, Gamma, Iota and Xi.

This report concludes four years of service on the Chaperon Committee and the retiring chairman wishes to express her sincere appreciation for the ever constant and gracious assistance that has been given by the Grand President and the Grand Secretary as well as other members of Grand Council. Advisory committees and active chapter officers have also given of their cooperation toward the goals of the committee. All concerned with better chaperonage seem to have worked willingly and effectively and this has been most encouraging to the committee. Every good wish for continuing cooperation, and even greater personal gratification, is extended to the incoming Chairman of the Chaperon Committee.

EMMA HARPER TURNER MEMORIAL FUND

"Man's greatest frontier, in spite of his adventure into space, is still the frontier of the human spirit. Without an understanding of each other we are people without God and without our true self."

Surely through the graciousness of the Emma Harper Turner Memorial Fund, Pi Phis have an understanding of each other.

The Fund, named in honor of one of our great Pi Phis and former Grand President, came into being in 1946 by setting aside $50,000.00 from the Contingent Fund. This was to be available for Chapter House loans, the interest only to help needy Pi Phis. However, many actives and alumnae have also contributed to the Fund in gifts, as memorials to loved ones, or as a yearly contribution from Chapters or Alumnae Clubs. These donations have increased greatly this year.

Gifts are made from the Fund, in one payment not to exceed $200.00 a year, or monthly. There is no taint of charity—it is a "gracious gift" lightening the burden of some, giving new hope to others, and to all a sense of "someone caring." It has been called by some our "remembering" service, by others our test of "friendship."

Have we cherished as we should the ideals on which Pi Phi was founded; have we accepted certain privileges without accepting the obligations that go with the privilege? All requests are confidential, made by friends who have knowledge of the need. The information gathered is reviewed by the committee and recommendations made to the Grand President, who makes the final decision. Let us try and "remember" some Pi Phi who needs the Emma Harper Turner Memorial Fund; write the committee and they and the Grand President will carry through.

We are grateful to every member of Grand Council for letting us accept the obligation of serving on this committee, that goes with the privilege of being a member of Pi Beta Phi.

COMMITTEE ON MANUALS

Late summer of 1957 saw the completion of the copy for the new Manual "Official Awards, Scholarships and Loans." This was a greatly enlarged reference book covering the history, qualifications and regulations of all Pi Beta Phi Awards, Scholarships and Loans, and it entailed a rather sizeable amount of research to clear points not formerly easily available. Central Office was able to handle the mimeographing and compiling so that the Manual was released to chapters during this past school year.

The Chairman of Manuals reorganized and enlarged the Activities Committee Manual, and this new version was distributed to the chapters last fall. She conferred with Grand Council members on revisions of several other manuals, and on blanks requiring changes.

This work on Manuals has brought many delightful fraternity contacts during the past four years, and it is with sincere regret that I hand this responsibility and pleasure to another. For the privilege of serving Pi Beta Phi in this capacity, I am deeply appreciative. My sincere thanks to Grand Council and all who made it such a rewarding experience for me, and my very best wishes that the day will come when a Pi Beta Phi "IBM" Machine will automatically keep all Manuals up-to-date!

Featernally,
MILDRED SALE

To each of us fraternalism is not the unattainable goal. It is that which we have, which we can give to others, and which we hope will be reciprocated in all our endeavors.

Fraternalism is not for the few. It is a way of life that enhances religion, teaches morals, and inspires dedication. With all of these it transpires values which are humanly high and which are continuously and thoroughly on the altar of God.

A fraternity is a growing element in a world whose elements are expanding to the universe.

A fraternity is fidelity in one's heart.

Reports of Province Presidents

ALPHA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

My work as Alpha Province president began with the chapter presidents' workshop at Hotel Vendome in Boston, Massachusetts, November 12-13, 1957. Mrs. Westcott presided over the meetings giving the presidents and pledge supervisors opportunities to share their problems and methods. She then turned the seven chapters over to me while she made plans to go to Japan with her husband who was to teach at the University of Sopporo. I appreciate the guidance which gave these chapters their strength, and the excellent conditions of the files she turned over to me. The Workshop was a wonderful introduction to these capable officers and to learn first hand about our seven chapters.

Chapter visits started with Maine Alpha in December, and ended with the two Vermont chapters in February, punctuated by great variety of unfavorable weather. How I have enjoyed renewing these contacts after ten years, meeting new Pi Phis and seeing once again those I knew before. I found the chapters stronger than before, Deans of Women more favorably inclined toward fraternities and attempts being made to strengthen Panhellenics, greater emphasis on scholarship and activity participation. In spite of the change from the good old Busey system, all of our chapters understand the new system, and their financial condition is excellent.

How proud I am of the ABO nominees, and how difficult it was to choose the winner. She is Ann Cossart, Massachusetts Alpha. Her award was presented at a joint alumnae-active Founders' Day luncheon, by Sandy Adams, convention guide, who has been a faithful member of their AAC for several years. Others nominated were Janet Crawford, Connecticut A; Kathleen Vickery, Maine A; Elizabeth Graves, Massachusetts B; Elizabeth Dustan, Nova Scotia A; Grace Warder, Vermont A and Marilyn Jensen, Vermont B. Alpha Province nominees for Fraternity Service award are Connecticut A, Donna Crosset; Maine A, Roberta Wyer; Massachusetts A, Jean Maskwa; Massachusetts B, Marilyn Richardson; Vermont A, Dorothy Bigelow and the province nominee Carolyn Hunt, Vermont B. The winner of the Portland, Maine, Club award for outstanding sophomore in the province is Charlene Manchester, Maine A.

Housing in the province remains much the same. Connecticut Alpha has a university-owned dormitory. They were unable to fill the house with Pi Phis this year and were forced to start the year with eleven independents living with them. Next year, unfortunately they will still have at least five independents. Maine Alpha has at last been given a permanent archives closet, and permanent use of a basement meeting room in Ballantine Hall, which the pledges have decorated for them. It must be shared for other meetings when Pi Phi is not using it, but they hope to have exclusive use of it eventually. Massachusetts Alpha's chapter room is still at the Panhellenic house, too far away from their classes; but they entertain an idea of having a small dormitory for a sorority house in the future. Massachusetts Beta has almost completely paid the mortgage on their house and they are making definite plans to build a new house. Nova Scotia Alpha must still meet in private homes of the city members, but are exploring the possibility of renting rooms or even buying a house for seniors, since Shirreff Hall will soon be unable to contain all of the resident women. Vermont Alpha still has their three rooms in the college-owned Battell Block downtown, recently redecorated and with furniture refinished by pledges. Vermont Beta lives in its own house. The alumnae and Mothers' Club are replacing bedroom furniture with new pieces, have added a lighted trophy case in the living room, plan a matching bookcase and books; and the chapter plans better lighting in the chapter room.

Rushing at Connecticut Alpha, Maine Alpha, Massachusetts Beta and Nova Scotia Alpha was held during the first semester; the other three chapters rushed during second semester. The Deans of Women at University of Connecticut, Boston University, and University of Massachusetts have assistants whose duties include working with Panhellenic. They should prove mutually helpful to the colleges and the fraternities. It was my pleasure to meet Mrs. Richard Whitney, area advisor for Panhellenic, when she visited University of Connecticut. I have been pleased to learn of her visits to Boston University, University of Massachusetts, and Middlebury College particularly, to help the situations there.

Scholarship is generally good in the province. Maine Alpha, Massachusetts Beta, Nova Scotia Alpha and Vermont Alpha are all first in scholarship on their campuses, among NPC groups, for the past semester. The other 3 chapters have instituted scholarship programs to raise their grades, and Vermont Beta supported a Panhellenic decision to require a 72% average requirement for freshmen to rush.

This has truly been a rewarding year and I give heartfelt thanks to those AAC members who work so conscientiously to put their chapters on top, to the Pi Beta Phi actives who have cooperated fully with me, to Mrs. Wild who has taken time to answer my puzzled inquiries, and to Peggy Dick who has responded to my requests for "little dribbles."

ELIZABETH NEWBERRY MOTYCKA

BETA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

Again this year my chapter visits in the province were made during the Fall Semester and it was a real pleasure to meet the new chapter officers and the girls pledged and initiated since my last visit. In every case I found that the chapter presidents had gained something of value from the summer Chapter Presidents' Workshop and were applying ideas which they had found to be useful for their chapters.

During the Spring Semester all Beta Province chapters were honored by a visit from a member of Grand Council, Helen Anderson Lewis, Director of Rushing and Pledge Training. All chapters have expressed their delight in meeting her and noted that she left them with an increased knowledge and appreciation of our national fraternity, plus a kindling of enthusiasm for Convention in June.

The three New York chapters have chapter houses: New York Gamma has carpeted their stairs and upper hall and has installed new electric cable to the third floor to take care of 33 electric blankets, New York Alpha has made good use of its basement study room and has had the front hall redecorated, and New York Delta has about completed the furnishing and decorating of their chapter room with the help of the alumnae. Many thanks go to Mrs. White of New York F, Mrs. Menielly of New York A, and Mrs. Frey of New York D for their loving supervision of their chapters. Pennsylvania Beta enjoyed a complete spring housecleaning of their suite, Pennsylvania Gamma has plans for additional furniture for their rooms and may move to a ground floor apartment, and Pennsylvania Epsilon has been very busy with their decorating plans for their new suite, having purchased a number of large items like a piano, and a hi-fi set plus many smaller items like lamps, magazine rack and wall decorations. They are most grateful for assistance from alumnae.

This year only New York Alpha had its formal rushing period in the fall; all other chapters had deferred rushing with pledging in February, although Pennsylvania Epsilon again had an informal rushing period for transfers and upperclassmen in the fall as well. Reports of the activities and enthusiasm of the new pledges are most enthusiastic.

All Beta Province chapters have produced campus leaders in many areas: student government, class officers, dramatics, music, publications, honoraries, queens of various events and sports. The Deans of Women on all campuses spoke well of the Pi Phi chapters and singled out individual members for congratulations. One honor, deserving of special note, came to New York Alpha this year when it was selected by the administration as winner of the Hilton Cup as the outstanding women's fraternity on the Syracuse University campus.

Several large steps were taken toward the province goal of improvement in scholarship with four chapters showing marked improvement. The increased time and effort put on this important phase of chapter and campus life are shown in the results and congratulations are in order. Our sights are now set high and I have every confidence that continued effort and emphasis on scholarship will be bound to result in continued improvement. Many thanks are due Clover Johnson, Assistant Chairman of the National Committee on Scholarship, for her careful and effective supervision; to Betty Glass, Province Supervisor of Scholarship, for her ever watchful eye; and to the individual chapter Scholarship Chairmen for a job well done.

The very deserving winner of the Amy Burnham Onken Award from Beta Province was Jane Frye of New York Alpha. The other outstanding candidates were Sandra Clarke of New York Gamma, Lois Pape of New York Delta, Karen Reynolds of Pennsylvania Beta, Carolyn Carpenter of Pennsylvania Gamma and Sue Mortenson of Pennsylvania Epsilon.

I would like to thank each Alumnae Advisory Committee for its interest, loyalty and support. It is not easy for busy women to find the time necessary for the various positions on this committee and we know that their love for Pi Beta Phi and the chapter they are guiding enable them to find that time. For all aspects of chapter life including the planning, goals and evaluations the interest and advice of the Alumnae Advisory Committee are essential. I have appreciated getting their regular reports and certainly enjoyed meeting with them personally.

My heartfelt thanks go to our Grand President, Mrs. Wild, and to the other members of Grand Council for confidence and understanding as expressed over the past year. To my Beta Province chapters, knowing you means loving you. We've had a happy year together and I cherish your friendship and cooperation as we work toward the shining goals of Pi Beta Phi.

MARIANA EVANS CARPENTER

GAMMA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

Again this year my Memory Treasure Chest is filled to the brim with the thoughts of the many pleasant and rewarding hours I have spent working with the six chapters of Gamma Province. Disraeli once said, "The secret of success is constancy to purpose" and it is with pride that I have noted the "constancy to purpose" of these chapters as they steadily progressed and successfully reached the goals which they had set for themselves at the beginning of the year. Inspired by the many exchanges of ideas and notes taken at our Chapter Presidents' Workshop held in September at the Granville Inn, in Granville, Ohio, each chapter held an evaluation and goal-setting meeting immediately upon return to school. As the year progressed, these goals were reviewed and improved upon and the result is cognition of the true "secret of success." This year, again, I commend these chapters for their loyalty and cooperation and for the promptness and thoroughness of their reports. From the beginning of the year and constantly since then the confidence of the chapters has been my inspiration.

Ohio Epsilon was honored to have Virginia Green as their Guest Speaker at their Founders' Day banquet and the girls thought she was just wonderful, enjoying her vibrant enthusiasm for Settlement School and wishing that they, too, could visit there. I had the privilege of attending the Founders' Day Luncheon in Akron and a rush party at Ohio Beta, at which time I spent a most enjoyable evening with Helen Dix, Province Vice President. She also stayed with me when she made her official visit to Cleveland and has endeared herself to all who know her as a true representative of our fraternity.

The most exciting event for Gamma Province this year was the gathering of 350 active Pi Phis and members of the Alumnae Advisory Boards at the Ohio Union at Ohio State University on April 12th for our first Active State Day. We held workshops in the morning followed by luncheon at which time we were honored to have the following Pi Phis at our Speakers' table: Mrs. Carr Dix, Gamma Province Vice-President; Mrs. George Wolf, Province Scholarship Supervisor; Mrs. Paul Derringer, Province Pi Phi Times Coordinator; Mrs. Allan Rankin, former Province President; Mrs. Claude Shortz, former Province Vice-President; Mrs. Ludlow King, former national chairman of the Committee on Fraternity Study and Examination; Mrs. Garnette O'Connor, Ohio Beta housemother; and Mrs. Christine Conaway, Dean of Women of Ohio State University and a loyal Pi Phi. After luncheon each chapter gave a ten minute skit covering phases of fraternity life, awards were presented and we were then entertained by the Columbus Alumnae Club with a delightful Coffee Hour at the Ohio Beta Chapter House. The efficient help from the chapters and the Advisory Boards and the enthusiasm with which the Day was received has given me great cause for love and pride in this fraternity for which I serve.

Once again I made my official visits in the fall, confidently armed with a wealth of suggestions and knowledge that I had gained from an unforgettable Province Officers' Workshop in Gatlinburg this summer. Without the patient guidance given us by Grand Council at this workshop and throughout the year, the province officers would surely fail. In all the chapters (though diversified in situation, they are unified in ideals) I found the same graciousness, the same fraternity pride, the same "constancy to purpose," and the same ideals.

Ohio Alpha entertained with pride in their beautifully remodeled house and Ohio Beta is busy with plans for their house in the near future. Ohio Delta and Ohio Epsilon continue to take pride in keeping their "chapter homes" immaculately clean by themselves. Ohio Zeta is thrilled beyond description with their new suite and Ohio Eta is busy planning for redecoration of their house this summer. Ohio Alpha has a charming new housemother, Mrs. Petty, who is the sister of Jean Getsky, former province president. I would personally like to thank Mrs. Petty, Ohio Alpha, "Mom O," Ohio Beta, "Aunt Dee" Ohio Delta and Mrs. "Mac" of Ohio Eta for their many tireless hours of service and affection to the girls and their loyal cooperation with me.

Rushing was very successful in the province this year and the chapters were most appreciative of the work done by the alumnae, the Advisory Boards, the Recommendations Committees and the patient guidance of Mrs. Lewis, without which they could not function successfully. There were 146 girls pledged to chapters in Gamma Province this year. Good pledge training and constant incentive have helped in the many honors won by Pi Phis in extracurricular activities this year.

Members of our chapters have held many key positions in leadership on campus, such as president and vice-president of Mortar Board, WSGA, AWS, WRA, Student Government and Judicial Senate positions, departmental honoraries, editorships, Phi Beta Kappa and other equivalent scholastic honoraries, class officers and Junior Advisors. We have had queens and court attendants. Homecoming honors, Sweethearts of men's fraternities, Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities and many other honors too numerous to mention. It is truly gratifying to hear the same evaluation from all the six Deans of Women concerning our members of Pi Beta Phi. They praised their high scholastic aims, their qualities of leadership, their high personal standards and their well set examples of principle.

Gamma Province is proud of its scholastic record. Of the six chapters, only one is not in the upper third on its campus, two chapters hold the coveted first place on campus, and the other chapters are close behind. We also had an exciting scholarship race within the province, with three silver trophies being awarded at State Day. Our deep appreciation goes to Marie Wever and Jane Wolf, our own province scholarship supervisor, for their inspirational guidance and efforts toward analyzing and helping us to constantly improve scholarship programs and create incentive.

This year our chapters show 100% contribution to chapter projects. They also have been busy in fund raising campaigns for local philanthropies. Each chapter has successfully given a Pi Phi Valentine to its alma mater this year and these services have now become traditional. All of the chapters held Officers' Instruction Workshops, after which each new officer wrote her own thorough interpretation of her duties for her procedure notebook. This not only helped to fully instruct the officers in their duties, but also promoted a deep fraternity appreciation and an understanding link with our national officers.

Gamma Province is very proud of Kay Glass of Ohio Zeta, who won the Amy Burnham Onken Province award this year. We are also proud to congratulate the other candidates: Pat Peterson of Ohio Alpha, Anne Gilmore of Ohio Beta, Linda Mayo of Ohio Epsilon, and Janet Seigel of Ohio Eta. Our Chapter Service Award winner for the province was Ruth Ann Craighead. These girls are all outstanding members of their chapters and to them and all the other members who have worked so untiringly and unselfishly for the fraternity, I offer my sincere thanks.

I know that I speak for the chapters as well as myself when I offer my gratitude to the Advisory Boards for their many hours of diligent work and loyal conscientious guidance of the chapters, to the Mothers' Clubs, the House Corporations, and the alumnae who have done so much for Gamma Province. And to my wonderful chapters, once again, goes my deepest love and appreciation for their friendship, cooperation, loyalty, and confidence. I could ask no greater reward than the warmth of their response in working with them for their lives have become a part of mine that I shall never forget.

Our greatest secret of success was the intelligent and understanding leadership of Grand Council and the constant help and cooperation of Margaret Dick and Central Office, our province supervisors and our National supervisors and Committee Chairmen. To each of them I offer my personal gratitude. And to Marianne Wild especially, goes my deepest affection for her understanding patience and guidance and constant help. It is a privilege to work with her and the other members of Grand Council who are so devoted to the fraternity. I sincerely hope that we have contributed some small service to this fraternity which has given us so much.

LOUISE R. HOPKINS

DELTA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

As we sit down to look in retrospect at the past year it is very heart-warming to note the progress that has been made by each chapter, each different maybe in degree but representing that spirit of cooperation, ambition, and earnest desire for helpful criticism that is such a real part of Pi Beta Phi. My visits this year were made early enough in the term so that we might catch problems before they really developed. Also it is a great asset to know the girls to whom our letters go for it engenders a spirit of friendliness and closeness that is of such value.

Unfortunately we, in this province, belong in the lime-light that is being thrown so ceaselessly on education in secondary schools. It shows up very badly in the poor records our pledges made the first semester, no matter how excellent the scholarship programs may be and how well executed. Scholarship on the whole is our greatest headache even though concerted effort is being put upon it. At this point I want to pay high tribute to Marie Wever who has done such a magnificent job nationally and to Marybelle Curry who has given so much of herself to our province.

Activity-wise our girls have been unsurpassed. They have been May Queens, Apple Blossom princesses, Phi Beta Kappas, Mortar Boards, class presidents, outstanding women of the year, and other laurel winners too numerous to mention.

West Virginia Alpha has completed an $86,000 addition to and renovation of their house and it can now accommodate thirty-six of their chapter, besides having a lovely chapter room and gracious living and dining rooms. I'm sure they would want me to pay tribute to two of their alumnae club members especially who assumed the responsibility and did so much of the overseeing and supervising and whose ideas are behind many of the really unusual features of their house now.

Virginia Alpha had a total loss of their lodge by fire just before the Christmas holidays but it proved a blessing in disguise for they were planning to rebuild and would have had to tear the old one down. Since one of their chapter was to be May Queen they were eager to have at least a roof over the new house by May 3 in case of rain. They have the roof—and it rained as it has done most of the winter in this sunny South. Furnishings will be bought during the summer and if their rushing needed a boost—which it usually doesn't—it should prove to be one this coming fall.

Virginia Gamma was the third to decide to redecorate and that work is in process at the present time, with completion destined for fall also.

In order to offset the opinion that girls do poorer work after they are initiated into a fraternity our Alumnae Clubs give a May L. Keller monetary prize each year to that group of recent initiates showing the greatest scholastic improvement over their grades as pledges. This year Virginia Alpha won this prize. The Amy Burnham Onken award for Delta Province went to Johanna Martin, Maryland Beta's able and dedicated president. The other nominees were: Marylou Bernard Cook, D.C. Alpha; Toni Day, Virginia Alpha; Patricia King, Virginia Gamma; and Jane MacMillion, West Virginia Alpha. What a decision it was to make!

I would like to take this opportunity to express my deepest gratitude to the members of Grand Council and especially to our Grand President for her unflinching patience, kindness, understanding and help during this year; to the members of the Alumnae Advisory Councils of the chapters who have given invaluable aid to both the actives and me; and to the chapters for their cooperation, promptness in getting in reports and letters, their courtesy, hospitality, thoughtfulness and very real friendships, which I shall always treasure.

MARY V WILLIAMS

EPSILON PROVINCE PRESIDENT

Delegates from Epsilon Province's five chapters met in early September at Dearborn Inn, Dearborn, Michigan, for Chapter Presidents' Workshop. The fun of being together and the good planning made possible by these discussion meetings gave everyone a strong incentive to begin the school year. Attending were: Jane Doyle and Mary McLeod of Ontario Alpha; Patricia MacKeen and Jackie Tait, Ontario Beta; Normajean Thompson and Lucie Bruere of Michigan Alpha; Linda Balling and Mary Ann Nicoll, Michigan Beta; Alice Hadley and Janet Leaver of Michigan Gamma. Highlights of the two-day workshop were a picnic supper hosted by the Bloomfield Hills Alumnae Club and a dinner preceding the rushing discussion when active Rush Captains and alumnae Recommendation Chairmen from this area joined us. We were also pleased to include Mrs. Lewis of the Grand Council, Mrs. Koch, Province Vice-President, Mrs. Madsen, Province Scholarship Supervisor, Mrs. McIntyre, State Rush Chairman, and Mrs. Morse, Province Supervisor of Fraternity Study and Examination.

Only two chapters had fall Rush this year: Ontario Alpha and Michigan Alpha. Ontario Beta pledged in the fall those girls who had been rushed the spring before and bid during the summer after final grades were issued. Michigan Gamma rushed in January and Michigan Beta in February. Directing the rushing programs, a job which requires administrative ability, tact, charm, patience, and stamina, were five excellent executives: Mary McLeod, Ontario Alpha; Phil DuMoulin, Ontario Beta; Mafi Shibley, Michigan Alpha; Lucy Hendricks, Michigan Beta; and Karen Fox, Michigan Gamma. Five splendid pledge classes attest to the success of their fine planning.

Scholarship improvement was noteworthy this year. Michigan Gamma won a Panhellenic trophy for their efforts. Ontario Alpha made a spectacular rise to the upper third in their rank on campus; Michigan Alpha was first on campus for the fourth consecutive semester and Michigan Beta achieved a B average for the entire chapter, transfers' averages included. Ontario Betas maintained their same high average but were knocked out of the first place rank on campus which they had held for two years. Credit for the work they do with chapter scholarship chairmen go to Madeleine Mader and Connie Gates Madsen, province scholarship supervisors.

The province Amy Burnham Onken Award was given this year to Michigan Gamma's nominee, Ann Mottinger of Westport, Connecticut. Ann's record of scholarship, chapter service, and activities is exceptional. In May she received word that she had been granted a Fulbright Scholarship for study abroad and she was valedictorian of her class at Michigan State University. The other four outstanding girls nominated by their chapters were most deserving of the honor voted them by the joint committee, made up of five actives and the Alumnae Advisory Committees. They were: Florence Eubank, Michigan Alpha, of Detroit; Linda Balling, Michigan Beta of Rochester, New York; Sandra MacFarlane, Ontario Alpha, of Toronto; and Sonya Christopher, Ontario Beta, of Hamilton, Ontario.

For the Chapter Service Award, five seniors were nominated by their respective Alumnae Advisory Committees: Ontario Alpha, Mary McLeod of Beaverton, Ontario; Ontario Beta, Philippa DuMoulin of London; Michigan Alpha, Ann Bodnar of Toledo; Michigan Beta, Polly VanSchoick of Jackson, Michigan; and Diane McHugh, Michigan Gamma, of Toledo. Mary McLeod of Ontario Alpha was the province nominee for the national award.

A chapter chaperon does so much to make the college year an enjoyable and profitable experience for individual girls and the chapter. Mrs. Cummings of Michigan Alpha, Mrs. Willis of Michigan Beta, Mrs. Grill of Michigan Gamma, Mrs. Parker of Ontario Alpha, and Mrs. Chapman of Ontario Beta are the loyal, capable and beloved women who are chaperons for Epsilon Province Pi Beta Phis.

This year the province was fortunate in having two Grand Council visitors during the fall term. Mrs. Lewis visited the Michigan chapters and Mrs. Hansen, the Ontario ones. Their suggestions and praise were both welcome and appreciated. The Province President's visits came in the spring, following election of new chapter officers. In Toronto she was a guest at the annual Toronto Panhellenic Banquet and she visited Michigan Alpha and Michigan Gamma at the time of Founders' Day Observance. These visits were most enjoyable.

Michigan Beta observed its seventieth birthday this year with a Founders' Day and birthday luncheon on May tenth. A new addition will bring the number of girls who live in the chapter house to around sixty. This building project has been a gigantic undertaking for alumnae and actives in the Ann Arbor area.

The five Alumnae Advisory Committees in this province are our "secret weapon." They are, of course, the backbone of the active chapters and are on call day and night. They are on hand for the happy events and they are ready to help when a crisis arises. For their devotion, mere appreciation is not enough, but we give it to them in lavish amounts: Alice Anthony Baselle, Barbara Heath Killins, Lee Koch, Eunice Jevne Schloemer, Mary Herdman Scott, and Kay Yeats Sutherland have acted as AAC chairmen.

All chapters are 100% in support of Settlement School, Holt House, and Harriet Rutherford Johnstone Scholarship Fund this year as they have been in other years.

As Fraternity Study and Examination Supervisor for the province, Maxine Williams Morse has graded active and pledge examinations and has worked closely with the chapters and the province president. Lois Bossart Featherstone is Province Supervisor of Pi Phi Times which furnishes chapters the opportunity to exchange clever ideas for skits, programs, and parties. Ruth Ford McIntyre, as State Rush Chairman, has helped the Rush Captains get recommendations for girls who come from places not covered by the alumnae clubs.

To the three alumnae clubs of this area—Detroit, Grosse Pointe, and Birmingham—go thanks for their loyalty, assistance, and interest which have made the responsibilities of this job so pleasant. Their willingness to help the chapters in every way is proof that "Pi Phi spirit is never dead." Lee Koch, as Province Vice President, is regarded as affectionately by actives as by alumnae. Our work dovetails perfectly.

It would be impossible to close a report of the year's activities in Epsilon Province without a word of praise for the girls who have cooperated so willingly and so completely to make each chapter's record a fine one. They have made my work a joy.

And the final word of thanks goes to Marianne Wild who has a special way of making every active, every chapter, and every officer feel her sincere interest and concern.

MARGARET I. GARDNER CHRISTIANSEN

ZETA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

Zeta Province opened the school year 1957-58 with a Chapter Presidents' Workshop held at the Marott Hotel in Indianapolis from August 28 to 30. In attendance were the six chapter presidents, Betty Smith, Sandra Schroeder, Marcia DeWitt, Susanne Bartlett, Carolyn Beasley, and Judy Hanagan, also in attendance were four of the six pledge supervisors, Judy Stark, Indiana Alpha; Carol Housefield, Indiana Gamma; Susan Kolkmeier, Indiana Epsilon; and Jan Trittschuh, Indiana Zeta. The programs worked out in the chapters this year have reflected the exchange of ideas, the thoughtful consideration of problems, and the inspiration gained from this Workshop.

The Province was honored by a visit from the Grand Secretary, Mrs. James F. Speaker. Her ideas and suggestions were enjoyed and appreciated by the chapters.

For Indiana Alpha, Gamma and Epsilon rush was the first order of business with pledging the first week of school. At Indiana Zeta pledging was at the beginning of the winter quarter in December although rush began early in November. At Indiana Beta and Delta pledging was at the beginning of second semester in February with formal rush week before and some informal rush in first semester. A total of 124 girls were pledged during the year. Chapter houses remain the same with lovely new furnishings and equipment added to keep them up-to-date and in beautiful condition.

Each chapter is working hard on scholarship. The programs have been strengthened and the over-all attitude toward scholarship is good. Several girls have earned the highest honors their schools have to offer and we are all proud of them.

Activity-wise the chapters have assumed their responsibilities with enthusiasm. Many members hold key positions showing their leadership abilities. There have been many beauty queens, some elected by their campus classmates, some by committees of faculty and non-faculty. A Pi Phi Valentine for the Alma Mater has proven to be fun and continues to amaze and to bring compliments from college administrators. Activities play an important part in college life bringing honor and recognition to Pi Beta Phi.

Girls chosen by their chapters for the Amy Burnham Onken Award are: Indiana Alpha, Betty Smith; Indiana Beta, Sandra Schroeder; Indiana Gamma, Anne Wells; Indiana Delta, Madonna Deinhart; Indiana Epsilon, Carolyn Beasley; Indiana Zeta, Judy Hanagan who also received the Province Award.

Chosen as nominees for the National Chapter Service Award by the Alumnae Advisory Committee of each chapter are: Indiana Alpha, Beverley Fewell; Indiana Beta, Margaret Suzanne Franke; Indiana Gamma, Anne Wells; Indiana Delta, Betty Lee Moody; Indiana Epsilon, Carol Sue Dorsett; Indiana Zeta, Jan Trittschuh.

The Indiana Cup Award presented by the Indianapolis Alumnae Club was won by Indiana Zeta. The Sophomore Award presented by the Southwestern Alumnae Club went to Janice Hattendorf, Indiana Zeta. These and the Amy Burnham Onken Award were given at the State luncheon in honor of Founders' Day in Indianapolis on April 26 at the Indianapolis Athletic Club.

To the Alumnae Advisory Committee I want to extend my appreciation and gratitude for their untiring service. The leadership and guidance given has been reflected in the excellence of the chapters.

As the college year draws to a close, I would like to express my appreciation to Mrs. Wild, our Grand President, and to the members of Grand Council for their assistance and inspiration.

To the chapters, I again say "Thank You" for your hospitality, your cooperation and best of all your wonderful friendship. It has been an honor and a privilege to have shared in your success and in your happiness this past year.

JOSEPHINE ROGERS WARD (MRS. LEWIS O.)

ETA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

January 1 was the beginning of a wonderful experience for me when I became Eta Province President. Though I had always kept in close touch with the Fraternity, the contact with the seven wonderful Eta Chapters has given me an enlarged regard and respect for Pi Beta Phi.

The chapters have been most cooperative in helping me in every way to adjust to this new work. The chapter visits are highlights of an officer's job, and mine were no exception. The qualities and standards which have made our Fraternity outstanding were clearly manifested by all the chapters. The personal contacts made working together easier and more meaningful, and the exchange of ideas was very helpful.

Rush produced some wonderful pledges with all the chapters getting top girls. Certain problems arose for North Carolina Beta who had the new experience of deferred rush, but they came through with an exceptional class of pledges. Many new ideas were incorporated into the parties and plans—many of which came from a successful Chapter Presidents' Workshop held this summer at Gatlinburg. In some cases there were a large number of pledges who did not make their grades which showed that greater emphasis must be placed on scholarship with special help in establishing good study habits which will carry over after initiation.

Scholarship in all the chapters has seen ups and downs this year. Tennessee Alpha continues in first place after four semesters. Four chapters are holding an upper third ranking, one is still in lower third, and two are in the middle third. On the whole, the programs reflect a concrete approach to improvement. The attitude for the most part is good, but the great problem to be dealt with is the too large number of actives and pledges below initiation average.

The Eta Province chapters made a wonderful record in activities this year. One of the chapters, Tennessee Alpha has won more honors and events than any chapter at the University of Chattanooga ever has before in one year. Three chapters won all-campus Sings: Tennessee Alpha, South Carolina Alpha (who also sang on Television), and Kentucky Alpha. The three Tennessee chapters won Homecoming Decorations, and North Carolina Beta was represented as Homecoming Queen. North Carolina Alpha was honored to have one of her members, Kit Whitehurst, chosen as the outstanding senior woman at the University of North Carolina. The chapters were represented with an unusually large number tapped for Mortar Board, Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges, and in national honor societies. The activities have varied from active participation in student government, campus committees, intramurals, yearbook and newspaper staffs, fraternity sweethearts and campus queens, dormitory presidents, Phi Beta Kappa, and individual members chosen as the outstanding woman in their class. The great contribution made to their chapter and campus as well as their outstanding personal qualifications made it difficult to select the Province Amy Burnham Onken Award winner from among these wonderful girls: Joan McDonogh of Kentucky Alpha, Kit Whitehurst of North Carolina Alpha, Sandra Racliff of North Carolina Beta, Jean Huffman of South Carolina Alpha, Marilyn Harris of Tennessee Alpha, Catherine Turner of Tennessee Beta. Eleanor Harb of Tennessee Gamma is the province winner. Martha Ellis of North Carolina Beta won the province Chapter Service Award, and Judee Moore of Tennessee Alpha won the Memphis Sophomore Award.

The past six months have been a rewarding experience for me, and I appreciate the opportunity to work with the wonderful girls in these chapters and to know the members of Grand Council whose help has been invaluable. A special thanks to Marianne Wild for her generous help and to Polly Fessy for her excellent advice and suggestions on scholarship. My warmest thanks to the members of the Alumnae Advisory Committees without whose untiring help Eta's chapters would never have had such a successful year. Most of all, I want to thank the members of these seven chapters whose enthusiasm and response have made my work a real pleasure.

JANET SKIDMORE SKINNER

THETA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

Theta's year began with the Province Workshop which was held at Panama City, Florida, in late August. It is a splendid way in which to start a new year: the training is very important, but the friendships that are made, the fun that is shared, and the exchange of ideas and information pertinent to chapters in the same area is also of importance. Presidents and pledge supervisors from all chapters were present.

Alabama Gamma, Theta's newest chapter, retains the interest of the entire Province; we not only wish them well in everything, but also are willing and anxious to help at any time. For the second year, Pi Phis from other Theta chapters went to Auburn to help with rush, and once again we were guided by representatives from Grand Council, Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Speaker, and assisted by girls from Tennessee Beta, Alabama Alpha, and Florida Beta. It is symbolic of the true meaning of Pi Beta Phi that Council members devote ten days to one chapter, that Theta Province girls leave their chapters during rush (the chapters who make such sacrifice are to be commended), and that our neighbor, Eta Province, extends gracious aid. The efforts of these, combined with those of the fine group of actives and alumnae at Auburn, produced splendid results, but those who were there learned once again that it is the "givers who gain the most." We are proud, very proud, of our new chapter, but it has given us more in friendship and fraternity spirit than anything that we have given to them.

Fall is the major rush season for all Theta chapters, and by Thanksgiving time there was a fine pledge class in each of the 7 chapters, 2 of them were first on campus in scholarship, and the number who made initiation requirement in all chapters was gratifying.

We take special pride in the Province record of Mortar Board elections this Spring. Alabama Alpha repeated last year's figures: 5 out of 10 elected are Pi Phis; Alabama Beta has 4, the largest number from one sorority; Alabama Gamma's president was chosen; Florida Alpha members are president and secretary of Mortar Board; Florida Beta's president was elected, and another member is vice-president; and Georgia Alpha's past president has assumed the Mortar Board presidency. Florida Gamma does not have Mortar Board on its campus, but a Pi Phi is secretary-treasurer of "Libra," an equivalent group.

The scope of diversified activities for which the Fraternity strives is shown through the many honors which have been won by Theta chapters. Alabama Alpha takes pride in the active who is president of the State Methodist Student Movement, secretary of the National Conference of Methodist Youth, a member of Mortar Board, elected to Who's Who, chosen as Outstanding Senior, and graduated Cum Laude. Alabama Beta won the Delta Tau Delta trophy for the Outstanding Sorority on the University campus, won step-singing, and has as members the lovely Miss Alabama and Alabama Maid of Cotton. Alabama Gamma won the coveted "Burn the Bull-dog" trophy, the major campus competition of the Fall season. Florida Alpha won the Scholarship Trophy for the first semester, shared in securing a chapter of Mortar Board, and received a beauty honor in the election of "Miss Stetson." Florida Beta has the president of the Wesley Foundation, class officers, officers in sport organizations, the Homecoming Queen, and Miss Gymkana. Florida Gamma members take an active part in the intramural sports program, and contribute the chairman of the Chapel Staff to the College. A member of Georgia Alpha was appointed Chairman of all Canterbury activities in the Diocese of Atlanta, and the chapter has the chairman of the W.S.G.A. Cabinet, and the secretary of the Student Union. Restraint is difficult on the subject of beauty honors—each chapter has more than its share of sweethearts and sponsors. This is only a sample of activities, but it is indicative of chapter standings on the 7 campuses.

Many honors were bestowed upon individuals, but the highest of all remains that one given to the girl who is chosen as the Amy Burnham Onken Award nominee. Merrill Maguire, Florida Alpha, was selected for the Theta Award. Other nominees were: Betty Sapp Ragan, Alabama Alpha; Jane Sawyers, Alabama Beta; Polly East, Alabama Gamma; Sara Jane Griffin, Florida Beta; Carol Joy Stroll, Florida Gamma; and Sylvia Tindol, Georgia Alpha.

Chosen as nominees for the National Service Award by their respective Alumnae Advisory Committees were Kathryn Haynes, Alabama Alpha; Margie Winterburn, Alabama Beta; Jane Lewis, Alabama Gamma; Betty Hatton, Florida Beta; and Carol Joy Stroll, Florida Gamma, who won the Province nomination for the National Award. The Edythe Belton Tyler Award, a province award, was presented to Cynthia Lawrence, Florida Beta. The other nominees for it were: Sara Anne Statom, Alabama; Ruth Barksdale, Alabama Beta; Jo Ann Bartlett, Alabama Gamma; and Cordelia Row, Florida Gamma.

Scholarship has improved in every chapter. Theta's goal will not be reached until every chapter is first, but the fact remains that the present rating of each chapter is higher than for the previous semester or quarter—a thrill for all of us.

All chapters enjoyed additional improvements in houses or apartments. New tables, chairs and lamps at Alabama Alpha; laundry facilities at Alabama Beta; kitchen aids at Alabama Gamma; remodeling at Florida gave added space; an unattractive basement turned into a large and handsome recreational room at Florida Beta; new draperies and slip-covers in Florida Gamma's big living room; and freshly painted rooms and a new crystal chandelier at Georgia Alpha—all added to attractive "homes" in the Province.

Mrs. Moore's visits were a source of sheer delight to all chapters, and each received true inspiration as well as practical aid from her. All of us are indeed grateful to her.

As the year and my term of office come to an end, I want to thank all of the members of this glorious Fraternity of Pi Beta Phi with whom I have had contact for their help, guidance, and co-operation, and especially for their understanding and forbearance in the face of personal difficulties. My especial gratitude goes to the members of the Alumnae Advisory Committees, for it is to them that chapters and the province president, alike, turn for aid.

MARJORIE ATLEE PARKS

IOTA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

Gatlinburg in the summer, flame azalea and white rhododendron; the Little Pigeon cutting through the magic carpet of green that surrounds the Settlement School; Grand Council meeting; and the pride of being part of the official family as the officers meet to report and plan for the year ahead.

Our province year started with the Chapter Presidents' Workshop held at the Orrington Hotel in Evanston, Illinois, the last week in August. All chapter presidents, four pledge supervisors, one activity chairman and one scholarship chairman attended and the small intimate group allowed excellent concrete help to be given to individual chapters. New worlds of ideas and information opened for some delegates, others found other chapters to share their problems and help in finding the answers.

Fine group of pledges were acquired through the fall. Each chapter had planned better for rush and had issued bids on a more selective basis. More careful consideration was given to high school scholarship records than previously, with obvious results. The chapters are grateful for the help of the Alumnae, the Advisory Boards and the Recommendation Committees.

Scholarship continues to be an important factor. I feel chapters are fully aware of the importance of the problem and with the fine scholarship programs submitted, I look for a very marked improvement for next year. Illinois Eta and Illinois Zeta ranked first in scholarship for the first semester this year with Illinois Theta missing the top place by .24. My thanks go to Marie Wever, Scholarship Chairman; Clover Johnson, Assistant Chairman; and Gladys Hall, Province Supervisor, for their careful work with the scholarship chairmen and their many valuable suggestions.

The very deserving winner of the Amy Burnham Onken Award from Iota Province was Diane Stoakes of Illinois Epsilon. The other outstanding candidates were JoEllen Hamilton, Illinois Alpha; Anita Tosetti Johnson, Illinois Beta-Delta; Jackie Crinigan, Illinois Eta; Irene Allen, Illinois Theta; Lynn Tobin, Illinois Zeta. It was my pleasure to present Diane Stoakes her award at the Chicago Area Founders' Day Luncheon. For the first time the other nominees were sent ABO certificates signed by the Grand President and the Province President concerned.

National Service Award nominee from Iota Province is Carole Frey, Illinois Eta. Those nominated from other chapters: Anita Tosetti Johnson, Illinois Beta-Delta; Barbara Dunbar, Illinois Epsilon; Suzanne Gregg, Illinois Theta; Helen Nichols, Illinois Zeta.

During the year Iota Province was privileged to be officially visited by Ruth Williams Hansen, Director of Extension. Her enthusiasm and suggestions provided impetus and inspiration for the chapters.

My chapter visits were a pleasure and an inspiration. The four Pi Beta Phi houses in the province are attractive, comfortable and well kept. Three of the chaperons have renewed their contracts for next year. Illinois Zeta regrets to say good-bye to Mrs. Sylvia Wells.

Alumnae Advisory Committees have been exceptionally vital and effective this year, with contacts at a very high and encouraging level. Within the Alumnae Boards there has been a new awareness of chapter responsibilities and in turn their help to me and to the chapters has been outstanding. It has been a credit to both actives and alumnae that small problems have been reported before they became grave ones and solutions have been much easier.

Members of Pi Beta Phi have obtained more than their share of honors on every campus. Homecoming Queens—Harriet Stillwell, Illinois Alpha; Barbara Fowler, Illinois Beta-Delta; Jackie Crinigan, Illinois Eta; Irene Allen, Illinois Theta; seven cheerleaders; many leads in campus productions; two presidents of YWCA; five in Who's Who; Mortar Board; Phi Beta Kappa; two Panhellenic Presidents, and many others.

So many thanks are in order to those who have given me a helping hand this year, to my girls whom I love sincerely, to the Alumnae who have been my staunch support, to Grand Council for its loyal assistance, and most sincerely and deeply to Marianne Reid Wild, our Grand President, whose devotion to Pi Beta Phi has led us all so wisely and so well.

Convention at New Ocean House, Swampscott, Massachusetts, will present the climax of our year together.

KAPPA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

As a very new Province President, it has been a great privilege to join the inner circle of our wonderful organization and get a partial glimpse at watching the wheels go round. With such devoted leaders it is not surprising our fraternity has established such a fine reputation nationally.

Visits to the various chapters in the province were made this spring. Cordial welcomes awaited me on each campus, and the desire to make that particular visit the best one in the province was evident. All chapters have chosen their officers wisely. Efficient leadership prevails, with well conducted executive councils, thus producing a smoothly functioning chapter. The various officers and chairmen who had compiled the best procedure notebooks were very evident. The strength of the members of the Junior Class was a credit to their thorough training and competent advisors.

As always, scholarship problems prevail. Many fine plans to raise the average are being attempted, from the chapter giving pins to all those who make an honorary fraternity, to confining a girl to no activities when her grades are low. Lack of adjustment to college life does not appear to be the answer as the pledges at Minnesota Alpha had a higher average than the actives. However, when North Dakota actives placed first on campus, the low pledge average brought the over-all average down to fifth place. There is much evidence of a determination on the part of each girl to evaluate her own mistakes and be personally responsible to raise the scholastic average and put Pi Phi where it should be, on top.

The Amy Burnham Onken Province Award was presented to Nancy Hildebrand of Wisconsin Beta; other candidates were Amy Henderson of Manitoba Alpha, Nancy Fournier of Minnesota Alpha, Jane McGuiness of North Dakota Alpha, Donna Roehm of Wisconsin Alpha, and Patricia Gode of Wisconsin Gamma. Roberta Dinsdale of North Dakota Alpha won the Chapter Service Award. Many girls should be credited for winning other outstanding awards and membership in honorary societies. Pi Phi is proud of all of them.

In each chapter in the Province, Pi Phi has played a prominent part in campus activities with Minnesota Alpha and Wisconsin Alpha contributing more participants and outstanding leaders than the other chapters. The Deans on each campus praised the Pi Phis for their active interest in all school affairs, and also for their conformity to the rules and regulations governing the campus.

The pledging of girls who are going to be good students is a difficult task. Too much importance cannot be given to very complete recommendations by the alumnae. Fine pledges soon make fine Pi Phis. The pledge training programs have improved this year and have created a desire for a greater knowledge about Pi Phi, particularly the early history. The influence of Panhellenic rules and regulations is felt on every campus, formal rush taking place in the fall. The visit of Alice Mansfield to Manitoba Alpha was most helpful and inspirational.

The forming of a House Corporation has been started at Wisconsin Gamma and Manitoba Alpha also feels that need. These are the two chapters in the Province who have just rooms and no houses for their meetings and happy Pi Phi get together. The other chapters have house boards who take great pride in the appearance and upkeep of the interior and exterior of the houses and devote many hours to this project. The cooperation of the Alumnae Advisory Committees with the active chapters has been excellent. The knowledge that the alumnae club desires to be helpful at all times gives much confidence and strength to the active chapter. We are fortunate indeed, to have such fine chaperons in this province. The chapters reflect her social poise and grace. For many who are away from home influence for the first time, she is the kind and wise counsellor to whom they turn.

Minnesota Alpha is privileged to have the wife of the President of the University a Pi Phi. Her kindness and generosity in giving a Christmas party at her home for the active chapter and both St. Paul and Minneapolis Alumnae Clubs each year is a wonderful example of Pi Phi loyalty.

The occasion to which all Pi Phis look forward is Founders' Day. It is a nice custom for the three Wisconsin chapters to celebrate together. This year Wisconsin Alpha was hostess to fifty-five girls from Wisconsin Gamma and forty-two from Wisconsin Beta. Comparing Pi Phi projects and making new sisters enriches and strengthens the bonds in the Wine and the Blue.

I cannot close this report without expressing my appreciation to Mrs. Wild for the support and assistance she has given me. As I have had no contact with active Pi Phis for many years her understanding and patience have been most encouraging. Also I wish to say "Thank You" to each chapter for their co-operation and the warm friendship extended to me.

BETTY MCGHIE

LAMBDA PROVINCE PRESIDENT

Together is the most inspiring word in the English language. Coming together means beginning, keeping together means progress, and working together means success. This has been Lambda Province's motto for the year 1957-58. As the new province president in August I met with our six chapter presidents and five pledge trainers in St. Louis, Missouri, feeling very inadequate as a leader of a Workshop, more fluent with Ways and Means projects than as a counselor of scholarship, activities and pledge training. However, thanks to our wonderful manuals, organized filing system and national and local officers who gave me encouragement and boundless assistance I started out—our beginning was a successful meeting and sharing of ideals for the coming year. Keeping together through monthly reports, chapter capsules and Pi Phi Promoters, has meant progress. All chapters without exception have tried to meet all letter and report deadlines, making my task of correlating their activities and accomplishments much easier. The cooperation of each chapter has been exemplary, courteous, and honest. This cooperation has meant success in all fields of fraternity life.

All Lambda chapters have Fall rush, all chapters have quotas, and all quotas were filled, with 161 girls pledged and 136 girls initiated.

In regard to scholarship, the paradox is where scholarship programing has been the most strict, a fifth of the pledge class have not been initiated, where programing has been relaxed only a tenth or less have not been initiated. An analysis of pledge classes leads one to believe if only rushees pledged are from the upper or middle third of their high school classes, and then given proper programing, with moderate regulations you can count on ninety per cent of all pledges achieving initiation. Material scholastically must be good to begin with, then working together means progress, and initiation represents success.

Missouri Beta and Missouri Gamma have both won the scholarship cups of their respective campuses. A real thrill for them and I might add, for me too.

Activities have been well represented, particularly those concerned with student government, and where dramatic and musical responsibilities are required. All chapters have girls active in their religious social organizations, and intramural sports. We also have to date eleven Beauty Queens in the province.

Caroline Jackson, Missouri Alpha, was awarded the St. Louis Sophomore Award for Lambda Province. I do not have the names of the other nominees as this is handled directly with the St. Louis Alumnae Club and the active chapters. I am notified of the winner's name only.

Joan Drumwright, Missouri Gamma, was selected for Lambda Province's Amy Burnham Onken nomination. Other outstanding girls nominated by their chapters are: Lestra McArthur, Louisiana Alpha; Mary Ann McLaurin, Louisiana Beta; Kay Kitchen, Arkansas Alpha; Carol Sauer, Missouri Beta; and Ruth Muff, Missouri Alpha.

Arkansas Alpha has the most magnificent new house imaginable, accommodating 75 girls. Missouri Alpha has a complete new wing, giving new sleeping and bath accommodations, and basement laundry facilities and recreation room. Louisiana Alpha, Louisiana Beta, and Missouri Beta are forming house corporations with plans for building at the latter two in the not too distant future, and Louisiana Alpha planning to remodel their present house.

Without the Alumnae Advisory Committees and Chairmen there could be no successful chapters. These dedicated women are our backbone for immediate emergencies, loving understanding, devoted daily service and ever-loving service to Phi Phi locally and nationally. Words could not express my appreciation, their chapters' appreciation, and I am sure all national officers' gratitude for their loyal and constant strength, interest and plain hard work. Thank you all sincerely.

A sage once said, "Life is a magician's vase filled to the brim, but its precious contents overflow only into the hands that drop treasures into it." This expresses my feeling being Lambda Province's President. Each chapter's warm welcome, trust, courtesy, and careful planning of visit schedules has let me feel I was a part of their lives, loves, and tribulations, so the treasures of Pi Phi's friendship has overflowed into my hands.

To Marianne Reid Wild, Virginia Speaker, Dede Williams, Frances Brigance, and all national and province officers, thank you for your individual and group concern and interest in helping me fulfill this office. A CHALLENGE, and an OPPORTUNITY, I have enjoyed to the fullest.

MARY ZIMMERMAN KNIPMEYER

MU PROVINCE PRESIDENT

This has been a wonderful year for the eight chapters of Pi Beta Phi in Mu Province. Our year really began with the Province Workshop for chapter presidents and pledge supervisors at The Town House in Omaha where the enthusiastic exchange of ideas went on and on into night with delicious meals served in air-conditioned comfort and dips in the glass-enclosed swimming pool. The delegates and their Province President greatly appreciated the hospitality of Omaha alumnae who entertained the group one afternoon at a terrace party held at the home of Mrs. Paul Reichstadt and new ideas in rushing were put into practice then and there as several legacies just "happened" to drop by.

Formal rushing was a great success in the province and everyone had a wonderful time even though the weather was sizzling hot in the midwest. However it was not long until the Pi Phi were busy decorating floats and chapter houses for football games and homecoming week-ends. Dad's Week-Ends have become popular in the province and many of the chapters entertained their fathers with schedules filled with dances, sports events, caroling, and "cozies"—enough to send the gentlemen home exhausted.

Also popular in the province this year have been a variety of "gimmicks" planned to promote the pursuit of scholarship, everything from traveling trophies such as stuffed toy animals to scholarship dinners with the chapter members wearing attire ranging from formals to sweaters and skirts and jeans depending on grade averages (the higher the grade, the more comfortable the apparel). And it all seemed to work because the province has three chapters in the number one spot on their campuses; two in second place; one holding third place; and two bordering on the upper third.

There isn't one chapter in the province which does not have its full share of Queens in beauty and popularity, some elected on a statewide and regional basis, and the originality and talent in the chapters is evidenced by first place trophies won in campus variety shows and competitive "derbies" and "carnivals." Social activities have included everything from formal parties and receptions, Monmouth Duos with the Kappas to street dances with neighboring fraternities.

During my chapter visits in the fall to Iowa Alpha, Iowa Beta, and Iowa Zeta, and again last winter on my trips to Kansas, South Dakota, Nebraska, and Iowa Gamma, I was impressed with the position of leadership each chapter of Pi Beta Phi holds on its college campus. The smallest, and the oldest, chapter in the province, Iowa Alpha, was almost solely responsible for inaugurating the first Greek Week program on its campus. It would take a large ledger to hold the lists of campus offices and positions of responsibility held by the Pi Phis.

It is almost impossible to single out one girl from the outstanding Pi Phi nominated for the Amy Burnham Onken award, but the province is very proud of Dorothy Woods of South Dakota Alpha who received the Mu Province award on Founders' Day. The other ABO Pi Phis who were honored by their chapters are Mary Beth Stanley Young, Iowa Alpha; Flora Beth Kitzman, Iowa Beta; Marilyn Martin, Iowa Gamma; Karen Clause, Iowa Zeta; Ruth Ann Anderson, Kansas Alpha; Joyce Graham, Kansas Beta; and Constance Berry, Nebraska Beta.

Special recognition goes to the Pi Phis in the province who were honored by the members of their Alumnae Advisory Committees with the Chapter Service Award. Those honored are Dorothy Holsteen, Iowa Alpha; Marian Henley, Iowa Beta; Lu Ann Cooper, Iowa Gamma; Jean Barrett, Iowa Zeta; Ellen Proudft, Kansas Alpha; Karen Peterson, Kansas Beta; Ann Wade, Nebraska Beta; and Karen Thoreson, South Dakota Alpha. Jean Barrett of Iowa Zeta received the province nomination.

Chapter visits in Mu Province are sheer pleasure for the visiting officer and I wish to express my appreciation to the active chapters and their alumnae for their wonderful hospitality. The chapter members are truly Pi Phi Angels and I know that they, as well as I, are most grateful for the whole-hearted cooperation and assistance of their alumnae advisors without whose loyal support the past year of progress could not have been accomplished.

I am also most appreciative of the helpful guidance and always sympathetic patience of Marianne Reid Wild and the members of Grand Council. To them, my sincere thanks.

RUTH LOUISE DIERKS

NU PROVINCE PRESIDENT

No report, even if it were detailed, could do justice in describing the unselfish service, leadership, personal development and happiness of our Nu Province chapters this year. A statement made by a Dean of Women on one campus is exemplary: "Pi Beta Phi leadership on our campus is recognized and appreciated by the student body and the University officials alike: it is an important contribution to the school." On two other campuses, our Pi Phi chapters influenced opinions which were strongly opposed to the fraternity system, to its support. With this reputation, with the many honors and awards won, I am sure that every Pi Phi joins me in a genuine "thank you" to our actives, and express a deep appreciation for the manner in which they are upholding the ideals of Pi Beta Phi.

The experiences and knowledge gained at the Gatlinburg workshop were taken to the Chapter Presidents' Workshop, which was held in Mineral Wells, Texas, last August. Two girls from each chapter attended. Because Texas Delta is a new chapter, Grand Council gave permission for an additional girl from this chapter to share the experience. The value of this workshop was proven by the manner in which each chapter regarded and utilized throughout the year the many excellent ideas which developed in discussion.

With the untiring assistance of Marie Wever and Lucy Matkin, the Province Scholarship Supervisor, Nu Province began the year with four chapters in the upper third for the past five years, one for the past four years and six for the past two years. During this time, Texas Gamma has been and continues to be in first place on its campus, or, ever since it became a chapter. Oklahoma Alpha has held first place with the exception of one semester.

At the beginning of the fall semester, Oklahoma Alpha rushed under a quota system limit of 30 pledges. Each chapter in the province now rushes with a quota system, with the exception of Oklahoma Beta. An exceptional pledge class in every chapter is evidenced by the many honors won.

Texas Delta began the year in a new dormitory which houses all Panhellenic chapters as well as some non-sorority members. Each chapter has its own wing, including a chapter and/or living room and kitchen. The Pi Phi room is beautifully decorated and furnished in colors of wine and blue, a source of genuine pride to the chapter. Texas Beta has added a beautiful play room and enlarged chaperon's quarters. Texas Gamma has rented a lodge which is being thoroughly enjoyed for meeting place as well as entertaining guests. The college, in cooperation with all fraternity and sorority chapters, has complete plans for the purchase of land adjoining the campus and hopes to begin building houses in the near future. Oklahoma Alpha's plans for a new house are rapidly materializing. Oklahoma Beta has plans for remodeling the old portion of their house. New Mexico Alpha and Texas Alpha have no plans for immediate changes in their lovely homes.

Chapter retreats have become a vital function in the province, with most chapters experiencing two each year. These have proven to be most beneficial to chapter planning, officer instruction, and to chapter "togetherness."

Nu Province is especially blessed with lovable, efficient chaperons. Mrs. Lutz, who came to New Mexico Alpha last year, "Meg" Quigley, after several years of devoted service to Oklahoma Alpha, has retired this spring and is replaced by Mrs. Hardeman; Mrs. Allison at Oklahoma Beta; Mrs. Elliott, who came to Texas Alpha this fall, and Mrs. Ruth Wayne, at Texas Beta. The guidance and training which they have so generously given our girls in sincerely appreciated.

Beginning the year with such awards in the Province as the Stoolman Vase, Texas Gamma, Nita Hill Stark Vase, Oklahoma Alpha, the Historian's Cup, New Mexico Alpha, and the highest total magazine commissions, Texas Beta; and with a record of generous contributions and support of all fraternity projects and very high grades of fraternity cooperation, Nu Province chapters were inspired toward new heights in fraternity experiences and have gone far in accomplishing them. Without exception, each chapter has cooperated with me in punctuality and completeness of reports and correspondence, almost 100%—truly a record for pride and appreciation.

Each chapter celebrated Founders' Day with the alumnae clubs, Oklahoma Alpha and Oklahoma Beta having the pleasure of joining in the State Day celebration and meeting, held at Western Hills Lodge near Tulsa, Oklahoma, the week preceding Founders' Day. Texas Gamma enjoyed a very special occasion in combining Founders' Day with the fifth anniversary of the chapter installation, with Olivia Moore as a special guest.

Community service work continues to play an important part in our actives' schedules. Each chapter has sponsored or supported at least three major charity projects, helped with community drives; some have housed foreign students and had special parties for orphans; made and took trays of gifts to hospital patients. Two chapters are reading to blind students and one chapter "adopted" an elderly invalid lady. Each chapter felt greatly rewarded by the participation in "Valentine for Alma Mater."

Indicative of the activity participation is the number of members of Mortar Board, a total of fifteen with two campuses having no Mortar Board chapter. We also have fifteen queens, seven beauties, and nine sweethearts, to mention only a few. Although space allows only touching the surface of honors, we all present with pride our seven most worthy nominees for the Amy B. Onken Award, whose records alone would exceed the allotted reporting space. They are: Gloria Hanawald, New Mexico Alpha; Betty Blanton, Oklahoma Alpha; Nan Davis, Oklahoma Beta; Joan McKnight, Texas Alpha; Marilyn Bludworth, Texas Beta; Beth van Maanen, Texas Gamma; Sandra Guthrie, Texas

Delta. Chosen to receive the award for the province is Betty Blanton of Oklahoma Alpha.

We are proud too of the Pi Phis who have been chosen by the Alumnae Advisory Committees as nominees for the Chapter Service Award. These outstanding girls with amazing records of unselfishness are: Sharon Roth, New Mexico Alpha; Katie Elliott, Oklahoma Alpha; Barbara Murray, Oklahoma Beta; Marjorie Purnell, Texas Alpha; Gail Baker, Texas Beta; Janice Newson, Texas Gamma; and Dorothy Marie Martin, Texas Delta. Chosen to receive this award for the province is Marjorie Purnell of Texas Alpha.

Due to the sad experience of three deaths in my family this year it was a deep disappointment that, at three different times, my planned visit to the two Oklahoma chapters had to be cancelled. I would like to express my sincere appreciation for the understanding and complete cooperation of these two chapters. With the help and guidance of wonderful Alumnae Advisory Committees, both chapters have operated efficiently. Mrs. Wild was especially understanding and I do appreciate her kindness to me during this time.

This report could not be complete if I did not mention the devoted leadership and fraternity service of our Graduate Counsellor at Texas Delta, Jeanne Davis. The love and cooperation of the chapter and Advisory Committee for Jeanne is mutual—a compliment to all. Our sincere thanks to Virginia Speaker too, for her guidance which is rewarded in the fine progress of the chapter.

Our Mothers' Clubs have made tremendous contributions in our province this year; not only in their generous material gifts to the chapters but in their ever-ready willingness to give of their time.

To be a part of such a fraternity as Pi Phi, with its Grand Council and National Committee members and officers basing efficiency on love, understanding on sympathy, and whose goal is the highest ideals of fine womanhood; and with actives who appreciate such leadership and make every effort to follow, this is indeed a choice privilege. My sincere thanks to each of you for this experience.

ELOISE G. HENSLEY

XI PROVINCE PRESIDENT

Picture a log cabin high in the Rockies with a huge fire going constantly in the stone fireplace, ten Pi Phis from all over the province clustered around it to keep warm, becoming better acquainted, discussing and helping to solve each chapter's problems, and you have seen our Chapter President's Workshop. The lights were turned off at eleven each night or I believe the girls would have talked all night long. With a horseback ride and trout for breakfast which was caught in the nearby mountain stream, I felt that it was a most successful and fun time.

If I felt rewarded last year after my chapter visits, I was doubly impressed this year. To go back to see the girls after I knew them individually meant a great deal to me. Each chapter proved to me what gracious little hostesses could do to make a visitor welcome and I enjoyed them. The house mothers and AACs contributed greatly to making my trips successful and I thank them. They all deserve praise for their fine work with the chapters.

Of course the highlight of this year for Province Xi was the arrival of Mrs. Wild at each chapter. How we enjoyed having her! The girls have been so inspired and learned so much from her that their jobs have gone sailing since she was here.

The Amy Burnham Onken Award for Xi Province went to Barbara Smith, Wyoming Alpha. The outstanding seniors from the other chapters who were nominated were: Judy Harkness, Colorado Alpha; Roberta Rabinoff, Colorado Beta; Cecilia Bowe, Colorado Gamma; Janet Tobey, Montana Alpha; and Suzanne Hatfield, Utah Alpha. All had fine records of service to the fraternity and to their colleges.

The traveling cup donated by Mrs. Frank Halla in memory of her friend, Dorothy Spencer, to be given to the most outstanding sophomore class in the province went to Utah Alpha this year. The scholarship chairman with the best planned and most workable program was Nancy Ball from Colorado Gamma. Many honors have come to each chapter this year.

To all the actives, alumnae, and Grand Council who have given their cooperation and friendship I wish to extend my thanks for helping to make this such a gratifying Pi Phi experience.

LUCY STEINHAUSER

OMICRON PROVINCE PRESIDENT

Omicron Province has had an excellent year with all of its chapters working to establish and hold a place of leadership and service on their respective campuses. The year began with a workshop at the Mallory Hotel in Portland

September 4-6. Sixteen pledge supervisors and chapter presidents were present, and we had two special events. Barbara Crosland Lind, province scholarship supervisor, was with us for dinner and discussion, and we met with the Portland alumnae and actives for a picnic supper. The alumnae were pleased to have an opportunity to talk with the actives, discuss the coming rush periods, and hear what their chapters were doing.

Rushing, pledge training, chapter standards, alumnae and campus relationships, and scholarship were a few of the topics on the program. All of us feel much is to be gained in developing strength for the Fraternity and leadership potential in the delegates by these meetings. Another value that cannot be overestimated is the girls getting to know the other actives in the province. A goal set up when this position was given to me was to have the girls know and enjoy each other throughout the province. Oregon Alpha entertained Oregon Beta and Oregon Gamma this year at a picnic. Washington Beta had Idaho Alpha as their guests on Founders' Day. Oregon Gamma arranged a surprise breakfast with Oregon Beta in Corvallis this fall. Plans were made for the girls in the province to meet and go to convention together, and letters and songs have been in the process of exchange ever since workshop. I wish all the chapters were close enough geographically for these visits!

The Province was thrilled by a visit from Alice Mansfield, Grand Vice-President, this year. It is always a treat to be visited by a Grand Council member, and the girls felt that much had been added to their Pi Phi experiences in getting to know and work with their Grand Vice-President.

Chapter visits are a pleasure, and this year was no exception. Washington Alpha, Alberta Alpha, and Washington Gamma were done in the fall, and Idaho Alpha and Washington Beta after Christmas. Because of exams at the winter term's end, Oregon Alpha, Beta and Gamma were completed in the spring.

The first achievement of the year that seems noteworthy is the high percentage of pledges making initiation average first term. This spoke well for three things: the quality and consideration given by alumnae in their recommendations, the effort put in by the pledges to establish good scholastic habits, and the fine training of the pledges by the members.

Scholarship in the province was high during the year. All chapters in the province were in the upper third in the first term. One had first and two had second on campus. With the raising of college scholastic standards throughout the country, we recognize that scholarship must become a more important factor in choosing members for the future.

Our girls were very busy in activities also. Because it is difficult to point out single honors and include the whole active membership of the province, areas will be mentioned rather than specific honors. We were happy to have our girls represented in Phi Kappa Phi, Phi Beta Kappa, Mortar Board, honoraries in Home Economics, Business, Literature, Science, Psychology, Dancing, Music, and Journalism. Service honoraries at the various year levels were well represented by Pi Phis. Beauty queens, rally girls, song queens, homecoming queens, May princesses are among the honors to come our way.

As always, the local alumnae advisory committees played a prominent part in the relationship of the chapter to the Fraternity. These women serve unselfishly and give time that might well be spent in less demanding activity. The reward comes in seeing the chapters develop fine, reliable girls, and mature guidance and council cannot be overestimated as a contributing factor to Pi Phi's position of leadership in our province. These are the women that are on call twenty-four hours a day during the school year and can be relied upon for help whenever it is needed.

Chapter houses were given a face-lifting during the summer months and Idaho Alpha hopes to have a new home in the very near future. Alberta Alpha's chapter house problem received some very serious hours of work and thought. Washington Gamma gained living quarters in one wing of Anderson Hall when the new dormitories were completed. This gives more of a feeling of chapter unity, because the girls are living in a group.

I wish to take this opportunity to thank Grand Council for their guidance at province officer's workshop and during the year. To the province supervisor of pledge and active chapter examination, Mrs. Edwin Alderson, the past province scholarship supervisor, Mrs. William Lind, and the new supervisor, Mrs. George Frazier, and to the Canadian assistant on scholarship, Madeline Mader, I wish to say "Thank you" for myself and the actives of the province for your work in their behalf. To Sally Vanasse, Omicron Province Vice-President, my thanks for her cooperation and warm-hearted work with the province alumnae. I feel that we can all say to the workers of the province actives and alumnae, "Well done."

LOU ANN CHASE TUFT

PI PROVINCE PRESIDENT

The year began for Pi Province with the Chapter Presidents' Workshop at the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel in Pasadena. Again, the Huntington-Sheraton made us Pi Beta Phis very welcome and the chapter presidents and pledge supervisors of the seven chapters had a very informative and happy two days. All phases of fraternity work were discussed and there was an exchange of ideas which has proved helpful to each one of the chapters. I was very grateful for my experience at the Province Officers' Workshop at Gatlinburg, Tennessee, in June, for the information gained there helped me guide these discussions.

Rushing was well planned and the results were very gratifying. We pledged 165 fine girls who have proved their worth by contributing so much to the chapters both before and after their initiation. The IBM machine was used on several of the campuses for sorting rushing invitations and bids and is being experimented with on two other campuses. In one instance this last fall, bids were delayed from early evening until the next morning because one card was inserted into the machine the wrong way. It took some time to straighten this out and in the meantime there was a great deal of anxiety on everyone's part. California Epsilon had to rush in one of the college classrooms, as their rented duplex had been sold and they had not found another house. They were afraid this might put them at a great disadvantage, but it did not keep them from pledging the girls they wanted. Shortly after rushing their House Corporation Board presented them with an attractive small house one block from the San Diego State College campus. The house has sleeping accommodations for eight girls and the chaperon, a very nice living room and a kitchen where the girls living-in take turns in planning and cooking the meals.

This summer the garage is being remodeled for a chapter room and study hall, which will be a great convenience for the town girls. They are very proud of their new Pi Beta Phi home. California Zeta is still waiting for information from the University as to what arrangements will be made for sorority and fraternity housing on the University of California at Santa Barbara College Campus at Goleta. There have been many rumors as to what will be done, but as yet nothing definite has been announced. California Zeta, as well as the other Greek sororities and fraternities on that campus, is still housed in Santa Barbara, nine miles from the University. This is a long distance to drive to classes and the sooner they are located near the campus the easier it will be for both the actives and the pledges.

Chaperons are most important to the chapters and this year when we needed five new chaperons, we were most fortunate in obtaining five excellent ones. Because of illness one had to leave, but the other four will be returning this fall. Their encouragement can prove the incentive for attaining high scholastic and activity honors. We have had our share of honors this past year in every phase of college life. We had our queens, princesses and sweethearts, members of the class honorary groups, members of the scholastic honorary groups, and the activities honorary groups. We are well represented on the different campuses in top class and student body offices. California Epsilon was first in scholarship on her campus among the NPC groups for the third semester. California Beta brought her scholarship up to first place and is determined to keep it there. Nevada Alpha actives were first among the actives of the NPC groups on that campus. Pi Beta Phi held the presidency of the College Panhellenic at both the University of California and the University of Southern California. We can be very proud of the way these two presidents represented both our fraternity and the College Panhellenic.

It is only with the cooperation of the girls in the chapters, the chaperon and the Alumnae Advisory Committee members that any progress can be made and I feel this has been accomplished this year. May I express my gratitude to the girls for their wonderful hospitality, and to their chaperons and the AAC members who have the interest of the girls at heart? And my thanks to each one of Grand Council for her patience, her ready information, and her understanding of every problem presented.

Reports of Province Vice-Presidents

ALPHA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

Working with the club officers and members of Alpha province this year has been a distinct pleasure. It has been a year in which all were involved in preparations for Convention, and the response to this work has been wonderful.

For the third consecutive year Alpha province welcomes a new club. This Spring the Berkshire Alumnae Club, covering towns around Pittsfield, Massachusetts, was chartered.

The national projects were well supported by the clubs. Contributions to Centennial Fund nearly doubled those of last year, with six instead of two clubs collecting contributions.

Cooperation between clubs and chapters in Alpha province is indeed heartening. Greater Boston, Burlington, Eastern Connecticut, Halifax, and Eastern Maine clubs all joined with their nearby active chapters in supper meetings, coffee hours and Founders' Day celebrations. Assistance was given during rush week, alumnae advisors were provided, and financial contributions were made. The Portland, Hartford, New Haven and Southern Fairfield County clubs gave financial assistance, bracelet awards, and in one case, summer rush cooperation.

The year has been busy, with many activities, but there is space for only some highlights. Berkshire's chartering, with sixteen members, heads the list. Boston has worked hard in its role as hostess club to the Convention. Burlington had a tremendous successful fair and sale of Arrowcraft. Eastern Connecticut held a private Arrowcraft sale within its own membership. Eastern Maine joined with Maine Alpha actives in giving a tea honoring Rena Campbell Bowles, newly appointed member of the Board of Trustees of the University of Maine. Halifax Alumnae have enjoyed much contact with the Nova Scotia Alpha actives this year, and held a joint meeting at which the history of the founding of the active chapter was reviewed. Hartford had a very successful men's night program, with a regional director of the F.B.I. as speaker. Montreal held the most successful money-raising event, a theater first-night ticket sale, and they continue their generous support of the Canadian Project. New Haven built two programs around Fraternity information to prepare members for this Convention year. Portland sent layette and other articles to the Health Center. Southern Fairfield County had the superintendent of the Mystic Oral School for the Deaf as a speaker, and a teacher demonstrated teaching methods with three students who are learning to lipread and speak although deaf.

Local projects include volunteer time and proceeds from a benefit dance, given to the Hartford Association for Retarded Children, Christmas gifts of slipper socks to Montreal Children's Hospital, New Haven's magazine subscriptions for Gaylord Sanitarium, and Southern Fairfield County's toy, magazine and clothes collection for Mystic Oral School.

The province has enjoyed an eight per cent increase in membership, with Boston and Southern Fairfield County clubs showing sizable gains.

My sincere thanks to all the members of the Pi Beta Phi clubs in Alpha province, for their delightful hospitality, on the occasion of my visits, and for their cooperation throughout the year. For their assistance and inspiring letters my special thanks to Marianne Wild and Alice Mansfield. I also wish to express my gratitude to Olivia Moore, the national projects' treasurers, and to Margaret Dick for their assistance and patience. I have enjoyed the opportunity that has been given to me to serve our Fraternity.

ADELLE WADHAMS WRIGHT

BETA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

This has been a very busy year for clubs in Beta Province; being co-hostess for Convention brought added work and responsibilities. However, much hidden talent among club members was uncovered and the enjoyment of working out ideas and aiding in all the various projects has been rewarding. I'm sure all who attend Convention will report their efforts worthwhile.

Beta Province is 100% in contributions to the fraternity's three national projects. Over half of the clubs contributed generously of their time and funds to our active chapters. Ten clubs helped local projects.

It was my pleasure to visit twelve of the seventeen clubs in the Province this year. Seeing the clubs at work is always an inspiration and everyone's wonderful hospitality is especially heartwarming. Having this opportunity to make new Pi Phi friends and to re-new acquaintanceship with old ones is one of the best aspects of an officer's work.

The clubs have had many varied and interesting programs this year and Founders' Day was observed with several joint celebrations. The five clubs in the New York area—Long Island, Northern New Jersey, Ridgewood, Westchester and New York City—gathered for luncheon in New York City and felt it to be a most memorable occasion, with three grand-daughters of our Founders present. As the Centennial Fund honored Ada Bruen Grier with its contributions this year, it was particularly appropriate to have her grand-daughter with us. We were also pleased to have present two grand-daughters of Jennie Horne Turnbull. The three Pennsylvania chapters and the alumnae clubs of State College, Harrisburg-Carlisle and Central Pennsylvania celebrated together, as did Schenectady and Albany.

Buffalo reported great success with their sales of Bower's Candy. Philadelphia members made scrapbooks for local hospitals and baby clothes for Settlement School. Pittsburgh held another very successful Fall Chocolate and Arrowcraft Sale plus a three-day Christmas shopping display and sale. Pittsburgh-South Hills donated money for a needy high school girl. Poughkeepsie made Christmas favors for the local Homes for the Aged. Rochester provided a new stair carpet for the Cerebral Palsy Center. Syracuse had a Christmas party with the actives of New York Alpha.

I would like to thank all the club officers and members in Beta Province for their wonderful cooperation, friendship and hospitality extended me this year. My thanks to Marianne Reid Wild, Alice Mansfield and Ruth Hansen for their ever-present help and guidance; to Margaret Dick at Central Office; and to all the members of Grand Council, to whom I shall always be grateful for this opportunity of serving my fraternity.

ANNE LOGAN HEFLIN

GAMMA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

The members of the 14 clubs in Gamma Province worked diligently to make this another successful year. All clubs have contributed to the three national projects, Settlement School, Emma Harper Turner Fund, and Holt House, with donations to Settlement School showing an increase. Seven clubs have contributed to the Convention Hospitality Fund, and donations to the Centennial Fund continue to come in. Canton lacks one dollar of being 100% in support of The Centennial Fund for three years.

Total paid membership again has increased, with some clubs showing a marked growth. Ten of the 14 clubs have increased membership, with Hamilton, Toledo, Dayton, and Cleveland West leading. Athens is just two less than 100% paid membership. Club size varies from 10 to 167, with 8 clubs having less than 50 members. Size of the club may sometimes limit the total gross financial achievement but it does not limit the loyalty, initiative, and enthusiasm of the club members, as some of our small clubs can attest.

Nine clubs held Arrowcraft Sales. Cleveland East and Columbus lead in gross sales, with Hamilton and Canton once again having most successful sales for small clubs.

Akron, Cincinnati, Cleveland West, Dayton, and Toledo have local projects to which they give substantial support. Seven clubs give financial support to active chapters in addition to personal time and effort expended by all clubs in chapter interests. Seven clubs had the opportunity to celebrate Founders' Day with active chapters.

Newark-Granville's few members continue to maintain the club and to serve Ohio Eta faithfully. After a year of involuntary inactivity Ohio Valley is once again functioning well and has achieved its goals for the year. Springfield's members continue to enjoy their Pi Phi contacts and to carry out alumnae department obligations in spite of wide spread commitments in other fields. Youngstown-Warren has carried on in spite of the loss of much Pi Phi material in a fire at the home of its president.

This year eleven clubs of Gamma Province were visited. Each club visit is a reminder of the enduring bonds of loyalty and friendship which we all share in the wine and silver blue. These visits with warm, friendly, and cooperative clubs are the icing on the cake—the cake being the Province Vice President's job, with its privilege of meeting charming and enthusiastic Pi Phis in all parts of the Province. The decoration on the icing is the opportunity to attend the National Convention at Swampscott, an opportunity which will be shared by delegates from at least seven of Gamma's clubs.

I wish to convey my sincere thanks to Marianne Reid Wild, Alice Weber Mansfield, Ruth Hansen, and Peggy Dick for their prompt assistance whenever needed, and to all members of Grand Council and the clubs of Gamma Province for this opportunity to share in the work of our great fraternity.

HELEN BOUCHER DIX

DELTA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

Arlington-Alexandria has had an increase in membership this year and prospects of further progress with a representative serving with Northern Virginia Panhellenic Association and a member also serving on D.C. Alpha Advisory Committee. They joined D.C. Alpha, Maryland Beta and Washington Junior Group for the Founders' Day 1958 observance, chairmaned by Washington Senior Alumnae Club.

Chapter Loyalty Day Luncheon Meeting featured a paper provided by National on Emma Harper Turner.

Baltimore has continued success in the annual Arrowcraft Exhibit and Sale when Settlement School is introduced to many new visitors and potential promoters.

The 1957-58 Year Book listed the required meetings with a somewhat new presentation for each program. Mrs. George Rundolph (Ellen B.) of the National Panhellenic Association was guest speaker at the first meeting of the club year. She spoke of anti-fraternity forces on college campuses of Communist infiltration influences and tactics and urged the members as educated women to inform themselves of the growth of Communism.

Charleston has had varied programs in addition to those required. The Constitution meeting was directed towards voluntary organizations and the right of choice with free discussion by the members.

Clarksburg has joined the concerted drive of all West Virginia Clubs in the effort to contribute to the Chapter House addition now under construction at Morgantown. In addition Founders' Day was observed with Fairmont and Morgantown with Betty Halloran, West Virginia A, a Charleston lawyer who holds a West Virginia State position as speaker.

Morgantown Club had several social functions each year with the active chapter, gave help in rushing, provided flowers for the parties, opened and closed the Chapter House and have been the ever available assistants in the fund raising. In addition have functioned as an active alumnae club.

Southern West Virginia at Beckley has held five meetings and observed Founders' Day with a program honoring Ada Bruen Grier with material supplied by Central Office. Two Arrowcraft Sales were held—one in Bluefield and one in Beckley.

Norfolk. The subject of how to reach new members in the area continues to hold first place in all plans for the club because of the geography of the Tidewater country.

The Christmas Coffee for active Pi Phis continues annually and this year the Panhellenic has assisted each other in locating active and alumnae members.

Richmond had an exhibit of Arrowcraft at Panhellenic Bazaar and took orders for future delivery. William and Mary and Randolph Macon Chapters were invited for Founders' Day Observance when Dr. May L. Keller spoke on "Early History of Pi Phi and Highlights of Accomplishments 1867-1958."

Roanoke has presented a brief program on the Settlement School when members of other sorority Alumnae groups were invited to speak on the project sponsored by their respective group. Arrowcraft articles were displayed and orders accepted for future delivery. A pilgrimage was made to Randolph Macon when the active chapter entertained the Alumnae.

Washington Junior Club held the Delegate Office to D.C. City Panhellenic 1957-58 and participated in raising funds for eight scholarships this year where four was the number awarded in former years. Junior Delegate also assisted in the arrangement for Spring Luncheon with guest speaker Mrs. Darrell Nordwall, Chairman of Panhellenic Conference. The welcome to newly confirmed United States Citizens is sponsored yearly by D.C. Panhellenic Community Service Committee. A member of the Junior Club is invited annually to serve the Ladies Board of the George Washington Hospital—this means certain hours contributed to their work.

Washington Senior Club observed Loyalty Day with Model Pledging ceremony enacted by President and Officers of D.C. Alpha. Founders' Day honored Ada Bruen Grier with a tribute from our Grand President Marianne Wild a member of the Club. Maryland Beta, D.C. Alpha, Washington Junior Alumnae Club and Arlington-Alexandria Club attended the luncheon at Kenwood Country Club. The guest speaker also a member of the Senior Club, Marjory Hendricks, Wisconsin Alpha, owner of Normandy Farms and Watergate Inn who was recently honored and named Restaurateur of the year.

Wilmington Club has served for the Children's Country

Home, assisted and contributed funds and work hours of the Girls Club, in their city and sent checks to the Dickinson College Chapter. The Club Panhellenic Delegate has been active with City Panhellenic and chairman of 1958 projects and next year will be Chairman of City Panhellenic Meeting.

Membership in Delta for 1957-58 has increased over the last year with history making events by Pi Phis as individuals and Presidents of other organizations. Ailene Wilson Groves, Wisconsin Alpha and currently President

General of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution has acquired a handwritten letter of Grace Goodhue Coolidge (Mrs. Calvin) which may be found in the Americana Room, National Headquarters, D.A.R. with other signatures of letters of wives of former Presidents of the United States.

As I express my appreciation for the cooperation and help which I have received this year may I remind each member to join their nearest Pi Phi Alumnae Club?

MRS. B. HARRISON LINGO

EPSILON PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

To you, the members of the alumnae clubs in Epsilon Province, sincere thanks for making the year 1957-58 a profitable one. We have lost a few paid members which is regrettable. I am blaming the flu and the resultant sparse attendance at meetings for this particular misfortune.

The Ann Arbor Club has increased both its membership and its contributions to our national projects. Then too during its busy year, this club has been concerned with raising money for the three story addition to the Michigan Beta chapter house. This is a colossal undertaking and we in Ann Arbor are grateful to those clubs and individuals who have given us substantial assistance.

Bloomfield Hills had fun at its curling and skating party, the while raising a generous sum for the nephrosis research project.

Detroit and Grosse Pointe give aid to the Epsilon active chapters and still support a scholarship in the field of mental retardation at Wayne State University.

Grand Rapids still contributes to some aspects of the Lincoln School and is, as are all Epsilon Province clubs, unanimous in helping to maintain our fraternity projects.

Jackson sent money to the Michigan Gamma chapter for the purchase of a much needed study desk.

The Lansing-East Lansing club still struggles to meet payments on the mortgage and new furniture for the Michigan Gamma chapter house.

London, Ontario, has visions of clearing its obligations to the Ontario Beta chapter. When the mortgage has been paid both alumnae and actives will feel happier and much more comfortable.

Southwestern Michigan has a small but enthusiastic membership which sent a generous check to the Michigan Beta Building Fund. This help is much appreciated.

The Toronto, Ontario club has a most successful "theater evening," raising substantial funds for Canadian scholarships.

With such a fine record of achievement all around, we close the year. It has been my pleasure to visit with many of you both individually and collectively at your club meetings. Thank you for the warmth of your hospitality and for your never-failing cooperation. Without these associations with the officers and members of each club, for me this year would have been barren indeed. You have given both support and constant inspiration. I hereby express thanks to Grand Council; to project treasurers; and especially to Margaret Dick, at Central Office, for assistance and counsel. To serve Pi Beta Phi is a rewarding experience—one which this officer has enjoyed through her years as Province Vice-President.

LEOLA ROYCE MCKINLEY KOCH

ZETA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

Zeta Province has had a very successful year. The year was highlighted by the chartering of a new club at Kokomo. We now have sixteen clubs in Zeta Province, plus a very active Junior club at Indianapolis. All the clubs are 100% in support of the three National Projects. Columbus, Franklin and Gary are 100% in their support of the Centennial Fund. The South Bend-Mishawaka club remains outstanding in their sale of Arrowcraft articles. This year they sold $1,493.45. They have also given 2 $25.00 Savings Bonds each year to the Centennial Fund. Indianapolis is running a close second this year in their sale of Arrowcraft articles, having sold $1,188.55. Richmond, a small club of only 20 paid members reached a new high in their sales of $499.38.

This year 50% of the clubs increased their paid membership bringing the total for the province to 726. Anderson, Columbus, Fort Wayne, Indianapolis, Lafayette and Muncie clubs were responsible for the increase.

The clubs used many and interesting ways to raise money. Southwestern Indiana club again had their "Parade of Homes." This year it was held in the spring instead of at Christmas. As a result of this project they were able to donate $150.00 to The Retarded Children's Hospital. Franklin tried a new project which proved very successful. They had portraits made of a number of the members and received a commission on the sale of these. The Indianapolis club had some of their members act as cake testers for which they received money. Greensburg, one of the towns in the Southeastern Indiana club, gave a luncheon and charged all the members attending. Gary did likewise at their dinner for husbands and raised over $30.00 toward their Convention Fund. The Anderson club, only one year old, gave a bridge party, each member brought three guests, and they displayed and sold Arrowcraft articles. Fort Wayne was not discouraged because the "flu bug" made their annual barn dance go into the red. They held a rummage sale to make up their losses and put some money into their treasury. The Indianapolis Junior club decided not to annoy the merchants by asking for donations for prizes for their annual card party. Instead they all saved their trading stamps and with them secured their prizes. They also dyed and hid 800 eggs on the grounds of the governor's mansion.

There were many outstanding programs this year, such as, "Fifty Years in Pi Phi," "History and Growth of Pi Phi," "Charm and Personality," "Education in Russia," "Personal Observations of the Far East" and a number of fashion shows. Hammond entertained the Gary club and they had joint installation of officers.

The clubs gave substantial aid to both the active chapters and local projects. Bloomington gave aid all year to a needy family. Indianapolis carried on their work at La Rue Children's Hospital, making new draperies for the hospital and entertaining the children. They also sent magazine subscriptions to the active chapters. South Bend-Mishawaka sent subscriptions to the nursing homes in South Bend. Terre Haute felt very proud in being able to present Miss America with a bouquet of wine and blue carnations when she appeared in Terre Haute. They were especially happy that the presentation was made by the club president's daughter who had just been pledged Pi Beta Phi at DePauw.

I had the pleasure this year of visiting the clubs at Anderson, Lafayette, Indianapolis, Gary and Hammond. Visiting these clubs was as much of an inspiration to me as I could possibly have been to them.

I have considered it a great privilege to have served as a Province Vice President. I wish to thank the clubs and the National Officers for the kindnesses and aid given me.

LENA PAVEY MORROW

ETA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

It is a pleasant task to report on the success and progress of Eta Province Alumnae Clubs as this year ends. The all over picture of membership shows a healthy increase with five clubs showing gains. The list is headed by Chattanooga, our largest club with 93 members. We are so happy to welcome the five members of North Carolina Beta Alumnae Advisory Committee to the number supporting our Alumnae Department.

All 10 clubs contributed to our three major projects, Settlement School, Emma Harper Turner Memorial Fund and Holt House. Five clubs supported the Centennial Fund and four the Harriet Rutherford Johnstone Scholarship Fund.

Clubs with nearby chapters maintained close contact with the actives and were always ready to help with rushing and initiation ceremonies.

Whenever possible clubs celebrated Founders' Day with the actives. Knoxville and Tennessee Gamma had an added event to celebrate at the time—the chapter's tenth anniversary. Nashville used the occasion to honor a Golden Arrow Pi Phi, Mrs. Henry Hart. On Founders' Day Louisville paid special tribute to Ruth Hansen who has been such an inspiration to both club and chapter and was moving to Virginia. Louisville Pi Phis will surely miss her!

Charlotte helped support a class for mentally retarded children. Memphis continues to provide faithful workers for the Nursery School for Visually Handicapped Children. Nashville gave its annual Christmas party for children at the Bill Wilkerson Speech and Hearing Clinic and the proceeds of a very successful Benefit Bridge to this project.

I had the pleasure of visiting all Eta clubs during the year and take this opportunity to thank each Pi Phi for the warm welcome given me. I am grateful to them and to their fine club officers for their interest and cooperation. My thanks to Marianne Wild, Alice Mansfield and Ruth Hansen for their understanding and assistance and for the opportunity to serve Pi Beta Phi.

NANCY HOWARD BREEDING

THETA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

I write, with pride, about the activities of Theta Clubs for they have improved in giving and in numbers over last year. Figures are not the only signs of growth for, service to others and an increased interest in chapters and a warmer feeling for each other all adds up to a greater show of love for Pi Beta Phi.

ATLANTA more than doubled her membership over last year and made an outstanding contribution to Atlanta Child's Home, their local project. Mr. Clarke, director of the Home, sent them a special commendation for their work.

ATHENS has been most helpful to Georgia Alpha and feels a close kinship to Atlanta for they celebrated Founders' Day at a lovely dinner at the Peachtree Golf Club jointly with Atlanta club and Georgia Alpha.

BIRMINGHAM keeps in close touch with all three Alabama chapters, helping with time and gifts. Climaxing the year, they celebrated Founders' Day with 107 at a luncheon. The program for this party was planned by the night group, having for its theme "space." Chapter presidents reported on their year's activities.

DELAND was generous with her time and money doing things for Florida Alpha this year. The actives put on a clever program at a joint celebration of Founders' Day. DeLand points, with pride, to the academic achievements of Florida Alpha this term.

FT. LAUDERDALE is one of the most active of our clubs in its City Panhellenic. Marjorie Martin was named Panhellenic Woman of the Year and was honored at a special meeting. Pi Phi holds the presidency for the coming year. Much good local publicity has been given Ft. Lauderdale with pictures of Arrowcraft and Cookbook sales.

JACKSONVILLE started its fall activities with a Friendship Luncheon in October. They have been highly elated over having about a dozen pledges this year and look forward to having them at meetings this summer.

LAKELAND had the pleasure of helping Panhellenic entertain Mrs. Nordwall, Alpha Chi Omega and president of NPC. Their traditional "Holiday" party included actives and pledges and their mothers and the club closed the year with a Founders' Day supper.

MIAMI's special achievement was its local project, work with the Migrant Children. One of her members teaches in the Redland school and through her hard work, clever approach and donations from other groups, the money, materials and gifts went far toward making life more pleasant for these children. The year closed with a luncheon which was attended by 80 from Miami and Ft. Lauderdale.

MONTGOMERY, our baby, is well on its feet at the close of the first year. She is looking forward to a good year with close association with the Alabama Gamma Chapter and Auburn Alumnae.

ORLANDO entertained at a Christmas dance with Chi Omega and Delta Delta Delta for the second time and finds this a pleasant way to be friends with other groups. Special events during the year were a dinner party in December with gifts for Welfare sponsored children, and a lovely Coffee on Founders' Day at the Florida Gamma chapter house at which time the chapter honored the chairman of AAC and a Golden Arrow member.

PENSACOLA continues to have a fine friendship among its local members and girls from the Naval Air Station. A Coffee at Christmas time honored four pledges, two of whom are daughters (twins) of a past president. Founders' Day luncheon was a fitting close for the year's activities.

ST. PETERSBURG celebrated Loyalty Day and Founders' Day with luncheons having appropriate programs at each. A Hobby sale and small sales and raffles at regular meetings helped them meet their budget. This club is also quite active in city Panhellenic and draws visitors from Clearwater for special events.

TAMPA entertained actives and pledges during the Holidays presenting pledges with monogrammed Medallions. The Magazine chairman wrote special letters to members re sales and renewals and every Pi Phi in the area received a copy of the yearbook, results were increase in members and subscriptions. The year closed with a Founders' Day Cookieshine.

It was the joy of many alumnae in the province to meet our Grand Treasurer, Olivia Moore, as she visited chapters in Theta this spring.

May I say thank you for giving me such a warm welcome on club visits, for the splendid efforts to make our report a definite improvement over last year, and to members of Grand Council and the staff at Central Office for their invaluable help.

LOIS OVERSTREET SUMMERS

IOTA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

It has been a privilege as well as a pleasure for me to work with the twenty-six clubs of Iota Province. The cooperation from the club presidents has been commendable.

There has been a gain in membership, in contributions to Settlement School, Holt House, Emma Harper Turner, Centennial and Convention Hospitality Funds and an increase in Arrowcraft Gross Sales.

There are 1142 paid members in the Province with the Peoria Club with 152 members being the largest. Two other clubs are to be congratulated on reaching one hundred members for the first time in their history. They are Chicago West Suburban and North Shore. Not all of the clubs are large, Joliet has only eight members yet they have contributed to our major projects as well as the Centennial Fund. They sold $200.00 of Arrowcraft and are making plans to have a larger sale this fall. Again Avon is the only club with 100% membership.

The programs have been varied and interesting. Galesburg used the winning Settlement School skit from Central Office for its Founders' Day with the cast wearing costumes. It was my pleasure to attend Arlington Heights First Founders' Day Celebration. It was a delightful occasion with the P.P. and P.V.P. and Helen Lewis representing Grand Council as guests. Area Council of Chicago with the president being from Chicago—North Club arranged an outstanding Founders' Day Program with Dr. Paul Harvey, National President of Phi Delta Theta and President of the College of Surgeons, giving the address.

The four alumnae groups of the four women's fraternities in Monmouth combined for a gay Christmas party. North Shore has a talented skit-writer in Rachel Randolph who wrote, "Pi Phis Unlimited" for their September Meeting and then repeated it at the Area Council Founders' Day Celebration. She wrote another skit, "Comin' Round the Mountain" about Settlement School which preceded North Shore's highly successful bridge benefit and style show.

Review of new Christmas Books for Adult and Juvenile made a fine program as did Tips for Traveling by a T.W.A. representative. Tri-City and Park Ridge Des Plaines Clubs enjoyed the Kodachrome slides and informative script from Settlement School.

Twenty-five of the clubs contributed $1,216.50 to Settlement School. The North Shore Club decided early in the fall to have the Settlement School as its philanthropy with the result that this Club topped all other clubs in the Province with its gift of $500.00.

Arrowcraft was sold by thirteen of the clubs with the gross sales amounting to $8,549.88. Champaign-Urbana sells throughout the year through its Settlement School Chairman, having a gross sale this year of $3500.00, the largest in Province. Arlington Heights at three coffees sold $1,592.82. They feel that by providing supervised play for children during the Arrowcraft sale hours, adds to the attendance and so to the sales. North Shore and Oak Park River Forest were next in gross sales.

Seven of the clubs contributed $585.00 to active chapters with Decatur Club's gift of $300.00 being the largest.

Champaign-Urbana gave a junior and a senior Valbelman award to Illinois, Arlington Heights gave an award to outstanding sophomore in Province, North Shore presented 2 awards to Illinois Epsilon.

The smaller money making projects consists of white elephant and rummage sales. Chicago Business Club has a unique project of selling the Pi Beta Phi emblem to be put on blazers or sweaters, custom made for this club by Marshall Field & Company and sells for two dollars. Laura Kull, 40 East Erie Street, Chicago, is in charge of this. Chicago South had a luncheon and bridge benefit at the South Shore Country Club and cleared $225.00. Decatur cleared $450.00 on a Christmas Walk—a tour of four homes decorated for Christmas. North Shore cleared $650.00 from a bridge benefit and style show. DuPage County Club is so impressed by the success of S. S. sales by other clubs that the Beta group is already making plans for one in the early fall.

North Shore, Jr. and some other clubs brought Christmas cheer to underprivileged groups of children. North Shore Club made its Christmas project one of thoughtfulness for one of its own members who is an invalid, a collection was taken and with it a beautiful stole from S. S. was bought and sent to her with a Christmas plant.

My appreciation to the presidents who have kept me well informed of the activities of their clubs through their monthly letters and to the club treasurers. My thanks to members of Grand Council for all their assistance, and my very special thanks to Alice Mansfield and to Margaret Dick for virtually leading me when I assumed my duties in November.

EDNA EARL DUNCAN

KAPPA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

The excellent progress that has been made by every club in Kappa Province has been especially gratifying. Alumnae membership for the province as a whole has shown a definite increase.

Milwaukee has again led the province in Arrowcraft sales and contributions to our Settlement School, while Minneapolis has doubled its previous contributions to our national projects.

All clubs have made special efforts to support their local active chapters. When the Madison alumnae club offered a $25 government bond to the active with the highest scholastic average as an incentive to improved scholarship, at Wisconsin Alpha, they were prepared to give duplicate prizes for ties but the actives responded so well that on Founders' Day it took four $25 bonds to reward the quadruple winners. Beloit, Grand Forks, and Appleton have done much too for their active chapters. Loyal members of St. Paul and Duluth alumnae clubs have increased their financial support to their Minnesota Alpha chapter.

As it has always done in the past, Winnipeg continued its support to all national projects and Centennial Fund, as well as its Canadian scholarship project.

Local philanthropies have benefited by support from Milwaukee, with its local charity, the Golden Ages of Neighborhood House, and the Community Fund. Minneapolis continued patronage to the local Multiple Sclerosis Society, and Duluth its aid to the Children's Home.

Programs have been varied and most interesting. Appleton featured a Hat Swap as a money-making project, while Madison entertained the active seniors with a style show by the alumnae with clothes of earlier eras.

All the alumnae clubs have been most cordial during my visits to their groups, and their officers have given me the finest cooperation. I am sincerely grateful to all of Grand Council for their generous assistance to me in my first year as Kappa Province Vice-President.

HELENMARIE JACOBSON ROSHOLT

LAMBDA PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

Lambda Province has had a very good year and I am proud and happy to report some of the high points of that year.

The Clay-Platte Counties Alumnae Club was welcomed this year as a new member of the Lambda family. This club is located in the northern part of the Greater Kansas City area where there has been a great need for a club.

The Marked Tree, Arkansas Alumnae Club was reorganized and became the Marked Tree-Jonesboro, Arkansas Alumnae Club. The renewed interest and enthusiasm that has occurred in this club has been very gratifying.

Baton Rouge had an Arrowcraft coffee in the fall with a very large attendance and followed that with a nice party for the seniors and pledges of Louisiana Beta. Columbia also had a good sale this year and spent many hours in aiding the Missouri Alpha chapter. Fayetteville gave Arkansas Alpha a beautiful fireplace screen for the new chapter house as well as helping out in many other ways during this first year in the new house. Ft. Smith's Founders' Day Banquet was a highlight in that club's year. Kansas City launched a new project which holds great promise, the "Theatre Holiday Tour" to New York. Lake Charles also had good luck with an Arrowcraft sale. Little Rock sent $544.00 and a silver coffee urn to Arkansas Alpha to help furnish the new house. The New Orleans club helped Louisiana Alpha make plans for remodeling the chapter house. Osceola held a delicious fried chicken dinner for its Founders' Day celebration. St. Louis had another tremendous "Country Carousel." The Junior Group of that club helped the Epworth School by redecorating the girls' rooms. Shreveport had a big Easter rush tea honoring the high school seniors. Springfield's "Santa Claus Workshop" was a big financial success. The Tri-State club helped the Carver Nursery School for Negro children.

The sale of cook books has been brisk all over the province. Most of the clubs have ordered and sold large quantities.

Last fall I had the privilege of visiting all of the clubs in Lambda Province. The visits again showed me just how fine are Pi Phis everywhere. I appreciated the careful planning that went into my visits and I can assure each club that I received much more from them in the way of inspiration than I could possibly have given. It is indeed an honor to be a Pi Beta Phi.

During my four years as Province Vice-President, I have had the opportunity to work with many fine women whose cooperation and help have been very much appreciated. I want to thank the many club officers who have been faithful in their work. Also, I can never fully express my deep gratitude for the guidance and help I have received from the members of Grand Council. Their patience and understanding have been greatly appreciated.

BETTY ROWTON HOLT

MU PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

The past year's province work began for me at the Gatlinburg Officers' Workshop in June, 1957. Again it was a privilege to have the inspirational leadership of our Grand Council members, the Settlement School staff and committee, as well as to share the creative exchange of ideas with other province officers.

In August, 1957 I was honored by an invitation to be present at one session of the active chapter officers' training workshop under the leadership of Ruth Louise Dierks, Province President. I felt real pride in meeting the outstanding leaders from the eight active Mu Province chapters. These fine young women reflected the ever-growing chain of Pi Beta Phi friendships and ideals, a chain not possible except for the strong links of service and loyalty provided by the alumnae members of our fraternity.

The Mu Province chart on another page in this issue of the ARROW illustrates in part the services rendered by the 21 clubs of our four state area. We welcomed with pride the 22nd Province club with the chartering of the Panhandle Club with members from the Scottsbluff, Nebraska, area, April 30, 1958.

A very special word of appreciation goes to every club for the thoughtfulness and warm hospitality accorded me on each of my 21 club visits. I traveled more than 2,000 "strenuous" miles in October, November, and January. It was a rewarding experience to meet and know the devoted Pi Phis in every town who are serving their communities, the active chapters, and the fraternity at large.

The correspondence with club officers has been gratifying and through the exchange of monthly letters we have shared many worthwhile ideas and projects.

The clubs vary greatly in individuality. North Platte, Nebraska with its ten members from four towns carries on its support of all fraternity projects even though they do not meet often due to the miles of travel involved. The Western Kansas Club members live in an even wider geographical area, but with its change of name this year, (it was chartered as the Hays, Kansas Club in 1956) the club more than doubled in size and enthusiasm.

Burlington, Iowa Pi Phis are joined by members from Fort Madison for their meetings. Council Bluffs, Iowa members gather for four delightful potluck social suppers. Sioux City, Iowa renewed its determination to remain chartered this year and now has a most congenial cross-section of age groups all working together for Pi Beta Phi.

The excellent new Settlement School Cook Book provided a source of income for all these small groups and for the first time in several years Sioux Falls and Vermillion, South Dakota held successful Arrowcraft sales. Vermillion should be presented a special accolade for the twelve members manage strong support for the active chapter in all its phases.

Mount Pleasant, Iowa also held a successful sale and they consistently provide support for Settlement School with the highest per capita magazine sales in the province. They, too, give many hours of time to Iowa Alpha. Indianola, Iowa is another of the small but loyal groups working for their active chapter, Iowa Beta. They provide entertainment for many of the active chapter functions and their Homecoming Dinner during football season is an honored chapter tradition. Topeka, Kansas, members were most enthusiastic about their first big Settlement School tea in a number of years. This club, too, has shown a good membership increase.

The Ames, Iowa club made tremendous gains with 18 additional paid memberships this year, a most successful Arrowcraft sale, and continued aid to Iowa Gamma. Manhattan, Kansas is the club with the most consistent Arrowcraft sales, year after year, as they keep a constant stock on hand. Manhattan members found that manufactured candy sales provided an excellent source of income every month. Their support of the active chapter is outstanding, they provide funds for a Kansas State College scholarship as well, and rank high in per capita support of all alumnae projects.

Iowa City, Iowa and Lawrence, Kansas furnished the cleverest ways and means projects this year with the "Chuck Wagon" food sales to the active chapters. Personalized recipe and correspondence cards from an Iowa City member also provided many Mu clubs with a successful money-making project.

The Cedar Rapids, Iowa Pi Phis have sponsored a Mothers' Club and have a Pi Phi bridge club in addition to the Alumnae Club. Programs and year books are both exceptionally good.

Kansas City, Kansas members supported the big projects of their sister Kansas City, Missouri club, (Lambda Province) but they have been successful in their own right with a financially successful children's fashion show and equally successful social functions for their own small club.

Hutchinson, Kansas is exceptional in its successful money-raising Charity Ball each year. The club has the largest per capita budget in the province and the gifts given to national projects and the two Kansas active chapters are also the most generous, per capita.

Des Moines, Iowa, Lincoln and Omaha, Nebraska, and Wichita, Kansas are the four large clubs in the area with memberships close to 100. All held large Settlement School sales, sponsored civic enterprises, and supported national projects and active chapters with time and money. The four groups made substantial gains in membership and Lincoln, Nebraska reached a new high of 113 members. In addition to their annual donations to the Emma Harper Turner Fund and Holt House, Omaha has initiated the fine policy of sending additional In Memoriam gifts throughout the year. Des Moines is divided into Junior and Senior groups, but share the four required annual meetings.

It has been a great privilege to work with the members of these 21 outstanding clubs. My sincere thank you goes to every member in Mu Province for the cooperation and loyalty given me in all phases of our work together. My thanks, too, to the national chairman of our Alumnae projects, to Margaret Dick of Central Office, and to the two members of Grand Council who serve the Alumnae Clubs, Alice Mansfield and Ruth Hansen, for their patience, leadership, and cooperation. I extend my gratitude to my own club members and my family who have been most generous with their time and help throughout my term of office. It has been a happy experience to serve our loved fraternity.

DOROTHY WEAVER MORGAN (MRS. KENT R.)

XI PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

It has been a great pleasure to visit the clubs in Xi Province this past year and to meet the clever and resourceful alumnae who make the clubs such a vital part of our fraternity.

There has been growth in membership in most of the Xi clubs and we are again 100% in support of the three Alumnae Projects, with a growing response to the Centennial Fund and an increase in magazine commissions in seven clubs. Denver placed third in highest total magazine commissions, Pueblo placed fifth in highest commission per capita, and Bozeman placed sixth in highest percentage increase.

Denver had its annual successful Settlement School Tea and, also, the two-day Spring Fashion Show at the Cherry Hills Country Club. Denver Junior again sold Date Books and this year had a Bake Sale to raise more funds. This Spring the Denver Clubs voted to adopt the Craig Colony Rehabilitation Center, jointly, as their local project and felt that there was an enlarged interest in it developing in the city almost immediately from the publicity given the Center through their support. The Boulder Club had several interesting programs for their members, a rummage sale, and it works mightily with our large outstanding chapter at C. U.; to the Actives the club gave four dozen demitasse spoons this year.

Colorado Springs was favored by a visit from Mrs. Wild when she was in the province and a group of Pueblo alumnae visited at that meeting. Pueblo again felt particularly rewarded by its support of a needy family at Christmas time, and both Colorado Springs and Pueblo are enthusiastic supporters of all Pi Phi activities.

Laramie had a successful Flower Arranging Program early in the year. Cheyenne, with its fine large group, put on an Arrow Ball early in February, and Casper had a lovely luncheon early in the year for visiting Kansas State Twin Oil Queens. Casper's fund-raising project was a rummage sale.

Fort Collins and Bozeman are busy throughout the year with the Actives but find time and funds to support generously the National projects. The Bozeman Club has done an outstanding job of selling Arrowcraft goods throughout Montana. In Utah are the clubs in Ogden, our youngest, and in Salt Lake City, one of our largest clubs. Salt Lake City started the year with a large County Fair and to this the Ogden alumnae gave their assistance. With many other fund-raising projects, enough money was made to establish a local loan fund to be used for emergencies by Utah Alpha Pi Phis. The Salt Lake City club has an executive committee of over twenty and sends out an excellent newsletter after each meeting. The club aided the Actives in their large Spring Fashion Show.

These various activities of the alumnae of Xi Province have certainly strengthened our Pi Phi friendships and loyalties. I wish to express my appreciation and gratitude to every member of Xi Province, with a special thank you to the fine officers of the past year. Also, I am most grateful for the leadership and assistance given to all of us by our Grand Council.

EVELYN LOWMAN DARBY

OMICRON PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

Omicron Province ends another year of new friendships made, old ones enjoyed and pleasures and anxieties shared. I was able to meet with many of the members this year and only regret not having been able to make my complete rounds.

Each Club follows a similar pattern, but it is most interesting to observe the variety of ways these are approached. A project for one location may prove a great success, where in another, not good at all. Therefore, a comparison is not possible—but praise for all effort is definitely in order.

I do appreciate the response from nearly all of the presidents, by their monthly letters, as it is so helpful to keep in close touch with one another.

Bellevue, still the "baby" in the Province, keeps its pace, in spite of its closeness to Seattle. Boise, besides their great activity, has the added responsibility of being the only Alumnae Club in Idaho. The Calgary members were especially delighted with the new Cook Book and increased their donation to the Canadian Loan Fund with the profit from its sale.

Corvallis, Coos County and Klamath Falls are all small, but active, Clubs in Oregon. Edmonton's most successful venture was the sale of Christmas cards, gifts and wrapping paper. The University of Alberta keeps this group busy—the Actives plan a new location next fall.

Local hospitals are very important projects for several Omicron Clubs. Eugene, Tri-City, Olympia and Yakima are contributing in one way or another to this work. Again I point with pride to Everett. With only 17 members, they are able to donate $150 to Settlement School—'swonderful!' Olympia, tho small, has been supplying fifty plastic bags a month to out-going patients of St. Peter's Hospital. (Bags contain crayons, paper, scissors, etc.)

One month during Portland's busy year was Ways and Means Month, with the goal of one hundred small parties, bridge foursomes, luncheons or dinners. At last report—most successful. Salem, with Willamette University in their midst, tried a new Alumnae-Sponsor project with the Actives.

Seattle has a new project in the planning stage—to make wood-fibre wine carnations and small blue flowers for Alumnae and Active Chapters. Wouldn't it be wonderful to have realistic wine carnations always on hand? University of Idaho welcomed new initiation robes made by the Spokane Group. Last year they made them for W.S.C. Tacoma shared their activities greatly with C.P.S., as well as holding Settlement School sales and jewelry and hat auctions.

Tri-City (Pasco, Kennewick and Richland) have adopted a Nursing Home for the Aged and the girls provide cake and cards on the patients' birthdays. Vancouver, B.C., with their continued interest in aiding the blind, have this year set up a $500 scholarship for further teacher-training to aid blind children.

It is so pleasant to know that a small but active group such as Wenatchee, will have two Convention delegates, one a Golden Arrow Pi Phi. A rummage sale, plant sale and dinners helped Yakima build their memory fund to May Rankin at the Memorial Hospital.

With the inspiration gained at the Gatlinburg Work Shop (plus the fireflies); the guiding hand of all of Grand Council; Margaret Dick; the great privilege of having Alice Mansfield in our Province 'in person,' this year has passed quickly and happily.

SALLY PAULSON VANASSE

PI PROVINCE VICE-PRESIDENT

It has been just fifty-two years since the first alumnae club within the geographical limits of Pi Province obtained its charter. Since that time thirty-three additional clubs have chartered. Soon, Pi Province will number thirty-five clubs, as South Bay is now petitioning to charter. This has been a busy and profitable year for all clubs in the Province. The enthusiasm, activity and strong loyalty on both the national and local level have been very evident. All 34 clubs were 100% in support of the national projects. Contributions to Settlement School were more than double the amount given last year, and Holt House and Emma Harper Turner Funds both had increased contributions.

Arrowcraft was sold in a variety of ways. Some clubs had Coffees, some Teas, and one club had a progressive sale with Arrowcraft displayed in three homes. Some clubs sold throughout the year. The majority of the clubs in the Province participated in the selling of Arrowcraft. Stockton, one of our newer clubs, held its first sale. Its membership, numbering twenty-one, sold more than $500.00 in Arrowcraft.

Most of the clubs gave the full amount for two years to the Convention Hospitality Fund last year, so contributions were low this year. The majority of clubs donated to the Centennial Fund. Valley of the Moon was first to contribute one dollar per paid member to the Fund. Magazine sales for the most part were reported as higher this year. San Jose and Valley of the Moon were again top in per capita sales. Membership increased throughout the Province. This was partially due to the two new clubs, Covina-Pomona Valley and Whittier Area, but a great deal of credit goes to the hardworking Membership Chairmen. Phoenix had the largest increase in membership with Santa Barbara and Glendale also having substantial increases. Covina-Pomona Valley and Whittier Area are both off to an enthusiastic start. Both clubs commemorated Founders' Day and both are making plans for summer meetings. Covina-Pomona Valley will honor Actives and Golden Arrows at a June Tea. It was my pleasure to present Whittier with its charter at its Founders' Day celebration.

Club activities were many and varied. Bakersfield publicized the new Cook Book at a meeting featuring recipes. The local paper gave excellent publicity to the sale of the Cook Book. Berkeley held "Neighborhood Coffees" in order to develop friendship among members. Centinela Valley awarded $100.00 to a worthy High School student to help with expenses for her first year of college. Contra Costa collected toys and clothing for a needy family at Christmas. Covina-Pomona Valley sent baby clothes to Settlement School. Fresno gave its Benefit proceeds to the mentally retarded children. Glendale, realizing the increasing importance of proper rushing recommendations, has developed an excellent scrap book on High School students, which will prove invaluable as a rushing file. Honolulu gave a most successful Benefit Bridge, which it plans to make an annual affair. La Canada Valley sponsored a performance of a Little Theatre group with great success. La Jolla made a very generous increase in its donations to the national projects. Las Vegas is making plans to sell Arrowcraft next year. Long Beach had a Brunch for all Pledges and Actives home for the Christmas Holidays. Los Angeles held a beautifully appointed Tea for all Pi Phi mothers and daughters. The Los Angeles Junior Group had a children's party with a puppet show. Marin County sold more than one thousand dollars worth of Arrowcraft. Palo Alto gave a Fashion Show with clever decorations on the "Around the World in Eighty Days" theme. Pasadena inaugurated a tradition of presenting to each of the six runners up for the Amy Burnham Onken Award in Pi Province, a recognition pin. The Pasadena Junior Group is entertaining Actives and Pledges at a summer party. Phoenix again honored an outstanding Active at Arizona Alpha, by adding her name to the Achievement Award plaque presented to the chapter by the club. Reno had separate Hospitality Committees for each meeting during the club year. Sacramento is planning a summer party to honor Actives in the area. San Bernardino Valley had a coin container for accumulating the Centennial Fund donation. Each member received a container at the beginning of the club year. San Diego had a Benefit of identical Bridge parties held in many homes on the same day. This was a successful money raising project, which involved very little effort. San Fernando Valley's Loyalty Day program was a local WHO'S WHO, as members discovered interesting facts and phases of each other's college life. San Francisco organized a Junior group this year, and found its membership extended from "ocean to ocean." San Jose in addition to its excellent magazine record, held a very successful Arrowcraft Tea. San Mateo County is giving a two hundred dollar scholarship to a local girl. Santa Barbara hosted a box supper with the California Zeta Actives as guests. Santa Monica-Westwood presented a "grade improvement" cup to a Senior from California Delta. Solano County helped with a Panhellenic Tea for mothers and college age daughters. South Coast again held its series of book reviews, which made more money than in the previous years. Tucson held an auction of house plants with good financial results. Valley of the Moon celebrated Founders' Day with a Cookie Shine. Yuba-Sutter was 100% in its Centennial Fund donation.

The Los Angeles and Pasadena Junior groups gave one hundred dollars in total to the Junior Scholarship Fund.

It was a great pleasure to celebrate Founders' Day with Whittier Area, South Coast, Covina-Pomona Valley, Southern California Area Council and Santa Barbara. The regular club visits during the year again filled me with wonder and pride, that we have so many dedicated members of the alumnæ department.

In closing the 1957-58 club year, Pi Province can feel it has been a year of great accomplishment. My thanks to every member and officer of all the clubs. Without their co-operation, this year would not have been one of such great value. My thanks to all the Treasurers of the National Project Committees and to Peggy Dick, Director of Central Office. As always to members of Grand Council goes my gratitude for their guidance, advice, and understanding. It has been an honor, a privilege and an unforgettable experience to have served the Fraternity as Province Vice-President.

EVELYN PETERS KYLE

Do you know that—

Convention had an attendance of 764?

Again Pi Province had more alumnæ delegates than any other province?

With the new Antelope Valley Alumnæ Club in California, there are now 282 alumnæ clubs?

Of these, 145 were represented at Convention by delegates?

The Pi Beta Phi Magazine Agency made a total of $12,000 last year?

Marion Mueller, Director of the Settlement School, was elected Chairman of the Gatlinburg Chamber of Commerce?
