Devotion and Ideals

We now approach that month in our Fraternity year when chapters and clubs of Pi Beta Phi will be pausing to honor the memory of its Founders. It is a time for reflection on their unusual devotion to the idea of a women's fraternity and their unwavering belief in the ideals that would be its cornerstone.

With these thoughts in mind let us think together on the meaning of devotion and ideals as they relate to our Fraternity today.

Devotion, that rare sublimation of self to a cause or organization, must be a guiding light in every Pi Phi's life if our Fraternity is to endure.

From this devotion stems the love we feel for our sisters and for the Fraternity. Its abiding light casts a steady glow to guide the paths of those who follow.

There must be among us large numbers who never lose its thrill to give permanence to this edifice of our Fraternity. The words of our Pi Phi Symphony describe it best as "Strong, long, enduring."

As the stars of the heavens have been guides for travelers through the centuries, so have our Fraternity's ideals led members through nearly a century of progress and growth.

Their purity has found responsive chords in the inner beings of young women since first they touched the hearts and minds of our Founders. Their beauty and hope have gained new light in the wisdom of older members through nearly ten decades of time.

An ideal is a goal, never unattainable, but only possible when our best is given in truth and perseverance to reach it.

The survival of mankind in a civilized society and continuance of dedicated organizations such as Pi Beta Phi will be possible only if there are among us both leaders and followers who believe sincerely that ideals may be realized.

The Arrow points upward toward our ideals on wings of devotion.

We Lose A Friend—Lois Franklin Stoolman, Illinois Zeta, Grand Treasurer 1925-46

One of the hardest tasks that comes with advancing years is saying goodbye to dear, old friends. Such sorrow came unexpectedly at Christmastime and we find it difficult indeed to write of the passing of Lois Stoolman.

Pi Beta Phi has lost one of its truly distinguished members, and the entire Greek letter world has lost a strong and understanding friend. She was not only devoted always to the best interests of her own fraternity, but was widely known throughout the country among fraternity people. Of course she was especially affectionately known to our own chapters and alumnæ clubs.

Someone else will write of her wide interests in her own city and state and her active support of many organizations. We speak only of her years of service on Grand Council, dating from before our editorship. We can never forget her welcome to Council when we arrived at the Yellowstone Convention, a very green and slightly scared editor, nor will we forget the many acts of friendship and kindness that marked the years of our service on Grand Council together.

To Lois Stoolman Pi Beta Phi owes much of its present sound financial condition, furnishing as it did a basis for the splendid work that has been done by her successor.

She was widely respected and greatly loved. To her husband and to her Pi Phi daughter, Betty Julian, as well as to other members of her family whom we were privileged to know through the years, go our deepest sympathy in their great loss.

off the Arrow hook

The Spring ARROW should blow into Pi Phi chapter houses and homes somewhere between the lion's jaws and lamb's paws of March and naturally we are hoping it will be as welcome as the season heralded by that sometimes blustery and othertimes beautiful month.

This issue went together on a warm note created by the thoughtful letters regarding the editor's maiden ARROW voyage in the Winter issue, and she would have each of you who wrote know how much she appreciates that encouragement.

On this second time around we've come to view the assembling of a fraternity magazine not unlike the process of working a jigsaw puzzle.

The border stands out and is fairly easy to assemble and there are pieces we can plan for and thus pick out and place early . . . but there are also those pieces we can't seem to lay our hands on when we need them most.

Trouble is they are face down and not on our desk either . . . but rather somewhere across the land in the drawers of other desks to be mailed next week—or even more tragically never to be mailed despite the story of achievement they might tell or the complete touch they would give to our Fraternity picture in its magazine.

This is a puzzle of suspense too as we see a deadline creeping nearer and speculate on just what the mail call will produce today that will fit into those spaces left to fill.

Working the puzzle we don't mind—the waiting suspensefully we do mind at times, and we're hoping that as time goes on we'll have more and more work and less and less waiting.

The OFF THE HOOK verbal orchids of this issue go to several who came forward so helpfully.

To Lou Ann Tuft who found time to write the lead article after guiding Oregon Delta's installation weekend and getting ready for Christmas and the homecoming from Germany of a son two years away from the family tree.

To Mary Pemble Barton who surprised us with the very complete information for the story on the Carrie Chapman Catt display at the Iowa State Faculty Wives Club tea.

To two corresponding secretaries who led the way with feature information or pictures, Linda Barnhill of Texas Γ and Cheri Lee Kruse of Missouri B and to Marjorie Blackburn and her helpers at Minnesota A for rounding up the pictures of their queen Kay.

. . . and to Mary Jane Chandler Seamans, Illinois Z, Mary H. Scott, California A (a former Alpha Province West PVP), and Elizabeth A. Mallery, Nebraska B, for information that led to some of our feature items.

Our appreciative spirit can keep a nice greenhouse atmosphere to nurture another brace of those accolades and hopes it has a shelf full to hand out by the time another magazine has come and gone . . . to press.

WORTH REMEMBERING: "Everything in America is not wrong. Change for the sake of change should never be. Everything that is old is not necessarily wrong. The principles upon which college fraternities were founded will never change. There are certain truths that are eternal—the same yesterday, today and tomorrow. Truth, love and honesty will never change; and in my opinion, this great American college fraternity system should not either."

U. S. Representative George Grand (D. Ala.)

ABOUT "IN MEMORIAM" NOTICES—Central Office has asked that all persons sending in notices concerning deceased members accompany such information with a clipping or some other official verification of the death. Surprising as it may seem, there are sometimes exact duplications of names, and there have been instances in the past year when individuals have written in to deny that they belonged in that memorial listing.

There will be details about the national Chapter Presidents Workshop scheduled for Gatlinburg next June in our Summer magazine. National Guide Helen Anderson Lewis will be in charge of arrangements for the affair.

Alumnæ groups that are planning to join in State Day meetings this summer could let the Pi Phi world know about it in next Fall's ARROW if they would remember to assign someone the responsibility of reporting the event.

A QUEEN WITH CANDOR—Apparently the Homecoming Queen judges at the University of Minnesota liked the candor of Pi Phi Kay Knudson as much as we do. In a preliminary interview she was asked by the judges why she wanted to be queen and answered:

"I would like to be Homecoming Queen as a thank-you to my sorority for choosing me as their candidate."

The ARROW Exchanges Department in this issue contains some thoughts from others that we recommend to all of the magazine's readers as well as the letter from FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover.

We are indebted to our NPC Delegate, Marianne Reid Wild, for the letter from Mr. Hoover. It was read at annual meeting of the IRAC Trustees which she attended as one of the two Campus Representatives. Later she obtained permission from the FBI for its use in our magazine.

It is not enough today to merely believe in one's fraternity and the system of which it is an integral part. It is now required that we become articulate on the subject of our belief. Such articulation will be beneficial only when it is positively voiced from a reservoir of facts and sound philosophy.

We will build for ourselves such a reservoir when we inform ourselves as to the nature of the attacks on our groups and also consider ways we can strengthen the fraternity system.

There is one picture in this issue that is hard for your editor to believe. That's the one you will see of the two Central Office Directors, past and present, and that spotless desk before them. Incredible as it appears to us, we have believed it and allowed it to solve a problem . . . we're going to quit shuffling through the papers and accumulated pile files on our own desk for one more paper clip and simply write Dor to include an extra one in her next letter, since her clips are so obvious and handy!

Two national chairmen have asked for corrections of errors which they had inadvertently made in reports appearing in earlier ARROWS and you will find these corrections in this issue. Both errors occurred in detailed reports and we can certainly understand how they might have been made. Thus we're welcoming Helen Russell and Helena Moore to our Error Club, a not so exclusive organization of very humble humans—and hoping they will find the club and chapter involved in those errors are of a divinely forgiving nature.

The last word is a good word and it comes from our Council in the form of an announcement barely available at deadline:

"Grand Council of Pi Beta Phi Fraternity is happy to announce that the Fraternity has voted to accept an invitation from the administration of Memphis State University, Memphis, Tennessee, to colonize on that campus in September, 1961."

Lois Franklin Stoolman

Lois Franklin Stoolman was a leader in Pi Beta Phi in the truest sense of that position and a civic servant in a manner that has brought credit to her Fraternity through the years. Pi Beta Phi, its friends in the Greek world and a wide circle of others mourn her death which came December 8, 1960, at a Champaign, Ill. hospital.

Mrs. Stoolman was initiated into Illinois Zeta Chapter of Pi Beta Phi at the University of Illinois on November 8, 1902. From that day forward her own chapter and the Fraternity at large claimed a generous measure of her devotion and benefited from the brilliance of her mind and her talents as an organizer and business woman.

She was a member of the Illinois Zeta Advisory Board almost fifty years. As a young high school teacher of Latin, math and history in Champaign High School, she found time also to serve as treasurer of the Advisory Board and worked on a campaign to build an early Chapter House. Through the years she worked diligently with the Chapter in rushing and planning scholarship programs, and she also took part in other building projects including the one for the recently constructed and very lovely chapter house of the Chapter.

In 1923 she was named treasurer of the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School. Two years later, in 1925 she was elected Grand Treasurer of Pi Beta Phi and served in this capacity on Pi Beta Phi's Grand Council for 21 years, resigning at the 1946 Convention.

Golden Arrow Pi Phi—Grand Council Member—Civic Leader

During this period Mrs. Stoolman instituted the National Board of Trust Funds to supervise Fraternity investments, began the practice of bonding chapter treasurers on a national basis and developed many other valuable practices in the administration of Fraternity funds.

In the latter years of her tenure as Grand Treasurer she took on another monumental task on behalf of the Fraternity. She served as contact member for Pi Beta Phi Chapters and Clubs in the raising of funds for taking care of children in war-torn foreign countries from 1946-1952. She was treasurer for the Fund raised by some 100 chapters and 250 Clubs over a period of ten years and was treasurer of funds raised for CARE by clubs and chapters of the Fraternity.

Mrs. Stoolman was born February 13, 1881, in Streator, Ill. She attended Illinois State Normal University four years (1896-1900) and received her Bachelor of Arts degree in literature and arts from the University of Illinois in 1903. She married Almond W. Stoolman, a Champaign contractor, on February 13, 1909. They have one daughter, Betty Stoolman Julian (Mrs. W. L.). Her husband survives her.

Mrs. Stoolman was a full time partner in her husband's contracting business. Her other civic work included membership in the Daughters of American Revolution, an organization that had given her national acclaim. She was also active in seven other groups dedicated to patriotic ideals.

A devoted co-worker of Mrs. Stoolman during her years of Grand Council membership and a friend for many years longer is Amy Burnham Onken, Honorary Grand President of Pi Beta Phi, who has written in tribute, "There simply are not words to express the high service which Lois gave to Pi

OREGON DELTA INSTALLED

Pi Beta Phi Comes to Portland

By Lou Ann Chase Tuft, Director of Membership

In moments marked by beauty that matched nature's grandeur in America's great Northwest, the fourth Oregon chapter of Pi Beta Phi and the Fraternity's one hundred and fourth chapter came into being on December 3, 1960, with the initiation and installation of the Chi Gamma actives at Portland State College. Alice Weber Mansfield, Grand President, conducted the initiation and installed the chapter.

Portland State College is a young institution but an active one in the Oregon State system of higher education. Located in Portland, Oregon's largest city, the college started in 1946 as Vanport Extension Center to help absorb the overflow of student-veterans enrolling in higher education following World War II. Vanport was a casualty of the 1948 Columbia River flood and the college was moved, and finally in 1952 moved again to its present location in downtown Portland. Vanport had 1,374 students in 1946 and grew to 2,344 in 1954 when a State Senate bill established Portland State as a four year, degree granting institution within the state system of higher education. The college, known as Portland State since 1955, now has 4,008 students—2,720 men and 1,288 women.

The college buildings face the city's park blocks, permanently dedicated to the city's recreational department. The first building, "Old Main," was a former Portland high school building. The college center-library buildings have been added facing the park and construction is now under way to enlarge the college center.

Thirty-Three In Chapter

The new Oregon Delta chapter consists of seventeen members who had been actives in Chi Gamma last year. Sixteen pledges were added through fall rush. The initial contact with the group came in the form of an inquiry to the former Omicron Province President in 1957. At that time the Grand Council discussed the possibility of extension and no action was taken. When Virginia Voorhees Speaker, Grand Secretary, visited Oregon in 1960, she met with the Chi Gamma's, and a favorable report was made to the 1960 Convention at Hot Springs. It was voted to continue negotiations, with the ballot in convention being in favor of forming the new group when the time seemed right to do so. The Council decided to guide the rushing of the chapter, and on Monday, September 26, 1960, the Chi Gamma's were pledged to Pi Beta Phi at the home of Helen Cornwell Copeland. The next day a most successful rush period started which resulted in the pledging of sixteen superior girls.

PORTLAND STATE'S NEW LIBRARY. It seats 700 and on separate levels has divisional libraries for the Humanities, Education, Social Science and Science.

Festivities of the installation began December 2 with a buffet supper for Portland alumnae and the new chapter members and pledges at the home of Eloise White Hardy. The pledges met after the supper with Mrs. Mansfield and the initiates with Rita ering and Diane Kopta as candlelighters. Grace Hancher Beck, former Lambda Province President, and Helen Schroller, vice-president of the chapter, took part in the loving cup ceremony. Initiates honored were Janine Mariels, Helen Schroller, Bonnie Bay, Julie Ann Thompson, Alberta Van Beek, Lola Andrews, Judith Bergseng, Cindy Deihn, Karen Fischer, Barbara Halen, Jean Healy, Mary Hibbs, Judy Holland, Diane Kopta, Kathleen Maki and Annette Meredith.

Four former Omicron Province Presidents attended the ceremonies. They were Grace Hancher Beck, Isla McCain Donert, Gail Burnett Schoel, and Lou Ann Chase Tuft. Also present was the immediate past Omicron Province Vice President, Sally Paulson Vanasse.

Sunday, December 4, a model chapter meeting was held at nine-thirty followed by attendance at the First Congregational Church of the chapter members, pledges, national officers and advisory committee: Sue Goodwin Hopwood, Barbara Sundet Wagner, Ella Auld Meissner, Gail Burnett Schoel, Fay Montgomery Frykman, and Geraldine Hanny Butler.

Sunday afternoon a reception was held at Portland State College Center. Dean Charles Bursch and his wife received with the Pi Phis as did Mr. Art Casebeer, director of the college center. Bonita Tichenor DeTemple Dunkin, Omicron Province President. The pledges then left and a pre-initiation Cooky-shine was held. On Saturday, December 3, initiation began at noon with actives from Oregon Alpha, Oregon Beta, Oregon Gamma and Washington Gamma assisting. Alice Weber Mansfield conducted the initiation, assisted by Rita DeTemple Dunkin, Omicron Province President, and Lou Ann Chase Tuft, Director of Membership, at the home of Lois Reeves Jordan. The Portland Junior Alumnae did the preparation for initiation.

Initiation Banquet

At six-thirty a beautiful initiation banquet was held at the Benson Hotel. Ruth Price Schwieker was chairman and the table was lovely with a huge golden arrow center piece filled with wine carnations. Blue metallic angels marked each place, and blue candles in silver holders completed the decoration.

Toasts were made by Gail Burnett Schoel, former Omicron Province President who was the toast-mistress, Rita DeTemple Dunkin, Carol Gleason Anderson, president of the Portland Alumnae Club, Janine Mariels, president of Oregon Delta Chapter, and Alice Mansfield. The candlelighting ceremony was read by Lou Ann Chase Tuft, with Lesley Pick-

The last section is now under construction and due for occupancy in the Fall, 1961. It will include a ballroom, bowling alleys, music and conference rooms, an art gallery and browsing library.

The pledges of the group who received with the actives at the college center were: Shirley Abbott, Bonnie Apperson, Brenda Bay, Karen Dawson, Judy Gross, Ila Herlin, Sidney Jones, Donna Lawrence, Marcia Nelson, Barbara Oake, Sue Oliver, Sue Olrenshaw, Pam Powell, Polla Prior, Dixie Stadel and Joyce Upham.

Alpha Phi was the first group at Portland State College and Pi Phi is the second to be installed, although Delta Delta Delta pledged their chapter before Pi Phi and will initiate after the first of the year. Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Omicron Pi, and Delta Zeta are in the process of forming chapters, and there are inquiries being made by other Panhellenic groups.

In Tribute . . . Lois Franklin Stoolman

Beta Phi . . . my sense of deep personal sorrow cannot be measured or my consciousness of the great loss which Pi Beta Phi has sustained. Lois Stoolman loved the fraternity with a devotion which few have ever equalled, and she gave it her best always. Even when I last saw her in September, her spirit was as strong as it had ever been in spite of her suffering. She was a truly wonderful woman."

Speaking for Grand Council, Alice Weber Mansfield writes, "Even as the Fraternity mourns the loss of a beloved member, its members may know that they are richer for the privilege of having known her and her devotion to Pi Beta Phi through all the years since her initiation on November 8, 1902. Even those of us who were not so fortunate as to have a close association with her have benefited from her thoughtfulness in writing letters of encouragement as we assumed the responsibilities of fraternity office, from her unflinching loyalty, and from her love of the Fraternity."

New Director

A CHANGING OF THE GUARD AT CENTRAL OFFICE

We write to "Dor" now for supplies, information, magazine subscription blanks and that multitude of other things that it takes to operate with in Pi Beta Phi chapters and clubs. She's the new Director of Central Office, Dorothy Allen Burns, an Illinois Eta Pi Phi, and she succeeds the Peggy we used to bedevil and address formally as Margaret J. Dick.

Decatur Native

Dor is a native of Decatur. She attended James Millikin University there and received her Bachelor of Science degree in 1941. She taught in the Decatur school system for two years and then in June 1943 married F. William Burns, who is more familiarly known as Bill. Their sons are Robert Aiken (Rocky) who is 10 and William Allen (Bill) who is seven.

Dor has served as president of the Junior Welfare Association, was a member of the Board of Directors of the Decatur and Macon County Hospital for ten years, on the Girls Welfare Home Board for four years and the Macon County Community Clinic Board for four years.

Dor writes "I am delighted to be in Central Office and already I have met many wonderful people through the association. It is a privilege to be a part of the National Family, and I shall do my very best to be of service to the Fraternity."

Improvements

Dor's work will be easier thanks to some of the improvements made at Central Office under the direction of Peggy Dick. Peggy took over as Director in the fall of 1957. Since that time she has supervised the move of the offices from the Standard Office Building to their present location at 264 Citizens Building. The new quarters provided a better laid out, more efficient and much more pleasant office space. During her tenure the office changed from mimeographing to multilithing. This process has enabled Central Office to print a great many of the blanks, report forms and officers' letterheads at a considerable savings.

Peggy is an Illinois Zeta with a Masters of Science degree from the University of Illinois and former president of the old Eta Province. She will not lack for director titles away from Central Office and now will be devoting her time to a number of civic groups in Decatur. She is secretary and a director of the Decatur and Macon County Hospital and is treasurer and a director of the D&MC County Welfare Home for Girls. She's president of the Women's Auxiliary of the D&MC Hospital; secretary of the Decatur Thrift Shop; vice president of the Macon County Mental Health Association; Chairman of the YWCA Building-Planning Committee and on its Board of Directors; and Advisory Board member of the Community Clinics of Macon County. In January of this year, Peggy received outstanding recognition from the First Presbyterian Church in Decatur when she was ordained as one of its Elders.

Carrie Chapman Catt Remembered

IOWA STATE EVENT FEATURES WOMAN SUFFRAGE HISTORICAL DISPLAY

In October of 1960, just a month before millions of women were to exercise their democratic privilege of voting in a national election, an unusual display at an Iowa State University Faculty Wives tea reminded a small segment of our nation's feminine voters of the struggle that ensued to give them the privilege of that vote.

Featured in the display was Carrie Chapman Catt, an Iowa Gamma Pi Phi, graduate of Iowa State and internationally known leader in the Woman Suffrage movement. 1960 was the fortieth anniversary of the enactment of Woman Suffrage. Mrs. Catt died in 1947.

Two Ames, Iowa, Pi Phi alumnae had much of the responsibility for the research and preparation of the outstanding presentation, which was described as a "highlight" of the annual Fall Tea of the Faculty Wives Club attended by over five hundred persons. They are Mary Pemble Barton (Iowa B) and Janet Sutherland Aronson (Iowa Γ).

The display was staged on a four sided arrangement to depict four areas in the life and activity of Mrs. Catt. They were as follows:

The Suffrage Movement side, which displayed a large Woman Suffrage Association Banner Mrs. Catt had carried in Washington, badges and emblems worn by Suffragettes, Mrs. Catt's portrait, a copy of her address to Congress, books she had written and a copy of the Nineteenth Amendment.

The Information Side featured a most unusual replica of a large newspaper made by Mrs. Barton and Mrs. Aronson. Each column was devoted to some phase or period of Mrs. Catt's suffrage work. This arrangement also held books and articles written by or about Mrs. Catt, and newspaper and magazine articles including some from the ARROW.

That area of display devoted to Mrs. Catt's personal life held gifts she had given the University or others including linens, a silver tea service, her LL.D. diplomas and other honors and several commemorative stamps.

The quadrangle arrangement was completed with a side devoted to Mrs. Catt's extensive travels throughout the world displaying oriental furniture and souvenirs and trinkets that she had collected.

Hostesses for this display created an atmosphere of 1916 suffrage demonstrations by dressing in white, wearing straw hats and carrying yellow umbrellas or "Votes for Women" placards.

Guests at the tea were reminded of facts that time and the bustle of modern life had dimmed. The display brought before them the reminder that Carrie Chapman Catt had been listed on the 1937 roster of the "ten greatest women in America." She came to this place of high honor and recognition as a result of her work for 13 years as president of the Woman's Suffrage Association, and also as president and honorable president of the International Woman's Suffrage Alliance and president of the Pan American Association for Advancement of Women. Through these groups she built up an organization of two million woman's suffrage workers across the country. She was one of the organizers of the League of Women Voters.

The display also pointed to other honors and activities such as Mrs. Catt's national recognition in 1948 with a U. S. Commemorative stamp bearing her picture. She is also pictured on a Turkish stamp. She had received the Iowa State University Alumni Association merit award for distinguished service and the New York Alumni diploma in 1931. She was granted a doctor of laws degree from Iowa State in 1921. She had also received honorary LL.D.s from Moravian College, the University of Wyoming and Smith College.

The story of the efforts of Mrs. Aronson and "Newspaper" made by Mrs. Barton and Mrs. Aronson to chronicle career of Mrs. Catt.

Mrs. Barton and their co-workers has a happy and fruitful climax. Much of the information they collected, and their unique "newspaper" have been placed in the hands of the Iowa State University Library Curator, Mrs. Kehlenbeck. Mrs. Kehlenbeck is now making efforts to locate original writings of Mrs. Catt and other mementos that will enlarge the University's memorial collection devoted to Mrs. Catt's life and work.

Portrait of Carrie Chapman Catt on display. She is wearing a jeweled international Suffrage pin. This pin was also on display.

Centennial Project Committee

In accordance with a motion passed at the Miami Convention (1954) of Pi Beta Phi Fraternity, action was taken in 1960 to establish a Pi Beta Phi Centennial Project Committee.

That motion read,

"At the end of six years, a committee be set up to study all possible uses of the (Centennial) fund then accumulated. This committee would report its findings to the 1964 Convention and a final plan for utilizing the fund would be adopted at the 1966 Convention."

Grand Council is happy to present to the Fraternity the Pi Phis who have accepted positions on the Committee at this time. The committee will welcome members' suggestions for possible uses of the fund.

Chairman of the Committee will be Mildred Allen Hightower (Mrs. Floyd R.), Tennessee A. She has been a member of the Dallas Alumnae group since 1936. She was Province President of the old Kappa Province two years and served two years in that capacity for Nu Province. She is a past president of the Dallas Alumnae Club and was its city Panhellenic representative last year and is rush contact chairman this year. She was president of the SMU housing Panhellenic corporation in 1948-49, the year it obtained permission to build houses. She has attended seven Pi Phi Conventions. Her civic activities in Dallas cover a wide range including two terms as president of the Senior A.A.U.W. Group in Dallas and presidency of the Junior Group. She has one son, a senior in high school.

Holt House

By Shirley Jones Mann, Kansas A, Holt House Committee

Slides Give Life To Holt House

What do you think of when someone mentions Holt House? Do you wince because it's another project to be included in the budget, or do you smile happily with a warm feeling in your heart for the home of our founders? Frankly, before I saw the slides I belonged in the first category—it was all right—but nothing to get really excited about. But those slides are captivating!

A Transformation

The picture of Holt House when we bought it—a forlorn relic of gayer days, surrounded by shaggy trees and bushes in the middle of an overgrown weed patch. Today it stands proudly with a fresh coat of white paint inviting you to come and share with it the memories of a bygone day.

In the front hall which has a beautiful curving stairway, reminiscent of lovely ladies in the ante bellum period, stands a spinning wheel. This is one of the many choice items that brings joy to the eyes of collectors. The whole house has been refurnished and decorated, as nearly as possible, with exact replicas of those used at the time Major and Mrs. Holt rented a room to Ada Bruen and Libbie Brook in 1867.

It Lives

The slides make Holt House a living entity. In the Pine Room where meetings are held, the guest book with 5,000 Pi Phi signatures lies open anticipating yours. The Mammy Bench, also in the Pine Room, was quite an invention. Put the baby in the cradle at one end, and you're free to read, sew, knit or what have you while rocking the baby to sleep. It's hard to understand why these aren't in demand today.

The living room is more formal with the rose carved love seat and the quaint rosewood melodeon waiting rather wistfully to be played. Two partitions were removed to make the dining room into an area large enough for cooky shines, wedding receptions, teas, musicals etc. The silver tea service, as well as the Mammy Bench and the melodeon, is among the many gifts donated by alumnæ clubs and individuals.

The kitchen has been and is again undergoing modernization to meet the evergrowing demands made upon it.

Upstairs Mrs. Hines, Holt House hostess, has her apartment. There is also a library filled with books by Pi Phi authors. The historical room with Victorian furnishings includes a bookcase occupied with old letters, mementos and Monmouth College catalogues where the founders' names can be found in the roster. A collection of figurines representing each of the founders, in remarkably lifelike and accurate facsimiles adds to the interest of this room. Across the hall in Ada and Libbie's room is a small cherry table on which Ada kept her writing materials, a walnut dresser with the wishbone mirror above it, and the little woodburning pot bellied stove in the corner that kept the girls toasty on cold winter nights.

The whole house has an aura of charm that is well worth preserving as a shrine. For here is where our noble venture of fellowship began. And with that thought comes the realization that today in this world of tension, we live in one of the few places where we still have the opportunity and privilege of being selective and discriminative; where we can loudly proclaim our inheritance and build on it; where we can be proud of our heritage and not be called weak because of it.

A Symbol

Holt House symbolizes all these things and many more that are so often lumped into the almost threadbare phrase, "The American Way of Life." Holt House has made a growing contribution to Pi Beta Phi not only as a memorial to our founders, but as a cultural center for the Monmouth community.

So, let's all back her wholeheartedly—vocally as well as financially—the next time the budget is discussed.

The Chairman's Word

By Beth Olwin Dawson, Chairman,
Holt House Committee

Shirley Jones Mann is the newest member on our committee. I haven't yet had the pleasure of meeting her, but am looking forward to attaching a "face and figure" to the "personality" I've come to know through our correspondence. Shirley has never seen Holt House. As the new member, I asked her to be in charge of the slides. This job she graciously accepted, and, as you can see, she has so familiarized herself with the slides that, through them, she has come to "know" the spirit we have tried to preserve as a shrine to our founders.

Where Are the Pi Phis?

A comment heard last summer at the 1960 Summer Craft Workshop made us pause and wonder why, "Everyone knows about the Workshop except the Pi Phis," and where have they been that they do not know that the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School and the University of Tennessee jointly have operated the Summer Craft Workshop for sixteen years. Together they have pioneered so successfully in this field that Gatlinburg is now recognized as one of the leading craft centers in the United States, in addition to its reputation as the center of traditional hand-weaving.

We, the members of the fraternity which twice has led in opening new fields of education for this area, seem to be the last to recognize or to take advantage of the opportunities available to us through our own enterprise and vision! Since 1945, there have been 1160 different students who have benefited from taking 1630 workshop courses. They have come from every state in the country and numerous foreign countries; relatively few have been members of Pi Beta Phi. Among those people interested in or working with the crafts, some of whom write for publications ranging from The New York Times to The Spinning Wheel, the leadership of this community in the crafts field is common knowledge, as is the fact that it was made so by the efforts of Pi Beta Phi to revive the ancient crafts of the area and to provide a market for the products.

The October, 1960, issue of The Spinning Wheel, a national magazine about antiques, contains an article, "Hand Weaving and Looms," by Helen Bullard, from which the following paragraphs are quoted:

... Even in the Great Smoky Mountains of Tennessee and North Carolina most of the old looms were stored away in attics and sheds when, in 1912, the Pi Beta Phi Fraternity came to Gatlinburg, Tennessee, to offer its help in educational development and community betterment. Not long after its Settlement School was organized, the Pi Phi staff realized that one of its major contributions could be the development of home industries, the revival of the ancient crafts. Outstanding among these crafts were the old-time "kiverlids," or coverlets, woven of hand-spun, vegetable-dyed wool in intricate all-over designs of great antiquity.

"With the help and craftsmanship of Aunt Lizzie Reagan and Aunt Lydia Whaley, the school helped to revive many of the ancient crafts and found markets for the products. The two old women taught their neighbors, some of whom needed only a refresher course in spinning and weaving. Others were new recruits eager to learn a craft they could work at right at home and sell for cash.

"Old looms were found and reconditioned. Forgotten "drafts," the strange looking patterns for coverlets and other weaving with designs began to turn up on yellowed and wrinkled paper. Most of these were tied with bits of thread and showed innumerable pin pricks where the weavers had marked their places on the pattern. Then the all but lost art of dyeing yarn with native barks and berries was snatched back from oblivion.

"By 1925 enough weaving and other crafts were being produced to justify the setting up of the Arrowcraft Shop in Galinburg. Since then Galinburg's place as the center of old-time hand weaving has continued to grow. Paralleling its growth were projects at Berea College in Kentucky and the Allandstand group in Asheville, North Carolina, as well as many lesser weaving centers.

"Much fine hand weaving of modern webs is now being done in other parts of the country, especially in New York and New England which boast many important centers and individual weavers. But Gatlinburg remains the present-day center of traditional hand weaving in the United States."

On Sunday, October 15, 1960, The New York Times contained an article, "Craftsmen Lend A Hand To Gatlinburg Fair," by Rick Krepela, which stated:

"Unique on the roster of fairs to be held this month is the annual Craftsman's Fair that will take place here in the heart of the Great Smoky Mountains. This region is noted for its scenery, but it also has established for itself a reputation as one of the foremost craft centers in the country. Hundreds of individual workers, many of them practicing crafts handed down from their pioneer past, make and sell a variety of items that blend function with beauty.

... Visitors will notice that most of the craftsmen display a membership plaque in the Southern Highland Handicraft Guild. This non-profit group is instrumental in preserving the unique flavor of "mountain crafts" and assures the tourist of a good selection of authentic items that meet high standards of workmanship. Membership in the guild is a much coveted honor. (Ed. note—the Pi Beta Phi Arrow-craft Shop is a charter member.)

"... Dozens of weavers also will demonstrate their skill at the fair. Using hand-operated looms, they will produce a variety of pioneer-inspired fabrics ranging from place-mats to full size draperies. Hand-woven fabrics are so much in demand that at least 1,000 workers practice the art. For example, one Gatlinburg gift shop (Ed. note—Arrowcraft Shop) keeps sixty-five weavers busy full time turning out cloth for its customers.

"... Guild members run a full range of age and interests. They use everything from cornshucks to imported glass in making the things they do. Some members are in their eighties. One of the youngest is 16-years-old Richard Teesatuskie. A Cherokee Indian, he still attends high school while using his spare hours to make the silver jewelry that has won the recognition of his fellow craftsmen."

Continuing the thought of the above paragraph, Marion Mueller, Director of Settlement School, reporting on the 1960 Workshop, stated that the slogan might well have been, "Neither Too Young Nor Too Old," and that twenty-two states and three foreign countries were represented.

So wide-spread has our reputation grown that the United States Department of Agriculture has asked us to participate in the United States' exhibit for the International Agricultural Exhibition to be held in Cairo, Egypt, March 21-April 20, 1961. For this we are sending examples of our weaving and pictures of the craftsmen at their looms.

One group which has been making an effort for many years to see that our own members benefit from our work in this field is the Southern California Area Council, which annually awards a $400 Workshop Scholarship to a Pi Province active. (See p. 196, the ARROW, Summer 1960). In the near future, another Workshop Scholarship, established by and honoring Virginia Alpha, will be available each summer to a Delta Province active. Perhaps other provinces will become interested in pooling efforts to provide other such scholarships.

We have much to be proud of—let's see that all of the Pi Phis know of it!

PHILADELPHIA ALUMNÆ CLUB GETS SOARING PIGEON AWARD

Settlement School Chairman Helen Russell has announced a correction in the report appearing in the Information Issue of the ARROW. The Philadelphia Alumnæ Club should have been in 4th place last year in remittances to Arrowcraft. The total for the several groups which comprise the club should have been $2,702.31 instead of $1,368.81 for the Main Line Group only as announced at convention and as reported on page 43 of the Information ARROW. A Soaring Pigeon Award has belatedly been sent to that club, with apologies for the error.

Transcribing Chemistry Textbook for Blind—A Real Challenge

Mary Littlejohn Bradley, (Mrs. Basil), Ontario A, of Toronto, attended her first class on braille transcription three years ago. This year she has been engaged in a staggering task that belies the number of years experience she has in this field. She is transcribing a 600 page textbook, Essentials of Chemistry, sent to the Canadian Institute for the Blind by a woman college student. She calls the job, "a real challenge."

20 Volumes

Mrs. Bradley estimates that the transcribed book will require about 20 volumes of Braille, about 1600 pages 10 by 13 inches. It is a task that has required ingenuity on her part and assistance from others on such knotty problems as the expressing of a chemical formula requiring special symbols not included in the touch system by which blind persons read.

The project is also described by Mrs. Bradley as "fun—at times." Her lack of knowledge in chemistry has been supplemented by her nephew who is a chemical engineer. Fun and all, this Pi Phi brailist says she will be glad to get back to the relatively peaceful reaches of transcribing history or French when her current task is complete.

A visit with an aunt in Wilkes-Barre opened the door to this fascinating and rewarding volunteer work for the Canadian Pi Phi. Her aunt, Mrs. Edward Beasley, had been teaching Braille for twenty years. After this visit Mrs. Bradley made the decision to enroll in the classes for sighted volunteers at the Canadian Institute for the Blind.

"Since completing my first book and qualifying for a teacher's certificate, I have been passing on my great enthusiasm. It is intensely interesting work—so much so that my students didn't want to take holidays at Christmas!" she says.

When Mrs. Bradley first enrolled in the CNIB volunteer training course the object of the classes was to gain assistance in translating all kinds of books, including fiction, for its library, which is one of the largest Braille collections in the world. Requests from blind college and high school students for textbooks upped the demand for a larger organized group of volunteers. Books are translated at home on a little brailier provided by the CNIB and it is estimated that brailists working about an hour a day can complete a book in a year.

Mrs. Bradley at work at a brailier transcribing the chemistry textbook.

Mrs. Bradley's other activities in this field include speaking to groups in other communities that are interested in setting up Braille courses. This year she also interviewed eighty applicants for CNIB courses.

She invites interest in this satisfying undertaking and points out there is no age limit for brailists saying "we have them from twenty-three to seventy-three." She also points out that it is work particularly suited for retired men and women, especially teachers who desire a useful hobby.

Margaret Littlejohn Wigle (Mrs. Douglas), a niece of Mrs. Bradley's is also an Ontario Alpha Pi Phi and Mr. Wigle's Pi Phi sister, Sally Wigle Somers (Mrs. William), is currently serving as chairman of the Ontario Alpha House Corporation. They have been described by a Toronto Alumnae Club sister as "a Pi Phi trio to be proud of."

Two of Ten

PI PHIS AMONG OUTSTANDING WOMEN OF YEAR IN PITTSBURGH

On December 30, 1960, the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette listed "Ten of Our Outstanding Pittsburgh Women for the year 1960." Of that number two were Pi Beta Phis, Ferne Wein Horne and Dr. Anne Barrett Wagner.

In Same Chapter

Both Mrs. Horne and Dr. Wagner were initiated into Pennsylvania Delta Chapter of Pi Beta Phi at the University of Pittsburgh and were members of the chapter at the same time.

Mrs. Horne

Mrs. Horne is director of guidance at Mt. Lebanon High School and president of the Pennsylvania Association of Women's Deans and Counselors and was named to the national Defense Advisory Committee on Women in the Services last March by the Secretary of the Defense.

Her duties on that national committee have taken her to Washington, D.C., Cambridge, Md., Quantico, Va. and Andrews Air Force Base, Md. At Mt. Lebanon she has initiated an information program on opportunities in the services that was attended by over 600 students. She is currently working with other guidance counselors toward extending the program for both men and women students in schools in the western Pennsylvania area.

Mrs. Horne is also compiling an academic handbook for state wide use in which college planning and other advanced education opportunities will be explained. This will be done in cooperation with the Pennsylvania Association of Women's Deans and Counselors.

Mrs. Horne holds both Bachelor of Arts and a Master's degree in education from the University of Pittsburgh. She was president of her college chapter and is a past president of the South Hills Pi Phi Alumnae Club and active in many educational and civic organizations.

Dr. Wagner

Dr. Wagner has recently been appointed assistant director of Region Four of the Pennsylvania State Health Department, another milestone of accomplishment in a career in public health work.

Two weeks after receiving her license to practice she began part time public health work in Pittsburgh City Schools and then took on full time duties for twelve years.

Later she was chief of medical services for the Allegheny County Health Department, a position she resigned to accept the new state appointment.

In her new work her administrative duties will cover six Western Pennsylvania counties.

Six counties should present no problem to this efficient woman of medicine who at one time while in county work found herself with five different titles at once. She was directing maternal and child welfare, communicable diseases, tuberculosis, was chief of medical work and acting director of health.

Another career has been considered before medicine by Dr. Wagner, that of "wife and mother." She married Theodore T. Wagner while interning and they have had two sons, Theodore, Jr. and William, both of whom are now married.

Dr. Wagner's degrees are Bachelor of Science, Master's in public health and MD, all from the University of Pittsburgh.

In the spring of 1960, Dr. Wagner was the Founders Day Dinner speaker for the South Hills Alumnae Club.

THIRTY-THREE YEARS LIBRARY SERVICE ENDS FOR HELEN MASTEN

Helen Adams Masten, Wisconsin A, retired November 30, 1960, after thirty-three years as head of the Central Children's Room of the New York City Public Library. Her retirement and valuable contributions in that capacity were recognized in feature stories in the New York Times and the New York Herald Tribune.

In retirement Miss Masten will continue to work in organizations devoted to cultural advancement. She is chairman of the American Library Association's Committee for the Selection of Foreign Children's Books and is secretary of the Board of the National Kindergarten Association. She is also one of the judges in a children's book competition sponsored by the American Institute of Graphic Arts.

No Fear of TV

This devoted friend of the reading child does not see television as a deterrent to reading, saying,

"Television, I do not fear, because I have seen it serve as a stimulant to reading. I remember a dramatization of 'Heidi'; next day our shelves were emptied of our many copies of that story, and the children found out how much more rewarding the printed word could be."

Then she quoted the best answer she had heard to the question "do children prefer television?" It came from a little boy and he had said, "The trouble with television is that you can't ever turn back."

SHIRLEY STEPHENS—THE PRIDE OF TEXAS GAMMA

By Linda Barnhill, Texas  $\Gamma$

Shirley Stephens

The eyes of Texas Tech have been on Shirley Stephens, outstanding member of Texas Gamma chapter, in many happy moments during her years on that campus.

Her career of campus accomplishment began early when she was elected president of Drane Residence Hall during the spring of her freshman year. She had also been the runner-up for Miss Pledge of Kappa Sigma that year.

For three years the finalists for LeVentana beauties have included Shirley. Bledsoe Residence Hall chose her as its sweetheart during her junior year. Shirley also placed third in the Miss Lubbock contest, which is competitive in the realm of beauty plus talent.

In 1959, at the annual between semesters school ski trip to Taos, New Mexico, she was elected by those attending as Snow Queen.

The Air Force R.O.T.C. has honored Shirley with progressively higher honorary positions. She was a squadron sweetheart for two years, group sweetheart and this year is wing sweetheart, holding the title Miss Top Flight.

In campus elections, Shirley has received top positions. She was sophomore and junior class secretary.

In both her sophomore and junior years she was voted "class favorite."

Homecoming Queen

Last fall Shirley was elected Texas Tech Homecoming Queen. This was an especially coveted honor, since 1960 was Tech's first year as member of the Southwest Conference and the homecoming celebration was one of the most memorable in the history of the college.

Shirley is a senior music education major from Denton, Texas. She is a member of Mu Theta Epsilon, an honorary music fraternity and was pledge president of that group. She is a member of the Tech Choir, a select mixed choral group which sings at many campus functions as well as at local events. Shirley has also been a member of the chancel choir at the First Methodist Church in Lubbock for four years.

MISS CHARM—Barbara Hancock, Tennessee B, has been selected for that title at Vanderbilt University this year. The recognition goes to the coed who best exemplifies the charm and social standards desired in a Vandy coed. Barbara is also vice-president of her chapter, secretary of Mortar Board, President of the Women's Advisory Council and vice-president of the Social Standards Committee.

MISSOURI PI PHI IN USA-USSR EXCHANGE VISIT

Sue Thompson (Missouri Beta), was a member of the National Student "Y's" 1960 USA-USSR Summer Exchange. (Another Pi Phi, Kay Smith, of Randolph-Macon, participated in the 1959 phase of the exchange.)

The "Y" exchange groups were in the USSR for six weeks, three weeks of which were spent in a student camp in the Ukraine, living among and enjoying vacation activities with students of the Kiev Polytechnic Institute. Sue reports that the circumstances of their camp stay made possible a rich exchange of friendship and ideas between the American students and their Soviet contemporaries. The remaining weeks were spent in three major Soviet cities, visiting areas of agricultural, cultural, and industrial importance, and meeting with students and other young people. The "Y" groups also traveled in Czechoslovakia, Rumania, and Yugoslavia in the hope of learning more about the relationship of these Eastern European countries to the USSR.

Sue would encourage interested Pi Phis, especially those who have studied the Russian language, to find out more about the exchange program and apply through the student "Y" association on their campus.

TOP WOMAN SCHOLAR—Jane Foster, Nebraska B, has earned this enviable title on the University of Nebraska campus. The Black Masque chapter of Mortar Board honored Jane at a luncheon for her 8.818 overall average on the 9 point system. Her average last semester was 8.944.

ILLINOIS E PI PHI CHOSEN FOR RECORD AROUND WORLD FLIGHT

An attractive Illinois Epsilon Pi Phi, Sue Snyder, eclipsed Nellie Bly's 72-day trip around the world by nearly 69 days last summer in a record flight around the globe which took just 62 hours and 50 minutes.

Sue had been chosen as Miss Chicago International Trade Fair for 1960 by the Chicago Association of Commerce for her good looks and her intelligence and also because she is the same age, height and weight as Nellie Bly, the famed woman reporter who went around the world in 1889.

Sue's two and a half day trip made by commercial air line included stops at Ireland, London, Germany, Austria, Turkey, Iran, India, Thailand, Hong Kong, and Tokyo.

The purpose of the flight was to publicize and emphasize Chicago's importance as a world trade and jet air travel center. Also the economy class flight was arranged to show that a round the world trip can be made for $1,400.

Sue is studying in Germany this year on a fellowship at the University of Berlin.

GRACE EDGINGTON JORDAN, Canyon Boy, The Caxton Printers, Ltd., 450 pp.

Without discounting the value of the geography text or the sociological study in describing the physical world and explaining the mores of its people, much credit is owed novelists for making vivid to the reader the world he has not experienced. Thus Mark Twain brought, not only Tom Sawyer, but also the Mississippi River into the libraries of Boston, and Henry James taught the readers of Nelsonville, Ohio, about nineteenth century society in New York City.

If there are any "new frontiers" left in this field, one of them has been scouted by Grace Edgington Jordan in her novel about the individualistic citizens who live in that rugged and remote section of Idaho between the great gorges of the Snake and Salmon Rivers.

She is at her best when she describes the self-contained life of ranch families who may go for months without a visitor, paints word portraits of the exciting and sometimes frightening works of nature, or creates a character who belongs in these surroundings as emphatically as Studs Lonigan belonged to Chicago.

Jay, her canyon boy, is abandoned, a stranger in the Salmon River town of Ramey when his mother dies in childbirth and his father disappears. In the dozen years of his growing up, Jay lives successively in five different homes. In some he finds love and encouragement; in others high standards and intellectual achievement are stressed, and in others he is the victim of avarice and even cruelty.

From all these, men, women and children, and from the land, the rivers, and the animals he adds something to his basic equipment of a good mind, sturdy body, and affectionate nature and to each he gives something. Through it all runs a thread of mystery, the puzzle of his origins, punctuated by such dramatic incidents as a robbery, murder, and hunting accident.

Mrs. Jordan writes with sympathy of adolescence, and, despite the special regional quality of the novel, there are passages which have a universality which perceptive adults will find applicable to their relationships with youngsters everywhere.

AUTHOR INTEREST: Grace Edgington Jordan has crowded much into her life since she was a model initiate at the Pi Phi Estes Park convention in 1923. Her autobiographical book, Home Below Hell's Canyon, is a fascinating record of the ten years during which she, her husband, later Idaho's governor, and children ranched in remote land along the Snake. There she operated a kitchen table school for her three youngsters, but she's also taught in three state universities and written for newspapers and magazines.

EMILIE MARGARET WHITE, Ein Ausflug in die Deutsche Sprache, 2 vol., The Odyssey Press, 312 pp. and 324 pp.

Here is a pair of textbooks for students of German who really want to use the language as a means of communication.

As the author explains in the foreword to the book for first year pupils, "Three things which should result from the potentials in the text are: (1) to get students speaking from the very first day, (2) to have them develop the power to read without constant thumbing of vocabulary, and (3) to help them build up the ability to think in German."

For those of us who learned the grammar of a foreign language together with largely unrelated lists of vocabulary first and the language as a useful tool much, much later, this approach is a revelation.

"The ability to read, in the real sense of the word," she continues, "is proportionate to the mastery of vocabulary and structure. Our experience has shown that students readily learn and retain large blocks of related vocabulary when the accompanying grammatical material is kept simple."

May these texts find their way into many schools!

AUTHOR INTEREST: Emilie Margaret White, D. C., Alpha, is the supervising director of foreign languages for the public schools of the District of Columbia.

RANDOM NOTES: Alice Troxell McCoun, Nebraska Beta, continues to write in that most difficult medium, poetry, and to be published. Three poems, Spiritual Unfoldment, There is a Way, and Pure Thoughts Are Peace, have appeared in issues of the Christian Science Journal.

SENATOR GOLDWATER DEFINES FRATERNITY'S VITAL ROLE IN PRESERVING BASIC IDEALS

At the National Interfraternity Conference in Los Angeles, Calif. November 24-26, 1960, U.S. Senator Barry Goldwater of Arizona (Sigma Chi) spoke out in strong, definitive terms on the role of the fraternity as a bastion of freedom. A portion of his remarks follows.

Mr. Goldwater maintained that the fraternity must survive for it represents the "greatest bastion that we have to provide leadership and preservation of the four basic ideals of American life. The first of these basic ideals is religious values. The second is brotherhood, which stems out of religious values. Senator Goldwater stressed that brotherhood is the basic value upon which we build our lives. The third basic ideal is individualism. Too many people, he pointed out, "preach the idea of the 'common man,' " and we are "hearing too much about the resulting conformity." Senator Goldwater believes "we are and should be uncommon men." There is a great "need for individualism of construction, not destruction." The fourth basic ideal set forth was freedom. He referred to freedom as the "great last weapon in this world against . . . communism." Senator Goldwater went on to discuss the two important challenges of 1960. These lie in the areas of academic work and politics. He feels that the country needs greater emphasis on its academic work because "communism thrives on ignorance, not on poverty and sickness . . . youth is the target for communism." In conclusion, Senator Goldwater stated that "I am a great believer in the fraternity system . . . the forces against the fraternity system are the same ones that are working to destroy the basic ideals of American life and the freedoms of the Bill of Rights."—Interfraternity Research and Advisory Council Bulletin.

ANSWER TO THE GREEK UNIVERSE

There may well be a lesson for the fraternity world in the address given recently by Dr. Margaret Mead, world renowned anthropologist, at the University of Kansas.

"Modern man is obsessed to find the answer to the universe," she said, "but his individual fragmentary knowledge makes him incapable of doing so."

This statement by Doctor Mead recalls the observation recently made by a good doctor of fraternity that the different individuals concerned with the progress of the American college fraternity system all seek a common formula for its development but are prevented from finding it because their perspectives are fragmentary. They never really get together because, physically, they simply never sit down together. The undergraduate, the dean's office, the alumnus, the national board, the professor, the president, the regent, and Mr. John Q. Public have never succeeded in bringing their separate viewpoints together into a single unified view and understanding for the good of all. As a consequence the number of individuals who truly understand the college fraternity or what is good for it is infinitesimal.

Doctor Mead deplors the fragments of knowledge as such and feels higher education should pursue a philosophy which insures the integration of knowledge from the beginning.

Thus Doctor Mead provides a text which may profitably be studied by persons whose efforts influence the course of Greekdom. And though it would of course be futile to attempt to expose a man to "the full gamut of fraternity life" after he has left the campus and only a few memories of his undergraduate days are left to him, the objective is no less clear. There is no excuse for the college president and the fraternity undergraduate being the abysmal strangers on some campuses that they characteristically are. There is no excuse for the national officers of the fraternity to understand their undergraduate members as poorly as some of them characteristically do.

Some day we would like to attend the National Interfraternity Conference and tune in on a round table discussion in which the men enumerated above are participants. Just for once we would want to see the undergraduate—who has left his post as president of a good chapter in a good fraternity school less than twenty-four or twenty-six hours before—run the show. For good measure we would include in the discussion a well-muscled all-souls chaplain and an old-fashioned patriot. Portraits of Thomas Jefferson, Francis W. Shepardson, and Alvan E. Duerr would be hanging in the background.

Don't worry, Doctor Mead, we'll find the answer to the Greek universe yet. And when we find it we'll be closer to the answer to the other universe also.—Banta's Greek Exchange.

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

September 26, 1960

Communism is today a serious danger to our American way of life. The communists desire to destroy our form of government and establish an atheistic dictatorship. They would abrogate our cherished liberties and make this Nation part of a communist world empire.

Most important in communist eyes is an attack against our young people. Ever since the days of V. I. Lenin the communists have been interested in capturing the minds of young men and women. The communists know that gaining the adherence of young men will insure their supremacy in the days to come. For that reason they work diligently, in every possible devious way, to subvert the thinking of American youth.

College fraternities can do much to defeat this communist conspiracy. Their members should know more about the machinations of communism: what communism is, how it operates, what are its aims. They should take the time to study communism carefully and understand its nefarious ingredients. They should acquaint themselves with the tactics of this international conspiracy, both as it operates here in our country and abroad.

The fraternity member must be ready to make known his opposition to communism. In this way he can become an example to others on the college campus. A fraternity man, conversant with the evils of communism, can do much to defeat this enemy. His opposition must be based on facts. Witch hunts, the use of innuendo and misinformation are not in the American tradition. Communism can be defeated by the truth--the truth which is embodied in our heritage of freedom.

MASSACHUSETTS BETA THIRD IN HONOR GRADUATES

National Scholarship Chairman Helena Dingle Moore reports an error in her listing of chapters with the greatest number of honor graduates in her report in the Winter ARROW. Massachusetts Beta should have ranked in third position with seven honor graduates above Kansas Alpha which had six honor graduates. The error has been corrected in Fraternity records and Massachusetts Beta has received the recognition it justly deserves for this outstanding accomplishment.

Holt House

Unfortunately, many Pi Phis will never have the opportunity to visit Holt House in person, but it is possible to visit it through the colored slides. These are so lovely, one feels almost as if she were being taken on a "conducted" tour. I'm sure if more clubs and chapters could see them, it wouldn't be necessary to have to "talk up" Holt House.

Mrs. Hines reports that the kitchen is finished and is truly a "dream." I can hardly wait for our meeting this spring, so that I may see it. I've been in close touch, but that isn't the same as seeing all the changes and improvements. We'll have some slides of it made so that we may have a "before and after," so you too, may see.

To reserve a date for slides, write too:

Mrs. Robert E. Mann

Get to "know" Holt House.

ALPHA PROVINCE

**MAINE ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MAINE. Chartered, 1920. Pledge Day, December 11, 1960. The Pi Beta Phis opened the fall semester with an overnight outing at a lake nearby. Doing the Limbo, eating, and talking over summer vacation all developed the theme of the event—enjoyment. Brenda Freeman and Neil Proctor related tales of wonderful times at Convention and explained new rushing ideas (which were very effective!).

Women's fraternity rushing began on October 15 with informal open houses. All freshman and transfer students who were interested in rushing were invited to attend. Actual rushing parties began early in November with the theme Annie Get Your Arrow predominating. Rushing activities were climaxed by a bowpinning supper sponsored by the Eastern Maine Alumnae Club.

Many Maine As were chosen to membership in honor societies: Ann Corbett, Ruth Kimball, Alice McKiel, Rosemary Rich, Judith Wilkinson, Σ M Σ, honorary psychology fraternity; Katherine Allen, Marcia Meade, Jane Goode, Nancy Kennedy, and Eleanor Turner, Φ K Φ.

Christmas season on the Maine campus was highlighted by the parties held by the men's and women's fraternities for the many orphans in the area.

On the Sunday evening before classes ended all the senior girls on campus joined together to sing carols in a candlelight procession throughout the freshman women's dormitories.

University of Maine students are very proud of their basketball team which has been featured in two issues of the Sports Illustrated. The team firmly established its reputation by defeating finalist, Rhode Island, to win the annual New England Down East Classics held in Bangor.

PLEGDED: Suzanne Anderson, Bangor; Theresa Y. Curran, Auburn; Sharon Estey, Caribou; Jewell Flint, Eleanor Main, Joyce Ring, Bath; Maxine Forster, Dedham, Mass.; Barbara Hingson, Longmeadow, Mass.; Elsa Ilvonen, Owls Head; Jean M. Littlefield, Albion; Lynette Lloyd-Davis, Ogunquit; Cynthia Proctor, Falmouth; Anna M. Roberts, Brewer; Katherine Sturgis, New Gloucester; Susan Ward, Upper Montclair, N.J.

*NOVA SCOTIA ALPHA—DALHOUSIE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1934. Pledge Day, January 29, 1961. INITIATED, November 5, 1960: Joan Cannell, Beth Creighton, Joan Smith, Halifax.

After initiation, a banquet was held in honor of the new members at the home of the president, Naomi Smith.

On October 19-21, Nova Scotia A welcomed Mrs. Stewart Tuft, the National Director of Membership, and she was the guest of honor at an evening party.

Fall rushing was held during the week of October 22-29. An informal coke party was held at the fraternity apartment and the theme party was held at the home of Evelyn Crowell. The theme was Indian, and rushes were given gay felt headbands as favors. Lunch consisted of baked beans, corn muffins, pumpkin tarts and "kikka-poo" joy juice. Bow-pinning was held on October 29, and pledging on October 30, followed by a cooky-shine and a sing-song.

Pi Beta Phis of Dalhousie are understanding to help run the Dalhousie Skating Rink canteen, and this has become an annual project.

Several members played field hockey this year for Dalhousie, among them: Eve Smith, Joyce Smith, Helen Horne, Joan and Jean Hattie, Sally Ross. Sheila Mason was the manager, and the Varsity team won the Intercollegiate title. The Dalhousie Varsity tennis team also won the Intercollegiate title and Sheila Mason was a member of this team.

Cheerleaders this year are: Dixie Dennis, Joyce Smith, Carol Quigley and Stephanie Derbyshire.

The Pi Beta Phi pledges entertained the A Γ Δ pledges at tea in November, and began to knit wine and blue scarves.

On January 3, Joan Smith entertained the Pi Beta Phis at a coffee party, which was held in her home.

Plans are being finalized for the annual formal which will be held on February 8 at Ashburn Golf and Country Club. Don Warner's orchestra will be in attendance and the theme will be "Mardi Gras."

The actives will entertain the alumnae at a coffee party during January and they also plan to entertain A Γ Δ.

PLEGDED, October 30, 1960: Carolyn Caldwell, Dixie Dennis, Nancy Grant, Jean Hattie, Joan Hattie, Marilyn Hayman, Ann Leach, Jan Martell, Barbara Reardon, Joyce Smith, Marcia Smith, Joan Stewart, Halifax.

SHEILA MASON

VERMONT ALPHA—MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE. Chartered, 1893. Pledge Day, February 19, 1961. INITIATED, January 9, 1961: Kerry J. Reilly, Jamaica Plain, Mass.

In October, before the national elections had taken place, Vermont A was hostess to Θ X for a rousing political discussion, which was heavily loaded on the Republican side in true Vermont tradition. Later that month, came the annual Pi Beta Phi-K K Γ debate, which was judged by a board of independent women in favor of Pi Beta Phi. The Community Chest Fair was held in October, and Pi Beta Phi co-sponsored a booth with X Ψ, which cleared a substantial profit for charity and also in fun-for-all. Just before vacation, Vermont A visited Θ X for a Christmas party in honor of the town children, complete with Santa Claus.

The Middlebury Inn was the scene of the annual Pi Beta Phi-K K Γ dance, which is the biggest social project sponsored by the two groups. Dancing began in the afternoon, followed by a delicious dinner and of course, lots of fun. It is the last time we all can get together before Rush begins, and is always thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Middlebury is in a turmoil of preparation for Winter Carnival, which starts on February 23, followed closely by the National Skiing Championships in March. The Carnival is the only one of its kind being run completely by students, and work on it begins early in the fall by numerous committees.

CONSTANCE T. MORGAN

**VERMONT BETA—UNIVERSITY OF VERMONT. Chartered, November 24, 1898. Pledge Day, February 12, 1961. INITIATED, October 29, 1960: Suerae Fisk, Natick, Mass.; Martha Russell, Rutland.

On the weekend of October 14, Vermont B had the pleasure of welcoming Mrs. Stewart Tuft, Director of Membership. A tea was held in her honor, giving everyone an opportunity to meet her and discuss Fraternity activities. Mrs. Tuft's visit was most interesting and beneficial to the chapter.

Homecoming provided much excitement for the Pi Beta Phis. The chapter's poster, a sleigh driven by huskies and bearing the slogan "Reining Cats," earned a first place trophy.

The annual Military Ball was held in November and Ann Van Gilder, a junior, was chosen queen.

In October, an Arrowcraft sale was held, giving members an opportunity to see the crafts that have been made.

To celebrate Christmas, the chapter sang carols to nearby homes for the aged and retired. The caroling was followed by a party at the chapter house with traditional Christmas stories. Mrs. Shepard, the head resident of the chapter house, provided refreshments as a Christmas gift to the members.

Many additions are being made to Vermont's campus. Presently under construction are dormitories for men students, dormitories for women students, a campus library, and a new home management house for the home economics department.

JOYCE ALEXANDER

*MASSACHUSETTS ALPHA—BOSTON UNIVERSITY. Chartered, March 17, 1896. Pledge Day, October 17, 1960. INITIATED, November 18, 1960: Allison Crane, Grimsby, P.O., Canada; Mary McEneaney, West Newton.

Several honors have come to members of Massachusetts A this fall. Penny King and Mariel Ferré were chosen to be cheerleaders representing Boston University at all varsity games this year. Sandra Shreiter was chosen as a candidate for Homecoming Queen, and was a member of the queen's court.

We were all thrilled to be honored by a visit from the National Director of Membership, Mrs. Tuft. She was with us from October 22 to 24. On October 23, we had a tea in her honor, and on Monday she spoke at our meeting.

Early in the fall Massachusetts A was invited to a mixer given for us by B & I at Massachusetts Institute of Technology. It was a wonderful evening, and turned out to be very successful.

Parents weekend found sorority girls waitressing at the banquet on Saturday evening. This was a Panhellenic project for the university, and Massachusetts A was well represented by Janet Wetherbee, Joan Fitzpatrick, Liz Stanton, and Debbie Kinsman.

The alumnae gave us a very nice program in November. There were slides on the Settlement School, as well as a display of crafts made in Gatlinburg. Refreshments were served, and Pi Beta Phi songs were sung.

We had had two wonderful programs this fall. The first was a Pi Phi Night program based on television's College Bowl. The contestants consisted of one person from each pledge class competing against each other. The questions were on Pi Beta Phi history, and other material from the Pledge Manual. The second was a panel of boys who are leaders on campus, and they discussed the following: random dating, going steady, pinning, and engagement. Everything went so well that no one wanted to go home when it was time to break up.

In December the chapter had a workshop one Sunday afternoon to start working on material for rush. Each member of the chapter was given some one thing that she was responsible for making over Christmas Vacation because formal rush is right at the beginning of second semester. Then for the last meeting before vacation the chapter had a Christmas buffet supper at Carlene Hintlian's home in Arlington. The Pi Phi Spirit for our chapter has little gifts for everyone, and other gifts were exchanged.

PLEGGED October 17, 1960: Elizabeth Stanton, Flushing, N.Y.; Carol Sisson, Bristol, R.I.; Debby Kinsman, Fairfield, Conn.; Martha Best, Larchmont, N.Y.

Connecticut A enjoyed the two day stay of Mrs. Stewart Tuft, Director of Membership, and a coffee was held in her honor.

Marilyn Quinlan, an affiliate from West Virginia A, was elected secretary of the junior class. Linda Sherburne was one of six University of Connecticut coeds to receive a four year "March of Dimes" scholarship which is awarded to those planning careers in the health field. Dianna Grimm, Harriet Morgan, and Marilyn Walker were named to K & I, national honorary education society.

Pi Beta Phi contributed a Homecoming display consisting of a tobacco pouch and a large, smoking pipe resting on a circular piperack, and bearing the slogan: "Pipe Down Maine, You're Going Up In Smoke." Following the Homecoming game, a coffee was held for the chapter alumnae.

Elaine Perkins was chairman of the annual Dad's Day event, and a dinner was held at the chapter house for those parents who attended.

Virginia Rose and Jean Young were chosen as sponsors to Angel Flight, the national women's service branch of Air Force R.O.T.C. Carol Wilson was one of five finalists in the contest for "Pershing Rifles" queen.

The chapter enjoyed the traditional "peanut" party which was held before Christmas recess, and which was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Andre Schenker, the patron and patroness of Connecticut A.

PLEGGED, October 11, 1960: Katherine Farris, Windsor; Lynn Harding, Naugatuck; Barbara Kuryan, Storrs; Elizabeth Regan, Manchester; Linda Sherburne, New London, N.H.; Brenda Zeiner, Roberta Roman, Terryville.

The chapter was extremely fortunate to have made the acquaintance and friendship of such a lovely woman. The chapter also entertained the Dean and Assistant Dean of Women at 2 dinners.

Colgate Weekend saw Joyce Hergenhan as a chairman of the big dance, and the chapter contributed a giant poster in the poster contest. The chapter entertained guests after the Colgate game at an open house, as had been done for parents' weekend.

December was a busy month as the chapter decorated the house for the annual Xmas formal, the alum-active Xmas party, and the house holiday party. A T O entertained Pi Beta Phi at a coffee early in the month, and an exchange dinner was held with the other sororities on the Hill. The new sorority on campus, E T T, was honored at a buffet supper at the house.

\*\*OHIO DELTA—OHIO WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY. Chartered, October 3, 1925. Pledge Day, September 26, 1960. Beginning a new project always creates much excitement, anticipation, and enthusiasm. Ohio  $\Delta$  realized this when they first decided to "adopt" a needy family of nine who are struggling to stay together after the death of the father. For Thanksgiving each Pi Beta Phi contributed a few donations of her favorite canned foods, cereals, or potatoes, and the senior girls bought our family a large canned ham. At Christmas Pi Beta Phi decided to have a candy selling campaign to raise enough money to play Santa Claus for the eight children and the mother. The new gifts and other donations were gratefully received by the family.

Besides working on the new project which we hope to continue throughout the next few years, Pi Beta Phi has also been working in other areas. Pat Martin was elected the chairman of the Association of Women Students (AWS) Standards Committee, and Jeanie Shepherd was elected secretary of AWS. Ann Foster, a pledge, has been selected as a member of Dolphins, the synchronized swimming organization.

Homecoming this year was particularly exciting for Ohio  $\Delta$  because Nancy Hariff was on the Homecoming Court.

The pledge show in November was an excellent beginning for the exciting week when big and little sisters met for the first time for the traditional breakfast. Soon after, the pledges held a Christmas party for their big sisters, complete with beautiful corsages, gay singing, and delicious refreshments.

After a very active semester, the Ohio  $\Delta$  is looking forward to continuing its projects and activities next semester. Sue Schumaker, a junior, will not be with us next semester because she is traveling to Vienna for a semester's study abroad.

\*\*MICHIGAN DELTA—ALBION COLLEGE. Chartered, March 7, 1959. The year has been a busy one at Albion College. Homecoming festivities started the school year off with a bang. The theme for the parade was myths and legends and Michigan  $\Delta$  did well with its entry, "Cyclops."

One of the most exciting events of the semester was Greek Week. The festivities began with open houses at the various sorority and fraternity houses. One of the nights, the Deltas held a pancake supper which was followed by a dance at the A T O and  $\Sigma N$  houses. Michigan  $\Delta$  won a little fame by taking second place in the greased pig chase. The highlight of the week was the appearance of Stan Kenton and his band.

Many other famous names have also appeared on our campus. Among them are Carlos Montoya and Sinclair Weeks.

The pledge formal, held with Z T A was a success. Barbara Blomgren did a marvelous job in planning and making the arrangements for the dance.

The Christmas season brought much activity to the campus. The oratorio, "L'Enfance du Christ," by Berlioz, was very well received. Also, the Albion College Choral Society and Choir presented "The Messiah." Singing in this concert were Donalyn McKinsey, Karin Kesler, Nancy Lenz, Betty Murray, Marcia Tjossem, Marty Stiff, and Katy Young.

"Saturama" sponsored by the faculty was a special treat for all. This consisted of a group of simultaneous discussion periods led by faculty members followed by an all-campus dance. This is a "first" on Albion's campus and it is hoped that "Saturama" will be continued.

The IFC Ball held this week was a huge success. Linda Decker was Pi Beta Phi candidate for Greek Goddess.

One of the main events of the future will be the annual Song Fest for all sorority women. Michigan  $\Delta$  is now busily preparing for the contest.

Pi Beta Phi and  $\Sigma$  A E united to support a winning Bachelor of the Year candidate on the same week-end. Diane Luzar, house chairman, and Carol Roehm, steering committee member, worked especially hard for the event.

Dad's Day weekend was enjoyed as much by the fathers as the girls. They saw a football game and ate dinner together with their daughters at the Nashville House. Then everyone attended the Pop Concert with Johnathan Winters, after which there was a cooky-shine and skit. Sunday dinner was served in the house and a tired group of fathers returned home.

Karen Grimsley, second runner-up in the Miss Chicago contest, was one of the five finalists in the Arbutus Queen contest. It selects the Queen of Queens in an all campus vote.

Indiana B is very proud of Jan Coffey, who was the recipient of the Ford Foundation Scholarship.

Pi Beta Phi was honored to have Julie Mills, Cindy Peasley, Ann Klock, Jan Coffey, Kay Kriegbaum, Bev McIntosh, and Bev Mead selected for Little 500 Steering Committee. They will help plan and direct Little 500 this spring. Cindy Peasley was also appointed co-chairman of Chimes of Christmas, a program for the entire campus and community.

This fall every house officer compiled a procedure notebook to explain the goals, duties, and specific work her office entailed along with personal comments. This project should prove beneficial to incoming officers and expedite the work to be done.

**INDIANA EPSILON—DEPAUW UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1942. Pledge Day, September 22, 1960. INITIATED, October 9, 1960; Dian Alfrey, Syracuse.

Pi Beta Phi has been busy for the past several months.

The alumnae who came back for "Old Gold Day" and the active chapter were proud to see Phyllis Osborn on the DePauw Homecoming Court. Though the house decorations for that weekend did not win first place, the sophomore class showed their unity and enthusiasm by the display on the front lawn—"Murder in Blackstock Cathedral." Continuing through October and November, the chapter royally honored their fathers on Dad's Day Weekend and their pledge class at the "Arrow Avenue" 1960 pledge dance.

Dramatics has been an important phase in campus activities for this chapter. Phyllis Osborn, speech major, had the lead in the presentation of "Separate Tables." Taking part in the drama "Murder in the Cathedral," presented during the campus Religious Evaluation Week, were Marilyn Wehrman, Kathy Jones, Becky Zabel, and Mary Jane Heady. "The Monon Review," a student written and directed production, also has members of Indiana E in it. Tricia Myers has the leading role. Included in the cast are Ginny Nelson, Sallie Reid, Sally Smith, Betty Sue Garner, Nancy Markham, Marty Forester, and two pledges, Pam Fuller and Steve Smith.

Indiana E was excited when Betty Sue Garner was crowned Sweetheart of  $\Sigma$  X, and Lynnette Orwig was crowned  $\Sigma$  A E Sweetheart.

The Christmas season found the chapter busy with activity. The house and tree were decorated at a party with  $\Delta$  K E,  $\Delta$  T  $\Delta$  and Pi Beta Phi went caroling one evening through the snow and cold of Greencastle, afterwards being warmed by the fire with cookies and cocoa. The annual party for Greencastle children was held with  $\Sigma$  X at their house. "Mom" Dietz gave an after-hours surprise "spread" to the chapter complete with homemade breads and cookies. Greencastle Pi Beta Phi alumnae and their families shared Christmas dinner with the chapter.

Indiana Z was quite happy this fall when the girls were awarded second place in the sorority division of float competition during the annual Homecoming activities. We all were quite proud since this was the first time that we had received such an honor since Pi Beta Phi came to Ball State.

At the present time we are all involved in rush activities. We had a delayed rush system this year which did not begin until after we had returned from the recess after fall quarter. We now have one more rush party, and then pledging will be here again. In the coming month we will be working with the men of  $\Sigma$  T  $\Gamma$  with whom we sponsor an annual "Playboy Penthouse."

The month of February will find all of us working hard to present an act in the K  $\Sigma$  K Variety Show.

Three members of Pi Beta Phi were chosen for Who's Who. They were Judie (Meuninck) Eichorst, Ruth Neel, and Joene Wagner.

KENTUCKY ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF LOUISVILLE. Chartered, October 9, 1925. Pledge Date: September 21, 1960.

Kentucky A enjoyed a busy whirl of activities this fall. To start the year off Sandra Smith, Karen Berg, and Peggy Morgan were elected cheerleaders, with Sandra serving as captain of the squad. We gained more representation in the AFROTC when Betty Christian, Mary Clay, and Madelyn Kast were chosen as members of the Angel Flight, the AFROTC Corps of Sponsors.

The frenzy of Homecoming activities was fast upon us and during this time we enjoyed a visit from our National Director of Programs, Mrs. Stanley Kyle. Joy Middleton was elected by the student body to the Homecoming Court. More excitement and honors came our way when we learned that Phyllis Bader, Linda Kambach, and Caroline Roulston were elected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Sally Baker was elected treasurer of the class of 1961.

Soon after Homecoming we held our Annual Open House for the entire campus. Music was provided by a folk string combo and everyone participated in singing folk songs and in dancing. We were co-host with  $\Sigma$   $\Omega$  at a Sock Hop given during the Thanksgiving Holidays.

The annual Thoroughbred Dance offered Kentucky A more honors when for the second consecutive year John Robert Powers chose a Kentucky A as Miss Thoroughbred. This year's proud beauty was Connie Carter. The Thoroughbred is the university yearbook. Joy Middleton was recently honored by being chosen the K A Rose for Kappa Alpha chapters in all of Kentucky and Indiana.

The annual Thanksgiving Dinner was a wonderful success and our dates enjoyed a delicious meal prepared by the Mothers' Club. We also entertained our faculty advisor and his family at this function.

The Christmas holidays were looked forward to with much anticipation. Our service project this year was giving individual boxes of toys, gifts, candy and fruit to underprivileged children of the second grade in one of the Louisville schools. The children were delighted beyond words and the experience was one of the highlights of our Christmas season.

To close the year, Kentucky A held its annual Winter formal on December 30. A local Dixieland Jazz group entertained for the evening and was the spotlight of the night's activities. A pre-dance Open House was held by Meredith Swann, and after the dance Cynthia Wade entertained at her home with a breakfast for Kentucky A and their dates.

We are now conscientiously studying for final examinations which will be upon us in three weeks, and are looking forward to celebrating Founders' Day on January 9.

*TENNESSEE ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF CHATTANOOGA. Chartered, 1923. Pledge Day, September 21, 1960. Tennessee A is proud of its 1960-61 record already. In October activities and pledges put a week of fun-filled work into the Homecoming display, and were rewarded by winning first prize for the eighteen-foot tall model of Confucius with its theme, "Confucius says, 'Blue Raiders don't rate, chop suey their fate.'" More of the same spirit was put into the annual volleyball tourney, giving Pi Beta Phi the title of Women's Intramural Volleyball champions.

In mid-October the members of Tennessee A took their annual weekend jaunt to Gatlinburg, to show Settlement School to the new pledges. Soon after this trip the chapter was visited by Mrs. Evelyn Peters Kyle, National Director of Programs, who was honored at a tea attended by members of the faculty and officers of the Greek organizations. The Chattanooga pledges, actives, and alumnae enjoyed meeting this lovely member of Grand Council very much.

Also in the fall the alumnae honored the pledges with a successful all-Greek party, while in December the actives were special guests at an "Ice Follies Party" given by the pledges. At Thanksgiving Tennessee A gave its annual party for the orphans of the Chambliss Detention Home, providing the children with an afternoon of gifts, games, and refreshments. Preceding the Christmas holidays the big and little sisters exchanged gifts at the annual chapter Christmas party.

In November the actives were given opportunity to meet the mothers of the new pledges at the lovely Mother-Daughter Tea given by the Mothers' Club.

The Vanderbilt College Bowl team brought honor to the university with the winning of four consecutive competitions. Additional honor has come to Vandy through the nationally recognized basketball team. ALABAMA BETA—UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA. Chartered, September 19, 1949. Pledge Day, September 11, 1960. The semester is quickly drawing to a close for Alabama B and we find ourselves studying a little harder than usual for finals. We are looking forward to the initiation of our wonderful pledge class soon after final exams.

Alabama B has taken an active part in intramurals this past semester and all of our girls have had a busy schedule participating in various and sundry campus organizations.

Our pledges were entertained by ten fraternities on pledge swaps during the past months. These fraternities included: A T O,  $\Phi \Gamma \Delta$ ,  $\Phi \Delta \Theta$ , K A,  $\Delta K E$ ,  $\Sigma X$ ,  $\Sigma A E$ ,  $\Delta T \Delta$ ,  $\Delta X$ ,  $\Pi K A$ . Now we are planning to return their kindness by having coffees for them in the Spring.

Alabama B also entertained the pledges with a Pledge Banquet November 17 at the Tuscaloosa Country Club. The guest speaker was Dr. Charles Perry, an instructor here on campus who gave a very inspiring talk on "What is a lady?"

Christmas time brought with it our annual Christmas dinner and party for all the members at the chapter. The Christmas spirit was truly in the air as songs were sung and gifts exchanged. The Dekes also helped us gain a little extra Christmas spirit by asking us to join with them in having a Christmas party for underprivileged children. Christmas was made a little brighter for eleven children by a visit from Santa Claus, gifts, cookies, milk, and candy.

Alabama B had its share of beauties this past semester. DeeDee McFadden was chosen one of the top nine Corolla (yearbook) beauties in a campus wide election. Carol Thompson was Bama Belle in the C-W (newspaper) and we're all very proud of our alternate A X A Crescent Girl, Carol Cowan.

Mrs. Conley's visit in November was extremely delightful and every one enjoyed having her here with us.

*IOWA GAMMA—IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1877. Pledge Day, September 6, 1960. INITIATED, November 28, 1960: Judy Morgan, Sioux City; Memi Rodriguez, Hato Rey, Puerto Rico.

Iowa  $\Gamma$  worked hard to make Iowa State's 1960 Homecoming a success. Sally Blanchard and Florence Fuller held positions on Homecoming Central Committee. Judy Healy was selected by the student body as one of the two Homecoming Queen attendants. And to top off the wonderful weekend, our display won first place in the sorority division.

The last weekend of October, Iowa  $\Gamma$  held a casual "fireside" party, complete with jack o' lanterns, soft music and plenty of good sandwich makings.

We've all decided that Iowa  $\Gamma$  has the best bunch of waiters anyone could ask for. During a week when our cook was called out of town, the four of them got up before 6 A.M., each morning to prepare breakfast for forty girls. One morning they even prepared crepe suzettes!

At the end of fall quarter Iowa  $\Gamma$  was honored with a visit by Mrs. Wild, National Panhellenic Delegate. During conferences with the officers, she gave us many useful ideas and helpful advice.

Our annual Christmas party was a big success again this year. We all sat around our big tree opening Christmas presents passed out by Santa (a padded waiter), and eating Mother Don's good cookies and fudge.

The Pi Beta Phi on campus have received many honors this fall. Ann Ward was tapped for  $\Gamma \Gamma$ , Greek Honorary. Chosen as members of  $\Sigma \Lambda \Pi$ , music honorary, are Sally Blanchard and Florence Fuller.  $\Phi \tau \Theta$  chose Sally Blanchard, Carolyn Kirk, and Marcena Christian. The "artists" of the house, Jean Bachman, and Ann Wheeler were tapped for  $\Delta \Phi \Delta$ .

Looking ahead, Iowa  $\Gamma$  is excited over the approaching Monmouth Duo, to be held at the Des Moines Country Club with  $K \kappa \Gamma$ . Also, rehearsals are in progress for a comedy skit which has been chosen for the annual Varieties.

MARGARET PARK

**TEXAS ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS. Chartered, February 2, 1902. Pledge Day, September 11, 1960. Texas A has enjoyed an exciting and rewarding fall. Mrs. Virginia Voorhees Speaker, Grand Secretary, visited the chapter in November. The alumnae, active, and pledges all welcomed her visit. The fall retreat was held at Greenshores where the chapter discussed the new Panhellenic rule to eliminate summer rush at the University of Texas. The Pi Beta Phi won honorable mention in the Aggie Sign Contest for the Thanksgiving game with their "Positive Pilgrim." Pi Beta Phi also received honorable mention in Sing Song, sponsored by Panhellenic and Interfraternity Council. They sang "In the Still of the Night." ANN CHILES

TEXAS BETA—SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1916. Pledge Day, September 10, 1960. National politics played a big role in Texas B land. Taking temporary precedence over campus politics and conversation, the pertinent presidential campaigns gave cause for the appearance of Republican keynote speaker, Mr. Walter Judd. The Young Republicans and Young Democrats of Dallas put on a political debate four days before the election. Campaigning on the Humor ticket, Bob Hope reappeared at SMU, this time accompanied by the Brothers Four. Karen Castleberry was appointed to Bob's Beauty Cabinet.

The chapter was so thrilled to have Mrs. J. F. Speaker as visiting national officer. Her visit coincided with Halloween festivities, and the house seemed to radiate with her warm friendship and deep love for Pi Beta Phi. Homecoming activities were stirring in the air at this time; and Janey Goff and the Do-Re-Mis (five Pi Beta Phi actives) were preparing their "Sound of Music" skit for the Piskin Revue, and amateur talent show for Homecoming weekend.

Busy Pi Beta Phi are listed as Carole Wikle, treasurer of a freshman dorm; Marianna Haberle, secretary of an upperclass dorm; Carolyn Fulghum, junior class treasurer; Jo Clair Jones, setting precedence as the first queen of Esquire Week for the law students; Liz Hamilton, SMU royalty; and Linda Rendleman,  $\Lambda$  T  $\Omega$  pledge sweetheart.

In the early morning hours of Thanksgiving Day, a great clamor aroused the sleeping house girls. A rather alarmed Tom Turkey found himself nervously padding up and down the second-floor hall. This was Happy Thanksgiving to the equally alarmed actives, from the pledges. And a fat one he was. . . .

Soon then, Santa Claus brought more surprise goodies to Texas B: Bette Barcus was named president of the Student Center, Carolyn Fulghum became chairman of the Dance Committee, and Buffy Graham was appointed chairman of the Fine Arts Committee. The pledges of  $\Lambda$  X A chose Ann Williams as their sweetheart; and the SMU yearbook chose Sue Knickerbocker and Margaret Rose Miller as Rotunda Favorites. Then one day, the chapter dressed in red and white fur to bring Christmas love to Dallas orphans; and "on the first day of Christmas, Secret Santa brought to me, a Christmas tree . . ." as every Texas B Secret Santa spread joy and fun throughout the house.

Times flies away and beyond as the chapter realizes the Christmas spirit. Upon immediate return to school, minds settle down to the serious business of a new administration which in turn will prepare all minds for the impending examination.

**NEW MEXICO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO. Chartered, September 11, 1946. Pledge Day, September 15, 1960. A new patio has been the center of activities for New Mexico A during the warmer months of the school term. Open houses with neighboring fraternities have featured dancing under the stars to an impromptu band composed of members of the fraternities. Cold weather made it necessary to retreat indoors for a while, but the chapter is now collecting savings stamps for patio furniture to use in the spring.

The highlight of the Christmas season was a party for the boys of St. Anthony's Orphanage. The Spanish tradition of breaking piñatas proved to be a special hit with the children. An evening of games, carol singing, and refreshments was topped off by an exciting visit from Santa Claus who distributed gifts to each child.

Homecoming at the University of New Mexico brought a great deal of work to members of New Mexico A. Diane Blair served as co-chairman and Jean Naughton as secretary of the Homecoming committee, and working under them were Jeannie McGillan, Sandra Abraham, Carol Stapp, Janet White, Sandra Taulbee, Janet Mooney, Jean Huff, Pat Hamilton, Marian Metzger, Pat Webber, Eileen Hawley, Susan Fietsch, and Judy Schillen. Colorado B was especially proud when the pledge class displayed their enthusiasm by winning the over-all trophy at the Σ X Rodeo.

The next event was the dance given by the pledges for the active members. A large ice carving of the greek letters of Pi Beta Phi, icicles, and red paper flames helped to carry out the theme "Fire and Ice" for a very successful pledge dance.

As Colorado B looks back on a quarter of exciting events, highlighting this year's activities was a combined dance with Colorado A and Colorado Γ. This event is one which is hoped to become traditional.

Pi Beta Phi is still making news in campus activities. Judy Schoonover was homecoming queen attendant. Linda Jean Dudley is a finalist for Winter Carnival Queen. ## OMICRON PROVINCE

*WASHINGTON ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON. Chartered, January, 1907. Pledge Day, September 21, 1960. INITIATED, October 13, 1960: Judy Dennis, Puyallup; Ann Clark, Longview; Tammy Dix, Spokane.

Washington A has already accumulated many honors since the beginning of the school year.

Of the two queen contests held fall quarter, Nancy Keeler was crowned Timber Queen and Tesse Skach placed as first runner-up in the Mistletoe Queen contest. Kristin Johnson is our candidate for Sweetheart of  $\Sigma X$ , yet to be judged.

Kenly Williams, a Pi Beta Phi transfer student on campus, reigned as Homecoming Queen. She is also noted for her outstanding talent as majorette of the university's marching band.

A new ASUW organization called "Husky Honesty" was formed fall quarter. As the official hostesses of the university, these girls greet visiting dignitaries and football teams, including our victorious Rose Bowl team! Nine girls from our chapter were chosen to be hostesses: Sandp Law, secretary of the organization, Maryhelen Fishburne, Marilyn Marschante, Nancy Peterson, Kristin Johnson, Joyce Parsons, Mary Ellen Copner, Karen Oberg, and Sally Hovee.

Sandy Gauntlett, Penny Smith, and Kristin Johnson were tapped for Air Force Angel Wings. Those selected to be on the ASUW Fashion Board are Evelyn Hamilton and Carol Fewell. Nancy Keeler, Tammy Dix, Kay Buckley, and Maryhelen Fishburne sing in the glee club which, with a membership of eighty, is now recognized as a major university activity.

Scholastic honors were received too, by three of our seniors. Lynn Horsfield was tapped for the Journalism honorary,  $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$ . Karen Busch received a full-tuition scholarship from the American Association of Advertising Agencies, and Betsy McBride, Mortar Board president, now holds a pre-graduate assistantship in the English Department. This also meant receiving a cash award which is part of the Ford Foundation Program.

It was announced at the annual scholarship banquet that Harriet Buckman was chosen Outstanding Senior Woman on campus.

Tammy Dix is taking this quarter off to train for the next Winter Olympics and other international ski competition.

Our famous singing trio, consisting of three seniors, Kay Buckley, Kristie Johnson, and Ann Campbell, had the honor to sing for many of our chapter functions and banquets held on campus, such as the Education honorary,  $\Pi A \Theta$ . At present, they are waiting to hear from the State Department as to whether they will be one of six groups chosen to entertain service men abroad. They will sing with the "Saints" Dixie Land Band.

We are now looking forward to the campus elections and queen contests that are beginning to take place, and to keeping our scholarship high.

**WASHINGTON BETA—WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, July, 1912. Pledge Day, February 10, 1961. Looking over the first semester which is rapidly approaching an end, Washington B can once again feel the pride of accomplishment for the chapter.

On campus, Barbara Allen is serving capably as Panhellenic Rush Chairman, a big job with semester rush beginning soon. Marilyn J. Wolfe was selected for membership in  $\Phi K \Phi$ . Tapped for Senior Orchestra was Kathy Quinn, freshman, and Carol Lee, also a freshman, was tapped for Junior Orchestra, both modern dance honoraries on campus. Fish Fans, a synchronized swimming group, tapped Jill Amans, Kathy Quinn and Marlene Elduen to help put on water shows for Mothers' Weekend in the spring. Jennifer Knopf was elected one of the two Greek representatives to Freshman Executive Council. The Pharmacy awarded Nancy Van Der Hyde, a junior departmental major, a scholarship for next semester at a recent pharmacy mixer. Karen Kimsey is now the new Sweetheart of  $\Sigma X$ . Lynne Ellingson was chosen by the Speech department to go on a tour of Washington high schools between semesters to give readings and excerpts from plays with several other college students.

On the social side, as always, the time before Christmas was especially exciting, with caroling, decorating, dances and Christmas parties—as well as the several engagement announcements that always happen at that special time of year.

The pledge class held their beautifully decorated pledge dance, the theme being "An Old Fashioned Christmas," in a hall in town, with a "cocktail" party at the chapter house before the dance. To make money to rent the hall the pledges auctioned home-made cookies—a real treat!

The Pi Beta Phis also held the annual Christmas Date Fireside, inviting dates to the chapter house for an evening of dinner and dancing. Each of the girls brought a gift of a toy for her date, all of which were later given to the Children's Home in Lewiston, Idaho.

Miss Katherine Northrup, Dean of Women, was a recent dinner guest. She was given a tour through the chapter house to see the new decorations which she had heard so much about.

The Pi Beta Phis are gaining a great deal from the presence of the lovely exchange student, Hiltrude Haager. Recently Hiltrude planned and supervised the preparation of an entire Austrian dinner for the members, featuring all national Austrian dishes. The girls ate with relish, using the traditional European table manners! At the end, Hiltrude was presented with a telephone call to her home as a Christmas gift from the chapter.

Sad news dampened the exuberant after-Christmas-reunion when the members learned that one of the members, Kathy Quick, had been seriously injured in an automobile accident over the holidays, and would not be returning to school. The chapter is hoping that her convalescence isn't too long, and that she will be back on her feet soon.

ELLEN HOUGLAND

\*\*WASHINGTON GAMMA—UNIVERSITY OF PUGET SOUND. Chartered, September 9, 1948. Washington  $\Gamma$  was honored this fall by a visit from Omicron Province President, Mrs. Rita Duncan. This is the first time any of us had met her and we had a most enjoyable time getting to know her. She arrived November 6 and was guest of honor at a catered dinner.

In October,  $\Sigma X$  held their annual Derby Day, in which all the sororities participated. Pi Beta Phi and  $\Delta \Delta \Delta$  tied for first place and Pi Beta Phi won the Spirit Trophy. We all enjoyed participating in this event. The following weekend, the chapter won second place for its Homecoming decorations. The theme was Mardi Gras.

Two members have received honors this fall. Mary Brown was tapped for  $\Phi \Sigma$ , biology honorary, and Rosalie Curry was chosen a Little Sister of Minerva by  $\Sigma A E$ .

November 13, the annual Mothers' Tea was held. The girls look forward each year to this tea as it is often the only way the mothers meet the members.

Christmas was celebrated with many events this year. Our annual Christmas Dance, held with  $\Sigma X$ , was December 2. It was one of the loveliest dances the chapter has given, Christmas caroling was the main event at the first meeting after Thanksgiving vacation. All of the fraternities were visited and carols exchanged. Noon hours during the two weeks before vacation honored each sorority and the independent women on campus.

This year the chapter sent Christmas baskets containing food and toys to three families here in Tacoma. We closed the year with a Christmas party at which the big and little sisters exchanged presents.

Among other activities during the Christmas season was the Christmas house dance. The house was decorated in a Christmas theme and each girl made a stocking for her date and filled it with toys—it was a gala event!

*OREGON DELTA—PORTLAND STATE COLLEGE. Chartered December 3, 1960. Pledge Day, October 12, 1960. INITIATED, December 3, 1960: Lesley Pickering, Janine Mariels, Lola Andrews, Bonnie Bay, Jean Healy, Mary C. Hibbs, Judy Kay Holland, Barbara Lee Halen, Diane G. Kopta, Kathleen Maki, Annette Meredith, Helen Schrollier, Julie Ann Thompson, Alberta Van Beek, Portland; Cindy Dhein, Karen L. Fischer, Judith Ann Bergseng, Lake Oswego.

We make our debut as Pi Beta Phi's newest chapter!

Our excitement began in September when we were notified our petition had been granted. Quickly followed pledging, September 26th, of the 18 members of the local, X  $\Gamma$ , by Mrs. Tuft, Director of Membership, and then immediately we launched into rush week. Portland Pi Beta Phi alumnae and actives from the three other Oregon chapters gave us much help and the result was sixteen fine new pledges.

Our greatest expectations were realized with our installation December 2, 3, and 4. An inspiring weekend was highlighted by the participation of Mrs. Mansfield, Grand President, Mrs. Tuft, Director of Membership, and Mrs. Dunkin, Omicron Province President. The cordiality of the Portland alumnae and the almost two hundred letters and telegrams of welcome and congratulations from chapters and alumnae clubs made us feel that we were truly Pi Beta Phis.

There are now six national sororities at Portland State College. A  $\Phi$  became the first in 1959. Pi Beta Phi was second, followed closely by  $\Delta \Delta \Delta$ . Installations for A  $\Theta$  II, A X  $\Gamma$ , and A Z are scheduled for the near future and plans are underway for a Panhellenic house.

Pi Beta Phi joined with a local fraternity in building a Homecoming float which won first prize. Two members, Annette Meredith and Bonnie Bay, were among the five finalists on the Homecoming Court. Cindy Dhein and Annette were finalists for T K E Queen. Barbara Halen and Helen Schrollier are AWS officers and Barbara is also a sophomore class officer. Alberta Van Beek is treasurer of Inter-sorority Council.

In November Pi Beta Phi sponsored an all college dance, "Daisy's Drag," which was fun and financially successful as well. Since ours is an urban college, all get-togethers offer members the opportunity they so much want, to be together to become better acquainted, and the Christmas party given the actives by the pledges was fun for all, and a fine finish to fall term.

PLEGGED: Shirley Abbott, Bonnie Apperson, Brenda Bay, Karen Dawson, Judy Gross, Sidney Jones, Donna Lawrence, Marcia Nelson, Barbara Oake, Susan Oliver, Susan Ollershaw, Pamela Powell, Polla Prior, Dixie Stadel, Joyce Upham, Portland; Ila Mae Herland, Bend.

After nine weeks of school, Idaho A was honored by a visit from Mrs. Rita Dunkin, Omicron Province President. A demitasse was held in her honor.

PI PROVINCE

*CALIFORNIA BETA—UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT BERKELEY, CHARTERED, 1900. Pledge Day: September 17, 1960.

The recent fall semester has proved to be most rewarding for California. In November our chapter was accorded the privilege of a visit by Mrs. Dorothy Weaver Morgan, the Grand Vice-President. Her short stay was followed by the arrival of U.C.L.A. and Santa Barbara Pi Phi Sisters for the activities of All-Cal Week-end. Excitement continued to mount throughout the month and reached its peak during Big Game Week. For the second consecutive year, we joined forces with our backyard neighbors, the  $\Phi$  K  $\Sigma$ s, to put forth a prize-winning house decoration. The overall theme for decorations was "Oski Triumphs on the Silver Screen." Our first-place display depicted a medieval joust with the school mascot, Oski, seated atop a mechanized white charger, inviting spectators to "Come Lance (the Stanford Indian) With Me."

Honors continued in our direction during December, the most outstanding of which was winning the coveted Sweetheart of  $\Sigma$  X. Joanne Seefeld of Santa Barbara broke the runner-up precedent by capturing the crown over seven other finalists. Another surprise followed shortly thereafter, the acquisition of a new stereophonic phonograph for the television room by saving empty cigarette boxes. Additional recognition was brought to the chapter as several members were tapped for campus honor organizations. Barbara Bogue, Wendy MacMillan, and Judi Richards were selected for membership in Prytanian, the junior and senior women's group. Judi Richards was later chosen to join the ranks of California Club.

Christmas vacation intervened and while the house stood empty, interior decorators took over to make a few changes in the decor. The lanai, television, lovely, and Grim rooms were completely re-done much to the pleasure of everyone. Such renovation was the perfect incentive to studying for finals.

JUDI RICHARDS

*CALIFORNIA GAMMA—UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA, CHARTERED, July 27, 1917. Pledge Day, September 16, 1960.

Fall of 1960 has been an exciting and favorable one for California  $\Gamma$ . Mary Linda Woods was elected as secretary of the School Senate and seven sophomores were selected to the Class Council.

Kathy Scott brought honor to California  $\Gamma$  by reigning as S.C.'s Queen of Trojan Young Republications. Linda Chilton, Marilyn Boren, and Linda Petrie were chosen as members of the Welcoming Committee to greet visiting football teams during the season. The A T  $\Omega$ 's tapped Bonnie Keefer and Sharon Williamson as Little Sisters, and Janet Harryman and Nina Smith were selected as Little Sisters of  $\Delta$  X.

Two four-way exchanges kept Pi Beta Phi busy this spring and Pi Beta Phi and  $\Delta$   $\Sigma$  held an Open House for the Row which was a big success.

November was a very busy month for California  $\Gamma$ . During Homecoming Pi Beta Phi took many honors. Lynn Hunsucker and Barbara Stephens were members of the Homecoming Court and Pi Beta Phi and Fiji took a first place in the Troyland booth competition with their "Exotica" booth which featured a waterfall and Tahitian singers and dancers.

A visit from our Grand Vice President, Mrs. Dorothy Weaver Morgan, was another highlight of the fall semester. We all enjoyed meeting this fine woman who inspired us all.

The Christmas season was heralded by California  $\Gamma$  with our annual Father-Daughter Christmas dinner and party. All the girls made ties for their fathers which held a special significance for their dads. A party at the beautiful home of Marilyn Henry climaxed the pre-holiday celebrations.

SUZIE HUTCHINSON

**CALIFORNIA DELTA—UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT LOS ANGELES, CHARTERED, September, 1927. Pledge Day, December 4, 1960. AFFILIATED: Sue Streech, Illinois A.

Another semester has come quickly to an end as California  $\Delta$  finds itself in the throes of studying for finals while busily making plans for the spring term.

The entire chapter participated in a host of campus and social activities during the fall. Among these was the building of a float for the Homecoming parade with  $\Pi$  A  $\Phi$ . We were nicely rewarded for our many hours of labor when ours was chosen for "the most humorous" award.

We participated with  $\Phi$   $\Gamma$   $\Delta$  in coed intramural volleyball and a good time was had by all team members.

A. W. S. selected Barbara Wells for its October Woman of the Month, and Kathie Murphy was chosen for the month of December, the award being based on outstanding school service.

Many of our pledges are enthusiastic members of campus organizations. Judy Jensen is modeling for Collegiate Fashion Board and is also a  $\Delta$  T  $\Delta$  princess. Sara Voris is serving Student Legislative Council as an executive secretary while Anchors, the official hostesses for Navy ROTC, tapped Chris Jackson, Jill Parker, and Anne Heald for membership. A T  $\Omega$  invited Britt Anderson to become one of their little sisters.

Marilyn Girard was lovely as a  $\Sigma$  N White Rose Princess and Jeremy Armstrong reigned as princess of the Junior Prom, held at Disneyland this year. Phyllis Stribley is now a member of Trolls, women's spirit organization.

We are all anticipating Spring Sing this May, as we will be combining our voices with those of Z B T.

Our Dad's Night was especially fun because the chapter with their Dads moved to Royce Hall, after dinner at the Pi Beta Phi house, for an all-U program of entertainment featuring Danny Thomas. Our nominee for "Dad of the Year," Mr. L. K. Leishman, received an honorable mention.

Certainly the highlight of the semester was the visit in mid-November of Grand Vice-President, Mrs. Kent R. Morgan. She lent many helpful suggestions on how to generally improve our house organization and was a truly inspirational and refreshing person to have as our guest.

PLEGDED: Julie Day, Palos Verdes; Wally Sequeira, Brentwood; Janet Ziegler, Santa Monica.

George Solti, a native of Budapest, who is the new director of the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra.

Dr. Friedrich E. Waller, Austrian consul general for the Western United States, made the presentation of the insignia to Mrs. Chandler as the personal representative of the Austrian ambassador to the United States, Dr. Wilfried Platzer.

Presidential Decree

The presidential decree was accompanied by a congratulatory letter from the Austrian minister of education, Dr. Heinrich Drimmel. It said in part,

"By decree, the president of the federal republic has conferred on you the Gold Insignia of Honor for meritorious services to the Republic of Austria.

"You, Mrs. Chandler, have contributed outstandingly to the furtherance of Austrian-American cultural relations through your activities in the fields of music, education and art."

In presenting the award Dr. Waller commented,

"Mrs. Chandler has received national recognition and tonight receives international recognition . . . it is not surprising that Mrs. Chandler has this acclaim on the part of Austria, because music, in particular has played an important role in the history of Austria. Mrs. Chandler leads in establishing the stature of the role in California and the United States.

A Symbol

Mrs. Chandler is currently serving as president of the Southern California Symphony Association and chairman of the building committee of a Music Center among other posts. In accepting the honor she said:

"I am deeply grateful. But further than that, I feel that I am acting as a 'symbol' for an honor truly bestowed upon millions of women.

"They have given years of selfless work—countless hours in personal expression of their ideals and dedication. Without these millions of women within our country the cultural opportunities and advances for the music of artists of Austria and the music and artists of the United States would never have found such high and continuing areas of expression so mutually beneficial to both of our countries.

"Our nation's cultural world would have withered in fallow ground. On behalf of all these women I speak—we shall continue to thrust forward with dedication the highest standards in the arts and thus nurture the faith and souls of all mankind."
