A CORNER OF HOME . . .

Pi Phi houses across the land for many decades have provided a corner of home for countless young women as they sought education in colleges and universities. It is heartwarming to note that now those same Pi Phi houses are frequently providing an equal measure of warmth for students from other nations who are attending our institutions of higher learning through exchange programs.

Adria Marconi, talented Italian Fulbright scholar, is pictured on our cover with two people, symbols of the Pi Phi home—the devoted, interested housemother, in this instance Mrs. Mary Belle Wilson of the Colorado Alpha chapter and the Pi Phi friend, Sue Thompson—who found a special kinship with Adria because of her experience as an American exchange student that studied in Europe last year. They are seated before prints of familiar scenes from Adria's native land in the spot she called her "Italian Corner" in the Colorado Alpha Chapter house.

Adria's contribution to this year's Colorado Alpha History, "Impressions of Pi Beta Phi" appears in this issue of the ARROW. Her thoughts are well worth reading and remembering as we ponder our goals as fraternity women and consider the ideals that should guide us in living together in our Pi Phi homes.

A capable ARROW staff member submitted her resignation last winter. Ginny Kozak, Alumnae Letter Editor since 1956, lost her husband in the summer and found the duties of a teaching position and caring for her four children too demanding to allow her to continue. Ginny had done a splendid job in her capacity and had revised the manual for corresponding secretaries on contributions to the ARROW during her tenure. She was a great help to me when I took over this post and I know the membership will join me in a sincere word of appreciation for her gifts of self and service to Pi Beta Phi and the ARROW.

The new Alumnae Letter Editor is Maxine Ammons Smith, whom many will remember as the highly capable 1960 Convention Registration Chairman. Maxine's efficiency and ability are legendary among her friends and I feel most fortunate to have her as a co-worker.

Another staff member has performed all of her duties faithfully and efficiently in spite of difficulties which might have halted many. Adele Alford Heink, Chapter Letter Editor, underwent eye surgery for a cataract between her two deadlines of the spring and summer issues of this magazine. It is good to be able to report that the operation was successful and that she checked galley proofs for this issue with the aid of a new contact lens.

If I had a small gold replica of "Off the Arrow Hook" to give as an annual award to the chapter corresponding secretary or member who had been the most alert in sending material for our feature section, the winner of the award this year would be Nancy Reynolds of Washington Alpha, who set an individual record for contributions in my tenure. Nancy sent a story for each issue of Volume 79 of the ARROW. In lieu of the non-existent replica I commend Nancy to the membership of Pi Beta Phi for her interest in her chapter and her Fraternity's magazine and send her my warmest thanks.

Special mention should also go to Sue Sayre, Colorado Alpha corresponding secretary, for recognizing the value of Adria Marconi's article, "Impressions of Pi Beta Phi," and for her quick response to my request for additional information and pictures.

In our correspondence I learned that Adria is one of three children, the daughter of a corporate lawyer in Milan, Italy. Her primary school training included subjects ranging through religion and philosophy to law, physics and art history. An intensive emphasis on languages, which began in primary school has been continued in secondary schooling and college. She has studied American history and literature and psychology as well as French and German at the University of Colorado. She expects to continue her studies for three more years in France, England and Italy and hopes to become an interpreter in the field of international social relations.

The unique drawing that faces this page and which reminds us of the swift approach of our Pi Phi Centennial was done by Martha Nunn Ulbricht, Texas Alpha.

It remains for each of us to decide just what the Centennial Fund curtain will reveal when it has been raised on the Pi Beta Phi Centennial project. We are in truth "the angels" for this production and if we do not respond quickly and as generously as our means will allow, we will not provide a project that will do justice to the proud heritage of our Fraternity.

Today is the day to clip that "ticket" blank and send a gift to the Pi Phi Centennial Fund.

School is out or soon to be . . . club meetings are on the wane and summer's easier living bids an inviting welcome to many Pi Phis. However, none of us interested in our Fraternity's future should forget the duty that is ours in the realm of membership reference and sponsorship for prospective members. You will find a section in this magazine listing addresses of chapter membership chairmen and alumnae club recommendations chairmen. Properly used these lists can be invaluable in reducing confusion, in insuring proper consideration for fine young women and in cementing a stronger bond between the active and alumnae members of our organization.

From An Italian Impressions of

by Adria Marconi

Every year, Colorado Alpha of Pi Beta Phi sponsors one of the many foreign students who annually attend classes at the University of Colorado.

The foreign student for this year has been Adria Marconi of Milan, Italy. A dark-haired gamin, this eighteen-year-old Fulbright scholar has made each person's life more than a bit happier. A spontaneous enthusiasm and a genuine appreciation for American collegiate life have combined to make Adria one of the best-loved foreign students that Colorado Alpha has ever sponsored.

When asked to contribute to the chapter history, Adria wrote the following article. Her "Impressions of Pi Beta Phi" are sure to be as moving and meaningful to Pi Beta Phis everywhere as they are to each of the members of Colorado Alpha.

Sue Sayre, Corresponding Secretary
Colorado Alpha

All the time during my long journey from New York to Denver, and then to Boulder, I had been thinking about a strange place with a mysterious name—Pi Beta Phi. This was where I was to live during my academic year at the University of Colorado. I remember when the long detailed letter from New York had arrived at my house to announce that I had won a Fulbright Scholarship to the United States, and that I had also been kindly invited by a sorority house to spend the year there. From then on I began wondering, "What is a sorority?", "What people will I find there?", and "Will they be nice to me?" But very few of my questions received a satisfying answer until I finally arrived here, on September 6, a little frightened foreign student from Italy, completely ignorant of American customs and traditions, but ready to learn about them as soon as possible.

I'll never forget my arrival at the "Pi Phi house," as everyone calls this beautiful, huge, old-fashioned house that holds between its large walls more than eighty charming and wonderful young girls! I knocked at one of the entrance doors very timidly, expecting—(I must say some people had very well managed in making me believe in the existence of some exclusive, close-grouped associations called sororities and fraternities)—to see a crowd of sophisticated and cold-looking young women ready to criticize me and transform me into what they could call a "perfect Pi Phi."

But when the door was opened, all I saw was a big group of "sophisticated" but also very charming and beautiful girls with smiling faces, and their arms stretched towards me to welcome my arrival as heartily and kindly as ever. I was stunned; everything was so beautiful and unexpected that it looked like a wonderful dream. I suddenly felt at home in that big house full of carpets, flowers and paintings—(there is one special wall in the living room which I call my "Italian corner" because it is covered with pictures of my country)—and, most of all, warm friendship and love.

Fulbright Scholar

I then met the housemother, the sweetest, white-haired and elegant lady I have ever seen, and learned to call her "Mum" like everyone else. Where was the ugly old witch who would scare me to death whenever she opened her mouth? Once more I realized how prejudiced I had been and decided to forget everything I had been told before coming here! That proved successful, because during the six months I have been in the Pi Phi house every little event has been for me a source of new experience and fun—like watching a long, vivid and ever-changing picture in which everything is beautiful and has an importance of its own.

Little by little I have learned what a sorority is, or rather, means, because what really counts in the Pi Phi is the meaning of every action and every achievement—all their beautiful songs, the grace we say before dinner, the parties, the ceremonies, the feelings. Everything I've found here has meaning, affection, discipline, kindness, fun, friendship, community—this is Pi Phi.

It took me some time to discover that the house where I live is not just a boarding house where many individuals live together and have a good time during their school years. Now I know it is something more important and meaningful than that—the girls' devotion to their "golden arrow," their unity and affection towards each other, their kindness to me—this is something I had never experienced before, something difficult to describe because one has to be a Pi Phi to understand it.

I wish I were a regular student and able to become a pledge and then a real Pi Phi. It is a dream every girl should have and try to achieve. When I go back to Italy, I'll bring with me a little of all this, not only as a memory but also as a very vivid and concrete experience of American life.

There is a Pi Phi song I particularly like; it speaks of a long chain from one ocean to the other, and in that chain I see the best symbol of my American sisters and what they have done for me.

Walter Cronkite Speaking . . .

FOR THE FRATERNITY SYSTEM

I took a great deal more from my fraternity than I gave—but what I took was a very great deal—companionship of the highest possible order, self-confidence born of belonging to a group of which I was proud, enrichment of my personal life which gave all of my college career an added dimension and even an extra bond to seal life-long friendships than already existed. And my high school buddies who came to college with me after the experience of our fraternity were bound together much tighter than they ever could have been previously.

I found a certain guidance by example in gentlemanly conduct. They call it the social graces in a girls' school. But gentlemanly conduct I learned. I took off my yellow shoes and put on a tuxedo, I suppose you would say. I was introduced to girls, most of whom I couldn't afford. I count that as a blessing though. And in later years I have been provided with an introduction to some very, very pleasant people whom I might not have known if it hadn't been for my fraternity associations.

I think we all agree that fraternities cannot occupy the center of the stage at any university or college. They may not intrude upon the principle job of getting an education any more than a man after years can let his favorite sport, bowling or golf, interfere with getting his job done. I think our young do need guidance and the priority of things. I think this guidance, however, need not be hard to find. The older men in the undergraduate ranks in a fraternity certainly can provide it, and if they can't and if they need help themselves, certainly the counselors, the advisors to the chapter can provide it if they are doing their job. We must assume that what we are talking about is the ideal fraternity where people do the jobs that are assigned to them and that must be done. A fraternity can take a supplementary role in education which is disproportionate to anything that any other outside group can do on a college campus. It can take a most important role in this area. For the members of a fraternity there is guidance of a nature in the educational field (I am talking about the right fraternity, the well-run fraternity), that cannot be provided in any other sort of outside group or outside area.

I understand that in some places apartments have been provided in fraternity houses for faculty members and for distinguished visitors to lend a greater intellectual atmosphere to the fraternity house—men who can really add something to a good bull session. It seems to me that this is an admirable idea and a wonderful one to bring the educational atmosphere a little closer to home in a fraternity house.

A well-run fraternity house is a built-in tutoring system, as well. And tell me where else you can find that on a college campus, where every man who needs some help can get it from his brothers at the fraternity house.

I do feel that the fraternities should be a retreat, as well, from the daily routine, if this is to be home in our college years. It certainly can and must inspire and even prod the members on to greater intellectual achievement toward this goal of excellence. But it should not lose sight that companionship is really the base of the fraternity system.

We have grown, perhaps, a little overly serious in this drive to excel in the competition particularly with the Russians. We have almost let fun become a dirty word. I can't believe that at all. I can't believe that we can beat the Russians by imitating them. I can't believe that by being as stodgy and as dull as they are, by lacking a sense of humor, by keeping our nose to the grindstone until it comes out the back of our neck, we are going to really win this race for men's minds, as well as the race in scientific achievement.

It seems to me that we don't need a reason to exist as fraternities. I don't think we have to explain ourselves away. I don't think that we should be forced into becoming service organizations, do-good organizations, organizations with civic responsibility. I think it is wonderful that we can have projects that come from our heart, that we want to perform, that we see a need, that we see a hole to be filled, a gap where we can do something. I think it is marvelous, but we are not going to become service organizations as sort of a camouflage to avoid surveillance, nor are we going to let it be forced upon us from the outside by those who, I'm afraid, desire principally to see us not prosper as to see us

EDITOR'S NOTE: Walter Cronkite, a Chi Phi, spoke at the University of Texas recently to an Interfraternity workshop of representatives of all colleges in Texas which have fraternities, local clubs or groups seeking fraternity affiliations. Presented here are some of his observations on fraternity, sorority and college life.

Mr. Cronkite, now CBS anchor man on world events is one of this nation's best known television and radio news men. He is an ex-student of the University of Texas.

falter, and to somehow or other chop away at us like Khrushchev chopping away at his salami.

I do think that these outside enterprises have great value if they can be conducted in the manner I suggest. I think they have particular value, as a matter of fact, in the alumni association. My wife is a Delta Gamma. The Delta Gammas have done tremendous work, as you probably know, with the blind, and it has given her a continuing interest that has carried through all these years. She still does work with them on this project. I think the projects of that kind that can intrigue and enthrall the alumni, and give them a reason for meeting, other than just having lunch once a week, or once a month or something of the kind, or getting out of the house at night once a month. I think that this can be exceedingly valuable. It is a magnificent means of retaining alumni interest.

Getting back to this extra work, taking on projects, civic responsibilities, and so forth, I don't think too much should be demanded of the fraternity. I don't think that too much activity is perhaps a good idea.

It must not become so active in outside endeavor that the fraternity man is so busy with his own group that he has no time for the extracurricular activities in the University itself. Indeed, one of the great things that fraternities do on our campuses, it seems to me, is to push their members into outside activities, into participation in extracurricular activities on the campus. It would be a shame if we got so busy with our own little set that we didn't have time for that kind of outside activity.

Williams College charges that isolation of fraternities is inhumane to the persons excluded by nonmembership. They would solve this by the dormitory system. By golly, who says that dormitories are humane, for goodness sake. Rejection there of the individual in a dormitory can be as highly personal as anywhere, far worse than the mere exclusion of membership in a mass organization. The socially maladjusted, the misfit, there is given no opportunity at social adjustment, and no help at self-improvement. Certainly you can't say that about any fraternities that I know of. The help is there, from brothers, to every member of the fraternity.

It doesn't alarm me that there apparently is a growing number of those who think for themselves and who resist the pressures of social conformity, and who do not join fraternities. I think that is good for the fraternity system. I think it is good that growing numbers of independents on our campuses are independents by choice. It seems to me that it dilutes and perhaps destroys this whole charge of snobbery and social exclusion. It helps prevent the fraternity from becoming to an individual something that the fraternity is not. The fraternity lodge is not a shield behind which the weak man can hide. No man is going to be a better man simply because he wears a piece of jewelry. He is going to be a better man for the discipline of the organizational life and the enrichment of his experience that comes from fraternity life.

But let's also not write off the fraternity's role in this business of the making of a gentleman. I hope that there are no educators who decry the gentlemanly virtues, and yet I know of no other source for their inculcation during the college years than in the fraternity system. Who else on the campus today is one iota concerned with the social growth and the development of the individual in the so-called gentlemanly virtues? I don't know. The Dean of Student Life can do a great deal toward making this college and this University a more pleasant place in which to live and give it the right environment. But when it gets down to the individual problems, how can he deal with the thousands with whom he has to deal? The fraternity can deal with the few score with which it deals and it's going to. It is going to be quite sure that its men are gentlemen. Again, don't forget we are talking about the good fraternities.

To be a gentleman is certainly not in my book to be a snob. Snobbishness can have many manifestations, all of them exceedingly ugly. But one of them is not being discriminate in the choosing of one's friends. This is one of the last great bulwarks of the individual in this country of ours, with the population explosion, the pressures of our time, speed of our time, the haunt of the individual is getting fewer and fewer. Once I have chosen those I want as my friends, I then say that it is my right, an indisputable right, to choose those who we want to be friends with.

It is no one's business but ours. No one's. Father McNary, Professor of Philosophy at De Paul University, said at an interfraternity meeting that to belong to a fraternity or not to belong, prefer this to that, has nothing to do with a man's patriotism, his duty to mankind.

While there is still resistance, there is a growing body of opinion in this nation which believes that no man should be barred from wholly equal opportunities to an education, to job opportunities, to free movement, free residence, because of the color of skin, or the nature of the God to whom he prays. Wherever membership in an organization is necessary to the attainment of these rights, then membership should not be barred by anyone by reason of race or creed.

But the extension of this practice to purely social organizations is as much an infringement on the rights of the individual as are the denial of equal opportunities to members of the minorities. Whether a lodge accepts a man, seems to me, of another race or a creed is solely, solely only, the question of whether it wants that man to be a brother, to be in their company or not.

I applaud those who have the courage of their convictions to defy narrow prejudice and easy conformity to accept any man that they feel qualified in their organization. But, I also would defend to the very death their right to say that they don't want a man—and that on any grounds that they choose or wish—or on no grounds at all. If I choose purely in selecting my companions, and if I choose badly in selecting my companions, then certainly society will judge, but the choice is mine alone to make. I cannot believe that there is anything here that infringes upon the dignity of any individual whether he is chosen to be in my company or is rejected for whatever reason I may choose.

A Medical History of Pi Phi Friendship

A practical prognosis for fraternity affiliation is friendship that will be rewarding and pleasant, and three young Pi Phi professional women have found this to be an unusually sound assumption.

The three are Nancy Knutson France, Illinois Epsilon; Susan Anderson, Ohio Alpha; and Sandra Forbes, Indiana Delta, who met for the first time the first day of their freshman year as students at the Northwestern University Medical School, Chicago, Illinois, and who will graduate there June 15, 1963—three of four women in a class of one-hundred and thirty.

They describe that first meeting as one filled "with delight to learn that we were Pi Phi sisters" and in that moment the seed that had been planted through initiation in three different chapters of their fraternity bore new fruits of happiness for each. They have enjoyed a close friendship through the four years of their medical school training.

All three Pi Phis have served their class as secretary, each has a sound record of academic achievement, and Nancy has had two sons in that period.

Susan came to medical school from Ohio University where she was a Phi Beta Kappa, president of Mortar Board, active in student government, and winner of the ABO award. She has excelled academically in the Medical School class and has won several awards for scholarship and the highest accumulative average in the class. These include the "Frederick W. Rawson Scholarship" in her sophomore year, "The Roach Award" (a watch) in her junior year, and the "Phi Rho Sigma" award in her senior year. She was elected to Alpha Omega Alpha, the top national medical scholarship honorary in her junior year.

In July she will begin her straight medicine internship at the University Hospitals of Cleveland, Ohio, which are affiliated with the Western Reserve School of Medicine and plans to continue her residency in internal medicine at Western Reserve.

Sandra graduated from Purdue University where she was active in its Old Master's Committee and Gold Peppers and was a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Mortar Board. She has had an outstanding academic record in medical school that earned her membership in Alpha Omega Alpha in her senior year. She has also been active in the Student American Medical Association, serving two years as secretary-treasurer of the Northwestern chapter of the organization and also on the national group's committee of Medical Education.

Sandra will have a rotating internship at Chicago Wesley Memorial Hospital, which is affiliated with Northwestern University, and plans for a future that will include a residency in either neurology or internal medicine.

Nancy Knutson France is the daughter of a Pi Phi. Her mother is Betty Robley Knutson, Oregon Beta, who now lives in Wauwatosa, Wisconsin. While an undergraduate student at Northwestern, Nancy was on the Wildcat Council, a member of Senior Orchestis, and a dancer in the University Pom Pom Chorus. She married Thomas France in her senior year when he was a freshman medical student at Northwestern's Medical School. They have two sons born in September 1960 and 1962, who, she says, "are loads of fun and who give us a lot of practical pediatrics." This year Dr. Thomas France is interning at Chicago Wesley Memorial Hospital and his wife says, "I am very grateful to him for his patience and understanding that have enabled me to combine my two loves—medicine and marriage."

While majoring in marriage, motherhood, and medicine Nancy has also been a member and secretary of Northwestern's honorary service fraternity, Pi Kappa Epsilon. Her husband will be stationed in San Francisco this summer as a U. S. Navy medical lieutenant, and Nancy will take a straight pediatric internship at the University of California Medical Center in San Francisco. Her future plans include a residency in either radiology or anesthesiology with additional training in pediatrics which would lead to a specialty in either pediatric radiology or pediatric anesthesiology—and another phase of those future plans is the hope for a larger family.

There seems a strong possibility also—that the future plans of the three Pi Phi sisters will include an extension of their Pi Phi and professional friendship that has been such a pleasure for the past four years.

A Success Story—St. Louis Clubs' Carousel

by Peggy Woodlock Kerwin, Missouri B

The Junior and Senior Alumnae Clubs of St. Louis, Missouri, combine every other year to produce the Pi Phi Carousel—an event that has become so popular that many people seek out club members to buy tickets.

The Carousel is an out-door affair held one day only the first week in May at a park in the suburbs. It is a mammoth undertaking that enables the clubs to make substantial contributions to all projects in which they are interested and in addition provides healthy budgets for both clubs for two years. Members especially appreciate the fact that it eliminates to a great extent the tedious business of benefit bridges, book reviews or small bazaars.

The organization for the project has been perfected to an almost fool-proof point through the years and is set up under the first vice president of the senior club. She serves as general chairman. Equally important to the project is the work of the chairmen in charge of tickets, physical properties and publicity.

A separate fund is set up to finance the initial outlay of the various booths. Pi Phi alumnae are also selected to serve at various homes which are included in a house tour. The tour is offered along with admission to the Carousel for the one-dollar ticket.

The carousel atmosphere is achieved through the colorful decoration of booths with bobbing balloons and ribbon streamers and in the costumes of members, pale pink pinafores worn over pastel blouses and skirts.

Members work for months preceding the Carousel on the items that will be sold in the booths. These booths include—"Antiques"—hand-decorated old trunks and school desks; "Hats and Pets"—Italian straws trimmed by members and glamorous felt dog collars; "Trash and Treasure"—plow discs made into centerpieces, flower pots fashioned from bleach bottles and potted plant novelties; "Bakery"—home-made delicacies contributed by all 600 members; "Toys"—dress-up kits, villages to be assembled, stilts, train lamps for children's rooms; "Mystery"—a grab bag with gifts of guaranteed $2.00 value donated by members and sold for $1.00. A box lunch is catered and served by members of Missouri Beta Chapter of Pi Beta Phi from Washington University.

The net result of all this is a tremendous amount of togetherness for club members and generous gifts for the Settlement School, Emma Harper Turner and Holt House funds as well as for the Youth Counseling Service of St. Louis and the Junior Club's project that provides glasses, shoes and other extras for public school children.

Early arrivals at the Carousel get the best selection at a booth of handmade items.

News from Little Pigeon

Our Pi Phi Girl

by Marion Mueller, Settlement School Director

While attending the Summer Craft Workshop six years ago, Mrs. Walter Spelman (Ruth Schantz) accepted the position as housemother at Settlement School. Since then she has made a place for herself in both the school and the community, for, even though past retirement age, she is always ready to help.

Ruth's mother, Mrs. Orpheus Schantz (Carrie C. Flagler), was initiated into I. C. Sorosis in 1885; Ruth into Pi Phi at Northwestern in 1910. As a staff member at Settlement School (lovingly referred to by many Pi Phis as Little Pigeon) she wears the Little Pigeon guard with her Arrow.

One daughter, Mrs. Robert Kay (Constance Spelman), is a New York Alpha. Ruth's brother, Worth Schantz, had the honor of presenting the first American Flag to the school in 1913. Orpheus Schantz, Ruth's father, was a frequent visitor to Gatlinburg and Settlement School, conducting nature study tours from Chicago.

Ruth has stated that her work has been a challenging experience in all its many facets: the varied programs of the craft workshops in which she participated, the development of the Red Barn into a housing center for special groups, and, most satisfying, her work with the boys and girls in the dormitories. As she says, "To see a shy, retiring boy or girl develop into a capable leader in school or athletic activities, to help in a small way that development, to bear with each one through his or her trials, and finally to take each one to your heart as your own, what could be a more rewarding experience?"

Ruth has been most loyal and faithful and is, indeed, our Pi Phi girl.

Mrs. Spelman

Around the Corner of Fifty Years Service

The Pi Beta Phi Settlement School has completed fifty full years of dreams, endeavors, and realities, since the first one-room school was started in 1912 as a memorial to our Founders. There are now thirteen buildings, 77.8 acres, education for grades 1-12, a Summer Craft Workshop, various craft workshops throughout the year, economic independence for many local people through Arrowcraft, and a very excellent health program. This is a monument to Pi Phi's continuing effort to promote educational opportunities.

These achievements have been recognized not only by the Smithsonian Institution, which now has a permanent exhibit of handwoven articles from Arrowcraft, but also by the University of Tennessee, which through its College of Home Economics co-sponsors the Summer Craft Workshop with Pi Beta Phi. The 19th Craft Workshop will be held this year from June 10 to July 16, with an additional special workshop from July 18 to July 23. Courses may be taken for credit or non-credit, with college credits given through the University of Tennessee.

Although the high standing of this workshop is known in many remote parts of the world, very few Pi Phis have taken advantage of the opportunity of working with the fine craftsmen on the staff. Why not attend workshop this summer? At the same time

HELEN RAYBURN CASWELL, Jesus, My Son, John Knox Press, 48 pp.

With tenderness and sensitivity Helen Caswell has retold in poetry the world's most famous story, the biography of Jesus. By telling it through the eyes and in the words of Mary, His mother, however, she has given it a new focus.

The reader can identify in sympathy and understanding with a woman who, in preference to a cup that once held wine representing blood and sacrifice, chooses to hold and caress the earthen cup from which her son drank cold water as a small boy.

She says to John, "The other cup's the world's, my dear—my memories are in this small one here."

There's great appeal in the humanizing of a story dressed too often in the rich trappings of the ages.

Mrs. Caswell's talent extends to illustration with the result that the poem is graced with appropriate woodcuts.

AUTHOR INTEREST: HELEN RAYBURN (Mrs. Dwight) CASWELL, Oregon Alpha, is a professional artist, who specializes in portraiture, but also designed and produced a seven-foot mosaic cross for her Presbyterian Church in Saratoga, California, where she lives with her husband, a research physicist and president of Caswell Electronics, and five children: Dwight, Jr., a Stanford freshman, Philip, 16, Mary, 13, to whom the book is dedicated, Christopher, 9, and John, 3. Though this is her first book, periodicals have published her poems, one of which, "The Pilgrimage," won the 1958 Phelan Award, and currently she is at work on a collection of poems for children.

RANDOM NOTES: Polyunsaturated fats having become a true "household word," Pi Phi cooks should appreciate the fact that DOROTHY TOMPKINS (Mrs. Eugene) REVELL, North Dakota Alpha, has published two books, first Cholesterol Control Cookery and last October, Dietary Control of Hypercholesteremia. As therapeutic dietitian at the Dakota Clinic in Fargo she is an active professional, but her books are written in terms fully understandable to the persons who must follow diets as well as to those who plan them. Mrs. Revell has held a Pi Phi job as well, being scholarship chairman for Kappa Province in 1958 and '59.

Pi Phis who know DOROTHY VALE (Mrs. John R.) KISSINGER, Wisconsin Beta, a former national music chairman for Pi Phi, or her father the Rev. Mr. Roy Ewing Vale, D.D., LL.D., 1944-45 Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States and a noted evangelical speaker, will be interested to know that Mrs. Kissinger has written and published her father's biography, Say a Good Word, which she is marketing herself. Of it a Vassar College critic wrote, "It is a book that is inspirational, amusing and informative, and especially helpful to young pastors and their wives or to those who contemplate Christian service." Copies at $4.25, which includes postage, may be ordered from the author at P.O. Box 190, Mesa, Arizona.

The consolidation of the Pi Beta Phi and Pittman Center High Schools is proceeding according to schedule, and the new high school building, outside Gatlinburg, is expected to be ready by fall of 1963.

see what we Pi Phis have here. Combine a vacation with an art experience, live in the Red Barn, and eat at Staff House. Meet members of Grand Council, the Settlement School Committee, and Province Officers, who will be in Gatlinburg for their biennial conferences.

The new Weaving Studio is fast becoming a Craft Center. Classes have been held in weaving, pottery, stitchery, jewelry, block-printing, and silk screening. Tina McMorrin, former Arrowcraft designer, held classes in tapestry and rug-designing in March. The popularity of these workshops indicates the interest in these crafts, and many hidden talents have been developed.

Pi Phis should make an earnest effort to visit Settlement School; chat with Marion Mueller, Director, Maria Tate, Manager of Arrowcraft Shop, and Nurse Brenda Allison at the Health Center; and see the dormitories, the school buildings, the Red Barn, and the Staff House. The wearing of the Arrow should not only mark one as a member of Pi Beta Phi but also signify the proud distinction of supporting this memorial to our Founders and our national philanthropy.

Follow the ARROW

This is the ARROW which points the way to membership selection. Active chapters and alumnæ who are considering girls as potential Pi Beta Phis should keep the same criteria in mind. If this is done, we will have outstanding success during membership selection week. As a result of cooperation between actives and alumnæ, pledges will take their place in the long line of outstanding women who are members of our fraternity.

What qualities should we look for in a prospective pledge? Those that have long been synonymous with noble womanhood . . .

. . . Good character, scholarship, ability, personality, industry, congeniality, leadership, sincerity, poise, appearance . . .

. . . Let us keep these in mind in recommending, rushing, and inviting new sisters into Pi Beta Phi.

A New Look for Washington Alpha House

by Nancy Reynolds, Washington Alpha

That the Washington Alpha Pi Phi Chapter House was to be remodeled and redecorated elicited much enthusiasm from the active chapter a few years ago. At that time the house, which originally had been built for thirty-six girls, held fifty-six, and for two years twelve more girls had lived in an annex. Thus the news from the Building Board was certainly welcome. However, none of the girls could possibly have dreamed of what was to be accomplished.

About three years ago the Building Board, headed by Mrs. Wilmaglen Paddock Bergren (Washington Alpha), decided that the housing problem had to be met; and for the next year they considered several plans of attack. The second year involved the final plans as a result of suggestions from the girls with the help of the Alumnae Advisory Board, whose chairman is Mrs. Dolores Stanbury McColm (Washington Alpha). The actual building started the first week of last June and continued through the summer. In fact, it continued right into the fall and "rush." Nevertheless, the enthusiasm the chapter felt about the new quarters could not be daunted by incompleteness in time for "rush"—even though rush parties had to be conducted with paper taped over the hall floor, when tiles couldn't be laid on time; with plastic over the new rug so construction dirt wouldn't be ground in; and with the dining room minus one wall. Added to this confusion was a hammer banging during a party or a saw buzzing at a most important time. However, Pi Phi spirit came through on top, and we had an extremely successful rush.

Although the girls had to put up with a great deal of inconvenience last fall, it seemed worth it the day of the Alumnae and Mothers' Clubs' sponsored "Musical Tea." Alumnae had a chance to show off the house which they had worked so hard toward achieving (while also helping to off-set some of the deficits for furniture and landscaping) and actives were just as proud. The "Musical Tea" was January 10, 1963, from 1:30 to 4:30 P.M. with Mrs. Helen Gilkey Campenborg and Mrs. Judy Smythe Sutherland (both Washington Alphas) as co-chairmen. It included tours of the house with active members as guides and Pi Phi songs sung by the chapter. Another feature of the tea was a bulletin board which displayed the pictorial history of Washington Alpha's Chapter House from the first building to the present along with pictures of some of the older classes.

What are the new features of which we are so proud? Entering the front hall, a newcomer finds that the gray-blue has been exchanged for yellows, golds, and whites. The floor is traverteen tile with gold stripping, which is echoed in the white woodwork with gold trim. The new colors are also found in the living room. The tones are light, spacious yellows and golds with again gold-trimmed white woodwork. The rug is gold and white and the recovered furniture includes one yellow and two gold print couches and two antiques chairs with gold design. For variation a chair and bench are covered with moss-green velveteen. Black Chinese modern coffee tables set off the light airiness of the room. Along one wall two full length antique mirrors enhance the chandeliers, donated by Mrs. DeEtte McAuslan Stuart (Washington Alpha), and set off doors with Chinese motif wallpaper leading to the solarium. The solarium is a completely new room for casual entertaining. It is in light yellow-green with card tables and conversation areas, and it opens into the dining room on one side and a new entrance hall on the other side. This hall has a new feature to the Pi Phi House—a "men's powder room."

The dining room was enlarged to accommodate the ever expanding chapter and three new chandeliers had to be purchased for this room, which also continues the gold and white tones in its walls and curtains. The chapter is pleased and proud of the new decor and especially grateful for the hard work Mrs. Louise Ehrlich Janson (Washington Alpha) did as the decorator co-ordinator.

A new wing of rooms and sleeping porches allowed for room improvements too. The new rooms include a desk with book shelves above for each girl and a wardrobe, extending the length of one wall, for the two girls that live in each room. An especially pleasant feature of the new wing is the lounge areas where girls gather for chats, drinking coffee, or telephone calls. These are done in Danish Modern using bright fabrics.

Extra bathroom facilities, drip-dry rooms, and ironing rooms add convenience to living. A guest room with private bath has also been added.

Needless to say, the active chapter and the Alumnae Club are more than proud of the new look in the chapter house that promises to serve beautifully the needs of the chapter.

Emily Kimball Lilly

Her Talent Speaks for Itself

Emily Kimball Lilly, gifted Wisconsin Alpha Pi Phi, is known as "The Dean of St. Louis Book and Play Reviewers" and her talent in this field has literally been speaking for itself for a number of years in that mid-western municipality and its surrounding area.

A wife and mother first and platform performer second, Mrs. Lilly refers to her professional work as her "beloved avocation."

She is much in demand today as a reviewer of books and plays or for one of her entertaining original lecture-recitals. Dr. Clarence T. Simon, professor of Psychology of Speech and coordinator of Graduate Studies in Speech at Northwestern, says of her,

"Emily Kimball Lilly combines a real sensitivity to the values of life and literature with outstanding platform skill. Her programs of poetry, drama, or biography are excellent entertainment and more. Her audiences live and truly know the characters and events she creates for them."

Mrs. Lilly holds an A.B. degree from the University of Wisconsin and an M.A. in speech from Northwestern University. She is the wife of John F. Lilly, chairman of the Board of the St. Louis County Bank. They have three children, Mrs. Robert C. Ausbeck of Dayton, Ohio; Kimball Lilly of Pelham, New York; and Dr. Douglas Lilly of St. Louis. There are eleven Lilly grandchildren and one granddaughter, Barbara J. Ausbeck, is an undergraduate Pi Phi, a member of Illinois Epsilon who has just completed her sophomore year at Northwestern.

Mrs. Lilly's professional work has built up gradually through the years. When her children were small, she confined her activities to an occasional requested program to entertain friends or community groups. Her audiences grew as her children grew; and as there was more time to devote to her avocation, she expanded her repertoire and her appearances.

Her programs range from those given for private groups in clubs, churches, and homes to banquets, convention or school programs. She also uses her talent to aid her favorite charities when called upon.

A word from her on her experience offers inspiration and pause for reflection for young wives and mothers who also feel the need for an avocation. She wrote in "My Beloved Avocation" these thoughts,

"It is said that experience in living should increase one's ability in any field. I hope that this has been true in my field of speech, but it is not of first consideration. My husband's happiness, my children's well-adjusted maturity, my grandchildren's interesting personalities are more important to me than any public recognition. The old saying is: 'You can't have your cake and eat it too.' It can be done by many women. In my case, here is still the cake I hold—the beautiful cake of a chosen vocation of marriage and children, and I have eaten with great enjoyment the delicious cake of avocation."

Grace Jordan Plays Key Role in Husband's Race

by Jane McCarty Learned, Florida A

Pi Beta Phis of Idaho have always been proud of their sisters. But the general election of 1962 brought again to the forefront one of the cherished and loved members of the fraternity. Grace Edgington Jordan (Oregon Alpha), an authoress of renown, participated in the election campaign to an extent rarely known in the annals of politics. The wife of a former Governor of Idaho, she campaigned while her husband served as a senator, recently appointed to fill a vacancy in the United States Senate. Without her help, it is possible that Senator Len Jordan could not have been returned to his high position.

Grace Jordan graduated from Oregon with a degree in journalism. In college she was a member of Mortar Board and Phi Beta Kappa. She did newspaper work and college teaching both before and after her marriage to Len Jordan. Far removed from a school, Mrs. Jordan taught her three children for a period of eight years during the time the family lived on a ranch in remote Hell's Canyon. She has taught at the Boise Junior College and at the Universities of Oregon, Washington, and California. Eight years ago, while her husband was governor, Mrs. Jordan established and has directed annually the Grace Jordan Short Story Contest which is limited to Idaho writers.

During the Jordans' tenure in the governor's mansion in Boise, Grace Jordan, at the request of publishers, found time to write the book Home Below Hell's Canyon. The book was serialized, translated into six Asiatic languages, and put into Braille by the Library of Congress. Out of print for some five years and listed by bookfinders as rare, it is being reissued in paperback by the University of Nebraska Press. Mrs. Jordan has since written and published a novel, Canyon Boy,* and a biography, The King's Pines. In 1963 she expects to have ready for publication Idaho Reader, a book by Idahoans about Idaho. Additionally, she is the author of a number of short stories which have been published in national magazines.

Len Jordan occupied a high office in the Eisenhower administration, and during this time the Jordans lived in Washington, D.C. Following this appointment, they "retired" to Idaho where they were, for a few short years, able to enjoy the pleasures of leisure. And now—friendly, gracious, loving Grace Jordan returns to our nation's capital to take her important place by her husband's side. Pi Phis over the world, and particularly in Idaho, can take great pride in another leader in the realm of Pi Beta Phi.

Club Aids Settlement School and Home in Unique Project

by Dorothy Ann Ellis Lane, Illinois E

The Marin County (California) Alumnae Club has a unique way of helping to support Settlement School and at the same time benefit a local charity. All this in one gigantic, one-day effort. For instance, on October 6, 1962, the alums sold $621.00 in Settlement School Arrowcraft and turned in to Sunny Hills Home in San Anselmo, California, over $100.00 to benefit emotionally ill children. Sunny Hills was founded in 1895 as the San Francisco Orphanage and Farm, which remains its legal name though now it is non-sectarian, serving children regardless of faith. For sixty years it cared for orphans. Now institutional care for normal children is no longer needed, but there is an urgent need for residential group care for emotionally disturbed children, and Sunny Hills meets this need. Here some fifty disturbed children from six Bay Area counties find professional care to enable them to develop into normal, healthy human beings. Sunny Hills objective is to return its charges to their own home or to foster homes within two years. If the home is salvageable, social workers help parents meet the problems which caused emotional stress for their child. If the child can not return to his home he is prepared for a foster home.

Such a program is expensive and Sunny Hills derives its income in various ways including volunteer fund raising. The volunteer effort is made by thirty-nine guilds, comprising nearly 1,000 women, assisted by fourteen interested community groups and a Junior Auxiliary annually stage the historic Grape Festival to supply about ten percent of the annual budget.

This last source is where the Marin Pi Phis enter the scene as one of the fourteen community groups. Marin Alumnae Club was chartered August 1, 1939. One of the original members is Claire Husted O'Neill (Mrs. Hugh), Colorado Alpha. At this time Mrs. O'Neill was Sunny Hills' Superintendent so it was only natural that this newly organized alumnae club would choose to aid a local philanthropy with which one of its members was so vitally associated.

Artist Paints Presidents Portraits

by Jacqueline Yarbrough Liscom, California Delta

The San Fernando Valley Alumnae Club is indeed fortunate to have talented Virginia Hanawalt Taylor, Wyoming A, as one of its members. Virginia, a noted Southern California artist, has made a unique gift to the club by painting oil portraits of each of its past presidents. A former club vice president and many times a board member, Virginia has often donated her portraits and various paintings to club benefits and fund raising affairs. In recent years, Virginia's commitments with her work and art associations have prevented her from taking as active a part in club affairs, but, nonetheless, she has still continued to find time to honor her Pi Phi sisters in this generous project.

Virginia was born in Denver, Colorado, but her family moved to California when she was two years old. She became a Pi Phi at the University of Wyoming where she majored in art. In Los Angeles she attended the Otis Art Institute for three years where she studied under Joe Mugnaini, Pierre Sicard, and Robert Frame. Originally Virginia began to study portraiture under Leon Frank, outstanding portraiture artist on the West Coast, over a seven year period.

Prior to concentrating in the field of art, Mrs. Taylor was active in producing motion picture short subjects in Canada with her husband. Later she was executive secretary to the Treasurer and Comptroller of Argosy Pictures headed by John Ford and Merian Cooper. She had an interior decorating license for some time, doing interior consultations. More recently, Virginia has given art classes in her home studio, instructing professional artists. At present, she gives private lessons.

For three years Virginia was the art exhibit chairman for the Wilshire Art Gallery, a joint project of hers and George Purcell's, husband of Florence Dickman Purcell, Indiana Beta. In this capacity, Virginia instigated and conducted college level competition. Several local winners went on from there to win national recognition.

Virginia is active in many artists' groups, among them the Valley Artists Guild, The California Art Club, and the American Arts Institute. She has had several "one woman" shows and has won many first place awards for her paintings. Friends have been delighted at Christmastime to receive a greeting from Virginia accompanied by a color photo of one of her lovely portraits.

At present Virginia Taylor is the leasing agent and furniture and color consultant for a twelve story luxury apartment building in Hollywood. She lives in North Hollywood with her two children, Robbie Gay and Barry. Indeed, they have a very busy and gifted mother, a credit to Pi Beta Phi and an asset to the San Fernando Valley Alumnae Club.

Alberta Alpha Achievements

Achievements of members of Pi Beta Phi's Alberta Alpha chapter at the University of Alberta, Edmonton Canada have set a new high in academic excellence this year and the chapter also knew the joy of sharing the grand prize for outstanding ice sculpture in the annual University Ice Carnival.

The chapter's scholarship record brought it the scholarship cup awarded to the fraternity with the highest average on campus.

Much of the credit for winning this cup must go to a sextet of members who made outstanding records in their respective fields of study. All had average of 80 per cent or over which on the Canadian campus is comparable to the American four point average.

Marjorie Anderson and Michelle Jespersion who are in their third and four years respectively in nursing study made averages of over eighty-one percent and Marjorie ranked sixth in a class of forty-five.

Four new initiates made outstanding records during their pledge term. Judy Kales, Judy Reeves and Penny Farnham, first year Arts and Science students, were among thirty-eight students in a class of nine hundred and eighty-eight who had above eighty percent. Rene McElroy, first year nursing student ranked first in a class of forty-five with an average that was slightly above eighty percent.

"Snoopy" of cartoon fame was the subject chosen by the Alberta Alpha Pi Phis and their fraternity co-workers from Delta Upsilon and Phi Delta Theta for ice sculpture and their realistic reproduction of the hound of the strip, "Peanuts" won the grand aggregate award in the 1963 Ice Carnival at the University of Alberta.

"Snoopy" reclines on his ice house. This ice sculpture brought Alberta Alpha Pi Phis, Delta Upsilon and Phi Delta Theta the Ice Carnival Grand Aggregate prize.

Alberta Alpha President Sally Ramsey mirrors the happiness of her chapter as she holds the scholarship cup it received this year.

FALL ISSUE DEADLINE

News and feature copy for the Fall issue of the Arrow should be mailed to the editor before July 15, at P.O. Box 21-B, Marked Tree, Ark.

Chapter corresponding secretaries are urged to send such material or pictures of campus leaders and queens before leaving school for summer vacations.

Pi Phi Up Front At

by Karen Paullin, Vermont Alpha

Chattering teeth and complaints about the North's bitter weather suddenly disappear during February each year at Middlebury College. This is the month of Winter Carnival, when skiers reign supreme on campus and all students' thoughts turn to the slopes, to the hockey rink, to their "big date" of the year, and away from the books for awhile.

Vermont Alpha Pi Phis played an important part again this year in making the weekend a success. Middlebury's 32nd Carnival was favored by one of the finest winters for skiing that New England has seen in many years. While former Olympic and FIS competitors starred for the men's side of the campus, Louise Gulick, Lee Hall and Sally Sise helped take the women's championship. The student written and directed Ice Show featured as one of its soloists sophomore Odiorne Woodman.

Jane Corcoran, senior member of Skyline, the governing body of Middlebury Mountain Club which is in charge of the completely student-run event, was chairman of this year's Klondike Rush. This is an informal evening of entertainment which featured Chris Barber's jazz combo from England and the Clancy Brother's folk songs.

Carnival Ball was highlighted by the choice of Pi Phi senior, Nancy Sise, to reign as queen of the week-end. Nancy is a former Olympic skier from Wellesley Hills, Mass., who has spent the past two seasons recovering from a broken leg suffered during the FIS competition in Chamonix last winter. Despite her inactivity she was chosen as the senior girl who best represented the spirit of the 1963 Winter Carnival in a vote by the college's 1300 students. She reigned with John M. Weekes, Carnival king, over the fun-filled three day event.

Inter-Chapter Meeting Is Highly Recommended by Geraldine McMichael, Manitoba Alpha

Members of Manitoba Alpha chapter, Winnipeg, were weekend guests of the North Dakota Alpha chapter of Pi Beta Phi February 16 and 17, when the University of Manitoba had its mid-term break.

The trip, arranged by Judy Duncan, began early Saturday morning when more than twenty girls loaded with luggage and sleeping bags boarded the bus. Arriving in Grand Forks around noon they were greeted warmly by their Pi Phi sisters.

After a brief shopping spree the girls of the two chapters gathered around the hearth for a "fireside." This included a sing-song and a general "getting-to-know-you campaign."

Sunday afternoon was the scene of a Mock Rush. The idea behind this was to acquaint new initiates in both chapters with fundamental rush procedures. All the girls agreed it was a good idea and a great success.

Fun, frolic and festivities over, the Winnipeg girls climbed aboard a bus again late Sunday afternoon after a thoroughly enjoyable weekend.

Perhaps this "Let's-get-together campaign" might be adopted by other Pi Phi chapters. It is a wonderful way to meet members of sister chapters and for the Manitoba Alphas who have no chapter house, it was an excellent way to spend more time with its own members. They deeply appreciated the hospitality of their Pi Phi sisters in Grand Forks.

Two Wisconsin Gamma Pi Beta Phis Honored as Best Loved Senior Women

by Jeanne Skidmore, Wisconsin Gamma

Minuet music sounded in the dining room of Lucinda Darling Colman Hall at Lawrence College, February 21st, and for the 41st time four coeds, garbed in traditional ivory, blue and lavender colonial costumes, were presented as the Best Loved senior women. The culmination of this tradition and banquet was when Wisconsin Gamma Pi Phi's Vicki Agee and Roxy Fuller were revealed as two of the four Best Loved Senior women.

This annual tradition began in 1924 when it was sponsored by the YMCA. The four best loved senior girls entered the dining hall dancing the minuet, dressed as George and Martha Washington and James and Dolly Madison.

The Best Loved senior women are chosen on the basis of warmth of personality in an election by sophomore, junior, and senior women. The results of the election are kept secret until the night of the banquet. This is the highest honor that any Lawrence woman could hold, and Wisconsin Gamma was especially proud that two of the four women represented not only the senior women of Lawrence but Pi Beta Phi fraternity.

Vicki and Roxy are outstanding members of our chapter and leaders on campus as well as being Best Loved.

Vicki Agee has served Pi Beta Phi as rush captain, recording secretary, and president. She was elected last spring as President of Mortar Board, senior honor society. She has held several offices in the Lawrence Women's Association, was president of her dormitory in her sophomore year, has served as a counselor to the freshman women, and is secretary of the Senior Class and a member of the Panhellenic Council. Vicki's warm, friendly smile, sincere interest in people, and willingness to help them are but a few of the many reasons why she was chosen as Best Loved.

Roxy Fuller has also served Pi Beta Phi in many ways. She has been the chapter historian, assistant pledge trainer, and vice president. She has held several positions in the Women's Recreation Association, served on the all school Judiciary Board, and served as a counselor to the freshman women. Roxy's warm personality, her friendly smile, and genuine, deep laughter attract people. Roxy is considered a true friend to everyone because of her ability to understand and empathetic nature.

Wisconsin Gamma chapter of Pi Beta Phi is extremely proud to have Vicki and Roxy represent Pi Phi not only at Lawrence College but throughout the country in keeping the ARROW ever pointing upward!!!

INDIANA GAMMAS WELCOME MISS AMERICA

In Indiana . . .

by Susan Vandiver, Indiana Gamma

Indiana Gamma was very fortunate to be able to meet a busy sorority sister, Miss Jacquelyn Jeanne Mayer, Miss America of 1963, when she was in Indianapolis in February for a series of style shows. She arrived on a Sunday night at the airport and was met by Indiana Gamma members—54 strong. She was presented a corsage of wine carnations and the chapter sang "When You Find the Girl with the Arrow." Jacquelyn was charming in her response as tears came to her eyes during the song, it was evident she is a young woman of whom not only Pi Beta Phi but all of America can be proud.

The following day Indiana Gamma and members of the Indianapolis Alumnae Club attended a style show in which Jacquelyn modeled. Following the style show a tea was given in her honor and all Pi Phis had a chance to meet her. The Wm. H. Block Co., had decorated the tea table in wine and blue and active members of Indiana Gamma wore wine carnation corsages. As Jacquelyn moved graciously among the tables meeting the guests she talked of everything from her experiences as Miss America to her school life at Northwestern University. It was truly an honor for all to meet her and an experience that will be long remembered.

. . . and in Texas

by Nancy Harder, Texas Delta

On January 24 three members of Texas Delta Chapter, president Susan Anderson, Nancy Loffland and Kay Ward greeted their sister, Jacquelyn Jeanne Mayer, the 1963 Miss America, at WBAP television station in Fort Worth. Miss Mayer was visiting the city on behalf of the Toni Company to appear on the daily TV show "Dateline."

Texas Delta presented Miss Mayer with a gold charm engraved with "Pi Phi Miss" on one side and "TCU Pi Phi" on the other.

Second Member of Family Is Maine Alpha President

Elsa Ilvonen has recently been installed as president of Maine Alpha chapter of Pi Beta Phi—an office held by her sister, Barbara Ilvonen Lindquist in 1955-56. The chapter takes pride in these two outstanding sisters who have served it so well.

Barbara

Barbara I. Lindquist graduated with distinction from the University of Maine in 1956. Two of her many activities included NEA and the Women's Student Government. She taught in Kaiserslautern, Germany and traveled in Europe after graduation. She now lives in Chatham, New Jersey with her husband Ronald and son, Bradford.

Elsa Ilvonen, the newly installed chapter president, has been active in the Women's Athletic Association and the Physical Education Major's Club during her campus career and has served her chapter faithfully in various capacities. She was also a nominee for Military Ball Queen this year.

Members of the chapter report that "Elsa has more than proven her ability in her first month in office."

Elsa also counts a Pi Phi "relative" as a presidential predecessor. Alice McKiel, her fraternity sponsor, served the chapter as president in 1961-62. Alice now teaches history in Hamilton, Mass.

Elsa

PI PHI KEEPS IT IN THE FAMILY—At the University of Indiana Miss Jeannie Carroll, Indiana Beta Pi Phi, recently became the third consecutive member of her chapter to wear the crown of "Miss Indiana University." Crowning her were Linda Mugg, left, her sister who had worn the crown in 1962 and the 1962 Miss America, Nancy Ann Fleming, right. Karin Grimsley of Indiana Beta had been the titlist in 1961.

Jeannie, who will represent the University in the Miss Indiana Pageant in July is a sophomore who is majoring in English literature. She is a University cheerleader and on the Junior Athletic Board.

Brenda Turner—Outstanding OSU Senior

by Gladeen Burris, Oklahoma Beta

Brenda

Epitomizing the ideal qualities of Pi Beta Phi leadership, scholarship, beauty, and talent is Brenda Turner, Oklahoma Beta senior.

Leadership recognition began early in her freshman year at Oklahoma State University when she was elected to represent her class on the Education Student Council, a post she has been consistently re-elected to throughout her college career. Expanding her freshman activities in the college of Education, Brenda was selected historian of Student National Education Association. During her sophomore year she was chosen to serve as president of this group and later became state vice-president.

Aware also of the importance of spiritual life, she lent her abilities as well to Disciples Student Fellowship, the Religious Emphasis Week committee, and to the duties as chaplain of Pi Beta Phi. Her junior year was climaxed as she was tapped for Mortar Board, national women's leadership fraternity, of which they later chose her president. The finishing touch was added this year as she was listed in the distinguished roster of Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities.

Despite her outstanding list of activities, Brenda has maintained a 3.7 grade over-all on a 4.0 system. She has been listed on both the Dean's and President's Honor Roll and has been named to Sigma Tau Delta, honorary English; Kappa Delta Phi, honorary Education; Phi Kappa Phi; Orange Quill, freshman honorary; Orange and Black Quill, sophomore honorary, and was presented both the Mortar Board and Lew Wentz scholarships.

As if this were not enough for any one person, Brenda adds talent to her many gifts. Blessed with a beautiful voice, she sings with the exclusive Aggie Sweethearts quartet and the University Choir, and she served her chapter as Song Leader.

BBC—beauty, brains and charm, a term often applied to Jacqueline Kennedy, also fits Brenda, for she has been a finalist for queen of the college of Education and is a member of the elite Angel Flight.

SHE LEADS LEADERS—Donna Jean Wilcox, Kentucky Beta, is a leader among leaders. Recently she was chosen to head the Associated Women Students' Regional Convention to be held at the University of Kentucky in the spring of 1964. She is also one of two senior AWS Senators.

A junior in the college of pharmacy, she is secretary of that class, as well as a member of Lambda Kappa Sigma, women's pharmacy honorary. She is vice-president of Kentucky Beta.

ALPHA PROVINCE

MAINE ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MAINE. Chartered, 1920. Pledge Day, February 18, 1963. INITIATED, January 7, 1963: Jacqueline P. Gauthier, Fairfield, Conn.; Geraldine L. Adams, Newport.

On February 10 Maine A welcomed Mrs. Ethel Sanford Adams, Alpha Province President, on her annual visit. She was honored with a cookie shine and a skit presented by pledges and alumnae.

On Valentine's Day the Pi Beta Phis held a "Kandy Kiss" sale which was very successful.

The University of Maine enjoyed Winter Carnival Weekend beginning February 15. The weekend was highlighted by an appearance of the Dave Brubeck Quartet.

Twenty-one new initiates and pledges were formally presented at the annual Pledge Formal held at Φ Γ Δ. Decorations carried out the theme of "Wonderland by Night."

Early on the morning of February 9, the actives were awakened by the pledges for a surprise breakfast in the chapter room.

Sandra Moores was elected president of the Maine Christian Association, a student religious organization. Barbara Hinkson and Jewell Flint were initiated into Σ M Σ, an honorary psychology society.

The end of the fall semester found 17 Pi Beta Phis on the Dean's List.

PLEGDED: Jacqueline Wolfe, Bloomfield, N.J.; Susan Weaver, Kittery.

JEWELL FLINT

*NOVA SCOTIA ALPHA—DALHOUSIE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1934. INITIATED, February 24, 1963: Leslie Ballem, Judith Greenwood, Brenda Mann, Margaret MacDougald, Sandra Simpson, Dale Sullivan, Donna Unwin, Kathryn Walters, Halifax; Alison Baker, Kentville; Judith Bollman, Wexford, Pa.; Elizabeth Hicks, Amherst; Joan Keumber, Willowdale, Ontario; Susan Moir, Bridgetown.

The start of the second term found Nova Scotia A engaged in various campus activities. A successful new feature on the Dalhousie campus this year was a winter carnival. The week was celebrated with a hockey game, football game between alumnae and varsity team, an ice show, a dance and cook-out, a visit by the Journeymen. Perfect snow conditions made for impressive snow sculptures. Joyce Smith reigned over the activities as Carnival Queen.

Pi Beta Phi entered a team in the annual Intercollegiate Bowling Tournament, sponsored by the Hillel Foundation with proceeds going to the Rehabilitation Centre.

A most welcome visitor to the chapter in February was Alpha Province President, Mrs. P. Adams.

The annual Pi Beta Phi formal was held on February 13 at the Nova Scotian Hotel. Joan Stewart entertained prior to the formal. Decorations centered around a "nautical" theme.

Three members of the chapter reigned as faculty queens this year. Barbara Reardon as Law Queen, Ann Suydam representing Pine Hill and Peggy Mahon as Commerce Queen.

Pi Beta Phi once again played a leading role in the Dalhousie Glee and Dramatic Society production of "Guys 'n Dolls." Peggy Mahon and Ann Suydam had leading roles with various other members in the supporting cast and engaged in behind-the-scene activities.

Forthcoming will be a spring tea for mothers and alumnae. Following the completion of final examinations, the chapter will officially end activities with a fraternity weekend to be held at the summer home of a member.

BARBARA GOUGH

VERMONT ALPHA—MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE. Chartered, 1893. Pledge Day, February 17, 1963. INITIATED, February 27, 1963: Helen Chadwick, Lewiston, N.Y.; Ruth Ingersoll, Newton, Mass.; Elizabeth McLain, Chestertown, Md.; Odiorne Woodman, Waterville, N.Y.

Vermont A's activities since January have been dominated by rushing which was held during the first two weeks of this semester. Rush parties featuring Alice and all her Wonderland were good outlets for imaginative minds and frustrated theater amateurs. Since pledging, the actives have kept the freshmen busy with "home-cooked" dinner, a taffy pull, breakfast "out" and a constructive evaluation session of rush, both within Pi Beta Phi and on the campus as a whole.

Rush week was followed immediately by Middlebury's Winter Carnival which was highlighted by the choice of Nancy Sise to reign as queen. Jane Corcoran was in the court and also served as chairman of Klondike Rush which features informal entertainment and is one of the main parts of Carnival. Odiorne Woodman starred in the Ice Show, while Louise Gulick, Lee Hall, and Sally Sise captured honors on the ski slopes.

Assorted campus honors include the election of Carol Hines as secretary-treasurer of Middlebury's Panhellenic Council, Ann Wadsworth, who is doing an honors project on the works of Robert Frost, delivered part of a memorial testimony to the poet here shortly after his death.

Recently the chapter was entertained by Professor Horace Beck of the American Literature Department who spoke to us on folk medicine, just one aspect of his specialty in folk culture for which he is nationally known.

We are now looking forward to a visit from the province president, Mrs. Philip Adams, and to spring activities, which we hope will include some contact with the Vermont B.

PLEGDED: Barrie Bell, Milford, Ohio; Lucinda Brown, Princeton, N.J.; Ellyn Clemmer, Haverford, Pa.; Jean Gear, Farmington, Conn.; Donna Grills, Wilmington, Del.; Olivia Hall, Concord, Mass.; Penelope Hassan, Scarsdale, N.Y.; Gail Howrigan, Swanton, Vt.; Holly Kason, Kansas City, Mo.; Jane Marter, Haddonfield, N.J.; Ann Parker, Sewickley, Pa.; Sally Sise, Wellesley Hills, Mass.; Judith Stern, St. Louis, Mo.; Charlotte Stetson, Princeton, N.J.; Carol Sue, North Caldwell, N. J.; Linda Whitworth, Easton, Conn.

*VERMONT BETA—UNIVERSITY OF VERMONT. Chartered, November 24, 1898. Pledge Day, February 10, 1963. INITIATED, January 28, 1963: Susan Verrie, Greenwich, Conn. February 3, 1963; Sandra Whitehead, Union, N.J.

Vermont B began the second semester with the news that scholastically we ranked second among all women's fraternities on campus. On Dean's List were: Cynthia Amidon, Constance Anderson, Nora Barclay, Carolyn Bard, Jane Christie, Sue Direnga, Barb Hentz, Bev Hume, Jackie Hussey, Janet Koch, Eileen Maclean, Marty Russell, Linda Wellman, and Susan Wesley.

After a successful rush period, Vermont B took in fifteen pledges. Their enthusiasm helped to spark the building of our snow sculpture for Kake Walk, Vermont's winter carnival, held the weekend of February 23.

Vermont B is now looking forward to the visit of Alpha Province President, Mrs. Philip E. Adams, on March 10.

PLEGDED: Caralee Cheney, South Marion, Mass.; Lourette Dion, Winooski; Catherine Hentz, Springfield; Susan Herschede, Essex Junction; Barbara Kullback, Monticello, N.Y.; Roberta Levy, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Nancy Mills, Ann Powell, Burlington; Jean Paquin, Bennington; Karen Preis, River Edge, N.J.; Janet Rector, Glen Rock, N.J.; Diane Seehof, Lake Forest, Ill.; Susan Taggart, Deborah Whittaker, Concord, N.H.; Mary Youngerman, Lexington, Mass.

MASSACHUSETTS ALPHA—BOSTON UNIVERSITY. Chartered, March 17, 1896. INITIATED, February 9, 1963: Jacqueline Baer, Rye, N.Y.; Patricia Clayton, Highland Park, N.J.;

Marcia Ketay, Huntington, N.Y.; Pauline Kugel, Westwood; Mary Lynne Lewis, Summit, N.J.; Mary MacNeill, Arlington; Cynthia Miller, Brookline; Christina Slomkowski, Wollaston; Suzanne Thornley, Lincoln, R.I.; Diane Wharen, Wellesley Hills.

The actives of Massachusetts A were very pleased to welcome several visitors last Spring. From March 31 to April 2, Mrs. Philip E. Adams, Alpha Province President, joined the active members. During that week, from March 31 to April 7, we were also very honored with the presence of Mrs. William H. Mansfield, Grand President, along with Mrs. Morgan, National Panhellenic Conference Delegate, and Mrs. Wild, former National Delegate. Much excitement and activity highlighted their visits and every Pi Beta Phi was pleased and gratified to welcome them.

Massachusetts A was very proud to hear the wonderful news of an honor recently achieved by one of its members, Gail Churchill, who has recently been selected for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Social activities also kept Massachusetts A busy last semester. Among them was a pizza party with B θ π of Massachusetts Institute of Technology on March 3, Greek Sing on April 3, the annual Pi Beta Phi Powderpuff Football Game in May, a dance given along with A ϕ on April 26, and the Founders' Day Banquet on April 27. All of these events were most enjoyed by every active and pledge.

LINDA HERBUT

MASSACHUSETTS BETA—UNIVERSITY OF MASSACHUSETTS. Chartered, 1944. Pledge Day, December 5, 1962. INITIATED, March 17, 1963: Theresa Wright, South Hadley; Joan Congdon, East Longmeadow; Ruth Owen, Amherst; Roberta Rayfield, Cohasset; Julie Alger, Holliston; Susan Morris, Pittsfield; Carol Gennari, West Stockbridge; Marion Smith, North Attleboro; Bonnie Stokes, Medway; Kathryn Watson, Palmer; Michele Wyatt, South Dartmouth.

Massachusetts B has been enjoying second semester. Winter Carnival was held February 8-10. The festivities included the Carnival Ball, snow sculptures, a fashion show, toboggan races, and a concert by the Chad Mitchell Trio. Pi Beta Phi placed third in the snow sculpture contest.

Gail Benvie was elected Miss January in the University's Engineering Journal and was pictured in the magazine.

Mass. B enjoyed Mrs. Adams' visit to the chapter February 25-27 and held a tea in her honor.

Pamela O'Donnell was elected as a finalist in the Ten Best Dressed Girls on Campus Contest.

Mass. B worked very hard for the Sorority Sing and Declamation held March 3. Sue Lemanis did an excellent job as music chairman and Kathy Osterberg represented Pi Beta Phi in the Declamation.

Gretchen Nelson and Barbara Johnson had some of their art work displayed at an Art Exhibit held on campus in February.

On March 9 the pledges were presented at the annual Pledge Formal held at Wiggan's Tavern in Northampton.

Carol McDonough worked as co-chairmen for the Women's Centennial Committee Program on March 14.

Mass. B has also been busy having exchange suppers with A X A, A Δ Φ , and A E II.

PLEGDED, January 16, 1963: Barbara Romano, Fitchburg; Ann Jordan Swampscott.

PLEGDED, February 7, 1963: Nancy Harte, Milton; Michele King, Springfield; Martha Seibel, Marblehead; Sandra Shaw, Lawrence.

CONNECTICUT ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF CONNECTICUT. Chartered, April 10, 1943. Pledge Day, February 18, 1963. INITIATED, February 16, 1963: Patricia Bartolan, Foxon; Ellen Cross, Lyons, N.Y.; Margaret Conoley, Syracuse; Lynn Harding, Naugatuck; Carolyn Hersey, Natick, Mass.; Nancy McFarland, Manchester; Jan Meister, Arlington, Va.; Joyce Metcalfe, West Hartford; Rosalie Mondani, Chester; Clarice Nichols, Hamden; Anita Palermo, East Patchogue, N.Y.; Barbara Ann Picerno, Cranston, R.I.; Eddie Reburn, W. Hartford; Linda Roberts, Bristol; Clare Smith, Ballston Spa, N.Y.; Patricia Sullivan, Glastonbury; Patricia Taylor, Bethel; Donna Yacubucci, Bloomfield.

Connecticut A returned from a two week semester break to a spring semester filled with academic and social endeavors. Rush was held the first week of the semester and seventeen new members were pledged after two weeks of rush parties. Initiation and the banquet were held on the second week-end of the semester as the sisters settled down to new courses and activities. Winter Week-end was held February 22, 23, and 24. Connecticut A built a snow sculpture to the theme of "Winter Skol" with Φ E II and participated in the Olympic Games with X ϕ .

The chapter also held a tea in honor of Miss Wilma Keves, AAC member, and a charter member of Connecticut Alpha. Miss Keyes retired after a long career of service to the university and the chapter. Mrs. Philip Adams, Alpha Province President visited the Chapter in April with everyone enjoying the opportunity to see her again and receive her advice.

Spring semester at the University of Connecticut was climaxed by the annual Greek Week, a combined social and philanthropic endeavor always a popular event at Storrs. Betsy Jones was co-chairman and Beth Higbee, Brina Medin, and Virginia Shaw served as committee heads.

PLEGDED: Jo-Ann Augelli, Middlebury; Elizabeth Birge, Waterford; Marie Degilio, Iselin, N.J.; Elizabeth Hamilton, Short Hills, N.J.; Katherine Herrick, Slingerlands, N.Y.; Nancy Holbrook, Washington, D.C.; Mary Irwin, Wilmington, Del.; Karen Johnson, Stratford; Trudy Kernan, Glen Ridge, N.J.; Marilyn Lyle, Glenbrook; Marsha Merritt, Amesbury, Mass.; Sherry Reinhardt, Garden City, N.Y.; Christine Rohwedder, Westport; Barbara Smev, Naugatuck; Sherry Thomas, Greenwich; Barbara Tolle, Plainville; Kathryn Zisceck, West Willington.

*BETA PROVINCE

*NEW YORK ALPHA—SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, April 28, 1896. Pledge Day, February 20, 1963. The start of the second semester found New York A very busy with campus activities. Kate Antony was the public relations director for Panhellenic and Nancy Fuller was the chairman of city guides. Joyce Hergenhan was on the commencement committee. Judy Shoenborn and Marilyn Howard were chosen to spend the semester in Florence, Italy, under the Syracuse semester-abroad plan.

We all are proud of our new pledges. Four served on Joint Student Government: Leda Hegent, Debbie Holmes, Laurel Schoff, Dawn Wagoner. Three were officers in their dormitories: Carole Bleimeyer, Elizabeth Muir, and Elizabeth Walsh. Barbara Kling and Pat Tracy were on the freshman executive council and worked on freshman weekend. Elizabeth Byrne was appointed to the freshman nominating convention.

PLEGDED: Carol Edwards, New Canaan, Conn.; Judy Emerline, Glendale, Mo.; Barbara Kling, Hasbrouck Heights, N.J.; Mary Gray, Montclair, N.J.; Polly Hannan, Tenafly, N.J.; Debbie Holmes, Baldwinville; Christina Hall, Bardonia; Elizabeth Muir, Clay; Dawn Wagoner, East Berne; Pat Tracey, Elmira; Elizabeth Byrne, Garden City, Galen Hughes, Madison; Laurel Schoff, Lowville; Leda Hegent, Marcellus; Carol Stratton, Oxford; Sandy Atwater, Salem; Elizabeth Walsh, Syracuse; Carole Bleimeyer, Charlotte, N.C.; Mary Ellen Szapitel, Seattle, Wash.

ANNE POEKEL

*NEW YORK GAMMA—ST. LAWRENCE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1941. Pledge Day, February 10, 1963.

The beginning of the spring semester at New York T has been very busy. During the fall semester the chapter started an alumnae fund raising drive headed by Shelia Kain. The chapter has received over $1,000.00 in contributions. Shelia has also been in charge of compiling an eight page news letter to be sent to New York T alumnae. On February 2 the chapter held its annual rummage sale which profited $100.00.

This semester has brought more honors to New York T. Sherrie Buell was elected to II M E, the mathematics honorary. Denise Ahern was chosen by the Women's Student Government to be chairman of Design for Living, a program designed to aid the women of the campus in planning their future homes. Tina Knust was chosen for II Σ A, the government honorary.

The Pi Beta Phis have also been active socially this semester. The members have had exchange dinners with the Σ A E's and the B θ II's. On February 27 members of the faculty served as waiters at dinner, and the members left "tips" for the faculty. This money will be used by the Student Government Association to send two girls abroad this summer under the Experiment in International Living.

PLEGDED, February 10, 1963: Carol Blank, Penn Yan; Leslie Dearnod, Guilford, Conn.; Evelyn Nan Griffin, Poughkeepsie; Barbara Harris, Binghamton; Lois Hertzberg, Glen Ridge, N.J.; Barbara Hiltz, Northville; Carol Kocivar, Bedford; Valerie Sanderson, Medina; Nancy Tuttle, Briarcliff Manor; Patricia Woehleik, Kingston; and Eileen Simpson, Orangeburg.

BARBARA M. STORM

NEW YORK DELTA—CORNELL UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1919. Pledge Day, February 10, 1963.

Many of the members of New York Δ have received new honors and have added new activities to their life at Cornell University. Barbara Cade, Cathy Dedek, Mary Deitrich, Barbara Garmirian, Patricia Peters, Kathleen Schmitz, Gwen Sibson, Barbara Strong, and Lois Weyman are on the Dean's List for the fall term. Barbara Cade received the chapter award for the highest scholastic average of the chapter for 1962. Alice Middaugh has been chosen to be president of a women's dormitory, and Carol Beaver, Cindy Booth, Susan Clark, Ruth Colabella, Sally Fry, Barbara Garmirian, Susan Kuschner, Michele Mattia, Linda Roberts, Susan Rogers, Natalie Soroka, and Carol Willers have been chosen to be freshman women's counselors for the year 1963-1964. Patricia Hammond, Sarah Shilling, Kandace Vengris, and Zoe Walter have been chosen to be members of the Cornell United Religious Work team to work in Honduras this summer. Barbara Cade has received a Carnegie Foundation grant to work on an honors project in France this summer. Linda Peterson is publicity chairman for the Senior Week program following the close of the spring term. Judith Areen and Mary Moore have been selected for membership in A Δ Δ , the freshman women's scholastic honorary fraternity.

PENNSYLVANIA BETA—BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1895. Pledge Day, February 10, 1963.

We at Pennsylvania B have begun another busy semester. Our high scholastic standing of second place has been maintained, and we are especially proud of Marti McCord, who was elected to the Music honorary, and Mary Alyce Hermany, who has received a scholarship to study in France next year.

In accordance with the new Panhellenic movement to strengthen Greek groups this year on our campus, a debate was held to discuss the challenging question of the pros and cons of fraternities and sororities. The participants were four students and two members of the faculty. Pennsylvania B was honored when one of our members, Nancy Henderson, was elected to speak on behalf of Panhellenic. The debate was a great success, and our congratulations go to Nancy who did an excellent job of representing Panhellenic.

Also our congratulations go to Jane Hanssen, who was elected Military Ball Queen, and to Roni Mazer, a member of the Military Ball court, and who has been nominated for the office of secretary of Student-Faculty Congress.

Plans are well underway for our pledge dance, which will be held with Φ K Ψ on March 8, and for Sig Derby which will be held on April 13.

PLEGDED: Nancy Baldwin, Philadelphia, Pa.; Judith Berk, Teaneck, N.J.; Judith Blatt, Silver Spring, Md.; Elizabeth Breen, Falls Church, Va.; Nancy Cochran, Baltimore, Md.; Patricia Jones, York, Pa.; Marjorie Mantz, Tarrytown, N.Y.; Katherine Miller, Glen Rock, N.J.; Nancy Morrison, Laconia, N.H.; Cheryl Nichols, Corning, N.Y.; Rita Rapoport, Westbury, N.Y.; Susan Schank, Middlesex, N.J.

Chartered, 1903. Pledge Day, February 10, 1963. INITIATED, January 27, 1963: Claire Elizabeth Madison, Annapolis, Md.; Mary Murphy, Chambersburg; Linda Pearsall, Wantagh, N.Y.

With semester exams over and a very successful rush week completed, the members of Pennsylvania Γ can now settle down to their numerous chapter and campus activities.

Our chapter is happy to have three of its members occupy positions on Dean's List for the fall semester: Carol Lindstrom, Beverly Morey, and Ann Smith.

Rehearsals for Follies, Dickinson's annual student-directed musical presentation, are well under way. The script being used is one which a faculty member wrote while he was in college. Jane Howland, Pennsylvania Γ music chairman, is ably applying her musical abilities towards its production.

Student campaigning is keeping most of the campus quite busy. Pennsylvania Γ is in the midst of the Student Senate elections with Pam Maxwell running for one party as treasurer and Dudley Dickinson slated for secretary on the opposing ticket. Carol Ann Raskopf is capitalizing on her organizational interest as co-chairman of one of the parties connected with the election.

PLEGDED: Karen Barrowclough, Hawthorne, N.J.; Kay Cadwallader, Paoli; Edith Chadwick, Wilmington, Del.; Frances Decker, Drexel Hill; Judith Elder, Waccabue, N.Y.; Ellen Giest, Bridgeport, Conn.; Priscilla Hinebaugh, Westfield, N.J.; Ann Horlacher, Carbondale; Kim Larsen, Annapolis, Md.; Eleanor Lindsay, Arlington, Va.; Bonnie McCollough, South Nyack, N.Y.; Mary Nolan, Baltimore, Md.; Patricia Parker, Janet Wolfe, Yardley; Virginia Plott, McLean, Va.; Kathryn Jo Porch, Pitman, N.J.; Peggy Saidis, Carlisle; Serita Spadoni, West Chester, Md.; Nancy Tucker, S. PENNSYLVANIA EPSILON—THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, November 15, 1953. Pledge Day, January 27, 1963. INITIATED, January 24, 1963: Judy Alexander, Wilmington, Del.

With the beginning of the winter term came the formal rushing season. Needless to say, the sisters of Pennsylvania E were kept busy the first week and a half of the new term.

As is the annual tradition, the chapter celebrated Monmouth Duo with Φ K Γ on January 18 and 19. The weekend was highlighted by dances both Friday and Saturday nights, and a dessert held in the Φ K Γ suite on Saturday afternoon. The sisters not only strengthened our friendship with Φ K Γ but also improved our relations with our host fraternities, Z B T and Δ T.

"Greeks Light the Way" was the theme of this year's Greek Week, held February 3-8. Pi Beta Phi was pleased to win first place in the poster contest.

Other campus affairs that the fraternity entered included the Model United Nations. Ann Garrison was in charge of the two joint delegations with Φ K Ψ .

The alumnae club of State College attended a dessert following installation of new officers in the suite on February 18.

Janis Somerville and Margo Lewis were named to represent the University in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Perry Donovan and Ann Garrison were tapped for Π Γ A, the art honorary. Pat Howard was honored by being a Roto Queen finalist.

PLEGDED: Kathleen Blair, Virginia Beach, Va.; Joan Bowman, Summit, N.J.; Marian Brown, Moorestown, N.J.; Linda Brunner, Camp Hill; Bette Cole, Bethesda, Md.; Patricia Drake, Morrisville, N.Y.; Kathleen Grogan, Irene O'Hara, Devon; Mary Gross, Drexel Hill; Victoria Harbour, Washington, D.C.; Lynne Heutychy, Larchmont, N.Y.; Marjorie Hogsett, Beaver; Ricky Hosterman, Rebersburg; Maria Larson, Arlington, Va.; Karen Linnet, Shamokin; Susan Linton, Wellsboro; Susan McCall, Edgewood, Md.; Deborah Newton, Lancaster; Anne Patterson, Oakdale; Christine Pryce, Pittsburgh; Janet Settina, Glenshaw; Barbara Spaeth, Binghamton, N.Y.; Margaret Stampfle, Bethlehem; Donna Tartaglia, Philadelphia; Rilla Waldron, Dunellen, N.J.

*OHIO ALPHA—OHIO UNIVERSITY. Chartered, December 16, 1889. Pledge Day, February 19, 1963. INITIATED, March 1, 1963: Rebecca Biggs, Karen Heffelfinger, Athens; Sandra Bagnall, Poland; Susan Burton, Cincinnati; Carolyn Colbert, Glouster; Carol Congrove, Patricia Holroyd, Columbus; Ann Dempsey, Phyllis Yeager, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Diane Lee Hodges, Falls Church, Va.; Ann Hofsommer, Chicago, Ill.; Susan Malone, Summit, N.J.; Nanette Mann, Fremont; Marcia Myers, Upper Sandusky; Judy Niemi, Painesville; Mary Pedigo, Lancaster; Joy Washburn, Jackson.

The members of Ohio A were visited by Mrs. William Smetts, province president, at the beginning of the spring semester. The purpose of her visit was to reacquaint herself with rush techniques.

"Greeks Go Greek" was the theme of Ohio University's Greek Week festivities this spring. Beth Breitenstein represented the chapter as the Greek Week Queen candidate. All worked industriously on the booth which was entitled, "Wine, Women and Thou."

Bringing honor to Ohio A through extracurricular activities were Linda Gullum, named to the Conventions Committee, and Carolyn Lawrence, elected captain of the varsity cheerleading squad.

Easter brought more activities. The alumnae club sponsored the annual Easter bazaar, where handmade goods were sold and a raffle held for an Easter bonnet. The faculty children were also entertained with an Easter egg-roll on the chapter lawn.

PLEGDED: Sherry Abel, Fairfax, Va.; Ellen Fitzgerald, Marysville; Barbara Grintz, Cleveland; Sally Kepler, Bridgeville, Pa.; Sherra Vance, Westerville; Jane Wills, Columbus.

OHIO BETA—OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1894. Pledge Day, January 16, 1963. PLEDGED, January 16, 1963: Betsy Bausher, Kathy Keller, Bay Village; Gwen Bock, Ashtabula; Cindy Chabek, Bonnie Michel, Lakewood; Janie Cummons, Irene Humphrey, Lynda Key, Joan Lorenz, Molly Maidlow, Missie Martin, Sharon Pierce, Dottie Wildman, Connie Wilson, Paula DiPaolo, Columbus; Carol Ford, Huron; Lynne Gerlach, Kent; Sue Gushman, Lancaster; Sue Hayes, Export, Pa.; Marcia Kinross, Nancy Kuyper, Gigi Radford, Sue Schiff, Cincinnati; Marcia McCalla, Terrace Park; Gloria Myers, Canton; Marilyn Parsons, Toledo; Barb Shanta, Medina; Sharon Sloane, Marion; Lynn Terjesen, Akron; Sharon Zimmerman, West Alexandria.

Winter quarter began at Ohio B with a busy two weeks of rushing. The successful rush parties drew to a close with a visit from Mrs. Speaker, Grand Secretary, who gave the alumnae address at our preferential. And of course Ohio B ended up with the top pledge class on Ohio State's campus.

The Pi Beta Phi winter function was an informal "Oldies but Goodies" party, and we all really had a good time.

One of the most exciting times for both pledges and actives was the annual Big Sis-Little Sis slumber party which we have at the House. This is especially exciting for the pledges, for this is when they get their big sisters.

Next came the Pledge Weekend, when all the actives moved out of the House and the pledges moved in for Friday and Saturday night. On Saturday the pledges had their moneymaking project; this year it was a shoeshine, and the pledges went to different fraternity houses to shine shoes.

The alumnae club also held a Sunday afternoon tea for the pledges' parents. They were given a tour of the House and some of the rush displays were shown.

Pi Beta Phi were active participants in a Greek Week celebration at Ohio State. Besides the parties with fraternities, the Greeks contributed to a blood drive in order to get more blood for Franklin County. Many Pi Beta Phi's donated blood to the Red Cross.

Social life was a busy one this quarter too. We had serenades with Φ K Ψ , Φ K T, and Σ Xs, and Δ T A came over to watch the Goldiggers Skits. We also had an exchange dinner with Δ T's with a speaker, Bryan Green, a minister from England, speaking to us after dinner.

The pledges surprised the actives with a Valentine cookie shine complete with pink lemonade and pink frosted cookies. They also made pretty favors for us.

The highlight of winter quarter was when Jacquelyn Jeanne Mayer, Miss America, visited us for lunch. We were really happy to have Jackie, a Pi Beta Phi from Northwestern, as our guest.

Pi Beta Phi also got its share of queens. Jill Lafferty was chosen Queen of Smiles for Dental Health Week. Ginny Wilson was Military Ball Queen, and Linda Myers was on the court.

We were also happy that Kitz Netting, Nancy Helser, and Jill Lafferty were selected to be Coed Cadets.

Pi Beta Phi came through with its campus leaders too. Marilyn Keish was selected to be the head rush counsellor for next year.

for the Women's Panhellenic Association. Susan Logan was elected Chief Justice of the Panhellenic Court. Three Pi Beta Phi were elected to top offices in WSGA: Carol Davis was elected president, Barbie Oliver first vice president, and Judi Young secretary.

Paula Bennett was invited into the home economics honorary, and Patty Boden was elected president of the nursing honorary.

OHIO DELTA—OHIO WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY. Chartered, October 3, 1925. INITIATED, February 23, 1963: Christine Anderson, Columbus; Pamela Blazer, Stow; Janet Cafarella, Harrington Park, N.Y.; Nancy Chaphe, Coraopolis, Pa.; Sue Collins, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Marilyn Danner, Erie, Pa.; Linda DeLone, Camp Hill, Pa.; Lynda Dixon, Oberlin; Pamela Forrest, Canton; Gail Garrison, Cortland, N.Y.; Catherine Harding, Manhasset, N.Y.; Julia Harvey, Havertown, Pa.; Mary Jane Keller, Martha Reese, Lancaster, Pa.; Anne Lappen, Logan; Susan Ruggles, Cleveland; Patricia Shelton, Dallas, Tex.; Dollie Shen, Great Neck, N.Y.; Susan Smedley, Madison, Tenn.; Diana Veasey, Chatham, N.Y.; Pamela White, Marietta; Cara Whitling, Cincinnati.

The members of Ohio Δ began the semester by holding an all-day chapter retreat which was both beneficial and enjoyable. While there, they discussed various aspects of fraternity life and offered suggestions to the incoming officers.

The chapter joined K Γ and K Θ in presenting the annual Trionym dance. The members also had a party with its brother fraternity, B Θ II.

The candidates for Angel Flight are Marilyn Danner, Linda DeLone and Sue Ruggles. The present Pi Beta Phi on Angel Flight are Janine Bowling, Lee Metcalf and Barb Tatum.

The members of Ohio Δ were honored by the visit of Mrs. Smetts, Gamma Province President. As her visit coincided with initiation and all its celebrations, she was able to see the chapter on various occasions, including the initiation banquet and the scholarship dinner, which was modified this year to a scholarship dessert. Chapter scholarship awards went to Sandy Schatz, the senior with the highest average, Gail Garrison, the pledge with the highest average, and Fran Nelson, the active who showed the most improvement.

Pi Beta Phi on the Dean's List this semester are Ann Hofstra, Margo Johnson and Fran Nelson.

A Pi Beta Phi alumna, Mrs. Margaret Twyman, spoke to the student body in a recent AWS assembly. The school's Merrick Lecture Series featured Dr. Will Herberg, who gave several speeches concerning religion and culture.

Ohio Wesleyan is going on a tri-semester system next year. The faculty and student body are also looking forward to the completion of two new dormitories which will be ready for occupancy in the fall. Social highlights of the winter were the concerts given by the Linteliers and the Four Freshmen.

OHIO EPSILON—UNIVERSITY OF TOLEDO. Chartered, April 28, 1945. Pledge Day, March 27, 1963.

Many activities kept Ohio E busy during the spring semester. The annual Fraternity Men's Open House was held on March 31. Marilyn Morris was chairman. Theresa Blazic was appointed to Student Senate and named Greek Week rally chairman. Carol Quertinnont was service project chairman of Greek Week.

Dorene Mowery and Pat Sullivan were candidates for ROTC queen of the annual Military Ball.

The thirty-fourth annual convention of the Ohio Association for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation was held in Toledo, February 28 through March 8.

President Carlson announced the building of a new men's dormitory, Carter Hall, to be completed by September, 1964. It will house 280 men.

Sharon Osterud Richards has been selected as Amy Burnham Onken candidate of Ohio E.

Two traveling Pi Beta Phi spring semester are Lee Good who has been selected for the Washington Semester Program and Judy Anderson who is in France studying under the Sweet Briar "Junior Year Abroad."

Three Pi Beta Phi beauties are Lynda Lokay, Σ A E Sweetheart, Pam Maky, the ROTC Military Ball Queen for 1963, and Betsy Chamberlain, who has been chosen as one of the finalists for the Sweetheart of Σ X.

Campus elections took place at the beginning of the spring semester with Pi Beta Phi again actively participating. Carol Heinze was elected president of Denison Christian Association and Martha Tuttle was elected co-president of Women's Council. Two freshmen, Carol Westerman and Marilyn Naish, were chosen as presidents of their dorms.

With new Student Union facilities, inter-sorority bowling teams were formed and Pi Beta Phi took first place in competition.

Slanted keys and straight arrows were seen campus-wide on March 1 as the Pi Beta Phi and KKG celebrated their founding with the annual Monmouth Duo Dance.

MARYLAND BETA—UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND. Chartered, June 17, 1944. Pledge Day, March 11, 1964. INITIATED, February 16, 1963: Carol Rozeboom, Baltimore; Carol Stevens, Anne Venables, Towson; Patricia Mullendore, Silver Spring; Mary Teresa Clark, Sandra Myrant, Bethesda; Sue LeGuin Dayton, Salisbury; Candace Crawford, Annapolis; Fay Tomasello, Cheverly; Marilyn Krueger, Hyattsville; Maureen Cunnare, Garrett Park; Dixie Virginia Absher, Washington, D.C.; Arlene Pullia, Hammonton, N.J.

Maryland B began the spring semester socially with a visit from Mrs. Massenburg, Delta Province President. During Mrs. Massenburg's visit, the chapter had its scholarship dinner honoring those with high averages. Planned are an exchange dinner and dessert with A X A and desserts with Σ X, A E II, and A P P. Two fireside chats, one having as guests Δ T Δ and three foreign students, will be held. Dr. Daston of the Psychology Department and Mrs. Welsh of the Home Economics College, both from the University of Maryland, will be the speakers. On May 10 the social season will be concluded by the annual Pi Beta Phi spring formal at Kenwood Country Club. There will be a banquet and dance.

Maryland B's are in many activities for the spring semester. Fran Cockey is seating chairman for the All-Women's convocation, Jill Jefferis is the publicity chairman of the Sophomore Carnival and section editor of the M-Book. Pi Beta Phi is well represented in the class proms. Joline DeHart is chairman of the banquet for the Junior Prom, Sandy Semma is Queens Chairman for the Sophomore Prom, Sandy Myrant is chairman of the Chaperons Committee for the Freshman Dance, and Candy Crawford is chairman of Chaperons for the Junior Panhellenic Dance.

More honors came to Maryland B this spring semester when Mary Ann Cooper made the Dean's List with a 4.0 Ginny Wright was initiated into K T A, the journalism honorary; and Jill Kugler was initiated into Φ X Θ , the women's business honorary.

Informal rush began February 19. Entertainment consisted of a Beta Witch skit, informal folk singing, a coke date, a skating party, and dinner parties.

PLEDGED: Edith Bohlauer, Audrey Langrell, Towson; Jackie Bennett, Severna Park; Carolyn Gordon, Baltimore.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA ALPHA—THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1889. Pledge Day, Feb. 21, 1963. INITIATED, February 17, 1963: Diana Davis, Tacoma, Wash.; Katherine Haidos, Hibbing, Minn.; Patricia Latta, Durham, N.C.; Sally McMahon, Eastchester, N.Y.; Ruth Lindley Muller, Annandale, Va.; Linda A. Viray, Washington, D.C.

One of the highlights of our fall semester was the visit paid to us by Mrs. Howard C. Stuck, Jr., ARROW Editor in October. She attended one of our pledges' meetings and greatly inspired them with a talk about the ideals of a fraternity woman and Pi Beta Phi. Many helpful suggestions were made and her stay was greatly enjoyed by all concerned.

After the official pledging ceremony a party was held in honor of our new lovely fourteen pledges at Carol Water's house. Another party was given for our pledges on December 3 at the home of Margie Martin, followed by the Pledge Formal held at the International Inn. In return, a party was given in honor of the active chapter after the dance at the home of pledge Lelia Troup.

Homecoming was represented well by Suzanne Ritter and Margie Hughes who were runners-up for Homecoming Queen. Margie Martin was the Stage Manager for the play, "Bye Bye Birdie" and Carol Waters, Ann Long, Margie Hughes, and Suzanne Ritter were in the cast. Patricia Poindexter had a leading dance role.

The annual Pledge Goat Show was a time of high excitement and great pride for us all, as our talented pledges received the First Place cup for Originality. Many thanks go to Katherine Haidos, pledge in charge, and Nan Webster and Dina Kocsis, actives in charge, for their support and guidance.

The annual $\Phi \Sigma K$ Miss Model Pledge contest was represented by Sally Beer, Sara Frampton, and Beverly Faylor, who were finalists in this competition.

One of our pledges, Lelia Troup, made her debut at the International Inn during the Thanksgiving holidays, having her picture appear in Life magazine. During the Christmas holidays another party given in her honor was well attended by her new Pi Beta Phi sisters as she made her entrance into Washington society.

On February 16 a Pi Beta Phi Pink Party was given for the soon-to-be initiates at the residence of Margie Hughes. The girls turned in their pledge pins at midnight, and awakened the next morning full of eager anticipation of their initiation to be held that afternoon in the District of Columbia rooms. Following the ceremony a banquet was given at the home of Mrs. Karabotsis in honor of our new sisters.

Recently selected for Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges are Sharon Glenn, Margie Martin, Suzanne Ritter. Pi Beta Phi is also represented in $\Phi B K$ by Isabel Davies. Justice Douglas gave a reception in honor of Foreign Student Day on December 4 and ten American students were chosen from our University to attend, including Sharon Glenn and Margie Martin. A dinner was held at our president's home (Dr. Thomas H. Carroll) for campus leaders and attending were Margie Martin, Sharon Glenn, and Suzanne Ritter, Perle Mesta, Washington's first hostess, is giving a banquet and reception for outstanding student leaders of the Washington Metropolitan area universities. Margie Martin, Sharon Glenn, and Suzanne Ritter have been invited.

Active around campus are: Sharon Glenn, co-editor in chief of the Cherry Tree, vice president of Mortar Board; Suzanne Ritter, co-editor of Greek section of the Cherry Tree, Mecheleev Miss, Cherry Tree Princess; Margie Hughes, staff member of the Cherry Tree; Nan Webster, vice president of Panhellenic Council; Patricia Poindexter, who has the leading role and solo numbers in the upcoming Dance Concert; Margie Martin, elected to $\Pi E \Delta$, dramatic honorary, and served as president of Standards Committee for Willard Hall at the Northwestern University summer session; Katherine Haidos, who was featured in a recent article appearing in the Washington Post and Times Herald Potomac magazine. Pi Beta Phi placed first in both the I.S.A.B. bowling & swimming meets.

Upcoming events include; a Monmouth Duo celebration which is being currently observed by a breakfast in the Pi Beta Phi rooms, a luncheon in the $K K \Gamma$ rooms, and a combined dinner in a nearby restaurant. Selected to act as usherettes for the Interfraternity Sing, March 1st, are Linda Viray and Margie Martin; and District of Columbia Λ is presently preparing and practicing for the Panhellenic Sing, to be held March 8.

Fraternities we have had and plan to have exchanges with are $\Sigma \Delta E$, ΣX , $\Pi K \Lambda$, $A E \Pi$, $\Delta T \Delta$, $\Phi \Sigma K$, and $\Sigma \Phi E$.

VIRGINIA GAMMA—WILLIAM AND MARY. Chartered, 1925. Pledge Day, February 19, 1963. INITIATED, January 13, 1963; Helen Routh, Alexandria; Ellen Rennolds, Richmond.

Second semester began for Virginia Γ with an exciting and promising rush in which the chapter gained eighteen new pledges and a filled quota. Acceptance Day climaxed an exhausting but very rewarding rush campaign. During rush week Virginia Γ was pleased to have a visit from our province president, Mrs. Massenburg, who offered her advice and encouragement and enjoyed rush as much as we did.

Honors in scholarship and intramural activities have put spirit into the chapter and spurred it on to greater efforts. Dean's List students who helped to raise the chapter's scholastic average include: Diane Bright, Suzanne Frayser, Cynthia Fulwiler, Janet Norment, Susan Roberts, Susan Stevenson, Anne Sweatt, Sandy Tolbert, Ann Tomlinson, and Emily Vawter. Some of the chapter's increase in scholarship was attributed to friendly rivalry engendered by our scholarship competition, in which girls with similar averages were paired off, and those receiving the higher grades last semester were treated by the losers to a buffet dinner at the house.

Activity in intramural sports have become a challenging and integral part of the life of Virginia Γ . Having just won the volleyball championship, we are enthusiastically turning out for bowling and basketball competition, looking forward to swimming and softball and the hope of another Intramural Trophy this spring.

The chapter was very pleased and excited with the results of the redecoration of our kitchen, and we proudly showed off our lovely new kitchen to the rushees in February. For her outstanding work on this project, Mary Jane Mitchell, our house improvements chairman, was presented the A.B.O. Girl of the Month award by the chapter.

Virginia Γ has enjoyed fun-filled times in fraternity socials this semester with $K \Lambda$, $\Phi K T$, and $\Theta \Delta X$. Preparations for the pledge dance on March 22 are busily going ahead, and this dance promises to be one of our most successful.

PLEGDED: Mary Baker, Frances Brown, Margaret Conn, Kathryn Power, Arlington; Marie Fridesstine, Alexandria; Maureen Baber, Buchanan; Lillian Attardi, Charlottesville; Suzanne Stainback, Emporia; Deborah Shea, Harrisonburg; Robin Jenks, Hopewell; Patricia Patterson, Lynchburg; Jeanette Talley, Mechanicsville;

West Virginia Λ is proud to have several members in honorary organizations. Eileen Martin is a member of the Home-Economics honorary. Patricia Mummy is a member of $Z \Delta \Pi$. Spanish honorary. Carol Greenlee is vice president of the Home Economics honorary. Roxane Butts is program chairman of $\Sigma A H$, National Speech and Hearing society. Diane Brown is secretary of the National Forensics Society and treasurer of the Philosophical Society. Diane is going to have the privilege of reading a paper at the next State Philosophical Meeting.

Three Pi Beta Phi are now taking active parts in West Virginia University Theatre productions. Jane Shetler is a member of the Children's Theatre cast, and Kay Huffman and Susan Patterson are in the chorus of "Little Mary Sunshine," a musical production.

The Pi Beta Phi are happy to have Patricia Full as their Monticola Queen Candidate. Mae West is the Pi Beta Phi Cappar Queen Candidate, and Linda MacMorrow is the $\Pi K \Lambda$ candidate for Mens' Pan. The Pi Beta Phi are very proud of Carol Greenlee, a Homecoming Queen attendant, and Carol Flenniken, who is Cover Girl of the Year.

Diane Brown, Linda MacMorrow, and Carol Flenniken were chosen Army Sponsors. Diane Hunter is a member of Orchesis, and Mary Hill and Jane Shetler are members of Dolphins.

In the fall, Mae West, Velma Conley, Diane Brown, Harriet Brawley, and Carol Flenniken were chosen for Freshman Guides, and Lou Gene Bartram and Carol Flenniken were selected as Transfer Guides.

West Virginia Λ is well represented this semester on campus. Carol Flenniken is a member of the new Sorority Executive Committee. Kathryn Sneddon is secretary of the Freshman Projects Steering Committee, and Nanci Nunn is a member of Goldiggers Steering Committee. Carol Flenniken is a member of Greater West Virginia Steering Committee, and LouAnne Virgin is on Greater West Virginia Sub-Committee. NORTH CAROLINA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA. Chartered, 1923. INITIATED, February 17, 1963; Tricia Armstrong, Ann Branch, Carol Manning, Chapel Hill; Lillian Beach, Arlington, Va.; Ethel Bush, New Orleans, La.; Judy Butler, Wilmington; Anne Eskridge, Shelby; Joan Haley, Charlotte Wheland, Lookout Mountain, Tenn.; Pat Hall, New York, N.Y.; Bonnie Horner, Spruce Pines; Pankin Houston, Atlanta, Ga.; Bonnie Hoyle, Henderson; Gene Hunter, Asheville; Betsy Kalkhurst, Sue Simonds, Raleigh; Burnley Kinney, Greensboro; Bonnie Lowder, Albemarle; Judy Merritt, Mt. Airy; Bee Pitt, Tarboro; Sandy Saine, Lincolnton; Carol Starr, Winston, D.C.; Sally Tathwell, Charlotte.

On January 11, the week-end after Christmas vacation, North Carolina Λ had its pledge dance. Since snowy weather had interfered with pledge dance plans in previous years, the members of the chapter took every precaution by holding the dinner and dance at the Carolina Inn, which is located directly on campus.

Recently Judge Van Vlaanderen was chosen "Best Dressed Co-ed" after competing with fourteen other contestants from dormitories and other sororities. As a representative of the University of North Carolina she will compete with other college girls in the national contest sponsored by Glamour Magazine. Of all the contestants, ten will be pictured in Glamour.

The week of February 18, the University of North Carolina sponsored a mock United Nations Assembly. Representatives from various colleges gathered here, and as a result North Carolina Λ was pleased to have two girls staying at the house.

SOUTH CAROLINA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA. Chartered, October, 1928. Pledge Day, February 20, 1963. INITIATED, February 10, 1963; Stephanie Adair, Rose Begg, Brenda Bell, Linda Cannon, Tinx Cushman, Suzanne Henderson, Rachel Johnston, Sara Jones, Glenn Millsap, Patricia Roessle.

South Carolina ran away with all the honors in a swim meet sponsored as part of the inter-sorority athletic program this past March. Those taking part in the meet were Sis Mullis, Stephanie Adair, Helen Thackston, Genie Howie, and Ann Sanders.

In the Panhellenic presentation of the reading of the play, The Women, Brenda Williams won the award for having the best costume. The play was directed by Ruthie Henderson.

South Carolina Λ is in the process of planning a trip to the Settlement School in Gatlinburg towards the end of April. It will be a very nice spring weekend for the Pi Beta Phis. It is also hoped that Delta Province President, Mrs. Katherine Black Massenburg, will be able to plan her spring visit so that she will also be able to go to Gatlinburg.

Brenda Williams was selected as one of the four outstanding sorority women on the college campus. She was also selected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Terry Berger was elected president of A A Δ, women's honorary fraternity. Glenn Millsap was elected vice president. Other new members are Judy Williams, Joyce Whaley, Suzanne Henderson and Linda Cannon.

South Carolina is also planning a tea with the alumnae and the mothers of the members for the spring.

Michigan A was happy to have as a guest from February 25 to February 27 Mrs. Virginia Meyer, province president. During her visit a tea was held and a cookie shine was given by the juniors in honor of Mrs. Meyer and the senior class.

Representing Pi Beta Phi on the J-Hop Queen's court were Patti Doyle and Nancy Carleton.

Carol Ann Coppler won the Snow Queen competition at Hillsdale. She presented a medley of songs from "The King and I."

The new editor of the Collegian, campus newspaper, is Nancy Carleton.

At our Mardi Gras weekend, the Pi Beta Phi pledges won first place in the pledge booths with their idea of a southern plantation.

We have started a new plan of having a Culture Hour every two weeks. Such topics as European vs. American Education and Robert Frost have been discussed. As often as possible, college professors are invited to take part.

REPLEGDED, February 13, 1963: Bobbi Alton, Pontiac; Sue Steudel, Gary, Ind.

PLEGDED: March 6, 1963: Marion Vesyser, St. Clair Shores; Cynthia Benzing, Marilyn Bunce, Diane Burket, Hillsdale; Nan Grabb, Annandale, Va.; Mimi MacKenzie, Grosse Pointe; Donna Evans, Rochester, N.Y.

MICHIGAN BETA—UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN. Chartered, 1886. Pledge Day, February 24, 1963.

Rush is always the main concern of Michigan B in the spring semester at the University of Michigan, and so it was again this year. Everyone was extremely happy when twenty-eight new Pi Beta Phi pledges were added to the chapter.

Elections of the campus Panhellenic Association March 4 saw Suzanne Sherwood elected to the position of scholarship chairman and Ellen Brockman to the position of rush chairman.

Michigan B was honored by a visit from the Epsilon Province President, Mrs. Russel Meyer, the week of March 11.

Spring Weekend, a semi-annual event on Michigan's campus, was entered into with much enthusiasm. The weekend traditionally includes such events as a canoe race, a skit night, and a campus-wide dance. This year Michigan B entered the weekend with Δ Ts. Chairmen for the chapter were Pamela Stone, Doris Hodges, and Cheryl Webb.

Much excitement prevailed winter term when the campus scholarship standings were announced. As the result of a well executed study program, Michigan Γ attained third place among women's fraternities.

Chapter members kept busy this winter by giving a fireside party for the new pledges and by inviting various faculty members to a scholarship-faculty dinner, at which gifts were presented to chapter members achieving a 3.00 or better for the previous term. On March 2 Pi Beta Phi and K K Γ danced among decorations of arows and keys at the annual Monmouth Duo.

Among chapter members receiving honors were Nancy Doerner and Ann Ruebensaal on the Dean's List for attaining a 4.00 fall term. Dorothy Goffinet was selected as Queen of Wilson Hall.

Michigan Γ is looking forward to the visit of Mrs. Russel Meyer, province president, on March 4.

PLEGDED: Diana Altar, Judy Antinoja, Barbara Hunt, Gail Kinsel, Donna Meyer, Jeri Pflanz, Detroit; Barbara Bell, Jackson; Margaret Gallivan, Teri McCurry, Birmingham; Dorothy Goffinet, Evansville, Ind.; Nancy Gokenbach, St. Clair Shores; Judy Griika, Toledo, Ohio; Lynn Ivey, Bronxville, N.Y.; Pat Parker, Grosse Pointe; Julie Purcell, Battle Creek; Sue Roth, Brookline, Mass.; Ann Ruebensaal, Chagrin Falls, Ohio; Sue Scherbarth, Cleveland, Ohio; Candy Surline, West Branch; Mary Van Zanden, Holland; Linda Yacobush, Elma, N.Y.

The annual Winter Carnival was held on campus on February 1 and 2. The big event of the weekend, the Ice Frolics, was a huge success. Ontario A actively participated with four of its members being skaters in the ice show and also by having an entry in the snow sculpture contest.

The Granite Club of Toronto was the scene of the Panhellenic banquet on February 4. All eight of the women's fraternities were well-represented and everyone thoroughly enjoyed the guest speaker, Dr. Geiger-Torel, a well-known Canadian opera singer.

On February 17, Ontario A held its Family Day Tea at the chapter house. It was a wonderful opportunity to meet and speak with the families of the active and alumnae members.

Sandy Ainsworth, the newly-elected president of the chapter, received the Scholastic Achievement Award for the highest standing among the members in the 1961-1962 college year.

The spring term was brought to a fitting close with the annual formal at the Lord Simcoe Hotel on March 2.

ONTARIO BETA—UNIVERSITY OF WESTERN ONTARIO. Chartered, October 1934.

Following Christmas vacation, Ontario B was deep in plans for formal rushing. The parties, based on the theme of a gala hotel premiere, were held from January 31 to February 3. Both freshettes and members quite enjoyed the premiere complete with a coloured home movie made by our own chapter.

Winter Weekend at Western began the month of February. The highlight of the weekend was the Arts and Science Ball with five out of ten candidates for Ball Queen Pi Beta Phi: Mary Jane Pryce, Sally Young, Sharon Maclean, Ruth McMane, and Heather Johnston. By a vote of the whole student body Heather was chosen queen. On Thursday night Marnie Campion, Western's top figure-skater, highlighted the Ice Carnival with her outstanding performance.

During this term we have had inter-fraternity parties with K A Society and Δ T on campus. This weekend we are attending our annual scholarship spaghetti dinner with Δ X.

In campus elections Pi Beta Phi again took their share of offices. Carole Kennedy was elected '64 representative to University College Council; Anne Sengbusch was elected '65 representative to Middlesex College Council; Lynne Taylor is '64 vice president at Middlesex College; Mary Greenwood is '64 representative to University College Council, and Mary Jane Pryce is '64 vice president at University College.

Receiving awards this year were Ruth McMane who was nominated our candidate for the Amy Burnham Onken Award, and Sue Edwards who won the Chapter Service Award.

We are now looking forward to our annual formal dance on March 8 preceded by a buffet supper at Nancy Aikenhead's and followed by a post-dance party at Patty Travers.

Among the new initiates Sherri Tschirgi was awarded the honor of being named best pledge. Carol Causey received honors for having the highest scholarship.

The Indiana Γ Chapter was honored to welcome Miss Jacquelyn Jeanne Mayer, Miss America of 1963, and an Illinois E Pi Beta Phi, when she arrived at the Indianapolis airport on the evening of February 16. Pam Uley presented her with a corsage of wine carnations. On February 17, the chapter was invited to a tea with Miss Mayer as the guest of honor. She spoke of her wonderful experiences since being named Miss America and encouraged others to follow in her footsteps.

On March 2, Marlene Reese was chosen as the Sweetheart of ΣX once again, but this time for the state of Indiana.

Something new was added in the way of acquiring more knowledge of the Fraternity at Indiana Γ this semester. Several different panel discussions were organized with the purpose of imparting a greater awareness of the specific duties of the various officers to all chapter members. These discussions were very interesting as well as informative.

Marlene Reese, Lydia Hildreth, and Pam Uley were nominated as candidates for phase #1 of "Operation Outstanding" on the Butler campus. This activity chooses the best representatives from the student body according to their school service, citizenship, activities, and scholarship.

Indiana Γ has been asked to present a skit for the Pi Beta Phi

Founders' Day State Luncheon. The chapter is looking forward to the annual meeting with the other Zeta Province Pi Beta Phis on the weekend of April 27.

Several Indiana Z Pi Phis have brought honor to themselves and to the chapter through their leadership, scholastic and talent efforts. Nancy Lee Cambridge, Gloria Tobler and Marsha Hewitt are serving on the Executive Council of the Student Center Governing Board. Nancy Beam was elected to the Student Senate, an important legislative group on campus.

As a result of scholastic achievement, Lorna Miller Naylor has recently become a member of $\Sigma T \Delta$, English honorary, and Ellen Lockwood has joined $\Delta \Phi \Phi$, journalism honorary. Ellen has also brought honor to herself and to Pi Beta Phi by being named Design and Layout Editor for the 1964 school yearbook, the Orient. She has also been chosen as society editor for the Ball State News. Linda Loats has received recognition as the outstanding sophomore in the Home Economics Department by virtue of her scholarship.

We are all very proud of our nineteen new pledges and are now in the process of planning for spring rush. Several of our pledges have earned recognition on campus. Cathy Hosier is secretary and Arline Beck is treasurer of the freshman class. We are also proud of Sharon Gustavel who represented Pi Beta Phi as a member of the court for Blue Key Sweetheart.

Two Indiana Z Pi Beta Phis, Kay Cross, sponsored by $\Lambda X \Lambda$ and Betsy Noel, sponsored by $\Sigma \Phi E$ were finalists in the Miss Ball State Beauty Contest. Betsy went on to become a member of the court.

Finals are just about upon us and we are all working hard toward maintaining the scholastic recognition we received for last quarter's work. We raised our scholastic standing on campus from seventh to second place!

To celebrate the Valentine Season, Kentucky B held its first formal dance at the Tates Creek Country Club. The theme for the dance was "Beaux and Arrows." Later that week, A X A entertained the chapter with a dessert and jam session at their chapter house.

Then came the wonderful weekend of initiation. Our former graduate counselor, Mary Ann (Skip) Harris was the guest speaker at the initiation banquet. Also at the banquet, Carol Ann Harper was awarded the Marianne Reid Wild Spirit Award, and recognized for being the active with the highest standing. Lucia McDowell received the Mary Ann (Skip) Harris Award to the outstanding pledge, Susan Bailey was recognized as the pledge with the highest standing and Betty Kavanaugh was the active with the greatest scholastic improvement. The pledge class presented the chapter with a silver coffee server and a flag, which were greatly needed and appreciated.

Kentucky B is proud of its four members who attained perfect scholastic standings last semester, Susan Bailey, Myrtle Lee Coffee, Carol Harper, and Jan Mitts. We also congratulate Betty Kavanaugh and Vanda Marcum for being named to the Dean's List with a standing of 3.6 or better.

From February 27 to March 1, we were honored to have Mrs. Henry Moore, Grand Treasurer, as our guest. Plans are being discussed for a new chapter house.

Harriet Heiber was chosen to represent Kentucky B at the Southeastern Conference Panhellenic Convention at Auburn, Ala. Barbara Dean was recently elected as president of the A T Ω Little Sisters.

The campus is looking forward to Greek Week and the Little Kentucky Derby Week-end to be held later this semester. Vanda Marcum is a finalist for Outstanding Greek Woman.

TENNESSEE BETA—VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY. Chartered, November 9, 1940. Pledge Day, February 4, 1963. Tennessee B is happy to welcome back three of our members, Judy Shanks, Jane Evans and Stephanie Souby who spent fall semester at the Vanderbilt extension school in Aix-en-Provence, France. Francie Roedel is spending her junior year at the University of Vienna in Austria, and will return to Vanderbilt in the fall.

The Pi Beta Phis have been hostesses to several campus professors who have held fireside chats at the chapter house. We were also honored to have Bryan Green, the English evangelist, speak at the Pi Beta Phi house while he was in Nashville. We are looking forward to a visit in the very near future from a special celebrity, Jackie Mayer, our current Miss America. A luncheon has been planned in her honor.

On February 22, the Pi Beta Phi pledges were honored at the annual pledge dance. They have been entertained at pledge swaps with A T O, Π K A and Σ X, and they joined the K Σ Φ pledges in a Saturday work swap.

The Pi Beta Phis have been busy participating in campus activities such as Athenian Sing, intramural basketball and bowling. Serving on yearbook staff are Pam Oliver and Phyllis Curtis, and on the Hustler staff are Lynn Mayes and Ann Marie Mathis. Other Pi Beta Phi honors include Cornelia Cunningham who was a member of the Miss Charm Court, and Suzanne Parker who reigns as Miss Dixie Belle.

Last semester Δ Δ Δ accepted our scholarship challenge. The winners will be treated to an ice cream party which will be given by the losers. The Pi Beta Phis are hopefully anticipating a delightful ice cream feast.

Plans are being made for the Greek Week Charity Carnival which is to be held in March. Each fraternity and sorority will enter a booth and the proceeds will go to a Nashville orphanage. Pi Beta Phi's booth will feature a chorus line and other side show attractions. Our chairman for this event is Judy Shanks.

PLEGDED: Frances Civitts, Eleanor Lentz, Mary Robinson, Dorothy White, Nashville; Carolyn Cousins, Susan Smith, Memphis; Phyllis Smith, Chattanooga; Nancy Ann Arend, Patricia Trueblood, Kirkwood, Mo.; Frances Avery, Alamo; Carol Ann Cofer, Linda Carol Lester, El Dorado, Ark.; Martha Ann Finch, Tulsa, Okla.; Emaline Henard, Hopkinsville, Ky.; Mary Jewell, Franklin; Mary Elizabeth Monroe, Dallas, Tex.; Nancy Gayle Morgan, Greenville, S.C.; Suzanne Parker, DeWitt, Ark.; Ann Roach, Mayfield, Ky.; Margot Steenland, Houston, Tex.; Suzanne Straight, Miami, Fla.; Patricia Wood, West Hartford, Conn.

During spring quarter at the University of Tennessee the biggest event in the annual All-Sing. Pi Beta Phi, singing "Dis Train" placed second in the intermediate group competition to add another trophy to their collection.

In the recent A. W. S. elections, Glenna McMahan was elected as the editor of the Tennessee Girl. Bette Stubbs was elected as the senior representative from the College of Liberal Arts.

Susan Lacky has been chosen by Panhellenic as their assistant rush chairman for fall 1963. After being trained for a year, Susan will take over the role of rush chairman in 1964.

Tennessee Γ is especially proud of pledge Adele Kinsey. Adele recently won the National Make-it-Yourself With Wool Contest. Adele is now busily modeling her suit in and around Knoxville and soon will be taking her prize-winning trip to Hawaii.

Tennessee Γ is preparing for Carnicus, the annual spring quarter activity at the University of Tennessee. Jane Johnson has been appointed as co-chairman of Carnicus. Jane is also acting as a co-chairman of the Debate Team.

In the women's fraternity basketball competition, the chapter won first place in the senior division. It is hoped that another intramural trophy can be placed in our room.

Bonnie Perkins has been chosen as one of the five finalists in Nahheeyayli's Choice. Bonnie will be presented at the spring concert where the queen will be presented to the audience. Joan Porter was recently chosen by the chapter as their candidate for the Engineer's Ball Dream Girl. Joan was also selected as a candidate for the Pledge Sweetheart of Σ Φ E.

A new Panhellenic building is forecast for the coming year. The chapter is very anxious to put their long awaited talents to work in their new room.

TENNESSEE DELTA—MEMPHIS STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, February 24, 1962. Pledge Day, March 4, 1963. INITIATED, February 16, 1963: Elizabeth Alsobrook, Halls; Pamela Beaver, Collierville; Diane Brock, Chattanooga; Jackie Brothers, Dyersburg; Sherry Busy, Sue Williams, Poplar Bluff, Mo.; Patsy Davidson, Peggy Faquin, Marissee Gallina, Carla Gates, Beth Hefley Martha May, Beverly Mayer, Suzanne Rawlings, Linda and Pamela Simmons, Dottie Santi, Memphis; Carolyn Dornblaser, North Little Rock, Ark.; Sue Holloway, Covington; Tommy Loyd, Dresden; Susan Shankle, Camden, Ark.

Pre-initiation highlighted the beginning of second semester with the twenty-one girls to be initiated the guests on honor at their first cooky-shine on Friday Feb. 15. Following initiation ceremonies the actives held a banquet for their "little sisters" at the Knickerbocker and awards were made. Jackie Brothers, real life little sister of Kay Brothers, a graduating senior, was awarded a golden charm for "Most Outstanding Pledge" by the actives. Jackie also received the Pledge Scholarship Award with her 3.98 average. Tommy Loyd received the pledge's award for "Most Unselfish Pledge." Pam Wheeler received the Active Scholarship Award with her 4.0 average, a perfect score at Memphis State. Outgoing president, Ann Barbour, was given a bouquet of long-stemmed red roses by the active chapter, and Patsy Hall was voted the pledge class's "Arrow Girl."

Aly-Sing followed March 7, and Tennessee Δ , in keeping with the theme "Salute to America's Composers", sang a medley of three songs from "Li'l Abner". Actives and pledges dressed up like "Tennessee Hillbillies".

In a more lady-like fashion, Tennessee Δ helped the Mothers' Club put on the annual fashion show "Pi Phi Peeps Into Spring". Following the show a reception was held in the Pi Phi suite for parents of the out-of-town Tennessee Δ . Money raised from the fashion show went to buy the new stereo which now is the focus of all attention in the Pi Beta Phi room.

The Mothers' Club held their annual Spring Luncheon in late May, honoring Tennessee Δ and the out-of-town mothers who belong to the club. As usual, the luncheon was beautifully served, and the arrangements of spring flowers in golden arrows were lovely.

Seven girls from Tennessee Δ went out for Angel Flight rush, but as of this writing invitations have not been extended. Pi Beta Phi on the M.S.U. campus have been fortunate, however, Pam Wheeler, Becky Goodwood, Linda McComas, Ann Barbour, and Liz Larsen McKinnon were chosen to be Pickettes. Carol Stubbs, Sylvia Thayer, and Beverly Burkett are new members of the ΣX Sweetheart Club. Sally McGregor was elected historian of $\Delta X A$'s Crescent Club. Beverly Mayer, Patsy Hall, and Mary Ann Holloway are recent new members of the Little Sisters of Minerva. Barbara Anderson is Acacia Sweetheart and Sue Holloway, a recent initiate, is the Sweetheart of $\Phi M A$.

In extra-curricular activities Tennessee Δ scored highly. Kay Brothers is vice president of Mynders dormitory, a counselor, a member of the Inter-Judiciary Council for Women, plus being on the dormitory Executive Committee. Sally McGregor, a graduating senior is a counselor in Smith Hall, treasurer of the dormitory, a member of the Inter-Dormitory Council, plus being vice president of the Physical Education Majors' club. Orchesis chose Pamela Wheeler, Barbara Anderson, and Bobbie Lynn Morrow. In addition, Pam and Linda McComas have just finished a successful year of being Greek Editors of the "Desoto", Memphis State's yearbook.

THETA PROVINCE

ALABAMA ALPHA—BIRMINGHAM-SOUTHERN Chartered, October 7, 1927. INITIATED, February 2, 1963: Celia Ann Mills, Birmingham; Carolyn Gomillion, Montgomery; Christine McPhaul, Ozark; Ann Paulk, Hartselle; Mary Pulliam, Berry; Sylvia Shumake, Decatur; Lyn Ward, Prattville; Ann McKnight, Aleeta Paulk, Nashville, Tenn.

The outstanding pledge award was given to Carolyn Gomillion and Ann Paulk received the cup for the highest scholastic average in the pledge class. Celia Ann Mills received the traditional award for the highest average or weekly pledge tests. The pledges of Alabama A had the highest average on the pledge final in Theta Province.

Alabama A was first in scholarship on campus fall quarter. Winter quarter Melinda Kerr and Nancy Odum were tapped for $K \Delta E$, and Anne Stinson was initiated into $\Phi X \Theta$, businesswomen's fraternity. Jean Ingels, Nancy Smith and Karla Tatum were elected to serve on the Dormitory House Council.

Pi Beta Phi took an active part in sports on campus and won second place in intramural basketball. In the intramurals tournaments Barbara Wright received runner-up honors in ping pong singles. Becky Scott placed second in badminton doubles, and Holly Farmer was in second place in the tennis doubles. The basketball all stars were: Becky Scott, Barbara Wright and Ann McKnight.

The chapter enjoyed preparing for annual campus skit night, Catspaw, with Judy Crow serving as chairman for the March 2 event. Also during Winter quarter the members entertained the local chapters of $\Pi K A$ and $\Delta X A$ with informal parties.

Alabama A was proud to have Nancy Dee Meeks in the role of "Louise" in the campus production of Moliere's Imaginary Invalid. The Amy Burnham Onken winner for Alabama A was Lee Herren.

KARLA TATUM

ALABAMA BETA—UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA. Chartered, September 19, 1949. INITIATED, March 3, 1963: Alice Cheneault, Ann Coats, Rhoda Graves, Lynn Grentner, Sherry Gray, Jane Harrison, Barbara Hilbert, Jenny Holmes, Judy Kipfer, Barbara Marks, Dottie Moeller, Anne Nichols, Richie Starnes, Dot Turnipseed, and Pinkie White, Nancy Wagner.

In Associated Women Students, Pi Beta Phi is quite active. Judy Murdock Lacey serves on Senior Council. Jan Wood, Dot Turnipseed and Nan Brooke, serve on Junior Council, Jane Hester and Connie Marshall on Sophomore Council, and Richie Starnes and Anne Nichols serve on Freshman Council. In recent elections, Richie Starnes was elected sophomore representative to AWS.

Campus activities do not lack Pi Beta Phi participation. In every organization can be found our members, working and lending support. Donna Griffiths serves as secretary of S.G.A., Margaret Miller is graduate representative to S.G.A., legislature. Susan Hardy is business manager of the Crimson-White, the campus newspaper. Judy Murdock Lacey serves as Cotillion Club Secretary, a position Pi Beta Phi has held for the past seven years.

Pi Beta Phi lead the membership of Triangle, an honorary service organization requiring good grades and activities.

Nancy Wagner is serving as vice president of the Freshman YWCA and Anne Nichols serves as chaplain. Jan Wood is president of the school of Home Economics, and Barbara Carlton Fincher is a representative of the school of Arts and Sciences.

Judy Murdock Lacey and Maralyn Childress were elected recently to Who's Who in American Colleges. Maralyn was also elected to $\Phi B K$.

Nan Brooke was elected to serve as scholarship chairman of Panhellenic.

Diane Thornberg supported the Crimson Tide football team as a Crimson Girl. Sherry Gray and Barbara Carlton Fincher were chosen as Bama Belles, the weekly beauty pictured in the campus paper. Sherry also was one of the top three finalists for the ΣX Derby. Jan Russel was one of the top four representatives in the Corolla Beauty Court. Jan also served as football sponsor and Air Force ROTC sponsor. While Pi Beta Phi was awarded second place for last fall's Homecoming Lawn Decorations, Deede McFadden represented the chapter as first alternate to Homecoming Queen. Three other Pi Beta Phi were finalists in sweetheart courts; Anne Coats, $\Sigma \Phi E$, Donna Smith, $\Pi K \Phi$ Star, and Nancy Wagner in the $X \Phi$ Ideal girl court. Debbie Campbell was chosen Figi Flapper, the sweetheart of $\Phi \Gamma \Delta$.

GRACE DALTON

ALABAMA GAMMA—AUBURN UNIVERSITY. Chartered Feb. 2, 1957. Pledge Day, February 28, 1963. INITIATED, February 1, 1963: Nancy Barrett, Mary Ann Long, Nell Spivey, Nancy Jennings, Donna Vandever, Kay Lee Wilson, Birmingham; Jean Callaway, Carol Turner, Ann Williams, Sylcauga; Mary Margaret Page, Gadsden; Suzanne Temple, Evergreen; Sara Pearson, Opelika; Linda Sessions, Anniston; Mary Ann McCraw, Andalusia.

Winter quarter on the Auburn campus was a busy one for Alabama Gamma. Early January found the chapter at Jo-Su-Li Farms in Colquitt, Ga. the home of Lil Cross, for a weekend retreat. Two weekends later, we held our formal, which was a roaring success. Instead of our regular formal dinner-dance, we had a costume party, for which the girls and their dates dressed as "opposites" in movies, and such notables as "Ben Casey", Scarlett O'Hara", and "Suzie Wong" were among the celebrities present.

Many of our girls took honors this quarter. After winning the honor of division sweetheart, Joan Odum went on to win the title of "Miss Magnolia Dormitory". Pat Hill was chosen a Glomerata favorite. Lee Rolling was one of the five finalists for $\Delta \Sigma \Phi$ Sweetheart, Jinny McBride was a finalist for sweetheart of $T K E$, and Sandra Farris was a finalist for $A \Phi \Omega$ Sweetheart. Ann Windham represented us as a candidate for $A \Gamma P$ sweetheart, Nancy Jennings for $\Theta \Sigma$ sweetheart, and Charlotte Keller for ΔT sweetheart.

Margaret Buford is currently one of the five finalists for the title of "Miss Auburn". Lee Rolling, Barbara Wallace, Joan Odum, Jinny McBride, and Judy Watt were candidates for Navy Color Girl. Mary Ann McCraw is representing us as a candidate for Greek Goddess.

A highlight of the quarter was the visit of the province president, Mrs. Derringer. She gave the chapter many helpful suggestions.

In February, the chapter enjoyed a pledge swap with $\Phi \Gamma \Delta$. At the initiation banquet held on February 3, Sharon Anthony and Sara Pearson tied for the best pledge award, and Carol Turner received the pledge scholarship award. The active scholarship award went to Linda Ellis, and Pat Hill received the activity award.

On February 23, the Southeastern Panhellenic Conference was held at Auburn, and our chapter enjoyed taking part in it and meeting Pi Beta Phi from all over the Southeast. We were proud of the fact that we had more delegates in attendance than any other sorority on campus. The weekend was topped off with an informal cooky-shine where we exchanged ideas and songs.

The Montgomery alumnae presented the chapter with a beautiful new clock for the chapter room.

PLEGDED, January 27, 1963: Joy Kibbey, Tarrant; Jean King, Betty Emmens, Birmingham; Gail Wright, Tusculumbia.

CHARLOTTE KELLER

FLORIDA ALPHA—STETSON UNIVERSITY. Chartered, January 30, 1913. Pledge Day, February 28, 1963. The new school year began very well for Florida A. Karen Marion was chosen Miss Hatter at Stetson University's annual charity event, Green Feather Carnival. Penny Gray, representing ΣN , was second runner-up. Suzy Hankins, representing $\Sigma \Phi E$, and Suzanne Fletcher, representing $\Pi K A$, were also in the contest.

Florida A was teamed with $\Delta \Sigma \Phi$ during Greek Week and together won the skit on Skit Night. The theme of the skit was "Greeks, Past and Present".

Florida A was teamed with $\Delta \Sigma \Phi$ again for Stetson University's annual Homecoming in February. Pi Beta Phi and $\Delta \Sigma \Phi$ were awarded the trophy for the best float. This time was chosen to celebrate Pi Beta Phi's fiftieth anniversary on the Stetson campus. Four charter members, Mrs. Margaret Blocker Bartlett, Mrs. Gladys Sidway Curtis, Dr. Marie Dye, and Mrs. Mabel Eldridge Barnsley, were special guests at a luncheon honoring all Florida A alumnae. Mrs. Floyd Carson was the guest speaker. It was very rewarding to hear many tell about life in the chapter when they were at Stetson.

The following honors were announced at the beginning of second semester: Suzy Hankins had been nominated for the Woodrow Wilson Fellowship; Cissy Harris was the Sunshine Girl; The Outstanding Pledge was Gwen Knight; Martha Slaton was the Scholarship Pledge; and Sandy Liddy was voted Arrow Girl.

At the Panhellenic Banquet, on February 28, it was announced that Florida A had won the Scholarship Trophy for the first semester.

PLEDGED, October 6, 1962: Karen Anderson, Columbus, Ohio; Mary Barnhill, Hollywood; Leanne Duane, Pompano Beach; Suzanne Fletcher, Greensboro; Connie Fleishel, Cindy Morris, DeLand; Sandra Fox, Jacksonville; Sherry Hankins, Miami; Mary Jo Jones, Lee Summit, Mo.; Gwen Knight, Ann Lucas, Jacksonville; Florence Morrow, Daytona; Martha Slaton, Damascus, Md.; Betsey Snodgrass, Coral Gables.

PLEDGED, February 27, 1963: Barbara Fagan, Jacksonville; Martha Farrington, Eau Gallie; Theresa Singley, Atlanta, Ga.

FLORIDA BETA—FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, October 14, 1921. Pledge Day, February 14, 1963. INITIATED, February 2, 1963: Mary Alfriend, Kay Alvarez, Sidney Barnes, Atlanta, Ga.; Carol Sue Austin, Lakeland; Anne Barron, Rockledge; Sara Boggs, Elberton, Ga.; Pat Clark, Sandy Clark, Homestead; Sandy Gilley, Mableton, Ga.; Janeth Hamilton, Odesa, Tex.; Liz Harper, Jean Pasteur, Tampa; Mary Hutchison, Manchester, Iowa; Barbara Ann Jackson, Cordele, Ga.; Peggy Neese, Columbus, Ga.; Carolyn Schmidt, Ridgewood, N.J.; Kay Williams, Miami.

The social activity this spring was begun with the annual informal dance at Silver Lake with K A Θ . The new "Mr. II B Φ " was announced at an exchange dinner with ΣX on Valentine's day.

Door to door collection for the Heart Fund was another concerted effort by Florida B.

Fraternity "Little Sisters" were announced and include the following: Marilyn Barneau, Dora Mixon, Denise Edwards, Diane Goodwin and Linda Marion for $\Phi \Delta \Theta$; Peggy Neese for $\Sigma A E$.

Dormitory elections placed Jean Pasteur as vice president of her dorm and Mike Schlesinger and Liz Harper were chosen as floor chairmen. Bonnilu Lair was elected to serve as intramurals chairman.

Scholastic honors include the tapping of Sally Dunlap and Libby Gentile into Mortar Board. "Mortified", similar to Mortar Board except that grades are not included as a requisite, chose Beth Ann LeGate and Bonnie Worsham. Garnet Key members elected Beth Ann LeGate president for the coming year. $\Phi A \Theta$, history honorary, tapped Libby Gentile.

At the annual initiation banquet, Mary Hutchison was named Best Pledge, and Sandy Gilley received the trophy for the highest scholarship in her pledge class. Mary Hutchison was selected as a finalist in the national Mademoiselle College Board. She also is the editor of the monthly newspaper in her dorm.

Barbara Ann Jackson is an active member in the F.S.U. Debate Team and has won many honors in this field.

Beauty honors include the selection of Susan Slaughter as a $\Sigma \Phi E$ Calendar Girl.

PLEDGED: Tina Fletcher, Live Oak; Bonnilu Lair, Pahoke; Mike Schlesinger, Birmingham, Ala.

LIBBY GENTILE

FLORIDA GAMMA—ROLLINS COLLEGE. Chartered, September 28, 1929. Pledge Day, October 7, 1962. INITIATED, February 2, 1963: Sandra Willard, Winter Park.

At the initiation banquet Connie Kirby was named best pledge and Gail Buettner was awarded a plaque for the highest scholastic average in the pledge class.

Ann Montedonico was elected Queen of Hearts. Jody Frutcher received the Algernon Sydney Sullivan Award for excellence of character.

Jerry Hunter, Lynn Johnson, Carol Lawrence, and Barbara Hogan represented Pi Beta Phi at the Southeastern Panhellenic Conference held at Auburn, Ga. Florida Γ had the largest delegation from Rollins and Pi Beta Phi as a whole had the largest representation at the conference.

February 21-25 was Founders' Week at Rollins. The entire program was built around honoring the college's Country of the Year which is Thailand.

March 28-31 will be Fiesta and the students at Rollins are eagerly awaiting the big weekend.

BONNIE WHITWELL

GEORGIA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA. Chartered, February 4, 1939. Pledge Day, January 28, 1963. INITIATED, February 10, 1963: Sandi King, Covington; Lamar Morrison, Savannah; Janet Thompson, Athens; BeBe Tomlinson, Columbus; Susan Jackson, Cornelia; Harriet Stephenson, Chattanooga; Ann Taylor, Taylors, S.C.; Donna Garrett, Athens; Libby Ferrell, Thomaston; Frances Wright, Atlanta; Arleeta McCann, Colquitt; Barbara Snead, Ellerslie; Nan Jordan, Marietta; Barbara Bishop, Charlotte, N.C.; Darlene Felchin, Germany.

Georgia A has completed a very successful winter quarter. During winter rush, the chapter pledged six top girls. In the following weeks, the university initiated a new system of rushing by which a sorority can invite a rushee to supper several times during the quarter and then issue her a bid. Georgia A participated in this new rush and pledged two more girls.

Winter quarter has been successful for Georgia A activity wise, too. Martha Wicker is serving as secretary of URSA. Pat Loflin is social chairman of Homecon, while Annette Rowell is serving as vice president of the Modern Dance Club. Nancy Logan is membership chairman and publications chairman of ACEI, and Marty Murphy has been elected president of Newman Club. Brenda Lynch will serve as executive secretary of Panhellenic next year. Carolyn Wynn was selected for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities and has just completed a year as president of Mortar Board. Ann Hatcher is on the ΘX Sweetheart Court while Libby Ferrel is A K Ψ Sweetheart and Pershing Rifles Military Sponsor. The pledges of A T Ω have chosen Louise Bandy to be their pledge beauty sponsor. Louise is also a Georgette with the Dixie Redcoat Band. Pat Phillips, a new pledge is a URSA this year.

PLEDGED: Vicki James, Ann Aldridge, Martha Houk, Kathy Roach, Pat Phillips, Theresa Jennings, Johnnie Tanner, Cheryl Bolling.

ILLINOIS ALPHA—MONMOUTH COLLEGE. Chartered, April 28, 1867. INITIATED, February 2, 1963: Nancy Hibbert, Morton Grove.

One of the highlights of the second term for Illinois A was the traditional retreat which is always held at an off-campus home. Again this year the chapter enjoyed some unusual homemade entertainment, but the best part of the retreat was just being together!

The chapter is happy to have Joyce Mesenbrink back again. Joyce spent last term studying at Laval University in Quebec, Canada.

The Pi Beta Phis hold numerous honors of which the chapter is very proud. At their winter formal, ΦA fraternity named DeeAnn Smith an outstanding woman. Elected to the YWCA Cabinet were: Pat Cook, Bonnie Klima, Nancy Livingston, and Trudy Roberts. Gretchen Wright is presently serving as secretary of the French Club and of Orchestra, the national modern dance organization on campus. Kai Hamilton was initiated into E Σ Φ , national Latin honorary; Martha Kritzer and Lucy Work were selected for membership in $\Sigma \Delta \Pi$, national Spanish honorary. Ann Mack and Laura Turner were accepted by the Peace Corps.

Illinois A is looking forward to the spring term and the Pi Beta Phi formal on March 30, 1963. The theme of the dance this year is "It Happens Every Spring". Also, the new Monmouth College Student Union is scheduled to open at the end of March. This is an event which the entire school has been eagerly anticipating since the beginning of the year.

GRETCHEN WRIGHT

ILLINOIS BETA-DELTA—KNOX COLLEGE. Chartered, 1930 (Beta 1872; Delta 1884). Pledge Day, February 18, 1963. INITIATED, March 25, 1963: Teresa Adams, Denver, Colo.; Vicky Anderson, Patricia Emard, LaGrange; Virginia Bliss, Arlington Heights; Barbara DaPisa, Glen Ellyn; Elaine Hansen, Racine, Wis.; Judith Holland, Des Plaines; Elizabeth Little, Highland Park; Judith Lord, Stillman Valley; Ann Perkins, Middletown, Ohio; Elizabeth Rockwood, Buenos Aires, Argentina; Suellen Ross, Oak Park; Patricia Seaman, Batavia; Laura Seren, Chicago; Joyce Whittington, Evergreen Park.

Pi Beta Phis on the Knox campus spent a busy winter and spring participating in both college and chapter activities. Academically, Ann Perkins, Judy Holland, and Vicky Anderson brought honors to the chapter by earning grade averages high enough to place them on the Dean's List. Billie Starkey, as president of Campus Chest, directed the college carnival held in March. Nan Garton, Mary Lou Williamson, and Julie Turnquist appeared in the spring production of Puddles, the women's synchronized swimming group. Barb DaPisa, Judy Holland, and Betsy Little participated in the Knox Choir spring tour, while Dale Klama, Nancy Meyers, Sandy McGovern, and Leslie Martens sang in the Galesburg Community Chorus' presentation of Mozart's "Requiem."

Illinois B- Δ is especially proud of Judy Holland, who, playing the role of Blanche, starred in the spring theatre production of "A Streetcar Named Desire." Judy, also possessing musical talents, entertained Knox students with her folk-singing at the annual college Christmas party. Also participating in the Knox theatre were Ann Perkins, who appeared in "Man and Superman," and Kate Whitney, Nancy Meyers, and Linda Richardson, who did crew work for "A Streetcar Named Desire."

Billie Starkey, Dorilee Walworth, Dale Klama, and Kay Paisley had the honor of serving as hostesses for the Knox Career Conference, while Vicki Lewis, a member of the Public Relations Board, spent a busy semester showing prospective students the Knox campus. Serving as delegates to the Young Republicans State Convention held in February were Wendy Wells and Mary Lou Williamson.

Athletically, Pi Beta Phis excelled in the annual mixed doubles bowling tournament. Vicky Anderson captured first place laurels and Jean Martin won the second place award. Jean Grant, as a varsity cheerleader, helped Knox fans as well as the newly instituted Pi Beta Phi cheering section support the Siwashers.

Members of Illinois B-D dominated the Union pool room to participate in the first annual Pi Beta Phi Pool Tournament. Other intra-fraternity activities included bridge and bowling contests. Chapter members are also providing baby-sitting services for Pi Beta Phi alumnae in the community.

Initiation was held this year at Holt House in Monmouth. The fact that the pledges waited to be initiated in the room in which Pi Beta Phi was founded rendered additional beauty and meaning to the ceremony.

PLEDGED: Carolyn Brian, Glen Ellyn; Susan Lillie, Galesburg.
LINDA RICHARDSON

ILLINOIS EPSILON—NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY. Chartered, May 26, 1894. Pledge Day, February 25, 1963. INITIATED, January 26, 1963: Jean C. Babcock, Barbara Seamans, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Rita Baltis, Riverside; Carol Boswell, Dayton, Ohio; Jane Davis, Arlington, Va.; Sandra Dietl, South Bend, Ind.; Sherry Fifield, St. Paul, Minn.; Jill Forster, Lancaster, Pa.; Jane Gallagher, Bethesda, Md.; Marilyn Mollman, Brentwood, Mo.; Michalann O'Neil, St. Petersburg, Fla.; Katherine Powell, Richmond, Va.; Carol Rector, Greencastle, Ind.; Velia Russo, Orchard Park, N.Y.; Ellen Smith, Lincoln, Mass.; Mary Taylor, Rhineland, Wis.; Anne Timmons, Coshocton, Ohio; Sandra Turner, Tenafly, N.J.; Alice Viertel, Stamford, Conn.; Dianne Whitley, Bridgeport, Conn.

New members of Wildcat Council are Barbara Seamans and Anne Timmons.

Bonnie Burst and Donna Reburn were chosen to make-up chairmen for the WAA-MU Show, while Mickey O'Neil is serving as a member of the Showbook Committee. Susan Spitzer was selected as co-chairman of the Music Committee.

Active on the Dean's Advisory Council in the School of Journalism is Lois Graessle; Lois also serves on the staff of the Daily Northwestern, the campus newspaper.

Phi B, a national music and speech honorary, selected Jean Mair and Sally Witmer as two of its new members. Phi E selected Roma Bradley as one of its new members.

Susanna Guenther was elected treasurer of Shi-Ai which is the junior-senior women's honorary. Membership is based upon grades, activities, and service to the university.

Connie Billian was chosen a member of the K E Queen's Court, and Cathy Bates was chosen a Little Sister of Minerva by the Sigma A E chapter on campus.

Vicki Vickery served as a member of the Associated Women Students Nominating Committee. Ellen Smith played the lead role in the "Big-Little Sister Turnabout Party" of AWS. The Big-Little Sister parties are held during the fall quarter, and every winter quarter the freshmen give a turnabout party for their Big Sisters.

PLEDGED, February 25, 1963: Patricia Baggs, Maple Glen, Pa.; Susan Selden, Stamford, Conn.

ILLINOIS ETA—MILLIKIN UNIVERSITY. Chartered, March 12, 1912. INITIATED, February 16, 1963: Sidney Arenz, Lana Chaney, Carol Pfifer, Mary Kay Gisolo, Decatur; Betty Barbre, Springfield; Janet Dykema, Hillsboro; Bette Downs, Leslie Steele, LaGrange Park; Sarah Hitzeman, Downers Grove; Linda Latherow, Carthage; Jane Looft, Seneca; Christina Kloker, Elmhurst; Alicia Roe, Alton; Terry Taylor, Peoria; Cheryl Thompson, Aurora; Beth Tobyne, Villa Park.

Second semester finds the members of Illinois H very active as a chapter and as individuals. But perhaps the most exciting news thus far, was to learn that the chapter had again received the City Panhellenic Scholarship Cup awarded to the sorority on campus with the highest grade point average for two consecutive semesters.

Numerous school activities find many members working very hard on committees and as chairmen. The annual campus Religious Emphasis Week was again most inspiring and rewarding to the students at Millikin. Illinois H was well-represented with the following people having served on RE Week committees: Beth Gage, Jane Looft, Leslie Steele, Mary Kay Gisolo, Linda Downs, Beth Tobyne, Christine Kloker, and Joyce Jorgenson.

Bev Lenz, as co-chairman of Campus Chest has Judy Kay Powel, Pat Edie, and Martha Evans working as sub-committee chairmen and many other Illinois H working on particular committees. Everyone is most enthusiastic about this year's Campus Chest activities; Judy Kay Powel is the house candidate for "Beauty"; we are all anxious to assist Nancy McClelland, an Ecumenical Work Camp scholarship winner, sponsored by Campus Chest, as much as possible. In other campus activities, Nancy McClelland represented the chapter in the Student Council Queen of Hearts Court; Bev Lenz was a candidate for Student Council vice president, Christina Kloker and Linda Latherow both have parts in the university opera, "Madam Butterfly".

The first week in March, Illinois H was honored with a two-day visit from province president, Mrs. L. Morell Gross. It was indeed a pleasure to talk with Mrs. Gross concerning fraternity matters. We do hope that she will be able to return soon.

On February 16 Illinois H took in sixteen new initiates. Sarah Hitzeman was chosen Outstanding Pledge. Linda Richardson was chosen Sunshine Girl, and the Pi Phi Wheel Award went to Bev Bray.

A new tradition was begun at the spring formal this year. Illinois H presented an Arrow Man Award to the boy whom the chapter felt had been most loyal to the chapter and its members.

PLEDGED, February 25, 1963: Joyce Jorgenson, Joliet; Marilyn McCane, Decatur.

ILLINOIS THETA—BRADLEY UNIVERSITY. Chartered, May 17, 1947. Pledge Day, February 17, 1963. INITIATED, February 3, 1963: Lynn Crafton, Kirkwood, Mo.; Barb Mason, Pat Wilson, Kay Ringel, Peoria; Pat O'Mar, Park Ridge; Lacy Pledger, Washington D.C.; Julia Swaim, Freeport; Kay Woolsey, Maquon.

Ann Maple and Sue Brockmeier are finalists in the All-Campus Queen Contest, sponsored by the yearbook staff. Jyl Wilkie was selected the "Best Dressed Girl" at Bradley in Glamour's nationwide contest.

Judy Angell was chosen by Angel Flight and Arnold Air Society as their candidate for Area Queen. Judy Angell and Patti Eidswick are candidates for Military Ball Queen.

Linda Janson was appointed All-School Treasurer.

Gayle Nicholas was selected assistant captain of the cheerleaders. Carole Kelley was selected as a new Junior Board member of the Student Center Board of Activities.

The chapter sponsored a Jam Session with A E II for the United Fund. The proceeds went into the building fund for the central building on campus, which was destroyed by fire earlier in the year.

PLEDGED: Jill Cussins, Denver, Colo.; Diane Friend, Milwaukee, Wis.

WISCONSIN ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN. Chartered, November 1, 1894. Pledge Day, February 19, 1963. INITIATED, March 23, 1963: Karen Brindley, Richland Center; Kathleen Burns, Lynn Cowden, Madison; Kathleen Fishbeck, Manitowoc; Nancy Morgan, Wauwatosa; Karen Nelson, Eagle River; Sally O'Neal, Beloit; Gail Soman, Antigo; Jeanne Spitzer, Burlington; Mary Ellen Summeril, Monroe; Joyce Barker, Glencoe, Ill.; Susan Bradley, West Bend, Ind.; Mary Icenogle, Bismarck, N.D.; Virginia Dickenson, Chappaqua, N.Y.; Marcia Smith, North Arlington, Va.; Kathleen Snow, Darien, Conn.; Carole Williamson, Bridgeville, Pa.

There was a hint of spring in Madison when second semester began: thawing snows, warm breezes and Wisconsin A preparing for Mom's Weekend. Paper madames with gaily flowered chapeaux invited Pi Beta Phi mothers to a weekend of fun, April 6.

In March, Mrs. Stewart Tuft, National Director of Membership, spent two days at 233 Langdon. She saw the social face of Pi Beta Phi during a cooky-shine and formal banquet, but also a more thoughtful one during the informal conferences with the chapter officers.

Scholarship honors announced early in the spring went to Lois Mattison and Carol Nechrony, both new initiates of Phi K Phi. Barbara Voss and Margie Jo Thompson, Pi Beta Phi entries in the campus Badger Beauty contest, were among the fifteen finalists. Judy Moyle, another pert Wisconsin Pi Beta Phi, was a runner-up for Queen of the 1963 Little International Livestock Show, and Rebel Davis was a finalist in the Miss Wisconsin Press Photographer competition. A recently elected secretary of the Young Republicans was Barbara Gleason.

Wisconsin A's pledges have been enthusiastically active this semester. In addition to averaging a 98 on their pledge exam, they have initiated a Pledge Slave Day. Pledges are "hired" by local Pi Beta Phi alumnae to help with cleaning, baby-sitting and window washing. The proceeds will be donated to Settlement School.

PLEDGED: Cynthia Marie Nelson, Susan May Lipton, Madison; Judith C. Johnson, Connie Kosman, Eau Claire; Kathryn Howes, Wausau; Jeannine Conner, Chicago, Ill.; Candace A. Burton, Elmhurst, Ill.

CHARMAINE TETIK

WISCONSIN BETA—BELOIT COLLEGE. Chartered, August 20, 1919. INITIATED, February 24: Carolyn Bufton, Cheryl Davis, Sally Smith, Kansas City, Mo.; Jennifer Burdick, Fargo, N.D.; Laurie Doyle, Galesburg, Ill.; Betty Erickson, Midlothian, Ill.; Gay Foley, Peoria, Ill.; Cora Johnson, Tulsa, Okla.; Susan Pelkey, Prospect Heights, Ill.; Susan Pellet, Elmhurst, Ill.; Carol Sargent, Trumbull, Mass.; Susan Smith, Mound, Minn.; Jane Thompson, Minneapolis, Minn.

Women's fraternity formals, originally scheduled for December 16, were postponed until January 5, at which a Pi Beta Phi "King" was crowned. Following a week's well deserved rest after final exams, the chapter was pleased with the news that unofficially its gradepoint was a 2.8 on a 4.0 scale. Upon return from their mid-semester vacation, Wisconsin B began work with the men of B & O II on their skit as part of the Campus Chest Carnival, held on February 16, whose proceeds go to charity. Another contribution of the Pi Beta Phi to this annual event was a booth in which baby pictures of many campus leaders were displayed. The "auction" which followed resulted in ΣX and Pi Beta Phi "buying" each other's parties, and combining them into a joint dance and picnic to be held in May. Wisconsin Beta's candidate, Nancy Lamson, reigned at the Carnival.

The evening of February 17 proved to be an enjoyable one when the actives were entertained by the pledges at their annual pledge banquet. Informal Mexican attire was in keeping with the theme, and the breaking of a pinata was one of the highlights. Pledge mothers were presented with pledge paddles; and the active chapter with a dish washer purchased with money collected by the pledges from the sale of popcorn balls.

*WISCONSIN GAMMA—LAWRENCE COLLEGE, Chartered, September 12, 1940. Winter term has been a busy one for Wisconsin G. The Pi Beta Phi took first place in inter-society volleyball. We had an informal party with $\Sigma \Phi E$, and a Roman toga party with $\Delta T \Delta$.

Virginia McKee was elected for the second year in a row as a campus star, which is based on beauty, personality, intelligence, and poise. Pam Kolb and Judy Johnson were chosen as sweethearts of $\Phi K T$.

One of the traditions on the Lawrence campus is the Best-Loved Banquet held on George Washington's birthday, honoring four senior women, elected on the basis of warmth of personality by the upperclasswomen. This year the Pi Beta Phi were especially proud since two of the four best-loved seniors were Pi Beta Phi, Vicki Agee and Roxy Fuller.

Many Pi Beta Phi have been active in the theater. Tracy Brauch directed the play, "Alice in Wonderland," while Gretchen Weber, Jeanne Hudson, Marcy Hill, Margo Wight, and Anita Lonnes had parts in the play. Carolyn McCannon has the lead in "Passion, Poison, and Petrefaction," by George Bernard Shaw. Karen Kress had a part in "The Flies."

Karen Murphy and Polly Novak attended the Smarty Party sponsored by Mortar Board. Polly Novak, a flutist, gave her junior recital this term. Karen Noel was in charge of the art work for our yearbook, The Ariel. Vicki Agee was elected as secretary of the senior class. Pam Kolb and Peg Crane are serving on the all school Honors Council. Judy Jacobs is co-chairman of International Weekend.

MANITOBA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MANITOBA, Chartered, May 1929. Pledge Day, Oct. 18, 1962. INITIATED, January 2, 1963: Carole Boudrier, Leslie Bremness, Janet Burns, Brenda Hoff, Sandra Eggertson, Barbara Fraser, Carol Grant, Irene Hofmeister, Myrna Macready, Geraldine McMichael, Susan Pugh, Joan Tanchak, Kathleen Taylor, Linda Wake, Winnipeg.

The Winter Carnival, annual event of the University of Manitoba, this year featured Pi Beta Phi skater Sheila Smith.

Sandra Eggertson, a new initiate of Manitoba A was chosen the outstanding pledge and was presented with a gift at the Pi Beta Phi Formal which was held on January 12. Sandra has also been elected Lady Stick of the Faculty of Arts for the coming year.

Gail Moffat, vice stick for Home Economics 1962-1963 has been elected valedictorian for the graduating classes of Home Economics and Agriculture.

On January 25, Manitoba A was visited by Mrs. Tuft, Director of Membership. On January 27, the chapter held a Silver Tea in the afternoon and the annual Open House in the evening with Mrs. Tuft as guest of honor.

The Winnipeg Pi Beta Phi enjoyed a visit to North Dakota A on February 16 and 17. It was an excellent opportunity to meet the members of their sister chapter.

*NORTH DAKOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NORTH DAKOTA, Chartered, October 7, 1921. INITIATED, March 2, 1963: Janet Anderson, Minot; Sharon Anderson, Pekin; Susan Duddleston, St. Paul, Minn.; Judy Espeland, Grand Forks; Patricia Gronowski, Mandan; Jean Knoff, Drayton; Judy Larson, Thief River Falls, Minn.; Patricia Moniot, Philadelphia, Pa.; Doris Norman, Westhope; Merida Pleasance, Akra; Janice Senechal, Anamoose; Sandra Thompson, Westhope.

North Dakota A got a thorough cleaning during semester break when everyone rolled up their shirt sleeves and scrubbed floors, walls, and windows in their own rooms, and special committees cleaned such places as the attic and the town girls' room. In connection with the attic cleaning, the house held a combination auction-rummage sale. All unclaimed articles were auctioned off at house meeting. The money was used as votes in the "penny per vote" election of a UND Campus Ugly Man. The story has a happy ending for Pi Beta Phi sponsored candidate, Pat Bodelson, won!

Ruthanne Nedrude was elected an attendant in the King Kold Carnival Kueen contest.

The pledges of $\Delta T \Delta$ weren't content with just choosing a Pi Beta Phi, Janet Anderson, as their Pledge Princess. They also elected Pi Beta Phi, Jean Knoff and Janice Senechal, as the other two finalists.

Arlene McNeill was named the UND representative to the College Board of Mademoiselle Magazine. She now has a chance to be chosen as one of the 20 guest editors who will work and model for Mademoiselle this summer.

Avis Goheen was chosen alternate delegate for the University sponsored Experiment in International Living. Avis is also busy with her work as co-chairman of the UND Leadership Training Conference.

The best and busiest week-end so far this semester was the week-end that the University of Manitoba had its break. Twenty Manitoba A Pi Beta Phi brought their bed rolls and over-night bags and spent the week-end in the North Dakota house. Saturday was a busy day of visiting and dating. Sunday afternoon a mock rush party was held to give the North Dakota A pledges rush practice. Manitoba A Pi Beta Phi were the rushes.

PLEGDED: Dorothy Gagner, Crookston, Minn.; Sue McPherson, Homestead, Fla.

MINNESOTA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA, Chartered, 1906. Pledge Day, February 11, 18, 1963.

Greek Week-end festivities began the University of Minnesota winter quarter. This was a busy time for Minnesota A, for the chapter participated in all the events of this weekend such as Olympics, Songfest, Greek Parties, Queen Contest, and Social Service. A Peter, Paul, and Mary concert was given the last night of the Greek Week End, and winners of the various events were named. The chapter won a first place trophy in the Social Service, a second place trophy in the Olympics, and sang two songs, "Poor Man Lazarus" and "He's Gone Away" in the Songfest finals. Jan Barber was among the fifteen finalists in the Greek Queen contest. Myreen Gavle represented the chapter as co-chairman of the Songfest.

Many honors came to Minnesota A members this quarter. In campus activities Mary Myles was chosen co-ordinator of Welcome Week. Kathy McGrann was chosen Freshman Camp Counselor, and Susan Johnson was chosen chairman of the University Ski Train Weekend. Mary Vaala was a finalist for Sweetheart of ΣX .

On February 25, a tea was given in the honor of Mrs. Adams, province president. The house mothers and presidents of the sororities on campus, the chairman of the House Board, the chairman of the A.A.C., and the presidents of the St. Paul and Minneapolis alumnae clubs were invited to attend.

On March 6, Mrs. Tuft, Director of Membership, visited Minnesota A. The chapter held a formal dinner for Mrs. Tuft.

PLEGDED: February 11, 1963: Marcia Stevens, Minneapolis, February 18, 1963: Carolyn Eigenbrodt, Robinsdale.

MISSOURI ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI, Chartered, 1889. Pledge Day, February 27, 1963. AFFILIATED: Barbara Huseman.

Spring semester promises to be a busy one for Missouri A in house, campus, and social events. The chapter, in the first month of the semester, welcomed fifteen new freshman pledges to the wine and silver blue in the University of Missouri's second year of deferred freshman rush.

Suzanne Grayson has been the only University of Missouri student to pass the national screening committee in application for a Fulbright grant for study abroad.

Beanie Wieman was elected commander and Jeanne Taylor was elected liaison officer of Angel Flight.

In the line of beauties, Marcia Beck was chosen as $\Delta \Sigma \Phi$ Sweetheart. Three members of Missouri A have reached the final rounds in queen contests and are awaiting the ultimate results. Kathy Stenzel is a finalist for Engineering Queen; Donna Helms is a finalist for Military Queen; and Mary Ann Azar is a candidate for Ideal Secretary of Business Week.

Betsy Slayton and Judy Graves were both selected as members of $\Sigma P \Sigma$. Judy was elected treasurer of the honorary.

$\Sigma A E$'s Little Sisters of Minerva, in their first semester at the University of Missouri, tapped Linda Blackmore and Barbara Azar.

PLEGDED: Janet Chamberlain, Carolyn Cockayne, Carrollton; Barbara Azar, Judy Luedloff, St. Louis; Sandra Wildermuth, Normandy; Ann Baker, Chesterfield; Pat Brewer, Kirkwood; Vonna Dee Beeks, Trenton; Charlotte Wheatley, Glendale; Diane Cowden, Lebanon; Lyn Johnson, Springfield; Linda Roenn, Crestwood; Ann Mantz, Evanston, Ill.; Patricia Mersinger, Belleville, Ill.; Cecilia Swain, Alton, Ill.

MISSOURI BETA—WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1907. Pledge Day, October 4, 1962. INITIATED, February 17, 1963: Elaine Augustine, Indianapolis, Ind.; Carole Caylor, Tulsa, Okla.; Katy Telpner, Kensington, Md.; Flicka Rahn, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Pam Fleming, St. Charles, Ill.; Mary Maudsley, Aurora, Ill.; Carole McDaniel, Jefferson City; Mary Donovan, Chicago Heights, Ill.; Monty Stotts, Great Falls, Mont.; Becky Taylor, Wichita, Kan.; Ginny Kindler, Kansas City; Georgene Stone, Sue Vellios, Brynne Marwin, Nancy White, Julie Wessel, Stefanie Sartoris, Nancy Steiner, Susan Stoehr, Judy Haefner, Marty Wohler, Marty Kerr, Alyce Smith, St. Louis.

Washington University celebrated its Founders' Day on February 22 and 23; among the weekend events were a reception for Sir C. P. Snow, the renowned British author, a formal dinner for alumnae, faculty and students, and a student-sponsored birthday celebration at which George Washington appeared "in person."

Recently, Missouri B gave an afternoon tea in the chapter room, to which members of the faculty were invited. Such gatherings are usually called "Apple Polishing Parties," and with mid-term exams around the corner, why not?

The chapter worked hard on improving its scholarship record in the fall semester, and it is not quite certain whether all the enthusiasm was due to Ina Fitzhenry's excellent scholarship program, or beautiful new Olin Library. Whatever the cause, the work was not in vain as grades were very high—especially those of Elaine Augustine, who earned a perfect 3.0.

Deanna Deerr will lead the Panhellenic Association in the capacity of president during the coming school year.

Pettes Pershings, the newly-formed auxiliary of the Army R.O.T.C. at Washington University, has elected Stef Sartoris, Nancy Steiner, and Julie Wessel to membership.

Peggy Kerwin was chosen the St. Louis Representative for the "Miss Air Force" title.

Pi Beta Phi was represented at the Air Force R.O.T.C. Ball by Ginny Kindler, who was a member of the court.

MISSOURI GAMMA—DRURY COLLEGE. Chartered, 1914. INITIATED, February 23, 1963: Jane Britte, Madeline Bartling, Kathy Ellis, Sandra Marlin, Springfield; Eddie Triozzi, Kansas City; Vicki Carter, Webb City; Linda Lowe, Greenfield; Donna Benson, Fayette; Betsy Stoddard, Webster Groves.

Inspiration Week for nine Pi Beta Phi pledges began Monday evening, February 18, with a turn-about spread with pledge mothers serving their "daughters," and culminated with a party the following Friday evening in honor of the pledges and initiation Saturday morning. At a tea given by the Springfield Alumnae Club on Sunday, February 24, the new initiates were presented to the alumnae. Awards were then given to the following girls: Sandra Marlin received recognition as Ideal Pledge and Marnie Scharpf received the Carnation Award for Ideal Pi Beta Phi, an award newly created by Standards Board which we hope will become traditional.

Honors for Missouri I since the last ARROW publication are: Gloria Heinebotham, K A Rose; Vicki Carter, Homecoming attendant; Clara Lane, first attendant to Panhellenic Queen, Vicki, Clara, and Saunna Burks were also Best Dressed Co-ed attendants.

On Saturday, February 17, Missouri I held their annual Fathers' Night. After the traditional banquet, entertainment was provided by the pledges in the chapter rooms where fathers and daughters also enjoyed coffee and conversation.

Missouri I Pi Beta Phis are eagerly anticipating a visit from Mrs. George H. Moore, Jr., chairman of the National Committee on Scholarship, which is scheduled for March 15 and 16.

PLEGGED: Marti Hanss, Springfield; Angie Greenwade, Willard.

ARKANSAS ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS. Chartered, December 29, 1909. Pledge Day, February 4, 1963.

On Sunday, February 10, Arkansas A entertained the University of Arkansas faculty at a Valentine tea. The guests included the house mother, president, and social chairman from each organized living group, two alumnae from each fraternity on campus, and the administration of the university.

Arkansas B Colony from Little Rock University visited Arkansas A the weekend of February 22. Brunch was served Saturday morning, and a skit was presented by the pledges after date call Saturday night. The chapter and the colony attended church services at the First Baptist Church of Fayetteville on Sunday morning.

Arkansas A was pleased to have the following girls on the Dean's List in the College of Arts and Sciences for the fall semester: Carolyn Berry, Bonnie Bonnell, Sheila Boylan, Harriet Daniel, Linda Lou Evans, Barbara Hallum, Sharon McDonald.

Sharon Drake and Mary Katherine Brumm are Arkansas A candidates for Razorback Beauty. Kathy Raff is one of the six finalists for St. Patricia, who is selected by the students in the College of Engineering on St. Patrick's Day. Appointed to Who's Who in the College of Business Administration are Arkansas A Jane Dills and Brenda Heck.

Arkansas A was pleased to have affiliated Linda Lou Evans from Mississippi B and Carolyn Berry from Pennsylvania P.

PLEGGED: Bonnie Bonnell, Harriet Daniel, Muskogee, Okla.; Gerry Lee Eilbott, Pine Bluff; Sharon Harper, Westport, Conn.

LOUISIANA ALPHA—NEWCOMB COLLEGE. Chartered, October 29, 1891. INITIATED, February 17, 1963: Martha Eshleman, Judy Jones, Suzanne Maginnis, Nell Nolan, Suzanne Sellars, Jackie Tarleton, New Orleans; Dudley Braselton, Kathy Hardin, Fort Worth, Tex.; Connie Cole, Karen Dettwiller, Nashville, Tenn.; Bette Barnum, Oak Park, Ill.; Dorothy Bergquist, Montgomery, Ala.; Barbara Berry, Vernon, Tex.; Mary Brown, Greenville, S.C.; Betty Brunazzi, Texarkana, Tex.; Pam Dykes, Crockett, Tex.; Nancy Fowler, Paducah, Ky.; Susan Graham, San Antonio, Tex.; Alice Hopkins, Memphis, Tenn.; Nancy Lattin, Plainfield, N.J.; Penny Lord, Beaumont, Tex.; Lynn McDowell, Sarasota, Fla.; Camilla Meyerson, Atlanta, Ga.; Myrtle Pope, Bunkie; Patti Roberts, Dallas, Tex.; Kathryn Sale, Haynesville; Louisa Stripling, Jacksonville, Tex.; Mary Helen Young, Campti.

Another Mardi Gras season has just been completed in New Orleans. Pi Beta Phi was well represented with Helen Josephine Grace as the Queen of Mardi Gras, Ann Wisdom as Queen of Twelfth Night and Atlantians, Murray Maught and Nancy Snellings as maids in the royal courts.

Four members of the chapter had perfect scholastic records last semester: Gay Brannon, Dorothy Bergquist, Jane Pharr, and Gridley McKim.

Louisiana A is looking forward to a visit on March 10 from Mrs. George H. Moore, Jr., the National Scholarship Chairman.

The chapter plans to join with Louisiana B for the annual Founders' Day banquet this spring.

MARTHA BELL

LOUISIANA BETA—LOUISIANA STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, October 13, 1936.

Louisiana B began the second semester with its annual spring formal, Rose Lane Lawhon, the newly elected president, and the pledges were presented at the intermission. Included among the guests for the night were fifty high school seniors from all over the state. They were welcomed at the door and presented with favors. Louisiana B hopes that the night will prove advantageous in next fall's rush.

Many activities are already under way for the spring semester: Judy Walker, running for coed vice president of the student body, and Janet White, running for president of the College of Education, are both unopposed. Judy Holley is running for the vice president of the College of Agriculture. Plans are in the making for a joint Founders' Day banquet with Louisiana A; Mrs. Mansfield is to be the special guest for the day.

Susan Everett, from Louisiana A, was affiliated in February; she is a senior from Albuquerque, N.Mex.

During the Mardi Gras season, Ginger Vennard and Mimi Hebert were presented at the Bacchus Ball held in Baton Rouge.

Members recognized with honors were: Rosemary Fleming and Rebecca Royer, $\Phi K \Phi$; Lenna Armstrong and Sharen McClanahan, $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$; Judy Walker, commander of Angel Flight, Arnold Air Society; Janet White, administrative officer of Angel Flight; Jacque Bland, Beauty Court at Washington and Lee; Margaret Colon, Kay Godfrey, and Lynellen Bennett, a transfer from Texas A, Mademoiselle College Board; Carol Ann Butcher, $\Delta \Gamma \Delta$.

"Resolved that sororities and fraternities have outlived their usefulness" was the topic of the Forum held at the university in February. The final vote was 200 to 70 in favor of sororities and fraternities. Penny Proctor spoke for the negative.

Ginger Vennard represented Louisiana B in the "Guides for Brides" style show given by A Δ II. Sue Simmons and Michelle Menton are to represent the chapter in the Rosenfield's style show to be given March 9 and 16.

Mrs. Moore, chairman of the Committee on Scholarship, is arriving March 6 and the chapter is in the process of making plans for her stay. She is to be honored at a tea given March 7 by Louisiana B.

MISSISSIPPI ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN MISSISSIPPI. Chartered, April 8, 1961. Pledge Day, September 23, 1963. INITIATED, January 19, 1963: Barbara Wilhelmina Bilbo, Benise Francine Curro, Gulfport; Margaret Bernice McGraw, Fort Rucker, Ala.; Patricia Ann Salter, Peterman, Ala.

Mississippi A participated in the DZ Winter Carnival which was held on January 31 and February 1. All of the proceeds of the carnival went to charity. Barbara Bilbo was chosen to represent Pi Beta Phi in the Winter Carnival Queen contest. The chapter also sponsored a movie as its activity for Charity Month. Carol Fleck was Pi Beta Phi's candidate for Charity Month Queen. The girls have also participated actively this quarter in intramural volleyball and basketball.

A scholarship dinner was held on Tuesday, January 22, at the Collegian Restaurant in Hattiesburg. Those girls having a 4.0 average were given steak, those having above a 3.25 were given fried chicken, those above 2.75 were given hamburgers, and those having averages below 2.75 were given beans. Scholarship bracelets were awarded to those girls having 4.0 averages, Barbara Bilbo, Kathleen Murphey and Lynn Nash were the recipients of the bracelets. Carlene Necaize, Scholarship Chairman, was given the book Leaves of Gold.

A party was held on February 14, Valentine's Day, in honor of the Arrowwomen and the boys who have helped the chapter throughout the year. Sam Bella, Mason Frye, and Frank Pickering, the Arrowmen, were presented with navy blue sweatshirts with an arrow and the word Arrowman in white felt. The honorary Arrowmen, Dr. Ralph Owings and Mr. L. C. Stringer, were also honored at the party.

Plans are being made for the annual spring formal to be held on Friday, April 19. The theme of the formal, which is to be held at the Hattiesburg Country Club, will be Pi Phi Heaven.

On Tuesday, February 26, a scholarship program entitled Pi

Phi Purgatory, was held in the chapter room. Following the scholarship program, Pi Phi Night was held.

Kathleen Murphy is a National Merit Scholarship Finalist. Bobbie McKinnon was elected to K Δ II, honorary education fraternity. Jeannette King and Pat Salter were delegates to the South-eastern Panhellenic Conference.

PLEGDED, February 13, 1963: Jane Harmon, Hattiesburg.

MARGARET MCGRAW

MISSISSIPPI BETA—UNIVERSITY OF MISSISSIPPI. Chartered, March 10, 1962. INITIATED, February 16, 1963: Roselyn Perry, Fern Jones, Grenada; Harriette Wicks, Alligator; Marianne McElroy, Tupelo; Loydale Ligon, Clarksdale; Martha Floyd, New Orleans, La.; Susan Heyward, Bogalusa, La.; Lucie Larson, Birmingham, Ala.; Pamela Vaughn, Hindsdale, Ill.; Mary Knight, Madisonville, Ky.

Mississippi B started the fall semester in a "swinging" way. The Pi Beta Phi held an open house dance for themselves and the K K Γs and extended invitations to all the fraternities on campus. Mrs. Fred Kellogg, an Oxford alumna, had a supper at her home in November for all the actives and pledges.

The week before Christmas vacation the actives and pledges bundled up and went caroling, first to a private home and then to the hospital in Oxford. Afterward all enjoyed refreshments at the "Pi Phi" room.

One Saturday morning before exam week at seven o'clock the actives were "kidnapped." The pledges took them to the Ole Miss restaurant for a delicious breakfast. The sleepy, but happy actives were then returned safe and snug to their warm beds.

In inter-sorority sports competition, after a long hard struggle and games well played, Mississippi B placed second in both bowling and volleyball. They have ping-pong, baseball, and tennis to go, and are striving for first place, as at the end of the year the sorority which has accumulated the most points wins the overall trophy.

Harriette Wicks has been elected vice president of the Home Economics Club. Other active Pi Beta Phi are Sylvia Abernathy as scholarship chairman of one of the women's dormitories and Sara Miehler, who is now serving on the Campus Senate Elections Committee. Janey Ligon and Jane Steele represented Pi Beta Phi in the campus Parade of Beauties and Favorites.

The new Mississippi B house, which promises to be underway during the spring semester, is the exciting topic of conversation. It will be located on the new "sorority row."

IOWA ALPHA—IOWA WESLEYAN COLLEGE. Chartered, 1867. Pledge Day, February 22, 1963. INITIATED, February 4, 1963: Teresa Breder, Mediapolis; Mary Ann Naveroski, Rockford, Ill.; Lynn Obermeier, Tingley; Beth Tomlinson, Rushville, Ill.

Iowa A has participated in the annual Greek Fest, song and talent review. The chapter was proud to receive the first place trophy for excellence, among the sororities, in choral participation. The talent show was not competitive but Iowa A was well represented in a song and dance routine by Nancy Hallmann, Susan MacFarland, Michele Michelet, Mary Ann Naveroski, Judy Schneider, Phil Sterk and Libby Woodard.

During Greek Fest week, another honor was bestowed upon Iowa A. At the annual Greek Supper Banquet, Phil Sterk was crowned Greek Goddess.

Iowa A has two new members in S.A.G.E., Student Advocate for Greater Enlightenment, Leah McCahon and Pat Waters.

Participating in the Annual Σ T Δ all-college assembly, sponsored by Σ T Δ, honorary English fraternity, were Linda Blagg, Susan MacFarland, and Michele Michelet. Original compositions were read by Michele and Linda. Susan is secretary-treasurer of the group.

The a cappella choir will make its annual second semester tour this year of Iowa towns and cities. Members participating are Peggy McKinstry, Judy Melcher, Sue MacFarland and Mary Reiss. Avon Coe is secretary of this group.

During Christmas vacation Linda Blagg was introduced to New York society at the HOPE Charity Ball, held at the Waldorf-Astoria.

Representing Iowa A in the spring play are Sue Templeton and Brit Whittemore, both in substantial roles.

Two Iowa A Pi Beta Phi who have spent much of the year living out of a suitcase as they travel across the United States with the famous Tigerettes basketball team are Lynn Obermeier and All American Lori Williams.

Looking forward to the summer with great expectation, is Peggy McKinstry who won the honor of Miss Washington County, which entitles her to enter the Miss Iowa contest. This will be held at Clear Lake in July.

IOWA BETA—SIMPSON COLLEGE. Chartered, 1874.

The second semester, having begun in earnest, finds Iowa B engaged in numerous activities. Within the chapter, Joan Book and Sue Ann Haldeman were honored for service by nomination for the Amy Burnham Onken and Chapter Service awards, respectively.

As the academic results of the first semester become known, Joan Book was selected for the President's List (a four point is required). Meredith Beardsley, Kay Lynn, and Susan Foster made the Dean's List with grade points of 3.5 or over.

Cheerleaders, Julie Flora, Sue Willis, and Sandra Sorensen, led by captain DeeGee Reynolds are doing their best to help Simpson win a conference title.

Recently the chapter turned out en masse to entertain members of the fraternities at a breakfast of coffee, juice and rolls. About one hundred and sixty men enjoyed the food and hospitality.

Coming elections for Student Senate offices find three of our number seeking an office. Meredith Beardsley is running for treasurer, Barb Christensen for Religious Life, and Susan Foster for Social Life. Pi Beta Phi also lead other campus organizations. Ann Timberlake, as president of Blackfriars (a drama group) arranges meetings and participates in college drama productions.

Music majors, Jean Ewing and Sharon Wolf, were elected to the offices of song chairman and vice president, respectively, of M Φ A, honorary music fraternity for women.

Although busily engaged in academic pursuits, we still find time to plan our major social event of the year, the formal dinner and dance. Later in March we will participate in All-College Sing Contest, hoping for a trophy.

PLEGDED, February 28: Dianne Alborne, Perry; Margaret Bethke, Dundee, Ill.; Connie Brain, Glenn Ellyn, Ill.; Judy Hoiekvam, West Des Moines; Margaret Wilson, Prairie City.

The beginning of second semester was accompanied by Greek Week at the State University of Iowa. The activities of the week included a leadership banquet, a Pizza party, a dance presented by the Inter-Fraternity Council, the selection of the Outstanding Greek Woman and Outstanding Greek Man; and the crowning of the Inter-Fraternity Queen and Inter-Fraternity Pledge Queen. Nancy Files was selected the Outstanding Greek Woman and Pam Shannon was one of the five finalists for Inter-Fraternity Queen. Eight of the pledges were semi-finalists for Pledge Queen. Nancy Glenn, Mary Bywater, Judi Skalsky, and Sue Hyde were chapter representatives to the leadership banquet.

The Iowa Z chapter honor of Pi Beta Phi Lady of the Month given to the outstanding lady in the chapter, was awarded to Gail Gibson, outgoing president, for January, and to Judi Skalsky for February.

This semester, the chapter welcomed the return of Sherry Rush who spent last semester at Florida B. She brought back many new ideas which have been incorporated into the work of the chapter. One of these ideas was to have evening devotions once a week. The first one was held late in February on the topic of "Friendship and Sisterhood." The Iowa Z chapter was very impressed with the way the service was presented and the ideas that were expressed.

Many new activities and honors for Iowa Z Pi Beta Phi have been achieved so far this semester. Jan Armstrong has been selected as one of the five finalists for Honorary Cadet Colonel. Judi Skalsky, Linda Markulin, and Marilyn Steel have been selected as members of Angel Flight. Sue Hyde has been chosen to serve on the executive committee of the new People-to-People program. Tani Graff was chosen by the Experiment in International Living to spend the summer in Germany.

NEBRASKA BETA—UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA. Chartered, 1895.

Second semester for Nebraska B has been an especially busy one. We were chosen to be one of the five sororities on campus to present their skit at the annual Coed Follies Show. Our skit was entitled "Faith, Hope, and Chestity." Under the direction of Jo Del Nye, we won third place. Susie Salter was also revealed that night as a finalist for Ideal Nebraska Coed.

Sue Vandecar is the newly elected vice president of the Nebraska Union Program Council. Bonnie Knudsen was chosen as an area director of the Council. Bonnie was also a finalist for activities queen.

Karen Schnurr is the new assistant chairman for Parties and Conventions of Builders. Honored as Builder's outstanding assistant chairman of advertising was Karen Benting. Diane Armour is the new Tassel president.

Mary Ann Behlen, president of the International Organization was mistress of ceremonies for "Cultures on Campus." Sue Hovik is the senior staff writer for our newspaper, The Daily Nebraskan.

Honored at the Mortar Board luncheon for her outstanding scholastic record and participation in activities was Cathy Origer.

Our pledges have received many recent honors. Susie Segrist is a delegate for the United Nations Model Legislature. Karen Schnurr and Bev Fenstermacher are candidates for the Ivy Day Court. Σ Φ E pledge sweetheart finalist is Becky Haas. Kay Morris, Marian Fisher, and Susie Moore are Junior IFC Sweetheart candidates.

Sophomore representatives for the Ivy Day Court are Karen Benting and Joanie Graves. Ruth Anne Read and Gayle Branigan are the senior representatives.

Christie Brehm was chosen as a dancer in Kosmet Klub's production of "Fiorello."

For winning Σ X Derby Day, the Σ Xs invited us to their house for a buffet supper. After dinner they showed movies of the Day's events. To begin the spring social season, we are having the annual Triad with K K Γ and K A Θ.

KANSAS ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS. Chartered, April 1, 1872. Pledge Day, February 6, 1963.

The spring semester has already proved to be a very busy and exciting one for the Pi Beta Phi at Kansas A. We began this semester with rush week, which was, needless to say, highly successful. In fact, our pledges have already added to Kansas A's honors. Jill Newburg was recently elected president of Corbin Hall, the freshman girls' dormitory. Carolyn Geiman secretary, and Camille Storey house chairman. Marty Mettner was chosen as the freshman representative to the Associated Women Students' House of Representatives and Beth Beamer was elected the representative to the Senate of the Associated Women Students. Ann Donald will represent the freshman class on the All Student Council. Excelling scholastically, Carolyn Geiman and Anne Donald were selected as Watkins Scholars. As for queens, our chapter also claimed their share. Carolyn Eymann, Sherry Koch, and Camille Storey were candidates from the freshman dormitories for the Student Union Activities Queen. Three of the ten finalists for Kansas University's "Best Dressed Girl" were Camille Storey, Phyllis Schneider, and Cathy Gergstrom. Cathy and Phyllis were among the final five.

Also for the Associated Women Students, April Knief was chosen to serve on the steering committee for "All Women's Day," and Anne Shontz was selected to serve on the steering committee for "High School Leadership Day." Kay Cash was chosen as a member of the College Intermediary Board. Marilyn Miller was elected president of the honorary music fraternity M Φ E, and Betty Ann Maline was elected social chairman. Marcia Myers was elected president of the Sweethearts of Σ X and Fran O'Brien secretary. Away from the University of Kansas, Barb Bowman has brought us honors. She was chosen by K A of the Missouri School of Mines as their sweetheart and will be their candidate for the St. Patrick's Queen. Margaret Jeter and Ann Curry were selected by the Summer Language Institute to study in France this summer. Also, Lyndel Saunders was chosen to study in Germany and Martha Allen in Spain.

The work on the student variety show, the Rock Chalk Review, is now in full swing. The Pi Beta Phi's joined forces with the men of B O II to work on the skit which will be presented March 1 and 2. It is a privilege to be in Rock Chalk this year since only four skits were chosen for participation.

PLEGDED: February 6, 1963: Beth Beamer, Lyne Berg, Marty Mettner, Topeka; Carolyn Berneking, Lawrence; Barbara Close, Kansas City, Mo.; Anne Donald, Prairie Village; Janet Duncan, Ottawa; Kim Dunne, Susan Sheaks, Wichita; Lane Dustman, Springfield, Mo.; Virginia Emerson, Bartlesville, Okla.; Carolyn Eymann, Atchison; Kathrine Fones, Rogers, Ark.; Donna Gaedert, Hutchinson; Carolyn Geiman, McPherson; Diane Greene, Abilene; Patti Hambric, Dallas, Tex.; Mixie Kingman, Omaha, Neb.; Sherry Koch, Deanne Reed, Phyllis Schneider, Shawnee Mission; Nancy Koser, Cherokee, Iowa; Jill Newburg, Carmel, Ind.; Camille Storey, Overland Park; Jane Weaver, Augusta.

INITIATED, March 10, 1963: Kathy Bell, Ada; Laura Dobbs, Altus; Janice Elliott, Bartlesville; Rebecca Heritage, Claremore; Carolyn Breeden, Cleveland; Jane Monroe, Clinton; Patricia Thompson, Duncan; Linda Griffin, Connie Kytte, Lawton; Judith Akright, Penny Cornell, Janet Delhotel, Eileen Edinger, Judith Ellis, Beth Kennedy, Ann Kent, Carole Looney, Mary Nagle, Oklahoma City; Noel Hart, Pauls Valley; Linda Schmidt, Ponca City; Gail McCurdy, Purcell; Marilyn Hamilton, Sally Lee, Maness, Sapulpa; Judith Asbury, Tonkawa; Penny Isom, Susie Martin, Dianne Morrison, Diane Wager, Luann Williams, Tulsa; Susan Boddy, Henrietta, Tex.; Roxana Calinson, Fort Worth, Tex.; Ann Clary, Plainview, Tex.; Susan Cockerham, Elise Wheelless, Shreveport, La.; Sandi Denton, Judy Jones, Fort Smith, Ark.; Carolyn Dixon, Otis AFB., Mass.; Martha Dowling, El Dorado, Ark.; Marsha Finley, Laurie Manning, Dallas, Tex.; Martha Key, Roswell, N.M.

Oklahoma A ushered in the spring semester with a "Beaux and Arrows" dinner honoring all chapter pinmates and fiancées. Some thirty boys were entertained with a candlelight dinner followed by a skit, characterizing fraternities at the University of Oklahoma.

Pat McIver has been selected as one of five finalists for Engineer's Queen, a title previously held by Karen Cullen, Kay Boatright and Ann Kent are two of five finalists for Rose of Σ Δ II, Business Queen.

Pi Beta Phi hosted more than 100 faculty members and their wives at a recent tea held in the chapter house. Another faculty dinner is planned for early April. We feel that these will help to promote better faculty-student relationships on the University of Oklahoma campus.

Jane Robbins joins three other Oklahoma As, Paula LeFan, Karen Cullen and Nanelle Wall as the newest Σ A E Little Sister of Minerva. Margee Foree has been elected to Student Senate, where she works with Pi Beta Phi's Jane Monroe and Trude Steele.

Plans are underway for the annual "Glass Slipper Classic" football game to be played with Γ Φ B sorority. All proceeds go to charity. High on the spring social calendar is the K K Γ-II B Φ Monmouth Duo, an annual affair for Oklahoma A. Also planned are several campuswide "TGIF" parties which Pi Beta Phi will host in the parking lot.

Sue McCoy was selected one of two Oklahoma delegates to the Fourteenth Annual Christian Citizenship Seminar held in New York and Washington in early February.

The OSU Engineers seemed to have an eye on the Pi Beta Phi as their various departments selected our girls as candidates and sweethearts to vie for the queen of their college this spring. Judi Jones was chosen Pi Beta Phi queen, Ann Jeffrey and Linda Hoefler were candidates for American Society of Mechanical Engineers queen, Gladden Burriss for Industrial Engineering queen, and Mary Brower for Engineering Gavel Club queen. Una Thurston was a finalist for Σ T Δ queen, while Carolyn Coley reached the finals of the American Society of Industrial Engineers queen contest.

Other royalty includes Shirley Sweeney and Kay Walker, honorary lieutenants for Pershing Rifles. Sue Nall was chosen as one of 14 Varsity Review girls for our annual all-campus variety show, while Suzanne Crawford served as choreographer for this bevy of beauties.

Several of our girls have been tapped for scholastic honoraries. Marsha Martin, Babs Bolton and Sharon Russell were chosen for B T Σ and Gladden Burriss for K Δ II. Our chapter placed second on the campus in scholarship for the fall semester.

In the leadership realm, Connie Beasley was elected vice president of the Women's Recreational Association, Jeanne Covington is vice chairman of Association of Women Students Legislative Board, Becky Hart is secretary of Σ T Δ and Linda West will serve as program chairman of this group.

Ann Larson was distinguished as a Redskin yearbook congratulate for her outstanding contribution to the campus. Mary Brower was chosen to represent the Business Student Council in talks to various high schools over the state. Trudy Symes and Brenda Turner are chairmen for Education Day, while Mary Brower is a chairman for Business and Professional Week.

The foundation for the new extension to Texas A's house has finally been started. The actives received word just this week to anticipate workmen, machines, noise, and excitement throughout this semester. Everyone is thrilled! The new extension will consist of bedrooms, a kitchen, a recreation hall, study halls, meeting rooms, and a suite for the house mother. At the same time, the present house will be redecorated and reconstructed to provide more space and convenience to sixty actives. Texas A is, indeed, quite proud, and we consider it a privilege to be able to have, in the near future, such a lovely house. It is anticipated that the project will be completed for the coming fall term.

Anne Walters is the new Architectural Engineering Sweetheart and Jeanne Amacker, Electrical Engineering Sweetheart. Six Pi Beta Phi have been nominated for Sweetheart of the University of Texas.

Speaking of sweethearts, Cecile Autrey, one of the Ten Most Beautiful of the University of Texas campus, is featured in the May issue of Glamour Magazine. She was selected by Glamour to represent the "typical American college girl" at the January opening of the Hilton Hotel to Tehran. The magazine also features her reactions to balls and to ceremonies given by the Shah of Iran.

Cecile must have picked up some fashion pointers on her trip for she was recently selected as one of the finalists for Best Dressed, along with Ann Douglas and Anne Hall.

Φ B K elected Sally Brockschmidt as a new member, and A Δ selected Susan Mattiza and Penny Murchison. Helen Houston was tapped for Angel Flight. Bea Ann Smith is Texas University's new Arts and Sciences Assemblyman.

Round-Up, the annual campus affair which calls all Texas cowboys, bearded men, students, and alumnae together for a celebrating time, is April 5-6. There are many campus as well as sorority and fraternity activities planned for this western occasion. Stephanie Buchanan is Round-Up Review Chairman and has been busily planning a tremendous program.

*TEXAS BETA—SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1916. Pledge Day, February 19, 1963. Although the Pi Beta Phi at Southern Methodist University had already received their share of honors by the end of the first semester of the college year, the spring semester has already shown promise of even greater success in chapter, campus, and social events as well. Already it has been so busy and exciting, as many of the individuals in the chapter hold numerous leadership positions on the campus. Judy Board has been recently circled as a new member of Kirkos, an honorary organization for junior and senior women students. Elizabeth Settle was a candidate for the Engineering Queen, and Penny Jackson is a nominee for K A Rose.

Of the six officers of the Associated Women Students, Pi Beta Phi proudly received four, Sally Griffith, president, Suzy Scraftford, 2nd vice president, Diane Ley, treasurer, and Judy Mason, Colt-Wrangler chairman, who is responsible for acquainting new students in the fall with university life and instilling in them school spirit.

To add to the many honors received by Pi Beta Phi, Sally Helms, Jan Wright, and Diane Cecil were selected to join Frances Read as Air Force ROTC sponsors. Pi Beta Phi, also, was very proud and happy to have nine Rotunda beauty nominees, Jane Allen, Lylene Brown, Pat Hearn, Dale Palmer, Lynn Lenau, Terry Lovejoy, Gail Meletio, Susan Tubb, and Jan Wright. Of these girls, Pat Hearn, Dale Palmer, and Jan Wright were selected as Rotunda beauties; and Lylene Brown, Gail Meletio, and Susan Tubb as beauty finalists.

Although Texas B has, so far, had such an outstanding beginning for the spring semester, its members are continually seeking new honors and leadership positions both on the campus and in the fraternity as well. At present, the members are enthusiastically working on Sing Song, an annual song fest competition between the Greeks, Texas B, too, proudly announces its choice for the ABO Award, Marianna Haberle.

PLEGGED, February 19, 1963: Lylene Brown, Houston; Kay Fowler, Midland; Judy Webb, Dallas; Jan Wright, Doniphan, Mo. NANCY DIAL

TEXAS GAMMA—TEXAS TECHNOLOGICAL. Chartered, April 23, 1953. Pledge Day, September 15, 1962. INITIATED, February 23, 1963: Linda Lee Loflin, Amarillo; Gwynn Gough, Bellaire; Marjorie Heard, Bowie; Ann Gordon, Breckenridge; Gayle Hale, Dallas; Priscilla Jane Dyer, El Paso; Jo Hansen, Fort Worth; Gena Odell, Garland; Georgia Burrell, Patricia Smith, Gail Tait, Houston; Carol Cannon, Lima, Peru; Mary Ann Duckworth, Darline Hunter, Judy Livingston, Tanya Tarkington, Lubbock; Carole Brennan, Sara Rajnus, Midland; Paula Hanson, Sanderson; Patricia Anne Rolfe, Sherman; Charlotte Peebles, Teahuacana; Linda McSpadden, Tulsa, Okla.

As a group and through individual efforts Texas Γ again distinguished itself this semester for excellence in a wide diversity of campus activities.

The outstanding 1962 pledge class had five members elected to Freshman Council, which is the governing body for their class. They are: Priscilla Jane Dyer, Tanya Tarkington, Cindy Signor, Linda McSpadden and Mary Ann Duckworth. Tanya was also elected freshman cheerleader. Linda Loflin was the president of the pledge class of Φ T N and is now the pledge trainer. In speech intramurals, Darline Hunter, Sara Rajnus, Carole Brennan and Pat Rolfe earned first prizes to put Pi Beta Phi in second place for all-school competition. (These girls were edged out of first place by only few points by the speech honorary fraternity.) Gail Tait is one of the five representatives on Tech's Honors Council. She is also a candidate for the "Best Dressed Coed on Tech Campus." The annual Black and White Ball in San Antonio saw Dianne Wheelis selected Lady-in-Waiting to the queen. Carol Cannon was a finalist in the La Ventana Miss Mademoiselle Beauty Contest. From this select group of young ladies, the initiate voted Best Pledge of the Year by the active chapter is Priscilla Jane Dyer.

The active chapter was equally vital in Tech campus life. Carolyn Davis was named sweetheart of Φ M A. Nancy Joe Dyer is the new president of the Student Education Association. Betsy Baker, Anne Weaver and Cathy Gorden were named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Carolyn Chenualt is recording secretary for the Board of Student Organizations. More Tech beauty finalists are Lady Falls and Suzie Peterson. Suzie was also named first alternate to the South Plains Maid of Cotton. Co-editors of the Junior View, a major section of the Tech annual, are Carolyn Chenualt and Carol Anderson. Carol is also social chairman of Panhellenic and is the representative from Panhellenic to the Association of Women Students.

Eight Pi Beta Phi from Texas Γ will be in Europe this summer, including Mary Ann Dryden and Mary Lee Henry who are studying at the Sorbonne, Lynn McElroy on the Experiment in Spain and Ann Dennison on the Experiment in Switzerland.

Spring semester promises to be another time of busy activity for Colorado A. Many Pi Beta Phi are already distinguishing themselves in varying areas of endeavor. Jean Santi and Sandy Timmermann were named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Carol Counter has been selected for membership in $\Phi \Delta \Theta$ history honorary.

Angel's Flight, the women's AFROTC honorary, tapped Mary Nelle Nesbitt for membership and has chosen Sue Shellbarger as its new commander. Jeri Comley will serve as Angel's Flight pledge trainer.

Other spring tappings have seen Shiela Scott being selected for membership in Hesperia, junior women's honorary. Mortar Board, senior women's honorary, has tapped Sharon Curlee and Sue Shellbarger who also was recently featured in the annual Orchestral modern dance concert held on campus.

Little Sisters of Minerva, an honorary of $\Sigma \Delta E$ fraternity, tapped nine of the pledges. Those selected were Mary Anderson, Dodie Tate, Jeannie Hansen, Suzanne Flower, Tillie Voss, Tani Ugrin, Nancy Wambaugh, Vicki Craig and Helen O'Niell. During Winter Carnival weekend, sponsored by $\Lambda \Phi \Omega$ service fraternity, two more pledges, Sharon Marie and Shiela Scott were finalists for Snow Queen. Shiela has also been selected as a finalist for Military Ball Queen. Brenda Brunner was recently crowned queen of the annual formal sponsored by the University Residence Hall Association. Bonnie Zimonick was crowned queen of the Valentine's Dance at the Air Force Academy.

Colorado A's pledges who placed first in the province on their pledge tests were recently honored with a party and skit by the Boulder Alumnae Club.

The annual Monmouth Duo, highlight of the spring social calendar, was held on February 23. This formal dance is given by Pi Beta Phi and K K Γ and is held, each year, at the Lakewood Country Club in Denver.

Upcoming events include a "Six House Party" given by Pi Beta Phi along with K K Γ and K A Θ sororities and $\Delta T \Delta$, $\Sigma A E$, and $\Phi \Delta \Theta$ fraternities, as well as an Easter Party given for girls from the Morrison reformatory. This Easter Party, now an annual campus affair, was begun by Colorado A five years ago.

This spring, Colorado University is welcoming new head football coach Eddie Crowder and will soon be welcoming a new university president too.

COLORADO BETA—UNIVERSITY OF DENVER. Chartered, 1885. Pledge Day, February 28, 1963; INITIATED, February 3, 1963; Dana Canatsey, Diana Duke, Pam Fee, Denver; Lynn Bilek, Chicago, Ill.; Martha Bobbitt, Barbara Poppe, Portland, Ore.; Susan Bowen, Columbus, Ohio; Bonnie Fisher, Clarendon Hills, Ill.; Melodie Frost, Waukegan, Ill.; Pam Hatfield, Indianapolis, Ind.; Joan Huenek, Salem, Ore.; Judy King, Chicago Heights, Ill.; Nancy Ruggles, Oxnard, Calif.; Diantha Scott, Jo Ann Sutton, Pekin, Ill.; Caroline Smith, Dallas, Tex.; Pam Walker, Riverside, Calif.

Colorado B is now caught up in the whirl of the third annual all-campus Winter Carnival. Each member entered the activities of toboggan, disk, snow shoe, ski racing, snow sculpture building and ice skating skits with full enthusiasm. We were fortunate to have two candidates for Winter Carnival Queen, Judy Knutson and Susie Templeton. Sally Dwyer brought us a second place victory in the ski race.

Climaxing the flurry of activities of Women's Week was the Women's Week banquet which brought honors to Colorado B. Betsy Busse was elected to serve on the A.W.S. Legislative Council. A thrilling moment came when Laurie Fortner was selected Miss Scholarship for the university.

Another item of recognition was won by Alice Duncan for being an Engineering Queen finalist. Alice is one of four finalists screened in a judging based on beauty, personality and scholarship. Also bringing honor to Colorado B are Pauline Enequist and Judy Knutson as two of the three finalists for Mardi Gras queen.

Congratulations to Joan Bush, Dana Canatsey, Nancy Ruggles and Diantha Scott—winners of the Junior Panhellenic Outstanding Pledge Scholarship Awards.

AFFILIATED: Pat Herman.

Colorado Γ had a very busy and rewarding winter quarter. We started the quarter off by winning a trophy for first place for sororities in the annual Skit Nite sponsored by I.F.C. and Panhellenic. Our theme was "togetherness" of all the Greeks and independents.

Other activities which Colorado Γ participated in this quarter include the collecting of funds for the United Fund and the distribution of pamphlets for the Colorado Heart Association. Colorado Γ won the Panhellenic Silver Cup at the Panhellenic banquet for the sorority who had improved the most scholastically. Susan Greffenius had the leading role in a Theatre Guild production of the musical comedy Guns and Dolls and was commended for her excellence by campus critics. Sue also headed up the entertainment committee for her International Days on campus.

On Valentine's Day, we served one meal to each of the fifteen fraternities of Colorado State University. They were very pleased and showed their gratitude with cards and flowers. Pat Tobin was selected as $\Phi K T$ Playmate at their annual Playmate Dance. Cathy Kharitonoff was chosen as one of five finalists for Miss Silver Spruce queen. Anne Heermann was selected to become a member of ARKIE ANGELS. PERKY DIXON was elected president of Little Sisters of Minerva. Cathy Kharitonoff and Bev Lewis were chosen as new members of this group. Katy Welsh and Pam Martin were selected by the $\Phi \Delta \Theta$'s to become Phidelpheans. Bev Lewis was chosen outstanding pledge of Colorado Γ .

Carol Booth was elected first vice president and Ginny Kirk, treasurer, of Associated Women Students.

PLEGGED, February 25, 1963: Carol Dahlstrom, Denver; Jane Dosch, Falls Church, Va.

WYOMING ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING. Chartered, 1910. Pledge Day, March 19, 1963. INITIATED, March 23, 1963; Margerie Clute, Jan Falkingham, Billings, Mont.; Stephanie Cobb, Kay Hufsmith, Jan Klepinger, Bernadette Nein, Casper; Jean Coyle, Nancy Fair, Cheyenne; Marilyn Decker, Gering, Neb.; Judy Johnston, Wheatland; Mary Kay Kelly, Chamberlain, S.D.; Sara Payne, Judy Van Buskirk, Laramie; Pam Thompson, Newcastle, Beth Verstynen, Los Alamos, N.M.

Throughout the semester, Wyoming A has taken a prominent part in various campus activities. Pat McKeown was elected president of the ΣN Sweetshearts. Leota Heil was elected Student of the Month for January and will also represent us for the Amy Burnham Onken Award. Beth Verstynen, Barbara Gilroy, and Mary Kay Kelly were selected to be members of the $\Sigma A E$ Little Sisters of Minerva. Jan Falkingham played a leading role in "A Palm Tree in a Rose Garden," a recent production of the UW theater. Susan Larson was selected to represent us in the all school best dressed co-ed contest. In the Miss Wool contest held recently, Barbara Wimpeny and Janice Voss were finalists. Mary Kay Kelly and Beth Verstynen were elected officers of Junior Panhellenic.

Membership in Spurs includes Colleen Bruns, historian; Alison Tyler, Adele Heink, Mary Kay Budd, Suzanne Trowe, and JoAnn Simmons. JoAnn was elected Spurpersonality for the month of January. Susan Larson, Ann Sherard, and Anne Siren are in Chimes; Leota Heil is our Mortar Board representative. Ann Siren, Ann Sherard, and Susan Larson represent $\Pi B \Phi$ in Iron Skull, the junior co-educational honorary.

UTAH ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF UTAH. Chartered, 1929. Pledge Day, March 2, 1963. INITIATED, February 24, 1963: Sally Marie Smith, Bountiful; Sally Gillam, Lark; Hilary Atwood, Los Angeles, Calif.; Diane Larson, Ogden; Claudia Ann Patterson, Karin Christensen, Kathleen Erickson, Susan Hunter, Kathy Nichols, Jane Parrish, Wendy Woodbury, Salt Lake City.

Winter Quarter, 1963, at the University of Utah was highlighted by the instigating of a new program, "Challenge." During the week of February 25-March 1, 20 prominent speakers presented to the students a program known as "America in Controversy." The subjects ranged from abolishment of capital punishment, discussed by Warden Clinton T. Duffy of San Quentin, to an analysis of the Cuban issue by Clare Booth Luce. It is hoped that this worthwhile program can be continued as a permanent annual activity at the University of Utah.

On February 17, an alumnae open house was held at the newly-remodeled Utah A chapter house for all Pi Beta Phi alumnae. Then on March 3, a general open house was sponsored by the active chapter, and all campus personnel were invited to see the results of the long construction period. The chapter is very pleased with the house.

Saundra Speers and Gene Thuli were chosen during Winter Quarter as campus queens. Saundra was selected to reign as Junior Prom Princess, and the $\Sigma A E$'s chose Gene as their Violet Queen. Also, Sally Smith was named first attendant to the Naval ROTC queen. Donya Smith played a leading role in the student production of "Antigone," and Jan Poole starred in the production of the children's play, "Seven Little Rebels," which was put on by the University Young People's Theater. Jan will also dance in the spring ballet next quarter.

All of the members of Panhellenic and the Intrafraternity Council on the University of Utah campus donated a day to the community on March 3 by assisting at centers throughout Salt Lake City which administered oral polio vaccine to the public.

Snow Carnival was very successful this year, and Utah A won the Slalom Race. The Monmouth Duo party with K K I had a Mark Twain theme this year, and Pi Beta Phi and K K I's mingled happily with their dates in Becky Thatcher frills and Tom Sawyer patched pants.

Scholarship chairman Joan Trevithick cleverly honored the girls with highest averages at the scholarship banquet held on February 25, by serving them roast beef on the chapter's finest china and linen. At the same time, she provided incentive for achieving higher grades to those with low grade point averages for fall quarter by setting their table with newspaper and serving them rather watery soup.

Susan Scofield was honored by the "This Week We Honor" committee for her contributions to the university, and Joan Trevithick also serves the students as News Editor of the Utah Daily Chronicle.

PLEGDED: Kay Dean Cahoon, Carolyn Davis, Tanya Firth, Kathy Rider, Salt Lake City; Ann Gee, Washington, D.C.

WASHINGTON ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON. Chartered, January 5, 1907. Winter quarter at Washington has been a fast but exciting one for all of us.

As the list of campus queen contests grew longer with each passing week, the Pi Beta Phi candidates did an outstanding job in representing our fraternity. Terry Anderson was selected as the K Σ Stardust Queen, Louise Henry was a finalist for Sweetheart of ΣX , and Linda Hopkins was a finalist for Winter Carnival Queen.

In the activity department many of our sisters distinguished themselves. Marlis McCully was elected vice president of the Associated Women Students, Karin Loftus was selected as Activities Chairman for the AWS, and Jan Hoefler was selected as Publicity Chairman for the AWS.

Our two biggest social functions of the quarter were the very successful Faculty Dinner held on February 27 and the annual pledge "reciprocity" dance held on March 2. This year the pledge class called their dance "Tin Can Alley" and they did a marvelous job of decorating the chapter house for the dance.

Next quarter we have much to look forward to. During Parents Weekend, the weekend of May 17, 18, and 19, the chapter is having a dinner for all Pi Beta Phi parents. Also for their entertainment we will be participating in the annual Songfest competition. This year with our unbeatable medley of Pi Beta Phi songs, we are looking for a first place. Besides a quarter of fun we will continue "to hit the books" so we can maintain our first place in scholarship for another year.

WASHINGTON BETA—WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, July 12, 1912. INITIATED, March 3, 1963: Judy Allen, Pat McDonald, Seattle; Linda Carlson, Penney Waite, Tacoma; Sharon Claus, Sedro Woolley; Margaret Clegg, Colfax; Cathy Dietrich, Reseda, Calif.; Susan Eldridge, Summit, N.J.; Ann Goldsworthy, Bette Shannon Yakima; Sue Johnson, Jenifer Second, Spokane; Julie Vanasse, Sacramento, Calif.

Susan Kelley has been selected as president of Panhellenic for Washington State University. Vivienne Marlatt was named Honorary Colonel for the R.O.T.C. Crimson Rifle Drill Team, and Sandy Anderson was chosen to become a member of the $\Sigma A E$ Little Sisters of Minerva.

Kay Wight has been the program manager for KUGR Radio, the university radio station, and the program assistant for KWSC-TV, the university television station. Kay was also serving the campus as secretary of the student body and as president of $\Theta \Sigma \Phi$. Appearing in the play, "The Boyfriend," were Margaret Clegg and Susan Eldridge.

The chapter had four finalists in campus queen contests: Carmen Snitly, Harvest Ball Queen finalist; Judy Bryant, Homecoming Princess; Margaret Clegg, $\Sigma \Phi E$ Queen of Hearts finalist; and Pat McDonald, ΘX Dream Girl finalist.

Added to the social calendar were the chapter's two spring dances: a ranch dance in March, "Beau and Arrow Stomp," and the annual Tea Dance in May.

A highlight of the spring semester was the chapter installation and first initiation for the new $A O \Pi$ chapter on campus. The chapter was chartered in September, 1962.

OREGON BETA—OREGON STATE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, 1917. This winter term proved to be a busy one for Oregon B. There were three major all-school activities this term. Babs Bennett was a chairman for the Mortar Board Ball, Lynn Saylor and Sue Chorlton were chairmen of the all-school pledge banquet. Dad's Weekend found Kaye Bailey serving as a chairman. During this weekend, the chapter held a fireside, including entertainment, for our dads.

Our scholarship dinner was special to us this term. We celebrated our achievement of receiving highest grades on campus for the fourth term in a row. We honored Pat Huffschildt, house president, who received a 4.0, and Babs Bennett received a certificate for top chapter grades.

Many girls were tapped for honoraries. ΔA , Spanish honorary, tapped Susan Farley and Karen Morlan. $\Pi \Delta \Phi$, French honorary, tapped Sharon Lay. $A A \Delta$, freshman women's honorary, tapped Lynn Forrest. Sharon Bauer and Sue Wiesner were tapped for Orchestria, dance honorary. Pat Sterba and Sue Farley were also tapped for $\Phi X \Theta$, a business honorary.

Other Pi Beta Phi's active on campus include Carol Ann Warrington, junior class secretary, who helped organize the Junior class dance. Sue Wiesner was recently chosen as a finalist for Little Colonel. Sue is also a member of Freshman Rally. Carol Mortensen is a varsity rally member.

CAROL ANNE RAY

OREGON GAMMA—WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY. Chartered, June 3, 1944. INITIATED, March 2, 1963: Molly Gaynor, Beaverton; Laurie Hall, Marilyn Viken, Portland; Dita Luers, Salem; Carolyn Moore, Tigard; W. Sweet, Bandon; Lisa Torp, Lake Oswego; Cathy Atterbury, Belvedere, Calif.; Nancy Farmer, Escondido, Calif.; Pat Hart, San Mateo, Calif.; Donna Kemp, South Pasadena, Calif.; Elinor Lindquist, Camp Pendleton, Calif.; Ruth Yonker, Los Altos, Calif.; Pat Cramer, Great Falls, Mont.

Winter semester proved to be a most active and busy one for most members of Oregon Γ . The pledges too have been active on campus as well as academically. Marilyn Viken, Donna Kemp, and Cathy Atterbury were chosen for $A A \Delta$, freshman women's scholastic honorary. Cathy was also honored by being featured in an article in Seventeen magazine. Another freshman, Ruth Yonker, has started her stage career at Willamette by being chosen for the lead in the next school play, "The Just Assassins." Pat Cramer was elected president of $B A \Gamma$, women's service honorary. In the Freshman Honors program, a selective group seminar, are Donna Kemp and Cathy Atterbury. Mike Bliss left after the first semester to spend the second semester in Spain studying.

Thelma Ray was chosen Coed of the Month by AWS. ΨX , national Psychology honorary tapped five members: Colleen Cochran, Jacque Graber, Linda Swan, Cindy Janes, and Linda Jongeneel. Tapped for II P M, national social science honorary were Judy Francis, Jacque Graber, and Mary Ann Wright.

All of the members and pledges were honored at an alumnae tea given at the home of Mrs. Gormson, who is the granddaughter of Nancy Black Wallace. With her antiques and old pictures of Nancy Black Wallace, and the general atmosphere of past, present and future Pi Beta Phis getting better acquainted, it proved to be an extremely enjoyable function.

As it appears now, Willamette will be instituting the method of deferred rush for all Greek women's organizations at the beginning of the winter semester of 1965. This idea has been in the process of discussion by the board of trustees for the past few years. All of the men's fraternities will be starting deferred rush at the beginning of the winter semester of 1964.

COLLEEN COCHRAN

OREGON DELTA—PORTLAND STATE COLLEGE. Chartered, December 4, 1960. INITIATED: Bev Kingwell, Arlene Matson, Shayla Miller, Judy Morrow, Linda Rhoton, Sally Rosenberg, Sally Sagar, Kathy Siner, Bonnie Sloan, Kathy Williams.

Oregon Δ maintained their top grades on campus fall term for the third consecutive term. Arlene Matson was awarded the scholarship bracelet for the pledge with top grades.

A rummage sale held in February was very successful as a money raising project for Oregon Δ . The chapter is now planning an April fashion show for the public. Members and pledges will be modeling clothes from the Casual Village.

Plans are in full swing for the spring term house dance. The annual dinner-dance will be held at Columbia Edgewater Country Club on May 18.

Diane Kopta has brought fame to Pi Beta Phi, as she won a regional bowling tournament in Berkeley, Calif. She now earns a trip to the nationals in Tennessee.

Sue Yost was selected a member of the Christmas Court, and Pat Flanagan was chosen Σ Dream Girl.

In the social field, Oregon Δ is planning a potluck dinner for Σ Δ Ω fraternity. Movies will be shown of a football game held last fall between the two groups.

SHIRLEY ABBOTT

IDAHO ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO. Chartered, 1923. Pledge Day, February 8, 1963. Idaho Δ has been active on campus this year in a variety of activities. Penny Parberry is currently running for the student Executive Board. Joan Rumpeltes is also running for secretary of Associated Women Students. Nikki Dahman is a new pom pom girl during the basketball season.

Σ Δ E Little Sisters of Minerva tapped Jane Ruckman and Lind Elliott for membership. Melonie Fruechtenicht, Pat Cobb and Carla Martin were recently chosen to march with the U. of I. Vandalettes. Arlene Ulician was a member of the Campus Chest committee.

Idaho Δ has two finalists for Sweetheart of Σ X. They are Barbara Hardy and Judy Manville. Barbara is also finalist for Military Ball Queen.

Fiancés and special beaux were guests at the annual Sweetheart Dinner held February 14. The same day Valentine cupids visited each pledge leaving a trail of candy and lacy cards.

PLEGDED, February 8, 1963: Judith Christensen, Coeur d'Alene; Janet Orr, Dietrich.

CALIFORNIA BETA—UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT BERKELEY. Chartered, 1900. INITIATED, March 9, 1963: Natalie Bigelow, Santa Barbara; Jean Blair, Nancy Graham, Sarah Gessler, Piedmont; Maureen Doughty, San Marino; Ann French, Kentfield; Sally Hall, Los Angeles; Katherine Harbaugh, Evanston, Ill.; Pamela Harvey, Berkeley; Judith Musto, Hillsborough; Susan Scully, San Francisco.

California B was honored at the end of February by a three day visit from Mrs. L. W. Sipherd, Pi Province President. Each girl who had the opportunity to meet with her was charmed by her sincere devotion to Pi Beta Phi and her eagerness to be of assistance to us. A highlight of her visit was a "dress up" dinner at which the members of the advisory board and the deans of the university were present.

February 19 was the date of the annual luncheon and fashion show put on by the Mothers' Club and held at the chapter house. Some of us participated in modeling the Saks Fifth Avenue clothes, while others served as hostesses.

At the banquet following initiation on March 9, several awards were presented. The Class Scholarship Award, a new award this year, went to the class of 1963, while the award for highest active and pledge grades went, respectively, to Pat Chapman with a 3.81 and Jean Blair with a 2.5. Georgia Kraus received a recognition pin for the greatest improvement scholastically. Another recognition pin was awarded to Harriet Stark for continuous improvement during her four years. The Big and Little Sister Award went to the team of Linda Schwartz and Judy Musto.

As far as campus activities go, California B has been well represented. Judy Primm was just recently initiated into Panile. Jane Downer was elected president of Oski Dolls, a prominent campus service organization, and we were extremely happy to have three new Oski Dolls chosen from Pi Beta Phi: Cass Pettefer and Vickie Graham as regulars, and Maureen Doughty as an alternate. We are also well represented in the Women's Athletic Association by two enthusiastic volley ball teams under the leadership of Terry Lowe.

JANE LOGAN

CALIFORNIA GAMMA—UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA. Chartered, July 27, 1917. Pledge Day, September 20, 1962. INITIATED, March 2, 1963: Jan Ann Champlin, Karen DeLellis, Melinda Hoag, Jayne Gillenwaters, Virginia Hilty, Ann Nocerine, Laura Pallette, Mae Rekers, Joan Singleton, Nancy Stark, Los Angeles; Wendy Marquand, Sandra Schaefer, Arcadia; Linda Brown, Mill Valley; Katla Buck, Fullerton; Catherine Ellis, Laguna; Dianne Earl, Miraleste; Sharon Farrell, Piedmont; Cheryl Jones, Newport; Lois Richardson, La Canada; Pam Showalter, Downey; Robin Yeaman, Sherman Oaks; Mary Garber, San Marino.

The week of February 25 was an exciting week for twenty-two pledges in that it was Inspiration Week highlighted by initiation and a party at Jane Hoffman's home in San Marino. The fall pledge class was honored by having Ann Nocerine become a semi-finalist in the Σ Φ E Queen of Hearts Contest. Pam Showalter was initiated into Φ K T after a semester of pledging.

During this spring semester many things have happened. During February the chapter was honored by a visit from Mrs. J. P. Kemp, Counselor for Chapter House Corporations, who was given a tea in her honor and whose visit was greatly enjoyed. Also Pi Beta Phi is showing its ambition by reviving and starting a new Shell and Oar to support the USC Rowing Association. Under the guidance of Linda Bowen it has been successful in gaining thirty-eight new members at a tea given at the Pi Beta Phi house.

Songfest plans are in full swing for on May 18 Pi Beta Phi and Σ X will present a novelty entry with the theme of physical fitness. Last year the chapter won sweepstakes and it is hoping to do the same again this year. The applications are out for the offices and the honor societies. Judy Webster is planning to run for Humanities Senator and Joan Pedersen is running for Junior Class President. There are many girls eligible for Spurs, Chimes, and Amazons and they are hoping to be accepted. Also Δ Δ will honor two girls by inviting them to join which will increase Pi Beta Phi's membership to four because Linda Brown and Linda Johnson are already members of this scholastic honorary.

The University of Southern California in the past few years has been sponsoring the Master Plan for improvements in the professors, building, and general campus improvement. So far the campus has gained a new women's dormitory and three new buildings due to grants from different sources. Also the university is helping to finance the building of some new fraternity houses.

California Γ is anxiously awaiting the Mothers' Club Tea and Fashion Show sponsored by Sak's Fifth Avenue on April 19, the Spring Formal on April 20, and Founders' Day on April 27.

LINDA JOHNSON

CALIFORNIA DELTA—UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT LOS ANGELES. Chartered, September, 1927. Pledge Day, March 4, 1963. The spring semester began with a whirl of excitement. Soon after we returned to school we welcomed Mrs. Kemp to our house with a cookie-shine, tea and various other activities.

We planned our exchanges for the semester. We will have the exchanges with Σ A E, A T Ω , and Θ Δ X. We are also looking forward to the rest of the events of the semester with a great deal of enthusiasm. We are doing Mardi Gras with the Φ K Σ s, and are sure to have two days of excitement. Before long we will begin to work on Spring Sing, which we will do this year with Φ K Ψ . We will enter in mixed division and are planning to settle for nothing less than first place.

April 1 we will have our scholarship dinner, honoring the girls who did especially well last semester. Our fashion show this spring will feature the clothes the girls have made themselves as well as other fashions.

The pledge-active party was entitled "The Fiesta" and was very successful. Everyone came in costume and the house was decorated to look like a true fiesta.

Many of the girls are going to be especially busy this semester with outside activities. Karen Christopher is a new Phi Kap Little Sister. Abby Dickow is chairman of Fashion Board. Jeannie Norris is busy in her office of president of Spurs, while Candy Pope is historian. Five of our girls were selected to be on the committee for Mardi Gras: Paula Thomkins, Ronne Troup, Nancy Ackersstrom, Sandy Squire and Karen Christopher. Betty Freeman, Carol Spence, Shari Pouliot and Karen Christopher were chosen the Sophomore Sweethearts of UCLA. Alka Pevac was given the honor of being named "The Best Dressed" girl of UCLA, an honor given to just one girl each year.

PLEGDED: Julie Halloran, La Jolla; Judy Miller, El Cajon; Ann Sexton, Los Angeles.

JANET HAWLEY

CALIFORNIA EPSILON—SAN DIEGO STATE COLLEGE. Chartered, September 1, 1949. INITIATED, March 24, 1963: Dena Anderson, Lemon Grove; Geri Berg, Alpine; Patricia Campbell, El Centro; Diane Crowell, Palo Alto; Sandra Ferguson, San Bernardino; Mary Ann Hawley, Van Nuys; Beth Hindley, Woodland Hills; Patti Jones, La Mesa; Barbara Kolar, Arcadia; Nancy Lundh, Glendora; Sara Vickers, Chula Vista; Tuffy Voyen, Encino; Waskah Miller, Anaheim; Joan Widell, Nancy Zetts, Fontana; Janelle Short, Carol Cassell, Janice Mayer, Leslie Poehlman, Judy Roman, Pamela Sellman, San Diego; Phyllis Courtney Fleming, Gay Sharpe, La Jolla.

The fall semester brought many events for California E. The first official visit was made by Mrs. Clara Sipherd, Pi Province

President. After a successful visit lasting from October 29-31, the chapter settled down to selling "mums" to raise money for the San Diego State College Student Union Fund. On November 16 and 17 both the actives and pledges held their respective retreats in the Laguna Mountains.

Pi Beta Phi throughout the entire fall semester has had many fabulous social functions. The various exchanges we had with fraternities were: $\Sigma A E$, ΣX , $K \Sigma$, $\Sigma \Phi E$. On December 16, each member eagerly attended the Christmas formal dance held at the Island Hotel.

During semester break the little pink house on the corner was vacated and a new house was moved into. It is only temporary until the new house will be built.

At present we are busily collecting rummage for the sale to be held on March 9. The profit will be used for the new house.

Again California E has attained college recognition through honorary groups. Three girls were tapped for Angel Flight. They are: Jan Collins, Geri Berg and Sandee Ferguson. Homecoming was also special as Dexter Fisher was a homecoming attendant. Out of 40 girls in the contest for best dressed girl on campus three of the final 10 are Pi Beta Phis. They are Patty Jones, Ann Cobb, and Susan McArthur. The winner of the contest is Susie McArthur, who will now compete in the Glamour Magazine contest for the ten best dressed college girls in the U.S. Sherrill Botier was awarded Woman of Achievement and in December Cetza, a freshman service group, tapped two California E pledges, Janell Short and Patty Jones.

There are also two new Little Sisters of Minerva, Janet Johnson and Geri Berg. Linda Cleator was tapped for Serpentine while Jo Hanson and Sandy Nielson were tapped for Little Sisters of the Maltese Cross. Stephanie Evans was also tapped for Crescents.

The fall college election brought many new student body offices to Pi Beta Phi. Linda Thompson is Spring Sing Chairman and the chapter is working hard to win the Women's Division in April.

CALIFORNIA ZETA—UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT SANTA BARBARA. Chartered, February 2, 1950. INITIATED, February 17, 1963: Carol Emery, Altadena; Leslie Stringfellow, Colton; Georgia Young, Glendale; Sally Irvin, Inglewood; Sue Hill, Linda Joy Gerrish, Carol Peterson, Los Angeles; Robin Watts, Long Beach; Gini Haigrove, La Canada; Judy Ensign, Woodland Hills; Nancy Austin, Covina.

California Z honored their eleven initiates at a banquet held at El Paseo on February 17. At this time the active chapter awarded the traditional trophies to Carol Emery as Outstanding Pledge and to Georgia Young as best fulfilling the Seven Gifts of Pi Beta Phi. A new award was presented by the Santa Barbara Alumnae Club to Sally Irvin as an ideal representative of her pledge class.

Su Newlin, whose name appeared on the Dean's List for her 3.6 grade point, helped the chapter rate second with their 2.64 scholarship average in competition with other local sororities.

Two of the fourteen semi-finalists for Project Pakistan are Lee Anne Horine and Barbara Howorth. The final seven students, who will spend this summer visiting colleges and meeting students, leaders, businessmen, and other citizens of the host country, will be announced by the University Religious Conference in March.

Patti Jo Wehrheim will represent the chapter as a candidate in the annual A X A Playboy Dance.

A serenade by $\Sigma A E$ Sunday, February 24 was followed by an announcement that Meme Magee and Jo Jean De Busk are invited to join the $\Sigma A E$ Little Sisters of Minerva.

GINNY BROOKE

NEVADA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF NEVADA. Chartered, 1915. Pledge Day, September 17, 1962. INITIATED, March 2, 1963: Lyn Armbruster, Sue Craven, Judy Crossett, Joanne Denny, Karry De Vincenzi, Leslie Ann Eastwood, Lenore Owen, Barbara Parish, Michele Sala, Suzanne Stoker, Jackie Uhalde, Jeannine Van Wagenen, Penny White, Jeanette Zolezzi, Reno; Sandra Hay, Janet Mayer, Sparks; Virginia Frost, Elko; Kathleen Sadler, Eureka; Paulette Bechtold, Portland, Ore.; Norine Di Mercurio, Pittsburg, Calif.; Jane Elliott, Van Nuys, Calif.

The annual cooky-shine was held this year, highlighted by a potluck dinner. The installation banquet was held at the Rosemount Lodge.

Girls who are active on campus this semester are: Muriel Ellis and Judy Quanchi, Mackay Day Committee; Kay Sorensen, Winter Carnival Committee; Julie La Fond, Junior Class Committee and secretary of Δ , Jodi Muller, Election Board; Betty Webb, secretary of Spurs; and Andree Walker, Student Union Board.

In February the university had its annual Winter Carnival. Lee Bloomfield was Pi Beta Phi candidate for queen. Represented in the Powder Puff Derby were Lola Bankofer, Cynthia Geyer, and Karen Isbell.

Nevada A was privileged in February to have Mrs. Sipherd, Pi Province President, as a guest in the house.

JULIE LA FOND

ARIZONA ALPHA—UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA. Chartered, August 1, 1917. Starting the new semester off in good spirits, Arizona A's pledge class feted the actives with a Valentine's Party. Climaxing a day of presents, cards, and surprises for all, the pledges stole hearts with poems, candlelight, songs, and appropriate refreshments.

Soon afterward another major annual event, the Alumnae Club Bridge Dessert, found all Tucson Pi Beta Phi's working together. Pledges and alumnae modeled for a spring fashion show and active members served as hostesses. The proceeds from the successful event will enlarge the alumnae club scholarship fund.

Tucson's Western Week and Rodeo Days interrupted the typical school program and explained the appearance of dude attire. Campus activities such as Religion in Life Week and Greek Week occupied the chapter with interesting speakers as well as enjoyable dinners and exchanges. Greek Week found complete Pi Beta Phi cooperation in the traditional "Olympics" in the attempt to maintain last year's first place victory. Interspersed with these activities were exchanges with $\Sigma \Phi E$, ΔX , $\Phi \Delta \Theta$, ΣX , $\Pi K A$, and $A T \Omega$.

Pi Province President, Mrs. L. W. Sipherd, visited for several days in February. The discussions, interview, and informal parties during this time were informative and enjoyable.

Celebrating Arizona's warm March weather, the pledges again entertained the actives with a party. Following a truck ride and a trek through the desert, the actives were greeted by singing and skits along with lunch and sunbathing at the home of a pledge.

Campus royalty has claimed four Pi Beta Phis recently. Judy Parchen was among the Engineering Queen finalists. Susy Webb was a finalist for Desert Queen and Linda Salmon a finalist for Rodeo Queen. Susan Palmer was the Chapter nominee for Greek Week Queen.

Alumnae LETTERS

Edited by Maxine Ammons Smith, Arkansas A

ALPHA PROVINCE EASTERN CONNECTICUT

Eastern Connecticut Alumnae have been active in various activities for the year. Our group was led by Barbara Keefe Hadigian as president, Elizabeth Newberry Motycka, vice-president; Janet Gaylord Atkins, secretary; Lydia Sargent Meyer, treasurer; and Elaine Perkins Morse, Settlement School Chairman.

The Settlement School sale was held in October on the University of Connecticut campus. Alumnae and their friends once again welcomed the opportunity to bring Settlement School into their homes through the items for sale. Elaine Morse had selected some nice articles for sale.

Our November meeting included a report of Convention, by Ada Hawkins. Her notes, "Dailys" and pictures were enjoyed by all. The evening served to supplement the Fall Arrow.

Elaine Morse, former Connecticut A President, spoke at the February initiation banquet of the same chapter.

A brunch was held early in March for the new pledges of Connecticut A. Alumnae, pledges and active representatives were glad for the opportunity to meet together informally.

Several members have served on the Alumnae Advisory Council to Connecticut A. They are: Marcia Wise, Janet Aronson and Wilma Keyes. Miss Keyes has been a beneficial member since Connecticut A was chartered in 1943.

We were honored to have one of our members, Ada M. Towle Hawkins, elected as Alpha Province Alumnae President. We all welcome her knowledge of Pi Beta Phi on the province and national level.

JANET GAYLORD ATKINS

HARTFORD

The past year has been one of fun for the Hartford Alumnae Club. An attempt was made by the officers to dispose of all business details at executive committee meetings. This policy resulted in a successful season, which went smoothly and happily for all.

The "Round Up Open House" in the fall was especially wonderful because several active members were present. At the October covered dish dinner, our President, Sandy Sampson, presented "Convention Highlights." The Settlement School Sale and Tea, held during the afternoon and evening, enjoyed great success in spite of the news of the Cuban crisis. All members were asked to bring their favorite holiday recipes, plus samples thereof, to our traditional Christmas party. "Men's Night Out," with husbands and guests, was held in January, at which time we all learned about the use of vintage wines for entertaining and cooking.

On April 17, the State Founders' Day Dinner was held in West Hartford with members present from all six Connecticut alumnae clubs. Featured guests were the Blue Notes, a superb singing group from the chapter at Storrs. In May, to the delight of all, a Pi Beta Phi was installed as president of the local Panhellenic group. Since this honor occurs only once every twenty-seven years, many Pi Beta Phis were present to congratulate Jean Brigham and wish her well.

MANCHESTER AREA

A pot luck supper at the home of the president, Jean Monast Weiss, commenced the third season of activities for the Manchester Area Alumnae Club. Other events enjoyed this year were an auction, a Christmas party, with the group participating in a fun game of "Password," a gardening talk, and a fashion show with members acting as models.

In November, the group enjoyed the company of several active members from the University of Connecticut at a songfest. Several old and new songs were recalled and introduced. In January, members displayed and explained their favorite handicraft projects; such as smocking, knitting, painting, embroidery, and rug making, so that others might enjoy trying them.

The club has very successfully accomplished two "firsts" this year. These were Settlement School sales and a service project. Neighborhood sales were held in Glastonbury, Manchester, and Colchester, under the able chairmanship of Vonnice Clapp Irvine, with over $730, in merchandise sold this year. As a service project, members monthly provide birthday gifts for several patients at the Mansfield Training School, a state institution for the mentally retarded, along with Christmas presents in December.

Elections were held in March, with events for the coming year already being planned.

DOROTHY KRIVICK

NEW HAVEN

A varied and interesting program was enjoyed this year by the New Haven Alumnae Club, under the leadership of our new president, Sally H. Jaynes. Our year began with an informal get together, highlighted by an illustrated talk from one of our group on her recent trip to the Seattle World's Fair. The October meeting was busy, with preparations for the coming Settlement School Sale, and our President gave an inspiring report on her trip to Convention.

November was a busy month, with the annual Settlement School Sale and a program by an interior decorator on "Colonial Architecture and Design." This year the sale was enlarged to include a Christmas bazaar, as well as handicraft items donated by our own members. The club sold over $350 of Arrowcraft goods and $100 of the club's own articles.

Our traditionally popular pot luck supper guested four vacationing actives from our nearest active chapter, Connecticut A, at the December meeting. In the spirit of Christmas, each member brought a toy, article of clothing, or toilet article to be given to the Settlement School Health Center. Also, "surprise packages" were auctioned off to members, with the proceeds going to our Centennial Fund.

A group of fourteen "stepped out" to the theatre in January, while March was highlighted by a luncheon and fashion show.

In April, our group enjoyed a visit from a fellow Pi Beta Phi, Miss Louise Wilkin, and her informative talk on her role as a Social Worker in the School System. This year's statewide Founders' Day banquet was celebrated in West Hartford.

Our year came to a close when the alumnae visited the active chapter, at Storrs, in May, for their senior farewell. At this time the New Haven Alumnae Club, presented its annual award to a Connecticut A active who exemplified the high ideals of Pi Beta Phi.

SOUTHERN FAIRFIELD COUNTY

Another active and successful year for the Southern Fairfield County Alumnae Club will soon be concluded.

Beginning in September with a luncheon, at the home of the club's new President, Mrs. Joseph Littlefield, and a report on Convention, an ambitious program began.

Enthusiastic support and cooperative weather in October made the Settlement School sale, supplemented by a bake sale, a great success. Later in the month, the club was honored with a visit from our Grand Vice President, Helen Boucher Dix.

A Christmas party, which included husbands, began the holiday season. Later that month, the board gave a luncheon for all vacationing Pi Beta Phi actives and pledges in this area that it was possible to locate. This luncheon, it is hoped, will be a yearly event.

Other successful programs have included talks by talented members: Mrs. Betty Kingsbury on the subject of "Star," Society for Retarded Children; Mrs. D. E. Miller, discussing the United Nations and its purpose; and our last program where slides of the Settlement School were shown.

Our Founders' Day luncheon was held at the Red Barn, in Westport, with new Golden Arrow members being honored. The Club also supported the State Founders' Day celebration in West Hartford. In June, the year will be concluded with the annual supper and splash party, which includes husbands, and is always a success.

MARTHA NIESTADT STILLMAN

THAMES RIVER

The September meeting of the Thames River Alumnae Club was held at the home of Elizabeth Tragis. We were delighted to see many new faces and renew acquaintances who we had not seen through the summer. Highlights of Convention, given by Nancy White, opened the program for the year.

Ann Sergeant and Patricia Parr combined their talents to make our November Settlement School sale a huge success, despite a huge downpour on that day.

In January, at the home of Carol Paul, we utilized the talents of our vice president, Jacynth Estabrook. She gave us many hints on the art of cake decoration. We, then, sold the cake, in order to add a little money to the treasury. The scope, aims and activities of the local Panhellenic Association were presented, by Ann Mack.

Ada Towle Hawkins, Alumnae Province President, brought inspiration and help to our club, when she visited us in March.

Founders' Day was celebrated in April. In June, we meet at the home of Dot Macbeth for swimming and picnicking, with our husbands as guests.

We have welcomed several new members this year and all look forward enthusiastically to next year's activities.

ALBANY

The 1962-63 program of the Albany Alumnae Club was initiated by the annual pot luck supper. Highlighting the evening was a Convention report by Mrs. William Weilbacher, our most capable and enthusiastic president.

In October, we held a Settlement School Sale and Tea. Ever increasing in popularity, it proved to be our most successful sale.

A most interesting travelogue of Italy was presented by Mrs. Jacob Hotchkiss, at our November meeting.

A luncheon for active members was held in December. A splendid rendition of Pi Beta Phi and college activities was portrayed by the actives.

Once again, the White Elephant Sale was a big success and thoroughly enjoyed by all.

The observation of Chapter Loyalty Day, including a cooky-shine, Founders' Day Luncheon, the installation of officers, followed by the Loving Cup ceremony, and the annual picnic, completed a most successful and rewarding year.

ALICE M. WILSON

BUFFALO

First, the Buffalo Alumnae Club sends warm greetings to all other clubs and active chapters.

Under the outstanding leadership of Betty Schmidt Sheedy, Ohio Δ, we have completed a successful year, which was equally enjoyable and informative. The initial meeting of the year was highlighted by a Convention report from Betty. Comments were added to the report by Mildred Moyer O'Donnell, Ohio Δ, who is Beta Province President.

October proved to be an unusually busy month for us. At our October 8 meeting, we enjoyed an armchair visit to Europe, through the beautiful slides made by Sid Gross last summer. On October 9, several volunteers joined the chairman of the local projects committee, Arlene Swan Lieneck, on a bus trip to Niagara Falls. Accompanying them were several ladies from the Bristol Home. A dessert bridge party was held, on October 17 for members and guests. This netted us $90.00, thanks to the work and energy put forth by the members of the ways and means committee, under the chairmanship of Betty Tiefenthaler Hoekstra. Arrowcraft items were on display and many orders were taken.

Our first active brunch was held in December, at the home of Frankie Zingerle Baldwin. It was most enjoyable to meet several actives, who were home for Christmas vacation. In January, we had a hat auction. We bought each other's hats, which made for a fun and profitable meeting. Gale Pardu, vice president of our club, was in charge of this meeting. In February, Gale moved, with her husband and children, to Germany, and is certainly missed by all of us.

In January, members and their husbands met for a scotch bowling party, followed by a buffet supper. Two AFS students from Spain and Argentina, joined us in February. They answered numerous questions and their answers made us remember that people are about the same all around the world.

Our Founders were honored in April, when we met at a local restaurant for dinner. The installation of officers meeting was held, at my home, in May, followed by a salad dessert pot luck. Lillian Angliker O'Shaughnessy was installed as president. August concludes our year of activities, with a family picnic.

BOBBIE LAY WHITE

CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA

The Central Pennsylvania Alumnae Club started the year with our annual Cooky-shine for the active chapter at Bucknell University. The dinner, provided by the alumnae members, was held at Cowan Recreational Center, followed by a meeting of both groups.

In October, a luncheon was held at the Hotel Milton, followed by a meeting in one of the member's home. Our president, Helen Hoffa, gave a report of Convention, which she attended in Washington last summer.

Our December meeting was very well attended. Each member brought Christmas gifts to be sent to the children at Settlement School. Our program was on Settlement School, with a social hour following the meeting.

In March, we elected new officers for the coming year.

HARRISBURG-CARLISLE

The activities of the Harrisburg-Carlisle Alumnae Club, under the leadership of Miss Tatiana Reid, began in September with a delightful luncheon meeting at Clemson's Party House. This meeting was highlighted by an interesting account of the many exciting happenings at Convention.

October was busy with the three Settlement School Sales, under the direction of Mrs. J. Edward Belt, which were highly successful. The November business meeting, at the home of Mildred Day Graybill, was climaxed by the showing of the lovely Settlement School slides.

The Christmas spirit prevailed at the December meeting, at the home of Jeannette Appleby Holtzman, when members of the club made favors for the patients at Dauphin County Home.

Following a dessert meeting, at the home of Jane Davidson, in February, the increasing problem of college admission was discussed when the group had the opportunity to view the film, "Next Year Is Now."

Particularly enjoyable and entertaining was the White Elephant Sale in March, when Betty Cleckner Barnes acted as auctioneer.

Founders' Day was celebrated with a delightful luncheon and the year's activities were closed in May with a tasty covered dish dinner at the home of Mary Louise Heckman.

With an increased membership this year, the club is looking forward to fall and another year of fun and activity together.

ITHACA

The Ithaca Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi opened a successful 1962-63 year, under the capable leadership of Mrs. Jane Bailey, at an organizational meeting in the home of Mrs. Marjorie Bradford. Plans were made for meetings and activities during the year and get acquainted games and refreshments were enjoyed.

A coffee hour for the actives of New York Δ, held at the chapterhouse on the Cornell campus, was the highlight of the October 22 meeting.

A social evening, including family and friends of the alumnae, was held at the home of Mrs. Margaret Van Houtte on November 26. Mr. W. K. Cuddy related interesting events and showed slides of his trip to the U.S.S.R. with the Cornell University Glee Club in December 1960. Many questions concerning the Russian people and customs were discussed and the evening proved to be a most interesting and educational one.

Mrs. Eleanor Smith was hostess for the January meeting of the Ithaca Alumnae Club. Mrs. Ruth Darling, Assistant to the Dean of Students, spoke on women's fraternity rushing at Cornell.

A coffee hour for the pledges of the chapter was held February 25 at the chapter house. These get together with actives and pledges are always enjoyable, since they enable actives and alumnae to meet and become better acquainted. Mrs. Kay Ross and Mrs. Elizabeth Massey presented a brief program on the history of the Cooky-shine.

Founders' Day was celebrated April 29. Mrs. Mary Swan, whose mother, Mrs. C. F. Warren, had been a charter member of New York Δ of Pi Beta Phi, presented a program on the history of the local chapter.

Perhaps the most looked forward to event of the year was the Senior-Alumnae Breakfast held on May 19 at the home of Mrs. Eleanor Smith. This was a well attended event and one which helps bring about closer relationships between seniors and alumnae.

The alumnae of the Ithaca Club look forward to another year as interesting as 1962-63 has been. A warm welcome will be extended to alumnae, both newcomers and permanent residents in the Ithaca area, at the opening get together in the fall.

NORTHERN NEW JERSEY

The Northern New Jersey Alumnae Club has enjoyed an interesting and varied year. At our September Tea, our President, Jean Dunbar Socolowski, reported on her experiences and impressions at National Convention.

Late in September, the Montclair area organized the Settlement School Tea planned for the year. The day was most enjoyable and quite profitable.

Marion Wilder Read, a Pi Phi and world traveler, showed slides and spoke on her experiences in New Zealand and the South Pacific at the October luncheon.

In November, we were privileged to hear Mrs. Marie Nicholas, a teacher for the Rehabilitation Institute in Orange.

Instead of a regular meeting in December, we had our annual Christmas Buffet for our husbands. Mr. and Mrs. George Ray were host and hostess for a delightful evening.

The January meeting was replaced by 'small gatherings' in each of our five areas.

A special brunch-fashion show was held in February at the B. Altman Store in Short Hills for Pi Beta Phis and their guests.

Six club members modelled lovely spring ensembles. An American Field Service student was guest speaker at our March luncheon.

Our Founders' Day luncheon was held at "The Arch" in Short Hills. We were entertained by Pat Schmoll, a Pi Phi actress, active in Meadowbrook Theater.

Our year ended with the annual meeting in May.

PHILADELPHIA-DELCO

In November, the Philadelphia-Delco Alumnae Club received the 324th charter to be granted by Pi Beta Phi and installed the following officers: President, Joan Lang LePard; Vice President, Betsy Grubb Douglas; Corresponding Secretary, Janet Replogle Roberts; Recording Secretary, Sandra Seabring Hall; Treasurer, Elizabeth Fogg Hayward.

The winter meetings consisted of a Christmas party, to which everyone brought four dozen cookies for a cookie swap; a card party; and the making of special holiday favors for the Rehabilitation Center, a local project which continues to be supported by both Philadelphia clubs.

For the March meeting, an invitation was extended to the husbands of club members to hear our speaker, Mr. Stephen Uzzell, whose topic for discussion, "Can We Afford To Abandon The Monroe Doctrine?", touched upon many aspects of communism in our society today. During the year, a pot luck dinner and a Roaring Twenties party were two planned affairs which were also enjoyed by many of the members and their husbands.

In April, a talk on world travel, as experienced by Mr. William Strasburg, the husband of a Philadelphia-Main Line Alumnae Club member, set everyone to thinking about the approaching summer vacation months.

Founders' Day was celebrated at a luncheon with the Philadelphia-Main Line and Southern New Jersey clubs, with the latter being hostess at the Cherry Hill Inn in New Jersey. At this time there was a joint installation of all newly elected officers.

The activities of the 1962-63 year were concluded in May with a covered dish dinner at the home of the new president, Betsy Grubb Douglas.

PHILADELPHIA-MAIN LINE

The big news from Philadelphia this year was the chartering of our second alumnae club. Since the issuance of our original charter some 60 years ago, the entire city had been served by only one club. As the metropolitan area grew, various area groups, based on geographical location, were formed within the general group. These area groups held their own monthly meetings, but also attended the general meetings held three or four times each year. By last summer it had become clear that the city had spread too far to be accommodated by only one alumnae club and the membership voted to apply for a charter for a second club. This charter was granted and the new club was named Philadelphia-Delco, for the county in which most of its members live. The original charter was kept by the club, now known as Philadelphia-Main Line. At a joint meeting in November, the two charters were presented and officers of both clubs were installed.

The Philadelphia-Main Line club still contains two area groups which meet monthly. Programs included: reports on Convention, a travel talk and lectures by authorities on furniture and interior decorating. Workshops were held to make items for the "Pi Phi Talent Table" at our very successful October Settlement School sale and tea. One area group helped decorate the Rehabilitation Center of Philadelphia at Christmastime. We had Christmas parties and bridge luncheons and even a swimming party, to which husbands were invited. But, the highlight of the year was Founders' Day, always a meaningful celebration, but even more meaningful this year, because it was shared by the Southern New Jersey Alumnae Club, the Philadelphia-Delco Club and the Philadelphia-Main Line Club.

PITTSBURGH

This has been a memorable year for the Pittsburgh Alumnae Club. Under the leadership of our capable young president, Sara Sanders, we have accomplished a great deal. Our active membership has grown, with many young alumnae joining and contributing much in enthusiasm. We are very proud of our Settlement School sales record, which was so capably directed by Marie Davidson, Merriem Jones and Clover Johnson.

Our September meeting was a delightful picnic supper at the country home of Margaret Dury. The October meeting, at the home of Marcia Oviatt, was most informative, as we had a wonderful report of Convention, complete with slides, given by President Sara Sanders.

Our November meeting, at the home of Edna Myers, was most inspiring, due to an excellent Thanksgiving message by Reverend Allan J. Howes.

The December meeting was a Christmas party at the College Club. The program consisted of a charming sketch about Settlement School, presented by three young members, followed by carol singing.

At the February meeting, Dorothy Zepfel Brown, our hostess, shared with us, by lecture and slides, a delightful trip to Hong Kong, Formosa and Japan.

In March, we had a delicious salad supper at the home of Marie Davidson.

Founders' Day in April was celebrated with the South Hills Alumnae Club at Beck's Charter Oaks Restaurant.

Our year closed with the installation of officers at the home of Suzanne Barley.

DORIS L. REDMAN

PITTSBURGH-SOUTH HILLS

The Pittsburgh-South Hills Club opened the new year with a covered dish dinner at the home of Veta Davis Replogle. Our new President, Randy Montieth Anderson, gave us a full and interesting report on her trip to Convention.

Our Settlement School Sale was combined with a bridge benefit luncheon at Charters' Country Club. By holding the two events simultaneously, we were able to raise money for our scholarship to a local high school and display and sell Settlement School goods to our guests. It was a very successful venture, thanks to Alba Halverson Hienstand and Mary Leb Nutter Hyslop.

Other activities for the fall and winter included: hearing Carol Kemp, of New York T, speak on her recent year's study in India; a couples dinner dance at the University Club at Christmas; a coker party for the local actives, home during the holidays, at the home of Kathryn Ruby Holbrook.

Founders' Day was celebrated jointly with the Pittsburgh Club. We were the hostess club, with a luncheon at Beck's Charter Oaks.

The year will end in June, with the annual couples' picnic, at the home of Lois Harper Berg.

ROBERTA GRIGSBY KEITH

RIDGEWOOD

At a casserole luncheon in October, the Ridgewood, New Jersey, Alumnae Club devoted its program to Settlement School and Betty Harris gave her Convention report. The Christmas season was opened with our annual "Husband's Night." As usual, everyone thoroughly enjoyed the covered dish supper. It was the largest group we have had in several years.

In January, Mrs. Alice Torrens of Glen Rock, gave a delightful demonstration on catering. She showed how easy it is to make really beautiful and delectable sandwiches and hors d'oeuvres for parties.

Our February meeting was devoted to the Constitution and History of Pi Beta Phi. Then, as every year, our club spent the remainder of the evening stuffing envelopes for the Cerebral Palsy Center in Ridgewood. In March, our meeting was held in Haworth, at the home of Mrs. Dallas Waters. Mr. Ben Williams, a well known local artist, gave a very informative and interesting lecture on Modern Art.

The April meeting was devoted to Founders' Day and was a covered dish luncheon, at the home of Mrs. Ann Sabella.

In May, Mrs. C. J. Welles again opened her lovely home to the elderly and infirmed ladies of the Bergen Pines Homes. Tea and refreshments were served. Each club member brought a small gift for the ladies. This tea is looked forward to by the members, as we feel it is one of our most rewarding projects.

Mrs. D. L. Patrick has been an inspiring president and all of the members have enjoyed working with her.

BETTY HARRIS

ROCHESTER

The Rochester Alumnae Club had its first meeting on September 20 at the home of Peg Price. Several new Pi Beta Phi in the area were present. Marion Reber gave a unique graphic and verbal report of her Convention experiences. A pre-holiday sale of Settlement School goods was held at the October meeting. A slide program, "Arrowcraft" at the Smithsonian, complimented the sale.

In November we attended the Panhellenic Fall Luncheon at the Chatterbox Club and received the distinction of having the most members present. Jimmie Van Saun is Panhellenic Rushing Chairman. We are proud of two members, Marion Reber and Lydia Darling, who have been appointed to province offices.

The annual cooky-shine in January had as its theme, "Come As You Wore in College." The styles ranged from middys and bloomers to bermudas and knee highs. A wonderful program of more elaborate styles was presented. The February program featured a book review of "Grace Coolidge, Her Era."

We joined with the Kappa Kappa Gamma and the Delta Delta Deltas to sponsor a Fashion Show in March, at one of the large department stores. There were two shows, afternoon and evening and tickets were $1. With the money raised, we bought a gift for our philanthropy, the Cerebral Palsy Center.

The Founders' Day Luncheon featured a skit, "Pi Phi Angels" and in May we went on a "Pi Phi Talent Hunt."

To end a successful year with a splash, Pi Beta Phi and husbands had a picnic and swim party at the home of Dorothy and Bob Phillips.

GERVAISE LARSON WESTERMAN

SCHENECTADY

Under the able and enthusiastic leadership of Gladys Larrabee, the Schenectady Alumnae Club began its year with the annual covered dish supper, at the home of Virginia Timberlake.

In November, our Settlement School Sale was once again very successful. The sale was held at the home of Margaret Frank and refreshments were served to our friends and customers. Chairman Nancy Pollack reported that sales totaled almost $1,500.00.

One highlight of our year's activities is the Christmas Open House, held at the home of Lucille McLachlan. It is always a pleasure to meet at this lovely Christmas party, as it starts the holiday season in the nicest way. Two bridge meetings, one with our husbands in February, provided entertainment, after our business meetings.

March was election of officers and a box lunch meeting, at the home of Virginia Creamer. Founders' Day was celebrated this year at a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Carter Davidson, wife of the President of Union College. It was a particularly gracious occasion and everyone enjoyed Mrs. Davidson's hospitality and lovely home.

Our final meeting of the year was a brunch, at the home of Roberta Jakowatz, held in May.

LYNN HAMILTON

SOUTHERN NEW JERSEY

The Southern New Jersey Alumnae Club opened the fall season with a business meeting and tea hosted by Helen Louise Waller. Highlighted at the meeting was a most interesting and informative report by our first delegate to the Pi Beta Phi Convention, Edna Baker.

October featured our annual Settlement School Sale at the home of one of our former presidents, Fran Mervine. The sale, under the able direction of Alice Vogdes, was a success.

Our Christmas meeting included our husbands, and a buffet supper and carol sing were enjoyed at the home of Betty and John Kirschner.

The Kappa Kappa Gammas of Southern New Jersey entertained us in February with a nice get together. The speaker for the evening was the chef for the executive dining room at Campbell Soup.

Bea Thompson was the gracious hostess for our March business meeting and tea. Election of officers and contributions for the year were on the agenda.

Founders' Day was celebrated by a lovely luncheon at Cherry Hill Inn, our guests being the Philadelphia alumnae.

Our president, Suzanne Sims, entertained at a June picnic, ending our year's activities.

DOT WAHLSTROM

STATE COLLEGE

The State College Alumnae Club started the year's activities with the annual Arrowcraft sale, which was held at the Woman's Club Building, on October 17, 1962, from 1:30 P.M. Nancy Bales Carson and Shirley Van Zandt Carson were cochairmen of the event and slightly over $500. of Settlement School merchandise was sold.

On November 29, Mary Ellen Savage hosted the club at her apartment. Grace Antes Strong, alumnae club president, conducted the business meeting and introduced Marty Diamond, Pennsylvania State active chapter rush chairman, who spoke to the club about chapter rush plans. The club made arrangements to provide refreshments for the "Bermuda Junction" rush party and the final coffee hour.

Mable Boyer Parks was hostess for the club, at her new home, on January 22. Carol Kunkleman, active chapter president, was introduced to the club, by Miriam Sprague Wellington, active chapter alumna advisor. Carol reported the results of the rush period which just terminated. On Sunday, January 27, the club had a party for the active chapter in honor of new pledges. The party was held in the chapter suite and the emphasis, of course, was on getting to know the new pledges. Conversation flowed and refreshments were served.

The annual potluck supper was held February 23, at the home of Robert and Marjorie Putnam Ramsey. Husbands were guests of honor and did they eat! Chat prevailed over leisurely cups of coffee and for those who cared to play games.

On March 19, the club met at Evelyn Keller Murray's home. The slate of officers was presented and plans were made for Founders' Day.

Founders' Day was held on Sunday, April 28. It was, once again, a tri chapter event, involving the active chapters of Bucknell University, Dickinson College and Pennsylvania State University, together with the alumnae clubs of Central Pennsylvania, Harrisburg and State College. The event was held at Pennsylvania State University.

The May meeting was held at the home of Mariana Evans Carpenter. It was a combination of affairs: the senior farewell, followed by the installation of new officers.

EVELYN KELLER MURRAY

SYRACUSE

The Syracuse Alumnae Club opened the fall season with a cooky-shine at the home of Barbara Kidd. President Donna Pair gave an interesting report on Convention. In October, we held a luncheon meeting at Martin's Restaurant.

At an evening meeting in November, at the home of Marjorie Kirk, we heard a talk on "Telstar," by Walter Beattie of the New York Telephone Company. Also, in November, our members worked on Chappell's Women's Day, earning $100. This credit was our Christmas gift to the actives and was used to purchase furnishings for the chapter house.

The annual Christmas party, with the actives, was held in December at the chapter house. A covered dish supper was served by the alumnae and a skit was presented by the actives.

A luncheon business meeting was held at Schrafft's in January. Our annual couples party was held later this same month, when twenty Pi Beta Phis and their husbands met at the University Club for dinner and dancing.

Estella Hillegas opened her home in February for a "Tasting Dessert" meeting. Each Pi Beta Phi brought her favorite dessert and the recipe. Guests were invited. Alice Ross reviewed "The Sea Diver," by Pi Beta Phi Marian Link.

Election of officers was held at the March meeting, at the home of Anita Foley. Founders' Day was observed in April, with the actives, at a luncheon at Drumlins Country Club.

Jean McCuen was our hostess for the May meeting, when annual reports were presented and officers for the coming year were installed.

NANETTE UNGER BROWN

WESTCHESTER

The members of the Westchester Alumnae Club are privileged to have as President, Betty Scott Starr, also serving as B Alumnae Province President. Regular luncheon meetings, volunteer service with the Admitting Office at Burke Foundation, the Settlement School sale and "Kaffee Klatsch" were the highlights of 1962-1963.

Rosemary Weldon Whitely, Program Chairman, planned entertaining programs, using the talents of members. Dorothy Stroud Van Deusen and Betty Scott Starr, Convention Delegates, gave us the feeling of being there with their account, snapshots and mementos of activities in Washington. Monthly programs: "News from Holt House," "History of the Van Cortland Family," by Mary Garberson; "Logic in Landscape Design," by Peggy Vaughn; "What's the Answer," a quiz on the history of Pi Beta Phi, and "Let's Look at the Orient," by Eloise Bilyeu Dibble, were informative and inspiring.

Kaffee Klatsch, the annual benefit, held at the Scarsdale Woman's Club, was most successful, under the leadership of Kathryn Trask Deedman and Clara Kibler Davis. A travelogue and current fashions of Puerto Rico were shown, after the Christmas candy wreath and Settlement School sale. The Christmas bazaar provided Settlement School children with Christmas gifts and Burke Foundation Occupational Therapy Department with an electric typewriter for use of the patients. The January meeting commemorated Chapter Loyalty Day. Founders' Day luncheon, at the American Yacht Club in Rye, was inspiring, with Anne Guthrie, lecturer and author, speaking. Along with the many volunteer hours our members contribute to Burke Foundation, time was spent assisting with the Easter Seal contributions.

In June, the annual covered dish supper, with husbands joining the fun, concluded an exciting year.

AKRON

An August picnic brought the Akron Alumnae Club together for a Convention report from our nine members who attended. President, Carolyn Thacher Stitt, told of our receiving the Little Pigeon, as fifth highest club in Arrowcraft sales. We said good bye that afternoon to Carolyn, who departed the next week for her new home in Tyler, Texas.

Barbara Yates Kirk accepted the presidency and held our first meeting, a cooky-shine, in October at the E. S. Johnson home, overlooking Turkeyfoot Lake. Final plans were made for our Arrowcraft sales, held this year in Akron and Cuyohoga Falls, again a real success.

"Social Work in Today's World" was the November program, presented by several of our own members engaged in social work.

Snow fell all day to give us an old fashioned Christmas party evening. Santa's arrival and Christmas carol singing brought the evening to a delightful close. Also highlighting December was our tea honoring area actives, pledges and their mothers.

Jane Amer Wolf gave her absorbing impressions of the book, Grace Coolidge and Her Era, following the Loyalty Day Luncheon at University Club, in January.

Proceeds of an evening of bridge in February were given to Panhellenic Association for their philanthropy project, the Children's Home.

In March, officers and board members found their baby pictures posted gayly about the room. Following a mad scramble of guessing who was who, these girls each gave a tiny self sketch.

At Founders' Day Luncheon in April, at Silver Lake Country Club, two new golden arrow members were honored, Ednah Helen Pugh and Helen Morgan Guinther. We were especially fortunate to have Dorothy Davis Stuck, ARROW Editor, as guest speaker, and Nancy Arthur Smetts, Province President.

Our local philanthropy, Juvenile Detention Home, received the proceeds of our May dance at Fairlawn Country Club.

LORNA J. GIBSON PHARES

ATHENS

Jane Biggers Evans, the president of the Athens Alumnae Club, has directed the alumnae through another successful year, with a membership of forty-eight. Our meetings have been very well attended. We assisted Ohio A during rush week, by working in the kitchen and donating cookies.

A report of the Convention held this summer was given by Elsa Heflefinger. Her talk was accompanied by the showing of slides. The twenty-two new pledges were entertained at a potluck dinner in October. Miss Barbara Keck, a senior of Ohio University, who received the Pi Beta Phi Award given by the alumnae and active chapter this year, was also present.

The program for the November meeting was on the history of the traditional cooky-shine, with refreshments served in true cooky-shine manner. Group singing of Pi Beta Phi songs was also part of the program.

A luncheon and bridge party, at the student center, was held in February. All members were busy planning and making items of seasonal interest for the annual spring bazaar, held in April each year. Hand blocked stationery was sold again this year. Chances were sold on a Easter hat and the lucky winner's name announced at the sale. Mary Ann Phillips was the chairman for the event, which featured hand painted eggs, Easter baskets, baked goods and hand made articles.

Founders' Day was celebrated in April, with the active chapter, at the John Calhoun Baker Center. The graduating seniors were honored with the traditional senior buffet, at the home of Gene Wheaton, for the last meeting of another year for the Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club of Ohio University at Athens, Ohio.

ANNA MARGARET FULKS
Recording Secretary

CINCINNATI

The Cincinnati Alumnae Club enjoyed a successful year, both socially and financially. The feeling of unity was established at the outset by our president, Betty Berry Rose, after it was agreed to dispense with area meetings and meet monthly as a collective whole.

In late August, Mary Stoner Tomb, at a twilight patio tea, presented many area actives to the alumnae club officers. Not only was it a delight to meet the reigning Pi Beta Phi, but it was felt our rush program was greatly enhanced.

On September 11, our first meeting was well attended by a good number of our one hundred members. Ruth Stout Godley, assisted by her husband, was the official hostess at their residence. Four Winds, for our Settlement School tea on an October, Sunday afternoon. Alumnae, especially the chairman, Carolyn Cunningham Arganbright, were greatly heartened with our success, both financially and socially, which theretofore had been unequalled.

November, December, January and February found us enjoying and appreciating our sister alumnae. Mary Berry and her daughter, Betty Berry Rose, relived past conventions with us, with emphasis being placed on the 1962 Convention. After sharing the holiday spirit at a Christmas luncheon, we initiated the new year with a musical program of concert selections, presented by Karen Taylor Boylan, and popular singing led by Rosemary Sullivan Chaney. In February, Sally Lemert Weed, an eminent attorney, answered pertinent legal questions.

The Mariemont Players, at the Walton Creek Theatre, presented a special evening performance of the play "Middle of the Night" for us, our husbands and guests, in March.

April found us electing officers and in May we journeyed to the University Club to install our newly elected and celebrate Founders' Day with the Miami University (Oxford) Active Chapter, the Dayton Alumnae Club and the Hamilton Alumnae Club.

The termination of a rewarding year was shared with our husbands, while we picnicked and swam, at the home of Barbara White Hill, and talked of preparations for another year in our Cincinnati Alumnae Club.

CLEVELAND EAST

The Alumnae Club of Cleveland East began its fall program with a joint meeting with the junior group, at the home of Mary Ellen Noon Hruby. The program for the evening was a very interesting, humorous, penetrating and complete Convention report from our able President, Betty Dean Calhoun. In October, our Settlement School sale was held, at the home of Virginia Zellers Perkins, under the direction of our chairman, Jeanette Luce Millard. As in the past, it was well attended and highly successful. In November, the dinner meeting was held in the home of Frances Barnard Zook and we heard a most informative talk on "Gems." In December, the "Great Snow" cut down on attendance, so husbands were included to "fill in" and to hear some Christmas readings. Subsequent programs included a travelogue by one of our most illustrious members, Mary Wallihan Gibson, as well as Chapter Loyalty Day, at which time our Program Chairman, Sue Parkins Wroolstadt, tested our fading memory of some of Pi Beta Phi's vital statistics!

In the spring, we celebrated Founders' Day jointly with Cleveland West and were privileged to welcome as our speaker Dorothy Davis Stuck, Editor of the ARROW. We also invited the Lake County Alumnae Club to join us for this occasion. In May, our benefit bridge party, under the enthusiastic direction of Ruth Horrocks Sprague, was once again held, following a lovely luncheon. After installation of officers in May, we closed the club year in June, at the home of Billie Greer Reminger, in a joint meeting with our junior group and enjoyed an interesting program on arts and crafts.

JEAN BAILEY GAEDE

CLEVELAND EAST JUNIOR

In September, our group commenced its activities, under the leadership of Sherry Hellyer Reynolds. Our first meeting was a cooky-shine, held at the home of Julie Doyle Bridges. In October, we joined the senior group for a dinner meeting and a Settlement School sale. We included our husbands, in November, for a pot luck dinner, at the home of our chairman. Our regular meeting that month featured Dick Atkinson, who spoke to us on juvenile delinquency.

In December, we gave a brunch for the active members who live in this area. It was highly successful and we plan to make it an annual affair. The other winter meetings included a correspondence party, a rummage sale and an interesting book report, given by Elba Kingman Crow.

Our most important project of the year was the annual benefit bridge party. We gave it an exciting twist this year by auctioning off thirty-five gifts sent to us by celebrities. We were pleased to receive many nice letters, as well as gifts, in answer to our requests.

In April, we celebrated Founders' Day at Stouffer's Restaurant. We ended the year at a joint meeting with the senior group.

VIRGINIA BECK RESS

CLEVELAND WEST

The program spotlight this year has been on our very own Cleveland West Pi Beta Phi. At our traditional opening pot luck in September, it was on Barbara Olsen, our president, Delegate to the Washington Convention, who reported on the interesting and important sessions there.

Fran English gave an informative talk on Communism's threat in October, and Millie Virgigen delighted us with her reading of a charming Christmas story in November. Our sale of Settlement School products was brisk at the latter meeting.

The white elephant sale in January was fun and a success. Our talented Jan Sutton demonstrated hat making and displayed her own creations, in February. Debbie Kennedy, our artist, did a portrait at the March meeting. Our own Nancy Smetts, Province President, gave us an interesting firsthand report on active activities. It was announced that Alice McPherson had been appointed Province Scholarship Chairman. We closed the year with our annual June picnic, honoring actives in our area.

This year's money making project was a successful benefit bridge and dessert party, which the Captain's Quarters, a specialty shop owned and operated by Sally Myers' husband, provided a beautiful style show.

Again, Jan Werner graciously opened her home at Christmas for the couples' open house, attended this year by thirty Pi Beta Phi and their husbands. This is becoming a popular annual holiday gathering.

Our philanthropy continues to be our work at Cleveland Psychiatric Institute. Nancy Erickson reported many hours of work by our members, acting as hostesses at monthly parties. New draperies were bought and made for the ward.

Again this year, we joined the Cleveland East in commemorating Founders' Day, with a dinner in a downtown restaurant, at which we were privileged to have Dorothy Davis Stuck, ARROW Editor, as our speaker.

We welcomed several new members this year to our club. Cleveland West continues to bring together Pi Beta Phi alumnae of all ages in a warm and close association.

ALICE M. MCPHERSON

COLUMBUS

After a relaxing summer, Columbus Alumnae gathered, at the home of Hulda Edwards, to hear Lynn Gilbert give a report on Convention. It was very inspiring and interesting to hear how a large group can come together and attempt to solve various problems.

This year our local philanthropic project was Buckeye Boys Ranch. Mrs. I. J. Nelson, Ohio B Pi Beta Phi and a board member of B.B.R., gave the group an inside picture of what type of boys and problems Columbus Alumnae has lent a helping hand. The sale of fruit cakes provided our group with a check, which in turn was graciously accepted by the board, in January.

A Panhellenic discussion was led by our representative to City Panhellenic, Ruth Brown, in October, at the home of Sybil Mc-Clelland. This was very pertinent, as our growing campus and increased enrollment has presented many problems to fraternity women.

Football and its participants have long been of vital interest to Columbusites. To tell of the more humorous and warm incidents, Mrs. Woody Hayes, wife of our football coach, related some personal experiences. Nancy Edwards' home provided a lovely setting for a most entertaining evening.

Columbus Alumnae "on going" projects were profitable and an inspiration to continue into the new year with renewed vigor. Many new faces were seen at meetings and presented to the group, with a warm reception. To reach even farther, the January regional meetings were held, hoping to renew old friendships and encourage regular meeting attendance. As always, an effort was made to make new personalities feel at home.

The chapter house, in February, was the scene of the introduction of the very attractive and talented pledge class. A song fest followed. Also in February, the alumnae club held a tea honoring the new pledges and their parents.

"India Today" was the discussion topic of Mrs. John Odgers, in March, at the home of Billie Jones. Beautiful clothing, yard goods and jewelry were displayed and commented upon, as Mrs. Odgers explained their origin and history.

Spring brought many busy moments and exciting memories. Judy Morrison, active chapter president, gave a very heart warming talk about Grace Coolidge, a very distinguished Pi Beta Phi. Spring excitement was also extended by the presence of Amy B. Onken at Founders' Day celebration, held at the King's Inn, Arlington Arms Motel. All who attended would readily agree that her message was impressive and inspirational. Surrounding active chapters and alumnae groups were invited, so they might share this wonderful moment with Columbus Alumnae Club and Ohio B actives. The spring dance, held jointly with Delta Delta Delta and Kappa Kappa Gamma, brought April to a close.

Darby Dan Farm provided the relaxing atmosphere for the June picnic, where graduating seniors were introduced and honored. Projects for the year were reviewed. Again next year the book exchange will be on the program. Rhoma Berlin published several newsletters containing pertinent reminders, information and news. All alumnae felt they participated in a job well done. This brought to a close a most invigorating year, focusing upon the fact that Ohio B has acquired an adjoining lot for future expansion. This was a big step regarded as desirable, important and necessary.

SHARON McCLELLAND SHELTON

DAYTON

This was an experimental year for the Dayton Alumnae Club. The club divided, with the northside and southside alumnae each holding four separate meetings, then combining for four meetings. There was one set of officers and one yearbook.

In September, we had a combined meeting to hear the club president give an inspiring Convention report. Our programs were varied, interesting and informative. Highlights of the year included: a trip, by the northside alumnae, to have lunch with the Troy, Ohio Alumnae; two couples' parties; the annual Christmas coffee, with the Dayton Actives; an eye opening talk on indecent literature by a representative of the Citizens for Decent Literature; a "Food with a Flair" demonstration, at Frigidaire, by Olive Jean Cowden, Ohio B; and the Founders' Day luncheon, in Cincinnati, with the Cincinnati Alumnae Club and the actives of Ohio Z. Also, the Ohio Z chapter invited members to a tea in December.

Financially, the club was very successful. The ways and means chairman organized rummage pick up days and sold ribbon all year. The Settlement School chairman held sales in several homes for neighbors of members and organized sales at two club functions. One event was the Pi Beta Phi Christmas sale, masterminded by the program chairman. Christmas decorations were displayed and the mimeographed instructions and cookie recipes were sold. In addition, the northside alumnae held a bridge tourney and a talent sale.

Now that the treasury is bulging, the club can turn its attention next year to a worthwhile community philanthropy.

HAMILTON

The Hamilton Alumnae Club is now in its seventh year of existence. Monthly meetings have been held from September through June.

Our November meeting was a sales promotion program for Arrow Craft. Leaflets, brochures and new price lists were distributed. Also, letters and price lists were sent to prospective customers reminding them that, even though there was to be no big sale this year, they could still order through our Settlement School chairman.

In December, the group decided to have a program centered around a "Do It Yourself Project." Each member brought working materials and we all helped each other in our various projects.

Also, in December, the Miami University Pi Beta Phi chapter held an annual tea in their suite. This was very enjoyable for everyone.

March 16 found us at Miami University, treating the Pi Beta Phi active chapter to a home made breakfast of coffee cakes, juice and coffee. Everyone seemed to enjoy this informal get together.

Founders' Day, on May 4, celebrated with the Cincinnati Alumnae

Club and the active chapter from Miami University, was a luncheon held in Cincinnati.

LAKE COUNTY

The first delegate from the Lake County Alumnae Club attended Convention in Washington this past summer. She was Fran Jordan Christy, who returned with reports of speeches and enthusiasm for her enjoyable experiences.

We lost three of our loyal members during the year. All had served as presidents but moved out of our area. They were Madilyn Hadley Grigsby, Carolyn Newman Franklin and Lois Hoyer Jaggard, who was serving currently. Lynn Hargrove Cox is ably completing her term of office. We welcomed Barbara Fox Garrett, from Ohio A, to our group and she served as our Settlement School Chairman.

In October, we baked cookies, which were taken to our "adopted" college chapter at Denison University. In February, Fran Christy and Nancy Rozell spent a weekend as guests of the chapter for their initiation of thirty-five pledges. They took with them two new floor lamps to add to the two which we sent the chapter last June. Since we have no local chapter near us, helping our newest Ohio chapter has given our alumnae club a purpose and a contact with the active chapters.

"Grace Coolidge and Her Era" was the book review, given by Lois Jaggard, at our November meeting and in December we had our annual husbands and wives Christmas party. In April, six of our members traveled to Cleveland to join their alumnae clubs in celebrating Founders' Day, with Mrs. Stuck as the speaker.

Plans are for our annual entertainment of the college girls from our county at a luncheon in June. This is an enjoyable way to end the year, hearing of the activities at the colleges the girl represent.

NEWARK-GRANVILLE

Newark-Granville Alumnae Club welcomed Margaret Heinrichs, who assumed her duties as housemother for the Ohio H chapter, at Denison University, last fall, with a dessert party, at the chapter house, on September 12.

On October 29, the club entertained the new pledges of the Ohio H chapter. A committee of alumnae club members served luncheon to chapter members and new initiates on initiation day, February 25.

At a luncheon meeting, on March 5, new officers were elected, as follows: Mrs. Frank W. Spencer, president; Mrs. Don E. Smith, vice president; Mrs. Francis C. Bayley, treasurer; and Mrs. Hugh G. Parsons, corresponding secretary.

In May, we honored the seniors of the active chapter, with a dinner party.

MARY BLACKMAN PARSONS

OHIO VALLEY

The Ohio Valley Alumnae Club, under the new leadership of Mrs. John Chase, met on October 22, at the home of Mrs. Roger Roberts, for a combined business meeting and Arrowcraft sale. The successful evening was climaxed with a delicious coffee hour.

We always look forward to our December meeting, when we honor our actives and pledges with a luncheon during their Christmas holiday. The actives gave a short talk about the achievements, honors and problems from their individual Pi Beta Phi Chapter.

The February covered dish meeting was again held at the charming home of Mrs. John Osborne, with Mrs. Robert Leibold her very able co-hostess. After a very delicious meal, a business meeting was held to discuss plans for Founders' Day, which was held in April.

MRS. VINCENT MATANIC

SPRINGFIELD

The first fall meeting of the Springfield, Ohio, Alumnae Club was held in October, at the home of Anna Pappas Gianakopoulos. The President, Rosemary Chappell Winters, expressed the appreciation of the group to Sue Nolte Doege for her efforts in obtaining favors for Convention. The business meeting was a routine one.

The second meeting of the year was held in December, at the home of Mildred Du Bois Rensberg. The group discussed rushing and the Settlement School. The hostess had recruited her husband, Dr. Robert G. Rensberg, to show the group his coordinated slides and films on Japan. The Rensberg family had spent the summer there.

The February meeting was held at the home of Louise Reeder Harris in the evening. Routine business matters were discussed.

The March meeting was held at the home of Norma Dee Burdick. The program was focused on a review of the Constitution. The final meeting of the year was held at the Strawberry Hill farm home of Myrna Latourette Greene. The group discussed plans for the Panhellenic Tea, which is held annually in June. The tea is given for all graduating senior high school girls who plan to attend college. There are six women's fraternities participating.

The alumnae club adjourned until September.

YOUNGSTOWN-WARREN

The Youngstown-Warren Alumnae Club started its year with a meeting in September, at the home of Mrs. Glen Job, in Cortland. As our Convention delegate, she presented a most interesting program on Convention highlights. There was no formal meeting in October. Instead, a Settlement School display was given in both Youngstown and Warren, with Mrs. Gordon Harrison and Mrs. Robert Day respective hostesses.

The November meeting featured a showing of imported articles, from Motley House Craftsmen's Studios, with an accompanying talk by Mrs. Charles Creager. In December, the annual luncheon for Pi Beta Phi actives and their mothers was held, at Parkview House, in Canfield, Ohio. A bridge party, in Warren, was on the February schedule.

In March, we had a dessert meeting, with an exchange student from Brazil the speaker. Founders' Day was celebrated, in April, with a Cooky-shine, at the home of Mrs. E. V. Graves.

Actives were included at a picnic, in June, at the home of Mrs. William Wood, which was our last meeting of the year.

BLOOMFIELD HILLS

With the termination of our club year approaching, the Bloomfield Hills Alumnae Club can look back on a most gratifying year, under the capable leadership of Betty Hilder, our club president.

Many activities have unified our members both in inter club functions and community services. One meeting was devoted entirely to the making of bibs and stuffed animals, which were sent to the Lapeer State Home. Some of our members met at various other times, adding more bibs and animals to those already completed at the meeting. Many of these same patients are without acknowledgement at Christmas time, therefore, our individual members personally purchased small gifts to remember those forgotten ones.

Our club is also interested and supportive of the Michigan Kidney Disease Foundation, which is organized for the support of children with nephrosis and other kidney diseases. By selling "trick or treat" candy at Halloween, we were able to contribute to their Cortisone Bank, which is a large department in their organization.

We are most grateful to Donna Ethington, our settlement school chairman, who helped us to achieve one of our highest years in sales. With an informal coffee between 10AM and 4PM, we were able to accommodate a large number and make it possible for friends to come at their convenience.

As one of our major club fund raising activities, we again held our annual "Military Whist Party." This is a function where the husbands are cordially invited, and it was an enjoyable, as well as profitable, evening.

To help the actives and alumnae get better acquainted, an "active tea" was held in December, including our chapter and actives living in the surrounding areas. Founders' Day, in April, also afforded us the opportunity to become better acquainted with other alumnae groups in the area. We joined with the North Woodward, Detroit-Dearborn and Grosse Pointe Clubs for an enjoyable afternoon.

We are most pleased with this past year and are looking forward to an even better one next year.

CHARLESTON

The Charleston Alumnae Club, which is composed of alumnae from the Kanawha Valley, has had a most interesting season, with Mrs. L. E. Wright as president. In August, we participated in the Panhellenic party for girls entering college in the fall. In September, we had fun, and consumed calories, at our regular fall dinner meeting. Settlement School Sale, in October, was three-in-one this year, since it was held in three different sections of this area. Everyone admires and buys the lovely items from Gatlinburg. At the November meeting, our delegate to Convention, Mrs. William Thornhill, gave us a vivid description of her experiences in Washington. It was a delight to see the pledges and actives from this area at a coffee during the Christmas holidays.

One of our members has entered the political field. Mrs. Harry Brawley is running for Council at Large in the Charleston City Election.

A severe winter that has set repeated records for zero, and below—has prevented us from having some of our scheduled activities. We hope spring will soon be here, everyone is tired of the cold, the snow, and the flu!

This is West Virginia's Centennial Year. One of the ways we expect to observe the event is to meet at "Sunrise," the former home of a governor of West Virginia, which has recently been made a museum and cultural center. This meeting will be during the special exhibit of painting and sculpture winners in a contest sponsored by the Centennial Commission.

CHARLOTTE

The Charlotte Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi began its year with an enthusiastic letter to over ninety members in the area. Its contents not only stressed the need for more participation, but also included the program of activities for the year.

Our first meeting was inspiring to every Pi Beta Phi. Our president gave a complete report of Convention and showed interesting slides.

At our December meeting, we enjoyed a program with each member sharing a favorite book suitable for a Christmas gift.

Our "Cookie Boxing Party" was a success. We baked, boxed and packed cookies to be mailed to the three Pi Beta Phi chapters in North Carolina and South Carolina for them to enjoy during examinations. We are sure our efforts were appreciated because the thank you notes promptly arrived.

Our February meeting was a discussion of advertisements. Each member brought a sample advertisement and discussed it. We left with a better knowledge of advertising and how it effects us.

In March, our annual pot luck supper, with our husbands, was a real success. Every year our alumnae club looks forward to this meeting.

Founders' Day was celebrated with a candlelighting ceremony. We will bring the year to a close with a salad exchange in May, at which time we will install our new officers.

Of special note is our discovery of our Golden Arrow Pi Beta Phi, Miss Rosanna Blair, whom we lovingly honored with one dozen silver blue and wine carnations.

ROBERTA CASEY RANKIN

COLUMBIA

The Columbia Alumnae Club, under the leadership of Mary Davis, our president, has had a highly successful year. As always, our main objective has been to assist the active chapter in every way possible, and we began by giving a lovely dinner for the chapter and their rushees, at the Canterbury Room. On October 30, an Arrowcraft sale was held, with a good turnout both from the active chapter and the alumnae. We have furnished refreshments for several of the drop ins, at the university, given by the active chapter.

The Loyalty Day luncheon was held on January 9 and was thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended. In February, the alumnae club held a bridge benefit, the proceeds of which went to the Centennial Fund, and it was so successful that it promises to become a regular affair. The turnout was excellent and everyone had a delightful time. We can hardly wait to have another one.

The Founders' Day luncheon was one of the highlights of our year. It is always such a pleasure to be with the girls of the active chapter, as they are an outstanding group in every way. A special invitation was extended to members of the Charlotte, North Carolina, Alumnae Club to attend. Congratulations are in order to all those who worked so hard to make the luncheon so enjoyable.

As you can see, it has been a most exciting and gratifying year and we eagerly look forward to continuing success in the coming year.

MORGANTOWN

The Morgantown Alumnae Club opened the year with a covered dish dinner, at the West Virginia University chapter house, in September. Reports on Convention were given by Mrs. Lucien M. Strawn, Delegate, and Mrs. Ward D. Stone, club president. The twenty new pledges of West Virginia A were entertained at a dinner, in October.

The Settlement School sale, which was held at the chapter house, in November, was very successful, with sales totaling $450. Mrs. Lucien M. Strawn was chairman of the sale, assisted by Mr. R. W. Hancock, Jr.

Mrs. John L. Wildman, Program Chairman, and her committee planned the interesting programs for the year. They included a review of the book "Grace Coolidge and Her Era," and a speaker from West Virginia University, who talked on, "The Place of the Greek Letter Organization on the Campus Today." Our history program was made up of talks by our own members, who had in earlier years visited with Pi Beta Phi Founders and who had attended the ceremony at the White House, when Mrs. Coolidge's picture was presented.

The mothers' club entertained the alumnae club in January, at which time a white elephant sale was held. The Clarksburg and Morgantown Alumnae Clubs joined with the West Virginia A Active Chapter for a Founders' Day luncheon, at the chapter house. The Settlement School slides were the highlight of the program, which was planned by Mrs. Bond Davis, of the Clarksburg Alumnae Club. The luncheon arrangements were in charge of Mrs. Charles W. Shelter, of our Morgantown Club.

May is always a delightful month, with our breakfast for the seniors and the garden party given annually by Mrs. P. I. Reed for all Pi Beta Phis and members of the mothers' club.

RICHMOND (MAY L. KELLER)

The May L. Keller Alumnae Club began its 1962-1963 season among the hostess clubs at the June Convention in Washington, D.C. The "Golden Arrow Luncheon" climaxed a year of planning and preparation. The theme, "Hearts and Arrows," was carried out in the program cover designed by Richmond artist, Jeanne Campbell, and in heart shaped pin cushions designed by a club member. Virginia F entertained the honored guests with singing. The club was grateful for the opportunity to assist in making the 1962 Convention a huge success.

In October, a dessert meeting was held at the home of president, Martha Caldwell. Five new members were welcomed and a convention report was given by delegate Pauline Turnbull.

During a dinner meeting, at the home of Ruth Williams Hansen, in November, members began work on Pi Beta Phi elves, dressed in traditional wine and blue, to be used as rush favors at Virginia F. The program included Arrowcraft sales and a "Sing Along With Pi Beta Phi."

The annual Christmas party was held at the State Farm for Women. Dinner was served by the Farm inmates in the staff dining room, after which, Elizabeth Kates, director of the Farm opened her home for the party. Highlights of the evening were a collection of Christmas gifts for babies of prisoners and a white elephant exchange among the club members.

Dallas-Page West was hostess at a dinner meeting in February. Two Richmond girls, Carol Cecile Greider and Catherine Quirk, were pledged to Pi Beta Phi at the College of William and Mary.

Mrs. J. T. Francis*, President of the Richmond Panhellenic Association, was guest speaker on "Communism," at the March meeting.

The year closed with the traditional May meeting in connection with the club's local philanthropy, "The Elizabeth Kates Foundation."

ROANOKE

The Roanoke Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club began the 1962-1963 year under the capable leadership of Margaret Stearnes Senter. An executive board meeting was held in September and plans for the year were made.

In October a luncheon meeting was held. Highlight of the luncheon was a glowing account of the 43rd Biennial Convention in Washington, D.C., given by the president and delegate to Convention, Mrs. Senter.

Another luncheon meeting was held at a downtown club in February. The club was delighted to welcome two new alumnae in this area, Janice Jarrett Orr and Beverly Heard Venning, both from Florida B. A history of Settlement School was given and several members gave interesting commentaries on recent visits to Gatlinburg. Plans were made at this meeting for assisting a local day nursery by donation of food, clothing and toys.

Spring found us honoring our Founders in April with our annual potluck supper and husbands joining us.

Our Pi Beta Phi Miss America, Miss Jacquelyn Mayer, is scheduled for an appearance in Roanoke in late spring. The club hopes to complete arrangements to have her as our honored guest at a luncheon or dinner.

The year will end in June with a luncheon with active members from our area as guests.

WASHINGTON, D.C.

The Washington D.C. Alumnae Club, guided by Avis Matchett, embarked upon a new schedule of activities, buoyed by the keen enthusiasm generated from hosting the 43rd Biennial Convention, held here in June, Maurine Garwood, club delegate, interestingly reported on Convention, at the October dinner meeting; followed by the delightfully revealed, personal happenings of several chairmen, who related experiences in their pursuit of duties for this memorable event.

D.C. A and Maryland B chapters were special focal points of concern, in planning the club's service projects. In November, Peggy Pledger gave a benefit dinner; the proceeds helped defray the cost of decorating the chapter rooms of D.C. A. Besides the good food, members present enjoyed Convention songs, rendered by D.C. A. All were further pleased to greet Dorothy Stuck, ARROW Editor.

A film, "The History of Settlement School," and the singing of Pi Beta Phi songs, by actives from Maryland B, entertained members of both alumnae clubs of the area, husbands and guests, at the January, Loyalty Day meeting.

Margaret Anders, hostess, and Helen Fisher, artist, warmed the February chill for those who braved the snow, to be awed by Helen's sketches and narrative of her recent European tour.

March marked two important events: election of officers and presentation of plans for aiding Maryland B, highlighted the regular meeting. Second, a bridge and tea, chaired by Marjory Pickard, culminated the club's efforts to increase sales of Settlement School textiles and crafts, at the D.A.R. Chapter House, March 30.

Spring was never more welcomed than in April, when the Maryland Suburban Club sponsored the Founders' Day Luncheon, for all area Pi Beta Phi, at the International Inn, Washington. The year's program closed with the installation of officers, at the annual May Supper, held in the home of Helen Herzog.

WILMINGTON

A pot luck supper, followed by the report of the 43rd Biennial Convention delegate, brought together the members of the Wilmington Alumnae Club for the first fall meeting of the year.

The busy season continued with the Settlement School tea, which showed a profit of $139.00, and a guest night for husbands and friends, including a program on furniture refinishing.

The Pi Beta Phi's were in charge of this year's Wilmington City Panhellenic luncheon and fashion show. Beautiful fashions, delicious food and an exciting array of door prizes, enjoyed by all members, made the afternoon very successful.

The Christmas dinner and carol sing for members and their husbands or guests was followed, in January, by a bridge party. The profit from this meeting was sent to the nearest active chapter, Dickinson, Pennsylvania I.

The Wilmington Alumnae Chapter of Kappa Delta, our guests at an exchange meeting, heard a thumbnail sketch of Pi Beta Phi history and enjoyed with us a program on simple flower arranging. The beautiful final products were presented by the florist to members of the groups.

The traditional Founders' Day dinner was held for the April Meeting. The annual white elephant sale closed the 1962-63 season, with a large measure of fun and friendship.

DETROIT DEARBORN

Detroit Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club, under the fine leadership of Lucille Wright, got off to a flying start with a "Fall Get Together" in Dearborn in October. Edith Doerr helped make this a very special event with her interesting report on the Pi Beta Phi Convention, held in Washington, D.C., last summer. Jean Auchterlonie, of the Bloomfield Hills Alumnae Club, added to the meeting with her pictures taken at Convention. Helen Lewis told of her interesting and amusing experiences "behind the scenes," as Convention Guide.

We were all busy in October with our annual Arrowcraft tea and sale. Sall Erjick graciously opened her home for this event, which was co-chaired by Lois Robinson and Naomi Harris.

In January, cookies were sent to University of Michigan to be used at rushing parties and boxes of snacks were sent to Hillsdale, Albion and Michigan State. Gift checks were also sent to each active chapter.

We were greatly honored this year to have one of our members, Lee Rogula of Dearborn, serve as President of the Detroit Panhellenic Association.

During the year, a cooky-shine, pot luck supper, Christmas party, pictures of Settlement School and travel pictures of England and Switzerland comprised highlights of our area meetings.

Our year was not only successful socially; but also financially, with various money making projects, such as: calendar sales, a bridge tournament, Christmas fruit cake sale and a hat sale.

Founders' Day was celebrated with a state wide luncheon meeting for all Michigan actives and alumnae, at the Dearborn Inn. We were all thrilled to meet our Grand Vice President, Helen Boucher Dix, who was guest speaker. At this luncheon, Amy B. Onken and Helen Lewis Awards were presented, as well as yearly awards from each active chapter. Special recognition was given to our two new Golden Arrow members, Doris Hicks and Beatrice Clark.

Our activities for the year came to an end with our new officers for next year being installed at our bi-annual luncheon, held on June 8, a grand close to a pleasant and successful year!

GRAND RAPIDS

The Grand Rapids Alumnae Club began its activities for the year 1962-63 with twenty-six active members, under the leadership of Lola Whitmore Karcher.

At the September meeting, our Convention Delegate, Lola Karcher gave a most interesting report. Plans were made for a Settlement School sale in the fall of 1963. Our chief money raising project for the year was a card party held in October at the Michigan Consolidated Gas Company Auditorium. We not only played cards, but were also entertained by the demonstration of many tasty and tempting recipes.

An interior decorator from one of our local furniture establishments provided the entertainment for our November meeting. The December meeting was highlighted by a gift exchange, which has become a tradition with our group.

In January, we held our pot luck dinner and bridge meeting and February was our social month. Many of our members and their husbands attended the annual Panhellenic Dance and our luncheon was also held this month. A representative from one of our local banks gave a presentation, which proved both interesting and informative.

In March, we celebrated Founders' Day with a Cooky-shine, which is a wonderful experience for old and new members alike.

Our spring banquet was held in April this year and the program was presented by Dorothy Tuttle Hagerman. In May we held our installation of new officers.

This has been a most enjoyable year and we know there are many more in store for our club.

GROSSE POINTE

The Grosse Pointe Alumnae Club has had a busy winter season. Our Settlement School sale, which was held in our Grosse Pointe shopping center, was a great success.

At Christmas time, the gifts we usually exchange, at our cooky-shine, were donated to the Pontiac State Hospital.

In February, we held a joint meeting with Alpha Phi Alumnae, at which time we cut out, drew and colored teaching aids for the Foundation for Exceptional Children, a school for handicapped children of our area.

State Founders' Day was held at the Dearborn Inn, on April 20, with Helen Boucher Dix, Grand Vice President, as guest speaker.

LANSING-EAST LANSING

The Lansing East Lansing Alumnae Club began its year's activities in October, with a dinner at the home of President Sue Coleman Johnson. Plans for the coming year were announced and a Convention report given by the president. In November, the club joined with the Kappa Alpha Thetas in attending an interesting program given by the Consumers Power Company at which the latest things in kitchens and a cooking demonstration on holiday ideas were presented.

The annual Christmas party with the actives was held at the chapter house with alumnae and actives donating mittens, which were filled with candy and given to the Salvation Army for needy children. Twenty Michigan pledges were honored at the February meeting, at the home of Martha Fleming Banta, which featured a Settlement School talk and display of articles from the School. In March, the members and their husbands were entertained by William Stapleton, who spoke to us on Legal Aid. Judy Patterson Loughrin was our hostess for the evening. Installation of our new officers was held, following the business meeting, in April, held at the home of Ruth Ann Jernigan Runquist.

The year's activities were drawn to a close by a May brunch, honoring Michigan I seniors, at the home of Sally Strauss Nolen.

MARGIE MOONE LOTT

LONDON ONTARIO

The year's activities for the London Alumnae Club began with the traditional get together, with members of the active chapter, which this year took the form of a dessert and coffee party. The new group of pledges was present at this meeting, for which we had a fine turnout, auguring well for the new year.

At our November meeting, an extremely interesting report on Convention was given to club members by our delegate, Jane Armstrong. In addition to her report on the workshops which she attended, Jane brought some of the beautiful handicrafts from Arrowcraft, which were admired by all. It was most interesting to listen to the tape recording relating the presentation of Mrs. Coolidge's portrait to the White House. Our hostess for this meeting was Sally Palmer.

Our annual "pot luck" supper was again most successful, this year being held at the chapter house, in January. The House Corporation meeting was held during the evening and we heard reports from the corporation officers.

The club president, Shirley Coleman, was hostess for our final meeting in March. Our speaker was Prof. R. S. MacKay, of the Faculty of Law at the University of Western Ontario, who told us "What Every Woman Should Know About Law." This was a most informative and stimulating talk.

In order to raise money for various Pi Beta Phi funds, the club this year undertook two projects. At Christmas, we participated in a plan at a local store, from which we received a percentage of all merchandise purchased there. Our principal project, which was again a success, was the sale of tickets for the performances of the National Ballet of Canada.

SOUTHWESTERN MICHIGAN

In September, the Southwestern Michigan Club met at the home of Elaine Traut Melancton for dessert and a business meeting. Julie Lowe Knode, incoming president, outlined the year's activities, which proved to be varied and entertaining.

In October, a tour of an interior decorator's studio and a discussion of interior design, were followed by dessert, at the home of Marjorie Hubbs Krebs. Geta Becker Bowers entertained twenty alumnae in November, when the Battle Creek Community Librarian reviewed new books of interest. A drawing was held to determine the winners of two dolls, which had been completely outfitted by the club. Not only was the doll project a financial success, but it was quite heartwarming when one doll was won by a day nursery, making many little girls ecstatically happy. A tea, at the home of Noreen Cherry Keaton, celebrated the Christmas season, on December 18. Alumnae shared a festive afternoon of pleasant conversation and dainty delicacies.

A dinner party, honoring Pi Beta Phi husbands, was held in January, at the home of Elaine Melancton. The Italian menu; lasagna, antipasto, salad, red wine and pastries, was complimented and enhanced by the red checkered tablecloths and candlelit decor. Twelve couples chatted, feasted and matched wits in new games until the wee hours. In February, the Delta Gamma Alumnae Club of Battle Creek was our guest at an exchange bridge, held at the home of Mary Creer Shaver.

On March 26, the Pi Beta Phi Alumnae and their guests attended a Settlement School program, at the home of Martha Redner Rader. Geta Bowers, Settlement School Chairman, showed pictures of Gatlinburg and the school to illustrate her talk on the philanthropic project. Following the program, many Arrowcraft items were displayed and sold.

In May, Ann Schroeder Higgins, our own past president, and a member of the Battle Creek Art Center, conducted the club through the art center and led a discussion on art. The alumnae were proud to note several of Ann's very fine paintings on exhibition.

Joan Melges Pregenzer invited the club to have their June meeting at her Gull Lake home. Sunning on the dock, swimming and splashing, were followed by a picnic luncheon. Late in the afternoon, after a relaxing day outdoors, alumnae gathered in the house for a very lovely installation of new officers.

ANDERSON

The Anderson Alumnae Club began the year's activities with a rush meeting, in June. At this meeting, it was decided to have a money making project, so a rummage sale was staged in September, which was a huge success. This got the club off to a good start financially.

October saw us assembled once again for reports from our Convention delegate and a "round the world" tour, in slides, by Marian Vanarsdall. In November, we played host to our Alumnae Province President, Patricia Lackey. The evening started with the officers taking Mrs. Lackey to dinner, then to Marilyn Wulf's home for a business meeting and bridge.

In December, we held our annual Christmas coffee, at which we honor the active Pi Beta Phi, from Anderson and surrounding communities, and their mothers.

In March, we met at the home of our president, Barbara Collier, for a very interesting program on the history and constitution of Pi Beta Phi. We also discussed plans for a Settlement School tea and a joint meeting with the Kokomo Alumnae Club.

Though our calendar of events is fast drawing to a close for this year, we still have some exciting things ahead and many good memories of this year's work and pleasure together.

PATRICIA ANN CROOK

COLUMBUS

The Columbus Alumnae Club began its 1962-63 year with our annual "Pitch In" dinner, in September. We were very pleased to see seven new members had joined us. An informal summer meeting, strictly for the purpose of discussing graduating seniors, has been a help throughout the year, as active chapters have requested information on prospective rushers.

At our November meeting, an excellent Settlement School report, by Mrs. Robert Garton, was further enhanced by pictures and comments from members who had recently vacationed at Gatlinburg.

Mrs. Joe Emerson's fraternity study meeting gave the group an excellent picture of Pi Beta Phi growth, as she had placed, on a large map, a flag for each active chapter throughout the nation. It was interesting to see the concentration of chapters in the midwest and east, and fun to find each girl's particular flag.

A flood postponed our regular nightly meeting in March and resulted in a pleasant luncheon meeting at a local restaurant, where officers were elected for the following year.

FRANKLIN

The Franklin Alumnae Club began its year, in August, with an organization meeting, at the home of Kay Huffman Ditmars. Plans for the coming year were announced by officers and chairmen of various committees. Programs for the year 1962-63 were distributed by the program chairman, Ruth Edmondson.

Martha Drybread Deppe, president of the alumnae club, and official representative at the National Convention of the fraternity in Washington, D.C., gave an interesting review of Convention.

A list of new students attending Franklin College was read and fall rush activities discussed by a committee from the active chapter.

The scholarship committee reported that Indiana A was first scholastically on the campus for the sixth consecutive time.

On September 15, new pledges were entertained with a luncheon, at the home of Margaret Lanam Yount. That evening the alumnae, the active chapter, the patronesses and the mother's club joined to entertain the new pledges and their mothers, at the annual Cooky-shine, which was held in Clive Hall.

Pearl Walters was hostess for the November meeting. Settlement School articles were presented and sold.

The advisory board announced that Alice Gill, president of the active chapter, had been elected by the faculty of Franklin College as outstanding woman on the campus.

On January 7 Indiana A celebrated its 75th anniversary, with a dinner in Cline Hall. The group was entertained by Mrs. Oliver B. Simmons, Pi Beta Phi National Historian, who gave tribute to the fourteen founders of the fraternity, whose ideal was "to find joy in work well done." Helen Forsythe Raup, Province President, was a guest, also Mrs. Harold Richardson, wife of the president of Franklin College.

The March meeting was held at the home of Joan Chappell. Officers for the coming year were installed, at the home of Jo Lybrook, secretary of the club, May 14.

Fifty year Pi Beta Phis and the graduating seniors will be honored at the annual commencement dinner in June, which is the final meeting of the year.

GARY

An inspiring account of the Pi Beta Phi National Convention in Washington, given by Joan Pruitt Rearick, caused the September meeting of the Gary Alumnae Club to be particularly sparked with enthusiasm for the year ahead. Gigi Davis Mohr, our Settlement School Chairman, encouraged everyone to take part in a sale of Arrowcraft handwork to be held in November.

Mrs. Lakey, our Alumnae Province President, came to Gary for the October meeting and discussed the theme of Convention, "Vertical Development—Down To The Roots and Up To The Stars." With her visit, we again felt especially fortunate to be Pi Beta Phi.

In November, Christmas gifts were sent to Gatlinburg and our Treasurer, Jo Bretz Piskoty, reported on our very successful Arrowcraft sale.

"Come as You Were" was the theme of the January meeting and members dressed as they had when at college, which caused a great deal of merriment. A short history of the Cooky-Shine tradition was read, then alumnae gathered round to sing Pi Beta Phi songs and enjoy arrow cookies with hot chocolate.

Members of the Hammond Alumnae Club were our guests in April when we celebrated Founders' Day, at the home of Shirley Foster Schleicher, and plans were concluded for delegates' attendance at State Day.

After the installation of new officers in May, during the month of June, Pi Beta Phis and their husbands enjoyed a splash party and barbeque at the lovely country home of Nancy Finch Briggs.

GREENCASTLE

The Greencastle Pi Beta Alumnae Club is proud to announce the initiation of four new alumnae members into Pi Beta Phi: Elizabeth Boyd Graffis, Jean Ruth Holley, Betty Jane Stages and Frances Snodgrass Whitaker were initiated by Indiana E, October 28, 1962. The alumnae club and active chapter honored these women, after their pledging October 17, at a tea held at the chapter house.

Members of AAC and other Greencastle Alumnae met with Helen Forsyth Raup, Zeta Province President, for a luncheon in the De-Pauw Memorial Student Union, October 15.

Our first regular meeting of the year was held November 27 in the home of our President, Madelyn Wyer Killinger. Nancy Cox Fontaine, the club's Convention delegate, reported on the Washington, D.C. Convention. Plans were made to entertain the Indiana E pledges at a breakfast December 8. Eighteen girls attended the breakfast, held in the home of Nancy Fontaine.

Elaine Sautter Shedd gave an interesting program for our history meeting, January 15, in Gladys Logue Wood's home.

Hazel Schults Winsey opened her home for the March 20 meeting. Elections followed a lovely luncheon, served by the hostess and the new alumnae initiates.

As the Indiana snows thawed, our tempo of activities increased. A number of the alumnae accompanied the active chapter to Indianapolis for State Day, April 27. Following our annual custom, we entertained the nineteen graduating seniors of Indiana E, at the Tri Kappa Smorgasbord on April 28. After dinner, we held our meeting in the apartment of Jeanette Forrest Dietz, Indiana E House-mother.

Arrowcraft articles were displayed and sold, at the active chapter house, during Mothers' Day weekend, May 4.

It was with much regret that we learned that our Secretary, Marian Bixler Cassidy, was moving to Pompano Beach, Florida. She has been a faithful member and we have cherished her friendship.

Our hearts were saddened by the December death of Barbara Douglas McQuiston, past Zeta Province Vice President. She truly was the organizer of our club, with her support, encouragement and cheerful disposition. We shall miss her.

HAMMOND

The Hammond Alumnae Club began their club year in October, with a buffet supper at the home of Frances Lorentzen. The "Kick Off" theme was carried out in the decorations by the cochairmen, Shirley Beckwith and Pat Takacs. Newly elected Zeta Alumnae Province President, Pat Meloy Leakey, was the guest of honor. She gave a most interesting report of her Convention experiences.

In December, we held our annual holiday party for area actives and their mothers, at the home of Mary Ellen Easterday. This year we had an informal coffee hour, from 10-12, and spent a nice morning getting acquainted with the girls. Miniature Christmas trees made of gaily decorated pine cones were given as favors.

At our March meeting, we held a white elephant sale to raise money for the Centennial Fund.

Our April meeting was particularly enjoyable, as we were the guests of the Gary Alumnae Club. We always look forward to our annual get together with them. Founders' Day was observed by a group from our club, who attended State Day at Ball State Teachers College, April 27.

We plan to end the year with a "Men's Night" pot luck supper to be held at Dorothy Brannen's home.

INDIANAPOLIS

In keeping with our tradition, the Indianapolis Alumnae Club began the year with a cooky-shine at the Indiana T Chapter House at Butler University.

Last fall, four Settlement School coffees were held at the homes of members to promote the sale of Arrowcraft products. Sales reached over $1600 during the past year.

During the Christmas holidays, Indianapolis collegiates and their Pi Beta Phi mothers were guests at a coffee in the lovely home of Alice Baker Kemper. This provided a fine opportunity for girls from the various chapters to meet.

February was an outstanding month for Indianapolis Pi Beta Phi. First, we enjoyed attending the "Mardi Gras Ball," a combined effort of the Junior Auxiliary and senior alumnae clubs. Then a most exciting event was celebrated in fine Pi Beta Phi fashion.

This was the visit of Miss America, a Pi Beta Phi sister, to Indianapolis to present a style show at one of our department stores. Through the efforts of one of our members, Margaret Schoener Hiser, the Indianapolis Alumnae Club was given the honor of meeting and entertaining Miss Mayer. Collegiate members from Butler University met her plane and presented her with wine carnations. After the style show, in which two of our junior club members participated as models, the Indianapolis Alumnae Club gave a tea for Miss America. Pi Beta Phis turned out in large numbers, each feeling a sense of pride in the charming and talented Miss America.

Our major money-making project was lots of fun and very little work, except for the ways and means chairman, Cleo Millikan Hall, who did a magnificent job getting our "Bridgerama" into operation. A tidy sum of money, to be used for our several philanthropies, was made by playing bridge and meeting new friends. Many participated in this and it promises to be an even greater success next year.

Our Program Chairman, Mary Alice Purves Steinhour, did an outstanding job in securing most interesting and enlightening speakers for our meetings. A "Melody Monologue" was the program for our November meeting, and in January we enjoyed a glorious picture trip through the Swiss Alps, visiting ancient chalets, and thrilling to the breath-taking scenery. The subject of our February meeting was "Women in A Changing World." In March a large group was present for the pitch-in-dinner at the Indiana T Chapter House. "Poetry As You Like It" was presented by an Indianapolis dentist, whose hobby is writing poetry. April was a busy month with two luncheons. One was our alumnae club luncheon at Meridian Hills Country Club and the other was Founders' Day luncheon held on the campus of Ball State Teachers College in Muncie, Indiana. The Holcomb Garden House was the scene for a lovely tea in May. The speaker was the wife of a missionary in the Philippines, who told of her experiences as an internee at Baguio. The final meeting of the year was a picnic at which high school daughters and new members from the Junior Auxiliary were guests.

Our president, Lucy Beasley Edwards, did much to make this a most successful and pleasant year.

LAFAYETTE

The second annual "Beaux and Arrow" picnic, held at Louise Grier's home, was the beginning of a busy and successful year for the Lafayette Alumnae Club. As the name suggests, our husbands were our guests. The delicious pot luck supper was combined with much talk and renewing of friendships.

In October, Avis Anderson, our club president and Delegate to the National Convention, talked about her varied Convention experiences, at the home of Catherine Hadley. Mrs. Bruce Leakey, our Alumnae Province President, was our guest for the November meeting. After her talk, Georgia Rinker, our hostess, and her committee served refreshments. It was at this meeting that we made final arrangements for our annual Settlement School Sale, which was held at the Purdue Chapter House on November 13.

The "surprise" program for our December meeting was four talented members of our alumnae club, plus the husband of one of our members, presenting a delightful musical, at Marilyn Hepworth's home. A red and white Christmas dessert was served. In January, Ted Reser, an authority on Indiana history, was our speaker. French hot chocolate tasted especially good to the group, meeting at Alice Cordell's home, on this cold evening.

"Look Who We Pledged" was our program for February. Jo Ann Bloodgood, Settlement School Sale Chairman, acquainted the twenty-eight girls recently pledged to the Purdue Chapter with the work of Settlement School. The new girls were introduced and joined us for talk, fun and games. Punch and cookies were served at Corine Mitchell's home.

The Mother's Club party was held in March at the Pi Beta Phi Chapter House. The program consisted of an interesting style show, plus games. In April, at Catherine Bower's home, we had a business meeting and election of officers. To end this year of activities, we invited the graduating seniors from the Purdue Chapter to join us for dinner at the Vinton Woods Club, in May. "Wedding Styles of the Past" was the entertainment.

The alumnae were happy to help the active chapter during the year by providing cookies and giving their time for kitchen help during informal and formal rush.

MUNCIE

The Muncie Alumnae Club has had a busy and rewarding year. We are fortunate in having an active chapter, Indiana Z, of Ball State, in our city. Of course, their enthusiasm for Pi Beta Phi is contagious and, we hope, keeps us on our toes. This year the executive board, with the help of our new Alumnae Province President, Pat Leakey, worked out a plan to give us a closer contact with the active chapter. Each of the new pledges has a "Godmother" from our alumnae club, as well as their "Mother" in the active chapter. The "Godmother" does special things to make her "Godchild" feel welcome in Pi Beta Phi. The pledges were so thrilled with the idea that they invited their "Godmothers" to the Cooky-shine they had planned for their "Mothers," in March. We feel the idea is really working and hope it will make the girls feel welcome in alumnae clubs after graduation.

Besides this new idea, we help the girls with K.P. duties at rush parties and take cookies to the suite at exam time and cut sessions. We always give a gift to the House Corporation, which is composed of Indiana Z alumnae and Muncie Alumnae Club members, for their anniversary. This year we gave Ball State's Homecoming Queen, our own Charlotte Beech, a little gift. We were very proud of our girls in the homecoming parade.

We entertained Pi Beta Phis from all over the state for our State Day, April 27. We loved seeing old friends and making new Pi Beta Phi acquaintances at this annual affair. Last year a new tradition began, the Indianapolis Club entertained us at Butler University. This year, Ball State was hostess. We were happy to show off the Cardinal Room and Terrace Lounge in the new L. A. Pittenger Student Center.

We are extremely proud of Sally Bronson Schneider, who was appointed Treasurer of Settlement School at Convention last summer. Sally has been a loyal and active member in the Muncie Alumnae Club since its beginning. She was one of the instigators in making Indiana Z a reality and has served on its advisory board since their installation in 1952.

We are looking forward to a big and better year next year. This year we were ably guided by Emily Walter Wallace, president; Sally Dimmers Fellon, vice president; Phyllis Canright Keller, corresponding secretary; Joan Huber McKee, recording secretary; and Kate Hartman Pingry, treasurer.

SOUTH BEND-MISHAWAKA

President Sylvia Diehl Whitmer initiated a new plan at our first meeting in September, with the raffling of a "President's Package." The girl who won the package the first night provided a package to be raffled at the next meeting and this continued throughout the year. This plan worked out very well as a money making project for our club and the winners all enjoyed their raffle surprises, including such items as a beautiful hand feathered pheasant hat, a Settlement School apron and pot holders, a pretty Christmas candle, when our program was candlemaking, and a lovely appliqued Christmas tablecloth at our December bridge party.

Our Settlement School sale was a big success and, again this year, we supplemented our sales with a homemade bread booth, which netted an additional profit of $80.

Pat Meloy Leakey, our club president last year, made news this year by becoming the new Z Alumnae Province President. We are all very proud of the work Pat is doing for Pi Beta Phi. We enjoyed her report and taking one of our own members out to dinner, honoring her as our province president.

We have had a varied and interesting schedule of programs during the past year, ranging from a demonstration on hair styling and make-up to a talk on investments.

A skit entitled, "That Wonderful Year," at last year's Founders' Day dinner was so well received that we decided to present another skit this year. Everyone anxiously awaited this presentation, for the committee did a good job of keeping the theme of the skit a complete secret until time for the show.

We are all looking forward to another steak cook-out with our husbands this summer. With this event, we end our program of another wonderful, happy year of Pi Beta Phi activities.

ROSALYN JOHNSON WALTERS

SOUTHEASTERN INDIANA

Members of the Southeastern Indiana Alumnae Club usually schedule four meetings a year, since our membership is scattered and we try to arrange our meetings to avoid too much winter driving.

We opened our year by gathering at Katherine Crenshaw's home in St. Paul, on September 22, for a noon "cookout." Our President, Margaret Shazer, gave the program, with an interesting account of her trip to Convention last summer. She brought snapshots, various favors and decorations from the meetings and dinners to show us. We truly enjoyed her first hand account of a delegate's participation and enjoyment of a National Convention. It was a pleasure to welcome back Mary Dickson to our group.

Rushville Alumnae entertained our group on December 2 with a dessert bridge at the home of Katherine Compton. A short business meeting was held, followed by a social afternoon of bridge. All members brought attractively wrapped Christmas gifts to be boxed and mailed to the Settlement School.

March 23 found us at Greensburg for a luncheon and business meeting. Dorothy Townsend and Elsie Moeller gave us an excellent program on the history of Pi Beta Phi and a recognition service for Founders' Day.

Our last meeting will be scheduled for Rushville on June 1. Winona Emerson will give the program, a book review of "Grace Coolidge and Her Era."

CHATTANOOGA

The Chattanooga Alumnae Club, with Jody Johnson as president, started the year off with a general meeting on rushing. This year, we met as two local area groups, one on Signal Mountain, with Joan Hanks as chairman, and one on Lookout Mountain, with Nancy Caulkins as chairman. It is difficult for these girls to come downtown to meetings, so the local meetings have been well attended.

A luncheon, planned by Edna Bunn, was held at the chapter house on September 24. Plans were made for a caravan to Gatlinburg on October 8. Thirteen of us went on this trip. We toured Settlement School, had lunch with the Gatlinburg Alumnae Club, then picked out items to bring back with us for our Settlement School sale and tea.

It was wonderful to have over eighty Pi Beta Phi alumnae helping to make this sale and tea, which was held October 31, November 1 and 2, a huge success. On December 30, our annual open house, at the chapter house, was held for all Pi Beta Phi actives and alumnae living in the Chattanooga area.

At the "Initiation Banquet," held at the Read House on February 16, twenty-one pledges were initiated. The Panhellenic luncheon and style show was held March 22 to raise funds for a scholarship to be given to a worthy girl at the University of Chattanooga.

On April 27, our Founders' Day luncheon was well attended. In addition to these activities, there were several night meetings and various neighborhood coffees. We instituted a "Big Sister Alumnae" and a "Little Sister Active" plan. Our final plans are for a summer picnic for all alumnae and their families.

LEXINGTON

Members of the Lexington Alumnae Club, under the leadership of Club President, Mary Mehlhope King, met in August, at the lovely air conditioned home of Lucille Caudill Little, to discuss plans for rushing and to hear an account of Convention.

Slides of Gatlinburg and the Settlement School were shown, at the October meeting with Phyllis Foster Parker as narrator. Tracing the fifty year history of the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School, from the one room school in 1912 to the modern day school, the joint meeting of the active chapter and alumnae, new pledges and mothers' club were truly inspired to put their best efforts into making a success of the Settlement School Sale, which took place at the Chapter house, on November 14. Many Lexingtonians, having visited the Pi Beta Phi Store, at not too distant Gatlinburg, helped to make the sale a success.

The January meeting was devoted to making plans for the remainder of the year, which included a benefit bridge in March.

Grand Treasurer Olivia Smith Moore honored Lexington with a visit, in March, and a pot luck luncheon was given, so that all alumnae could meet with Mrs. Moore.

A meeting for election of new officers was held in March, Founders' Day luncheon on April 20, and the installation of new officers in May completed our programs for the year.

LITTLE PIGEON

A Cooky-shine, for active members of Tennessee Γ, opened the year's activities, in September, for Little Pigeon Alumnae Club of Gatlinburg, Tennessee. The program featured our Convention Delegate, Mrs. Jack Henry. Four per cent of our members were in Washington for Convention.

This year our Christmas gift to the dormitory boys and girls at the Settlement School was a pair of woolen gloves for each, presented at their annual holiday party.

Our one fund raising project, the spring style show, was held at the Andy Huff House of Mountain View Hotel. Styles were shown from two prominent shops in Knoxville. Door prizes and refreshments added to the evening's entertainment.

Besides the four required meetings, one afternoon featured a book review, given by Mrs. Marjorie Chalmers, of "The Tall Woman," by Wilma Dykeman; another, a guest speaker, Miss Laura Thornborough; and the Founders' Day luncheon.

PAULINE W. HUFF

LOUISVILLE

House decorating for Kentucky A was the summer project of the Louisville Alumnae Club. When the girls asked for adult aid, the alumnae labored industriously with them to renovate their newly acquired home.

The meeting year began with an inspirational talk on Convention, by President Anne Shulhafer Vanderburgh. The chapter house was the scene of a October dessert bridge party, to introduce the new pledges to our members and to give all alumnae a chance to see the collegiates' redecorated home. Later, several alumnae volunteered to make chili and chaperon the slumber party that the actives requested, in order to spend a night at the house while working on homecoming decorations.

A very interesting bazaar was given in November, with the addition of homemade products and bargains from local firms, to the Settlement School items. Everyone felt this combination of materials made an extremely successful sale that may become a yearly activity for the Louisville Alumnae Club.

Even the members who have lived in our city all their lives felt the program on "Old Louisville" brought new, worthwhile information to light. Our speaker displayed photographs and explained the desire of leading businessmen to save some of the magnificent buildings constructed here around the turn of the century.

In April, we accompanied Kentucky A to Lexington to join Kentucky B and the Lexington Alumnae Club for Founders' Day. It was wonderful for many of us to visit the other Kentucky chapter for the first time.

The year will end with the annual "Farewell Ceremony" for the senior actives and the party given for the participants of the alumnae bridge tournament. Both activities complete a noteworthy year for the older and younger Pi Beta Phi.

NASHVILLE

On an October morning, thirty-five members gathered at the home of Roberta Dossett Lochte for the annual membership coffee. Hospitality and fun marked the beginning of a new year, under the presidency of Margaret Marshall Wood. Later in October, the officers and advisory council enjoyed meeting Mrs. Kent Morgan, National Panhellenic Council Delegate.

Excitement grew in November as time for the second Pi Beta Phi Christmas Village drew near. Barbara White Fridrich and Bernice Miller Denton had directed the project last year and made such a strong beginning that the project is to be an annual one. The November meeting, at the home of Lydia Daniels Wiesner, was devoted to reports and plans for this year's Christmas Village. Frances Ferris Garrison and Lucy Tritschler Sensing, the 1962 chairmen, worked to such good effect that an $800 addition to last year's profit was made. A coffee concession and coat checking also netted $55, given to the House Corporation for the chapter house now being built at Vanderbilt University.

The Christmas Village consists of a series of booths purchased by local merchants to display their wares for Christmas. Everything from baked goods and toys to antiques is shown in festive mood. Lunch and dinner can be bought, puppet shows, flower arranging, and Miss Eleanor of TV's Romper Room. Eleanor Lawson Rochelle of the Nashville Alumnae Club, all offer entertainment for those who attend. Of course, the Settlement School has a booth, where brisk business is done.

The Settlement School also had a display and sale at historic Belle Meade Mansion, when the Association for the Preservation of Tennessee Antiquities held its showing there in November. Members of the Nashville Alumnae Club helped Marion Mueller with the sale.

Mary Edith Gregory Huggins invited the club to her home for the January meeting. With great pleasure and pride, the alumnae presented the Christmas Village check for $1800 to Mr. Charles Ogles, Administrative Director of the Bill Wilkerson Hearing and Speech Center.

Spring brought meetings and parties. New officers were elected and a program was presented by the advisory council, at the March meeting. One party brought together pledges of Tennessee B, their big sisters, and their alumnae sponsors for fun, while getting acquainted. The Founders' Day Banquet was planned by Bettie Burns Davies. Everyone enjoyed the toasts by Ann Cawthon Lipscomb, the entertainment by the actives, and the presentation of the scholarship awards. Finally, May saw the installation of new officers. The Nashville Alumnae Club looks forward to another rewarding year under their direction.

THETA PROVINCE

ATLANTA

The Atlanta Alumnae Club, with Zoe Saunders James as president, opened its fall season with its annual dinner honoring Atlanta area actives, in the home of Penny Barnett. A large group enjoyed a delicious dinner served by the executive board and heard a clever Convention report in skit form.

In October, we met with Pat Ott and heard Mrs. Elizabeth Rue, former manager of the Arrowcraft Shop, tell us the background and sidelights in making Arrowcraft goods. We also held five successful coffees, in various sections of the Atlanta area, at which we displayed and sold Settlement School items. This project, with Bitsy Youngblood as chairman, combined our ways and means project with our Settlement School sales.

The annual "Mother-Daughter" coffee in December and Founders' Day in April gave us all a chance to know the actives better. This year the actives from Georgia A joined us in Atlanta for a Saturday luncheon, to celebrate Founders' Day.

In January, meeting with Bonnie Anderson, we heard the Dean of Men, Emory University, speak.

March brought election of officers, at the home of Ruth Arnold. Our year concluded in May, at a fun picnic, with Nancy Chilton as hostess.

Again this year, our four area groups have been active, helping us to know others in our area better. Each group worked on their own project, in addition to our one local project, monthly birthday parties at the Atlanta Childs Home.

We look back on a most interesting and successful year and forward to more wonderful associations in Pi Beta Phi.

SALLY WEBB KISH

CLEARWATER

Come for a Cooky-shine! The first Thursday morning of each month this invitation goes out to all members of the Clearwater Alumnae Club, to bring a sandwich and play some bridge. Many of the members have not lived in the area long and these extra meetings are helping them to get better acquainted. The bridge is serious, but the scores are not.

Kathryn Lage Wiley and Joan Lennox Monroe, the president and vice president for the club during this year, made a sparkling, energetic team. With enthusiasm, they tackled the annual fall benefit bridge, which again was held in the various homes of members. Table prizes were hot mats, selected from the Settlement School Workshop, and $150 was received. In November, the members who had baking specialties brought them to the meeting and each item was sold to the highest bidder.

Christmas time customarily means a tea honoring the actives and this year Nan Ivey Wilson entertained at her home. Many of the husbands were coaxed to the delightful dinner party, planned in their honor, during March, at the Jamaica Inn.

This chapter was fortunate to have Lucille Carson, former Grand Secretary, as speaker for our Founders' Day luncheon. Millicent Read Olmsted invited us to her home, and many of the members brought their favorite salad for a buffet that was really a salad spectacular!

ELIZABETH ADELL MCCORD

FORT LAUDERDALE

Time has come again to evaluate and enumerate the work of the Fort Lauderdale Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi. The feeling of satisfaction and enjoyment seems to be the general consensus of opinion among the members for a job well done.

The group has taken a place in community life in two projects this year; first, a display in the public library of the Settlement School of pictures showing crafts and activities; and secondly, in sharing time at the hospitality booth, set up by the city to assist vacationing college students.

Husbands were not neglected in the programs planned for the year. A cocktail party was given in the fall, and a formal night out together closed the year's activities.

The mothers of Pi Beta Phi members were fittingly honored at a Christmas coffee, beautifully served at the gracious river home of a chapter member. Attending were active Pi Beta Phi college girls, who added a special sparkle to the affair.

Much pleasure and satisfaction was experienced by everyone at the "Tasting Party." Each member was given a plate and spoon, and proceeded around a table on which were placed dishes of luscious, calorie filled recipes. At the end of the meeting, these prize cooking secrets were sold for a small price, the money being donated to the club.

In accordance with custom, Founders' Day was celebrated with the nearest alumnae club, the Hollywood Alumnae Club. The luncheon was held in one of the attractive dining rooms of the Yankee Clipper Hotel, whose name caused an amusing comment in Reader's Digest when the hotel was first opened.

The year could not be brought to a fitting close without an expression of appreciation to Bettie Schmidt Tonkin, the president, for her efforts during the year of 1962-1963.

HUNTSVILLE

The first organizational meeting of the Huntsville Alumnae Club was held in November. January brought the signing of the alumnae club charter and election of officers. Lois Butler Cross will serve as president, Ruth McNeice Cross as vice president, Jo Ann Cloud Nesmith as treasurer and Katharine Hardgrove Rollins as secretary.

The spring activities included a Cooky-shine and a bridge party.

The most elaborate event of the year was the Founders' Day dinner, held April 18, in the private dining room of a local restaurant.

LAKELAND

The Lakeland Alumnae Club has had another rewarding year, under the leadership of President Jane Herndon. Taking advantage of the fact that many of the members are from the surrounding area, the club went to Sebring for luncheon in October, with Lois Vassick acting as hostess. The December meeting, as customary, was a lovely Christmas tea honoring the Lakeland actives and their mothers, at the home of Bessie Kibler. The new active is Carol Austin, who is attending Florida State University.

Plans were completed in February for the Founders' Day covered dish dinner April 23. The group was requested to invite by letter all the many new members and urge them to attend. It was a special occasion, as the club honored three Golden Arrow members, with the presentation of the carnation guard pins.

ANN COLLINS

MONTGOMERY

The Anita Van de Voort Hudson Alumnae Club began the year's activities by sending Pat Shadoin Williamson, Rae Willie Hawthorne, Elizabeth Williams Copeland and Pat Van Scoy Beatty to help with rush at Alabama Gamma Chapter, Auburn University. In October, at a luncheon at the Montgomery Country Club, we had a most enthusiastic report from Convention by our Delegate, Pat Shadoin Williamson. Our President, Cecile Morgan Well, introduced three newcomers to our club for this year: Georgette Helms, Pan Van Scoy Beatty and Jinnie Jinnett McBride, who have already added a great deal to our group. Plans were formulated for the year's schedule at this time.

Jane Pearson Roark entertained the club at a delightful luncheon for our December meeting. Each member brought gifts of food or clothing for an elderly lady living alone, whom we "adopted" during the Christmas season. It was voted to give a wall clock to the Alabama Gamma Chapter to be placed in their newly redecorated chapter room.

At the February meeting, held in the lovely new home of Carole Brewbaker, Idelle Stith Brooks was appointed recommendations chairman for the coming season.

In March, Pi Beta Phi Alumnae joined with other fraternities at the annual Panhellenic Luncheon, where money is raised for a scholarship for a deserving high school senior.

After our most enjoyable and successful Founders' Day celebration of last year, when we began a new custom of meeting jointly with the Alabama Gamma Chapter and the Auburn-Opelika Alumnae Group, we are looking forward to an even better get together this year on the same basis.

Cecile Morgan Webb and Eleanor Bowen Ballard announced a very pleasant visit with Barbara Wallace, new president of Alabama Gamma, when they delivered the new clock for the chapter room.

Pi Beta Phi is again planning to assist Panhellenic in Montgomery with the tea that is given each spring for graduating seniors who plan to attend college and are interested in learning more about fraternities, rushing, etc.

ORLANDO-WINTER PARK

The Orlando-Winter Park Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi began its meetings in September, when an excellent Convention report was given by Jean Harmon. The October meeting was devoted to the Settlement School report and Arrowcraft display. Marjorie Orr, North Carolina B, Fashion Coordinator at Jordan-Marsh, gave a talk on fashions at the Christmas dinner, which was held at the Orlando Country Club. Each member brought two toys for charity. The members of the club were privileged to attend a preview of the "Waltz of the Toreadors," directed by a Pi Beta Phi, Lisa Hawley. A portion of the proceeds was contributed to Sunland Training Center. The Christmas coffee, for mothers and actives, was well attended. The meeting, at the chapter house at Rollins College, on January 14th, was a combination Loyalty Day observance and kitchen shower. A report on the changes made in the living room of the chapter house was given, and the alumnae quite approved of the "new look." Eighteen members of Pi Beta Phi attended the Panhellenic luncheon at the Rio Pinar Country Club. The guest speaker was Mrs. William Nash, Alpha Xi Delta, immediate past chairman of the National Panhellenic Conference. Elaine Daley, Pi Beta Phi, was chosen corresponding secretary. The February meeting was an innovation. Each alumna was asked to invite a member of another fraternity to attend a lecture at the Central Florida Museum and Planetarium, and it proved to be very interesting. A social hour was also enjoyed, provided by Marnita Carli. Additional meetings included election of officers and a ceramic demonstration. Founders' Day, which was celebrated in conjunction with the Rollins College Chapter, a white elephant sale, and installation of officers. The club has had a most interesting and successful year, under the direction of Jean Harmon.

SAVANNAH

The newly chartered Savannah Alumnae Club began its first full year of activities by having a Settlement School Tea in November. Christmas presents were bought by us and our guests.

During the Christmas holidays, the club had a morning coffee for the Savannah pledges from the University of Georgia. Each pledge was given a corsage of a large, silver blue carnation tied with a wine ribbon.

In April, the group met for dinner at a restaurant to celebrate Founders' Day, and each member read about one of the Founders.

The biggest event of the year was the summer fashion show and card party given in early May. A local dress shop provided attractive summer wear, and the delicious dessert was made by our Pi Beta Phi members. There were door prizes, too. With the proceeds from this, a scholarship was given to Armstrong College in Savannah. All of this made our party and our year very successful.

TAMPA

Under the capable leadership of our President, Joanne Moore Baldy, the Tampa Alumnae Club started their successful and busy year at the home of Mary Jane Stein Derringer. The highlight of our September program was the interesting and informative Convention report by Nancy Sossamon Buck.

Our first project of the year was a benefit dessert bridge, which was held at the MacDill Officer's Club, in October. Barbara Reitsch Richardson was the chairman of this successful event.

The major project for the year was the Settlement School Tea. Under the capable chairmanship of Mary Jane Derringer, Carolyn Chambers Jones and Susan Sossamon Twomey, our sale was well attended. The lovely home and patio pool area of Mrs. Anna Sands Vass provided an attractive background for our Arrowcraft display.

Two of our most notable social events occurred in December. The first was a Christmas tea honoring the new pledges, the actives and their mothers. This party was one of the highlights of the year and will become an annual event. On December 28, we again joined with the Alpha Delta Psi, Chi Omegas, Delta Delta Deltas and Kappa Deltas for a Christmas dance honoring our new pledges and actives.

In January, it was our club's privilege to present a carnation guard to our fifty-year member, Mrs. Gladys Sidway Curtis. This lovely ceremony was a memorable one to all those present.

In observance of Founders' Day, the alumnae met for an April dinner meeting. Installation of officers concluded the evening's program. Our annual couples party was held in May. The program of dinner and dancing drew to a close a very enjoyable year.

The club is very proud that Mary Jane Stein Derringer, one of our local alumnae, is now the Province President of Theta Province. We feel quite fortunate to have her with us.

The Tampa Alumnae feel that we have had a good and active year. Our members are most cooperative and are continually striving to give greater service to Pi Beta Phi. We are looking forward to working together again next year, experiencing the gratitude and fulfillment which have become ours as members of Pi Beta Phi.

Corresponding Secretary

WEST PALM BEACH

This year the West Palm Beach Alumnae Club has been under the able leadership of Mrs. Greta Lewis. We have also been fortunate to have Mrs. G. C. Tanton, Alumnae Province President, work closely with our club.

In September, several of our alumnae attended the city wide Panhellenic tea. Two of our members have served as officers in the Panhellenic organization this past year. Mrs. Barbara Porcher has been the president of Panhellenic and Mrs. Jane Smith has been scholarship chairman.

During the coming year, we plan to have daytime meetings, as well as evening meetings, so that a greater number of our members will be able to attend. Plans are being made for the club to sponsor a Settlement School sale, in the near future.

Corresponding Secretary

IOTA PROVINCE

ALTON-EDWARDSVILLE

The Greater Alton Area Alumnae Club began its year in October, at a meeting devoted to reports from Convention. We welcomed one new member to our rather small, but very enthusiastic, group.

We have been very pleased this year to have many of our area girls become Pi Beta Phi pledges at colleges throughout the country. We voted to present recognition pins to all area pledges, upon their initiation.

In April, we celebrated Founders' Day with a pot luck luncheon. Senior girls graduating from all local high schools this year were honored with a tea, in May.

Corresponding Secretary

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

The Arlington Heights Alumnae Club began this year busily planning our yearly Settlement School teas, held in late September in two country clubs in this area. Judy Holmes Cowan and her committee did a tremendous job and both events were a big success.

In October, we were greatly inspired by the Convention report, given by our President, Ann Cox Otzen. The Washington, D.C. area clubs and the fraternity convention people are to be congratulated for a magnificent job. We, from Arlington Heights, were all ready to go to Convention, if only we were not too late.

At subsequent meetings, we were treated to a book review, a Christmas party, an excellent illustrated tour of India and a bridge party.

In February, we took our men along for dinner and an evening at Old Orchard Country Club. This is the second time we have included husbands and it was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed by both sexes.

We again raffled off an "original" spring bonnet, made by Maxine Morrison Horwath; the money to go to our Centennial Fund.

Other activities included taking part in the local area Panhellenic information tea, election of officers and awarding a bracelet to the outstanding Iota Province sophomore. Recognition arrows were sent to all newly initiated Pi Beta Phi members from this area.

Founders' Day was celebrated by a dinner at Old Orchard Country Club. Our guest, Dorothy Coleman Thorman, Iota Province President, and new slides on Settlement School and Arrowcraft Shop made the evening a memorable one. Many of the group have never been to Gatlinburg, but have spent much time and energy on the school projects. This film gave us an even stronger desire to work for its continued success.

The year closed in May, with the installation of new officers and a sincere thanks to Ann Cox Otzen for two years of interesting and capable leadership.

We will be back again in September, ready to welcome any newcomers to this ever growing area of Northwest Suburban Chicago.

AVON (LIBBY BROOK GADDIS)

The Libby Brook Gaddis Alumnae Club of Avon opened its season with a dessert luncheon, in Bushnell. Ann Haynes gave an interesting report on her trip to Convention. She displayed a brochure on the house where the first Pi Beta Phi Convention was held and related many informative and amusing incidents that occurred during her trip.

Following our Christmas luncheon, a sale of Arrowcraft goods was held.

Other interesting programs included an informative true and false quiz on the history and constitution of the fraternity and a talk on the remodeling of the chapter room of Illinois A.

Although our club is small, we contribute to all projects and stay near the top in the sale of magazine subscriptions. We presented the book, "Biography of Grace Coolidge," to the Bushnell and Avon libraries.

ETHELIN RAY PRITTINEN

CHAMPAIGN URBANA

The Champaign Urbana Alumnae Club, under the leadership of Bertha Kinnear Berger, met in September at the home of Dorothy Elliott Shipley. An interesting Convention report was given by our delegate, Harriet Haycock Brown. A musical program, presented by foreign students, and the introduction of pledges highlighted the October pledge party, held at the chapter house.

In November, the entire membership of the alumnae club combined their talents to present another successful Settlement School sale. This year an interesting exhibition of weaving was given by Mary Johnson Clark. Anita Wood Collins, Settlement School Chairman and director of the sale, Jane Roos Neville, were mainly responsible for the continued success of this project. Later in the month, a lovely salad smorgasbord was held in the home of Rosemary Fulton Unteed, completing the fall programs.

Marie Freeman Palmer was the hostess for the January meeting. Miss Kathryn Lenihan, Assistant Dean for Panhellenic Women at the University of Illinois, spoke on the advantages and problems of the transitional years, as all freshman women are now living in university residence halls. A very informative discussion followed her talk. Films and slides were shown to the members at the February meeting.

In March, a guided tour of Krannert Art Museum was enjoyed by all the members. The Contemporary American Painting and Sculpture Exhibit was on display. The business meeting was held in the museum lounge.

The annual commemoration of Founders' Day was held at the Illini Union, under the direction of Kay Parsley Andert. In May, the June graduates of Illinois Z were honored and the town pledges were entertained in June, thus ending another busy and rewarding year with Pi Beta Phi.

HELEN ADAIR HAYES

CHICAGO BUSINESS WOMEN

The Chicago Business Women's Alumnae Club began their year with a dinner meeting, at Ruth Greenfield's home. Mrs. James P. Lenz, Convention delegate, gave her report.

In November, we toured the Chicago Post Office.

Our traditional Christmas party was held on Saturday afternoon, December 15, at the home of Viola Cruton.

In January, we attended a Gordman Theatre production of "Passage to India."

A business meeting was held in March, our Founders' Day celebration was in April and installation of officers took place in May.

LOIS HASSELL LENZ

CHICAGO SOUTH

The Chicago Alumnae Club South started its year in September with a meeting held at the new home of President, Anne Grasse Guelle, in Oak Forest. Mardie Pontius MacKimm reported on her Convention visit. In October we held a business meeting at the home of Mardie MacKimm. The Settlement School Sale and Tea was held in November, at the home of Sue Howard Delves. Friends and neighbors were welcomed through the day and evening. Our Christmas party was held at the home of Nancy Marshall Scheidt. We brought toys for retarded children at Dixon, Illinois, and exchanged small grab bag gifts. Virginia Rundberg Daugherty opened her house for the annual holiday brunch, with our special guests the actives and pledges. In January we met at the home of Martha Bradford and packed snack boxes for actives. The February meeting was held at the new home of Joan Launspach Klensk. The March meeting was guest night, held at Cecile Gilroy Munnecke's home, and an interesting travelogue was presented by Mrs. Marian Fisher. Founders' Day, always a memorable occasion, was celebrated with the South Suburban Club, by luncheon at a local restaurant. In May we met at Edy Showalter Slovich's home, and saw slides of Holt House. We will end our year in June, by having a potluck dinner at the home of Sue Howard Delves, with the actives as our guests.

JOAN LAUNSPACH KLENK

DECATUR

The Decatur Area Alumnae Club opened its year in September by helping the active chapter with rushing. This was followed by the first meeting, when the actives and new pledges joined the group for a Cookie-shine.

Under the able leadership of Mrs. Sue Webb Milligan, Illinois E has enjoyed a successful year. The big event was a tea, fashion show and Settlement School sale. The group was so enthusiastic about the results of this affair, that it is to become an annual event.

Another event especially enjoyed was an auction held at the January meeting. Each alumna brought her own handiwork for the sale.

April 23, Founders' Day was celebrated with a dinner at the Decatur Country Club. Holt House slides and skit were enjoyed by all. In May, the graduating seniors were guests at the annual May breakfast, held in the lovely home of Mrs. Jean Kolb Hubbard.

JAYNE GANSCHINIETZ BAULOS

DU PAGE COUNTY

The Nina Harris Allen Alumnae Club started the activities for the year with a dinner, at the home of Ella Kouchy in Elmhurst. Plans for the Settlement School Sale were announced. An interesting report of the National Pi Beta Phi Convention was given by Janet Thornton.

Two Settlement School "coffees" were held, one in Elmhurst and one in Glen Ellyn. Each member brought friends to help make the sales successful.

In January a meeting was held at the home of Janet Karcher in Elmhurst.

In February the club invited the Milton Township Club to join in enjoying the pictures of Holt House.

The slides of Settlement School were shown in March. The club joined other clubs of the Western Suburbs of Chicago to celebrate Founders' Day in April. This was held at the Old Spinning Wheel in Hinsdale, with the West Suburban Club as hostesses.

The last meeting of the year will be a "pot luck" supper at the home of Kathy Daniels in Elmhurst.

FLORENCE H. GENTRY

GALESBURG

Led by Jeretta Hoopes, our able and energetic president, the Galesburg Alumnae Club enjoyed an interesting and successful year, beginning with a picnic in August at the home of Gloria Bohan. Jeretta was our Convention Delegate and at this meeting gave her report of activities during the Convention in Washington, D.C.

Highlights during our year are the times we are able to get together with the Illinois B and Δ Actives. Our October meeting was given to entertain them this year. Again, we had a wonderful dinner and grand time with the girls. Floss Webster gave an interesting review of the book on Grace Coolidge.

Pledging at Knox College was held in November at which time we again entertained the actives and honored the new Pi Beta Phi pledges with a dinner at Frances Rowe's home immediately following pledging.

The holiday season brings around our traditional Christmas party which is such a treat for us all. We have an unusual gift exchange and, later in the evening, elaborate refreshments. Our party this year was in the Panhellenic House on the Knox Campus.

We ushered in 1963 with our January meeting at Ruth Eddy's home. A spaghetti dinner was followed by routine business.

Seated around the blazing fire in the fireplace at Joan Boydston's home, was the setting for our meeting in February.

Dorothy Thorman, our Alumnae Province President, honored us with a visit during March. We had a very enlightening evening with her at dinner and later during the meeting at Herbie Wetherbee's home.

We again had the opportunity of being with our B and A Actives, when we celebrated Founders' Day at a dinner in April.

With the May meeting at Sally Hutchcroft's home in Knoxville, the Galesburg Alumnae Club brings to a close a most happy and rewarding year.

MARION BEATTY DOYLE

HINSDALE TOWNSHIP

The September meeting of the Hinsdale Township Alumnae Club was called to order by President, Barbara Jacobus Cook, who inspired our interest in the Christmas sale project and asked for the delightful Convention report from our Delegate, Betty Williams Wulff. Beverly Pollard Cook, Chairman of our Christmas sale, motivated us to continue work on projects that had been in progress most of the summer.

The October meeting was enjoyed, since the presentation on the need for a workshop for retarded children was stimulating. The November meeting was devoted to making ornaments and decorations for the "big day." And a big day it was. December 7, 1962, our sale was held at the elegant home of Mary Kay Betts Sarguine, which offered a lovely setting for our Christmas room, grandma's attic, Settlement School and country kitchen displays. The event was a huge success and proceeds were donated to the Ray Graham Rehabilitation Center, located in the Butterfield Field House in Elmhurst, Illinois.

A holiday party, was presented during December for the vacationing actives and was thoroughly enjoyed. In spite of the many snow storms, we managed to meet for bridge in January, and to greet Mrs. Floyd M. Thorman, Alumnae Province President, in February.

Spring brought our Founders' Day banquet, held in conjunction with neighboring area clubs, and the installation of officers. We enjoyed bringing our eventful year to a close by attending a buffet and patio party with our husbands.

KAY BLACK KELLY

ILLINOIS FOX RIVER VALLEY

This year the Illinois Fox River Valley Alumnae Club celebrated its twentieth anniversary and, under the capable leadership of Mrs. Jack Greyer, it proved to be a most successful year.

In September, at the opening meeting of the fall season, we were pleased to welcome five new members to our group. Mrs. David Marti was hostess.

We met in October at the home of Pat Pearsall and, in November, Mrs. Greyer opened her home to us and reviewed two timely articles from New Guard Magazine, "Target Fraternities," by Lee Edwards, and "Revolt Sheel in NSA," by Tom Houston.

During the Christmas season, we entertained our husbands at a dinner party, at Mrs. William Warren's new home, and it proved to be a delightful evening.

In January, we met at the Batavia home of Mrs. Phillip Ekman, where a very interesting program of English and American poetry was presented. Our February meeting was at Mrs. James Pitcher's home, in Aurora. We had a most enjoyable Founders' Day dinner, in April, and at our May meeting we installed new officers.

The year ended with our annual June luncheon and with enthusiastic planning for our Arrowcraft sale in the fall.

JUDITH WHEELER GOSSELIN

JOLIET

The Joliet Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi held its first meeting of the year in the home of President Rachael Horner Meadows, who gave an interesting report on Convention.

Lucille Lorimer Evans was hostess in November. The meeting was of special interest, as we celebrated the twenty fifth anniversary year of the Joliet Club. We honored our oldest member, Blanche Lindsay Wood, a charter member of Illinois Z and a Pi Beta Phi for sixty seven years. For our program, we enjoyed seeing pictures and hearing the story of Holt House.

In January, at the home of Nancy Buchanan Tezak, we packed boxes of cookies to send to all actives in the Joliet area. "Wisconsin B in My Time," was the program on active chapter. We enjoyed a letter from Betty Eldrid and reports from Emily Cheeseboob Carson, Marial North Harpham, Rachael Meadows and her daughter, Margaret, who is presently attending Beloit College.

Mary Ellen Ripley Whitmore was hostess for the March meeting, when we elected our officers for the coming year. Emily Carson gave an interesting program on the constitution and history.

In April, we celebrated Founders' Day and installed officers for the coming year.

Our year closed in May, with our guest night potluck supper, at the home of Don and Marial Harpham.

MARY ELLEN RIPLEY WHITMORE

LAKE COUNTY

Ten monthly meetings, held in members' homes in Lake Bluff, Grayslake, Waukegan and Libertyville, comprised the 1962-1963 activities of Lake County, Illinois Alumnae of Pi Beta Phi. The opening fall meeting was a delightful luncheon, marked with much conversation about summer trips and visits with Pi Beta Phi friends.

The Settlement School Program was instructive, by bringing members up to date, and thought provoking by discussing the future of the project. This rather serious meeting was followed by a gay Christmas pot luck supper, to which husbands were invited.

A white elephant sale proved amusing, as well as beneficial to the treasury. History and fraternity constitution provided the next topic of discussion, followed by election of officers for next year. The spring season was climaxed with the April Founders' Day ceremony and program.

For the remainder of the season, the club plans a fashion program, a picnic supper for Lake County actives and a summer barbecue for husbands, to be held at the home of the President, Nancy Ross.

MARJORIE ATWELL CARY

MILTON TOWNSHIP

The year's activities for the Milton Township Alumnae Club started in September at the home of Melba McCall. Alice Turner Dashner, our club president, gave a most interesting report on the Convention in Washington.

An Arrowcraft auction highlighted our program for October, with Jean Early as our capable auctioneer. At this meeting, we also heard a very informative report on Elgin State Hospital and its need for volunteer workers. As a result of this, Jean Webber took the training course and became chairman for our service project.

In November, we met at the home of Jean Early and enjoyed a "Raft Trip Down the Colorado River," via slides by Margie Petheram.

December saw us gathered at the home of Laura Coonley for our annual potluck supper with husbands.

We met in February, at the home of Jane Davis, and were very interested in the slides shown of Holt House. While refreshments were being served, we enjoyed making Valentine favors for the patients at Elgin State Hospital.

An exchange student from Japan was our guest in March. Our Founders' Day Cooky-shine was held in April, along with the installation of officers.

Our final meeting was in May and another successful year in Pi Beta Phi is eagerly awaited.

MAE DYER

NORTH SHORE

A series of programs so varied as to include a politician, an amusing book review and a refugee from behind the Iron Curtain, kept North Shore Alumnae Club members on their toes and membership at an all time high this year.

The September meeting was devoted to a Convention report, by President Geraldine Thiess Williams. Her sparkling description of interesting meetings, the White House tour, the portrait of Grace Coolidge wearing her arrow, dinner with Convention Initiate, Ruth Eisenhower, etc., etc., made this one of our outstanding programs.

A tea and Settlement School sale, at the home of Gertrude Wollenburger Letz, in October, was exceptionally well attended and successful. It was supplemented by neighborhood teas, coffees, chapter and mothers' club sales. One of the most successful neighborhood sales was held by Alumnae Province President, Dorothy Coleman Thorman. Sales were aided by an unusually large and varied assortment of Settlement School items.

On October 19, the traditional board luncheon was held, followed by a talk by Mr. Donald Rumsfeld, Republican candidate for Congress. The Christmas spirit came to Pi Beta Phi in November, when we heard Katherine Hummel, of Hummel House in Evanston, speak on "Creative Expression Through Holiday Decorations." Also, in November, we had the pleasure of meeting new pledges of Northwestern University at a tea, at the home of our president.

The January meeting started 1963 off gaily, with a hilarious book review of "The Best of Jean Kerr," by Mrs. William Applegate. At this meeting, we completed plans for our annual benefit luncheon and style show, which was held on February 5, at the Sunset Ridge Country Club, under the able chairmanship of Betty Tibbitts Prichard and Fay Sullivan Tideman. Red and white paper flower trees, made by members, decorated the tables, to carry out the Valentine theme. Club members modeled styles from a Winnetka shop, before an almost capacity audience.

Speaker for the February meeting was Mrs. Mary Hayes Audy.

whose discussion, "Why We Need a Family Service Association," impressed us greatly.

In March, we welcomed an old friend, Mrs. George Hvelka, a Czechoslovakian refugee, who gave us such a thought provoking program last year. Her subject, "Flight to Freedom," was the story of her own escape from behind the Iron Curtain.

The Founders' Day tea, in April, was a delightful occasion, attended by alumnae and actives, at the Northwestern chapter house. Golden Arrow members were guests of honor and an impressive program was presented by our talented actives.

An interesting and successful year for the North Shore Alumnae Club came to an end, with our final meeting in May. Officers were installed and constitutional amendments presented. Following the meeting, Mrs. Leroy Shelton, Panhellenic delegate of Alpha Phi, discussed an appropriate subject, "What is a Fraternity?"

NORTH SHORE JUNIOR

The North Shore Junior Alumnae Club had an exciting and eventful year, under the capable leadership of its president, Mary Baldwin Green. The meetings have been well attended, many new members have been added and the programs have been most interesting and varied.

In September, a dessert for prospective members was held. The activities for the year were explained and the new girls met some of the members before the first meeting. At the September meeting, the Convention Delegate, Yolanda Brugaletta, told of many highlights at Convention.

October was a very busy time. The annual Settlement School tea and sale was held this month. It was well attended by the members and their friends and was very successful. This year, for the traditional get together with husbands and escorts, a buffet dinner was held in a member's home. This party honors the new members and gives everyone an opportunity to renew friendships.

The highlight in December was a Christmas party at Randall House, a home for dependent boys in Chicago. There were gifts for each boy, refreshments and entertainment.

The January meeting was held at the chapter house at Northwestern University. Miss Patsy Thrash, Dean of Women at Northwestern University, was the speaker. She gave a most stimulating and thought provoking talk on "The Problems of Greeks on the Campus Today."

The annual benefit dinner dance was held in March, at the Kenilworth Club. This year an Oriental theme was used and everyone enjoyed a Cantonese dinner. The proceeds were donated to the Pi Beta Phi philanthropies and the club's local project, The Special Fund for Exceptional Children in the Evanston Schools.

The March meeting afforded the club an opportunity to meet and hear Mr. E. G. Thiem, a former Daily News reporter and a Pulitzer Prize winner. He gave a very interesting talk on newspaper reporting.

Founders' Day was celebrated at the April meeting. In May, a bridge luncheon, at the Sunset Ridge Country Club, closed an active and fun filled year for the North Shore Junior Alumnae Club.

OAK PARK RIVER FOREST

Again, under the capable leadership of Jane Zidek McInerney, the Oak Park River Rorest Alumnae Club began the year in September, when JoAnn Kesler Brooks presented a very thought provoking Convention report. At our October meeting, we conducted a small Settlement School and magazine sale. Our Program Chairman, Dian Dobson Meek, has been quite effective in drawing from the members of our club for some very interesting programs. These have included a Hawaiian travelog, a modern dance and exercise demonstration, a discussion and display of Wedgwood china, a presentation of a chapter initiation to refresh our memories of the vows we have made, and a description of life in England by a member who lived there for a year.

Our main project of the year has been selling recipe cards and post cards. However, for the Centennial Fund we have been taking a collection at each meeting. We find that by giving a dime or so at each meeting we can easily reach our goal, without some special project or assessment.

We all enjoyed our annual Founders' Day banquet, in conjunction with five other west suburban alumnae clubs. It was held at the Spinning Wheel in Hinsdale, with the Chicago West Suburban Alumnae Club acting as hostess. We were particularly pleased to hear Marian Keck Simmons, our National Historian, as the main speaker.

We will end our year in June by entertaining the actives in the area at a pot luck supper.

JOSEPHINE HENDRICKS MOELLER

PARK RIDGE-DES PLAINES

Our fall activities began with a cooky-shine and "get acquainted" program, in October. Final plans were made for the Settlement School tea and sale, under the capable direction of Pat Stewart Reynolds. The sale this year was held in the latter part of October.

An informative program, provided by a speaker from Alcoholics Anonymous, gave us a great deal to think about in November.

A fun filled Christmas party was the program in December. Members brought donations for our local philanthropic project, which this year was the Northwest Suburban Aid to the Retarded. In addition, we all enjoyed a report about Convention, enthusiastically given by a delegate, Ann Cox Otzen, from the Arlington Heights chapter.

In January, each member provided a "Labor of Love," such as an item made or baked, to be auctioned. This event was considered a successful money raising idea, as well as lots of fun.

Our pot luck dinner and informal evening was the program for February. All thoughts turned to spring, with an inspiring fashion show, held in a local store, during March. In April, Founders' Day was celebrated, with a program given by Phyllis Black Davlin.

A lovely luncheon highlighted the May meeting. This brought to a close our activities for the year, under the able direction of Barbara Winks Smythe.

MARY DAVIDSON CRAIG

PEORIA

Members of Illinois Θ were off to a wonderful start for the 1962-63 year, when they attended the "cooky-shine" garden party, at the home of Marie Lucas Lohnes. Old and new members enjoyed a festive evening and were entertained by "The Sugar Tones," a women's barbershop quartet.

At the October meeting, members met the new pledges, after they entertained the alumnae club, with their very clever rush skit. Mrs. C. L. McGinnis opened her lovely home for the meeting, with her daughter-in-law, Mari Pfeiffer McGinnis, in charge of refreshments.

On November 2, the alumnae club held a hat style show and luncheon, at the chapter house, to raise money for its ways and means project.

Betty Harbers Morgan was the gracious hostess for the November meeting. Everyone enjoyed a variety of luncheon desserts, when they sampled "Tasti Bits From the Pi Beta Phi Cook Book." Joann Frisk Svkhart took us on an informative "Visit to Gatlinburg," and Ann Maple and Ruth Belsterling Miller gave active and alumnae viewpoints, respectively, on the National Convention.

Actives and pledges were guests of the alumnae club, in December, for a Christmas program at the chapter house. Elizabeth Jelly showed us how to make decorative Christmas arrangements for the home.

It was a cold, snowy day in January, when Louise Sumner Burke was hostess for our annual meeting and potluck luncheon. Mrs. Floyd Thorman, our Alumnae Province President, braved the elements to join us and be our guest speaker.

"A Pi Beta Phi's Travelogue," by Marian Putnam Bohner, took us on a trip "down under," in February. Marian and her family spent four years in Melbourne, Australia. Members spent a most interesting evening, at the home of Margaret Simmons Dewey, seeing Marian's colored slides and hearing about the life and experiences of living in Australia.

"Where Our Charity Money Goes?" We had the opportunity to find out on a tour of Crittendon Home, a home for unwed mothers, at our March meeting. After the tour, we had refreshments at the home of Ruth Bruniga Anderson. We also held election of officers at this meeting.

On March 16, the alumnae club held a benefit dance in the Parachute Room, at the Airport Terminal, to raise funds to support our charity project.

The annual Founders' Day get together was held in April, at Murphy's Restaurant. Our speaker was Mercedes Hurst, who is with the Public Relations Department of International Harvester. She is a Pi Beta Phi and her topic was of great interest of all of us, "A Pi Beta Phi and Her Responsibility as an Adult in the World."

"Brunch in Maytime," at the home of Jeanne Beyer Stephens rounded out a most successful year. At this meeting, new officers were installed.

MARGARET GRIER

QUINCY

The Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club of Quincy, consisting of twenty-five members, celebrated its second anniversary on Founders' Day, April 28, 1963.

In July, 1962, the club held a breakfast meeting to write recommendations for local girls going to colleges and universities that had Pi Beta Phi chapters. The pleasant result of our efforts was that four Quincy girls pledged Pi Beta Phi.

Mrs. Dorothy Thorman, Iota Alumnae President, visited our alumnae club for the first time on October 4. She was honored at a luncheon, at which time she explained how and why we must defend the fraternity system. Mrs. Thorman also told of the impressive display of Settlement School weaving at the Smithsonian Institute.

On October 26, we had our first money making project, a Settlement School Sale and Tea. It was held in the home of Mrs. Charles Heidbreder and all club members worked hard to make it a tremendous success.

ANNE M. FRANK

ROCKFORD

Under the leadership of Betty Donahue, the Rockford club has had a busy year. The year started with the most successful rummage sale ever held, netting the club $188. A most interesting meeting was held in October, when Shirley White, from the Beloit Alumnae Chapter, visited us and shared her experiences and news about Convention, which she attended last summer.

Grace Leighton opened her home to the members of Pi Beta Phi and their friends for the annual Panhellenic bridge party in November.

The club repeated their activities of the Christmas meeting, since the experience was so appreciated the year before. Instead of exchanging gifts with each other, we met at the home of Edith Whiting and wrapped Christmas gifts to be presented to the residents of River Bluff Nursing Home in Rockford. The singing of Christmas carols added a final touch to the evening.

Our husbands shared an enjoyable evening with us, in February, when we met at the home of Marjorie Early for a potluck dinner.

In March, we held our election of officers and for the first time will have two members of our club as members of the advisory board to the Beloit active chapter. Pat Brown and Corrine Strand will serve in this capacity and we are looking forward to a closer association with the active chapter.

Founders' Day was observed in April, with several members of the Beloit club joining us for dinner. Other spring meetings included the annual Panhellenic rushing party and a picnic supper with our husbands, at the home of Pat Brown, which ended our activities until fall.

LYNN TOMLIN RADFORD

SOUTH SUBURBAN CHICAGO

Rhoda Waterman Jacobs graciously welcomed old and new members, at her home in Park Forest, for a cooky-shine, beginning a busy and successful year for our club, in September.

In October, our Settlement School sale, held in the afternoon at the home of Jean Belair Haas in Park Forest, and in the evening at Peggy Leoni's home in Chicago Heights, proved most successful.

The "Maple Shop," Chicago Heights, was our meeting place in November. A very interesting program on interior decorating was presented.

A delightful Christmas party, at the home of Verna Sidall Sayles, Flossmoor, put us in a holiday mood. Potluck dinner and games added to the festivities. Donations of jewelry, hats, purses and scarfs were taken to Manteno Sanitarium, plus toys and canned goods to Jones Memorial Center, Chicago Heights.

In January, we had a Settlement School program and in February, we attended the Panhellenic Benefit Ball, of which Linda Wilson Albery was chairman. The Chicago Heights Drama Group presented "Income Tax," at our joint meeting with Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Dorothy Coleman Thorman, Alumnae Province President, was our guest for Founders' Day.

In the remaining months, we look forward to election of officers, a picnic with our husbands and the birth of several new Pi Beta Phis!

LINDA WILSON ALBERY

SPRINGFIELD

A meeting at the home of our most capable president, Fran Pratt Bradley, began this year's activities for the Springfield Alumnae Club. Highlights of the meeting was Fran's report about National Convention.

In December, a very nice Christmas luncheon was enjoyed by all, at the Illini Country Club. The large attendance enabled many to become acquainted with our new members.

The January meeting was held at the E. Dale Anderson home, where Alberta Subrink shared with us her recent trip to the Middle East. Since the interesting and informative journey was an extensive one, Mrs. Subrink centered her remarks mainly on the Holy Land and surrounding places of interest.

A small, but enthusiastic, group had lots of fun playing bridge and visiting, during the February meeting, at the C. Norman Bullard residence.

Spring included election of officers, a Settlement School report and the annual Founders' Day luncheon, which brought to a close another successful year for our Springfield club.

DOROTHY GALLOWAY KATALINICH

TRI CITY

October 11, 1962, brought us all together again for our first fall meeting. Highlight of the meeting was a most interesting and informative account of National Convention, given by Neville Peterson.

We were still enjoying pleasant weather for our November meeting and, consequently, had a good attendance. However, I do not believe the weather was as influencing as the anticipation of a book report to be given by Mrs. Winifred Senty. She reviewed the life of Grace Coolidge and gave such a magnificent report that, upon conclusion, we all felt that we truly knew Grace Coolidge personally.

We were fortunate in having a white Christmas this year. Not too much snow, but just enough to lend the appropriate atmosphere to the yuletide season. Our meeting was a delightful coffee for the actives, their mothers, and members of the alumnae club.

In February, we enjoyed a wonderful talk by Mrs. Irma Anderson, Clerk of the new Municipal Court in Davenport, Iowa. Mrs.

Anderson gave us a very enlightening and informative resume of the workings and procedures of the new court.

The windy month of March found us all gathered at Bishops, for a delicious luncheon. Dorothy Coleman Thorman, Alumnae Province President, guest speaker, gave a most interesting talk.

Easter bunnies, colored eggs, April showers, and, of course, our own Pi Beta Phi Founders' Day. This year we again had our celebration at the Outing Club. The food is good, the atmosphere is pleasant, and, of course, with Pi Beta Phis, the company is excellent. So, what more could we ask for? We had a fine program, with our special attraction being slides from Settlement School.

With lovely spring weather and beautiful May flowers, we again bring our meetings to a conclusion, until fall. We had a repeat performance of our 1962 May meeting, a "Tasting Party," and installation of officers. Each of us brought a serving for six, of either salad, dessert, or main dish, plus three copies of the recipe. After enjoying a smorgasbord of all the scrumptious food, we sold the recipes, for ten cents a copy. Thus, it was profitable for our treasury, plus our own culinary collection. Really, it was great fun!

That's about it for now! Here's hoping everyone has a really tremendous summer and a great forthcoming year.

BELOIT

The Beloit Alumnae Club enjoyed a successful year highlighted by some interesting innovations. One of these was a "Panhellenic Walk," sponsored in the fall by the alumnae chapters of the five women's fraternities on the Beloit campus. Each house was open for inspection and each featured the sale of various items: baked goods, canned goods, handiwork, etc. The walk netted $855, proceeds of which go to the Panhellenic Scholarship Fund.

Alumnae meetings are held monthly at the chapter house, with a catered dinner being served before the meeting. At the October meeting, Shirley Peterson White presented her report on Convention. The annual Settlement School tea, under the direction of Ethel Butcher Shogren, was held October 29 and 30, at the chapter house. For the November meeting, members heard a travelogue on France.

The highlight of the year was a sit down dinner, in December, to which the active chapter, pledge class and Rockford Alumnae Club were invited. Planned simply as a know-your-chapter meeting, it was enthusiastically received by one and all.

At the April meeting, the seniors were invited to a potluck dinner as our guests. The club was invited to celebrate Founders' Day with the Rockford Club in Rockford.

The May meeting was, as usual, a morning meeting at the home of Elizabeth Arneam Hutchison, president of the House Corporation, where we enjoyed the scenery, as we addressed house corporation meeting notices.

Corresponding Secretary

CALGARY

The Calgary Club launched the year in a serious vein with a lecture by a local police officer concerning the problem of sex deviates. At the November meeting, Dr. Bruce Hatfield enthralled the members with his account, illustrated with excellent slides and tape recordings, of impressions gained during his recent trip to Moscow to attend a medical convention.

The Christmas party provided welcome relief from so much gravity, and the annual "white elephant" auction yielded its usual hour of mirth, as well as fattening the treasury. Part of the proceeds were used to provide Christmas cheer for a local nursing home. Decorations, potted plants, gifts and homemade cookies and candies helped to brighten the season for a number of otherwise forgotten senior citizens.

During January, the club was delighted to be visited by Lou Ann Chase Tuft, Director of Membership. Mrs. Tuft gave members some pointers on the proper handling of recommendations, then joined with them in a discussion of child psychiatry, led by Dr. Jack Fair. February was given over to a telephone bridge tournament, in aid of the treasury. In March, the club was entertained by a local author, and April was brightened by a talk on amateur theatre.

The club year was brought to a fitting close by the celebration of Founders' Day, in the form of a pot luck luncheon, at the Chestmere Lake cabin of Prue Bamlett Penley.

Under the able leadership of Mary Wilson Phibbs, and thanks to Program Chairman Myque Thompson MacDonald, the club had a very successful year.

EDMONTON

The Edmonton Alumnae Club spent a busy and pleasant year. A variety of programs interested our members. Mr. Walter Kaasa, Alberta Director of Recreational and Cultural Activities, gave an entertaining selection of poetic readings at one meeting. On another occasion, President Jean Ward gave a Convention report, as well as an enthusiastic guided tour of Washington, D.C. At another meeting, we were shown slides of a member's recent European visit.

A highlight of this year was a visit, in January, by Mrs. Stewart Tuft, National Director of Membership. Mrs. Tuft was present for our annual chapter "Birthday Party," when actives, pledges, alumnae and mothers enjoyed visiting together. Gifts were presented to the active chapter at this time. The November meeting also included the actives and new pledges, at which time the pledges conducted a "Dutch Auction," and all joined in a "sing-song."

A new venture this year was a coffee party and bazaar, held in October. This included the sale of Christmas novelties, gifts and decorations, as well as special Pi Beta Phi home baking. A popular feature was home made toffee, colorfully tied with wine and blue ribbons, and articles produced from recipes in the Pi Beta Phi Cook Book, which were also on sale.

Ending the year, a luncheon was held for graduating actives, at which time a gift of a Pi Beta Phi Cook Book was presented to each graduate.

FOX RIVER VALLEY

The experiences and talents of the alumnae of the Fox River Valley Alumnae Club were put to good use in the year's program planning.

At the September meeting, a potluck supper at Nan Duthie's home, our President, Joan Tucker, and Kappa Alumnae Province President, Orpha Coenen, shared their Convention experiences.

At following meetings, Marie Langenberg reported on her trip to New Zealand; Mary Grist highlighted the pre-Christmas party with the singing of carols; Anne Glasser gave a dramatic reading and Richard Baker, the husband of a member, talked on "Advertising: Blessing or Boondoggle."

The annual cocktail party, held this year at Joan Woerner's home, was followed by a Panhellenic dance.

The Manor funds raising projects have been a rummage sale, with Judy Hidde as chairman, and a spring sale of geraniums, with Gretchen Bearce in charge.

The members kept in close contact with the actives of Wisconsin, at Lawrence College, by assisting at a Round Robin Tea in September, during deferred rushing in January and at the pledge banquet, by entertaining the pledges at the February meeting and at a farewell party for seniors at Georgiana Baker's home. This year a number of alumnae acted as "mothers" to the pledges and, as a result, became closer to the chapter.

GRAND FORKS

The Grand Forks Alumnae Club, under the leadership of Joanne Miner, began the year with an August meeting on rush. Town actives were guests and they outlined North Dakota A's plans for rush week and how the alumnae club could help.

In September, Barb Lander opened her home for the annual party for new pledges. This was a unique "Left Bank" affair, dreamed up by Barb, Vonnie Goodman and Ann Tomasek. On arrival, pledges donned white men's shirts, colored bow ties and berets. During the evening, each pledge did a painting, which were judged by the alumnae and prizes awarded. To carry out the theme, individual lunches were put up in colorful cotton squares, which the pledges picked up, along with a can of pop.

At the November meeting, Aletha Phelps, Convention Delegate, gave an enthusiastic report.

December found alumnae and their children at the chapter house, as the guests of North Dakota A at their annual Christmas Party.

The alumnae joined the active chapter in April for luncheon to celebrate Founders' Day. Chapter awards were presented and entertainment was furnished by the chapter.

Our year ended with a luncheon in May, at the home of Alice Sheppard, honoring the graduating seniors.

MADISON

The Madison Alumnae Club meets on the second Tuesday of the month, at 6:30 P.M., for a buffet dinner, either at a member's home or at the chapter house. This custom has been followed for a number of years and has proven most enjoyable and successful.

In September, we met at the chapter house to hear a report on rushing, by Gertrude Burley, our rush chairman. Completing a very successful rush, the active chapter pledged thirty-two girls.

Our October meeting was held at the home of Marian Stevens. Jane Hollingsworth, from the active chapter and the student female member of the Student-Faculty Human Rights Committee, talked on the "Delta Gamma Affair and Local Autonomy."

In November, our annual party for the pledges was held at the chapter house. Mrs. Glenn Wills, of Glenn's Hairdressers, presented a talk and demonstration on makeup.

Our December meeting was held at the home of Jane Stark. Despite subzero weather and busy preparations for the holidays, a large group gathered to enjoy a Christmas party and exchange ideas on holiday decorations.

In January, the annual party for the seniors of the chapter was held at the home of Jane Secord. Each year, a Pi Beta Phi husband is invited to speak on his particular field of endeavor. After the buffet dinner, Roger Rupnow, Head of the Madison Redevelopment Authority, spoke on "City Planning and Redevelopment."

Our February meeting was the annual "Husband's Night," with everyone gathering at the new home of Bill and Jean Chatterton, then proceeding to the Maple Bluff Country Club for dinner.

In March, we met at the home of Romay Rupnow for the election of officers. For our April meeting, we celebrated Founders' Day with the active chapter. In May, we met at the home of Kay Lemmer.

Jane Webster has been our president for the past two years. We all were saddened by the death of Marguerite Schorger, in December. She was our only Golden Arrow member and always a loyal and devoted Pi Beta Phi. She was active in many civic and charitable organizations and, indeed, was an outstanding woman and an inspiration to all of us.

MILWAUKEE

The Milwaukee Alumnae Club launched a very successful 1962-63 season with its traditional buffet dinner, at the home of Jane Foster Doud. The meeting was highlighted by the Convention report, by President Lenore Ladewig Page and Betty Stewart Moran. This was cleverly reported in verse form.

Two successful Settlement School sales were held this year. Baby sitting service was repeated, which promoted the excellent response.

At the November meeting, Mrs. Max Lange presented a lively and entertaining program entitled "Broadway Melodies." She gave a history of the work of Rodgers and Hammerstein and sang many of their most popular songs.

In December, the traditional active alumnae brunch was held. This event is always most enjoyable, as the alumnae have the opportunity to meet the local actives and keep in touch with colleges throughout the country.

With the coming of the New Year, it was a pleasure to have two Pi Beta Phi husbands, Mr. Karl Gengler and Mr. William Johnson, speak on investments. Various ways of investing money in insurance, stocks and bonds were reviewed and discussed.

As a very profitable money raising project, a tasting dessert, bridge and hatorama was held in February. Many of the alumnae donated various desserts. These were offered in small amounts so people would try several. The recipes were then sold. Tickets were sold separately, or in multiples, for bridge. Miss Jo Site brought many hats of the latest styles to try on for size, which is very popular with all women! The proceeds went to Neighborhood House, our local charity, which the club has helped support for the past twelve years.

The March meeting featured the coming of spring, with Mr. Gilbert Preuss demonstrating the "Gentle Art of Arranging Flowers."

The annual Founders' Day observance was again held at Boder's on-the-River in Mequon, Wisconsin. This lovely luncheon concluded a most successful year of Pi Beta Phi sisterhood.

MINNEAPOLIS

Dorothy Hopfer MacKenzie returned inspired from Convention and led our club through a most successful year. At our October meeting, a pot luck supper, Dorothy gave the group a "run down" of proposals and activities of Convention and, as her enthusiasm was contagious, the members responded by being dedicated and sincere in their Pi Beta Phi participation throughout the year.

In October, we all succumbed to the "new look," when, after dessert, one of the local beauticians demonstrated the latest in hair dos. We met, with the active chapter, as we do annually, for a dessert meeting during the Christmas season. It is always fun to meet at the chapter house on the University of Minnesota campus.

January meetings were held throughout Minneapolis and the suburbs, with small groups meeting in homes to create, make and collect articles for our "A-Z" sale, which we worked on all year, but especially concentrated on during the month of January. Pi Beta Phi husbands joined us in February to hear an informative talk by Mrs. James McDowell, Special Agent in Charge for the F.B.I.

Lunch was served, at the March meeting, and we thoroughly enjoyed hearing Lois Ann Jubenville "do" her amusing, "I Hate to Cook Book." April was a wonderful month, as we joined the actives and alumnae of St. Paul, to celebrate Founders' Day, at a luncheon, at the Edins Country Club. Co-chairmen of this event were Winnifred Loomis Larson and Virginia Pettibon McVicker.

May brought our long awaited "A-Z" sale, chairmanned so capably by Joan McWilliams Russell. The year's work was displayed and sold, as Pi Beta Phis, their friends, and neighbors came to admire and buy the handwork and efforts of a year's planning and work. The sale included stuffed and decorated animals, books, children's wear, doll clothes, yellow spring baskets and zesty food. It was as much fun and as profitable as we had hoped.

Our alumnae group is especially proud of Connie Gegles Adams' selection as Kappa Province President and of Jane Edwards McPherson's appointment as Kappa Province Supervisor on Scholarship. Alice Brown Larson again served as Supervisor on Study and Education for Kappa Province.

Truly a wonderful year of programs and activities was enjoyed by our group and outstanding accomplishments were contributed by many in our membership.

CAROLYN MCLEAN RING

ST. PAUL

The St. Paul Alumnae Club enjoyed a year filled with many projects and meetings. Under the able leadership of our President, Jean Trousdale, we began our year by aiding the Minnesota A Chapter during rush week. As the university fall quarter had not begun, our group volunteered to furnish some of the meals and kitchen assistance for the actives.

After rushing, our new item of business was to acquire a local philanthropic project. As last year's project met with such success, we voted to again continue volunteer work at the Children's Hospital, staffing the coffee shop two days a month. This is very rewarding work and the project's chairman, Carol Farnham, deserves a great deal of credit for its high degree of organization.

At our October meeting, Kay Darrell presented an interesting and informative account of the National Convention. An afternoon luncheon was given in November, at which time we reviewed the fraternity examination. These programs refreshed our memories of the Pi Beta Phi aims and goals.

Our annual bridge dessert was held this year at the chapter house. An added attraction was an exhibit of Christmas wrappings and cards, which created a festive air. The newly decorated house added to an enjoyable event, which netted $50 to our treasury. The chairman of the dessert was Mary Swenson.

The Christmas luncheon was held at the Women's City Club. The guest list included the St. Paul Actives, their mothers and members of the board of the Minneapolis Alumnae Club. The hostess for this delightful luncheon was Jean Johnson.

At our January meeting, we were shown the interesting slides of Settlement School, by our chairman, Kay Skinner.

In February, a couples' party was enjoyed by twenty-five couples of the alumnae club. Warren and Bev Hart were the hosts. This has always been such a successful affair, and this year was no exception.

A bridge and canasta party followed our March meeting, at the home of Mary Orme.

The Founders' Day luncheon was given by the Minneapolis Alumnae Club this year. A silver trophy was presented, by our president, to the senior girl who had maintained the highest overall yearly average. This is an annual award, initiated last year by the St. Paul Alumnae Club.

At our May meeting, we evaluated our past year's activities and agreed it was a highly successful year.

MARY M. MCNEELY

WINNIPEG

The fall activities of the Winnipeg Club were begun with a dinner meeting and tour, at the Manitoba Rehabilitation Hospital. The library of this new hospital has been equipped and staffed as a major project by members of the club. During the opening weeks of the hospital, the chapter also assisted with guided tours.

The annual paper tea and dessert party was held in October, at St. George's Parish Hall. Paper goods, crafts and Christmas decorations made by chapter members were sold, while dessert and coffee were served. All members, mothers and friends were invited.

In November, the regular meetings were followed by a most lively get together with the active chapter and pledges. Through introductions, games and a sing-song, the alumnae and pledges became better acquainted.

The New Year brought the initiation banquet and dance at the Fort Garry Hotel, where each new initiate was honored and presented with a wine carnation and crested, silver key chain from an alumna "grandmother."

Pi Beta Phi night was held in February, with Norma Bingeman speaking on her experiences at Convention. It was decided at this meeting to establish a memorial prize in honor of the late Ielene Hemphill Downey, a charter member of the chapter and an outstanding contributor to the fraternity.

A reunion meeting took place in March, with members of each graduating group of past years being invited. A brisk fund raising auction sale followed the meeting.

The final gathering of the year was the Founders' Day dinner, always a memorable occasion. The graduates of 1963 were honored and presented with silver spoons. Thus, ended a successful and rewarding year, under the capable leadership of the president, Carol McGonigal.

ALEXANDRIA

May, 1962, started the Alexandria Alumnae Club on a successful new year of growth and service, under the efficient leadership of Sara Steele Ott.

A summer rush party was held, at the home of Dee Barksdale Roberts, in August. The club entertained twenty-five young college women and a good time was enjoyed by all. Recommendations Chairman Patty Stafford Daniel greeted guests, assisted by June Chauvin Whately, who was cochairman of the party.

The Alexandria Club added three new members this year. They were: Jane Babington Crowell, Janice Ryder Roy and Karen Yenna. Carol Fisher, of Alexandria, was pledged and later initiated at Louisiana State University.

Fall found the membership planning the Settlement School tea and successful plans they were. R. Elliot Smith, of Interior Flair, Inc., opened his charming decorator shop, located in a shopping center, to the friends of Pi Beta Phi for an all day affair. Ruth Flower Thomas was the capable chairman and deserves the credit for a successful event. Profits realized from the first Arrowcraft sale enabled the club to make a donation to a local Christmas community fund for underprivileged children.

Spring brought plans for the forthcoming visit of our Alumnae Province President, Sarah Holmes Hunt, and plans to celebrate Founders' Day, at the lovely new home of Abigail Riche Neblett. Fun and fellowship was the order of the day. Newly elected officers were installed and we all look forward to an even more productive Pi Beta Phi year!

BATON ROUGE

August 23 marked the opening of a banner year for Baton Rouge Alumnae, when the lovely home of Mrs. Aubrey Hirsch, Pi Beta Phi Patroness, was the setting for a coffee honoring new members of the group. September was, of course, the month for our annual pledge supper. October, in addition to the regular business meeting, was highlighted by the initiation of Barbara Triche Hubbell, who had pledged Pi Phi at Louisiana B, but transferred elsewhere before the initiation of her pledge class.

At the November meeting, plans for various charity projects were discussed, and it was decided that a raffle would be held for the benefit of the local Protestant Girls' Home. President Arthe Allen Jenkins distributed tickets at the January meeting, and each alumna was responsible for six, to be sold for $.50 apiece. On February 12, the drawing was held for a fifty dollar gift certificate at a local shop, and profit for the project totaled close to $250. In addition, members and husbands contributed their time painting, making draperies, and refinishing furniture for the girls.

March brought the annual pot luck supper and election of officers along with a much anticipated visit from our new Alumnae Province President Sara Holmes Hunt.

The traditional Founders' Day Banquet renewed the bond between Louisiana B Actives and Baton Rouge Alumnae. April also saw the inauguration of a spring tea given by the club in honor of local high school seniors and their mothers.

In May, with the help of the Mothers' Club, we bid the actives farewell till next fall, at a garden luncheon. So, another memorable year came to a close for the Pi Beta Phi Alumnae of Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

MARY MINOR FERGUSON

CLAY PLATTE COUNTIES

The Clay Platte Counties Alumnae Club enjoyed another successful and enjoyable year, with Joan Smith Borden serving as president for the second year.

The first meeting was very stimulating. It was held in August and several actives were present, including Joanna Hash, president of Missouri A. Joanna is the daughter of Mary Jeanette Symon Hash, an alumna of Missouri A. Mrs. Hash and Joanna reported on the highlights of the Convention, since both of them attended as delegates from their respective clubs. It was particularly inspiring, as this was the first time this small club has sent a delegate to Convention since it was chartered six years ago.

Mary Ferguson Shaw presented the program on Settlement School at the October meeting. She reported on the Pi Beta Phi display at the Smithsonian Institution and her visit to Gatlinburg, Tennessee. The sales for Settlement School have been very good this year, with Grace Magaw Phelan acting as chairman. Merchandise has been displayed at meetings and orders have been received from members of the club and their friends. This meant more profit, since there was no expense involved.

Jewel Cartland Neal was reelected president of the Clay Platte Counties Panhellenic Association. This is the second year for this club and it is proving to be very beneficial. The master file is helpful for recommendations and the "Campus Caucus" enables members to meet and talk with the rushees. It is also promoting a closer relationship with members of other women's fraternities in the area.

Founders' Day was observed at the April meeting. The new officers were installed at this time.

We are looking forward to another happy and rewarding year in Pi Beta Phi.

JEWEL CARTLAND NEAL

COLUMBIA

The Columbia Alumnae Club, together with the active chapter, held its first meeting of the year in September. Refreshments were served, while approaching rush week was discussed.

A Settlement School sale was held in October, accompanied by a glowing Convention report. The November meeting was highlighted by a delightful lesson in making winter bouquets.

Dr. Clark Ellzey, Professor of Sociology at Stephens College, gave a talk on "Romance in Marriage." This was thoroughly enjoyed by those attending the January meeting. The alumnae club had a pleasurable evening of bridge, following the business session, in February.

A party for all legacies in the active chapter and pledge class was the basis of our March meeting. Founders' Day was celebrated with the actives, at the chapter house, in April.

The year was brought to a close, at the May meeting, with the annual recipe exchange and bake sale. A program about the history and constitution of Pi Beta Phi was given.

The Columbia Alumnae Club is very proud of the increased attendance at all of the meetings this year. They feel this is greatly due to the interesting and diversified programs that were planned.

DELTA

Mississippi is fast coming into its own, with two active Pi Beta Phi Chapters. This has awakened the scattered alumnae in the state, who are now busy forming alumnae clubs.

In August, the Delta Pi Beta Phi Club was formed. There have been several meetings held in Cleveland and one in Clarksdale. Our time has been spent in building up the membership and in getting acquainted. We are learning what we can do for these active chapters.

Distances are too great to meet often. Some coming nearly a hundred miles. In March, we met as guests of the Clarksdale members. There were twelve present representing many states: Illinois, Missouri, Louisiana, Arkansas, Tennessee and Iowa.

Two actives came from Ole' Miss Chapter, Mississippi B, to brief us on plans for the new house. Though plans are just forming, it is quite exciting to know that there will soon be a Pi Beta Phi house in Mississippi.

This has been a rewarding year. We are looking forward to a good 1963-64 for Pi Beta Phi.

EL DORADO

El Dorado, Arkansas Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi held its organizational meeting on April 25, 1962, with 12 members present. At this meeting Mrs. L. H. Kerr, Jr. was elected president of the group, Mrs. J. H. Coleman, secretary, and Mrs. Tom McQuade, Jr., treasurer. It was decided that our meetings would be in the form of morning coffees at the home of various members.

A second meeting was held on June 6, at which time our president appointed Mrs. Henry Yocum, Jr. to serve as recommendations chairman for 1962-1963. At a third meeting, held on August 15, a list of rushees was submitted to the club by the recommendations chairman.

We are delighted that three girls from El Dorado pledged at the University of Arkansas, one at Oklahoma University, one at Indiana University and two at Vanderbilt.

At our November meeting, a most interesting and informative program on the Settlement School was given by our president, who had visited the school this past summer.

Our agenda for 1963 includes a meeting in January, a Founders' Day program in April and a meeting in May on "Active Chapter Interests."

At the present time we have 24 members on our roll.

DOROTHY C. COLEMAN

FAYETTEVILLE

The Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club of Fayetteville has pursued a well planned, diversified year, under the stimulating leadership of Marion Dunbar. A highlighted Convention report was given by the president, at an informal coffee, shortly after her return this summer.

Opening the year's activities, on September 26, was the traditional picnic buffet for the new pledges of Arkansas A. Again this fall, it was held at the home of Mary and "Brother Jim" Gregory.

The club met in Rogers, with Maxine Fones, in October. Shirley Cary, who has now moved to Little Rock, talked about Settlement School plans and projects.

The annual sale of Arrowcraft products was held at the chapter house in November, with Ann Jones, Chairman, reporting a successful event. The club's traditional Christmas cooperative luncheon was held at the home of Ora Hyland in December.

Two meetings have been devoted to the history and traditions of Pi Beta Phi. Alice Renfro, Arkansas A Chaperone, was hostess in January, when Margaretta Putman talked on Carrie Chapman Catt. In February, Marian Brown entertained and Adeline Prentiss gave a short history of the fraternity.

Nancy Goff and Josephine Tuck were respective hostesses at the two spring meetings, when officers were elected and installed. Founders' Day was celebrated with Arkansas A actives in April.

BETTY BASSETT WILLIAMS

HATTIESBURG

The Hattiesburg, Mississippi, Alumnae Club year began with rush activities at the University of Southern Mississippi. Our group was delighted to assist with parties planned and executed by the actives of Mississippi A Chapter. It was quite rewarding to be a part of the festivities, to help with refreshments and be associated with their well planned schedule. We were honored to again have Madeline Lafon with us during this busy time. The formal "Angel" rush party was held in the home of our member, Mrs. Carl Peck. Following rush, our regular September meeting featured a full report on rush activities by Joyce Sanders, President of Mississippi A Chapter.

The October meeting was devoted to our Settlement School tea, under the chairmanship of June Vardaman. The tea was held in the home of one of our members, Minnie McCain, who is the wife of the President of University of Southern Mississippi. The event, which was quite successful, was in the form of an all day coffee, with a total sales of $650.

Our November meeting featured one of our members, Mary Harmon, who spoke on her trip to Russia. The December meeting was in the form of a dutch luncheon, at which time donations were made for various funds of Pi Beta Phi, rather than the usual exchange of Christmas gifts among members.

In January, our club was entertained by a group of actives who delighted the members with a Pi Beta Phi song fest. Dressed alike in their "singing clothes," they presented a most enjoyable program of favorite rush and traditional Pi Beta Phi numbers.

In early March, we were privileged to welcome to our luncheon meeting Helena Moore, National Scholarship Chairman, who was making a visit to Mississippi A Chapter. We thoroughly enjoyed her delightful informal talk to us and felt quite well informed as a result of her brief trip. During this luncheon meeting, plans were made to assist the active chapter by furnishing old clothes for a rummage sale, proceeds of which will help with furnishings of the beautiful new Panhellenic Dormitory, now under construction.

In early April, we were honored with a visit from Alumnae Province President Sarah Hunt, of Kansas City. Also in April, we had a Founders' Day luncheon with our active chapter.

The Hattiesburg Alumnae Club has been ably guided through a most successful year by our efficient President, Lonnye Norman.

DELLA H. FAUST

KANSAS CITY

During August, the club embarked upon its busy schedule of activities with a swimming party and picnic, including actives. A Convention report was given by the Club President, Dorothy O'Donnell Muck, under whose capable leadership the club had a record number of members this year. A new plan of alternate daytime and evening meetings has been popular, with a variety of interesting programs such as: "Practical Politics," "Philharmonic Chatterbox," and "Your Hair or Your Wig." In September and January, alumnae members joined their neighbors in informal area meetings. During the holidays, actives were honored at the annual Christmas coffee.

The Theater Holiday Tours to New York continue to be popular with tours each fall and spring. One of the organizations supported by the project is the Rehabilitation Institute, where club members also do volunteer work each week.

This spring was busy, but fun time, with the big money making project, under the chairmanship of Ann Angle Booth and Rosemary Leitz Smithson, which was a display of the summer fashion picture all under one roof. The "Fashion Gallery" featured fashions from casual beach wear to the elegant costume look and clothes were modeled and sold, along with such accessories as jewels, furs, wigs and make-up. Men, admitted free, were particularly interested in the displays showing the mystery of jewels and fur fashioning. An added attraction was a unique display of antique bathing suits. The "Uncommon Market" was a paradise of domestic and imported house and garden fashions, including prize greenhouse plants, wrought iron, French cookware, unusual party items, patio accessories, candles and items from Settlement School. An unusual Christmas corner was radiant with nativity scenes and ornaments from the Holy Land. Coffee and sweets were served on the Pavilion. This concluded activities for the year.

LITTLE ROCK

Little Rock Alumnae Club has experienced a most exciting and successful year, under the presidency of Margaret Spencer Trimble.

The Little Rock Panhellenic Association held its annual book review, given by Mrs. Ladd Davies, on March 29. Proceeds are for support of the local Panhellenic Children's Library.

Founders' Day was celebrated in the home of Georgea Black McKinley, April 30. Club members presented a most impressive program, under direction of chairman Patsy Ellis Grace. Special tribute was given Founder Jennie Nicol, M.D.

On June 10, the Little Rock Panhellenic registration party was held and Pi Beta Phi was in charge of registration. Mary Jean Schallhorn Mayes is our panhellenic delegate.

As always, we enjoyed having all actives with us during our summer meetings.

Susan Linebarger and Karen Kiss gave us an excellent report about 1962 National Convention.

In August, Arkansas A actives held a rush workshop here, under the guidance of a special committee from our club and the gracious assistance from our Mothers' Club.

Our Settlement School Tea was held November 7, in the home of Ruth Rebsamen Rempel. Along with the gorgeous arts and crafts from Gatlinburg, we held an art exhibit, featuring painting of students from Little Rock University and their instructor, Josephine Hutson Graham, who is a member of our club. Many thanks go to Pat Kilgore Holt, chairman, who made our tea a great success.

Our Christmas Brunch, held in the home of Barbara Wright Henson on December 21, honored all actives, pledges and their mothers.

In early January, Miss America 1963, Jacquelyn Mayer, was in Little Rock for the Junior Chamber of Commerce's Ten Outstanding Young Men Awards. We were unable to meet Jacquelyn personally, due to her full schedule, but our own Frances Anderson Cranford, first runner-up to Miss America 1962, was Jacquelyn's hostess. We were happy to have Jacquelyn in our city for a visit.

The most exciting news these past few months is that on January 25, 1963, we pledged the twenty members of Beta Chi local sorority on the campus of Little Rock University to Arkansas Beta Colony. Pledging was held in the Dr. Charles M. Taylor—Junior League—House, with Mrs. Alice Weber Mansfield conducting the ceremony. Also present for the ceremony was Mrs. Olivia Smith Moore. We have been working toward the pledging since last May, when we first learned that Beta Chi and two other local sororities on the campus at LRU were granted permission to petition national sororities. We gave small parties to meet the girls in each sorority. In December, 1962, Mrs. Dorothy W. Morgan and eight active chapter members of Lambda Province visited Little Rock to meet the Beta Chis, see the LRU campus and meet the LRU Administration. Twenty members from our club are sponsors for the new pledges. Installation will be in early May.

The two other local sororities were pledged to Delta Delta Delta and Kappa Kappa Gamma. Two national fraternities, Kappa Sigma and Sigma Nu, have absorbed local fraternities at LRU.

We are thrilled for the opportunity to help charter an active chapter. It has been and will continue to be quite an experience for us all, a grand way to begin our new year.

MARKED TREE-JONESBORO

The Marked Tree-Jonesboro Alumnae Club enjoyed a successful year, with Maxine Ammons Smith as President.

Elinor Duschl was hostess for the first meeting, in October. Members heard highlights of Convention, by our delegate, Frances Briganee Calvert. Plans were made for a new schedule of activities and contributions were made to: Holt House, Settlement School, Emma Harper Turner Fund, and Harriet Rutherford Johnson Scholarship Fund. Dorothy Davis Stuck, ARROW Editor, gave a very interesting report on rush week at the University of Arkansas.

Three members of the club, Frances Calvert, Charlotte Townsend Owen, and Dorothy Stuck, represented the group at initiation ceremonies at Arkansas A, when alumnae initiate, Gladys Proctor Blanton, of Marked Tree, was initiated.

Alma Jean Caldwell Kopert gave a clever and informative program on "Official Awards Made by the Fraternity," at the home of Betty Grace Lutterloh Snellgrove, in January.

March brought election of new officers and our Settlement School program. Dorine Barrett Deacon showed the beautiful new slides, with Frances Calvert giving the commentary, at the home of Rosalie Graham Watson.

Lambda Alumnae Province President, Sally Holmes Hunt, visited the club the first week in April, and was the speaker for our Founders' Day celebration. She was entertained at a dinner at the Travelaire, in Marked Tree, preceding the regular meeting at the home of Frances Calvert. Barbara Capooth Prince was in charge of the program, which was a very impressive candlelighting ceremony.

MONROE

"Active" best describes the year of the Monroe Alumnae Club. In addition to the regular business meetings, a number of parties were given by the club. In the summer, a party for the active Pi Beta Phi in the area was held at Bois d'Arc Camp, overlooking the bayou, for lunch and bridge.

In the fall, the club held a Settlement School tea, at the home of Mrs. King Stubb. It was very successful, with nearly two hundred guests attending.

We began the new year, in January, with a sherry party, at Mrs. Jack River's home, for actives and their mothers. It was a grand opportunity for everyone to become better acquainted.

In February, all area Pi Beta Phi met, at Grecian Bend Plantation, for lunch and the election of officers.

Mrs. Sarah Holmes Hunt, Lambda Alumnae Province President, was our guest and featured speaker, at the Founders' Day luncheon, held at Bayou de Saird Country Club.

NEWPORT

The Newport Alumnae Club has had a very active, profitable year, under the capable leadership of our President, Mrs. Ralph McDonald, Jr.

The highlight of the year was the pledging of four Jackson County girls into Pi Beta Phi. Mary Kathryn Brumm, of Newport, daughter of Kathryn Blackwood Brumm, Arkansas A 1934, pledged at the University of Arkansas and has been nominated for beauty queen by the Pi Beta Phi. Mary Nelle Coe, of Tuckerman, also pledged at the university, as did Luckett McDonald of Weldon. Vicki Graham, of Tuckerman, pledged at Memphis State University.

Our club has had two alumnae initiates this past year. Mrs. John Canoor and Mrs. Walter Dowell, Jr. The character and community standing of these two women makes us very proud to have added them to our rolls.

On December 28, our club entertained at a coffee for high school juniors and seniors, at the home of Mrs. Kanester Hodges. About seventy-five attended and we put in many good "licks" for Pi Beta Phi.

Our club meets at least eight times a year for a luncheon and business meeting and it is always well attended by enthusiastic members.

It is our hope and prayer that we will go forward toward the betterment of Pi Beta Phi.

SPRINGFIELD

Revitalization was the aim this year. Lively programs were initiated and old stand-by activities were refreshed.

New programs were: "Trip to Russia," a slide and commentary presentation by Mrs. Robert Duncan; "Urban Renewal," slides and commentary, by city attorney Ralph Hunt; and "Threat of Communism," a talk by York Johnson. These enlightening, enjoyable programs, given in October, January, and March, respectively, were accompanied by covered dish suppers and a coffee, as well as business meetings. Through efficient planning and cooperation, business sessions were effective, though brief, and everyone applauded the discussion of national and local affairs.

The August meeting, usually a picnic, was changed to an old fashioned social. Patsy Denton Corbett, Springfield Alumnae Club President, reported 1962 Convention activities, as homemade ice cream and fresh berry cobblers were served.

In September, the club cordially welcomed Missouri I's capable, charming new pledge class.

At the annual November Settlement School Tea, the lovely handmade articles from Gatlinburg were proudly displayed and eagerly sold.

Local and out of town Pi Beta Phi Chis congregated at a local restaurant for a festive December Holiday Luncheon. This strictly social gathering enables us to greet old friends and meet new ones.

Nine newly initiated Pi Beta Phi actives were honored at the February Cooky-shine. This occasion, in the past, has been in the evening; but this year it was a Sunday afternoon affair. More time was available for visiting and becoming better acquainted with the girls with this time change.

The Founders' Day Luncheon was April's highlight. An ever inspiring program.

An appropriate film about the making of china and silver was added to the May picnic, which honors the graduating seniors. The Springfield Alumnae Club also honored the Delta Delta Deltas, celebrating their fiftieth year on Drury College Campus, during the latter part of May.

Yes, the Springfield Alumnae Club's 1962-63 year was busy, stimulating and rewarding.

ST. JOSEPH

Business was the mainstay of the October and January meetings of the St. Joseph Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club.

Our April meeting gave us a new slate of officers, headed by Marilyn Kelso Chipps as president. A Founders' Day program was presented at this meeting.

The June meeting was a highlight of the year. Helen Barnes Hillyard served luncheon to twenty-two members and actives. Officers were installed and a surprise golden guard ceremony was held, in honor of Helen Cook Swick.

JEAN MAXWELL DOUGLAS

ST. LOUIS

The St. Louis Alumnae Club started its year in September, with a meeting at which its president gave a very interesting report on her trip to Convention. This club was given the Soaring Pigeon Award for the largest dollar increase in gifts to Settlement School. A week after this meeting, a barbecue was given with the St. Louis Junior Alumnae Club to honor the Missouri Chapter at Washington University and its new pledges.

The October meeting featured a presentation of colored slides taken at the four previous "Country Carousels," the major project of the St. Louis Alumnae Club on alternate years. The November meeting featured a presentation of slides of Settlement School, by Helen Moffett Russell, National Chairman of the Settlement School Committee.

The December meeting, with the junior alumnae club, was a Christmas party and covered dish supper. Guests were the members and pledges of Missouri.

A project, in January, took the place of the usual meeting, and was a Settlement School sale and tea, in a private room at one of the local department stores. Guests were superbly entertained by Emily Kimbell Lilly, Wisconsin A, who reviewed "Camelot" for them. This affair was given jointly with the junior alumnae club.

Those who attended the February meeting were privileged to hear and see "An Artist's Conception of the Twelve Disciples," which featured beautiful colored photographs and the story behind each one. The March meeting saw the election of a new group of officers; and the annual Founders' Day Banquet was held in the evening, on April 24.

The May meeting was with the junior alumnae club, and witnessed the installation of new officers of both groups. This was a luncheon meeting, and a very pleasant ending to a year that did not feature a major project.

ADELE HELMKAMPF WEICKER

ST. LOUIS JUNIOR

The St. Louis Junior Alumnae Club got off to a good start in September, under the leadership of June Thursby Siegrist. Many new and old faces were on hand to hear Mrs. C. Clifford Chaudron speak on fashion. The annual barbecue, honoring the actives and pledges of Missouri B, was held during the month of September.

At the October meeting, Mr. Don Pisoni, our guest speaker, gave an interesting talk on interior decorating.

A most stimulating speech on politics, by Mr. Jim Jeans, followed by a question and answer period, held our attention in November.

In December we celebrated the holidays by having a joint dinner meeting with the senior club.

In January, we were privileged to have Mrs. John Lilly review the Broadway hit, "Camelot," and a tea and Settlement School sale followed the program.

A most successful card party, complete with prizes and refreshments, provided a wonderful opportunity to catch up on Pi Beta Phi news for all those attending the February Meeting.

March brought the election of our new officers and discussion of our local project.

Founders' Day was observed in April, at a dinner meeting, with the Senior Club and active chapter joining us for this celebration.

Another busy and successful year ended in May, with the installation of new officers and a final get together with the senior club.

MRS. ROBERT CLARK

TEXARKANA

The Olivia Smith Moore Alumnae Club of Texarkana, Arkansas-Texas, began the year with a luncheon, at the home of President Roberta Roberts Rowland. She gave a very interesting talk on Convention.

In October, the club met with Thelma Pharr Orr, for an informative discussion on the constitution and history of Pi Beta Phi. An Arrowcraft exhibition tea was cancelled in November, due to a death in the family of one of the hostesses.

The January meeting was held in the home of Betty Kuhl Pickett, in the form of a morning coffee.

AILEEN E. CLARK

TRI STATE

The Tri State Alumnae Club, under the leadership of President Marjorie Pfau McPherson, began its schedule of activities with an October coffee, in the home of Florence Burress Wise of Joplin. Her daughter, Patty Wise Austin, was cohostess. There was an exceptionally fine attendance from Joplin and the nearby cities in Missouri, Oklahoma and Kansas, which comprise the tri-state area. In December, a Christmas brunch for both active members and alumnae was held at the Woman's Club in Joplin. This annual affair is a delightful highlight of the club's social events, since it provides the opportunity to exchange news, views and reminiscences with the active members. Again this year, "Social Capers" were sold for us as Christmas gifts to benefit the club's national projects. A February meeting was devoted primarily to a program on the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School. Hostess was Nelle Grimes Bellamy of Joplin. The program leader was Marjorie McIntyre Evans, who gave an interesting and enthusiastic report on the recent progress and development of the Settlement School. The final activity of the 1962-63 program year was the Founders' Day breakfast meeting, in the home of Eleanor Maupin Kirschman.

This has been a rewarding and successful year for our group and each member looks forward to the meetings, as they usually afford the only opportunity for renewing friendships with other members from this tri-state area.

ELEANOR KIRSCHMAN

UNIVERSITY

The University Alumnae Club was honored with visits from Mrs. Alice Mansfield, Grand President, and Mrs. Madeleine Lafon, Lambda Province President. During their stay, the club entertained the active chapter and guests with a lovely dinner party, at the home of Mrs. Fred Kellogg.

A Settlement School tea was held in April, with a good attendance.

A supper was given in honor of the recently initiated actives and new pledges, at Mrs. Marge Peddle's home.

We are very pleased with the progress the chapter is making.

MU PROVINCE

DES MOINES

The Des Moines Alumnae Club launched another successful year, under the leadership of Shirley Tollefson Phillips, president, with a September picnic supper, at the home of Marylou Borders Cook.

Our president gave us an enthusiastic report, "Pi Beta Phi on the Potomac," with many pictures, souvenirs and articles about Convention. It was nice to have Shirley Bunch, Indianola, Iowa, Delegate, and Sally Lamison, Ames, Iowa, Delegate, join us for this inspiring meeting.

The Des Moines Club has an Alpha and a Beta group. In October, at the home of Carrie Waters French, the Alpha group met for a dinner meeting. The Beta group had a dessert meeting, with Joseph's Jewelry Company giving an interesting talk on china and crystal, at the home of Marilee Stover Rice.

In November, the club enjoyed a conducted tour and an interesting talk by Mr. Dwight Kirch, artist in residence at Iowa State University, Ames, Iowa, at the newly opened Lubetkin Art Gallery.

A Christmas dinner, at the beautifully decorated home of Helen Anderson Hammond, was a special evening to honor our Des Moines actives and pledges. The ways and means committee presented a silent auction and Christmas carols were sung. Steam and dry irons were sent to our four active chapters in Iowa, during the holidays.

A luncheon and style show, at Wakonda Club, was held by the club, in February, at which time the mothers of Des Moines actives and pledges were honored.

In April, the alumnae members joined in a Founders' Day observance and a special presentation was made to the new Golden Arrow members. The slides of Holt House were shown and the ways and means committee provided a hat exchange, in addition to a successful rummage sale.

Our annual party month is May. The Alpha group enjoyed an afternoon of bridge and the Beta group entertained their husbands and escorts, at a picnic.

Our June meeting and picnic, at the home of Mary Gilbertson Campbell, with the installation of new officers, concluded another wonderful year for the Des Moines Alumnae Club.

JOYCE SKINNER FREDERICKS

HUTCHINSON

The Hutchinson Alumnae Club enjoyed another successful year, under the leadership of Barbara Varner Frizell.

In October, plans were underway for our annual Charity Ball to be held at the Baker Hotel on Dec. 22. Phyllis Landeene Martin served as general chairman of the ball committee. Approximately 200 couples danced to the music of Chuck Dooling and his band, from Wichita. Proceeds from the ball, which has been held annually for ten years, go to the Settlement School, Holt House and the Emma Harper Turner Fund, as well as to our local projects at the high school, junior high schools and the high school library. We were also able to fulfill our pledge to the Kansas B Building Fund.

On November 23, the club gave a luncheon in honor of Susan Sawyer, our new initiate from Kansas A, and her mother and Susan Benjamin, the Kansas B pledge, and her mother.

In May, we closed the year with our annual Cooky-shine and the traditional party for our husbands.

We were very happy to welcome two new alumnae to our group this year. It is a satisfaction to know our club is growing each year.

DOROTHY LEMON JENNINGS

INDIANOLA

The Indianola Alumnae Club has enjoyed a pleasant year, under the presidency of Vesta Anderson.

Our club has welcomed several new members during the busy year.

The annual delectable dinner, with actives as guests, was held at the Pi Beta Phi house. Following this, Shirley Bunch captivated her audience with an account of her visit to Convention. It sounded as though the trip would have been a pleasure for all to have attended.

Fall days were filled with homecoming activities, honors for our actives and introduction of new pledges.

The House Corporation has supervised various improvements on furniture, draperies, roofing and is purchasing more needed kitchen appliances for the Pi Beta Phi house.

This year was no exception to the usual profitable rummage sale. Mothers club, alumnae club, actives and pledges, combined to enjoy Christmas dinner. This was followed by carols and opening of lovely gifts.

Settlement School activities were brought closer to us with the observance of slides, made available through Mrs. Carl Hensley. These included the Smithsonian Institute display of the various crafts.

An informative discussion was held, during February, on constitutional changes and plans for the future in the Pi Beta Phi Arrow Information Bulletin.

Under the guidance of Arnes Stone, one of our fifty year members, the twenty-second edition of the Golden Arrow was published. The eighty-six corresponding members are enjoying a continual mutual interest in Pi Beta Phi, sharing news of activities and acquaintances.

April and May brought us nearer the closing festivities of the year with election of officers, Founders' Day tea, with actives, and entertaining our senior girls.

The annual commencement tea was festive with a realization of the completion of one more phase in senior Pi Beta Phi lives.

IOWA CITY

A dessert meeting, on the evening of September 17, 1962, at the home of Betty Lou Tucker, opened the fall meeting of the Iowa City Alumnae Club. Our President, Jean Hubbard, gave a report on her trip and activities at the Pi Beta Phi National Convention. Joey Summerwill gave a report on fall rushing and the outcome at the chapter house on the campus of the State University of Iowa, Iowa City.

Alice Mansfield, our Grand President, was in Iowa City the evening we held our traditional "Cooky-shine" for the pledges. This annual event was held at the home of Jan Bywater.

Our Settlement School sale was held in the pleasant atmosphere of the homes of our members, who were kind enough to provide coffee and tea in helping to promote a successful sale.

At our Scholarship Dessert meeting, held at the chapter house in December, it was decided that the Iowa City Alumnae Club will give the active chapter a silver bowl to be inscribed with the names of the outstanding senior girl, the Amy B. Onken candidate, and the girl chosen for the chapter service award. The bowl will be presented at the annual "Senior Farewell" in May.

April found us busy with Founders' Day plans, while May is set aside for our Carriage House Sale, better known as the "Garage Sale," which will take place at the home of Joey Summerwill. May is the month of our last scheduled meeting and the time we hold the Senior Farewell Party. Until next year . . .

LAWRENCE

In September, the Lawrence Alumnae Club held their annual evening dessert meeting in the Student Union Building. The Kansas A, active chapter spring and fall pledges were special guests for the meeting. A tea was held at the Student Union Building in October in honor of Alice Mansfield, Grand President. The active chapter provided the entertainment. At a called meeting in November, at the home of Ruth Roney Hughes, the alumnae and active chapter delegates to the 1962 Convention gave their report.

The lovely new chapter house was the setting for the Settlement School Tea and also for the annual Christmas Auction. Ellen Proudfitt Williams was again with us as our auctioneer, and, with Ruth Taggart Worley assisting her, surprised us with a humorous skit in honor of the new chapter house.

Dr. Roy Laird, of the United Nations Speaking Bureau, was the guest speaker at the January luncheon meeting, held at the home of Jane Veatch Barber. Carolyn Bailey Berneking was hostess for a dessert meeting in March. Elections were held and the work of the advisory board was explained.

The Founders' Day dinner was enjoyed by the active chapter and the alumnae club at the Eldridge Hotel. Decorations were provided by the Leavenworth members, and the program was provided by the active chapter. In May, a coffee in honor of the active chapter seniors was held at the home of Margaret Seybold Hill.

JANICE LYON YATES

LINCOLN

The Lincoln Alumnae Club, under the presidency of Mrs. William Wiese, began the fall season, by entertaining the pledges, with a dessert at the home of Mrs. Richard Groff.

Something new was tried in November and met with great success. Group coffees were held in five homes, so that the members would have a better opportunity to meet each other. An honored guest was Mrs. Roy Koza, Mu Province President.

The first big snow storm of the season lent a festive air to the December dessert in honor of the graduating seniors. Mrs. William Weybrauch was the hostess for the evening.

Mrs. William Kinsey entertained at her home in February, with a sandwich luncheon. Dr. William Aeschbacher, Director of the State Historical Society, a Pi Beta Phi husband, gave an enlightening talk on Nebraska history.

The club's money raising project this year was a geranium sale. Orders were taken during the winter and the plants were delivered in April in time for spring planting. Chairman of the project was Mrs. C. D. Hildebrand.

"Our Arrow will shine from morning 'til night" was the theme of Arrow Day held in March. The day began with a coffee, initiation in the afternoon and an evening banquet with the active chapter. Co-chairmen for the day were Mrs. Brien Hendrickson and Mrs. Earl Jenkins.

We honored our fifty year Pi Beta Phi and Founders with a box supper at the chapter house in April. Our year concluded with a May luncheon at the home of Mrs. Brien Hendrickson.

The club has been inspired again this year by having Dorothy Weaver Morgan, National Panhellenic Conference Delegate and a member of our Lincoln Alumnae Club, with us.

ELIZABETH SMITH GOODBODY

LOS ANGELES

Another successful year for the Los Angeles Alumnae Club began with a luncheon at the beautiful home of Decorator Charles Beacher. Our capable President, Pauline Berg Graves, gave a stimulating report on Convention, which was held in Washington, D.C.

In November, we participated in the Doll Fair at Marlborough School, with our always popular fortune telling booths. The five Pi Beta Phi booths had their usual success. People were standing in line and making appointments for a glimpse into the future. It was fun and the benefits went to the children's hospital.

Our Settlement School display and coffee was most interesting. With attractive place settings and woven articles, Arrowcraft proved to be worthwhile, as well as artistic. Mrs. Loyd Wright opened her lovely home for this display.

Our annual benefit this year was held at Parinos. The arrangements were made by Co-chairman Virginia Gasper and Helen Jones. This fashionable restaurant and the generosity of I. Magnin's Store, who presented the glamorous Sarmi Spring Fashion Collection, helped make our benefit for the Crippled Children's Society of Los Angeles County a success.

Founders' Day was celebrated in April by all the active chapter and alumnae groups in this area with a luncheon held at the Sheraton West Hotel.

Our program in May was a discussion of the "Fraternity Crisis in California." The speaker was Evelyn Kyle, Director of Programs, on Grand Council. Mrs. Kyle stressed that this subject was confronting all fraternity systems throughout the country.

Our June meeting, with installation of new officers, concluded another year for the Pi Beta Phi Alumnae of Los Angeles.

MANHATTAN

The Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club of Manhattan, Kansas, compiled a most successful year, under the able leadership of Jean Holmgren Keller. The August meeting, devoted to rushing plans and agenda for the coming year, was conducted in the recently completed chapter house. At this time, a tour of the new house was held for the delighted alumnae.

In September, the alumnae were treated to a delicious buffet supper at the chapter house, and were introduced to the new pledges, a most outstanding group of young ladies.

So that other persons might view and admire the new home for Kansas B, a benefit bridge was planned. This was successfully carried out through the combined efforts of the alumnae and Mothers' clubs.

The highlight of the fall activities was, however, the dedication of the new chapter house in October. Manhattan Pi Beta Phi were privileged to have Alice Weber Mansfield as their honored guest and speaker for the occasion.

A picnic was planned for the pledges late in October, and in November the club sponsored a Settlement School Tea. In January, Chapter Loyalty Day was celebrated with the active chapter during a dinner at the house. The graduating seniors were honored with the "Senior Social," a dessert held in February at the home of Mrs. Keller.

Concluding the years activities were the rummage sale, a most profitable venture sponsored by the club for two days in March; the Cooky-shine; and the formal Founders' Day banquet, held at the Manhattan Country Club in April.

MT. PLEASANT

In September, the Mt. Pleasant Alumnae Club began its activities under the leadership of Mrs. Juanita Essex. Mrs. Essex and two girls from the Iowa A chapter reported on the Washington, D.C. Convention.

As is the custom with the Mt. Pleasant Club, they had the pledging ceremonies for the chapter at the home of Helen Crane Rhode, with members providing refreshments, following the ceremonies.

In November, the club entertained the actives and pledges of Iowa A at the annual fall party, by taking them to dinner at the lovely new Bluebird Room at Iris Court.

Mrs. Essex was hostess to the club in March, when the program was about Settlement School. An election of officers was held.

On April 25, the alumnae club and Iowa A celebrated Founders' Day together at a dinner at the Harlan Hotel. There are nine 50 year members who were honored at this event.

The Panhellenic Tea and Commencement Breakfast ended the year's activities, with a happy reunion of many visiting Pi Beta Phis.

HELEN ECKLES

OMAHA

The Omaha Alumnae Club began its yearly activities, under the outstanding leadership of Marion Wilson Mossman. The first event was a trip to the chapter house at the University of Nebraska to help with one of the rush parties. Activities involved serving the food at the party, and as an added attraction, serving a brunch of sandwiches, cookies and coffee to the actives during the rush meeting. It was a delightful evening, particularly since seven girls from Omaha were pledged.

The bi-annual Settlement School dessert luncheon and bridge was held in the fall and was a great success. Nearly $1,000 of Settlement School articles were sold this year. Next year the goods will be displayed at group coffees in members' homes.

During the Christmas holidays, the annual legacy luncheon was held, at the Omaha Country Club. The group of one hundred twenty consisted of fifteen legacies, thirty actives from Lincoln, Nebraska, and alumnae from Omaha. The highlight of the afternoon was entertainment and Pi Beta Phi songs, under the direction of the Nebraska B actives.

The February meeting was a dinner, followed by a "Good As New Sale." This was lots of fun, with many laughs arising from our humorous auctioneers, Harriet Durham Gothard and Janice Schrader Mossman. The group cleared $35.00 and plan on doing this again.

In April, the club again sponsored a theater tour to New York City. In this week the guests attended the plays, "Photo Finish," "Oliver," "Mr. President" and "Never Too Late." They also had time to visit Radio City Music Hall, radio and TV shows, tour the U. N. and a choice of attending a fashion show or a demonstration and play session at a world famous bridge session. The cost for this week was $265.00, which also included plane fare and hotel bill.

The annual dinner dance in June will give the husbands a chance to meet each other, and the evening is looked forward to by all the Omaha alumnae.

CAROLYN STEGER HANSEN

PANHANDLE

Under the presidency of Kay Whitehead Rothenberger, the Panhandle Alumnae Club began the year in high spirits. A letter was read from Mrs. Robert Pilling, Mu Province Alumnae President, informing the club that the Pi Beta Phi National Convention had bestowed upon Mu Province the QUIET PIGEON AWARD for 100 percent contribution to the Settlement School. The yearbook was discussed and planned and the names of two new alumnae in this area were announced. The club members made plans to contact the newcomers and it is hoped our membership will be increased.

At the November meeting, the president gave an interesting report on her recent visit to Nebraska B. The club was pleased to learn of the progress the actives were making with their pledges.

Election of officers was held at the February meeting. At this time, the members decided to begin a scrapbook of local and area news of Pi Beta Phi, as well as the Panhandle Alumnae Club history. Additional names of new alumnae were announced. Contributions were approved to Holt House and Settlement School, with the hope that again the club might help to bring recognition to Mu Province. Plans were discussed for the spring visit of Mrs. Robert Pilling.

The highlight of the May meeting was the visit of Mrs. Pilling, the Mu Province Alumnae President, to our club. A luncheon was given in her honor. The year ended as it had begun, with hope for an ever growing alumnae chapter.

NANCY BRADFORD REDDING

SIoux FALLS

In June, the Sioux Falls club held its annual rummage sale, which netted the club $185.00. Part of the money was used to purchase white china cups for South Dakota A. The club also gave a chrome dinette table and six chairs to the Sioux Chapter Adjustment Training Center. Mentally retarded teenagers are given training; such as waitress work, so they can be gainfully employed in the community.

During the winter, Mrs. Ruth Pilling visited the club and told about Convention, showing many interesting pictures. A Christmas bridge luncheon, with the actives and pledges, was held and everyone learned of their chapter activities. One of the highlights of the year was a Cooky-shine, with slides of the Settlement School display at the Smithsonian Institute. Tribute was paid to a club member, Mrs. Amy Roberts, who is a fifty-four year Pi Beta Phi. There was a twelve inch sugar cooky frosted in blue, with her name in wine, and the golden arrow. She was presented with a fifty year pin. A "Beau and Arrow" bowling party was held, with husbands as guests, which proved to be an excellent way of getting to know one another. Founders' Day was celebrated with South Dakota A at Vermillion, South Dakota, in the form of a luncheon, with coffee later at the chapter house. Prior to the installation of officers, a skit was presented on the history of Pi Beta Phi.

TOPEKA

The Topeka, Kansas Alumnae Club has had a very pleasant and productive year. Several new members have been added to our group and our meetings have been varied and interesting.

In the spring, a coffee was given for Ruth Pilling, our Alumnae Province President, and at a fall meeting an auction of baked goods and Christmas items proved to be quite profitable.

During the Christmas vacation, our group gave a coffee for all the Topeka actives and their mothers, which we enjoyed very much. An active from each chapter represented gave a short talk about her chapter and its many activities and honors. It was a wonderful opportunity to become better acquainted with our many active Pi Beta Phis.

We are looking forward to several more meetings this spring to round out a fun year.

EMILY WILLIAMS

WESTERN KANSAS

The Western Kansas Alumnae Club has had an interesting year. In June, the actives in the area and their mothers were invited to a luncheon in Hays. The club's area is quite large, covering about one third of the state, and this luncheon is often the only way the members have of meeting the actives.

At Great Bend, in August, the program was an informative quiz on Settlement School. At the same time, a schedule was outlined to send the Arrowcraft sample kit from town to town, instead of having a tea, this year. The success of this venture has not been as great as the successes of the teas, however.

The members were treated to an excellent Convention report, by Sue Blegler of Hutchinson, in October. The report was so lively and informative many of the members wished they had attended the Convention.

ALTUS

The past year has certainly been a very successful and busy one for the newly formed Altus Alumnae Club.

In early November, two of our members, Mrs. Temple Bailey and Mrs. John Mock, attended a discussion and planning session in Norman, Oklahoma, where the rushing system was discussed.

During the latter part of November, the lovely home of Mrs. John Badger was the setting for our first Settlement School tea and sale. Each member brought a sample of her own "home bakin'." The occasion was extremely successful and we were all pleased to donate a substantial sum to Settlement School.

We are proud to have in our club Mrs. John T. Compton, whose husband is Base Commander of Altus Air Force Base. Due to Mrs. Compton's arrangements, our Christmas party was held at the Officers' Club. The festive evening was enjoyed by all and was highlighted by a delicious dinner and the singing of old and new Pi Beta Phi songs.

Our club, which is rapidly increasing in membership, has welcomed four new members: Judy Williams Cargill, Kay McShane Worrell, Kristina Wanberg and Kay Guthrie Hackney.

Two of our members from nearby Mangum, Mrs. Ben Langdon and Mrs. Helen Givens, entertained club members at a luncheon, on March 19.

State Day was held April 27 and 28, in Oklahoma City, with many Altus Alumnae Club members in attendance.

SUZANNE SELLS BENNER

BARTLESVILLE

Bartlesville Alumnae Club, under the guidance of President Ann McCampbell Howard, had a very active year. We were proud to have three local girls pledged during fall rush and one during spring rush. They were: Jan Elliot, Oklahoma Alpha; Jan Lemaster, Oklahoma Beta; Marilyn Mapes (daughter of Frances Hampton Mapes), Texas Delta and Ginger Emerson, Kansas Alpha.

Programs throughout the year were varied and stimulating. Julie Lang, an English woman, who had been an airline hostess, showed slides and told of her experiences living in Nairobi, Lewis Ambler, from the County Attorney's office, gave a very interesting talk at another of our meetings. Barbara Miller McCoy gave a very informative report on the Child Guidance Clinic.

This year our meeting times were changed from evening to morning meetings for the winter months and at our first morning meeting there were thirty-three out of the forty-seven members present. Morning meetings are held from October through March and evening meetings from April through September.

As Spring approached, planning began to determine our rushes and to interest them in pledging Pi Beta Phi.

CLAREMORE

Late in the summer of 1962, the Will Rogers Area Club began the year's activities with a rush party, at the home of June Bernard Faulkner. Actives from Oklahoma A and rushes from numerous towns in northeastern Oklahoma enjoyed swimming, games and supper on the lawn. Everyone appeared to have a delightful time and the chapter was especially pleased to have this opportunity.

In November, the members met for a luncheon meeting in the home of Virginia Wilson Lewis, where plans were made for a new schedule of activities and year books were distributed. The chapter made contributions for the Centennial Fund, the Emma Harter Turner Fund and Holt House. Barbara Murray Keeter, Oklahoma B, who has recently moved to Claremore, became a member of our club in the fall.

Rebecca Heritage, daughter of Rebecca Nichols Heritage, was pledged by Oklahoma A in September, and initiated March 10, 1963. Linda Scott, daughter of our president, Wilma Scott, a member of Missouri A, is our other active.

In February, our meeting was a luncheon meeting at the Hotel Will Rogers, where Settlement School was the topic of discussion. Out of this meeting developed plans for a Settlement School tea, which was held March 16, in the lovely country home of our Settlement School Chairman, Virginia Wilson Lewis. This was our first guest day tea and it was a real success.

Our April meeting was held at the Glass House in Vinita, with Jane Gillette Price, as hostess. The History of Pi Beta Phi was ably reviewed by Maureen Allison O'Bannon.

Rushes have been chosen from the area for fall rush, and every effort is being made by our Recommendations Chairman, Janelle Stallings Gordon, to assist the active chapters with rushing, and to interest the outstanding girls from this area in Pi Beta Phi.

DUNCAN

The Duncan Alumnae Club has had an interesting and successful year. Our Program Chairman, Avis Glass, presented the programs in a way that stimulated the interest of the entire club.

We were very pleased to have our President, Nola Sue Beall, and our Panhellenic Representative, Joan Jones, represent us at the National Pi Beta Phi Convention last summer. We enjoyed their reports of Convention and the records, which they played during the meeting, at Van Moore's home in October.

In April, we held a Panhellenic cove party for all senior girls interested in pledging a fraternity. Our Founders' Day celebration, held in April, was a pot luck supper in the home of Phyllis McCasland.

We are very happy to have a new Pi Beta Phi in our community; Jodie Wilson has recently moved to Duncan and joined our club.

NORMAN

The Norman Alumnae Club, under the capable leadership of Marilyn Kunkel, has had a very successful and active year. The first meeting, in October, was held at the chapter house, where we heard a talk on Convention by the chapter president, Louise Trappnell. Several new members were welcomed into the club at this meeting.

In November, we met at the home of Harriet Barbour; this month also found us busily preparing for the Settlement School tea, which was held at the chapter house, November 14. The sale was a success and we were very pleased to have Mrs. Alice Weber Mansfield attend the tea. Our December meeting was held at Betty Symcox's home. A Christmas floral demonstration, by one of the local florists, and a talk on Christmas customs in Sweden, by a foreign exchange student living at the Pi Beta Phi house, highlighted the meeting.

Officers for the coming year were elected at the March meeting, held at the home of Kay Braught, and April found us getting ready for State Day, held April 26, in Oklahoma City. The Norman club, along with Oklahoma City, Shawnee and Chandler, was one of the hostess clubs this year.

We closed our year in May, with a dessert at the home of Marilyn Kunkel. The graduating seniors from the house were our special guests.

HELEN FERGUSON HARPER

OKLAHOMA CITY

Oklahoma City began the year's activities with 164 paid members in the Junior and Senior Alumnae Club. We welcome all Pi Phis to join us when they move to town.

The fall program began with "Dues and Donuts," which combined registration, rush results of our active chapters, and planning for the Settlement School Coffee in October, ably presided by our president, Mrs. Russell E. Caston, Jr.

The Settlement School Coffee and Style Show was held in the lovely home of Mrs. Marcus Cox. The event was open to the public and invitations were sent to alumnae clubs over the state to enjoy a day's shopping in Oklahoma City and attend the coffee. The beautiful clothes and wigs were modeled by our own Pi Beta Phis and made an annual event very special. Mrs. John Brett, Jr. was chairman of this event, and was assisted by Mrs. Robt. C. Saunders and Mrs. Ben T. Head.

We had a joint program with the Oklahoma City Junior Alumnae Club in December and saw a film on Holt House. Our January program was on active-alumnae relations. In February we saw films of the beautiful new home of Oklahoma B in Stillwater.

Spring activities reached a high point April 26-27 when we were hostesses for our annual State Day at the Skirvin Hotel. Arrangements for the program and our Founders' Day celebration were made by Mrs. Herbert Branan, Mrs. Jack London, Jr. and Mrs. Russell Caston, Jr. Oklahoma A and Oklahoma B were special guests.

May found us wrapping up a challenging year with installation of new officers. We have had three joint meetings with the junior alumnae club in the evenings and the remaining meetings have been luncheons in the homes of our members.

MIGNON PUTTY ALBERS

PAULS VALLEY

The Pauls Valley Alumnae Club has been quite active this year, under the able guidance of Bernice Patterson Lindsey, our president. Although our membership is not large, we meet the first Monday of every other month, with an average of eight members present.

We are very proud to have one of our members, Helen Patchell

Moody, as Nu North Alumnae Province President this year. Jane Bowman Blanton has been as active member of the House Corporation of Oklahoma A and State Alumnae Rush Chairman for District Seven of Oklahoma.

Noel Blake Hart, daughter of Mary Wirt Head Hart, was pledged to Oklahoma A, in September and was initiated March 10, 1963.

Mrs. Blanton, Mrs. Moody and Mrs. Lindsey went to Norman for a joint meeting of the Oklahoma Alumnae Clubs, to meet with Alice Weber Mansfield, Grand President, Mrs. Lindsey and Mrs. Hart also went to Norman for a meeting of representatives of other state alumnae clubs and the Oklahoma A actives, to discuss the new state rush rules for Oklahoma A. Another group went to Ardmore for a Settlement School tea, sponsored by the Ardmore Almora Alumnae Club.

On March 1, the members of our club were hostesses to a luncheon, in the home of Carene Ambrister Clark, honoring one of our former members, Betty Blanton, who became the bride of Tom Moore, of Houston, Texas, on March 2, 1963.

Our Pi Beta Phi programs this year have been both entertaining and enlightening. We are looking forward to continued interest and activity from our club next year.

PONCA CITY-KAY COUNTY

The completion of the new Oklahoma B chapter house has been of considerable interest to Pi Beta Phis in this area. Iva Allspaugh served on the planning board and helped arrange a house warming party, in August, which was well attended by members of our club.

Jerry McFadden has ably directed the year's activities, which began with a buffet supper in Mable Gibson's home. It was a privilege to have Virginia Harsh bring us a first hand report of Convention.

The Settlement School meeting was held at Dorothy McCoy's home and closed with a white elephant sale, which provided lots of fun. The March meeting, in Blackwell, featured a spring hat show by a local store, with five members serving as models. Plans for attending State Day, in April, were made and we were pleased to have a member of our club on the slate of officers for the coming year.

Founders' Day was observed at a luncheon, in the newly remodeled country club, followed by an afternoon of bridge.

Our June meeting is one that we all look forward to, when a morning coffee is the occasion for reports of campus activities by members from both active chapters. Summer rush plans are also prepared.

Ponca City-Kay County Club has one hundred percent membership in the local Panhellenic and assisted in the Heart Fund Drive. Martha Jones served the group this year, as vice president.

This spring, we will again sponsor an award to the outstanding sophomore student in each of the state chapters.

ELLA MERRY HAYMAN

STILLWATER

The Stillwater Alumnae Club has been particularly active and enthusiastic, under the guidance of Hattie Hayman Graham. Just before rush week started at Oklahoma State University and before the active Oklahoma B's moved into their new home, the club participated in a get together and dedication of the new house, with alumnae from all over the state. Particular recognition went to Frances Corbin Bennett and her committee for the work that they had done in making this new home a reality. Members of the corporation board, along with Frances Bennett, are: Mary Sue Thomas Vaughn, Cynthia Diggs Berry, Ruth Goodholm Morgan, Jane Hinds Harris and Helen Sharpe Foster.

The first regular meeting of the year included a Convention report, by Ruth Sundell Orr. A patio party was held in September, at the home of Helen Pulver Stockard. The theme of this meeting was Citizenship. A dessert for the new pledges was held in October, at the home of Susan Hurt Wilham. Jerry Fruin Beltz was in charge of entertainment, which included games and skits. A serenade by members of the active chapter was a "surprise" for the pledges. In October, also, the alumnae, assisted by the active chapter, held an open house, at the chapter house, for their many friends. November 8 was the date of the annual Arrow Craft sale and tea, with Jody Hart Bernhardt in charge. The Christmas party was held in the home of Ruth Orr, with members bringing canned goods for a basket for needy families, as well as the annual white elephant exchange.

Joyce Perdue Bery was hostess for the group, in January. When the guest speaker was Dean Zelma Patchin, Dean of Women at Oklahoma State University. On March 18, the home of Harriet Arrington Griffith was the setting for a party for seniors and for election of officers. In April, the Founders' Day observance was held, at the home of Barbara Thomas Simank, with pictures from Holt House being shown. Joan Minor Roderick was hostess for the May meeting, which included installation of officers and discussion of plans for the coming year.

JEAN LOVE POPE

TULSA

The Tulsa Alumnae Club, Senior Group, under the capable and efficient leadership of their President, Delores Huffman McKee, had an interesting and very profitable year. The junior group was ably led by their President, Sylvia Seay Dean.

A registration meeting in September, at the home of Marian Holden Mason, served as a welcome to all members and the beginning of our scheduled activities.

In October, a joint supper meeting of the senior and junior groups was held and we enjoyed the interesting report from our Convention Delegate and a report from our rush chairman.

The club's money making project for the year was the outstanding "Carousel" held in November. The Carousel was most successful due to the senior and junior club members sharing their talents and the numerous hours spent on this project. The members started working last spring on this great project and it offered the members the opportunity for closer contact with each other and a wonderful way to become better acquainted. The club presented a check to the Sunnyside School for the mentally retarded and it was most heartwarming to be able to help the school.

At the January meeting we had an informative talk by Chet Heath, who is with the Better Business Bureau of Tulsa.

In February, we were pleased to have the junior group join us for a dinner meeting and book review.

The March meeting was devoted to Settlement School program and election of officers.

The Tulsa Alumnae Club wound up their year with a cooky-shine in May and a picnic in June.

The year has been a busy and rewarding one and we are looking forward to our next year of closer fellowship in Pi Beta Phi.

ABILENE

The Abilene Alumnae Club began its year in September, at which time our club was most delighted to learn that one of our members, Mary Pittman Minter, had been selected to be Nu South Alumnae Province President. She is one of the charter members of this alumnae club, and Abilene feels quite honored and proud to have a province officer from our club.

We had a most interesting program at our September meeting, given by a physical therapist from the West Texas Rehabilitation Center for Physically Handicapped here in Abilene. We were very inspired to contribute some of our time and money to this center.

Our club was delighted to hear, at our October meeting, of our two new pledges at Texas A., one of whom was the daughter of our new alumnae province president!

In October, we had a Settlement School sale and tea, at the lovely home of a Pi Beta Phi mother, who graciously offered her home for the occasion. We had a very successful sale of Arrow Craft articles, and we had a bake sale, as a sideline, to raise money for our club.

In November, we had a covered dish luncheon before our business meeting. We enjoy these informal luncheons, as it gives everyone a chance to visit leisurely before the meeting begins. We have found that our attendance is larger at these luncheon meetings. At this meeting, it was announced that one of our legacies, Linda Heidebrecht, had been initiated at Colorado P.

Our February meeting was devoted to general business; and in March we elected our new officers for the coming year. We were also delighted to hear about the initiation of another legacy, Martha Minter, at Texas A.

We held our annual luncheon meeting at the Abilene Country Club, in April, in honor of Founders' Day, with an excellent program and installation of officers.

The May meeting was concerned with discussion of prospective rushees and plans for rush next fall.

LOIS AGNOR SMITH

ALBUQUERQUE

Albuquerque alumnae have had a busy year and are already making plans for next year's projects. In September, before the start of rush, the actives invited us to a mock rush. They entertained us with their skits and demonstrated their rushing system for us. October was highlighted with a "Pi Nite," held at the chapter house, with actives and alumnae attending. We saw slides of Settlement School and were very fortunate to have a first hand description of the school and its work from Betty Casteel, who had won our Arrowcraft scholarship to the school for the previous summer session. This was a perfect prelude to our Settlement School tea and Arrowcraft sale, which was held in November, and was, as always, a big success.

Our bridge marathon is one of our large money making projects. It started in September, with foursomes playing each month. It will end in May, with a party at the chapter house. Our rummage sales, which we hold several times a year, are another successful money raising project. We are also selling personalized and recipe post cards.

In December, we had a lovely Christmas party, at the home of Mrs. D. F. Boyd. February was a busy month. At our regular meeting, we had a white elephant auction, to finance books for a library at the chapter house, while others donated books to our cause. Mrs. Marshall Farris gave the chapter an entire set of encyclopedias. Another event of February was a sewing party, at the home of Mrs. Robert Hopewell, for the purpose of making new initiation robes for the actives.

This year we started a new custom, so that we may become better acquainted with our active chapter. Each week, two alumnae members attend chapter dinner at the house. It has been quite successful and is greatly enjoyed by all.

We were very excited about our spring project, a table setting, using Arrowcraft linens which was entered in the Albuquerque Assistance League's "Tables Extraordinaire."

In March, we had another "Pi Nite," with the actives, to honor Mrs. S. E. Kyle, National Director of Programs. Our Founders' Day was celebrated on April 27, with a luncheon. Actives participated in the candlelighting ceremony and presented a skit for entertainment.

We are busy making plans for a style show of western fashions, to be shown in the fall.

CAROLYN EVANS DILL

ARDMORE

The Ardmore Club has had a pleasant and successful year. Mary Machen Askew is our president. Attendance and cooperation have been excellent.

Through the last few years we have grown and grown and find that our constitution just does not fit any more. After all, we are now forty-six years old and a new look is probably long overdue. The matter is under consideration, with a view toward revision. Oklahoma has a new regional rush plan, with Margaret Cohenous as chairman for this area.

Our club opened its year's program with a registration coffee. The Settlement School sale followed. Elise Chapman opened her home for this event, which was a real success. We netted our greatest capital gain in several years.

During the Christmas holidays, we sponsored a rush party, which was enjoyed by all present.

The election of officers was fairly painless, considering how modest nearly all Pi Beta Phis are about holding office.

Founders' Day and the installation of officers closed our regular meetings for the year.

ANTOINETTE HOLLINGSWORTH

AUSTIN

The Austin Alumnae Club opened its program in October at the home of the President, La Trelle Berkman, with the executive board acting as co-hostesses. Peggy Miles gave the highlights of National Convention, held in Washington, D.C. Mary Muse reported on the outcome of rush week, announcing fifty new pledges for Texas A. Lillian Chiles gave a progress report on funds for the new wing of Texas A's chapter house. A total of $140,000 has been raised, with $23,000 of this amount being contributed by Austin.

A tea honoring the new pledge class and the new house mother, Mrs. Wootton, was given in late October, under the excellent guidance of Virginia Horton.

Settlement School slides were shown at the February meeting, with comments by Lucille Avery. It was announced that the House Corporation Board for Texas A. had been most cooperative in agreeing to extend their term of office for an extra year, since the active chapter is in the middle of an important building program.

For several years now our major money making project has been a spring garden pilgrimage. As always, it was both colorful and profitable. This year it was held in April.

On April 25, the Founders' Day banquet was celebrated with the active chapter at Green Pastures. A program on early history of Pi Beta Phi provided an interesting evening.

The installation of new officers, at the May meeting, brought our year to a close.

JEANNE SCHNEIDER PARK

BRAZOS VALLEY

The year began brightly, in enthusiasm over our two new pledges from Bryan, and the entertaining and glowing report from Convention, brought home by our representative, Mary Katherine Upchurch. It is good to be reminded that we are a part of the mainstream of Pi Beta Phi activities and share such a large community of interest with so many others.

Our small and scattered membership has been hit particularly hard this year by the unusually severe winter weather in Texas. However, we have met several times. In December, the club arranged for a tea honoring our actives and their mothers. Our President, Kate Bernath, graciously entertained the group at her home in Bryan. It was the first opportunity some of us had had to meet girls from our neighboring towns, who are now wearing Pi Beta Phi Arrows.

Our officers serve for two years and a new slate will take over in May. They were elected in March. We express our thanks to those who have kept the club running for the past two years.

MARTHA JAMES PARTEN

CORPUS CHRISTI

Beautiful, balmy Corpus Christi, Texas, was the scene of a marvelous year for our Pi Phi Alumnae Club. September found the Pi Phis gathered for luncheon in the Town Club to hear a Convention report by our President, Anne Cain. We were extremely pleased to hear that we have three lovely new Pi Phi pledges; Susan Mattizza at Texas Alpha in Austin, Dawn Gandy at Texas Delta in Fort Worth and Nancy Harper at New Mexico Alpha in Albuquerque.

The annual "Men's Night" followed in October, the highlight of which was a highly successful White Elephant sale. Each member brought a covered dish, a white elephant (gift-wrapped to conceal contents) and a husband, which combined to make a memorable evening.

An extremely interesting meeting was planned for us in January, when our Vice President and Program Chairman, Mary Crawford, secured as guest speaker an expert in the art of silk-screen printing. He demonstrated the process, displayed many beautiful prints which he has made and then gave one of these prints as a door prize.

February brought our regular meeting with election of officers for next year, as well as a surprise baby shower for our president, Anne Cain. To this meeting, several members wore clothes worn by them in the year in which they went through rush, and the combination of events provided much excitement and hilarity.

New officers elected for 1963-1964 include: President, Lucita Thornton Darden (Mrs. William H.); Vice-president, Alice Ann Peters Fischer (Mrs. Jerry); Secretary, Ollie Knight Jackson (Mrs. Leslie); and Treasurer, Mattie Ann Reistle Clark (Mrs. James Tracy).

To round off the year, a cooky-shine is planned for March, an informal luncheon and Founders' Day program in the home of Helen Tutt in Taft, Texas, for April, and a rush meeting in June, with our new initiates as honored guests.

LUCITA THORNTON DARDEN

DALLAS

The Dallas Alumnae Club was extremely fortunate in having Elwyn Bagwell as president again this year. Her report on Convention was so graphic and interesting it made us feel we were there, and proud to be Pi Beta Phi.

Two hundred and five attended the September joint meeting. The program was "A Panel Discussion on Rush," by Louise Ingraham. During the fall and winter, we had an interesting variety of programs: a style show, entitled, "Fashions First," ably presented by Mary Nash, one of our own Texas Pi Beta Phi; "This is Where It All Started," a clever skit, plus a film, on Holt House; and a sobering and timely talk on "Youth," by Reverend Tom Shipp.

Few people travel more extensively than the Edwin Foscuers; each year they share with us their beautiful color slides taken during their summer travels. "Terra Australis," was their theme this year, with an interesting and informative commentary by Dr. Foscuere, who is a loyal Pi Beta Phi husband.

Our money raising project, which we have every two years, was held in March. It was a "Treasures for Trifles" sale. It was well attended and very profitable.

A tea, at the chapter house, honored Mrs. Evelyn Peters Kyle, National Director of Programs. Representatives from all women's fraternities, Panhellenic, faculty and all housemothers were invited.

We celebrated Founders' Day with a birthday party theme, climaxing it with a huge birthday cake ablaze with candles.

EAST TEXAS

The East Texas Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi, with a membership of fifteen, was organized six years ago. It was the first alumnae fraternity group to organize a club in East Texas and is made up of members from Longview, Henderson and Pittsburg, Texas.

The first business meeting of the year was held in October, at the home of our President, Mrs. A. C. Stevens, of Longview. Members gathered to hear the report of the recommendations committee concerning rush activities and to discuss plans for the coming year.

The January and March meetings were devoted to club business and interesting programs on the Settlement School and Pi Beta Phi History were enjoyed by the members present.

In April, our members joined with members in our area to celebrate Founders' Day. The meeting and luncheon were held at the Pinecrest Country Club in Longview. The May meeting was devoted to installation of new officers and unfinished business.

We are sorry to have lost three outstanding members of our alumnae club: Sicily Sterling Suttle, Texas B, and Ann Houston Roberts, Texas A, who have moved to Houston, Texas; and Helen Powell Milton, Colorado A, who has moved to New York.

FLORENCE FRANCIS STEVENS

EL PASO

The El Paso Alumnae Club, under the capable leadership of Elinor Evans, began the year in August, with a morning coffee and discussion of rush. Two members from the club, Elinor Evans and Louise Kemp, had attended Convention and they gave an entertaining account of their activities while in Washington, D.C.

In September, an evening meeting was held, following a supper, in order that the working members could attend. The Settlement School Coffee was held, in the very lovely home of Barbara McGovern, in November. It has become a much anticipated event for both members and guests, and the sales results were excellent.

At Christmas time the actives, pledges and their mothers were honored at a luncheon held in the home of Margie Ryan. It has been the annual custom of the club to donate $50 to the Texas State Home for the Mentally Retarded in December.

The April luncheon meeting was highlighted by having Mrs. Stanley Kyle, Director of Programs, as guest of honor. The final gathering in May was a dinner party entertaining husbands and escorts of members, which brought to a close another enjoyable and successful year.

NANCY ALLNUTT DURAN

HOUSTON

The Houston Alumnae Club has had a successful and interesting year, under the capable guidance of Mary Jane Hale, Houston's Junior Professionals organized a special group, with Jean Rogers as its first president. This has been enthusiastically attended and serves a real purpose for Houston's young Pi Beta Phi who work during the daytime.

Two profitable money making projects were held this past season. An entertaining book review luncheon, in November, attracted 250 people. The junior alumnae group, with Nancy Wood as president, held a children's style show, with members' children modeling. Young and old alike enjoyed this profitable venture, with the proceeds going to the Christmas Clearing Bureau. December found philanthropic Pi Beta Phi busily engaged in their annual project of supplying volunteers for the Christmas Clearing Bureau, a United Fund Agency.

The programs for the meetings have been varied and stimulating. In September, Mary Jane Hale gave an inspiring account of Convention, and Carolyn Clarke reported on the recommendations committee's work during the summer and read the outstanding pledge list of Houston girls at several colleges.

Big game hunting, with all its wonders, was the subject of the October meeting, when Betty Ann Bentsen showed a film taken when she and her husband were on a Safari in Africa. Houston has become increasingly space conscious with the relocation of NASA. In January, Mrs. Grace Winn, secretary of Colonel Powers of NASA, made a most interesting talk giving general information about the Manned Space Center, as well as engaging facts concerning the astronauts who are stationed in Houston.

The traditional Christmas tea, at the home of Mrs. Benjamin Anderson, was especially lovely this year and was enjoyed by actives, pledges and their mothers. Everyone has fun and looks forward to Cooky-shine each year. This year it was held during February, in Elva Josey's beautiful home. Buffet supper was served and the two junior groups gave a lively, humorous skit.

In May alumnae club members and their escorts enjoyed a dinner, at the Briar Club, paying special tribute to the new officers.

EMILY ANN FINCH MCKAY

LUBBOCK

The Lubbock Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club has had a very interesting year, under the capable leadership of Virginia Campbell. We opened our alumnae club year and closed the school year 1961-62 with a swimming party, the last of May, with the graduating seniors of Texas I as our guests, at the home of Bernice Spears. Our summer was highlighted by the complete renovation of the active chapter's lodge and many of the alumnae spent untold hours working and supervising the redecoration and refurbishing processes. In August, just before the girls returned, we had an open house at the lodge, so that all alumnae and interested friends could see the finished results of the summer's work. This open house got us all together again and ready for our year's activities.

In September, during the week prior to rush, we had our annual spaghetti supper for the actives, at Bernice Spears' home. The actives presented a skit representing some of their rush party skits and ideas. After rush was over, the mothers, patronesses and alumnae entertained the new pledges at the lodge, with a hot dog supper, the night the girls received their bids. Our monthly meeting, in September, at Dorothy Jennings' home, was highlighted by an interesting report, by Virginia Campbell, on actions taken and some of the activities of the convention in Washington.

In October, the alumnae Club had a joint luncheon meeting with the patroness and mothers' club, at the Woman's Club. The program was a report of the honors and activities of the Texas I chapter, by Betsy Baker, the president, and several humorous readings by Darlene Hunter, one of the pledges. Early in November, we had a party for our pledge little sisters and their active big sisters, with the alumnae presenting a comic program on rush. Our regular November meeting, at the home of Helen Fulgham, was highlighted by the pledge class of Texas I presenting the skit that they had given for Club Scarlet on the campus. Since the girls had won first place with the skit, it was doubly interesting and humorous to us.

In December, the patroness and mothers' club entertained the alumnae and the actives of Texas I with a lovely holiday tea. The program for our January meeting, held at Betty Weaver's home, was Barbara McDougal's lively review of Grace Coolidge and Her Era. Most of us left the meeting that night promising ourselves that we would read the book in the near future.

Early in February, using a Valentine theme, we had our annual benefit bridge in the Texas Tech Student Union. Our meeting in February, at Annise Reynolds' home, was spent discussing projects for the future and coming events on the Lubbock City Panhellenic calendar. We were fortunate in early March to have a visit with Evelyn Kyle, Director of Programs, who was visiting the active chapter.

The March meeting was the annual election of officers, which was held in Ruth Samuel's new home. Our regular April meeting was the celebration of Founders' Day, at the Woman's Club, with the Texas I' actives and new initiates, at which time, the Lubbock Alumnae Club presented its annual gift to Texas I'.

In May, our gratifying year closed, with an eye to the upcoming year.

MIDLAND

The Midland Alumnae Club was delighted to have a visit from Mrs. Reginald Brack, Sr., Province Alumnae President, to get our year off to a good start. She was present for our installation of officers, with Mrs. Malcolm McDonnold as president.

Our Founders' Day program was entitled, "Silhouettes," including a silhouette of Jennie Nicol, and a story of her life. The members' silhouettes were then shown, having been made upon arrival, and taken home for favors.

Pi Beta Phi Alumnae participated in a Panhellenic Forum, for graduating seniors, in April and June, at coke parties. We are happy to have seven new pledges this year.

Mrs. Sam Cobb represented our club at the National Convention in Washington, D.C. and shared her wonderful experiences with us, at the September meeting.

Following a very successful Arrowcraft and bake sale in the fall, at Christmas, we entertained our actives, pledges and their mothers, with a coffee. This is a wonderful way to become better acquainted with the girls and their mothers.

One of the charities we support is the Community Ambassador Program. This year the Ambassador from Midland went to Turkey. She gave us a very interesting program, including slides.

At the February meeting, we had a report on another of our charities, The High Sky Girls' Ranch, by Mrs. Richard Saxe, who is on the board of the home. The year ended with this meeting and the election of new officers.

CAROL KING CRAIG

PAMPA

On June 19, 1962, the Pampa Alumnae Club met for an organizational meeting, in the home of Mrs. Nancy Hughston Watts. Officers were elected and dues were submitted to National for a charter, with the signatures of twelve members. Our next meeting was devoted to active chapter interest and presentation of the chapter.

At our September meeting, we adopted the alumnae club constitution and discussed the constitution and history of Pi Beta Phi. Plans were made for a Settlement School sale. This sale was held in the Lovett Memorial Library, on October 12.

We met February 6, 1963, in the home of Mrs. Eleanor Adams Braly, and elected officers for this year. On March 3, we were cohostesses with Delta Delta Delta and Alpha Delta Pi for an organizational tea for city Panhellenic.

ANN SIDWELL FATHEREE

The Tyler Alumnae Club has enjoyed a very happy and successful year, under the leadership of Julia Faye McMurrey, Texas A. We have a membership of fifty active alumnae.

Our June business meeting was held in the home of our president. We were all alerted to the strict, fast changing rush regulations and discussed the qualifications of the rushees. We were thrilled to send Mary Frances Clark, as our delegate, to the National Pi Beta Phi Convention, in Washington, D.C., later in the month.

Engraved silver trays, bearing our alumnae club name and their pledge date, were presented to our new pledges, in September.

In December, we choose delegates for the newly formed Panhellenic group here. Mary Frances Clark will be our representative and Carol Slitt will be alternate.

Our annual Christmas tea was held in the home of Mrs. Frank Speller, honoring our new pledges, Lousanne Wise, Texas A, and Cindy Lu Price, Texas B. Mothers of the pledges and actives home for the holidays were special guests at this festive occasion.

The February meeting was highlighted by a clever skit on Settlement School.

Again, in March, we had our tasting luncheon, at Janet Russell's lake home. We had fun sampling each other's specialties and exchanging recipes.

We closed the year with our Founders' Day luncheon in April, and the installation of new officers.

ELEANOR SCARBOROUGH

WACO

The Waco Alumnae Club recently organized a recommendations committee for the purpose of screening proposed Pi Beta Phi rushees. Chairman Nell Miller, Jean McReynolds and Helen Murchison will present committee decisions at the June meeting.

Waco now has a Military Panhellenic Club, composed of Connelly Air Force Base and the Twelfth Air Force Pi Beta Phi's. The club has a delegate to Waco Panhellenic, Mrs. M. F. Carothers. Its organization will aid us concerning rushees who are daughters of the military group.

Waco is proud to have five new pledges this year, as we certainly succeeded in our rush quota. Waco High School held a Panhellenic Forum the Monday after Easter, which served as our rush program.

Our Founders' Day luncheon was held on April 28, at the Hamilton House, and was a lovely, well attended affair.

SARA FENTRESS HUMPHREYS

WICHITA FALLS

The Wichita Falls Alumnae Club has enjoyed a year of increased interest and a larger membership than ever before. We are proud to report we have forty-nine paid active members.

Since all rushing is confined to one large Panhellenic party in June, alumnae and actives participated in this activity. Our models in the style show, presented for prospective rushees, were: Susan Anderson and Susan Stayton, Texas A, and Rebecca Thompson, Texas B.

At the first meeting in October, Josephine Sullivan Stayton was elected president to fill the vacancy, when Nancy Jones Boatman moved out of the city. At this meeting, donations were voted for Settlement School, Holt House and the Emma Harper Turner Fund.

Our Christmas party was a mother-daughter coffee, held in the lovely home of Nell Montague Elder. New pledges and actives were honored at this time, and we had a wonderful get together, with toddlers to teenagers among the guests.

Our January meeting featured a most interesting program, given by Kittie Jackson Norwood, on Holt House. We also made plans to give a scholarship at Midwestern University to some deserving high school girl.

The March meeting was devoted to election of officers and plans for the remainder of the year.

April Founders' Day meeting was held at the Woman's Forum and new officers for the next year were installed. A program on the history and early years of our founders was given, which gave everyone a closer and more personal feeling about the wonderful women who founded Pi Beta Phi.

Renewed interests, renewed friendships and "the tie that binds," seem to go on and on. It is with renewed anticipation that we look forward to another year of alumnae club work, under the capable guidance of our new president, Mary Honour Henry Wolverton.

XI PROVINCE

CASPER

The Casper Alumnae Club began its year's activities under the able leadership of Nadine Zimmerman. The entire group congratulated Gladys Phillips Bon upon her reelection to the office of Alumnae Province President. Jean Freeman and Gladys Bon presented an interesting program covering the highlights of the National Convention.

Carla Greenlee distributed the attractive yearbooks that she and her committee so earnestly worked on. A rather new project, the annual yearbook has been a boon to the interest and knowledge of local Pi Beta Phi Alumnae.

The Settlement School Tea, held at the home of Elaine Walker, was a success. Many of the members worked hard and diligently on the orders and sales.

During the month of December, the group had its annual Christmas party at which decorations were exchanged. Over the holiday vacation, alumnae, actives, pledges and their mothers were entertained at a delightful coffee.

As a fund raising project, the group sold tickets to the Casper College play, "Critic's Choice."

Three of the local members were honored at the Founders' Day Program as Golden Arrow Members. They were: Mrs. Ethel Covert, Mrs. Stella Wheeler, and Mrs. Tessa Schulte.

CHEYENNE

The Cheyenne Alumnae Club started its busy year by welcoming six new members, at the September rush meeting. Several of the actives from Wyoming A also attended. A very successful rummage sale was held in October. In November, the Club's president, Mrs. George Cox gave a delightful report on the National Pi Beta Phi Convention, which she attended in Washington, D.C., last June. At this meeting, a new project was initiated, which proved to be quite popular. A raffle was held at each meeting for an Arrowcraft item and the money collected was put in the Centennial fund. Arrowcraft goods were also made available for sale during the year.

The committee for the "Arrow Ball" met with the chairman, Mrs. James Spracklen, in January, to plan the annual dinner dance, which was held on February 16. The lovely heart and arrow decorations were made under the direction of Mrs. Gene Lenz, a new member of the club. The Cheyenne pledges from Wyoming A and Pi Beta Phi chapters in neighboring states were the honored guests. In addition, there were about twenty-five actives and their dates from Wyoming A, who came from Laramie.

The mothers' club entertained the alumnae club, at a beautiful tea, in March and Founders' Day was celebrated at the April meeting. The year was concluded with the Cooky-shine and installation of new officers, in May.

DENVER SENIOR

A happy year has drawn to a close for the Denver Alumnae Club. Senior. The group has been ably led by Mary Nordstrom, and she and her officers have had the assistance of outstanding committees.

The joint meeting with the junior division of the club was a supper held at the chapter house of Colorado B, in February, with the actives attending the program that followed a brief business session. Except for this occasion and Founders' Day, in Boulder, the seniors have met in private homes all year.

Reports of Convention opened the club season, in September, followed by news of pledging in the three Colorado chapters, at the October gathering. The annual Settlement School tea, in November, was successful not only because of the number of items sold and their excellence, but also because it was a beautiful party.

Outside speakers on travel, flower and leaf arrangement, "The Voice of Youth," and a trio of musicians, at the Christmas meeting, furnished the programs.

Again the bridge tournament was popular with participants and remunerative to the club. Each member, of the thirty-six couples taking part, paid $9.00 into the club treasury for the fun of playing eight times, October through May. Members from the senior and junior groups met in these contests, widening acquaintance and increasing understanding.

The annual fashion show was presented, in March, after a luncheon at Cherry Hills Country Club, with Pi Beta Phis modeling and commenting on costumes. Afterward, when complimented, the owner of the store giving the show said that she had never worked with such fine people. This affair and the bridge tournament were the main means of raising money. The Denver seniors contributed to all national Pi Beta Phi projects, to one Colorado chapter and locally to the Needlework Guild and Craig Rehabilitation Hospital.

DENVER JUNIOR

The Denver Junior Alumnae Club has had a very busy, but extremely enjoyable year. Under the leadership of our President, Barbara Smith Culman, our activities began in August. Using an idea of our Ways and Means Chairman, Nancy Dickerson Medsker, we held two very successful used book sales. This was a unique project, but very rewarding, in that most of the projects will be donated to the Craig Rehabilitation Center in Denver, our local philanthropy.

Our first meeting, in September, was held at the Denver University chapter house. We welcomed many new members, heard rushing reports of Σ Province and listened as our president told us of her experiences at the National Convention. Our monthly meetings were useful and interesting, as planned by Martha Reed Bushey, Program Chairman.

We heard a doctor, from Craig Rehabilitation Hospital, tell about his work and their rehabilitation program. We learned about making attractive and different Christmas decorations and how to make our own spring hats. We listened as one of our own members, Carol Bucklin Brown, an expert in interior design, spoke to us about her field. We ended the year with installation of officers and a dinner and bridge fun night in May.

In February, we had our annual dinner with the senior alumnae in the Denver area. We were entertained by the Colorado B Actives and "The Hustlers," a folk singing group from Colorado University. We assisted the senior group, as they gave a most successful Settlement School tea, and in April announced the winners of our second annual bridge marathon. During the spring, many of us attended the Founders' Day luncheon and entertained our husbands at a special party.

This year was a very busy one indeed, as our alumnae group experienced greater growth than at any time previously, which demonstrates more convincingly than ever that our interest and loyalty to Pi Beta Phi does not end with our college days.

BELLEVUE EASTSIDE

The Eastside Alumnae Club opened the calendar year with a buffet luncheon at the home of Margaret Barton Ressa. The newly elected President, Elizabeth Carlson Finch, introduced the officers and committee chairmen. Plans for the ensuing year were outlined briefly. The club will again cooperate with the East side Panhellenic in providing a scholarship for an Eastside High School graduate. Plans were formulated to increase the Scholarship Fund available to outstanding University of Washington Pi Beta Phi actives.

In November, a most successful Settlement School sale was held under the chairmanship of Sally Talbert Thompson.

The December meeting, at the home of our president, made all more anxious for the Christmas season to arrive. Members demonstrated new decorating ideas and exchanged recipes for Christmas cookies and candies.

In January, the Eastside Alumnae Club, joined with the Seattle Alumnae Club, in sponsoring a musical tea and open house, so all could visit the newly redecorated Pi Beta Phi House on the University of Washington campus.

The regular meeting in January, at the home of Marilyn Tagholm Berastrom, offered an opportunity to travel around the world, through slides shown by Cozette Henry Miller.

Barbara Meston Stuart opened her lovely home for a pot luck dinner in February. The recipient of the Eastside Scholarship Fund was an honored guest, as was Aileen Welgan, Seattle Alumnae Club President who told of preConvention plans.

The Overlake Golf and Country Club was the scene of a guest luncheon held in March.

All Seattle area alumnae joined with the Pi Beta Phi members to celebrate Founders' Day in April.

The year was closed with an interesting meeting held with the actives at the chapter house.

BOISE

The Boise Alumnae Club began a most interesting year, under the leadership of Mary East Runyan. The month of August found the members entertaining the Boise actives at a pot luck dinner. Rushing was discussed and our president gave a most delightful report on Convention.

The annual rummage sale was held in October and our monthly bridge is in its second year and going strong. The Boise Alumnae Club has been honored with some fine programs this year, with speakers from the Children's Home and the Idaho State Department of Development and Commerce. At our December meeting, a cancer film was shown and a prominent Boise physician answered our many questions.

The holiday season was topped off by the traditional Christmas Luncheon, with the area actives and visiting alumnae as our guests. This luncheon was the largest held in Boise and such a wonderful reunion for many.

Pi Beta Phi again took part in a delicious tasting luncheon, sponsored by the Panhellenic, to raise money for the scholarship fund. This was the third year of the luncheon and it is proving to be very successful. Many Pi Beta Phi alumnae have been active in the Panhellenic Bowling League.

Our official year ended with our Founders' Day Luncheon and the installation of officers.

EUGENE

The Eugene Alumnae Club, with forty-six paid members, began its meeting in September, under the leadership of Susie Barrett Prescott. Installation of officers and announcement of telephone committee members was on the agenda. A decision was made to change the annual Settlement School sale and tea to a biannual event. Members volunteered to help the active chapter with fall rush.

Two guests from Oregon A Chapter attended the October meeting to report on fall rush and chapter activities.

On October 10, 1962, alumnae members attended a dessert and reception held at the chapter house for Lola Story Finch, president in charge of active chapters for Omicron Province.

October 30, 1962, marked the birthday celebration of the Oregon A Chapter. Alumnae were guests.

November's meeting was highlighted by attendance of pledges from the active chapter. They entertained with a style show, modeling their own clothes and singing the original class song, which had been created for their chapter birthday party in October.

Dinner and the annual Christmas bazaar made up the December meeting. Each member donated baked goods, toys, and handmade clothing, which were auctioned. Proceeds of $45.00 were put into the club's treasury.

During January, Hope Hughes Pressman presided at a City Panhellenic banquet with Dr. Arthur S. Flemming, President of the University of Oregon. The purpose was to discuss campus and fraternity relations.

Club President, Susie Barrett Prescott, moved from Eugene in January. Kay Macy Sogge, Vice President, took over for the remainder of the year.

A coffee with the $\Delta\Delta\Delta$ Alumnae Club was held in February. Each member donated \$1.00 for the City Panhellenic Scholarship Fund.

The election of officers was held in March. A foreign student spoke to the club in April. And, the active chapter seniors attended our final May meeting for the celebration of Founders' Day.

EVERETT

Our first meeting this year combined a most enthusiastic report of Convention, by Sue Berger of Everett, President of Washington B, with our rushing recommendations.

In November, we made arrangements and were oriented with Arrowcraft merchandise for our December sale. This was more successful than usual, assuring that our gift to the school will not fall below the $150 we have given for several years. Our chairman maintains a year round shop in her home and does well with birthday and wedding presents.

During the Christmas holidays, we repeated the brunch for actives home from Washington A, Washington B, and Oregon A. Our history and constitution study in February proved more fun than factual, and will probably result in greater ARROW reading interest!

In March, we were delighted to meet our new Province Alumnae President, Sue Hopwood of Portland, who was our guest for luncheon at the Cascade Club, with Marjorie Wood Williams as hostess. She brought us up to date with recent fraternity developments and gave assignments to be done for Convention in Victoria in '64.

Though our Founders' dinner last year at a dinner house was very lovely, we decided to accept Sarah Hall's generous invitation to have a more informal buffet in her home.

The Everett club is composed of members from many places in Snohomish County, and is about equally divided between working gals and those who work at home! They are represented in many civic activities, with Nancy Mitchell's job as president of Visiting Nurses a big challenge this year because of the withdrawal of some state support for the program.

We do hope you will all plan to be in Victoria in '64, for we'll be looking for you!

MEDFORD

The year for the Medford, Oregon, Alumnae Club began with a very successful brunch, in the Rogue Valley Country Club, to celebrate Founders' Day. We retained the same officers for a second year: President, Pat Massinger; Vice President, Janeen Johnson; Secretary, Janeth Trowbridge; and newly elected Treasurer and Panhellenic Delegate, Bev Buffington.

Our summer event was a patio dinner, on August 9. Each year we have our actives as guests at this party and meeting. We conducted our pre-rush business and then enjoyed hearing what the "younger half" had been doing during the year.

We tried something quite unusual for our fall meeting, we invited our husbands. They sang "Ring Ching Ching" for us! Janeen Johnson and her husband, Earl, showed their sound and color movie, "Volkswagon Safari in Africa." This meeting was held October 30, at the home of Lylyth Bush. We combined Halloween with this exceptionally fine program and all of us would gladly repeat the evening.

It is now time to begin another year of Pi Beta Phi association and friendship. At each meeting we contribute all our small change, which will be our Centennial Fund contribution.

SEATTLE

A "Parents Reception" for the pledges launched the year's activities for the Seattle Alumnae Club. The Queen Anne-Magnolia Area Group planned and provided refreshments for this September event, at the chapter house.

Our first meeting in October combined a Pi Beta Phi Association meeting, at which a report was given on the remodeling of the chapter house; a "meet the pledges evening," at which the pledges serenaded the alumnae; and Aileen Welgan, our president, and Susan Lund, chapter president "Conversing on Convention."

The annual Settlement School sale and luncheon, at the home of Mrs. Walter Williams, was again very successful, thanks to Peg Tennant, Dorothy Eckmann and Nora Raymond.

During the months of October and November, a bridge tournament was held, which we hope to repeat as a money making project. Eva Proby and Gertrude Bronson were in charge of planning. As a result of this project, we were able to give the Pi Beta Phi Association a $350.00 gift to be used toward remodeling the chapter house.

One of our most notable events was the lovely musical tea, held January 9, to give Pi Beta Phi and their friends an opportunity to view our newly remodeled and beautiful chapter house. Judy Sutherland and Helen Kampenborg capably handled the planning of the tea and our talented actives provided the music.

Susan Hopwood, Alumnae Province President, visited us at the March meeting, at Agnes Stipp's home. Election of officers was held and the North End Area Group provided delightful refreshments.

In April, we once again celebrated Founders' Day with the actives and the Bellevue Alumnae Club, at the Tennis Club.

The Becky Boyce Junior Group hosted the May senior picnic welcoming the seventeen graduates into the alumnae club.

Although this concludes Aileen Welgan's term of office as an outstanding president, her work for Pi Beta Phi is never done. She and Mary Peck will be working on the 1964 National Convention in Victoria, B.C., as Convention Chairman and Hospitality Chairman, respectively.

SPOKANE

In September, the Spokane Alumnae club began its new schedule of activities, with a dinner meeting in the home of Virginia Campen Latenser and an interesting Convention report from the President, Carole Cooke Jones.

In October, the meeting was held in the home of Marjorie Gleason Black, with an interesting program from Mrs. Kennard Jones, a past delegate to the National Panhellenic Council. The rummage sale this same month, carried out by Peggyssue This Ellis, brought in $120.

Robert Brooke told of his "People to People Tour" to Europe, at Margaret McQuiston Cassill's home in November.

A lovely Christmas brunch was held for Spokane collegiate members, home for Christmas vacation, and their mothers, at June Anderson Van Leuven's home.

In January, Gen Conniff Carlson was hostess for a program on "Poisons in the Home," by Miss Anna Mae Erickson, a nurse in charge of the Poison Center.

Many members enjoyed the "Friendship Luncheon," held on February 12, planned by Faith Johnston Boulac and Marion Folger Salt. It was especially nice to have two alumnae from Pullman join us, one of which was the Province President, Lola Story Finch.

An American Field Service student living in Spokane spoke to the meeting in March, in the home of Norma Ross Maris.

The group had a successful project in March, with Jean Jones Holder and Marilyn Brumblay Stocker as co-chairmen. It was called "High Fashion in Home Fashion," with a buyer from one of the department stores showing home accessories, unusual gifts, table settings and party arrangements. A dessert was served.

Founders' Day was celebrated by a dinner in April, at which time the new officers were installed, Peggy Melzer Hasstedt and Barbara McCarthy Grohs were co-chairmen.

The year came to a close in May with the annual picnic, at the home of Nancy Chipman Boge.

WENATCHEE

The Wenatchee Alumnae Club has had another successful year, under the able leadership of our president, Ella Mae Crowl.

The opening event of the year, in August, was at the home of Becky Allen Nicholson, for the purpose of discussing rush rules and making recommendations to the active chapters.

In November, we held a successful Arrowcraft sale, at the lovely home of Mrs. Clinton Kienitz, mother of Beverly Kienitz Linville.

In December, a tea, honoring active members and their mothers, was held at the home of Becky Allen Nicholson.

In March, we attended the annual Panhellenic dinner, at the Wenatchee Golf and Country Club, where, as usual, we had the largest number attending.

The club also helped at the annual Panhellenic party for seniors going to college. This year a coke party was held.

Our year closed with the Founders' Day dinner, at the lovely new home of Marili Huffman Libke.

ANTELOPE VALLEY

The Antelope Valley Alumnae Club opened the year with a September meeting, at the home of our President, Merica Edwards. Plans for the year were completed at this time. We were happy to welcome a new member, Jean Anderson, and a former member, May Rogan, who has returned to our group after spending a year in Utah.

The high point of our year was the visit of Mrs. Clara Sipherd, Pi Province President, in April. We held a luncheon in her honor, and enjoyed her visit very much.

Our meetings were held in homes of members and, although the club is small, attendance has been excellent.

BAKERSFIELD

This year the Bakersfield Alumnae Club returned to an active status, electing a full slate of officers. Betty Palmaymeso Bidart has been our able president, assisted by Dolores Borland Nudds as vice president, Babette Bormann Harding as secretary treasurer, Kay Reed Tuttle as recommendations chairman, and Patty Powell McFarland as Settlement School chairman. Terry Osterhaus Palme was our publicity chairman and Panhellenic representative.

We began our year with a luncheon meeting, at which Patty McFarland gave an interesting Convention report.

Then came our Settlement School tea, at the lovely home of Mary Ann Cotton Green. We invited four hundred guests. All of the lovely items were well received. We made a profit of $175, of which we were very proud. Patty McFarland, who had seen the latest Arrowcraft display at Convention, ordered the items and we had an excellent selection of articles.

Our annual cookbook luncheon was held at the home of Betty Bidart. Forty-six members and guests turned out for a delightful lunch and an afternoon of card playing.

In April, we celebrated Founders' Day with the Fresno Alumnae Club, at Hanford, and in May, we had our annual picnic, with husbands as guests, at the home of Terry Palme.

Our club was honored to have one of our members, Patty Johnson O'Evelyn, as one of two outstanding Panhellenic women honored at their annual recognition luncheon, in February.

Donations were given to the Santa Barbara Chapter and Kern Panhellenic for a scholarship.

Our membership rose to thirty-four and we have had a successful and enjoyable year.

BERKELEY

Under the well organized leadership of Norma Lauppe Shaw, the arrow of Pi Beta Phi gleamed brightly in Berkeley this year.

The first meeting of the club was held at the home of Jean Morken, on October 10, where plans were completed for the forthcoming Settlement School tea, to be held the following month, at the beautiful new home of Betty Lathrop.

November 7 was a lovely day in Berkeley. Inspired by the beauty of the setting and the new and traditional handicraft, so attractively displayed by Tressy Eddy and her committee, Pi Beta Phi and their friends purchased over $1000.00 of Arrowcraft articles.

The club had its first meeting after Christmas at the home of Helen Beighter. The occasion was sparked by enthusiastic plans for spring events, the first of which was a luncheon meeting at the home of Mary Clark, honoring Clara Hall Sipherd, the new Pi Province President. Mrs. Sipherd's warm personality and her enthusiasm for the enduring values of Pi Beta Phi was an inspiration to all of us.

Margaret Horning, our Panhellenic Chairman, outlined plans for the luncheon and fashion show, to be held at the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco, on April 3. We were also told of the party being planned for Pi Beta Phi and their husbands, at the Horning home March 23.

The April meeting was held at the home of Eleanor Angwin. Tressy Eddy, our Convention Delegate, had charge of the program. In a delightfully original way, she coordinated the history of Pi Beta Phi with more highlights of the convention. Also, at this time, plans for the Founders' Day celebration, with the San Francisco Club, were completed.

The fund raising project was a most successful event, a bridge luncheon on May 9, at the spacious home of Sue Johnson. The proceeds will be used for a gift to the active chapter of California B. This event concluded a most successful and productive year.

CONTRA COSTA

Contra Costa Alumnae began their fall program at the September 12 meeting, with a very interesting Convention report by Alice Victor Buis, President. Final plans were made for the annual desert bridge and Arrowcraft sale, which was held September 26, at the lovely home of Madeline Goodrich McLaughlin. Tables were set up in the gardens and around the pool, where guests of alumnae enjoyed dessert, bridge, and informal modeling of fall fashions by club members.

Two morning meetings were held—one in October, at which favorite recipes were exchanged, and the other in November, when a book review on the life of Grace Coolidge was presented. At our December gathering, we had a white elephant sale, and a display of homemade Christmas decorations, which several members contributed. Jessie Moer Hamilton, Alumnae Province President, was our guest, and we all listened with great interest to her report of local and national Pi Beta Phi news.

In January, we invited our husbands to a pot luck dinner, which was lots of fun. Pi Beta Phi "Sherry"-ades were played by members at the February meeting. In March, our theme was "International Night," and we had as our guest a student from Sweden.

The annual Founders' Day pot luck dinner and cooky-shine was held April 10, and many Pi Beta Phi in the area attended. Slides of recent trips and vacations, taken by members, were shown at the May meeting. In June we closed our 1963 schedule with a picnic and swimming party, at the home of Polly Kaiser.

HAWAII

Our Pi Beta Phi year is drawing to a close with only one meeting remaining, but it has been a year that all of us here in the Hawaii Alumnae Club will long remember.

It all started with the news in late spring that our President, Lenore West Knight, would be our delegate to Convention. We always welcome these conventions as a perfect way of bringing our physically isolated club in closer contact with other alumnae clubs. The suggestions she brought back from Convention helped make our year the exciting one it was.

In July, we had our traditional party for visiting actives and this summer it was held aboard the sailing ship, Barkentine, which sails out around famous Diamond Head. It was a beautiful day and the Pi Beta Phi songs rang out loud and clear.

In September, we had a Settlement School meeting and a report from our Convention delegate. In October, we again repeated our party for alumnae and their husbands to benefit our adopted active chapter, California Z. All proceeds from this year's pot luck dinner are being sent to California Z.

Our December meeting was our traditional Christmas luncheon, which is preceded by one of our favorite projects, decorating Christmas trees for the classrooms of the handicapped children at Pohukaina School. The light of appreciation in these children's faces has long been the star on all our trees.

In January, we adopted one of the ideas Lenore brought back from Convention for raising money within the club. To the delight of all, we had a bridge tournament. It turned out to be such fun and was such a success that we will surely repeat it again next year. It was set up on a ladder basis and each player paid an "entry" fee of one dollar each time she played. We were all astounded at how much can be realized from so little effort, with so much fun and fellowship.

In closing, we would like to add that this has not only been an exciting year for us all, but that it has been a year of growth and new interest for the whole club. We again sent out our "Summer News Letter," advising alumnae of coming club events and meetings, and reminding them of dues and membership obligations. As a result, not only has our membership increased, but our business meetings and social gatherings have been extremely well attended.

MARIN COUNTY

Marin County Alumnae Club has had a very busy and interesting year, under the capable leadership of Mary von Kaesborg, our president. Last summer we had a family picnic on Angel Island, highlighted by the trip to and from the island on Marilyn Stuart's cruiser. We entertained Marin County Actives at the annual Panhellenic fashion luncheon, at the Marin Art and Garden Center. Carolyn Quinn, representing Pi Beta Phi, was a lovely model.

We have had a most lucrative year with Settlement School products, under the enthusiastic and very able chairmanship of Arlene Anderson. We sold over $1100 worth of merchandise. Many sales were made at the Sunny Hills Grape Festival, where we had a large booth staffed by members. Our profits went to aid the emotionally disturbed children under the care of Sunny Hills Organization. The Settlement School tea was held at the beautiful hillside home of Peggy Anton, with Betty Herrmann acting as chairman. It was a tremendous success, both socially and financially. Over $500 was taken in.

Our president gave an interesting account of National Convention, in September, at a luncheon meeting, at Marilyn Stuart's home. Club members were guests of the Chi Omega Alumnae Club at a luncheon and musicale in November. Nancy Johnston managed the annual Christmas dinner party, with our husbands, held at the Rafael Racquet Club. The highlight of entertainment this year was a "Camera Safari In Africa," at the home of Helen Buresh. Colored slides and intensely interesting commentary were provided by Dr. Fagerstrom, Betty's father in law, who, with Mrs. Fagerstrom, had taken the trip three years ago.

The annual benefit for local altruism, was the sponsoring of one night of the play, "Desk Set," produced by the Ross Valley Players. Jackie Orrick was chairman of the event, proceeds going to the Marin County Blood Bank.

Founders' Day luncheon terminated a most enjoyable year.

VIOLA PETERSON

MONTEREY PENINSULA

The Monterey Peninsula Alumnae Club had a pleasant and enjoyable year, under the capable guidance of our President, Mary Grovier Kennedy. Our first meeting was a luncheon, held at the home of Ava Lovett, with Mildred Henning, Louise Oberle and Sue Lovett as co-hostesses. Our Pi North Province President, "Pete" Hamilton, was with us for the meeting. Mrs. Hamilton brought us up to date on Convention news.

On October 6, we held a Settlement School Sale and Tea, at the home of June Downs in Pebble Beach. Pat Troutman, Settlement School Chairman, was in charge of the sale and Virginia Lee Hammat was in charge of refreshments.

The December meeting was a box or "brown bag" lunch, at the home of Ruth Vail and Mrs. Vail Smith. Virginia Lee Hammat auctioned off the lunches. During the meeting, an article was read from the constitution.

Our Chapter Loyalty Day luncheon was held at the Asilomar Conference Grounds in Pacific Grove, California, on February 2. Election of officers was the first order of business. Each member had been asked to bring a book to the meeting. These books were sent to California Z, at Santa Barbara, to start the chapter library.

Founders' Day was celebrated on April 27, with a luncheon held at the Monterey Peninsula Country Club.

PALO ALTO

The Palo Alto Alumnae Club's main project this year was a bridge tournament. Proceeds drawn from this were presented to the Palo Alto Medical Research Foundation. Due to the large area we encompass, this event has been most successful in getting to know each member better.

Our calendar this year included: a swimming party, in the fall, at the home of Janet Ackles; a Settlement School tea, at Kay Hocky's home; and our annual Christmas party, held at the home of Evelyn Almaek, when we wrapped gifts for the patients of Agnew State Hospital. In January, we had a dinner dance, at Fremont Hills Country Club and February found us at a dessert bridge, at the home of Beth Davenport.

In March, we had a pot luck supper, at Marlene Elliott's home. We celebrated Founders' Day, in April, at a coffee, in the home of Hanna Zischke.

In May, we had a cocktail party and in June we had our annual barbecue, at Edy Manning's summer cabin.

It has been a delightful year!

RENO

"Fun Day at the Lake" was the theme for the opening meeting of the Reno Alumnae Club. A beautiful luncheon was served by Mrs. Jacque Black and her committee.

The September meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Alice Lombardi. Our President, Mrs. Beverly Horton, and the Chapter President, Ellen Murphy, gave an extensive report on Convention.

The month of October was a busy time for the club. On October 7, we had our Settlement School tea at the chapter house. The wine carnations and silver blue ribbon gave a beautiful decor to the house. October 27, the annual homecoming luncheon took place, with many new and old faces returning for the event.

Mrs. Margaret Craven was hostess for the November meeting. Fun was had by all as Mrs. Ruegg, of the Reno Recreation Department, gave us some wonderful tips for Christmas decorations.

The actives and pledges provided the entertainment for the Christmas party on December 12. What fun it was for young and old, as Santa gave out with some funny little gifts for all!

The January meeting started the new year with an inspiring report by Mrs. Ruth Coleman on Grace Coolidge entitled, "A Pi Beta Phi First Lady."

The traditional cooky-shine was a big event, on February 13. The alumnae served a pot luck supper, under the direction of Mrs. Thelma Armbruster.

"Pi Beta Phi and their Valentines," was the theme for the February dinner dance. The Club Jubilee was the locale for the wonderful party, which included a seven course dinner and dancing for all.

Mrs. Helen Joffe was our hostess at the March 13 meeting. The Founders' Day luncheon was held at the Holiday Hotel, with many Pi Beta Phi attending from all around the state. Again, the Reno Alumnae Club presented a $250 scholarship to a member of Nevada A Chapter.

In May, the year was brought to a close with the initiation of graduating seniors and the installation of new officers.

SAN FRANCISCO

The San Francisco Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi began a busy year, with its fall meeting at the home of Mrs. Leland Groezinger. A delicious buffet supper was served, followed by a most enjoyable program from the Elizabeth Arden Salon.

Our Christmas party was held at the Russian Hill apartment of Mrs. F. Marvin Plake. The view of San Francisco at night, from her lovely place, provided a festive setting for the holiday season.

Our alumnae club co-sponsors locally, with the San Francisco Medical and Dental Auxiliaries, "Meals on Wheels," which is a weekly food service for shut ins. We contribute annually to the project's financial support and many members of Pi Beta Phi give volunteer hours of work each week toward the preparation and delivery of the food. A black tie dinner dance was held as a benefit for "Meals on Wheels," at the Fairmont Hotel in February, and was a great success.

Founders' Day was celebrated on April 27, in Berkeley, by the San Francisco and Berkeley clubs. Our president, Mrs. William North, Jr., and Mrs. Norma Shaw, president of the Berkeley Club, were hostesses for the occasion. Actives from California B were guests at the luncheon and presented the program.

Our Settlement School tea was held, in April, at the home of Mrs. Henry Gibbons, III. There was an attractive display of Arrowcraft products, as well as colorful decorations and delicious refreshments, planned by our Settlement School chairman, Mrs. John Feist.

Our final meeting of the year was held at the lovely sunset home of Mrs. Irving Rhine, in Belvedere. The members always look forward to the beautiful garden and delightful surroundings for this May event.

SAN JOSE

The San Jose Alumnae Club started its activities in September, under the very capable leadership of Pat Milner. Unfortunately, Pat moved from the San Jose area in January. She was capably replaced by Florence Lyman. The activities of the club were varied and included: a Settlement School tea and sale, which was most successful, a pot-luck dinner and a cooky-shine. In April, the Palo Alto and San Mateo clubs joined us for a Founders' Day luncheon. The final activity of the year is to be a picnic in June for club members and their families.

December was a very busy and gay month, as we had two parties. Early in the month, we had a buffet dinner and dance for the club members and their husbands or dates. The party was at Carol Baker's lovely home. Everyone had a most enjoyable time. Then, later in December, we had our traditional white elephant gift exchange, which is always fun.

We have been most interested in starting a local philanthropy. A number of guest speakers were invited to some of our meetings. So far, we have reached no decision as to what we will do, but a great deal of interest has been shown in hospital or convalescent home work and working with teenagers.

The future of fraternities in California is of great concern to us. At a number of meetings, we had discussions about the proposed legislation concerning fraternities and discrimination. We are all trying to better understand this and learn what we as individuals can do.

SARAH CHUBB

SAN MATEO

The San Mateo County Alumnae Club, under the capable leadership of Mrs. George Conley, began another busy and successful year, with a dessert for actives and alumnae, in July.

The first of our regular monthly meetings took place in September, when Alice Conley gave us an interesting and informative report on Convention. In October, Mrs. Samuel Taimuty read excerpts from the book Dandelion Wine, and in November we heard an original poem on Settlement School, written by our own Mary Martin. Settlement School articles were also displayed and sold at this meeting. The January meeting was highlighted with a cooky-shine, and February took us back to college days, as we were quizzed on the history of Pi Beta Phi.

Special events which added a great deal of gaiety to the year included our annual Christmas luncheon, at Peninsula Country Club, and two parties for members and their husbands. The first was a barbecue, at the lovely home of Mrs. Robert Ames; and the other, a dinner dance, where everyone came attired in clothes similar to those they wore in college.

As in years' past, we continued giving record albums to the children's wards of Mills and Peninsula Hospitals, and at Christmas a Baby Tenda was given to Mills and electric bottle warmers to Peninsula. We were also pleased to present the California Zs with a check to help in furnishing their new house. This year's local scholarship recipient is an outstanding girl from Burlingame High School, who is now attending San Francisco State.

Our big project of the year was the spring rummage sale. The bridge tournament, among members and their husbands, as well as the monthly daytime tournament, continue to be excellent treasury builders and popular social functions.

The final event of the year was the Founders' Day luncheon, held in April.

STOCKTON

The Stockton Area Alumnae Club began the year earlier than usual, with a summer meeting in July. It was held in order that Elizabeth O'Brien, just back from Convention, could pass on to the group the spirit, enthusiasm and new ideas she obtained in Washington. Needless to say, her report was inspiring to all and, consequently, a Settlement School sale was decided upon, even though the last display was held in the spring.

The sale and coffee, held at the gracious home of Mary Judy McGuineas in Lodi, was considered both a successful and enjoyable event. An additional showing for Lodi area residents that were not able to attend on October 24, was held a week later and enabled many to view and purchase the lovely handicraft articles.

Several Stockton Pi Beta Phi attended the local Panhellenic card party, held in the women's fraternity houses on the University of the Pacific campus. In addition to serving coffee and dessert, and "cleaning up," members joined in the bridge playing and found the affair to be most pleasant.

Following Founders' Day and officer installation, we will close the year with our traditional June pot luck dinner. It is our one chance to include our husbands in our monthly meetings and it seems to be the favorite social event of the year.

YUBA SUTTER

The Yuba Sutter Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club continues to remain active, with only eleven members. We were very proud to present a fifty year pin to Mrs. Free Clark, who is one of our most enthusiastic members.

Our Settlement School tea was held on March 9. We had a very good crowd and a successful sale. Due to the small membership, daughters of several of the members were put to work, as hostesses.

CENTINELA

Under the capable leadership of our president, Nancy Otley Elliott, Centinela Valley Alumnae Club has enjoyed a very pleasant year. We have fifteen paid members, and our business and social meetings are held monthly in our homes.

In October, our husbands joined us for a barbecue party at the home of Betty Barnes in Rolling Hills. Willene Snyder served us lunch in November, when we spent the day making Christmas tray favors for patients at Harbor General Hospital.

Our evening Valentine Party in February was held at the home of Hilda Greene. Discussions on Convention and the Wisconsin situation were topics of interest in January and March, when Rosalyn Frudenfeld and Helen MacBoyle were hostesses for meetings.

We celebrated Founders' Day in April, when South Bay Alumnae Club joined us for lunch at the new Airport Marina Hotel. It was a great honor to have as our guest speaker, Province President June Stansbury.

COVINA-POMONA

A Convention report by the President, Shirley Keough Richardson, California Z, provided an inspiring start to the year for the Covina-Pomona Valley Alumnae Club. Members convene monthly at various homes, and there are social hours with coffee, as well as meetings and programs.

October was a beautiful month for staging an Arrowcraft sale in conjunction with an outdoor luncheon and bridge. A spacious patio, beside a pool, at the home of Shirley Beebe, California A, lent itself perfectly to the profitable event.

An enthusiastically received program in November was the showing of numerous and gorgeous mink stoles. The furrier gave a most intelligent, practical, and entertaining talk while Carol Eiberg, Wisconsin A, did a professional job of modeling.

December brought the annual pot luck dinner for couples, and January found the club busily making decorations for the Founders' Day luncheon. At the February meeting, there was the always popular cooky-shine.

Since March is the month for hats, the alumnae took advantage and had another money making project. Over one hundred hats, supplied by a hat firm, were brought to the meeting to be admired and sold. Pi Beta Phi realized a good share of the profits.

Founders' Day was celebrated at the Sheraton West in Los Angeles on April 27, with all of the Southern California alumnae groups and actives from the four Southern California chapters.

Installation and bridge in May, and a second couples' party in June will be the last events before a summer of vacationing.

GLENDALE

Glendale Alumnae Club began its year with an evening meeting in Fritzi Hagen Bank's lovely hillside home. We enjoyed dessert on the patio and a very interesting Convention report by Vivian Bradley Knight, our president last year.

Our delightful Settlement School Tea, at the home of Dottie Cooley Cowlin, in October, brought receipts of approximately $500.

Alyce Maxfield Pryor entertained our club and their husbands in November. A social hour in her lovely home was followed by dinner at Oakmont Country Club.

Aileen Omer Long and her daughter, Virginia, a senior Pi Beta Phi at University Southern California, were hostesses at a holiday coffee, which is sponsored each year by Glendale and Burbank Pi Beta Phi Alumnae. Active members and pledges in the area, home for Christmas from various colleges and universities, as well as the girls' mothers, were invited. This traditional affair serves to get the girls acquainted with each other and the alumnae better acquainted with the girls.

Mary Moore Hesick was hostess for "Fashions of 1963," presented by Pi Beta Phi daughters and granddaughters, in February.

We had two outstanding travel programs this year. In January, Dr. D. K. Adams, of Occidental College, gave an interesting and stimulating talk on Pakistan. Our own Katherine Buzzell Shakelford took us on a trip of "Far Away Places," in March.

April brought our Founders' Day luncheon and a theater party, as a ways and means project. In May, we sold recipes, discussed rushing and installed new officers.

A special tribute should be given our President, Mary Wilson Koriagin, who not only led us in a busy year of varied activities, but found time to personally call and enlist the support and attendance of many alumnae who had been inactive in our area.

MARY ALICE BONNAR

LA CANADA

The La Canada Valley Alumnae Club launched a successful year by providing refreshments for all parties given by California I during rush week. This effort was spear-headed by our capable president, Virginia Thompson, and her committee.

The Convention report, given by Ruth Busch, was especially interesting this year because our delegate was accompanied by her daughter, Liz, from Illinois E. Thus, we were able to follow the Convention through the eyes of an active, as well as an alumna.

In November, a profitable Settlement School benefit brunch was held, at the home of Anne Harbord.

The chapter joined other alumnae clubs in the area by contributing to the endowment of one of the seats at the new Music Center in Los Angeles.

The members wrapped Christmas gifts for the Crippled Children's Society, at the December meeting.

At the January meeting, Evelyn Kyle, Grand Council member, spoke to us on the "Fraternity Crisis" in California universities and colleges.

In February, a "Silent Auction" was conducted by our Ways and Means Chairman, Anne Schering.

As another money raising project, members and friends enjoyed a tour and luncheon at Lawry's Food Center, on March 27.

Founders' Day was celebrated, on April 27, in the Regency Room at the Sheraton West.

The year closed with installation of officers and our annual cooky-shine.

LA JOLLA

The Adele Taylor Alford La Jolla Alumnae Club began a very active and rewarding year with a luncheon and swimming party, at the home of Virginia Wagner. New members from outlining areas of La Jolla were present. A luncheon, in September, was held in the home of Ginny Covell. Mrs. Adele Heink was introduced to the group as our alumnae club founder. Susie Stoakes, our delegate, gave us a report on the Pi Beta Phi Convention, held in Washington, D.C., during June, 1962.

In October, husbands were invited to a dessert party. The speaker for the evening was a representative of the Pacific Telephone Company. He gave a splendid talk on "Satellite Communications." In November, the club made finger puppets, under Mary E. Long's instruction, for the Tijuana Orphanage.

The December meeting was a potluck, in honor of our President, Adeline Skibinski, who was moving from our city. A luncheon was held in January, at the home of Lahama Curran, in Vista. Several new members from the north shore area were present at this meeting.

The month of February included bridge parties held at different members' homes. The proceeds from the parties was given to the San Diego State Chapter House Fund. Founders' Day was celebrated with the active chapter of San Diego State and the San Diego Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club.

The La Jolla Alumnae Club entertained the active chapter with a dinner, at the chapter house, in May.

LONG BEACH

The Long Beach Alumnae Club was welcomed back in September by President Mary Mackey Sainsbury. Following a patio pot luck dinner, Mary brought the members up to date on Convention news. The highlight of the club's fall activities was a coffee given to display Settlement School handicrafts. The many sales indicated the success of the affair.

The December meeting featured the annual "Talent Sale." Many of us got a head start on our Christmas baking and decorating, by purchasing the items made by fellow members. The holiday coffee, for actives and pledges, this year very happily included the girls' mothers.

Long Beach is very proud to have among its members: Helena Dingle Moore, National Scholarship Chairman; Carolyn Moody Lochart, National Coordinator of the Pi Phi Times and Sue Valentine St. Clair, Pi Province Pi Phi Times Coordinator.

Other alumnae get together for our sixty members included: a bridge luncheon, a festive cooky-shine, an informative American Field Service speaker and the annual Founders' Day luncheon to honor our five Golden Arrows. The Long Beach Club closed out the 1962-63 year with a spring couples party.

NORTH ORANGE COUNTY

The North Orange County Alumnae Club was chartered on April 28, 1962, and has had a very full year, under the leadership of Marianne Colton Deshon. It was an honor for the officers to be installed by June Plues Stansbury, our province vice president, who also was a big help in giving us some ideas on year books and money making projects.

For the Founders' Day luncheon we were fortunate to have as our speaker, Ruth Barrett Smith, speaking on the "Then and Now of Pi Beta Phi." Mrs. Smith helped charter us, for which the club was very grateful.

With forty-three paid members, we started off with activities to help us get acquainted. Some of these were a bridge benefit, a spaghetti dinner with husbands and a splash party with husbands.

During the summer, the recommendations committee worked hard and were happy to have four girls from the area pledge Pi Beta Phi.

Helen Konesko Wodicka helped to form day and evening bridge groups, with the money collected going toward the club treasury. These groups have been a big help in acquainting the girls with each other.

Our fall meeting began with a talk on holiday decorations. In November, the girls worked on a Christmas philanthropy, making bean bags and Santa placemats out of oil cloth for children at Woodcrest, a school for physically handicapped children. Julia Groenwoldt Bachelor brightened our December cooky-shine by making a lovely cookie tree, which was raffled off. Grayne Ferguson Price recalled for us some of the first cooky-shines recorded in Pi Beta Phi history. In February, we had a delightful Valentine dinner party with our husbands, at Bobbie Goozman's home. The other programs for the year were a talk on narcotics, by the Orange County Sheriff's Office, a "Top Shelf Exchange" and a "Plug-in Patio Party," put on by the Southern California Edison Company.

For the Founders' Day celebration, in April, our club joined with the Whittier Club for luncheon and a program.

This has been a very rewarding year for this club. We feel we have had a good beginning and look forward to many more years of working together in Pi Beta Phi service.

PASADENA

The Pasadena Alumnae Club has enjoyed a most successful year, under the able leadership of Helen Madden Russell.

As Program Chairman, Ruth Latimer Day has made every meeting interesting and stimulating. In September, a poolside picnic brought the members together. The Club Delegate, Helen Madden Russell, took everyone right to Washington with her splendid report on the Convention at the Mayflower Hotel. Additional reports were given by Evelyn Peters Kyle, member of Grand Council, and Sarah Wild Gordon, newly appointed member of the Settlement School Committee.

In October, Rosemary DeCamp, of TV and Radio fame, talked to the club and autographed her book, "Here Duke," for many of the members.

November was the benefit bridge and Arrowcraft sale. Profits went to the Pasadena Girls' Club.

The Christmas party was a great success, with a delightful puppet show given by the Mitchell Marionettes. Guests were friends and children of both the senior and junior members. A Pi Beta Phi Cooky-shine followed.

Early in March, the annual Rummage Sale was held. The March meeting was a very special one, as the club had its own member, Sarah Wild Gordon, talk on "News of Gatlinburg." The Golden Arrow members were honored at this time.

April was a busy month, with the dinner dance at the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel on April 20 and Founders' Day on April 27. Founders' Day was sponsored by the Southern California Area Council of Pi Beta Phi.

With the installation of new officers in May, an outstanding year will come to a close.

PASADENA—JUNIOR

The Pasadena Junior Alumnae Club, under the capable chairmanship of Regina Andrews Burchens, has had a most rewarding year, with programs that have been very interesting and entertaining. We have averaged twenty-one members at each meeting. One activity, which had been most enjoyable, has been an evening of bridge once a month.

Our first business meeting of the year was in September, when we had a program called, "Fun With Hobbies." We all took particular interest in Christmas decorating ideas that were presented.

"Interior Decorating" was the subject of the talk presented at our October meeting. We were all inspired with new ideas for our own homes.

The November meeting was an auction, where all the members brought gifts that could be used for Christmas presents.

In December, the meeting was a Christmas Cooky-shine with the seniors. Pi Beta Phi children were guests and entertained by the Mitchell Marionettes.

Our January program was on "Hair Care," presented by a beauty firm in Pasadena. Several new hair styles resulted from the meeting.

Our annual dinner party honoring husbands and dates was held in February, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Scott. It was a very successful party, thoroughly enjoyed by everyone present.

Marianne Manners (Jeanne Voltz), of the Los Angeles Times, presented a program "Group Entertaining Made Easy" for our March meeting.

In April, Captain Jeffs, of the Pasadena Fire Department, presented a program entitled, "On Guard Against Emergencies." It was especially informative and helpful.

The May meeting was the installation of officers, plus a program given by Miss Penny McElroy called, "The United Nations Vs. The United States." It was timely and a very interesting program.

Our year ended in June, with an informal evening of bridge and canasta.

PHOENIX

The Phoenix Alumnae Club opened its year in September with a Cooky-shine potluck supper, at the lovely home of Margaret Dutton Hensing. Sue Kimball gave a very interesting report of Convention, showing souvenirs and pictures.

In early October, members entertained at a musical program at the home of Celeste Bessley Winslow. Later in the month, a successful Settlement School sale, under the able leadership of Carol Lundin Lendrum, was held at the gorgeous mountain home of Margaret Jacobs Delph.

Marilyn Janney Munhall entertained in November, the speaker being a minister, speaking on extra sensory perception with audience participation. Our annual coffee for actives was held during the Christmas holidays, at Lucille Johannessen West's home.

In the fall, the club voted to form a junior group. Liz Jordan Holman was elected president. Approximately fifty-five members are in this enthusiastic group. They have evening meetings each month, but do meet with the senior group for the Cooky-shine, Founders' Day and the Christmas coffee.

The new Settlement School slides were shown at the home of Alice Breereton Pafford. A very interesting program on wills was presented at Jan Threlkeld Moore's home. Edna Earl Duncan was hostess for the March meeting and our Founders' Day dinner, in April, was at a local resort.

Our year closed with the annual "Husband and Escort" party at Jane Turnquet Compton's home.

ANN SINGER BANES

PHOENIX JUNIOR

The newly formed Phoenix Junior Alumnae Club has enjoyed a very successful first year. The highlight of the year was a benefit dance, "Baile de Mayo," held at the Scottsdale Country Club, on May 4.

A couples' bridge tournament, as well as the Pi Beta Phi tournament, has made it financially possible for us to assist our local charity, The Valley of the Sun School for Mentally Retarded Children. Club members have made bibs for the children at the school and have taken refreshments to the school's dancing party every other week.

Programs concerning politics, dope addiction, interior decorating, Indian art, a travelogue and a book review have entertained, as well as educated, the group.

The junior group joined the Phoenix Alumnae Club to entertain the local actives and their mothers at Christmas and to commemorate Founders' Day.

MARY HARTWAY FELKE

REDLANDS

The Redlands Alumnae Club began a very active and rewarding year with a large tea and Arrowcraft sale. This was most successful and plans are already on the agenda for a bigger one next year.

The December meeting was highlighted by Margaret Pierce, who told of her trips to Europe, showing many things she had brought back with her.

In January, a luncheon was held at the lovely home of Betty Keefe. We honored our three Golden Arrow Pi Beta Phis and the mothers of Redlands' actives. We also bid farewell to Mrs. Wesley Schott, who has been most active in our group and shall be missed by all.

Pi Beta Phi will again assist with the Spring Panhellenic Tea for high school girls who are planning to register for rush.

Our year will close with a husbands' party, which we all look forward to, as it is always a gala affair.

Our year was a success, under the enthusiastic and able leadership of Mary Quevenne Berkshire.

BETTIE FLANDERS PLATZ

RIVERSIDE

The Riverside Alumnae Club started the year with a business meeting, when we heard a first hand report of the 1962 Convention from our delegate, Kay Harris. We later had speakers from two local philanthropies and have recently decided on the Emerald Handicapped Group for the Multiple Handicapped. We feel this is a most deserving cause, since the children attending are virtually "rejects" from any other kind of school for the handicapped.

The annual mother daughter Christmas tea was held December 28, at the home of Mrs. Russell Bailey. It was very festive, and fun to see all the college girls, home for vacation.

In February, we had a very successful bridge benefit, with both afternoon and evening sessions. Featured were Settlement School prizes, plus a display and sale of Settlement School items. The proceeds went toward our philanthropies.

In the spring, we were privileged to hear Mrs. Paul B. Cramer, member of the Centennial Fund Committee from Altadena, California. We also had a Cooky-shine, which was a pleasant surprise for all of us.

On Founders' Day, we had a birthday party luncheon at the Azure Hills Country Club. This gay event was held in conjunction with the San Bernardino and Redlands Alumnae Clubs.

Our president, Annette Harris Stomberg, is to be thanked for this most successful year.

KIRSTEN MALM CALHOUN

SAN FERNANDO VALLEY

The Alumnae Club of San Fernando Valley enjoyed a busy and successful year, under the able leadership of Fran Armstrong, our president.

A successful "first" was a series of two book reviews by Mary Greer Scarborough. At each review, Kay Johnson provided an artful display for the purpose of selling Arrowcraft. Proceeds from the reviews allowed us to donate $100.00 towards the new Los Angeles Music Center. We were also able to increase the contributions to the Pi Beta Phi national projects over the budgeted amounts.

At a February sewing bee, ten much needed initiation robes were made for the active chapter at Santa Barbara.

Philanthropic endeavors included staffing the day camp for the Crippled Children's Society for one week during the summer. Members also helped to stuff envelopes for the Easter Seal Campaign.

One of the highlights of the monthly programs was an illustrated talk by one of the members, Betty Bingham, who had just returned from Gatlinburg. In February, the club was honored with a visit from Louise Kemp, Counselor for Chapter House Corporations. At the March meeting, Virginia Taylor explained the basic techniques of portrait painting. A raffle was held for the prize of a personal portrait to be painted by Mrs. Taylor.

The year's activities were rounded out with several social events. Members, husbands and escorts enjoyed a summer dinner dance at the lovely home of Arthur and Fran Armstrongs. Several evening card parties and a "game" night proved successful. All are looking forward to the dinner dance planned for late spring.

SANTA BARBARA

September found our dynamo president, Jo Basye, making plans for another successful year. Our efforts are still being directed toward the new-in-1961 UCSB chapter house, which still is in need of some furnishings and landscaping.

Our first meeting, in October, was a delightful dinner at the house with actives and pledges, at which time we were introduced to our little pledge sisters and their big sisters. The big-little sister program has been reactivated, in order that we may have a closer contact with the active chapter.

Most attractive Settlement School items were displayed at the November meeting. Active Province President Clara Sipherd gave such a glowing report of Convention that we all wished we had been there with her.

Again, Julie Forbes opened her lovely Montecito home for our annual Christmas party, made even more pleasant this year by having the active chapter as our guests. At the party, the chapter was presented with our Christmas gift, a grand piano. Needless to say, the girls were most pleased. Instead of the usual gift exchange, each member brought a present or canned food for the Council of Christmas Cheer, which gives to needy Santa Barbara families.

We were all so proud when our Christmas party hostess, Julie Forbes, was chosen Santa Barbara Woman of the Year, indeed an honor.

June Stansbury, Alumnae Province President was a delightful guest and informative speaker at our January meeting, a brunch at the home of Clara Sipherd.

Marion Grubola capably managed another of our "instant rummage sales," held in February. Each member sorted and marked her own rummage in the morning and the sale took place that afternoon, evening and the next day. It was easy and so successful that we were able, with the addition of profits from the October sale, to buy the grand piano for the chapter house.

Many guests joined us for an all Pi Beta Phi spring fashion show held in March at the house, with alumnae club and active members as models. Dozens of spring bouquets adorned the house and an elaborate "dessert smorgasbord," with alumnae donating their most elegant desserts, drew sighs from all present. A dollar per person donation made this a successful fund raiser.

Our Founders' Day luncheon was held in April, at the Pi Beta Phi house, and our pleasant year ended with the installation of new officers in May.

SANTA MONICA-WESTSIDE

For the Santa Monica-Westside Alumnae Club, the 1962-63 year began, appropriately, with highlights from Convention, by the club delegate, Mary Langley Bumb.

With this inspiration, the group enthusiastically planned for its third annual drop in luncheon, for which Pat Howard Parry generously opened her lovely home and garden. The luncheon chairman, Margie May Forster, had some bad moments, when two days before the affair, came that rare phenomenon, rain! Fortunately, though, Tuesday was serene and sunny and with an excellent attendance, the net profit was $154, plus approximately $300 from Settlement School sales.

November's membership coffee, delightfully heralded by clever cartoon invitations, drawn by the husband of membership chairman, Judy Hatch, brought new faces into the picture. Our December party, at the beautiful home of Gladys Wood Tebbe, was a very festive occasion, featuring another tradition, a gift chain, followed by Christmas carols.

The new year, moving rapidly, ushered in a succession of treats. Corinne Pyle, a talented and fascinating speaker, was with the club in January, at the home of Mady Emrich Van Buren and Annette Emrich. In February, a Cooky-shine, at the gracious home of Ruth Thayer, club president, honored the seniors of California Δ, after which each of the attractive honorees was presented with a copy of the Pi Beta Phi cookbook.

March was devoted to a presentation of "The California Situation," with Margie May Forster's home as the meeting place.

April and Founders' Day brought the Pi Beta Phi of the large metropolitan area together for a beautiful luncheon, at the Sheraton West, for fellowship and renewal of ties with friends and fraternity.

Luncheon, at the home of Mary Langley Bumb, in May, brought to a close another club year, accompanied by the installation of new officers.

Thanks to the morning bridge group, under the leadership of "Tut" Tuttle Pegram, and her evening counterpart, Annette Emrich, the treasury was enriched by approximately $50., while the "Treasure Trade" contributed $50, and calendars $65.

VIRGINIA MILLER TATOM

SOUTH BAY

Under the capable leadership of Eleanor Moore Merrick, serving as president for a second term, we began a busy and productive year, in September, planning for our second annual Settlement School sale. In October, the sale was held, at the home of Sandra McCracken Jacobsen in Rolling Hills, with coffee being served during the morning hours and tea in the afternoon. The affair proved to be most successful financially, and many of the Pi Beta Phi members who do not belong to our local club attended this function.

In November, a wig raffle was a money maker for us. We sold 241 tickets and made $125.00 clear profit. Also, in November, the captain of the Manhattan Beach Fire Department presented a film on artificial respiration to members, their husbands and teenage children.

Christmas brought the annual gift exchange party and sponsorship of a needy family.

In January, we had a "travel" meeting, where three members told of their experiences in Europe, in the Orient and at the World's Fair in Seattle.

Husbands were invited to join us at a dinner dance, at the Fort MacArthur Officers' Club, in February.

The March meeting honored our own two Golden Arrow members for "Pi Beta Phi Heritage Night."

The Founders' Day luncheon, in April, is held traditionally with the Centinela Valley Alumnae Club, the latter acting as hostesses this year.

A "Gourmet's Delight" dinner party closes our year on a festive note, in June.

VALLEY OF THE MOON

The Valley of the Moon Alumnae Club enjoyed a very rewarding and enjoyable year, under the direction of President Marion Mad-dux Proctor.

Our year started with an informative report on Convention, by our delegate, Genevieve Tillery Williamson, plus the added bonus of learning our club had won the $10.00 coveted prize for being first in magazine sales with the highest per capita rate. We were happy, too, to award Dorothy Elder Herrick her fifty year pin.

In October, a further report on Convention was given by Genevieve, with a talk and pictures from our Settlement School display in the Smithsonian Institution. In conjunction with this, Mary Boulton Lambert showed lovely colored slides of Washington, D.C., and the points of interest there.

A surprise party was held in November to celebrate the 80th birthday of Molly Day. The group enjoyed an informative and interesting talk, with slides, by Janet Hanford, who had just returned from two years in Abadan, Iran, where her husband had been Manager of the Standard Oil Refinery.

Our Alumnae Province President, Jessie Hamilton French, delighted us in January with a visit. She discussed the constitution and its new changes, plus additional facts about Convention and the new policies adopted there.

In February, our annual white elephant sale was conducted by our veteran auctioneer, Betty Bill Stockman. These sales are great fun, with the proceeds going to California Z, in conjunction with our Active Chapter Interest Project.

Virginia Grannis Morrison presented a delightful talk, with lovely slides, of the Holy Land, in March. She and her husband had spent several years in and about that area, while he was in the service.

Founders' Day was celebrated in April, with an inspirational and always pleasant Cooky-shine.

Our year came to a close with the impressive installation of officers ceremony. Our president thanked all her officers and committees for their help and support throughout the year.

It has been a very valuable year for all of us, and our grateful thanks are extended to our capable president, Marion Proctor.

WHITTIER

The Whittier Area Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi began its 1962-63 year with a Cooky-shine, song fest and a pre-Christmas display of Arrowcraft articles. A talented member, Adrian Bloeser, decorated large sugar cookies with a wine carnation and silver blue Greek letters, as a special treat.

In November, we had a planning and social meeting. The annual Christmas brunch and work party was again a wonderful inspiration. Hand puppets and a large felt calendar were made for gifts to the local Exceptional Children's Foundation. These, plus a contribution, gave them a Christmas party.

A Holt House film, a constitution and history quiz and our white elephant sale, made the January meeting memorable.

A visit from Mrs. Page Kemp, Counselor for Chapter House Corporations, called for a special luncheon. A wine and blue center piece, plus our special Pi Beta Phi cookies, added that extra touch to her interesting talk.

April brought a Founders' Day joint luncheon with the Fullerton Alumnae Club. In May, we welcomed a foreign exchange student to our meeting.

Our year will close with a Monte Carlo fun party, for our husbands, in June.

The ways and means project this year was a theater party to the Whittier Community Theatre.

Be sure to send GT1 form with check for fees.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

- CHAPTER TREASURERS: Should see that letter from Grand Treasurer to the Parents of Actives and Pledges is sent to the parents as early in the fall as it is possible. The local letter on chapter finances which goes with it should have been approved by the Province President the previous Spring. It is necessary that parents understand the financial obligations at the beginning of the year.
Should see that Financial Statements to Parents of Pledges are sent approximately two weeks before the proposed initiation. They should be sent ONLY to the Parents of the girls who have met the initiation requirements and whom the chapter definitely plans to initiate. This means too that the blanks should be sent only for the girls who have received the required vote of the Executive Council and the Alumnae Advisory Committee for approval of initiation.
Should see that badges are ordered through the Central Office. It takes six weeks or more, to complete badge orders. Badges for prospective members should not be ordered until all initiation requirements have been met.
Should send the National pledge fee for each pledge with Form GT1 to Central Office. Canadian chapters send fee to Mrs. Henry Moore, Jr., 420 Pine Street, Texarkana, Texas, with GT1 form. Send within two weeks of any pledging or repledging.
Should send the initiation fee for each initiate with Form GT1 to Central Office within three days of initiation. Canadian chapters send initiation fees to Mrs. Henry Moore, Jr., 420 Pine Street, Texarkana, Texas, with GT1 form.
Should send monthly reports to Pi Beta Phi Central Office, 264 Citizens Bldg., Decatur, Ill.
- CHAPTER CORRESPONDING SECRETARIES: Should report to the Central Office and to the Province President changes in chapter officers if they are made any time during the year.
- CHAPTER MEMBERSHIP CHAIRMAN: Should send within five days after any pledging, to the Director of Membership, a recommendation and consent to bid blank, or letter of recommendation, or blue blank of information from the State Membership Chairman, for each girl pledged. All blanks or letters must be counter-signed by the chapter alumna membership advisor. Should send within two weeks after the close of the formal rushing season, a report to the Province President on the result of rushing and pledging. Also report to the Province President and the Central Office, the name and address of the newly elected Chapter Membership Chairman.
- CHAPTER PLEDGE SUPERVISORS: Should send a list of pledges, on forms intended for that purpose, to the Central Office and Director of Membership within five days after any pledging or repledging.
- CHAPTER VICE-PRESIDENTS: Should send to the Province President within three days after any initiation a report that new membership cards have been placed in the card file.

CHAPTER RECORDING SECRETARY: Should send Recording Secretary's Membership Report to Central Office. This is a report which is sent out from Central Office of all girls in school at beginning of each semester on I.B.M. listing, and is completed with assistance of Vice President.

CHAPTER HISTORIANS: Should send to the Province President within three days after any initiation a report that names of the new initiates have been recorded in the Record of Membership Book.

CHAPTER PROGRAM CHAIRMEN: Should send a report to the Director of Programs (see current ARROW for name and address) within one week following the holding of the program based upon material sent by that officer from Central Office.

CHAPTER PANHELLENIC DELEGATES: Should send semi-annual reports to the National Panhellenic Conference Delegate on blanks sent out by her for that purpose.

When college schedules make it impossible to comply exactly with fraternity calendar dates, chapter officers should contact Central Office or the officer concerned, explain the situations and receive special permission to vary from the established dates.
