THE ARROW

OF PI BETA PHI

WINTER 1975

A Thank You

I would like to thank the Pi Phis who made possible the lovely pin presented to me at Convention. It would be impossible to forget the wonderful Pi Phis gathered in Miami, but this will be a constant reminder as it is so proudly worn.

With Pi Phi love, Sarah Holmes Hunt Sacramento, Calif.

→ Sarah was one of the retirees (Grand Vice President of Philanthropies) who stepped down from her duties at the Miami Convention. She, and the others, will be missed.

Finders Keepers

I think you should know how exciting it is to be a lost Pi Phi. While taking my daughter swimming, a dear friend (Missouri A) became my initial informant. That evening my mother (Missouri Γ) called long distance with the news. As I finished the call my next door neighbor (Missouri Γ) arrived to check on the lost neighborhood Pi Phi.

Breakfast the next morning was a little hectic . . . another long distance call, this one from my aunt (Nebraska B). Later in the day two additional neighbors (Missouri A and Γ) called to let me in on the news. That evening my college roommate (Missouri Γ) called to ask how I managed to get lost.

I can't leave my home without running into someone who tells me I'm lost.

Please gather me back into the fold. Needless to say, my Pi Phi sisters are still looking out for me . . . and apparently I need all the help I can get. I have sent my address to Central Office.

Nancy Frohlich White Missouri Gamma Springfield, Mo.

→ Welcome back, Nancy . . . and we won't even comment on the power of the press!

Glass Case Missing?

I need a brief announcement put in the next ARROW. I sold some needlepoint glass cases (by order only) at Convention. Some were paid and I have searched through all my Convention belongings and can't find the list of Pi Phi names. I do want to fill these paid orders.

Would you make some brief announcement that would enable these ladies to contact me? I sure will rest easier knowing I might be able to contact these women. Thanks for your effort in this matter.

> Sybil Marty Cheesman Mississippi Alpha 3162 Adrienne Drive Jackson, Miss. 39212

→ We hope to begin an ARROW Boutique column in an upcoming issue after a few ins and outs are ironed out.

More for Mrs. Spring!

If you have her address, will you please forward the enclosed letter to Agnes Wright Spring, former AR-ROW editor. I went to school with Agnes at Laramie, Wyoming, and was initiated into Pi Beta Phi as a charter member there with her. I was pleased to see her article in the Spring ARROW, and hope to get in touch with her.

Vera Burns Boise, Idaho

→ The article by Mrs. Spring certainly stirred interest. We've forwarded several letters from friends who had lost track!

Article Offends

I was offended by the first sub-section of "Maintain the Bridge for a Future Crossing." (ARROW, Summer, 1975) I have found the alumnæ club valuable in the past as a new resident of Portland, Ore., and as the mother of small children for contacts outside my home. I had believed I should contact the group in San Diego. But now I am no longer married, am the manager of a very small branch of a bank, and have much broader horizons. I am not interested in "philanthropies, homemaking, community affairs or simply an occasional challenging conversation outside the boundaries of the home." And the opportunity for my "husband or date (to) meet men on all levels of business and experience" particularly made me burn. I want my own opportunities, thank you.

If that's all alumnæ clubs have to offer, I'm not interested either.

Bonnie Berg Eckman Washington Beta San Diego, Calif.

→ Frankly, we've found all this and much more in our alumnæ club experience—with horizons as broad and far-reaching as we care to make them!

A most distressing thing happened to us on the way to the printers! We were unable to use 54 pictures, 70 stories, and three composite features, all of which were interesting, informative, and worthy of publication. However, with new chapters, national honors, and Convention coverage, the space just wasn't available. We did feel that the Convention section was most important, to try to give everyone a sense of some of the excitement and enthusiasm that is always generated at such a gathering, as well as indicating some of the fun highlights. We will use as much of the heldover material as is timely, in upcoming issues, and that's a promise! Forgive?

Speaking of Convention, it is possible to order any of the pictures used in this issue that were taken by the Doral photographer. Legends for available pictures are followed by a number in parentheses. Order, by those numbers, from Mr. Joe Montforte, Doral Country Club and Hotel, 4400 N.W. 87th Ave., Miami, Fla. 33166.

One group at Convention claims the all-time attendance record for small chapters no longer in existence. Shirley Peterson White writes that, although there is no longer a Pi Phi chapter at tiny Beloit (Wis.) College, a spirited enthusiasm for the wine and blue remains. "Three of the group are serving the Fraternity at large: Nancy Blaicher Pollock is Grand Corresponding Secretary; Virginia Rector Uehling is assistant to the Grand Treasurer; and Mary Taggart Timmcke served the past four years as Province President and has been appointed to the nominating committee." Others around the table during Chapter Dinner night were Cherie Martin George, Margery Markgraf Beauchamp, Barbara Herrin Rolander, Margie Kersey Kilty, Alice Gilbertson Stone, and Karin Hertel McGinnis. 'Tis a loyal group indeed.

We feel sure that many Pi Phis will be interested in ordering Miss Pauline Turnbull's fascinating book, May Lansfield Keller, Life and Letters (ARROW, Summer 1975). It may be ordered by sending $8.95 (plus 4% sales tax in Virginia) and 40¢ postage and handling, to McClure Press, White Marsh, Va. 23183. What a delightful gift this would be for alumnæ clubs to give chapters. In fact, Delta Province clubs are doing just that for each chapter in the province. Isn't that a thoughty thought?

Our clever Grand President Emeritus, Marianne Reid Wild, has done some research for us on chapter anniversaries for the year 1975-76. She finds, and we congratulate, Virginia Delta and Arizona Beta, 10 years old; California Zeta, 25 years old; Virginia Gamma, Ohio Delta, and Kentucky Alpha, 50 years old; and California Beta, who was "born" 75 years ago on August 23, 1900.

Hanging behind the registration desk at the Miami Convention was a large, lighted arrow, and therein lies a tale. The arrow was constructed 38 years ago by J. O. Phillips for a dance at the Coral Gable Country Club. When his wife, Florentine Holmes Phillips, and their daughter, now Florentine Phillips Liegerot, were at Florida State together in 1958, the arrow hung in front of the Pi Phi house for that year. Florence, Sr., was taking graduate work in social welfare at the time, and last August she retired after 30 years in the social welfare field. She took her annual leave to attend Convention.

Think about it . . . It's easy to find your station in life, cause sooner or later someone will tell you where to get off!!!

Fraternity's High Awards Honor Service

The presentation of three individual awards honoring outstanding members of Pi Beta Phi, and the Balfour Cup chapter award, highlighted the final banquet at the 50th Biennial Convention in June. Excitement reached its peak when Jan Hoffbuhr, Idaho Alpha, was named National ABO Award winner; Barbara Larson, Colorado Alpha, earned the national Chapter Service Award; Jessie Moeur "Pete" French was presented the Evelyn Peters Kyle Angel award; and Texas Gamma was announced as the Balfour Cup chapter.

Jan Hoffbuhr

"Pi Phi can build the 'launching pad' from where we use our acquired talents, interest, contacts, experience, and motivation to go anywhere and do anything! Now is a great time for women—we'd better make the most of it."

In a letter to her Idaho Alpha chapter, Jan Hoffbuhr, National Amy Burnham Onken winner for 1975, thus expressed her interest in and awareness of her Fraternity and its potential. Jan's Pi Phi "launching pad" projected her into four years of outstanding service to the Fraternity and to the University of Idaho.

With an accumulative grade point average of 3.83, she had the distinction of being named to the Dean's List every semester of her college career. She was named to four scholastic honoraries—Alpha Lambda Delta, Nartheaux Table, Mortar Board, and Sigma Delta Chi. In addition, she received the diamond arrow four times for having the highest GPA within the chapter.

From her first official duties as pledge class president, through her term as chapter president in 1974-75, Jan demonstrated her leadership and organizational abilities. She was responsible for many new policies as well as for the orientation of a new house director.

According to one letter of nomination, "Jan has subdivided her weeks, days, and hours into numerous parts devoted to service both in house and campus-wide. She is always on the go from one committee to the next—all of which she serves very capably.

"Jan has proven to be an exceptional leader, a responsible worker, and a very warm and beautiful person." As such, she represents those ideals exemplified by a national Amy Burnham Onken award winner.

Barbara Larson Barbara Larson was a transfer to the Univer-

Her leadership talents were soon recognized, and following her initiation, she became a member of Arrowboard where she served as co-chairman. From that point on "her calm, mature attitude, plus her ability to see the broader perspective in a situation, and her dedication . . . won the respect and confidence of every girl in the house."

During her term as president, Barbara had the wisdom to know that she had to retain chapter respect as well as the friendship of each girl if she was to have full cooperation in achieving the chapter's and her own goals. She maintained open communication with every Pi Phi and her door was usually open because she felt the president should be accessible to know the pulse of the chapter.

One of her fundamental goals was to have each active feel that being a Pi Phi was a wonderful, rewarding, and memorable experience. She knew this must come from personal involvement. One result of this knowledge and effort was the nomination of many qualified girls for chapter offices, and those who were elected "were bursting with enthusiasm and ideas." Barbara informed each nominee about the duties of her particular office, as she wanted each to be very sure she could handle the responsibilities before accepting the nomination.

Barbara instigated many activities within the chapter including chapter team sports; faculty dinners that became so popular that the number attending often swelled to over one hundred; family style dinners, since she felt the cafeteria style of serving was too impersonal and rushed; and reinstating the Monmouth Duo on campus.

"Her dedication to the ideals of Pi Beta Phi and her willingness to work for a strong Colorado Alpha chapter have been a joy and an inspiration to all who know Barbara."

Jessie Moeur French

"Pete" French has been one of the outstanding leaders of the Sacramento (Calif.) Alumnæ Club since 1939. She has served as president, vice president, treasurer, secretary, Settlement School chairman, and, for three years, club delegate to Convention. She was active also in province affairs for many years, serving as province vice president, alumnæ province president, and state rush chairman for ten years. Through sponsorship of the Jessie Jessie Moeur French, Sacramento Alumnæ Club, National Evelyn Peters Kyle Award winner.

Moeur French Fraternity Alumnæ Education Award, "Pete" has demonstrated her interest in Fraternity leadership at a national level.

A Pi Phi who can always be counted on to help in any situation, "Pete" is a motivating force in the Sacramento Alumnæ Club. She can rally all age groups to support a project and she has never failed the club. She has always been one of the first to recognize Fraternity needs and to initiate and support programs to fulfill those needs. Recently she was instrumental in the establishment of a special province fund to benefit kitchen expansion at Arrowmont. She also participated in the founding of two new Pi Phi chapters, Arizona Beta and California Delta. She has attended Convention 13 times.

"Pete" continues to contribute to the development of active chapter girls through her Outstanding Service awards to junior members of her chapter, Arizona Alpha, and Arizona Beta.

Now a Golden Arrow, "Pete" and her husband are retired, travel frequently, and are involved in many projects which keep them busy. She is still an active contributing member of both the Sacramento and Phoenix Alumnæ Clubs, however.

All of "Pete's" efforts on behalf of Pi Beta Phi have been made, not in anticipation of personal recognition, but in the hope that her contribution might in some way benefit the Fraternity and its members.

Texas Gamma

The Balfour Cup goes to the chapter considered best of all Pi Beta Phi chapters for the year. Texas Gamma earned this highest chapter honor for 1974-75 and president Teddi Crager accepted the silver loving cup for her chapter.

According to a letter of nomination, "Texas Gammas don't just talk about love, sisterhood, loyalty, womanhood, and so on . . . they live it in their every day lives."

Even though the chapter has a scholarship record of over 3. grade point average, they have refused to rest on their laurels. They have a planned scholarship program for pledges and for any actives falling below initiation average. Interest groups keep the chapter alert to the need for good grades and that education is their real purpose for being there.

Activities include everything that assures a well-rounded interested organization. The pledge program gives pledges the best foot forward. Scholarship, heritage, sisterhood, moral standards, etc., are all emphasized and re-emphasized through discussions and observations with the active chapter. When Texas

Teddi Crager, president of Texas Gamma, accepts the Balfour Cup for her chapter from Grand President Elizabeth Turner Orr. (228)

Gamma initiates, they initiate Pi Phis, not just girls they had pledged a few months earlier.

The Buckner School for Girls in Lubbock is a rewarding philanthropic project for the chapter. Three days a week chapter members were available for tutoring, talking, or whatever could be done to help the delinquent girls. Arrowmont wasn't neglected however. They raised $250 in a successful ski raffle and donated that amount to Pi Phi's national

Three New Officers Help Guide Fraternity

New faces of 1975 would best typify the list of Pi Beta Phi officers elected at the Miami Convention in June. Three new Grand Council members and five new directors were installed during the final business meetings.

National officers who were reelected were Elizabeth Orr, Portland, Ore., Grand President; Freda Schuyler, Memphis, Tenn., Grand Vice President of Collegians; Orpha Coenen, Little Chute, Wis., Grand Treasurer; Vernah Gardner, Athens, Ohio, Grand Recording Secretary; and Julie Mendenhall, Indianapolis, Ind., National Panhellenic Conference Delegate.

Former directors elected to Grand Council positions are Barbara Olsen, Bay Village, Ohio; Grand Vice President of Alumnæ; and Nancy Pollock, Dayton, Ohio, Grand Corresponding Secretary. Jean Scott was elected Grand Vice President of Philanthropies after serving as Phi North Alumnæ Province President.

Barbara Sands Olsen

Barbara, Illinois Zeta, has been involved with Pi Phi's alumnæ department for a number of years. She is past president of her alumnæ club and the Greater Cleveland Panhellenic Association. She was Eta Province Alumnæ Province President at the time of her appointment as Director of Membership in 1974.

Barb earned a B.S. in education from the University of Illinois, and while she was teaching in Decatur, Ill., met her husband, Jim. Michael and Jim, their sons, are both in college.

Her favorite participating sport is golf, and she has acquired a number of silver bowls along the non-professional tournament route. She is also an avid football and baseball fan.

Jean Wirths Scott

Jean is a Bucknell University graduate, where she was Pennsylvania Beta chapter president. Her English-journalism degree provided the background for a career in public relations and advertising in New York and editing technical publications on the West Coast. She was alumnæ club president in South Bay and Contra Costa, Calif., and has been Phi North Alumnæ Province President since 1972.

Jean and husband Jon, a banker, raise and show Irish setters as a hobby, and bring up two children, Jeff, 7, and Janna Ann, 4, as a joy.

Nancy Blaicher Pollock

A native of Wisconsin, Nancy received her B.A. from Beloit College, her M.A. from Ohio State, and is a former college English instructor. She was initiated into Wisconsin Beta and her Pi Phi activity list is long and impressive. She is a former Gamma Province President and

Six Named To Pi Phi Official Family

Six new officers, either elected or appointed have joined the ranks of those helping guide the Fraternity for the current two year period.

Filling positions in the Alumnæ Department are Annette Mitchell Mills, Director of Alumnæ Advisory Committees; Phyllis Foster Parker, Secretary of the Alumnæ Department; and Emily Robinson Kunde, Director of Alumnæ Programs.

Doris Brown Fawcett takes over the office of Director of Undergraduate Activities; Sharon Smith Pierce is the new Director of Membership; and Jeanette Simpson Roberts has been appointed Supervisor of Chapter Histories.

Continuing in office are Lucile Johannessen Roca, Director of Chapter House Corporations; Jean Orr Donaldson, National Fraternity Historian; Jane Hammans Miller, National Convention Guide; Sally Perry Schulenburg, Director of Central Office; and Marilyn Simpson Ford, Editor of The Arrow.

Alumnæ Officers

Annette Mills lived in Birmingham, Ala., and had completed six years as Kappa Province President at the time of her election. She brings to her new position extensive experience in the AAC area, working with both Alabama Alpha and Beta. Her offices in the Birmingham Alumnæ Club and City Panhellenic include the presidencies. Annette and husband Jack have a son and a Pi Phi daughter, with four young granddaughters.

Emily Kunde was raised in Denver, Colo., and initiated into Colorado Gamma. She now lives in Pittsburgh, Pa., where her husband Marvin, a Sigma Nu, is General Tax Attorney for a large steel corporation. Emily has just completed four years as Alumnæ Province President of Gamma Province. Her duties will include editing The Chain, the idea exchange initiated for alumnæ clubs.

Phyllis Parker has been an alumnæ province president for eight years—four in Iota and, the most recent, four in Delta. She's an Oregon Alpha, and her husband is a professor of psychiatry at Duke University Medical Center. Having built five houses and moved 14 times in the past few years, Phyllis says she has a conditioned reflex that when she sees a moving van, she gets a backache. The Parkers include a married daughter and a son who just received his architectural degree.

Collegiate Officers

Doris Fawcett is a St. Petersburg, Fla., resident where her husband, retired after 25 years in the Air Force, is now a stockbroker. Doris stepped up to her director's position after serving two terms as Epsilon Province President. She's an Indiana Gamma with a Bachelor's degree in biology, and her interests run the gamut from bridge to traveling. The Fawcetts have a Lambda Chi son in his last year at Florida State, a married daughter, and a future Pi Phi granddaughter.

Sharon Pierce's most recent claim to fame was producing twin daughters, Courtney and Brittany, the day after she returned home from the Miami Convention. The babies were preemies, but are now at home and doing fine. Sharon is an Indiana Zeta and has had wide experience working on the national level with Pi Phi. She was a traveling graduate counselor, Fraternity orientation resource consultant, Zeta Province President, and Director of Panhellenics. Husband Steve is a traveling auditor, and Sharon, when she isn't taking care of babies and Pi Phi, is Director of Personnel for a six-county Girl Scout Council.

Jeannette Roberts was appointed to the position of Supervisor of Chapter Histories upon the retirement-resignation of Rose Dressler. Jeannette is an Arkansas Alpha who lives in Baton Rouge, La. Fraternity experience ranges from alumnæ club offices, AAC positions, president of Louisiana Beta House Corporation, to six years as a province president. Her professional experience is in journalism, as a news reporter in New Orleans and on two Baton Rouge dailies. Husband Dick is an insurance executive, and there are two sons in the family -one a sophomore at Louisiana Tech and the second a sophomore in high school. Jeannette's interest in history is evident as she is active in the Foundation for Historical Louisiana, working as a volunteer docent at several historical buildings.

Shown checking their busy Student Foundation calendar for the fall semester at SMU are Texas Betas Beth Leachman, Martha Uhlhorn, Leslie Landrum, Ann Warmack, Vicki Sterquell, Debbie Anderson, Liz Robertson, and Caroline Thompson. Pi Phis compose one eighth of the membership of the Foundation, chosen by interview from a field of 300 applicants.

Virginia Epsilon Installed At U. Va.

by CLARA HALL SIPHERD

Charlottsville A.C.

The weekend of April 11-12-13 was a very special one for 26 Virginia Epsilon pledges, the three alumnæ initiates, and the Charlottes-ville Alumnæ Club. After three and a half months of guidance from the Resident Graduate Counselor, Carolyn Haupt, Minnesota Alpha, the assistance of the members of the alumnæ advisory committee, and the preparations, organization, and planning by the Installation Committee, the time had arrived for the initiation and installation of Virginia Epsilon, at the University of Virginia, as the 112th chapter of Pi Beta Phi. The days were sunny and springtime and excitement were in the air.

The weekend began on Friday evening at Westminister Presbyterian Church with the pledging of the three alumnæ initiates—Pamela Paramore Chamberlain, Roberta Sibold Hunt, and Edna McCarter McFall, followed by the pre-initiation ceremony for all the pledges. The Cooky-Shine that ended the evening was a gay and happy event.

It was a great honor to have ten Pi Phi national officers present to assist with the activities of the weekend—the Grand President Emeritus Marianne Wild, Grand President Elizabeth Orr, Grand Vice President of Alumnæ Evelyn Kyle, Grand Recording Secretary Vernah Gardner, Delta Province President Donna Chase, Delta Alumnæ Province President Phyllis Parker, Grand Corresponding Secretary Elizabeth Hill, Chairman Emma Harper Turner Fund Ruth Hansen, Resident Graduate Counselor Carolyn Haupt, and Traveling Graduate Counselor Carol Wood.

On Saturday, the initiation began at nine o'clock at Christ Episcopal Church with Elizabeth Orr conducting initiation. A lunch was served by a committee of Charlottesville alumnæ at noon break. Immediately following the initiation ceremonies in the afternoon, the chapter was installed with 29 charter members of Virginia Epsilon. That evening the formal banquet was held in the Dogwood Room of Newcomb Hall at the University. At both the banquet and the Cooky-Shine, many beautiful gifts and presentations were made to the new chapter.

Sunday morning a model chapter meeting was held, conducted and planned by the Grand President of Alumnæ, Evelyn Kyle, assisted by national officers and alumnæ members.

The highlight of the day was the Sunday afternoon reception given in honor of the new initiates. It was held at the Colonnade Club at the University of Virginia. Parents of the initiates from as far away as Minnesota and Illinois came for the reception. More than 300 invitations had been sent out to representatives of University student organizations, fraternities, faculty, families, and friends of the new members. It was indeed a happy occasion and it was heartwarming to see the interest with which the new chapter was welcomed.

Carolyn Houpt, Minnesota Alpha, was resident graduate counselor during the 1974-75 school year.

Charter members of Virginia Epsilon are: Beverly Burch, Lisa Byerly, Eileen Cavanaugh, Cheryl Clemens, Ann Davidson, Patricia Fetherstone, Debra Freeman, Cynthia Gatton, Susan Gibson, Catherine Gillingham, Janie Gray, Lynne Hanni, Debra Hoffman, Pemberton Lewis, Theresa Link, Nancy McDonnell, Anne McIntosh, Jennie Ovrom, Kel-Ann Sheldon, Kathlyn Springle, Janet Steck, Gale Stevens, Dana Teitleman, Patricia Unkle, Marguerite Ware, Deborah Willey.

The Virginia Epsilon installation committee included Clara Hall Sipherd, General Chairman, Carol Cornelius Neiman and Grace Herring Carpenter, assistants; Peggy Wright Pollack, Registration; Betty Johnson Hunger, Pledging and Cooky-Shine; Corinne Davis Fox, Initiation and Installation; Lois Brown Eckman, Banquet; Betty Johnson Hunger, Reception; and Linda Lane Johnson, Publicity.

The receiving line at the reception following installation included national officers as well as local Pi Phi collegians and alumna.

Honor Initiate Is Gatlinburg Link

by LINDA LANE JOHNSON
Charlottesville A.C.

The initiation of Edna McCarter McFall provides Pi Phi with a rare personal link to Gatlinburg. From birth, Mrs. McFall's life was shaped by her association with Pi Beta Phi and the Settlement School in Gatlinburg, not as a member of the Fraternity but as one of the school's first and finest students.

Mrs. McFall became an honorary initiate at the University of Virginia in April when Virginia Epsilon was installed. She had been recommended to the Charlottesville Alumnæ Club by the Richmond Club and was enthusiastically approved. Soon after, she was visited in her home near Richmond by Ruth Williams Hansen and Micki Leef Stout, and she was overwhelmed. She had never dreamed that she would be a Pi Phi, an "insider" at last to that sisterhood that had so shaped her life.

Mrs. McFall was born about the same time Pi Phi chose her home town of Gatlinburg as the site for their Settlement School. The McCarter's lived next door to the school, and Edna attended both grade and high school there. In fact, her entire family of five sisters and four brothers attended, and her mother worked for the craft shop.

When Edna was 14, she talked her way into the first weaving class offered by the school. Weaving was fast becoming a lost art, and Pi Phi had hopes of reviving that art. Edna soon became their means of publicizing weaving. As the finest weaver in the school and the top student in her class, she was invited to weave material for a dress and coat for Mrs. Grace Coolidge, wife of the President and herself a Pi Phi. The outfit was presented to Mrs. Coolidge at the 1924 Eastern Conference of Pi Beta Phi. Ironically, that conference was held April 11-12, fifty years ago to the day that Mrs. McFall became a Pi Phi.

Her training as a weaver opened doors for Edna McCarter all over the United States. She attended the Minnesota State Fair and the Boston Gardens to demonstrate weaving, and she demonstrated her skills at other exhibitions closer to Gatlinburg.

Virginia Epsilon's honor initiates are, from the left, Pam Paramore Chamberlain, Edna McCarter McFall, and Roberta Sibold Hunt.

During World War II, Edna served in France for three years and then returned to marry her sweetheart of 17 years. They established their home in Powhatan County outside of Richmond.

For the past 15 years, Mrs. McFall was director of handicraft at the Virginia Correctional Center for Women, once again using skills acquired from her early training in weaving. This time she taught weaving not only as art but as therapy for the incarcerated women.

On Friday, April 11, Edna McCarter McFall was pledged to Pi Phi with two other honorary initiates, and she attended her first Cooky-Shine. The next day she was initiated, and at the banquet was seated at the head table. She was introduced to the 75 Pi Phis as their "link to Gatlinburg" and responded in a moving speech, "I never cease to be thankful for what you, Pi Beta Phi, have done for me. I am a product of that school, an example of what you did for those people in that remote area of the country. I thank you from a loving heart."

How proud we are to have initiated her into Pi Phi.

Chapter Re-Colonized At Albion College

by PAM MARTIN
Resident Graduate Counselor

For the first time in the history of Pi Beta Phi, a chapter has been recolonized.

The Michigan Delta chapter at Albion started its recolonization efforts in the fall of 1974. Pam Martin, a 1974 graduate from Texas Gamma, was selected by Grand Council to serve as the chapter's resident graduate counselor. A weekend of rush was attempted at the beginning of the fall semester. Several national officers were present along with collegians from surrounding Michigan chapters. Pam's duty was to start the chapter afresh, by rushing girls on a one to one basis for taking part in this exciting recolonization effort.

Three college women joined in the agreement to be the new colonizers of Michigan Delta. They were Julie Stapleton, Beth Holton, and Marty Wunsch. Along with Pam, the three pledges worked together in making plans for the new chapter and for rushing women on campus.

Within two months the number had grown to seven pledges, and from there the seven girls joined hands as one unified pledge class, striving for the success of their chapter. Since there were no present actives, the pledges with Pam's guidance, were hard at work in setting goals and starting traditions for their future chapter to follow. Each pledge was voted into a chapter office and during the semester, these officers were learning their duties and planning the chapter business for their upcoming pledge class. With rush coming in the spring, there was lots to be done in preparation for rush parties.

With the help of Jan Coates, Carol Wood, and Cathy Sophianos, the Pi Phis soon had their rush program ready to go. Actives from surrounding Michigan chapters showed their Pi Beta Phi sisterhood and concern by driving over to help participate in Albion's rush. The seven pledges had worked hard and were ready to reap the benefits of a fine pledge class. Nine girls of outstanding character were pledged, and with this new number, the successful foundation had been set for a healthy, enthusiastic Pi Beta Phi chapter.

The chapter, now consisting of seven actives and nine pledges, is functioning as a Pi Phi chapter, a chapter that all Pi Phi sisters should be very proud of! With the leadership of their fine officers, the sky is the limit as to what they want to accomplish. They've had kidnap breakfasts, Sunday night dinners, popcorn parties, organized a walk-a-thon for the handicapped, and have set up interest groups among the sixteen. This core of girls is looking forward to leading the way towards new horizons for all the future Pi Phis at Albion College.

Texas Epsilon Colony Is Pledged

by Marsue McFaddin Burns

Denton A.C.

Climaxing a weekend of sisterhood ties strengthened through active and alumnæ workshops and dinner meetings, thirty-five members of Omicron local sorority were pledged to the Texas Epsilon Colony of Pi Beta Phi, soon to become the Fraternity's 113th chapter. The colony is located at North Texas State University in Denton. The pledging ceremony was held Sunday, August 24, 1975, at the home of Lu Ann Browning Redman, president of the Denton Alumnæ Club. Mrs. Redman and Marsue McFaddin Burns were co-chairmen for the weekend events.

Nancy Blaicher Pollock, Grand Recording Secretary, conducted the pledging ceremony, assisted by Freda Stafford Schuyler, Grand Vice President of Collegians, and Cyndi Burris, Resident Graduate Counselor for the new colony. Other Fraternity officers attending were Deanie Fulton Kepler, Pi Province President; Sue Cummings Gibson, Pi North Alumnæ Province President; and Mary Lou Schmausser Wootten, former Omicron Province President and special advisor for the Texas Epsilon colony. Alumnæ club representatives visited from Dallas, Fort Worth, Richardson, and Irving.

An informal tea followed the ceremony, with a beautiful wine and silver blue motif carried out in flowers, decorations, and refreshments. At the tea table and throughout the afternoon, the new pledges were introduced to Pi Phi songs, as active members from Texas Beta, Texas Delta, Oklahoma Alpha, and Colorado Gamma chapters joined the alumnæ in singing the Pi Phi Grace, "Ring Ching Ching," "Ocean to Ocean," and other Fraternity favorites.

Ten members of the Denton Alumnæ Club, representing 10 different chapters across the country, will serve as pledge mothers to the new group; and as each "family" was identified and introduced, the pledges discovered still another facet of the Pi Phi sisterhood that awaits them. Each pledge daughter received as a parting gift a wine-colored coleus plant, wrapped and tied in wine and silver blue, and a wine and blue program commemorating the afternoon.

With the excitement of the weekend's celebration still running high, the Texas Epsilon colony immediately entered the university's formal rush period, and members showed their enthusiasm for Pi Beta Phi by successfully filling their quota with 16 additional pledges.

Cyndi Burris of Shreveport, Louisiana, will guide the chapter this year in its orientation to the national Fraternity and in its preparation for installation and initiation. As the graduate resident counselor, Cyndi brings her experience as the chapter president of Louisiana Beta. With an undergraduate major in sociology, she is currently studying gerontology as a graduate student at North Texas.

All members of the Texas Epsilon colony live together at the College Inn, a privately operated student housing complex, which accommodates the 11 campus sororities and provides individual chapter rooms for each group, close to their living corridors.

Colony Pledges' Dreams Come True

by DENISE BARTOSH
Texas Epsilon Colony

One girl's dream of a beautiful sisterhood that could be shared by any girl willing to give of herself in friendship and love to other girls has led to the colonization of the Texas Epsilon colony of Pi Beta Phi.

Four years ago Ruthie Hejl started on a journey that has given fellowship to many coeds of North Texas State University in Denton.

The local sorority she founded, Omicron, grew into one of the most well-known organizations on campus. Ruthie believed that some day Omicron would become affiliated with a national sorority and her dream came true when Grand Council voted to accept Omicron as its newest Texas chapter.

Suddenly Pi Phi angels from everywhere descended upon Denton to tutor the soon-to-be pledges in the way of the Pi Phi arrow. Cyndi Burris, Louisiana Beta, became the "resident angel" and will continue to guide the colony as it becomes familiar with all aspects of the national fraternity.

Finally it was August 24, 1975—pledge day for 36 excited young women. At the home of Mrs. Van Redman, president of the Denton Alumnæ Club, Pi Phis from "ocean to ocean" gathered to welcome these girls into the sisterhood that means so much to them.

Following a solemn pledging ceremony, the new pledges gave a round of applause to all Pi Phis present and cheered as they heard for the first time, "Angel in Disguise."

"Ring Ching Ching," sang those present as everyone lifted in toast a goblet of Denton alum Mrs. Marsue Burns' Mint Tea, which has since been renamed "Texas Epsilon Tea," and will be served during fall rush parties.

Congratulatory messages came from chapters all over the nation to the new colony and Texas Gamma sent an arrow plaque commemorating the first pledging of Texas Epsilon. It will be hung in the colony's chapter room upon its completion.

Still full of butterflies, the pledges had their first experience in formal rushing procedures with the local Panhellenic Association. Party preparations continued day and night. And when it was all over, sixteen girls had been added to the new Pi Phi sisterhood of Texas Epsilon.

With dreams of an exciting and fulfilling year ahead, Texas Epsilon pledges are devoting time and energy to learning how to become the best Pi Phis possible as they eagerly anticipate the time they will be installed as the fifth Pi Beta Phi chapter in Texas.

The Texas Epsilon Colony of Pi Beta Phi is truly a dream come true for its pledges and recognition is due all those affiliated with the national organization of Pi Beta Phi who so diligently worked to make them a part of the Fraternity. Special recognition should be given the Denton Alumnæ Club.

The pledges of Texas Epsilon would like to add special thanks to Mrs. Burns for so graciously naming her special beverage, Texas Epsilon Tea. The recipe follows so that Pi Phis everywhere may enjoy it.

Texas Epsilon Tea (2 gallons)

1 cup tea leaves
Peelings of 3 lemons
30 pieces of mint, or 1 box dried mint
2 quarts boiling water
Steep above ingredients 5 minutes and strain, then combine and add the following:

- 3 cans pineapple juice
- 3 cups sugar

Works In Washington

Susi Sandifer, senior at Louisiana Beta, spent last June working in Washington, D.C., where she participated in the summer intern program, working in the office of Louisiana Senator J. Bennett Johnston.

Each Congressman who participates in the program invites college students from his home state to work as staff auxiliaries. The values of the program are the insight afforded students into the daily workings of the national government, and the feeling it gives them for what it means to be involved in that government.

C.E. Scholarships Awarded To Two

Katherine Mosley Elbring

Jane Griffel Bradbury

On June 23, 1975, at the Miami Convention, the announcement was made of the first winners of the Alumnæ Continuing Education Scholarships

The scholarship itself was a first, made possible by the Wisconsin Alpha Trust (Winter, 1974, ARROW). As of June, 1975, 20% of the net income was available for furthering education of Pi Beta Phi alumnæ.

The first recipient is Katherine Mosley Elbring, Indiana Epsilon, from the Lafayette (Ind.) Alumnæ Club. She holds a Bachelor of Arts and a Master of Science degrees, has served her club as corresponding secretary and vice president, is single handedly raising a seven year old and a three year old, and received superior recommendations from two professors on the faculty of Educational Psychology.

Katherine has been working on her Ph.D. for one semester and has forty-four semester hours to complete. Her need and her goals were highly commendable.

The second recipient is a member of the Ann Arbor (Mich.) Alumnæ Club, Jane Griffel Bradbury, Iowa Zeta. She is single handedly raising three children, ages nine, ten, and twelve, while working toward a master's degree in Hospital Administration.

Recommendations from her professors spoke most highly of this Pi Phi. Also impressive was her alumnæ service, for she has served as AAC chairman for five years, as well as now serving as club treasurer.

In a letter, Jane shared her happiness and appreciation of her scholarship by saying,

"... it hasn't always been easy the past couple of years but this scholarship helps to renew my dedication and desire to finish school with flying colors. It also renews my belief that Pi Phi has always been a very forward looking sorority ... and again I am grateful for the friendship and support I have always received from Pi Phi. I definitely believe fraternities have and will continue to have a place in women's lives, not only in college but in their larger world, be it community involvement or careers."

Applications for 1976 are anticipated now. Those Pi Phis with financial need and goals in continuing their education should take advantage of this opportunity by requesting applications from the chairman of Alumnæ Committee for Continuing Education. Completed forms must be returned by March 15, 1976.

New Editor Handles Alum Club Letters

An active Pi Beta Phi alumna with a degree in journalism—those were two of the qualifications that caught the eye when a new Alumnæ Club Letter Editor was needed for The Arrow. Holding those qualifications, and many more, was Lindsey Farnham Siegfried of Terrace Park, Ohio.

Lindsey grew up in Cincinnati, attended Northwestern University, and was graduated from Ohio State University in 1960. She pledged Pi Phi at Ohio State, following in the footsteps of her mother, Dorothy Russell Farnham, and two aunts, Helen Russell Mitchell and Mary Russell Dye.

She received her BA in journalism from Ohio State, and spent the next two years traveling as a market research investigator for Procter and Gamble. She was then hired by that company as a staff assistant in the advertising department. The company was also responsible for husband, John, since they met while both were traveling for P. & G.

The Siegfried household is definitely male oriented, since there are now three sons—Gregg, 11½, Brett, 9, and Kevin, 6. Even the dog, a schnoodle (schnauzer-poodle) named Pepper, is male!

Lindsey has been active in the Cincinnati Alumnæ Club for ten years, serving in a number of offices, including president. She was chairman of the club's first Ladies' Domino Tournament which she learned about at the San Antonio Convention. They are now planning their fourth tourney.

Currently Lindsey is chairman of the Decorators' Show House, the major Junior League fund raiser in Cincinnati. In addition to her Arrow job, she is a member of the Pi Phi Alumnæ Committee for Continuing Education.

In her spare time, Lindsey has a catering business with a friend—a niece of Amy B. Onken. They fix gourmet luncheons, brunches, dinner parties, etc., and have fed everyone "from pro football players to Gloria Vanderbilt." But that's another story!

lowa Gammas found a way to remember each others' major fields and to have fun doing it. Last spring each came to dinner dressed in an outfit representing her major. Shrewd businesswomen, television directors, fashion designers, and many others dined and laughed at the inspired idea. Pictured are Anne Huene, Roxanne Beale, Nora Schroeder, Marcia Eckert, Carla Boots, Amy Becker, Mary Lynn Meyer.

Group Advances In Cultural Department

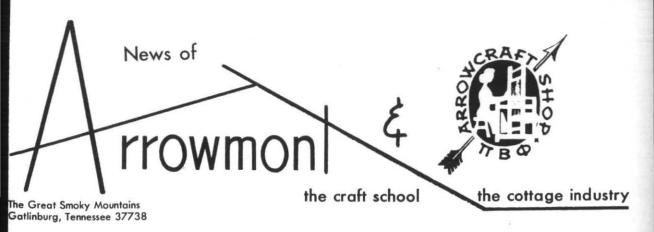

by PATTI KING, California Eta

The Pi Phis of California Eta have missed out, for the past year and a half, on the educational and cultural enrichment area of mental advancement. So, to make up for lost time, two cultural activities were planned during the summer in order to get off to a good start in the fall.

We began our "pre"-cultural experience at the Dorothy Chandler Pavilion in the Los Angeles Music Center. About thirteen of us were thoroughly delighted with Nanette Fabray's performance in the musical comedy "Wonderful Town."

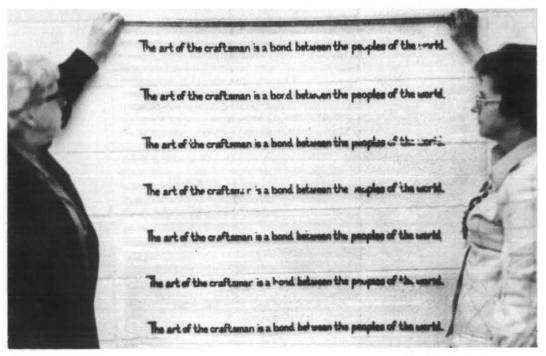

Our next excursion took us to the Holly-wood Bowl Special bus. The evening started out on the right foot (?) when the V.P. Mental, who was in charge of the tickets, realized that she had left them in the trunk of the car back in Long Beach. However, with a little convincing (and a glance through group ticket sale files) we managed to enter the Bowl with plenty of time left to enjoy our picnic dinners (the thing to bring to the Bowl).

The program consisted of two choral masterpieces, one by Bach and one by Faure. The evening ended happily although we must admit we preferred the food and good conversation to the performance.

Arrowmont Hosts International Symposium

THE WHITE HOUSE

Vail, Colorado August 13, 1975

Mrs. Ford and I take great pleasure in welcoming all who attend the Second U.S. International Ceramic Symposium.

Bringing together ceramic artists from all over the world, this event gives public recognition to ceramic art while at the same time strengthening international friendship and goodwill.

We welcome this opportunity to applaud the talented exhibitors and to salute the organizers of the Symposium for their important contribution to the advancement of one of the oldest, most creative and useful art forms in the world.

Gerall R. Ford

Outstanding ceramic artists from Australia, Belgium, Canada, Hungary, Nigeria, the United States, and Wales arrived at Arrowmont on August 20, 1975, to spend a month together —shaping eighteen tons of clay into original creations.

The occasion was the second International Ceramic Symposium to be held in the United States. The objective, as expressed by Arrowmont Assistant Director Sandra Blain, was to provide "a time and a physical setting for potters from different backgrounds to observe, to share, to work, to verbalize, and to discuss the importance of communication."

Under the auspices of the International Academy of Ceramics with support from the Verband International Ceramic Symposiums, the event was jointly sponsored by the National Endowment for the Arts, Arrowmont, and the Tennessee Arts Commission.

In honor of the occasion Tennessee Governor Ray Blanton declared the months of August and September International Ceramic Months in his state. Greetings arrived from President Gerald Ford and from Ms. Nancy Hanks, Chairman of the National Endowment for the Arts. On behalf of Arrowmont the visiting craftsmen were welcomed by Administrator Caroline Riddle and by Ms. Blain, who served as I.C.S. Coordinator and as Arrowmont representative to the symposium. Councilman Earl Ogle and Mrs. Glen Bullock represented Gatlinburg and the Tennessee Arts Commission, respectively, in greeting the visitors.

Until September 15 the participants remained in seclusion, sharing ideas, opinions and orientations as they explored new materials, techniques and concepts. Working side by side, they expressed their individual responses through the medium of clay, transforming it into a variety of distinctive creations—some decorative, some utilitarian.

In the words of Kurt Spurey, Austrian potter and Director of I.C.S., "Each one did his throwing, shaping, casting, designing, rejecting or elaborating, glazing and firing. The basic idea can, perhaps, be best expressed in the form of a paradox: very individualistic togetherness. Working side by side turns into working together. Friendly discussions go on during the entire creative process. What an interplay! Opinions are clashing, new orientations are emerging, and—most important—communion breaks through isolation."

This intensive period of creative activity culminated in a special exhibit of art works which opened with an invitational preview and banquet on September 15 and remained on display in the Arrowmont Gallery through November 10, after which time some items were selected for permanent collections and others for traveling shows by Arts Commission officials.

Oldrich Asenbryl, who was born in Czechoslovakia and now lives in Wales, is shown as he throws the body for a porcelain tea pot. The decorative pots from his production studio reflect a departure from the traditional concept of an English tea pot.

Carmen Dionyse of Belgium has won many awards for her sculptural works which represent human forms, usually heads with partial bodies and simplified features. Through shape, surface quality, and subtle coloration her dynamic figures reflect a quality of mystery. Here she is using a paddle to modify a shape.

But, according to Lewis Snyder, President of the U.S. I.C.S., aside from the works created, "For the delegates, the true values are the thoughts, ideas, and developments from this experience, the attitudes and opinions fostered by observing, the information, techniques, materials, and processes discovered among participants. Attitudes and developments are hastened by the catalyst of the Symposium itself. This is what the Symposium is really about." (A member of the Symposium Planning Committee, Mr. Snyder is also Director of Crafts for the TAC.)

Participants, selected on the basis of their professional backgrounds, their contributions to the ceramic arts, and their willingness to communicate and to be receptive to new ideas and disciplines, were as follows:

AUSTRALIA Joan Campbell, Perth, member Australia Council (for the Arts). Best known for large, sculptural forms, her work is represented in major exhibitions and viewed in many publications.

BELGIUM Carmen Dionyse, Gent, professor of art at "PHICO," Hasselt Superior Institute of Fine Art and at "KASK," the Royal Academy of Fine Art. Recipient of many prestigious international awards.

CANADA Victor Brosz, professor of ceramics and department chairman at the Univer-

Marc Hansen, a Western Michigan University professor of art, is widely known for his use of crystalline glazes on fine porcelain traditional bottle forms. Here he is trimming a bottle which will be glazed and then fired in a controlled oxidizing atmosphere. When finished, crystals of varying sizes and colors will appear to be floating on the glazed surface.

Joan Campbell of Australia constructs monumental cube and ovoid forms which emphasize subtle textural variations. She utilizes a very porous stoneware clay body which she scrapes and pierces to achieve a unique surface quality. Here she works on a large slab construction which will be raku fired in a kiln built around it.

Meet Mary Helen— New Board of Governors' Chairman

by MELINDA MAHONE, B.O.G.

The annual Arrowmont Board of Governors meeting in Gatlinburg each October brings excitement, hard work, and new faces. The Board consists of thirteen Pi Phis scattered throughout the United States. Beginning in October, Mary Helen Holliday became chairman of the Arrowmont Board of Governors, to serve for the next two years.

Mary Helen, Texas Alpha, received her

A Fashion Note . . .

Arrowcraft shared the spotlight on Arrowmont Night at Convention. As one of the trio of featured speakers, Sarah Ruth ("Sis") Mullis, Board of Governors Co-Chairman, wore a hostess skirt especially woven for the occasion. The pink border on the white skirt featured a design adapted from the diamond pattern which Arrowcraft weavers have used for years on table mats and tote bags. This skirt was in the designing process for about six weeks.

Handwoven skirts can be ordered from the Arrowcraft Shop in a variety of designs and color combinations. B.A. and M.A. from the University of Texas and after teaching high school English for two years, married Jim Holliday. While living in Texas, Mary Helen continued her interest in Pi Phi by being a member of the Dallas Alumnæ Club. She and Jim also began raising their family—three daughters.

In 1954, the Hollidays moved to Jackson, Miss. Mary Helen wasted little time getting involved in Pi Phi work. The Jackson Alumnæ Club was soon rechartered and Mary Helen served in various offices in the club, including the presidency. For several years she was the Mississippi State Recommendations Chairman. She also served as secretary of the Mississippi Beta House Corporation and was fortunate to have a fine assistant in her husband who was instrumental in planning and building the new chapter house.

After living sixteen years in Mississippi, Jim and Mary Helen were transferred back to Dallas. One year later, 1971, Mary Helen became Pi North Alumnæ Province President. That fall an officers' workshop was held in Gatlinburg and the lady from the southwest fell in love with Arrowmont and the mountains of the southeast.

A few months later Jim and Mary Helen were transferred again, this time to California. One year after her first visit to Gatlinburg, Mary Helen returned to visit the school she loved—Arrowmont—as a member of its Board of Governors. In 1973 Mary Helen was elected secretary of the Board and served in that capacity until the present.

The Holliday family is all grown up now. Jim and Mary Helen are proud grandparents of three grandsons and one granddaughter. Mary Helen continues to work hard for Pi Phi. She is an active member of the San Mateo (Calif.) Alumnæ Club. Her husband loves Pi Phi also, and has been a tremendous asset to Mary Helen and the Fraternity.

The Arrowmont Board of Governors is indeed proud to have Mary Helen Holliday as its new chairman.

It Doesn't Matter If You Feel Uncertain

Among Pi Phi collegians who enrolled at Arrowmont for 1975 summer courses were Beth Brower, Ohio Epsilon; Nancy Spangler, Ohio Zeta; Jean Helfrich, Ohio Epsilon; Marti Gilbert, Michigan Alpha; Cissy West, Tennessee Delta; Anna Osborne, Louisiana Beta; and Barbara Crawford, Oklahoma Beta, who worked as a student assistant for five weeks.

Hawaii No Ka Oi or How To Win With Arrowcraft

by Geraldine DeBenedetti Senner Honolulu A.C.

After five days at Convention in Miami and three days at Arrowcraft and Arrowmont in Gatlinburg, I am on a Pi Phi high. While on that elevated level, I'd like to share the Hawaii experience of coming from nothing to everything in three years of hard work and belief in our philanthropy. I have a story I read to my legacy called Millions of Cats in which a couple wants a cat and because there are hundreds of cats, thousands of cats, millions of cats, they cannot choose and so they take them all because each is prettier than the next. That's how I feel about Pi Phi purses. If you feel that way, you can sell Arrowcraft.

Begin from the basic and true premise that Arrowcraft is quality, you need not apologize for the price, and that its durability and handmade beauty are something you can sell with pride. Add to that your belief that Arrowmont is a superior philanthropy and that you cannot do enough to support it. Now you're ready to buy and sell millions of cats.

The Arrowcraft chairperson must believe in the product. She must be willing to carry a Pi Phi purse at all times, preferably using all the sizes, like a senior tote for work, a junior tote for tennis, a shoulder bag for sports events, and a mini for evening. Use no other bag. She must use Pi Phi coasters, hot pads, and pot holders in her home and believe that the ideal all-occasion gift is Arrowcraft.

Do everything possible to order economically and wisely. If someone is ordering for a gift at another address, offer to mail direct from Gatlinburg with the customer paying the postage. When the bill comes, charge your price of the bag, plus postage, and you've made a sale with no expense.

Create your own price list. Type and make copies of a page of your own prices with your chairperson's phone number at the top. Raise prices to what the traffic will allow. We're here to make money, not to give away Arrowcraft. Know your market and price accordingly. If local department stores sell good pot holders for $1, charge $1 for Pi Phi potholders. Ours are just as good, if not better.

Gerry Senner, Honolulu A.C. displays her club's wellearned award for being first in the nation for Arrowcraft gross sales, 1974-75.

Keep a box of samples in your car, and if anyone asks, "what's in the box?," show them. Having an item on hand means a quick sale. At least be able to show all four sizes of the purses and some representative colors.

When you get checks from customers, write down the address from the check to start a mailing list. Satisfied customers will brag to their friends.

When you have a sale, display your items imaginatively. Set your dining table with mats, napkins, napkin rings, coasters, and hot pads. Use your own china and sterling to create a smashing impression.

Be agreeable. If someone wants a black bag with purple knots, order it for them. After visiting the Arrowcraft shop and talking to our beautiful Faye and Nella and Ruby, we now understand what "warp" means. As long as the colors are available, if the warp is set up with the basic color, you can plug in any normally stocked color or knot. Satisfy your customers. If they want a long place mat, just ask Arrowcraft to make one. We recently ordered a Daisy mat 100 inches long to go down the center of a long table. The customer doesn't care what it costs, she's getting exactly what she wants. She'll have to wait, but you'll have that satisfied customer.

Remember, "they" is you. Four years ago we wondered why they didn't make a coaster. So we asked and last year they sold 17,000 Hawaiian coasters. How about asking they to name something after your club?

From now on Arrowcraft is the gift for outgoing presidents (junk those silver trays—give a revival bag), pledges, new initiates, for Panhellenic auctions, and Christmas bazaars.

Create a Pi Phi Purse for a drawing at your meetings. Ours is a wine and blue junior tote. Inside is a roll of drawing tickets and a surprise gift. For 10¢ each or 3 for 25¢ you buy tickets and drop the stub in the tote with the money. At the end of the meeting draw the winning ticket. The lucky member gets the surprise gift, the Pi Phi purse to hold 'til the next meeting, and must replace the gift. The money goes to the treasury.

If you regularly donate to a Christmas bazaar, make this year's contribution "Mrs. Santa's Purse." Take a red junior tote, fill with some tissue and on top place two green potholders, six red and white coasters, a white hot pad, and a cookbook. It makes an attractive, artistic donation for any bazaar.

Our Panhellenic has a meeting each fall when every alumnæ club may bring its fund raising projects to show and tell. Take Arrowcraft. If your Panhellenic doesn't do this type of thing, suggest it, and get to that fantastic group of sorority women who will appreciate Arrowcraft.

The most cost saving item of all—DO NOT MAIL ANYTHING BACK. You are only paying postage twice and you don't have to sell it all before summer or before changing chairpersons. Keep it and have an early sale at somebody's September bridge club to generate Christmas orders. If you end up with a real loser, hang in there—it will sell eventually, or you can always put it in the Pi Phi Purse for a door prize.

Create your own miracles. Aloha.

Recipe Is Winner

Jill Shiner Hayward of the Philadelphia Main Line Alumnæ Club picked up an extra $25 last spring when she submitted a winning recipe to the Pantry Planner, publication of a grocery chain. The recipe for Reuben Casserole appears on page 56 of the Arrowmont Cookbook. Jill submitted her recipe to the Consumer Panel and it was selected as a winner.

Watch For Pi Phis In Old Williamsburg

by SARA LEWIS, Virginia Gamma

Last summer, if you vacationed in historic Colonial Williamsburg or visited the Old Country at Busch Gardens that just opened this year, you may have been greeted by a Virginia Gamma Pi Phi! Because of the many employment opportunities offered by these two corporations, many of the Pi Phis at William and Mary found that it would be profitable to spend their summer in Williamsburg.

In Colonial Williamsburg, Pi Phis Diane Hanretty and Sara Lewis worked as interpreters in 18th century shops along Duke of Gloucester Street in the restored area. In Busch Gardens Pi Phis Sandy Jeter, Melissa Locke, Pam Cutler, Vanessa Popa, Nancy Tienken, Sue Shank, Sue Hanna, and alum Sarah Talis worked at every kind of job from toy store clerk and bank teller to monorail and roller coaster operators. Everyone agrees it was a fun summer, especially those instances when another Pi Phi was discovered.

One day at Busch Gardens, a Virginia Gamma met a lady who was a Golden Arrow Pi Phi, as she was boarding the "Eagle One" monorail. In Colonial Williamsburg, a Virginia Gamma noticed a Pi Phi ring that a visitor wore as she was looking at the display of hand crafted silver. It makes Pi Phi take on more of a national meaning when you meet someone you've never seen before, from across the United States, who shares that same Pi Phi "specialness."

Many Virginia Gammas have already decided to stay in Williamsburg again next summer. So if you're traveling our way keep a sharp eye out for the details that tell you who's a Pi Phi. Virginia Gammas will be looking for you too.

Diane Hanretty and Sara Lewis enjoy their summer jobs in historic Williamsburg.

AMERICAN BICENTENNIAL AND $\Pi B \Phi$

With the approval of Convention, the Washington Alumnæ Club solicits the support of each Pi Beta Phi in supporting our American Bicentennial by contributing to a fund to be given to the United States Capitol Historical Society.

The United States Capitol was chosen as the recipient of Pi Beta Phi's gift because the building is itself a tangible symbol of our representative government. One of the projects of The Society is sponsorship of Our Capitol: Freedom Speaks, a sound and light production for the East front of the Capitol building. This "Son et Lumiere" show, a dramatic interplay of light, music, narrative, and sound effects, is planned as a continuing program. It will be a focal point of the Bicentennial, portraying the development of the Capitol from the first stone laid in 1793 to the present time.

The Washington Club will handle the collection of your contribution, which will later be presented to the Historical Society in the name of Pi Beta Phi. Because contributions to the Society are tax deductable, and because we are custodians of the funds collected for them, your contribution is tax deductable. Each donor's name will be entered in a Donor's Book compiled by the Alumnæ Club, which will be presented to the Archives Room at Central Office. Names will also be entered into a computer listing kept at The Capitol.

Our Founders

Part One

Emma Brownlee Kilgore was the first president of Pi Beta Phi, and the Fraternity's Coat-of-Arms is based upon that of the Brownlee family. Never was there a more loyal nor a more interested Fraternity member than Mrs. Kilgore.

Thirty years after the founding of Pi Beta Phi, she attended the Convention at Madison, Wis., 1897, and her stories of the founding were eagerly awaited and delightfully received.

In response to a number of requests, The ARROW will publish stories about our Founders in the three news/feature issues of Volume 92. Nearly all information has been taken from "A Century of Friendship," published in 1968, and edited by Jean Orr Donaldson, National Historian.

Mrs. Kilgore was always interested in the history of the Fraternity, and miraculously, she rescued some early Monmouth papers and preserved them, although most of the records of Alpha were destroyed.

Emma was born on a farm at Little York, Ill., March 25, 1848. Her sister Clara was born in the same home January 6, 1850. Emma wrote for The Arrow in 1917, "They tell me that I was a pretty little baby while very young, lasting about two weeks."

The two girls were taught at home, by their mother, until Clara was seven and Emma was nine. They then entered a country school.

Emma entered Monmouth College in the fall of 1864, graduated in 1868 and returned home. Clara entered Monmouth in '67 and continued until '71, when she had to leave college in her senior year because her mother was seriously ill. Clara was the next to the youngest member of the group of twelve Founders.

Emma married Dr. J. C. Kilgore in October, 1870. Clara married Alexis Hutchinson in June, 1872, and had four children, Clyde, Ora, Emmil, and Harry.

Both sisters were members of the United Presbyterian Church, and were interested in temperance and civic work. They spent their lives in Warren County and lived only a few blocks apart in Monmouth. They were separated only one year during their lives and they learned to depend on each other a great deal.

In writing for The Arrow, Emma said, "I am something of a 'joiner,' temperance and missionary societies, D.A.R., various clubs. I enjoy them and think I got the start from Pi Phi."

The sisters "do not claim anything remarkable but they always speak with pride when they tell the younger generation 'I was one of the Founders of Pi Beta Phi,' and we think the Brownlee Eagle on our Coat-of-Arms must ever spread its protecting wings over every Pi Phi. That is our wish."

According to Emma, "(Clara) is a lovely character ever going about doing good, a model mother and homemaker, and her children rise up and call her blessed." Those Pi Phis who knew and loved Clara remembered her for her "unfailing gentleness, her spirit of 'over-flowing ministry,' her keen zest in each new experience, her youthful spirit and her sympathetic understanding of youth, her unfaltering adherence to conviction, her 'queenly grace,' and her true loveliness. She lived the ideals of splendid womanhood which she helped to establish for her Fraternity: she gave us a new understanding of how most-of-all worthwhile it is to live beautifully."

Emma Brownlee Kilgore had her plans all made and her wardrobe in order for attending the Convention at Bigwin Inn in 1925, but she "was called to cross the 'great border' into fullness of life."

Clara Brownlee Hutchinson died January 4, 1931, just two days before her eighty-first birthday. One of her greatest joys came when granddaughter, Marion Jane Tornquist, of Montana, came to Monmouth College as a freshman. On January 30, 1931, just 26 days after her grandmother's death, Marion was pledged to Illinois Alpha.

"(Mrs. Hutchinson's) keen interest in every phase of the Fraternity, her understanding of its problems and organization, and her pride in its accomplishments were made evident by her support of its projects: her pride in the Settlement School was not greater than her loyalty in contributing to its support, and her abiding interest and belief in the future of the Fraternity are attested by her generous gift to the Pi Beta Phi Endowment . . . In the truest sense of the word, she was a Pi Beta Phi!"

Inez Smith Soule

Inez Smith was born July 26, 1846, in Monmouth. Her parents were Virginians who had gone to Illinois prior to the advent of the railroad. Inez was educated in the public schools of Monmouth and entered college in 1865, graduating with the class of 1868. It was during her junior year in college that the twelve girls laid the foundation of I. C. Sorosis.

On April 12, 1869, Inez Bell Smith and Melville Cox Soule were married, and to this union were born eight children. The youngest son, Cleon H. Soule, graduated from Miami University of Oxford, Ohio, and received a scholarship for one year's post-graduate work at Illinois University. He is an enthusiastic member of Beta Theta Pi, and currently lives in Pacific Grove, Calif.

In a recent letter to The Arrow, Mr. Soule wrote of some of his memories. "When Alpha Chapter was reinstalled in 1928 at Monmouth, it was my privilege to take a picture of the five Founders who were present along with Amy Onken, the Grand President. . . . Fanny Whitenack Libbey told me that my mother was the prettiest one of the twelve Founders when they were in college. She was only a little over five feet tall, very spritely and slender. My mother had eight children, three sons, then a pair of twins, Earl and Ella, but the girl died when six years old. Next there were two girls and finally I came. Mother's hair was light brown which held for many years, but finally turned to a soft grey. Her eyes were hazel, and her favorite colors in dress were blue or light grey.

"She kept her own apartment until at ninety years of age we thought she should have someone to live with her. Independence was a characteristic and she dismissed the first assistant we hired. Then we found a woman who was kind and efficient and who remained until mother, at almost ninety-five, broke a hip and was in the hospital two weeks before the end.

"When living alone, a person tends to be a bit casual about meals, so I made it a point to go to her apartment for lunch. For that reason she would prepare a good meal and she was always a good cook. One noon some business delayed me. Lunch was ready, and to keep it warm, she placed it in a pan of hot water.

Then she sat by the window to watch for my car. When she saw me drive up, she hastened to the kitchen and grabbed off the lunch, accidentally pulling the pan of hot water onto her leg. As if nothing had happened, she put lunch on the table but did not tell me about it. That afternoon a woman in the next apartment called to tell me what had happened. I took a doctor up to see about it and part of the skin came off with the stocking. Can you imagine such fortitude?

"Mother was the most kindly person I have ever known. In all the years I never heard her say one unkind word to, or about, anyone. Her first thought was always about the other person, not about herself. She had a wonderful sense of humor and could laugh at a joke on herself more readily than when it was on some other person. I remember an instance when I was only nine years old-I was in the kitchen with my two sisters while mother was preparing lunch. She had made some gravy in one of those old and very heavy iron skillets. She took the skillet off the gas stove and while carrying it across the kitchen to a table, spilled some gravy onto the linoleum. She warned us, 'Now, don't step in that.' She picked up a cloth to wipe up the gravy but when she tried to step across, she skidded and sat down in the gravy. In memory I can still see her sitting there and laughing at herself.

"She was always ready to help someone or do something for someone. She was an enthusiastic member of the Pi Beta Phi Alumnæ Club, named in her honor in Tacoma, and also in another club called the Aurora Club. All her life she was interested in Methodist Church affairs. In her later years, I recall how she made many little needle books to give to friends. Many Pi Phis were recipients."

Mrs. Soule gave her I.C. arrow to her grand-daughter, Eleanor Soule Crosby, the daughter of Cleone Soule. Eleanor was initiated into Washington Alpha but transferred to North Carolina Alpha for her junior and senior years. Eleanor is the wife of the United States minister to Nigeria, now living in Lagos. Three other granddaughters and two great granddaughters are Pi Phis.

Jennie Nicol

Jennie was born in 1845 at Edgington, Ill., and brought up on a farm near Little York. Her friends called her Rachel, and she was a pioneer in the field of medicine as a profession for women. She was a constant visitor at the home of Dr. and Emma Kilgore during her days as an active member of Illinois Alpha, and she used to say, "I think we should have women physicians and I have an ambition to show the men what a woman can do."

Dr. Kilgore encouraged her to commence study, and then to go to Philadelphia to become a student at the Women's Medical College of Pennsylvania. She received the degree of doctor of medicine in 1879. Dr. Nicol completed a year as intern in the New England Hospital, spent some time learning German, and then went to Switzerland to take advanced work in the University of Zurich. She intended to return to Illinois to practice, but in March, 1881, she died of meningitis after an illness of a few days.

Jennie was not in town for the first I.C. meeting, but she was very proud of her arrow and was a faithful member. She wore her I.C. pin the night she started for Philadelphia and laughingly wondered if "they will know in the East what I.C. means."

Emma Kilgore wrote of Jennie, "To strangers she was cold, dignified, almost exacting, but that was not her real character. She was kind and loving and helpful to others and went about doing good. Where duty called her she was faithful even at the risk of her life . . . I write all this to show you she succeeded where weak women would have failed. She was strong and large physically, she was strong and large intellectually, she was strong and large spiritually."

Jennie Nicol is buried among the friends of her youth in Cedar Creek churchyard, near Little York, Ill.

Responding to frequent requests from members of Pi Beta Phi, Grand Council announces that anyone who wishes may send her Fraternity pin to Central Office when she feels she no longer will need it. Pins of deceased Pi Phis may be sent to Central Office also. Later, when the stock has been built up, the pins will be sold at a reduced price to new initiates.

A Pi Beta Phi Heritage HOLT HOUSE

"We hope to take the portraits to Chicago to have the work done this fall," is the good news related to Pi Phis attending the 1975 Convention by Holt House Committee Chairman Joyce Junge Ferguson. The portraits, of course, are those of Major and Mrs. Jacob Holt, and the work Joyce refers to is the restoration of the paintings, both of which are in critical condition.

Alumnæ from Sun City, Ariz., and Reno, Nev., contributed large gifts, with the balance of the money received for the portrait repair work coming from alumnæ in Illinois, Indiana, and Florida, according to the chairman's report. More than $1150 has been donated. Although the total cost will not be known until experts are able to personally examine and evaluate the paintings, it is hoped that the amount collected will cover most of the works.

Holt House looks warm and inviting on a brisk day in winter. The new letters above the entry-way are very readable from the street and make it easier for first-time visitors to locate their destination.

The valuable portraits, presented to Holt House in 1944 by Miss Fanny Bradford, the Holt's granddaughter, were painted in about 1837. They hang on the back wall of the big music room, sometimes called the dining room, where groups using Holt House are often served refreshments.

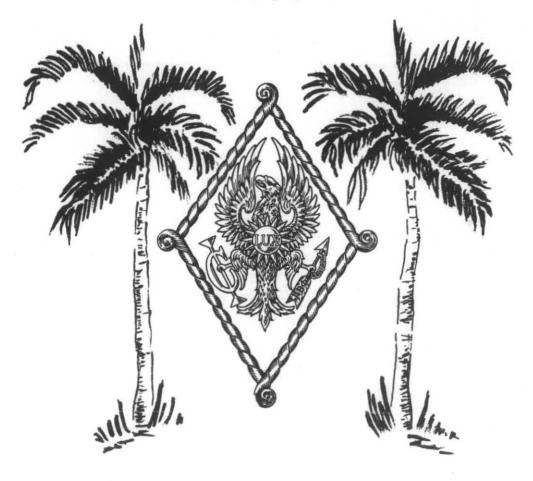

Joyce, who has served as chairman for the past two years, reminisced a bit. "It seems appropriate for me to be on the Holt House Committee. . . . Holt House and I have been in the Pi Phi family for the same length of time. It was in the summer of 1940 when I was pledged that the Convention voted to purchase Holt House and restore it," she told the more than 700 Pi Phis in Miami.

"The 1940 Convention decreed that the house would be restored with money from the contingency fund but all operating expenses were to come from contributions. In 1944 the committee received $1307 which paid the debts and covered the $1000 annual estimated expenses. Contributions have climbed through the years but so have expenses. This year we spent $6623 . . . so I hope you will urge your groups to be generous. If your budget is tight, perhaps you could adopt the idea that resulted in a generous donation from the unorganized Sun City alums," Joyce suggested. (The Sun City group collected 10 cents for each year of Pi Phi membership from each member. Since many were Golden Arrow Pi Phis in this retirement community, the dimes came in fast.) She closed by asking conventioneers to "go back to your clubs and chapters and insist that Holt House be a number one contribution this year."

Other members of the Holt House committee are Shirley Morrow Reed, Monmouth representative, who supervised the redecorating of the historical room this year; Viola Cureton, treasurer, who consulted with several qualified experts about restoring the Holt portraits and "who pays the bills promptly and keeps an eagle eye on the budget," and Jan Papke Landess, slide chairman and ARROW correspondent. All clubs and chapters are encouraged to use the Holt House slides; 17 groups used them last year. Anne Eckley Hayes until recently served as committee secretary for four years. The committee welcomes its new member, Helen Lofquist Dunbeck, a member of the North Shore Alumnæ Club living in Wilmette, Ill.

Opening Address

The State of The Fraternity

by ELIZABETH TURNER ORR
Grand President

One of the rare privileges, at times, of this office is to speak for the Fraternity. This is one of those privileged times. Rather than give you facts and figures which you can read for yourselves in the Information Issue of The Arrow, I will try to highlight the events of the past two years, as well as present thoughts for the future for your inspection.

During the past weeks I have agonized over what to report to you that would be of interest as well as inspirational. As my cohorts have heard me say, I am not an inspirational speaker. Finally, I decided simply to capsulize the past, because why should we dwell upon the past? It is the future that is important.

Fraternity Goals

Immediately upon taking office, a request was received from our ARROW Editor, Marilyn Ford, asking for a definition of my goals—not that my personal goals for the Fraternity were that important, but, as the privileged officer elected to this position, it was important what direction the Fraternity might be guided toward.

At that time I said my primary goal was the development of a firm leadership potential. We have made some progress in this area by urging each officer to work to her best capacity within her own field of expertise. We have tried to provide greater opportunities for increased responsibility by opening up the nominating procedures. Elections at this Convention will prove if this has been effective.

Another goal was to eliminate the apparent divisiveness between the collegiate and alumnæ departments. We are all part of one great Fraternity, and the aims of all of us should be for the betterment of Pi Beta Phi internationally, not the furtherance of individual ambition. In this area I believe that we have accomplished much by opening up communication lines and being genuinely concerned that information is shared. The cooperation of Evelyn Kyle has been unparalleled.

Fiscal Responsibility

We cannot live in today's world and turn a deaf ear to fiscal responsibility. This is true on the national level as well as applying to each chapter and club. Under the careful guidance of our Grand Treasurer, Orpha Coenen, we have been successful in pursuing economies and yet still providing the essential services to the Fraternity. We organized regional collegiate workshops during the school year, making for far greater participation and yet providing far less expenditure of our leadership funds—those funds which have so many demands.

As an aside, in speaking of workshops, I would like to commend to you general Pi Phi gatherings, such as State Days, Area Councils—any gathering where there can be a vibrant interchange of ideas and a widening of your own particular Pi Phi horizon, be it collegiate or alumnæ. Make being a member of the Wide Wide World of Pi Phi a sharing of this wide world.

Extension

The extension picture has changed so radically in the past two years that Liz Hill has been hard put to keep her ducks in order. No longer can we deliberate for long periods of time as to the merits of putting a chapter on a particular campus. Decisions must be made quickly and based on the best information available. We must urge all of you to keep us currently informed of extension possibilities in your own area. Although we have installed four chapters in the past two years and have two more in the formative stages, it remains our intention not to be the largest, but to be the best.

I could go on and detail for you the work of all the capable members of Grand Council and the invaluable contributions made by Sarah Hunt, Freda Schuyler, Vernah Gardner, and Julie Mendenhall—but the promise was not to dwell on the past. Suffice it to say, we all owe them so much.

In reviewing the past two years as well as making future projections, it must be remembered that Grand Council is the governing body of our Fraternity in the interim of Convention. Some actions which we have taken may not meet with universal approval, but it has been our aim not to govern with the arrogance of omnipotence nor the anonymity of indecision.

The Future

In looking toward the future, two particular areas seem to need our concerted efforts. Situated as we are today, at this lovely Doral Country Club, reference to a golfer's term comes to mind. Being a poor golfer myself, I still know the basics of the game, and one of these is follow through. We are not following through in the alumnæ department. Too often we allow our collegians to graduate from a satisfactory Fraternity experience in college into limbo as far as future relationship with Pi Beta Phi is concerned. Do we follow through in contacting them for alumnæ participation? Do we make that extra effort with newcomers in the community? On the other hand do the newcomers or the graduates take the initiative in making the initial contact? Invaluable as our Central Office is, they cannot give instant replay on where everyone is in this mobile society. I urge you to read the Operation Brass Tacks article in the summer issue of The ARROW, entitled "MAINTAIN THE BRIDGE FOR A FUTURE CROSSING." It will give you much food for thought.

In the collegiate department there is another glaring omission. We rush the rushees and we mother the pledges, but then what? Do we take the time to discuss with them the meaning and beautiful inspiration of our initiation ceremony? Do we guide them toward becoming contributing active members, gradually and carefully, or do we expect them to go through the metamorphosis of pledge to active overnight? Build yourselves a strong pledge program, but also build for yourselves a meaningful program of progressive learning with the goal of real Fraternity orientation so that the end product will be knowledgeable Pi Phi members and Panhellenic members as well. Follow through!

In the department which should be dear to the hearts of all of us—our philanthropies don't be satisfied with a token contribution.

Work to be informed. Know what our philanthropies are. Tout the rare position our Arrowmont School holds in the field of crafts. Do you know what Arrow in the Arctic is providing in the Northwest Territories? Know the facts. Speak of your pride.

All that is needed to complete our follow through is a little concentrated thought, a whiff in ingenuity, and the optimistic belief in success. I have heard it said that "a pessimist makes difficulty of opportunity; an optimist, opportunity of difficulty."

Our Opportunity

Please do not relate an emphasis on the future to a denigration of our beginnings. As we are gathered here today we can look back on an outstanding heritage which has trustfully been given into our hands, but we cannot be content merely to hold this heritage in trust. We must concretely contribute to an equally outstanding future.

To me the future means optimistic opportunity. Pi Beta Phi, built with strength, tested with time, has maintained a prideful place in the fraternity world. We have not been afraid to change when change meant progress. We have been willing to assess our strengths and admit our weaknesses. If the future is to be worthy of the past, delusion must continue to be avoided and hypocrisy defied. But also, if that future is to maintain the strength of the past, all that which is honest, just, pure, true, and lovely must be held in cherishing hands.

Today is ours—make the most of it. Our work is here—let's do it with wise deliberation. The future is vast—don't fear it. Make of that future a "vision quest."

Convention Report

What's In a Name?

by EVELYN PETERS KYLE Grand Vice President of Alumnæ

It has been nearly 400 years since Shake-speare wrote "Romeo and Juliet" and gave Juliet the line, "What's in a name?" But, as is true of all of Shakespeare's works, that quotation has passed the lips of countless men and women through the years. And now I say it to you. What is in a name? Let's take the name of Pi Beta Phi.

Think back with me to that inspiring, exhausting, and thrilling day of initiation and think of the inner significance of Pi Beta Phi that you learned, and the promises you made with the intention of keeping them for all of your life. Even though you made those promises, at that time it seemed as though Pi Phi really couldn't be forever. And then you graduated or left school and another door opened and suddenly you were an alumna. If you became an active one, you began to understand many things about Pi Phi. First, that you had a ready made group of friends wherever you went. Second, that you were able to help those young women still in college by being available to offer guidance, support, inspiration, and dedication, so that they could be encouraged to their highest potential. Pi Phi also meant participating in your community affairs so that the local citizens knew of the Fraternity activities and philanthropies. And it meant that you could assume a position of leadership in other organizations because you had had the benefit of holding office and working in a college chapter. I know that none of this is new, but have you taken time recently to appreciate your membership in Pi Beta Phi? And have you made an effort to bring your alumnæ club inactive Pi Phis who should be enjoying association and a common bond?

Membership Increases

When I was installed in this office, I had dreams of doubling the number of paid members in the Alumnæ Department before my term was over. This did not come to pass but the alumnæ province presidents have endeavored with some success to stimulate membership, and about 1000 more alumnæ did pay national dues this past year than previously. But there are many more we have not reached as yet, and I hope this will be remedied in the future. The greatest increase in paid members was in the following provinces: Iota, Kappa, Xi, Omicron, Pi South, and Tau, and a total of about 18,340 alumnæ paid national dues. This is less than one fourth of the number who could be paid members of the Alumnæ Department.

You have heard from the chairmen of standing committees who work with the Grand Vice President of Philanthropies and have learned of the interesting progress of growth we have experienced in the field of service to others. So, our pride in the name Pi Beta Phi increases with the contributions to the philanthropic aspect of our society.

Alumnæ Clubs

At present we have 319 alumnæ clubs. Raleigh, N.C., relinquished its charter in June, 1974, as did El Dorado and Grand Prairie, Ark. In October, 1974, Hillsdale, Mich., rechartered, and a charter was granted to Conroe-Huntsville, Texas. In 1975 Cameron-Willacy, Tex., and Mid-Georgia in the Macon area were chartered. Recently two new Pockets were formed in Hays, Kan., and Vicksburg, Miss. Several Pockets have become inactive and we regret that they were unable to grow enough to obtain charters and become clubs. It is now a charter requirement to contribute to Holt House, Emma Harper Turner Memorial Fund, and Settlement School, and these were supported this past year. In some cases, the balance of national contributions were overshadowed by large amounts to local philanthropies. Local projects should not be neglected nor overlooked since each Pi Phi alumnæ club is a segment of its community, but these contributions should be placed in the proper perspective. Funds raised in the name of Pi Beta Phi should be allocated principally to Pi Phi projects. Often monetary contributions can be replaced with much needed volunteer service.

Activities for fun and funds were numerous. Many clubs have interest groups for bridge, book reviews, tennis, or workshops for boutique items to supplement Arrowcraft sales. Altogether one can see that Pi Phis out of college are busy doers, not sitters, as they enjoy their alumnæ life.

Be Informed

When you receive your Information issue of The Arrow, please read the reports of the officers. Of necessity there are many statistics, but you need to be informed on these and there is a great deal of information that will increase your interest and your pride in working for Pi Beta Phi.

What's in a name? In our case it is a way of life. Not long ago an American statesman was asked what had been the two greatest influences in his life and his answer was, "God and the college fraternity that molded me." Each of us today can be grateful for that molding, for through it we achieved character. It has been said that character produces hope, and we do have hope for a better world, faith in our sisterhood and in humanity, and dedication and determination to build for the future, while preserving a heritage that is without price.

Rewarding Years

The years that I have been a member and have served Pi Beta Phi both as a club member and an national officer have been among the most rewarding years of my life, and I shall never cease to be grateful for the privilege. Without that service the flame of friendship true might have been but a flicker. As I leave office I know what George Bernard Shaw meant when he said of life, "It's a sort of splendid torch which we have hold of for the moment and we want it to burn as brightly as possible before handing it to future generations."

This has been the wish and the goal of all Pi Phis serving on the local and national level as they have realized the true meaning of the name. Through devotion to an ideal and the purpose and value of service to a just cause, it has become clear that there is a challenge in seeking the beautiful and good, and that the cherished name of Pi Beta Phi contains within nine letters of the alphabet "A heart that holds all things lovely and worthwhile."

"This organization with its superior leadership, instruction, and service gives rise to something we choose to call the spirit of Arrowmont. It's something that isn't easily defined, but it's there—it's felt by all the students, it's in the air, it's everywhere. On campus, in the studios, in the dining area, the anticipation, the enthusiasm, the excitement exhibited by development of our minds, the better 'character' we develop.

"... We're learning that in our schools the best approach to learning is through the arts and through the crafts ... Arrowmont has pioneered this right along ... The people who experienced Arrowmont come away from there a different person. You cannot attend a summer session and be the same person you were when you went there. ... There are things that happen to you through these experiences.

the students is their response to this effort and hard work that's put forth by the great Arrowmont team."

Mr. Neil Mooney, Arrowmont Student

"Arrowmont is one of the finest craft schools in America today. I've had the pleasure of examining schools in England, Denmark, and making a comparison and Arrowmont stands right up among the best of them.

"'Hit's better for folks' character to learn to do things with their hands.' Arrowmont is doing a marvelous job of this and they sure do need your support. Please continue it."

Miss Sarah Ruth Mullis, Board of Governors

". . . The realization of why Arrowmont is a philanthropy really came to me when I was interviewing some of the students for articles in The Arrow. That was a turning point for me-talking to the art teacher who would share her knowledge with senior citizens-to the social worker who would show her delinquent girls that they could create something beautiful-to Dennis, a cerebral palsy victim himself who would return to L.A. to work with crippled children-and probably the most moving of all to me-talking to the occupational therapist who worked in a mental hospital. She explained how quieting and comforting it was for the mentally ill to work with pottery. . . . There were others who were there without a 'cause'-college students, hobbyists-they were there because they wanted to create something lasting and of beauty.

"The bond we're talking about tonight is the one of the craftsman, the one that binds Arrowmont students to each other—but even more important, it binds them to others with whom they share their knowledge. Our students hold out their hands to hundreds and thousands of people in your community and mine, people they touch both literally and figuratively.

"These craftsmen hold out one hand to others, but they hold out their second hand to you, and to Arrowmont . . . We ask you to offer one hand to Arrowmont and its students while with the other hand you turn toward home and grasp the hands of your chapter or club, thereby binding them also to the chain of those who care. In this way the bond of Pi Phi to craftsman to people everywhere is unending. There is no limit to the lives we can enrich, to the joy and beauty and caring we can spread."

those marvelous Golden Arrows entertained with words by Harriet Brown

(Tune: Hey, Look Me Over!)

Hey, look us over, lend us your ears.

We're in the clover because of fifty years.

So don't pass the plate, girls, don't pass the cup
Just figure that when you're an active the only way is up.

And we are up like carnations high on the vine
Quite the sensations of the blue and wine.

We're a little bit short of the dancing room
But let us sing you some

And look out, girls, here we come!

(Tune: The Old Grey Mare)

Yes, Fifty Year Pi Phis know how it used to be Know what it ought to be,
Know what it's going to be.
Golden Arrow Pi Phis know what it means to be
A member of Pi Beta Phi.
Many more years to go, many more years to know.
The good life bound within the silver blue and wine,
How it makes the arrow shine, how it makes for friendships fine.
Golden Arrow Pi Phis know what it means to be
A member of Pi Beta Phi.

Memory: "The whole meaning of Pi Phi on a national level made sense to me when I saw those Golden Arrows on the stage and realized how many years of Pi Phi they could tally up among them."

Memory: ". . . the Golden Arrows—they exemplified the idea of Fraternity by remaining active, interested, and interesting."

ANCHORAGE

Anchorage Alumnæ Club has enjoyed a good year

The Anchorage Alumnæ Club has enjoyed a good year with luncheon meetings being alternated monthly with night meetings hosted by different Pi Phis.

One member, Sharon Osterud Richard, recently returned from three years in Iran and shared first hand knowledge and slides with us.

The familiar cooky-shine always has a good turn out. This year Renee King Ballman baked a large arrow cooky which delighted us. Memories were a bit rusty on "Ring Ching Ching" but trying was fun.

The Christmas party which included the spouses was authentically Polish with pirogis, helupekis, and kiffles being prepared and served by Janis Ogozalek Faiks. It seems our Christmas hostesses have started a tradition of having the party represent something relating to their own background or origin. It's rewarding getting that bit of insight.

March and "green thumbs" go together even with 4 feet of new snow on the ground. One of the local horticulturists met with us demonstrating potting and care of plants at our meeting.

We held Arrowcraft sales on two different occasions in homes of Pi Phis, Bonnie Lou Torrey Smith and Mike Porter Dodge willingly lent their homes.

A Golden Arrow ceremony was given in memory of Mary Moore Hawes and to commemorate Founders' Day. New officers were installed at a salad luncheon held in the home of Linda Ohling Bell, outgoing president.

ARIZONA

PHOENIX

The Phoenix Club started off the year in September with a potluck supper which included the Camelback Club. The two outstanding affairs were the annual benefit brunch and fashion show at the Mountain Shadows Hotel and the Christmas coffee for the actives and their mothers. Saks Fifth Avenue clothes were modeled. The brunch benefits the Arthritis Foundation and Arrowmont.

In January we had Mr. Jack MacDonald of the Arizona Public Service Company, who has given very interesting book reports for several years. He had a number of books that he skimmed through whetting the appetitie of the listeners. Founders' Day was the usual and delightful potluck dinner at the home of Mrs. Frank Gibson with the Arizona Beta actives. There were over one hundred attending.

Two of our area Pi Phis have been prominent in our newspapers. Sue Ellen Groover Davis is a board member of the Friendly House and has been very interested in the disadvantaged. She decided to find out how these people who were sent out to do daily work were treated. She dressed as a worker and went to the home of a woman who had requested a person to clean. Sue worked all day and found the remuneration not adequate nor the treatment. The woman was not cooperative but demanding. Sue is also a member of the League of Woman Voters. Dorothy Vale Kissinger and her husband own and run the Sahuaro Guest Ranch near Phoenix. Dorothy is president of Soroptimists International and has recently been appointed by President Ford to the U.S. Commission of International Womens' Year. She is also Vice-Moderator of the United Presbyterian Church USA. The Phoenix and Scottsdale papers ran half page articles on each of these Pi Phis. Our year closed with a meeting in Sun City with the Sun City Pi Phis, at which time we installed our new president of the Phoenix Club.

TUCSON

This year the Tucson alums held two "outside" activities in addition to the regular meetings. They included a tennis tournament and a bridge marathon initiated in an effort to interest more women in becoming involved in alum programs.

tournament and a bridge marathon initiated in an effort to interest more women in becoming involved in alum programs. The Alum-Active tennis tournament was held in the fall. During a two week period some twenty ladies took part, twelve alums and eight actives and pledges. Preliminary games were played during the week prior to the Saturday finals. On tournament day A and B group levels each played two matches to complete the competition. Everyone had a delightful time with surprising good tennis being exhibited from seventeen year old pledges to "thirty-nine-plus" year old alums according to Kathryn Wild Potter, tennis chairman.

The bridge marathon under the able direction of Laura Johnson Borsch included eleven teams of two women each playing six rounds from October 20 through May 20. Games were played at the convenience of the teams according to the schedule. Although this had been attempted previously, this year's marathon was the most successful to date.

In addition to the above, we had two couple functions; a money-raising theatre party in January organized by Ina Reed Mapes and Sandra Rutherford Coykendall, and a purely social supper party in February planned by Nira Wall Whitley. Both were well attended and enjoyed by all.

Our regular meetings were highlighted by outstanding programs, including an excellent travelogue of Eastern Europe por Carol Wade Sonnichsen. We repeated the Active Alum Christmas party started last year with equal success.

Those who attended the Founders' Day luncheon organized by Linda Simpson Neely, were entertained by a delightful skit entitled "A Glimpse of the Past." Under the direction of their days as active Pi Phis from the 20's up through the present.

ARKANSAS

LITTLE ROCK

The Little Rock Alumnæ Club had a fantastic year under the expert leadership of Mary Jane Smith Bailey.

Our first meeting was held in July with a sack supper at the Arkansas Beta Lodge. Hostesses for this meeting were the members of the Arkansas Beta House Corporation (ABHC). Rush discussion for Arkansas Alpha and Arkansas Beta was of great importance. Mary Jane reported that Arkansas Beta had expressed a desire for the Slightly Older Sister program to be initiated in the fall. Jane Hammans Miller reported that ABHC would like to make a statewide drive to raise funds to improve this property. Kim Pulley Clark followed with some longe range plans for improvement of this property such as painting, furnishings, additions and ground improvements.

In September we met for a dinner-meeting in the home of Kim Clark. This most unusual edifice built in 1869 of Victorian-Italiante style is known as the Hotze House and is found in the Quapaw Quarter area of downtown Little Rock. At this meeting we honored our new Arkansas Beta pledges. We also welcomed Dr. Dorothy Truex who is the new Vice Chancellor of UALR. By this meeting the ABHC fund-raising Chancellor of UALR. By this meeting the ABHC fund-raising letters were out.

October was our "morning coffee." We were pleased to have Jane Roth Faust, Omicron APP, visiting us in her official capacity. This meeting took place in the home of Marie Scott Taylor. Jane stated that alumnæ clubs in Omicron Province would be participating in the newsletter which would be circulated around the country in which clubs would reveal interesting and profitable ways of earning money for club altruistic projects. Yearbooks were distributed at this meeting. Diane Davis Lord, co-chairman of our recent money-making project, reported on the success of the lobster sale held October 5. From now on we plan to have a couple of sales per year.

Our most exciting meeting had to be the 'Bring A Greek Friend' in January. This meeting was held in the home of Marian Davis Goff with about 65 Pi Phis and guests in attendance. Following the luncheon Mary Jane introduced Dorothy Truex who was moderator for a panel of three of our guests who spoke on 'Outstanding Greek Women Serving Their Community.' The panel consisted of Mrs. Mary Davis from Kappa Alpha Theta, Mrs. Helen Buchanan from Chi Omega, and Miss Jean Woolfolk from Delta Delta. This was our second 'Greek' meeting and a tremendous success.

our dessert-meeting held in the home of February was our dessert-meeting held in the home of Carrie Remmel Dickinson. We had an informal few minutes when Mary Jane distributed "fun" gifts to members present who had not attended a meeting in three years or more, one who hadn't held an office, etc. Jane Faust reminded everyone that convention in Miami is upcoming. Jane also announced that the Omicron Province winner of the Evelyn Peters Kyle Angel Award is Dorris Karcher Welling. Diane Lord reported on the status of repairs at the Arkansas Beta Lodge and urged those alumnæ who had not already given to the fund for repairs to do so if they could.

Our final meeting was Founders' Day held April 28 in Trapnall Hall. Built in 1843 of Neo-Classic-Jeffersonian style, this home is also located in the Quapaw Quarter. There were 70 Pi Phis present which included club members, Arkansas Beta collegians and pledges. Following the dinner, hosted by chairman Nan Core Karcher, introduction of the spring Arkansas Beta Pledges took place. Also introduced was Eunice Fleming, from Des Plaines, Ill., who was visiting Nan. The program began with Pauline Hoeltzel giving the history of the start of the Little Rock Alumnæ Club in 1920 followed by a brief history in "pop quiz" style of the colonization and installation of Arkansas Beta in 1963 by Betty Copeland Meyer.

Marguerite Gamble introduced the "Order of the Golden.

Marguerite Gamble introduced the "Order of the Golden Arrow" segment of our meeting by defining the meaning of "the Order" to us. She then introduced Pud Steele Westphale who gave a brief account about Virginia Alexander Alexander Molly McAmis Graf who gave a brief resume about Elizabeth "Lib" Dunaway Hendry; and Tillie McCammon McFaddin who spoke about early Pi Phi days of Adrienne Brown Storey. The ABO award went to Ginny Robbins; Chapter Service Award to Becky Green; ACC award to Marsha Scherz for her work at Arkansas Beta. Ann Hancock Tucker received recognition for individually selling the most lobsters during our spring sale.

Mary Jane was presented a gold bracelet from the club as outgoing president by vice president Marguerite Gamble. Jane Faust then installed new officers. We sang Ring, Ching, Ching and closed the meeting with the Loving Cup Song.

TEXARKANA

In these days of so many demands on our time and energies, and of so many varying interests, we of the Olivia Smith Moore Alumnae Club think we are an active and concerned group. Of course there are not many clubs who have a former national officer as their inspiration and mentor. Nowhere could be found a more loyal and dedicated Pi Phi than our beloved "Miss Olivia" who in 1975 rounds out her 63rd year of being a Pi Phi!

There are 32 active alumnæ in our group and 15 who are business and professional women. We held four well attended meetings. Our guest of honor in October was our charming and capable Province President, Jane Roth Faust.

In April a truly lovely Founders' Day luncheon was given at the country club. "Miss Olivia," recovering from a severe stroke, sat in her usual place of honor at the head of the table. Alert and vitally interested in our sorority's activities as always, she was eagerly looking forward to attending her 17th National Convention in Miami. "Miss Olivia" retired in 1967 after having been on Grand Council for 15 years.
Our local president, Ann Jumper Hathant, had the most interesting and sentimental program for Founders' Day She had gone through files and records and momentoes, and brought for our enjoyment a number of clippings, pictures,

We had six actives and pledges this year at Arkansas Alpha, Texas Alpha, and Texas Gamma. All are outstanding girls but we are understandably immensely proud of Susan Keeney who won the pledge scholarship award at the University of Texas. Her mother is Mary Alice Tucker Keeney, Arkansas Alpha.

BRITISH COLUMBIA

VANCOUVER

Two outstanding experiences were enjoyed by our Vancouver Pi Beta Phi Alumnæ Club this last year. The first had to do with the "Arrow in the Arctic Project." In early June at an impromptu dinner meeting, held at the home of Ruby White Traill, we met with Miss Jane Ann Summers, stationed at Whitehorse, Yukon Territory, An articulate, attractive, and intelligent young woman, she gave us a lively description of life in the Yukon and her library work there, especially among the Indians. She stressed the importance of Pi Phi's contribution to the library service both in the Yukon and Northwest territories, and expressed her thanks for the interest shown by the Fraternity.

The other experience has to do with what has become a yearly event—the gathering of Pi Phis from the Vancouver and Victoria areas for a June day of fellowship at the summer home of Isabel Younge Millar on Galiano Island. The members relax by having a game of golf or bridge, by walking to the beaches, by visiting the crafts shops, or driving to the parks or properties of two other members, Orene Ross Robinson and Frances Hicks Walcott. The outing results not only in the restoring of spirit and body, but the strengthening of the bonds which held Pi Phis together.

ANTELOPE VALLEY

The Antelope Valley Alumnæ Club is a very small and unusually congenial group whose members eagerly anticipate each of the four meetings of the year.

Activities during the year 1974-75 have included the presentation of a monetary gift to an active chapter, an increase in the members' knowledge of Arrowmont, and support of our local Panhellenic, "The Sorority Women of Antelope Valler".

Outstanding meetings of the year were held in October, when we entertained Phi South Alumnæ Province President Maxine Clyde Goldback, who is always a joy and an inspiration, and in May, when our annual Founders' Day Luncheon was held in Lancaster at the Desert Inn.

CENTRAL ORANGE COUNTY

Central Orange County Alumnæ Club, led by Barbara Beaumont Dreibelbis, launched the year with a guest speaker. Dr. Frank Freed, a psychologist, who spoke on Transactional Analysis and How to Feel Better About Ourselves. Betty Manahan Moran was hostess and the meeting concluded with a delicious salad luncheon coordinated by Karla Buck Wordsdell.

Program chairman Bonnie Walston Miziker arranged a demonstration of tea cakes and hors d'oeuvres for our October meeting in the home of Diane Allingham Buchanan. This was an excellent kick off for the sales effort of our club cookbook, "Punches and Munches" vol. II. We will be selling these books at Convention as well as on a national basis to all interested alumnæ clubs. These books have proved to be one of our easiest means of fund raising. Wendy Marquand Pitchess and her committee served lunch following the close of the meeting. the close of the meeting.

Rush Information Chairman, Joanne Morrison Newton, did a super job of processing the 108 girls from Central Orange County who signed up for rush and 15 girls from this area pledged Pi Phi at the various colleges.

Arrowcraft Chairman, Betty Manahan Moran, increased sales by over $200.00 this past year. Salute Betty for bringing her Arrowcraft display to each meeting. Also, Dottic Crill Riddet is a walking advertisement for Arrowcraft and has placed Pi Phi totes on the arms of all her friends.

In November we had a fabulous Las Vegas Night party for husbands in the home of Nina McConnell Winn. Joy Cash Van Pelt arranged for all the gaming supplies and her husband "Van" was official dealer for the evening.

Many of our members serve on the March of Dimes Advisory Board and we support their Mothers' March and contribute funds as part of our philanthropy. We also have a layette shower, usually at Christmas. Dorothy Sutherland, Executive Director of March of Dimes spoke and showed films for our December meeting in the home of Joy Cash Van Pelt. A lovely luncheon was served by Sara Warcham Waggoner and her committee.

One of the year's highlights was the Theta exchange meeting, hostessed by the Thetas. They carried out a rush party thene with a hard times emphasis serving beans on pie tins and beverage in tin cups. Our members were all duly rushed but needless to say no one accepted a Theta bid.

We had two evening meetings as many of our members work. Barbara Foltz Quigley opened her home to us in February and Jody Goley Brewer furnished the dessert. We had two actives from Cal Eta chapter-U.C.I. sharing campus and sorority life at a commuter school. The girls are a real credit to Pi Phi. Susan Cosby Wilson entertained us in her home in March and we had a potluck dinner coordinated by Alva Denton Van Dyke. We had a grand turnout and hope to repeat the potluck next year. Barbara Beaumont Dreibelbis maneuvered her husband, Dr. Robert Dreibelbis into being our speaker and he shared his enthusiastic support of the power

Our own Nancy Gauthier Cox was Chairman for Founders' Day and put together a fabulous luncheon and program at the Balboa Bay Club in Newport Beach. Over 50 enthusiastic Pi Balboa Bay Club in Newport Beach. Over 50 enthusiastic Pi Gamma. Delta, Epsilon, and Eta joined us in making it a memorable Founders' Day. Many awards were presented, including our own chapter award to the outstanding pledge. She was Anita Marie Kalish from California Gamma. She received a check for $125.00 and the three other nominees each received $25.00.

In May we had a lovely Installation Ceremony in the Dreibelbis home. Barbara wrote a beautiful installation using various jewels to represent the incoming officers and their duties. The meeting adjourned with a delicious brunch served by Margaret Thompson Strong and her committee.

The calendar closed with a Fiesta Party honoring our teen aged daughters at the home of Marilyn Jones Stockland. This is always a marvelous opportunity to present Pi Beta Phi to our daughters and show what sisterhood has to offer each and everyone of us.

CONTRA COSTA

Contra Costa Alumnæ started out the 1974-75 season with a Country Fair Box Supper in September at the home of Mardy Nisbet Walker. Country theme prevailed, and each couple was asked to bring a box lunch for two. Our Arrowcraft Sale was held October 4 at the Orindawoods Clubhouse. This was a tremendous success, bringing in $1,831.35 for a one-day sale. To date, our Arrowcraft sales total $2,367.00. A most successful Children's Christmas Party was held in December at the home of Marcie Jeffery Adams, complete with games, decorated cookies, singing of Christmas Carols, and of course, Santa Claus. Santa Claus.

decorated cookies, singing of Christmas Carols, and of course, Santa Claus.

January was highlighted by our Luncheon-Fashion Show 'Rags to Riches.'' Beefburger Soup, Angel Squares and Mint Cup dessert were served. The fashion show, put on by the Valley Stitchers' Guild, delighted everyone with recycled clothing made into modern garments enhanced with old lace, applique, etc. All the food was prepared and served by Pi Phis. Table decorations, consisting of colorful runners, and homemade bread baskets filled with flowers, were made by members. Recipes served at the luncheon and table runners were sold later, and the profits added to ticket sales to make a $550.00 contribution to the Arrowmont Kitchen Fund.

A truly delightful Founders' Day celebration was held in April at the home of Mary Ann Behlen Hruska. Our Golden Arrows were honored at this time. We were also honored to have Margaret Horning as our guest. Finally, to end this wonderful year, a Couples Pool Party 'Salute to Summer' was held in June at the home of Sally Murphy Morris. Fun prevailed for all. What a splendid way to celebrate a successful year-gone-by and a promising summer-to-come.

This year we were greatly honored to have one of our own, Sally Murphy Morris, appointed to the National Loan Fund Committee. Also, in the 1974-75 season, we initiated our Fifth Wednesday Coffees. These coffees are held each month at three conveniently located homes and have proved to be a great source of enjoyment for old members as well as a get-acquainted-session for new members.

FRESNO-CENTRAL SAN JOAQUIN VALLEY

The Central San Joaquin Valley Alumnæ Club, under the enthusiastic leadership of Alicia Dayhuff Frank, began the 1974-75 season with a combined business meeting and afternoon dessert party at the home of Janet Wild Waller. Plans for the rest of the year were finalized at that time.

In December, a very successful couples' party was held at the home of Martha Walrond Sears. She decorated for the holiday season and all were in the mood for an evening fun. Founders' Day was celebrated in April with a buffet luncheon at the home of Dottie Tracey Rohlfing. A good turnout was on hand to honor our Pi Beta Phi Founders, Lucia Soulé Chawner, California Gamma, was presented her Golden Arrow.

May found us going to the Visalia home of Marybeth Lyles Porter for a poolside luncheon. Another delightful time was had by those attending.

We are again looking forward to another enjoyable year under the devoted leadership of Alicia Dayhuff Frank.

GLENDALE

The Glendale Alumnæ Club opened the year with a Patio Party which included our husbands. We had such a good time we've decided maybe that should be our annual 'Kick-Off' meeting. We've had a variety of meetings this year in order to meet the various schedules of our members. We've had brunches, and luncheons, and evening dessert meetings. One of our special 'luncheons' was when our club went to the California Gamma house at U.S.C. We toured the new Pi Phi house there and had lunch with the girls. This year we were guests of the Kappa Kappa Gamma Alumnæ Club for our annual joint meeting with Kappa, Delta Gamma and Kappa Alpha Theta. The program included a tour of the new local hospital. We continued to support the Panhellenic Fashion Show—Luncheon this year in February. Proceeds from this luncheon provide a Panhellenic scholarship to a girl from each of the seven high schools in this area.

Our Pi Beta Phi Spring Benefit was a Theatre Party which included our husbands and guests. The profit from this affair was used to purchase new silverware for California Zeta at Santa Barbara. We finished the year with our traditional cooky-shine and installation of officers. We all look forward to the cooky-shine for, of all our meetings, that is the one that brings back so many happy memories to each of us as we sing Pi Phi songs and exchange Pi Phi stories.

LAJOLLA-ADELE TAYLOR ALFORD

Evelyn Peters Kyle, National Vice President of Alumnæ, attended our September luncheon at the home of Susan Thomas Stoakes as our guest speaker on philanthropies. Maxine Clyde Goldback, our Province President, also joined us for the day. We were greatly honored that they were able to spend the time with us at an unofficial visit, in spite of their busy schedules.

The Christmas season got under way with our Potluck and Auction at Sharon Culver Considine's home. Joan Maxwell Danzinger treated all of us to her homemade lasagna. The craft items and baked goods created a lively auction led by auctioneer Diane Kenney Johnson.

Each year we have tried to devote one meeting to furthering friendships with another Panhellenic group. This year we met the LaJolla Delta Gammas for lunch in Rancho Santa Fe. After brief introductions by everyone in attendance, we had short talks about each group's philanthropies. Mary Nelson Cobb presented our report on Arrowmont and Settlement School.

We met with actives from California Epsilon at Phyllis Schafer Whitney's home. There was a very worthwhile discussion about campus life and the problems of keeping an active chapter on a forward path.

Marge Johnson Pollock was the hostess for our joint celebration honoring our Golden Arrow members and the memory of Adele Taylor Alford, for whom our club is named. There were twelve Golden Arrow members in attendance who were recognized for their loyal interest and dedication to Pi Phi. A candlelighting ceremony followed describing Adele Taylor Alford's life and service to Pi Beta Phi. PATRICIA WOLFE DAVIS

MARIN COUNTY

The Marin County Alumnæ Club has just sent its fifth scholar, Joan Peterson, to Arrowmont. To illustrate the worth of our endeavors, Joan is accompanying our last year's scholar, of our endeavors, Joan is accompanying our last year's Scholar, Pat Wright, who is returning at her own expense. Pi Phis name and fame are spreading rapidly throughout Marin via our scholars. Our local school children are also benefitting from our school in Tennessee, as are the many people who attend the Wine and Cheese Tasting benefit which produces the funds.

We had many interesting programs during the year but by popular vote, the most successful was a "Share Your Hobby and Bring a Sample to Sell" luncheon. We discovered a range of undisclosed talents: needlework, decoupage, lapidary, and Pomo Indian basket weaving, to name a few. It proved what we all know: Pi Phi's are creative and have deep and varied interests and abilities. We plan a repeat next Nearing the close of the current school year, we are eagerly preparing for the Senior Farewell Party of California Eta at the University of California, Irvine. We're featuring fondues of all kinds—cheese, meat, and dessert—and look forward to an evening of fun around the pool reminiscing with these graduating Pi Phis of the lasting friendships made, happy times, and accomplishments, as California Eta is definitely launched as a chapter!

One of our meetings "Learn About Your Plants" was really well received by our alums. Different kinds of plants were brought to the meeting and discussed by our two speakers emphasizing the light, water and care required. The proof of its success—everyone went home with a plant.

Our Christmas Party with husbands invited is always an anticipated event of the Holiday Season and this year we auctioned gifts donated by local merchants. Besides the excitement of aggressive bidding on the items, it provided additional funds for our philanthropies.

We are fortunate to add another "Golden Arrow" member to our roster—Bertha Schmid, Pennsylvania Delta, initiated 11/11/25. Bertha was honored at our Founders' Day luncheon in April as a new member of the "Golden Arrow."

ning activities, informative and entertaining programs, an 1974-75.

We began in the fall with two currently popular themes, houseplants and patchwork, and ended in the spring with an informative talk by a local consumer organization. These programs were put on by outside speakers, and appealed to the differing interests of our membership. The patchwork and quilting program was especially successful, drawing our largest attendance of the year. A local expert in her field told the history of her craft, and not only showed beautiful examples of her work, but also demonstrated how to make cute patchwork Christmas ornaments without any further lessons.

We entertained new members at coffee in the fall, our husbands at a gala Christmas dinner ably coordinated by June Felber McDermott, and eight of our Golden Arrow members with a sherry party in January. The sherry party for Golden Arrows was held at the home of Doris Houser Greenbaum, one of our Golden Arrows. It was most enjoyable to honor these ladies in a relaxed setting, with plenty of time to get to know them and their lifelong contributions to Pi Phi and the community.

For entertainment, we joined the local Alpha Chi Omega alumnæ for a fashion show-tea at a local department store, and Bobbe Foudy Jordan directed a year-long bridge marathon. We also worked very hard to make our annual bridge luncheon benefit a success. This year's luncheon, under the chairmanship of Tanya Tatom Johnson, had a Mexican fiesta theme, carried out in brightly colored tablecloths, even brighter tissue paper flowers, and with live plants on each table. Delicious homemade salads and desserts were served. The major portion of profits from this successful effort were donated to the Arrowmont Kitchen Renovation Fund.

PASADENA

The Pasadena Pi Phis under the leadership of Sandy Troup Schmidt started early on Bicentennial this year by visiting historical places of interest in their area. Pat Densmore Cunningham planned all these programs. We toured the Gamble House, a house built by Greene and Greene in 1910 for Mr. Gamble of Procter and Gamble. This house was built in the California Bungalow Style, and the architects made use of many exotic woods and stone to create a house near to nature. We could see how the Pasadenan of yesteryear lived. In April we took a tour of the Library part of the Huntington Library led by one of our own docents, Doris Crepin Suman. She related many of the incidents about the founders of our country that made them more human, and showed us their original papers and books.

We were awed by the Arts and Crafts of the Southwest Indians presented to us in February by a local expert on Indian lore. The beautiful silver jewelry, rugs and pottery had us all wishing we were closer to the Indian Reservations. We all appreciated the great work going into these articles. Our last meeting was a most informative talk on the history and derivations of our names, the "Story of Your Name."

Again through the able planning of Carol Trohan Glover we had a most successful Arrowcraft sale at the lovely home of Betty Hawes Gregg. We all marveled at the designs of our beautiful mountain crafts and how timeless they are still. Our own Peggy Hooten Smyth sold her "Belle Ringer" skirts made so cleverly out of sheets. She was most generous in her contribution from the sales of her skirts to Arrowmont. We were truly fortunate this past year as many of our The Pasadena Pi Phis under the leadership of Sandy Troup

We were truly fortunate this past year as many of our Pi Phi members took an active part in the planning of Pasadena's own Centennial Celebration, among them being Evelyn Peters Kyle, Maudie Prickett Cooper and Maxine Clyde Goldback. They helped us appreciate our city's historical culture.

Loyalty—Our purpose and our reason for being were well remembered at our Chapter Loyalty Day and Founders' Day. Our January coffee became our Chapter Loyalty Day, and members were asked to place in a hat 1¢ for every year they were a Pi Phi along with the name of their chapter. The chapter name drawn was the lucky recipient of the money. Founders' Day was remembered at a lovely luncheon shared. It was extra special because we were treated to a talk about Founders' Day by Sarah Holmes Hunt, who is not only our Grand Vice President of Philanthropies but also a member of our local alumnæ club and the mother of our very capable president, Joanne Hunt Hook. which was followed by a planning session for the coming year.

We started off the year with a potluck dinner and meeting at the home of Jackie Yarbrough Liscom. Lynne Hunsucker Haile, Ways and Means chairman, told of plans for our rummage sale which was held in October. The results were gratifying. Another October event was a meeting at U.S.C. at the California Gamma chapter house.

In November we had a sale of Arrowmont products in the home of our chairman, Ann Shulhafer Vanderburgh. We were pleased with the results as we made over $500.00. In December Frances Grey Armstrong held a lovely Christmas brunch which was truly a festive occasion. Founders' Day was enjoyed on April 26 at the Balboa Bay Club. The highlight of the day was our own Frances Grey Armstrong winning the Evelyn Peters Kyle Angel Award.

Other money making projects for the year were the sale of kitchen knives and Social Capers, We also had a talent auction when we auctioned articles made by members or services that members would perform. Other social events included a summer party at the home of Kay Johnson Devine, a theater party in Hollywood followed by a midnight supper at the home of Frances Grey Armstrong, a dinner dance at a German restaurant, and a trip to the U.C.L.A. Japanese Gardens in Bel Aire. Our club voted to support Pacific Lodge Boy's that come from broken homes, We are looking forward to another constructive and inspiring year with Darleen Lawson Trumbo as our president again.

SAN JOSE

A get-acquainted luncheon at the home of Diane Allen Irion was the first of this year's monthly meetings of the San Jose Alumnæ Club. It set the scene for a very eventful year. As usual, our annual Arrowcraft Tea and Sale, headed this year by Carol Willey Briber, was a huge success. It is truly a club effort with everyone helping out for the one day event, which gets bigger every year.

For the past few years, our club has been adding money to a fund designed for a scholarship to Arrowmont. We decided that this year was the year and set about interviewing possible recipients. We hoped to be able to send someone from our area who worked in some field that Arrowmont Arts and Crafts could somehow benefit. We wanted this person to be able to invest her learned skills back into a benefit for the community. We chose Donna Politi, who is an occupational therapist at Stanford Children's Hospital in Palo Alto. She will be attending a two week woodcraft session in August and will be sharing her experience with us at a meeting next fall. meeting next fall.

The culmination of our great year came when we learned that we were chosen as the Ideal Alumnæ Club to represent Phi North Province. We were surprised, thrilled, and excited! Can you imagine then how overwhelmed we were to learn we placed second nationally? It gave us a great sense of accomplishment and pride to know we were such a good representation for Pi Beta Phi.

Our final meeting for the year was a potluck dinner at the heme of Jane Howard Grandy. Already our members were full of ideas for new projects which suggests that next year will be another great one!

tember by an evening meeting at Bobbie Evans Kinnear's unusual home in Montecito that was once a carriage house for a mansion.

In October our highly successful Arrowmont Sale was held at McGuire House, a beautiful home donated several years ago to the University of California and now used for several campus-related activities. Hazel Milovich Richardson and Gloria Knutson Orr did a tremendous job of co-chairing the event assisted by new member Jeanne Engelmann Jennings with her interior decorating skill. Everything displayed was beautifully arranged under Jeanne's direction by almost 100% of our members who spent long hours setting up the night before and selling all day Saturday.

In November Maxine Clyde Goldback, Alumnæ Province President, joined us at Nancy Woods Rasmussen's home for an interesting, informative (and delicious!) luncheon meeting. During December our club held a Christmas Party with husbands at the active chapter house in Goleta. The men thoroughly enjoyed seeing the chapter house—for many of them this was their first visit.

In January we had a delightful joint experience with the Santa Barbara Alumnæ Club of Delta Delta Delta. (The Tri-Deltas have no active chapter on the UCSB campus and so have offered their services to our active chapter for kitchen detail during rush. Much appreciated!) The two alumnæ clubs met at the Santa Barbara Historical Society Museum for a slide presentation of early California life and a tour of the museum. We were led by three expert guides: two of them P Phis, Museum Curator Teresa Guilfeil Wagstaff and Barbara Ott Schneider, and one Tri-Delta. We then went on a walking tour past some archeological diggings on to the famous El Paseo Restaurant for lunch.

In February our club helped the California Zeta active chapter celebrate its 25th Anniversary with an Open House for UCSB graduate Pi Phis and their families. It was good to see old friends once again!

Our March meeting was a busy one as we had much business to attend to. Our decision that was made there that in retrospect was a good one, was the idea of holding Founders' Day this year at the chapter house and taking fun and fancy salads to the actives. The chapter provided rolls, coffee and an Arrow cake, while each alum brought her specialty salad. Speaker of the day was Marie Sue Frenchick Parsons, outgoing Alumnæ Club president. All aspects of Founders' Day 1975. The passing of the loving cup accompanied by warm sunshine, soft breezes, and the singing voices of alumnæ, actives, and pledges of Pi Beta Phi was a fitting finale to the Santa Barbara Alumnæ Club's 1974-75 year.

SANTA MONICA-WESTSIDE CLUB

The Santa Monica-Westside Club enjoyed a happy and productive 1974-75 under the enthusiastic, capable leadership of Kay Tomson Eichenhofer. Our meeting at the California Delta house at UCLA, and had the fun of being with the actives in their own home. Our meeting in November, with Maxine Clyde Goldback, Province President, as speaker was especially interesting and informative. This month also launched our highly profitable fruit cake and pecan sale, our only fund raiser for the year. We were particularly pleased with the results because our philanthropic funds provide "extras" for the California Delta chapter, a project very dear to our hearts. We try to stay in tune with their needs and to help in practical ways. In December we toured the J. Paul Getty Museum in Malibu. January brought our favorite party, a dinner honoring the Delta seniors. It is always a very warm and rewarding experience to welcome them to alumnæ status. Our March meeting featured a fabulous display of our talented members' arts and crafts.

Our last meeting was a very special one because of a most extraordinary Pi Phi, Lois Snyder Finger. She served as National Grand Secretary from 1937 to 1945, and is the only living member of that Grand Council. This period of service, however, is only part of a lifetime of loyalty to Pi Phi. We are immensely proud to have her as a member, and former president of our club, and this year elected her as our first and only Honorary Board Member. For this final meeting, a cooky-shine to commemorate Founders' Day, Lois gave an absolutely fascinating account of the early history of our fraternity as well as her own story as a Pi Phi and a National Officer. Her talk was an inspiration and a fitting finale for a wonderful year!

SOUTH BAY

Under the leadership of our president, Toni Church Mackey, South Bay Alumnæ Club had a very busy and enjoyable year. Our one big fund raiser, the Arrow Affaire at Easter was a huge success. Members worked on hand made items all year for this luncheon-boutique. At the direction of our co-chairmen, Kathy Welch Hall and Linda Marshman Peckhan, we sewed, knitted, crocheted, and painted items suitable for Easter and Mother's Day gifts. Each member sold tickets to the event which was held in Wanda Eshelman Lester's lovely home. Joan Root Smith and her committee were in charge of the delicious salad luncheon. There were 250 people in attendance, all of whom were enthusiastic about the articles for sale. We grossed over $1000 on our boutique-luncheon and sold over $400 in Arrowcraft goods. This enabled us to donate $300 to California Zeta at Santa Barbara and $200 to Arrowmont. and $200 to Arrowment.

and $200 to Arrowmont.

At other meetings this year we had a salad bar luncheon and a trip to see the new Getty Museum in Malibu. Later on we had a wine and cheese party with the Thetas which included an auction, an interesting program by Jean Dayton West, a local portrait artist who is one of our members. We also had a cooky-shine and slide program about Arrowmont, a luncheon meeting with Maxine Clyde Goldback, our Alumnæ Province President, a party with husbands in June, and our annual gourmet dinner. This is given every spring by the old and new board for our club members and actives who live in our area and is always a great way to wind up a year full of fellowship.

SOUTH COAST

Membership of the South Coast Alumnæ Club in Southern California has grown rapidly over the past few years to almost 200 members! We have found that one of the best ways to integrate new members of various ages into the club is by forming interest groups within the club itself. This past ways to integrate new members of various ages into the club is by forming interest groups within the club itself. This past year we formed a monthly tennis round robin group. Members of mixed abilities were paired off for 24 doubles games, changing partners after each eight games. One person in each foursome was assigned to be hostess, supplying the balls and reserving the court. Each member kept her own score and vied for a grand prize given at the end of the year.

Another interest group within our club is our bridge group which also meets monthly. Also for years our Pi Phi alum group has sponsored a book review series which features well-known novelists as speakers.

In October we held a cocktail party for Pi Phis and their escorts and a good time was had by all who attended. Many members in our club continue to be involved with our "baby" California Eta, our local active Pi Phi chapter at the University of California at Irvine. Now one year old, Cal Eta continues to be a source of inspiration and sister-hood. This year we helped the actives with their preference rush party, first full-scale pledging, scholarship dinner and spring rush workshop. Those of our members who serve on the Alumnæ Advisory Committee and house corporation are excited about the prospect of building a sorority house on or near campus sometime in the future and a trust fund has been set up by South Coast for this purpose. The highlight of a very busy year was undoubtedly a very beautiful Founders' Day celebrated with all active and alum clubs in our area.

The Whittier Alumnæ Club has had a successful year under the able leadership of Evelyn Evans Stebbins, renewing our bonds of friendship in the wine and silver blue. Many of us attended the Founders' Day luncheon at beautiful Balboa Bay Club on the ocean. It was a pleasure to hear Evelyn Peters Kyle, our Grand Vice President of Alumnæ, read her letter in person. We are pleased that Patricia Schiefly is serving on Alumni Board at the University of S.C. as finance chairman.

In the winter edition of THE ARROW there was an article about a gift of a silver angel on a necklace to be given to a sister or pledge who performed a special service to Maine Alpha. It was given by Mrs. Louise Durgan Hammons, who was initiated in 1927 and who served several years as chapter advisor. She is now living in La Habra, California and was president for two years. She is still active in Pi Beta Phi. We rounded out the year with a social meeting which included our husbands.

BOULDER

The Boulder Alumnæ Club had a service-oriented year, highlighted here and there with just-for-fun meetings. The fall began with the Screening and Hearing test sponsored by the City Panhellenic for the public schools and moved right into the workshops that prepared the club for Santa's House at Christmas time. Santa House ticket sales went to support Attention Homes. Boulder's alternative to state institutions for troubled children, and bakery and boutique item profits were divided among the participating sororities.

Non-service meetings included a greenhouse tour, a wine-and-cheese tasting, and a mountain top luncheon, planned for spring but which somehow precipitated an honest-to-goodness blizzard. However, Coloradans are a hearty lot and the meeting was one of the year's best attended. The new officers were installed around a crackling fire and their fine planning has given the club a terrific boost this year.

Fun!

The club, led by co-chairpersons Jane Graves McKesson and Ginny Weissinger Grant, spent the year planning a fashion-show and brunch which was held in April at a large downtown hotel. This is our big money raising project, the Proceeds of which send a local person on scholarship to the Arrowmont School. This year's winner is David Weber who is head of the arts and crafts department at the Colorado Deaf and Blind School. At the brunch, Dorothy Williams Lombard, Rho Alumnæ Province President, announced that Grand Council had chosen us the "Ideal Alumnæ Club" for this year. Such excitement! By the next meeting, a dinner in the home of Jane Graves McKesson, this was all we could talk about. We will be sending an extra delegate to Convention where the award will be presented. In a unanimous vote, our president Peg George Houston was elected. Her leadership and guidance during this busy year have been outstanding.

The year ended with a Founders' Day brunch at the Country Club of Colorado, It was attended by Golden Arrow Pi Phis Mae Pettebone Campbell, Rozella Fietz Meizner, Laureda Thompson Bunker and Em More Dobbins. Miss Lucille Adams who was president of our first alumnæ club forty years ago was there with interesting stories about the club's first years. Traditionally, we "adopt" a needy family to help at Christmas time. This year, a widow and her five children received new clothing, toys, games, and grocery coupon books to make the holiday happy. One-hundred per cent cooperation is given by each member in making life a little easier for a grateful family.

The 1974-75 year proved to be very busy and enjoyable. We had several outstanding speakers and programs at our monthly meetings—namely, a talk by a member of the F.B.I., and a wine tasting luncheon. We had two workshops at Christmas and at Easter. We made baskets for the members of our philanthropy One To One, at the latter. In May we took a field trip to Greenfield Hills to see the marvelous dogwood display. There are 30,000 trees.

Mary Barnard Pineda was president of Panhellenic this year. Early in the spring we welcomed Jean McIntyre White the Alpha Alumnæ Province President to a meeting at which the speaker talked on the Art and History of French Cooking. A smashing good time was had by all.

The Wilmington Alumnæ Club began the year with a fall luncheon at the home of Kathy Ten Eyck Marshall, our president. The special guest for the day was Emily Robinson Kunde, Gamma Province President.

Once again this year the club enjoyed activities that have been popular in the past. A Panhellenic exchange was hosted by the Sigma Kappas, and a lovely Founders' Day Luncheon was given by the Philadelphia area Alumnæ Clubs. The men in our lives were included at a Christmas cocktail party and a June pool party.

Three entirely new—and very successful—activities added variety to our program. We had fun and fattened up our treasury with a potluck supper and plant auction at which a wide variety of cuttings from houseplants and seedgrown outdoor plants were sold. Vice president Betty Russell Mallory organized a Nostalgia Night featuring an introspective look at our Fraternity's past; college photos brought by our members helped us relive the good old days. To help us better relate to the present, we heard Ruth Flexman, a teacher of Parent Effectiveness Training, speak about how to improve relationships with children, husbands, and friends.

relationships with children, husbands, and friends.

For the first time in several years, we had a Settlement School Tea and Sale. Much of the credit for the success of the sale belonged to Carolyn Burrows Mansell, our Philanthropies Chairman. All of the Pi Phis pitched in to bake goodies for the tea and sell $1500 worth of Arrowcraft items. Our profits enabled us to give a $50 donation to each of the four collegiate chapters in Gamma Province. Encouraged by the success of this sale, we've already planned another one for next year.

WASHINGTON

The Washington Alumnæ Club has had a most exciting and successful year! Our paid membership reached 122 and our sale of Arrowcraft goods has topped $2500,00!

A September coffee honoring visiting Province President Emily Robinson Kunde, began our year. The next day we enjoyed a unique treat—a tour of the magnificent, new Mormon Temple which is no longer open to the public. The Arrowcraft Sale was held on Armed Services Day at the Palisades Community Church where the public not only joined with Pi Phis and our loyal friends in buying, but many were most interested in our Arrowmont philanthropy. In November we toured the United States Capitol Building, led by former Congressman Fred Schwengel, now president of

In November we toured the United States Capitol Building, led by former Congressman Fred Schwengel, now president of the Capitol Historical Society. At lunch he told us of the Society's plan for a "Light and Sound" program for the Capitol Building to begin in the bicentennial year and to be a continuing event. Our Christmas Cocktail Party, a benefit for the Maryland Beta chapter, was a great success! We enjoyed a luncheon meeting at the Maryland Beta chapter house in January where a beautiful slide program "A Salute to America" was presented.

This year a large group gathered for our February tour, luncheon, and Symphony matinee at the Kennedy Center. The proceeds from this were used for the tray that the club gave to the new Virginia Epsilon chapter! A Domino Tournament was a new benefit idea brought to us by Carolyn Ottinger Kovener; and under her chairmanship, we lunched, had fun,

Founders' Day Luncheon was arranged by the Marianne Reid Wild Club, with the interesting speaker a Pi Phi husband. Admiral Lukash, who is physician to the President. We had also met with this club in November. At the luncheon Maryland Beta sang the song that they plan to enter in the song contest at Convention. Convention

The final meeting again was a coffee. Miss Rebecca Dial reviewed her recent book "True to His Colors." a biography of her father, a former Congressman from South Carolina.

During the business meeting those of us who had had the pleasure of attending the installation of Virginia Epsilon at the University of Virginia at Charlottesville, shared this wonderful adventure. It was a beautiful experience and we enjoyed our opportunity to meet many of our national and province officers, and many fine actives and alumnæ, with whom we had a great time!

Throughout the year our Suburban Dutch Treat Luncheon Group and the Downtown Luncheon Group have continued to meet monthly. Also, this year we have had a bi-monthly Needlepoint Group. Marianne Reid Wild, our Philanthropies Needlepoint Group. Marianne Reid Wild, our Philanthropies Chairman, has sponsored a paperback book sale at several meetings that has been quite popular. We have been pleased to have members of the other area clubs join with and support many of our activities!

The first meeting was held in September. At this meeting was held in September.

meetings for the year.

The first meeting was held in September. At this meeting all members were urged to finish the "fuzzy rings" the club was making to be given to each delegate to the Convention as a favor. Plans were made to add a daytime meeting in January to accommodate those persons who could not attend meetings at night. All five meetings were held as scheduled. Several members have distinguished themselves with various honors. Gena Carlisle Easley was elected our delegate to Convention in Miami. Her enthusiasm is contagious, and I know all who will meet her will attest to that. Three members' names were sent to the Central Office as our nominesero "Who's Who in Pi Phi." They were Jane Wilson Robinson, the Republican representative from our district in the Florida Congress; Penny Dix Bernard, who was initiated at the 1973 Convention in Arkansas; and Alice MacKay Cruden for her outstanding work as an executive in the local Public Health Administration. Ellen Burns Collins and Onda Warnock DeLaski received the Golden Arrow. We are proud of their enthusiasm and inspiration over their many years as Pi Phis. Susan Neer received a Federal Traineeship in Public Health Nursing. She will attend the graduate school of Emory University in Atlanta, Georgia. She won this traineeship in a competitive examination. We will miss Susan but are very proud of this honor she has won, Our loss will be Atlanta's gain.

Betts Nunn Gray, one of our most enthusiastic members and a past president of our club, has been in the Orient for the past two years on business with her husband and family. Word has been received from her in Malaysia that she has become actively involved in Panhellenic over there. She reports that she will be returning to us soon. We are delighted over the prospect of having her with us again.

The club enjoyed a visit from our Alumnæ Province President. Mary Anne Watson Emens, in February. She was an inspiration to all of us.

The year ended with a Founders' Day Luncheon in April. The Golden Arrow ceremony was beautifully presented to Ellen and Onda by the president, Jan Shipp Wilkerson. Lena Brammer McElrath gave an interesting program on the founders. She made them seem real and alive to us by relating interesting tid-bits about each girl.

As well as our regular monthly meetings, we have had many craft workshops during the year. In addition the club has sponsored a Bridge Satellite group under the able chairmanship of Muriel Hooper Curran.

Our Fall Bazaar was held in the lovely home of Josephine Clarke Clay. The sale of the Arrowcraft articles and hand crafted items was most successful and provided our main money making project for the year.

The special guest at our November meeting was Mary Anne Watson Emens, Epsilon Province President. Now our attention was turned to the preparation for hosting the dinner on opening night of Convention at Doral Country Club. Miami. This has entailed making table decorations and favors—a fun task—under the capable and imaginative direction of Ann Beiler Schneider. Ann Beiler Schneider.

An annual event, our "Tasting Luncheon" takes place in May. It was held at the home of our recording secretary, Mary K. Gum Swartzel, in Tarpon Springs. June Renville, our president, was the recipient of the Wooden Spoon Gourmet award.

Our able chairman of Rush Information, Pat Slabaugh Myers, was well compensated for her many hours of hand work by the pledging of nine girls from this area, at various schools.

We are proud to have Epsilon Province President of Active Chapters, Doris Brown Fawcett, as a member of our club. We appreciate and laud her dedication and inspiration to the chapters in her province and her interest in Pi Phi.

Our projects have made it possible for the club to make a contribution to each Florida chapter, as well as local contributions to the Public Broadcasting Station WEDU.

FORT LAUDERDALE

The high point of an active year for the Fort Lauderdale Alumnæ Club was the Founders' Day luncheon at which we were delighted to have seventeen Golden Arrow members in attendance! Margery Young Martin presided at an inspirational ceremony honoring these loyal Pi Phis. It has been a busy year for our members as a number of Convention workshops were sandwiched in between our regular meetings, and we put the finishing touches on nearly 800 Pi Phi angel plaques which will be given as favors at Convention. Other highlights of the year included a program by Elinor Doughty Jensen, local Pi Phi potter, on her experiences at Arrowmont Summer Workshop; the annual Arrowcraft sale in November, and a Christmas buffet for members, husbands and guests, both hosted by Cynthia Hadley Rieger. Also a visit from Mary Anne Watson Emens, Alumnæ Province President, whose enthusiasm for Convention proved contagious; a "cooking school" and recipe exchange at which the gourmets among us shared their cooking secrets; and a traditional cooky-shine. With Convention just around the corner, many of our members are looking forward to renewing old Pi Phi friendships and making new ones during this inspirational week.

MIAMI

"Meet the Actives" was the theme for the August meeting held in the home of Alice Jones Brock. In September we gathered together to view a variety of hobbies from oil painting to creative delicate egg trimming all on view in the home of Celeste Dorney Singleton. Fall Fashions created a large gathering in October when Janice Stenson Goodman was hostess and members gave us a full preview of everything from casual to formal wear.

In November our own Ann Cathey Lynch told us more about the "Total Woman" and we had a warm and friendly musical Christmas Party , . with cookie and gift exchange and music with Amie Thompson Browne at the organ. Our hostess was Carroll Patterson Crawford, January was our hostess was Carroll Patterson Crawford, January was our hostess. In March we met Mary Klemer Kiesau and learned a great deal of history through our guest speaker and her collection of dolls.

Planting and care of Ornamentals captured the attention of all for the April meeting at the home of Karen Christiansen Davis and we ended the year with our Founders' Day Luncheon. Our fund raising project was held on the grounds of the beautiful home of Barbara Smith Zankl. World famous is the Oktoberfest in Munich, but we had our own in Miami, complete with a delicious menu and appropriate entertainment.

ORLANDO-WINTER PARK

During the fall of 1974 while the leaves were turning to glorious colors and a real nip was noticed in the air at Gatlinburg, the Orlando-Winter Park Alumnæ Club, under the capable leadership of Louise Powell Atkins, was emphasizing Arrowmont and Arrowcrafts. In September, an Arrowcraft Preview for alumnæ was held at the home of Betty Stratton Wells. The club was pleased to welcome Mary Anne Watson Emens, Epsilon Alumnæ Province President, at this meeting. The Arrowcraft sale was held in October in conjunction with the community-wide Charity Bazaar at the Winter Park Mall. The Arrowcraft display at the bazaar provided an opportunity to inform the community about Arrow-mont as well as sell the lovely Arrowcraft items.

At Christmas, a mother-daughter coffee for area actives was given at the home of Margie Sommer Tucker. The Golden Arrow Coffee honoring our new Golden Arrow members was held on Valentine's Day at Claire Tillman Stanton's home. North and South area meetings which included covered-dish suppers were held in March at the homes of Betty Thomton Robinson and Pat Hinsdale Sigrist. The final meeting was a lovely Founders' Day Luncheon at Maison et Jardin, An interesting Founders' Day program detailing the Founders and the period during which they lived was presented. At the luncheon the club voted to reunite as one group, having functioned as two separate area groups for several years. The renewed interest and increased attendance at Pi Beta Phi functions have made this year a most successful one for the Orlando-Winter Park Alumnæ Club.

ST. PETERSBURG

The St. Petersburg Pi Beta Phi Alumnæ Club has continued to grow under the leadership of president Lydia Klockow Everett.

The club has assisted the fledgling Florida Delta chapter at the University of Florida at Gainesville with gifts of money and books of green stamps. We have supported our local educational television station, WEDU, with annual membership.

We raised money with a sale at a local Flea Market and the Arrowcraft sale at an Art Center.

As a get-to-know-each-other-better project our members have gathered at each other's homes for the fun and fellowship of learning to play and the playing of bridge.

Much fun and many good recipes have been tasted at our covered-dish suppers and lunches. A recipe book project, headed by Grace J. Conner, has grown out of these meetings. Officers for the coming year were installed at Betty Straight Axelrod's beautiful apartment overlooking the Gulf of Mexico. As pelicans and seagulls glided by the eleventh floor windows, Jose Mariscal, pianist, played selections from Leucona, Chopin, and Maarzucca, a most enjoyable conclusion to a successful year.

However, the club's work is not done as Betty Smiley Littrell will have the responsibility of decorating the tables at Convention for the Mother-Daughter Banquet and Judith Worden McCall will represent the St. Petersburg Pi Beta Phi Alumnæ Club.

SOUTHWEST FLORIDA

Southwest Florida Pi Phis began the 1974-75 year on a busy note with our Arrowcraft Sale and Coffee on October 12. Many Pi Phis and friends helped to make this event at Seven Lakes a resounding success and lots of fun for us all. Our annual evening party was a dinner-dance in January. Betty Bartholomew Baldwin, our president, very graciously opened her home for a cocktail party, which preceded the dinner at Cape Coral Country Club. This annual party night is always enjoyable and this year was no exception!

The March Convention workshop meeting at Ida Jane Spicer Sharp's home was very special indeed for us as our Alumnæ Province President, Mary Anne Watson Emens, was present to tell us more about Convention, 1975. Preceding the 2:00 meeting, our board entertained Mrs. Emens at lunch at the Royal Palm Yacht Club.

South Seas Plantation on Captiva Island was the beautiful setting for our Founders' Day luncheon on April 26 with the Naples Club. Linda Myers Taylor was hostess for this very meaningful occasion. Our concluding meeting of the 1974-75 year was held at the home of Phyllis Landis Barnhill on Prather Drive. At this time Betty Bartholomew Baldwin turned her gavel over to Ida Jane Spicer Sharp in anticipation of another successful year for the Southwest Florida Pi Phis.

The same theme was carried out at the ABO breakfast at the Miami Convention in June.

Also highlighting our busy year was a visit from Epsilon Province President Mary Anne Watson Emens at our wine and cheese tasting party.

In January we gave ourselves and our favorite dates a cocktail party. Later in the month we helped host the Panhellenic Brick-Brunch at Brennan's Restaurant.

For Valentine's what could be more appropriate than a cooky-shine and of course, gardenias.

In March rainy weather did not dampen our enthusiasm to sharpen our hostessing technique with a favorite boutique owner. Larry Lucas. The day group met regularly for bridge and dried flower arranging at Patti Martin Patterson's. They joined us all at our season's final official activity, Founders' Day at the Capital City Club. Many of us still had fundraising plans to help at the Atlanta Classic Golf Tournament.

Keeffe Griffith was able to join us for a delightful evening. This year our Arrowmont sale was held at the Pumpkin Patch, a sale sponsored by a local hospital auxiliary and open to community organizations. We had good response, as people admire the unique Arrowcraft wares.

The new year of 1975 brought more activities. A house corporation meeting at the chapter house was preceded by a delicious dinner enjoyed by alums and actives. Kathryn Kenman Otto, one of our Golden Arrow Pi Phis was again a key helper in the rummage sale, which has been a successful fund raising event for the past few years.

ceiebration of its 60th Year Founders' Day Reunion on May 3. All that attended reported that the entire event was a smashing success. Pi Phi alumnæ arrived from fifteen states, representing all four corners of the United States. If the success of a reunion can be determined by the noise level, the Pi Phis rank at the top. The registration, which was held at the chapter house, was so loud that one could compare it only with a 747 take-off. Some of the participants had not returned to their Alma Mater since the 1920s.

The luncheon, held at the K-State Union, was significant for many reasons, but two members were the stars of the day. The first, an alumna, Mrs. Lillian B. Holton presented the Honor Pledge award. Mrs. Holton has been a Pi Beta Phi for 74 years. She helped organize the Pi Phi chapter here in 1914 and was the toastmistress at that luncheon 60 years ago. She has since been instrumental in buying or building all three Pi Beta Phi chapter houses here in Manhattan, including the present home on 1819 Todd Road—needless to say, she received a standing ovation.

The second star of the day was Jancey Campbell, a senior active at Kansas State and the chapter chairman of Founders' Day. She received the Xi Province Chapter Service Award for her outstanding work in Kansas Beta.

The end of an exciting day was spent with all Pi Phis young and old with dates and husbands at the Manhattan Country Club. The noise level remained the same and will be ringing in the ears of all those who attended for many Honolulu's Alumnæ Club president, Phyllis Ford Ferguson (California Gamma, 1950) led four lively and well-attended meetings this year.

In September the club, following an annual local interest theme, met at the Bishop Museum. There we were given an informative guided tour of the extensive collection of Hawaiian and South Pacific cultural displays and then enjoyed a picnic lunch on the lawn in front of the museum. The December meeting, our traditional "Make or Bake" get-together, was held at Anne Bunting Wells' home. The sale of chocolate cheese cake, bread dough sculptures and miniature oil paintings, among many other creative contributions, helped to raise $100.00 for the Arrowmont Kitchen Fund. A "Whip Inflation Now" buffet was organized at Carolyn Michelsen Wilkinson's in March with special emphasis on inexpensive menus and home entertainment ideas. Our Founders' Day luncheon found us eating crab crepes under hanging flower baskets at the Yacht Harbor Towers Garden Room. New officers were installed and several new members welcomed. Our president for next year is Judy Perrill Houlgate.

More and more Arrowcraft products are being seen around Honolulu these days. Six dozen Hawaiian coasters were donated by the club to the Honolulu Academy of Art and are now being used every day in the popular Garden Cafe. Arrowcraft sales were even more successful this year that last. After receiving word that we had moved from fourth to second place in the nation last year, our super-enthusiastic Arrowcraft Chairperson Gerry DeBenedetti Senner (Nevada Alpha, 1959) set out to lead us to the very top this year. By the end of May our total Arrowcraft sales were $7,000.00.

My. Senner will share her enthusiasm with many more Pi Phis this summer as our Convention delegate.

We are also proud to announce that this year's Panhellenic Woman of the Year in Honolulu is our Pi Phi nominee Dee Epps Helber.

The Boise, Idaho, Alumnæ Club enjoyed a very profitable year, 1974-75, under the leadership of our president. We held several executive board meetings during the year at which we did much planning and organizing.

Our Ways and Means project for the year, a wine tasting party, was a big success. We netted $310. Breads and cheeses were donated by Albertson's food store, which helped make the event successful.

Our monthly meetings proved to be fun, interesting, and in some cases educational. In September we had two men from the state attorney general's office speak on "Consumer Protection." Our October meeting consisted of Dr. Barry Asmus, Professor of Economics at Boise State University, discussing "Friendships and Family Relationships.

At our November meeting entitled "Santa's Workshop," we all brought Christmas craft and baking ideas and shared them with others in the group. In December we held our annual Christmas brunch with actives at the Hillcrest Country Club.

We started out the new year with a presentation by the Potting Shed. They discussed house plants, proper care and treatment. At the conclusion of the meeting, we raffled off two plants. Our February function was our money-making wine tasting party.

Our March meeting proved to be exciting and fun. We held a "White Elephant Bingo" party at which we got to get rid of our white elephants. We ended the year with our traditional Founders Day luncheon on April 26. We all agreed that we had enjoyed a very successful and gratifying year in Pi Beta Phi.

Our first meeting of a delightful year was a pool-side luncheon in September. In October we shared an interesting evening with the pledges during a cooky-shine held at the chapter house. Also, in October we had an Arrowcraft Sale enjoyed by many.

November was our traditional Senior Party with the girls from the house. Lots of good food and conversation. December brought Christmas Cheer with a cocktail party with husbands.

Following a snow storm, March found our alumnæ enjoying a salad luncheon and bridge. In April, we held a Boutique Auction at the chapter house to raise money for sending our delegates to convention in June. The auction netted $410 with the assistance of husbands Terry Cole and Steve Loman as Auctioneers.

We ended our year with a Founders' Day dinner at the house in April. Our scholarship advisor, Susan Hays, presented five Garshwiler Scholarships totaling $900 to those students who were most deserving.

We are all looking forward to many exciting and fun meetings for 1975-1976.

FRANKLIN

The Franklin Alumnæ Club had another successful year. The club was especially proud of its high percentage of resident members affiliating with the group. During the 1974-75 year, there were forty-one active members of the club and thirty-five "angels," totaling eighty-one out of a possible 105-110 local resident Pi Phis.

A significant honor came to one of the Franklin club members this year. Louise Kelch Vandivier, immediate past president of the club, received the province Evelyn Peters Kyle Angel Award at the National Convention in June at Miami, Florida. This award is given to an alumna for club service. Mrs. Vandivier has been very active not only in the Franklin club but also in the Indianapolis club. When a resident of that city, she served as a member of the advisory committee for the Butler University chapter and also as province scholar-ship advisor. ship advisor.

In November we held our annual Christmas Boutique featuring handmade items including hobby horses, patchwork, wreaths, etc. that we had begun making some six months earlier. In addition, this year, we invited local craftsmen and artists to see their goods. This boutique collected over $1200.

In the spring we helped add to the outdoor color by selling geraniums which brought $335.00 to our treasury.

Our money making projects enabled us to purchase a neonatal care unit for Riley Children's Hospital, remodel an area of the Butler University chapter house and donate money to the Pleasant Run Children's Home.

Besides all these activities we formed a "Slightly Older Sisters" group to give guidance and friendship to the pledges. All in all it was a very enjoyable and constructive year for our club.

LAFAYETTE

The Lafayette Alumnæ Club began a refreshing year with new ideas under the leadership of Elaine Englert Thornton. We hosted the seniors to a potluck dinner in October at the home of Corrine Clark Mitchell. This is one of the few times the actives and alums can socialize and it was a most enjoyable evening. Moving into the holiday season we held our annual Fall Arrowcraft sale in November at the chapter house in addition to selling pecans for the first time. December was highlighted by a cocktail party at the home of Patty Breon Haugh which included husbands as our guests.

We began the year 1975 with a buffer at the chapter house which included the lovely new pledges and the Mothers' Club followed the next month by a Bingo Party at the Tippecanoe County Farm. April proved to be a busy month for the alumnæ club. One of the most enjoyable evenings was a "Wine and Silver Blue Fondue" held at Avis Mayer Anderson's home, with fondues ranging from chocolate to cheese. State Day was held on April 12 at Ball State University and for the first time this year we held a Spring Arrowcraft Sale in the local Shopping Plaza.

We ended a most enjoyable year at Susie Clark Webb's home with a picnic and installation of officers.

MUNCIE

A carry-in dinner marked the beginning of a number of varied activities for the Muncie Alumnæ Club of Pi Beta Phi. Several annual events provided entertainment and enjoyment for club members. These included a pizza party for the active chapter winter pledge class, a carry-in dinner for the members of the active chapter and of the alumnæ club, and a husbande party.

members of the active chapter and of the aiumnæ ciub, and a husbands party.

Several new events were added to the club program this year. The alumnæ club surprised the active chapter with a "kitchen shower." Each alum was asked to bring a gift which the actives could use in the sorority suite.

A Christmas tea and sale added to the excitement of December. Arrowcraft items, baked goods, leaded glass and handcrafted items were sold while punch and "goodies" were being served. being served.

for a card party and refreshments. This proved to be a most enjoyable event.

Many alumnæ joined efforts in the main event of the 1974-75 year; that event being State Day. Many months of planning and preparation were evident as Pi Phis from the entire state of Indiana joined our alumnæ club and the active chapter in the activities of State Day. Judy Fritzmeier Snyder did an excellent job in making State Day so enjoyable.

The Pi Phis who participated in this year's activities truly had an enjoyable and worthwhile year.

RICHMOND

The first Wednesday of every month from October to April omitting January was reserved by Richmond area alumnæ for Pi Phi meetings. Five luncheons and one evening dessert combined business with pleasure. One meeting we particularly enjoyed was our November meeting which began with a sack lunch and ended with the making of "Pi Phi angel" yarn dolls, a combined creation of Hallmark and our president. These dolls were hung on a sprayed tree branch and sent to the University of Kentucky chapter to be used in their Christmas decorating. One of our members has an active daughter in this hoster.

Christmas decorating. One of our members has an active daughter in this chapter.

We also had a good time while learning when we took a "smart Pi Phi" quiz of 20 questions about our Fraternity at another meeting which served to refresh our memories concerning the history of Pi Beta Phi.

In April we celebrated Founders' Day by honoring three Golden Arrow Pi Phis, two of whom were charter members of their college chapters. We enjoyed sharing memories and pictures telling "how it was" 50 plus years ago. They were presented gifts of silver blue jewelry boxes with our Greek letters on the lid, the handiwork of one of our members.

We were able to help some younger girls this year maybe.

We were able to help some younger girls this year, maybe a future Pi Phi, by making financial contributions to our Richmond High School Aquatic Department to purchase a permanent plaque to be awarded annually at their synchronized swim show and to the YWCA gymnastic team toward the purchase of a vaulting horse.

Southeastern Indiana Alumnæ Club held their first meeting of the fall on September 28 at the home of Margaret Woodfill Morrison in Greensburg. After a delicious luncheon served by the Greensburg members, a business meeting was held. Leila Kennedy Marquis then presented an excellent program on the life of Mary McLeod Bethune, a black educator who spent the greater part of her life helping her race.

An early Christmas party was enjoyed by the members at Rushville on December 7. A lovely dessert was served at the home of Sue Wuthrick Moster. We all enjoyed Mary Hall Ertel's Christmas program, a review of the book "Smashed Potatoes." Gifts were exchanged and games enjoyed.

On February 15 the group gathered at the Greenburg Elks Club for a luncheon and program. We were pleased to have Sharon Pierce Smith with us for lunch. Sharon has served as alum advisor to active chapters and she spoke of the present and future growth of the Fraternity. Working closely with the active chapters for the past two years, she had many interesting sidelights to give us. We were pleased to welcome five Rushville Freshmen c-llege girls into Pi Beta Phi. ALTON-EDWARDSVILLE

The Alton-Edwardsville Alumnæ Club held four meetings during the 1974-75 year. Each meeting had a slightly different flavor and all were very well attended.

We began in September with a trip to St. Louis for a luncheon and matinee performance at the Plantation Dinner Theater. In November we met at the home of Virginia Simpson Burroughs in Edwardsville. This was an evening meeting so we could be with some of our members who work and can't attend luncheons. A meeting planned for February had to be cancelled because of an unexpected heavy snow. A treat in March was a luncheon at "The Greenery" in Edwardsville. This is a delightful tea room recently opened by one of our members, Judy Webber Ohl. We closed our year in April with a salad potluck at the home of Judy Roth St. Cin in Alton. Luncheon was followed by our Founders' Day celebration and discussion of plans for 1975-76.

The importance of communications in family, friends, job, and the world lead our Program Chairman, Mary Gay Shields Tichenor, to focus the club's attention to this area. September found us in the home of Karen Smith learning TV communications from news commentator Dick Kay. Local politics were discussed in November and all of us enjoyed our Christmas party and gift exchange. January "blahs" were chased away when we learned how better to communicate with children. We learned how teenagers communicate their feelings in the use of drugs. Betsy Gibbs Vogt, Mu North Alumnæ Province President, was hostess when we heard "Women on the Move" in jobs and the community from Doe Hentschel, Women's Education Director of Harper College.

Founders' Day was celebrated jointly with the Lake County Alumnæ Club. Betsy Vogt gave a real insight into the lives of our Founders and honored guest was Mrs. J. M. Payton, 100 years young and a Pi Phi for 82 years.

It was a perfect Spring day for the Open House planned by the active chapter for alums, parents and friends. The new chapter house is lovely. A buffet dinner was served in the evening for parents and alumnæ. We closed our year with the annual picnic where our husbands join us for an evening of good food, fun and most probably a chorus of our favorite Pi Phi songs. Pi Phi songs.

SARAH HOLDER BUTLER

CHAMPAIGN-URBANA

The Champaign-Urbana Alumnæ Club began the year with a young and vivacious new president who was determined to get a larger enrollment of newly graduated alums. Her efforts were realized when the first meeting brought together the largest number of recent graduates in all time. This first meet-ing was a wine and cheese gathering, and allowed the new-comers an opportunity to get to know the established mem-comers an opportunity to get to know the established members.

The remaining meetings of the year found young and old working together as a strong unit. The October meeting, entitled "Make it, Bake it, Grow it, or Sew it" allowed each member to bring the one craft she did the best, and share it with the other members. In November, actives and alumnæworked together on the annual Arrowcraft sale, earning $7,092.58. Pledges were honored on December 2 with a beautiful dinner. The January meeting, "It's Greek to Me" was an opportunity for each member to bring a friend from another fraternal organization, and an excellent speaker told of the past, present and future of "Greek" social organizations. "What's Cooking with the Pi Phis?" was the theme of the February luncheon meeting, at which Ann Gallivan spoke, bringing members up to date. The March meeting honored graduating seniors with a dessert. The final event of the year was the annual Founders' Day brunch, held at the chapter house, again including both actives and alumnæ.

It is obvious that chapter relations was an important part of this year in Champaign-Urbana. A Slightly Older Sister program was established, matching one alum with one active, giving them contact with the area activities which they might have missed otherwise. A Chapter Relations committee met periodically with representatives from the active chapter, holding the doors open for communication. The actives even planned a cooky-shine to honor the alums.

Cooperation was the byword of this year in Champaign-Urbana Alumnæ Club. Each was working for the other, and all were working for Pi Beta Phi.

CHICAGO SOUTH SUBURBAN

"Don't Throw It Out" was the title of a most successful presentation by Lois Thayer Lewis, a member of the Chicago South Suburban Alumnæ Club at their annual fund raising event. In her program Lois educated and entertained over 100 people by showing them how to create dozens of useful and attractive objects from things normally discarded.

Donations of $1.00 were given for the program which was also combined with the traditional Arrowcraft sale. Refreshments made by the members of the club and babysitting services were offered. The use of such an interesting program proved to be an excellent way to draw people to the Arrowcraft sale.

CHICAGO WEST SUBURBAN

The 1974-1975 program year of the Chicago West Suburban Club began in a grand manner. Following a luncheon in September, the program featured a look at the fun of collecting antiques with members contributing their talents as speakers. This discussion helped put many in a Bicentennial mood. Following September's look at something old, came a look at what's new in Pi Beta Phi as presented to us in October by our Province President, Betsy Gibbs Vogt.

In November, we held a very successful Christmas Boutique and Silent Auction for our members. Besides raising money, everyone could admire the skills of their sisters in needlework, macramé, gardening, sewing, etc. This put us all in the spirit of Christmas.

The January doldrums were enlivened by a Stretch and spirit of Christmas.

The January doldrums were enlivened by a Stretch and Sew demonstration which so intrigued many members that quite a few new students took Stretch and Sew classes from our group. February found us with a new look at life in Mexico. A slide and lecture program gave us a view of Mexico not often seen by Americans. The program was given by a former alum club president whose husband participated in an exchange of orthopedic surgeons in that country and the program featured looks at hospitals, rural missions, etc. as well as the familiar tourist attractions.

the program featured looks at hospitals, rural missions, etc. as well as the familiar tourist attractions.

In March we all worked very hard at our Arrowcraft Sale and realized a nice profit. At our March meeting we had a former alum advisor from Miami University of Ohio speak to us on college life today. She also showed us the new pledge training manual. April and Founders' Day was celebrated at a luncheon with the Hinsdale Alum Club.

May again brought the polluck dinner and its delicious dishes. Everyone enjoyed this meeting because we have such good cooks in our membership. Following dinner came election of officers and then a cooky-shine. We drank a toast to the Wine and Blue and thought of a good year which quickly passed but which had good times shared by all.

CELIA N. HUNT

GALESBURG

The Galesburg Alumnæ Club got off to a good start September 11 with past president Marge Stuart Waters as hostess, the guidance of Mary Mangieri Burgland as incoming president and Charlene Nichols Barstow in charge of Settlement School Arrowcraft sales. In the afternoon each member was asked to bring a friend to an Open House to view Pi Phi Arrowcraft products. This was followed by a dinner meeting for members, and the club treasury as well as Settlement School profited by the many orders taken.

Following the pledging of sixteen girls by Knox Beta-Delta Chapter in October, the alums were hosts to both actives and newly pledged girls for a fried chicken dinner in Kits McKinstry Doyle's home. Sarah Lacy Koons made her home available for the 7:30 dessert meeting on November 13, at which time Aline Kinnison Sharp, our Alumnæ Province President, was a guest, and she discussed with us new ways to make money and the various funds to which we might donate. We met again for dessert on December 11 at Lou Walter Flater's home and enjoyed our annual Christmas party with unique gift exchange which we always look forward to sharing.

with unique gift exchange which we always look forward to sharing.

The February meeting on Lincoln's birthday was held in Carlene Nichols Barstow's home with a dinner followed by a silent auction, the profits from which are used for the club's projects. In March we went to the country home of Grace Metcalf Inness for our dinner meeting and election of officers. The officers for the past year will again serve during the coming year, and Margaret Shragel Tolley was chosen to represent the Galesburg club at Convention. Since our president was seen to become member the club gave her a president was the convention.

the coming year, and Margaret Shrager Tolley was chosen to represent the Galesburg club at Convention. Since our president was soon to become a mother, the club gave her a present for the new baby.

On Founders' Day, April 28, 1975, the Pi Phi actives from Knox met with the alumnæ at the Bridlecreek Tree House, and as we have done in the past several years it was served in cooky-shine fashion with sheets spread on the floor and the actives seated around them. Each alum brought a salad, and the committee was responsible for meat, homemade rolls, drink and dessert. After the awards were given by the actives, our president announced that Carlene Nichols Barstow, because of her year's work on the Settlement School propect, had been chosen for our own Angel Award.

We closed the year on May 14 at a dinner meeting in Ella Falck Long's home with senior girls from the active chapter as guests. Each guest was given a present of a decoupaged trinket box with a pen sketch of Holt House on the top. And thus ended a successful year with a good rapport between alums and active chapter having been established.

Floyd Kalber of NBC News opened our 1974-75 year with a very interesting discussion of current affairs. Our October meeting featured Emadene Travers, our Mu North scholarship winner for Arrowmont. She told us her personal experiences while there, and also answered many questions we had about the school. The same program included an Arrowcraft display and sale.

Liza Ranney Youmans owns "The Attic," a boutique in Hinsdale. At our November meeting she told us how it began and all the experiences she has had with having a small

In January we had a luncheon at a small local restaurant followed by a "Stretch and Sew" demonstration. Our husbands joined us for our annual cocktail party in February.

The election of officers took place at our March meeting as well as a good discussion about local politics with Robert Morris, DuPage County Board member. We had a joint meeting with the West Suburban Club for Founders' Day at a local restaurant. Two Northwestern Pi Phis told us what was happening on their campus. a local restaurant. LAKE COUNTY

In addition to the Husbands' Christmas Party and flower-arranging, wine-tasting, crafts and antique programs, the Lake County Alumnæ Club celebrated the 20th Anniversary of its founding this year. One of the present members, Phyllis Burk-hardt Doescher, was guest of honor. Mrs. Doescher told of the group's history while members enjoyed a cooky-shine and later reminisced about chapter traditions. Kathryn Rohwer Sackheim and Dorothy Hoppe Ford presented a program on the history of the cooky-shine. On April 26 the Club was joined by the Arlington Heights Alumnæ Club for a Founders' Day Luncheon at the Country Squire in Graylake. Cornelia Ward Paton, a 100-year-old Pi Phi who was initiated eighty-two years ago, was a special guest. Betsy Gibbs Vogt, Mu North Alumnæ Province President, presented a program about the Founders.

LIBBIE BROOK GADDIS

The Libbie Brook Gaddis Alumnæ Club of Avon-Bushnell opened its forty-seventh year under the guidance of our president, Joanne Morris Louden.

An Arrowcraft sale, in the form of a coffee hour; a meeting with our new alum Province President, Aline Kinnison Sharp and a Founders' Day meeting with twelve members in attendance; all were part of our year.

The club continues to maintain its support and interest in Arrowmont, Holt House and the Emma Harper Turner fund. We feel these things are what help form the special bond of Pi Beta Phi.

NINA HARRIS ALLEN

Members of the Nina Harris Allen Alumnæ Club of DuPage

Members of the Nina Harris Allen Alumnæ Club of DuPage County experienced a variety of programs this year. Some of the topics included a fashion show, lace making, silk screening, jewelry making, couples' potluck and consumer fraud information. Our most unique and exciting program was held in April. Following our traditional and delightful Founders' Day salad luncheon at Dode Lethen Ackermann's we met at the home of Carolyn Posh in Glen Ellyn, Illinois. Carolyn Posh is a local antique dealer who sells antiques and her hand crafted quilts and children's clothes from her home. We toured her 15 room house decorated with the antiques and crafts she sells. Each of the rooms are totally "lived in" by Carolyn, her husband and their 9 children. The house itself was so interesting with its various rooms, levels and alcoves; and all in "showroom order."

She still considers her business as an income hobby which began 8 years ago. Last year, Carolyn's travels around the country to collect the antiques totaled 26,000 miles. Her antiques range from ice skates, household items to large and small pieces of furniture.

We all marveled at Carolyn's deep interest and enthusiasm in hear work and heart asking asch other. "How does also

We all marveled at Carolyn's deep interest and enthusiasm in her work and kept asking each other, "How does she have the time and energy to do all these things?" It certainly was a thrill to meet Carolyn Posh, to view her talents and to make use of one of the resources in our community. We departed for the year full of ideas and looking toward fall for another successful year.

NORTH SHORE

The 1974-75 year was a very successful year for the North Shore Alumnæ Club under the enthusiastic leadership of our president, Kay Murray Pirrong. Although all of the programs were very interesting, two were considered exceptional. The first was a talk by Mr. James A. Williams telling of the development of American furniture from 1640 to 1870. He illustrated his discussion with slides which created a very meaningful presentation and helped to set our mood for the Bicentennial celebration. The second was a capsule lesson on handwriting analysis by Mrs. Richard Lowndes, III. She closed her program by choosing several of our members' handwriting samples to analyze. It was amazing how we could see the characteristics she mentioned in each of the personalities.

Our fund raising efforts included a very successful benefit in February. Two hundred Pi Phis and friends gathered for luncheon and bridge in various members' homes. A White Elephant Auction at one of our meetings also netted approximately $100 for our philanthropic projects.

NORTH SHORE JUNIOR

The North Shore Junior Alumnæ Club celebrated its 25th anniversary this year. It was a particularly successful 1974-1975 season under the able leadership of our president, Connie Squires Kindsvater. Our year began with its annual New Members' Garden Brunch in the home of one of our members, Barbara Mathews Hardesty, It was, as always, good to see each other after the summer months, but especially nice to see all the new faces. This party was followed closely by our first regular September meeting, which turned out to be one of our best. The program was entitled "The Plants In Your Life." Our Arrowcraft sale was also in September, and we discovered again how many people enjoy "shopping Pi Phi"! The North Shore Junior Alumnæ Club celebrated its 25th

Phi'!
October brought a wine and hors d'oeuvres tasting party in the home of Sarah Steinmeyer Krause; and while we nibbled and sipped, we heard a talk from our Alumnæ Province President, Betsy Gibbs Vogt. This month we also had a 'Tailgate Party' in conjunction with the Northwestern-Purdue football game. Midwesterners, you know, are great football fans.

The holiday months of November and December inspired programs dealing with skiing and interior design. Also, during this period of time, we had our first "Gourmet Cooking" gettogether. They are for couples, and are held four times a year in various members' homes. Each person brings a part of the dinner. This first one was French cuisine, and it was followed by Indian-Persian, Russian, and Viennese. These dinner parties have been very popular.

followed by Indian-Persian, Russian, and Viennese. These dinner parties have been very popular.

Most importantly, December was the month for our annual benefit. This year we tried something new and were terribly pleased with the outcome. We had a "Childrens' Santa Claus Luncheon Benefit". It was strictly for the little ones, beginning with a hot dog, chips, cupcake and juice for lunch; caroling with some of the Northwestern actives; a chat with Santa and finally a number show. Exercise recembed. and finally, a puppet show. Everyone seemed to have a good time; and I think we who were working were enjoying ourselves as much as the children! I might add, it was quite a profitable experience for us too; so, I am quite sure it will be profitable experience for us too; so, 1 am quite sure it will be repeated next year.

January and February meetings had programs on "Creativity for Everyday Use" and "Paramedics." The former was presented by our own Suzanne Green Stevens, a freelance graphic designer, and Jeannine Wiese, an artist, who gave a demonstration on the art of Vue'd Optique. The latter program was presented by the Coordinator of the Emergency Medical Services at Lutheran General Hospital. It was most interesting and informative.

vices at Lutheran General Hospital. It was most interesting and informative.

February is also the month for another of our popular couples' parties. With the new popularity of tennis, the North Shore Junior Pi Phis naturally, stay in step. We had our second tennis party. Those of us who play tennis had a great time, and it is an especially nice way to get to know some of the husbands.

Another fun party we had this month was our Chili Supper

Another fun party we had this month was our Chili Supper for the Northwestern actives—freshmen and seniors. This year it was held in the home of Sarah Steinmeyer Krause. There was an especially good turn-out of hungry actives, and once again, the actives and alums enjoyed each others company. March rolled around with another of our most popular programs. It was presented by Dumas Pere at his French Cooking School on "The Art of Making Crepes," Also the Northwestern actives had a "Spring Party" for the alums and their children. It was a morning full of games, fun, and stories. Our regular April meeting was a program on Arrowmont and later, a "White Elephant Sale."

Our Founders' Day Tea was held at Northwestern University Pi Phi house, and this year it was especially meaningful for two reasons. First, it was our 25th anniversary, and secondly, because we presented the Pat Warner Thompson Memorial Award for the first time. The award is in memory of one of our past presidents who died quite suddenly and it is to be given annually to a Northwestern active for friendship. The afternoon was lovely, as our Founders' Day should be.

The afternoon was lovely, as our Founders' Day should be.
Our last official meeting was a Salad Supper in the home of our out-going president, Connie Squires Kindsvater. Everyone brought her favorite appetizer, salad, or dessert, and at their leisure the present and new officers exchanged notebooks their leisure the present and had been stated and the for next year.

As you can see, the North Shore Junior Alumnæ Club is quite active. We play hard and we work hard, and that is why our club is consistently, year after year, successful and popular.

MARY ANN DRYDEN FYFE

PEORIA

This year the Peoria Alumnæ Club had a variety of mee ings, coffees, luncheons, and evening gatherings to enable every member an opportunity to join us.

Our September meeting was a coffee at the home of Betty Harbers Morgan. At this meeting we honored those women who had paid angel dues the year before. We have found these special dues of an additional four dollars very popular in out club. Not only have they helped our treasury but have also given many of our members who are unable to take an active part a special means of showing their support. This year our Arrowcraft sale was held on a Saturday in September. Joyce Murphy Oberlander was our chairman and did a super job not only with the sale but throughout the year. She located a woman to monogram the purses we sold and by spring had sold dozens in all colors and sizes. At our evening meetings we had a couple of speakers. From within our group we had Merl Meadors Glasscock speak to us on health foods, and in February we asked a local hair designer to talk to our group. To this meeting we invited the active chapter at Illinois Theta.

In a further attempt to get to know the Bradley Pi Phis we started a Slightly Older Sister program. Each woman who participated adopted a pledge as her S.O.S. As one activity in this program we had an evening party for the girls at which the alumnæ entertained the pledges with a song.

DEDE KITCHELL WATERS

TRI-CITY

The Tri-City Alumnæ Club started its 1974 year with Katie Crissey Ainsworth as our new president. We held a cookyshine in September to start our year and it was a program that brought back delightful memories to all the Pi Phi Alums present. We had almost as much fun making the cookies as we did eating them. In October all the Alums were very generous in donating items and we had quite a successful garage sale at the home of Katie Crissey Ainsworth.

Our November meeting had us thinking of Christmas as we knitted and trimmed red and white bells to be sold as ornaments at Santa's House. In December the Pi Phis worked at the Panhellenic Santa's House and we watched with delight the faces of the children as they talked to Mrs. Santa and Santa himself. In February we held a joint meeting with the Kappa Deltas and we had a wonderful speaker from the House of JB demonstrate the techniques of flower arranging. In March we held our annual Make It, Bake It, Grow It, Sew It Program. We were amazed and pleased by the number of clever and interesting items made by the alums and we are looking forward to this program again next year. This is a wonderful way to make money and have fun at the same time.

Our final meeting of the year was held at Dorothy Sparks

Our final meeting of the year was held at Dorothy Sparks Ericson's home. This was our Founders' Day Dinner and it was a very special program this year. DES MOINES Individual members of the Des Moines Alumnæ Club have provided us all with an inspirational, enlightening and educating year of programs. In September, Carrie Miller Hall tuned us in to "The Becoming Process, Expanding Sensory Awareness and its Ramifications." In October, Ester Fuller Janss taught us that growing sprouts to eat can be lots of fun, taste good and are very good for you. In an effort to know our actives better, we invited them to our Founders' Day Party. It is always great to rap with them and to talk with our charming Province President, Helen Cary Lovejoy.

An Arts and Crafts Auction in November, combined the excellent leadership of Renee Ross Hall and Marilyn Hatley Roeske and an opportunity to raise money for a scholarship to Arrowmont. This year's recipient is Miss Jane Riley an instructor at Iowa's Vocational Rehabilitation Center.

On all occasions the sisters of the Des Moines club enjoyed the fellowship that comes from P i Phi togetherness.

INDIANOLA

The celebration of Iowa Beta's centennial was a joyous occasion during this year for the alumnæ club and active chapter. Many planning meetings and workshops were held in the fall months to prepare for the October 20 celebration. The day began with a reunion breakfast followed by open house at the chapter house. The centennial observance ended with a lovely formal luncheon held in Great Hall on the Simpson College Campus with many alumnæ and friends of the chapter attending. We were specially honored with the presence of John Barker whose mother, Ida Chesire Barker, was a founder of Iowa Beta.

The actives and pledges decorated the chapter house for an "Old Fashioned Christmas" when the alumnæ and mothers joined them for a Christmas dinner party in December.

Annie Laurie Jones, Helen Grant, and Roberta Kerr prepared interesting programs for the remainder of the alumnæ club winter and spring meetings. Pledges and actives were invited guests at various alumnæ club meetings this year.

Everyone enjoyed this opportunity to become better acquainted.

The annual Christmas Holiday Shoppers' Punch was in the home of our president, Betty Rowton Holt. Collegians and their mothers were special guests.

Co-chairmen Connie Bledsoe and Kathy Krause Fennama planned our Founders' Day Brunch at the new Hilton Hotel, It was a huge success. Despite the warnings of wind and rain, South Dakota Alpha came by bus. Also present were alumnæ from the Vermillion and Sioux Falls clubs and the Yankton area. After a welcoming speech by our president and honors presented to the collegians who had achieved high scholastic standing and outstanding campus leadership, we were entertained by a skit in which collegians and alumna participated, depicting from our beginning to now—in costume and in song—'We Are Number One.' HUTCHINSON

The Hutchinson Alumnæ Club of Pi Beta Phi began its year under the leadership of Barbara Batchelor Hansen with the planning of our charity auction. The auction was held on October 7, in the home of Betty Lay Dillon. Items bid upon included white elephants, potted plants, baked goods, and hand-made gifts and Christmas decorations. The proceeds help our Pi Beta Phi national philanthropies, our two active chapters, and local philanthropie organizations.

An enjoyable holiday luncheon was held in January with active members of Kansas Alpha, Kansas Beta, and Texas Delta present. Our new initiate, Maureen O'Sullivan, Kansas Alpha, and her mother were special guests.

As always, our Founders' Day meeting was our most memorable and meaningful one. This was celebrated in the home of Norma Anderson Stuckey with a delightful luncheon and cooky-shine. Our vice president, Sue Law Bleger, read the history of the cooky-shine and conducted a fun Pi Phi quiz game. The winner received a plate of cookies.

All of us feel we have concluded a most rewarding year of alumnæ activities.

KANSAS CITY

An antique show and sale highlighted the year for the Kansas City, Kansas, Alumnæ Club of Pi Beta Phi. Under the direction of their president, Mary Lynn Rogers Holbrook, Kansas City, Kansas, Alumma Club of Pi Beta Phi. Under the direction of their president, Mary Lynn Rogers Holbrook, the show was quite successful. A fund-raiser, the show was sponsored 50/50 with Bethany Medical Center Auxiliary. The show was held November 15, 16, and 17 at the National Guard Armory in Kansas City, Kansas. A manager was paid to run the antique show. Dealers came from many states. The tickets, which were good for all three days, sold for $1.50 each. A percent of the pre-sale tickets and all profits from the concession stand made the project a lucrative undertaking. This local project, not only promoted good public relations in the community, but it also brought $800.00 to each participating group for a total of $1600.00. The Pi Phis decided to donate $200 of their share of the profits to Bethany for their tremendous help in making the antique show a profit-making venture. Many Pi Phis were also members of Bethany Medical Center Auxiliary so the women were working with neighbors and friends. Consequently, interest in the group was high. 90% of the Pi Beta Phi Alumnæ Club participated. The meeting prior to the show helped create interest. At this meeting each Pi Phi took an antique to "Show and Tell." Many members had unusual items that interested everyone. Because the program set the mood for the fund-raising event, the club felt "Show and Tell." was the best program for the year. RUTH FISHER GOHEEN

KANSAS CITY-SHAWNEE MISSION JUNIOR

Thanks to Christy Rodes Buckner, program chairman, the Kansas City, Missouri-Shawnee Mission, Kansas, Junior Alumnæ Group enjoyed a variety of programs. Last fall our programs ranged from transactional analysis to house plants and informal entertaining on a budget. Jon Stenerud of the Kansas City Chiefs football team was guest speaker at our October meeting, and provided us with some interesting insights into a football career. Other programs concerned consumer affairs, local Bicentennial activities, and a "Show and Tell" night when our own Pi Phis disclosed hidden treasures and handicraft and artistic talents. craft and artistic talents.

craft and artistic talents.

The largest benefit project in conjunction with the senior group, was J.W.'s Cobweb Corner. The handicraft shop was located in the carriage house of the historical John Wornall House. The shop carried many articles in keeping with the house, such as antiques, childrens' wooden toys, hand-knitted Christmas stockings, patchwork pillows, quilts, crocheted Christmas ornaments, and a large selection of Arrowcraft. Our club plans to reopen J.W.'s Cobweb Corner again next year between Thanksgiving and Christmas.

In the spring we sold over 400 lovely geranium plants and made enough profit to send two delegates, Mary Kerr Knighton and Kristi Carlson Wolfermon to Convention. The entire 1974-1975 year was filled with variety, friendship, and many happy experiences.

KANSAS CITY-SHAWNEE MISSION SENIOR

Highlights of a busy club year for us last year were our "Cobweb Corner" shop at the historic Wornall House, and our very special Founders' Day luncheon in April. Both of these events were joint projects with the junior club.

The shop was a new fund raising project for both Pi Phi philanthropy giving, and the Wornall House, an 1868 restored house. The junior club joined with the senior club to fully stock and staff a shop with hand-made items appropriate to the period, plus antiques, and Arrowcraft items. The shop was held open from Thankseiving until Christmas during shop was held open from Thanksgiving until Christmas during the hours the Wornall House was open. Our December senior club meeting was a coffee held in the home with Christmas decorations as well as carols sung by our new Pi Phi choir decorations as well as carols sung by our new Pi Phi choir and much activity in the shop.

One of the very special features of Founders' Day was a musical presentation by our chorus of alums led by Pi Phi National song leader, Mary Swanson Engel. A skit had been written using the "Tradition" theme by Pearl Brueger Reid. It was narrated by Marilyn Sweet Kiene. Our speaker was Pi Phi Nancy Hambleton from Lawrence, Kansas where she has served as Mayor. We honored five new Golden Arrow Pi Phis: Jennie Hockaday Bartlett, Cecilia Miller Fitch, Ada Bauman McEachen, Jean Lingenfelter Moore, and Dorothy Wilson Ware. Dorothy Ware spoke on their behalf of her memories of 50 years ago in Pi Phi. The large crowd of local Pi Phis will long remember the moving atmosphere set that afternoon by Diane Corbin Armer and her super committee.

Other activities of the senior club this year included a new twist to our 18 year old Theater Holiday tour: a trip to London. This new tour went in the fall following the usual week in New York. These tours are another of our money making projects open to anyone interested (not just Pi Phis). Many small interest groups are now meeting often simply to eat lunch out, study gardening, sew for Mercy Hospital, go antiquing, or practice for the chorus. Our smaller "Arrow Section" meets four times a year with their own programs for those who prefer a smaller group.

The many facets of beautifying our homes was the theme of Topeka Pi Phi's 1974-75 year. As it is sometimes hard to interest our husbands in the "value" of rustic antiques, we planned our first meeting with that goal in mind. Following a congenial hour and Emil's famous shrimp peel supper, Pi Phis and their mates gathered in Roberta Edmisten Rolley's family room for an amusing and informative talk given by a young couple in the antique business. Our November meeting at Pam Russell Alexander's featured a superb talk on "The Art of Framing Art" by the owner of Beauchamp's Frame Shop. In December, with poinsettias in full bloom, we enjoyed a greenhouse walk with Bruno at a local florist shoppe. A delightful luncheon followed at Topeka Country Club. Club

Our annual Pi Phi-Kappa coffee hostessed by Ellen Proudit Our annual Pi Phi-Kappa coffee hostessed by Ellen Proudfit Williams was a special event this year. A joint planning committee of Pi Phis and Kappas announced formative plans for a Spring Home and Garden Tour featuring six homes and gardens of individual charm regaled by different florists and nurseries. It was at this meeting that the sororities jointly decided to give the proceeds to the Bicentennial restoration of the Ward-Meade Home in Topeka. From February to May, Pam Russell Alexander, Joanne Eggeman Harrison, Marsha Martin Sheahan, Beth Fontron Fager, Frances Neate Barnes, Tamara Armstrong Vincent and Pam Carlson Clutter were very busy along with Kappa co-workers planning this grand event.

In March, Ann Learned Fitch's home was a lovely setting for our annual Wine and Blue luncheon for Topeka actives and pledges from Kansas U. and Kansas State University. The discussion at our April meeting at Ann Wehe Gregg's centered around details of the Home Tour and an enthusiastic presentation of many new and old favorite Arrowcraft items we would be selling in Ellen Proudfit Williams' garden.

Happily the afternoon of our Spring Tour was bright and sunny in every way as the Pi Phis and Kappas were able to present a gift of $1200 to the Bicentennial restoration project in addition to our successful Arrowcraft sale!

The Wichita Alumnæ Club enjoyed another busy year, beginning in September with a luncheon to re-acquaint members and to welcome twenty-five new Wichita alums. Highthis meeting was the visit of Martha Keeffe Griffith, our Alumnæ Province President.

In October, at a special luncheon at Wichita Country Club, we learned about developments with Big Sisters, Inc. of Wichita. Since our club had contributed proceeds from our last Garden Fair to this worthy organization we were interested in this progress report and pleased that it is filling

We also enjoyed entertaining this year. At various times we invited special guests to join us. We met with the Pi Beta Phi Mothers' Club one evening for dessert and a charming demonstration of straw flower arrangements. Wichita Pi Beta Phi actives were honored at a large coffee in the beautiful new home of Marilyn Thompson Ritchie and her active daughter Julie. And we held a very successful party for husbands or dates in February.

Our March meeting was the first of many work days in anticipation of our Garden Tour. Members were asked to bring their scissors, and Craft Chairman Jane Woolner Jackson started us tracing and cutting the beginnings of one hundred pots of gingham flowers. We were also to eventually rally for special bake or stir sessions, headed by our Tour Bake Sale Chairmen Carolyn Beard Benefiel and Ronni Ellwein Matson.

The alums always enjoy the Pi Phi trading post which preceded our annual fall rummage sale, a testimony that one's trash is another's treasure! December was really exciting. In addition to the cooky exchange, we undertook a unique Christmas bazaar. Invited guests, ages 3-12 years, Christmas shopped for family and friends. Alums helped wrap. Items were made by alums, onne were over $2.00 and none remained at the end of the day. Next year we hope to expand this, perhaps joining with another alum group. Hopefully we will be able to donate some of the profits to a community project, such as children's cancer research at the University of Kentucky. ing Fair and initiated a husbands' night as a new social angle to enhance membership.

Due to apathy in the past years, we decided to concentrate our major projects and meetings in the fall. This fall we again held our annual Tasting Fair and profited $250. We had a September meeting where we met a lot of new-interested alumnæ. Some have continued to attend, but others have only supported us financially.

To increase interest we initiated a husbands' night this year. It was an hors d'oeuvres. The club furnished set-ups, napkins, plates. Even though only eight couples were able to attend, it was a very enjoyable evening.

We did not meet in either December or January. In February we had a lassagna dinner for the actives at the chapter house. We also presented them at that time with a new vacuum cleaner, television, and the order for a new kitchen

March brought a visit from our province president, Georgia Walker Seagren, and the election of officers. We have been encouraged and greatly helped by Mrs. Seagren these last two years. Her visit and interest was, and is, an inspiration to all of us.

April of 1975 marks the fiftieth anniversary of the Kentucky Alpha chapter here in Louisville. We're having a Founders' Day Luncheon honoring Kentucky Alpha's charter members. Pi Phi in Louisville is on the upswing, and we hope to aim that golden arrow higher in the future.

BATON ROUGE

The Baton Rouge Alumnæ Club is very proud of being a "contributing" organization. We have not only had one of our most successful Arrowcraft Coffee and Sales ever (contributing $2600 gross to Arrowmont), but have been able to buy two sewing machines for our local philanthropy, Baton Rouge Youth, Inc. The latter is financed by the sale of "Round About Town" calendars, which also provides us with enough income to send a scholar to Arrowmont School each summer. Our Arrowmont scholarship recipient '74, Mrs. A. Burl Watts, is generously giving a workshop on off-loom weaving in June for Girl Scout and Campfire leaders in the Baton Rouge area.

weaving in June for Girl Scout and Campfire leaders in the Baton Rouge area.

Our contributions to the local chapter at LSU, Louisiana Beta, have come in the form of serving at rush parties in the Fall; helping to provide food for the parties; supplying "midnight hamburgers" for the actives during an all-night rush session; an ice cream party for the pledges in October; a potluck supper honoring graduating seniors in November; and having the Founders' Day patio supper at the home of one of our patronesses in April.

We honor our Patronesses every February with a guest day luncheon at the Baton Rouge Country Club. This year our program was a slide showing by one of our own alums, a well-known interior decorator, on a course in which she had been invited to participate in England last year.

For ourselves, for fun, a couples' cocktail party in the Fall before a football game, and a guest day tour of the Rural Life Museum with box lunches in May. For our regular business meetings we found that we could reach more alums by having morning and evening meetings. In March, for election of officers, we had a joint meeting.

One of our proudest moments was when our "contributing-est" Pi Phi Alum, Harriet Moltz Cole, was chosen as the Province Evelyn Peters Kyle Angel Award winner. So vastly deserved. We have been grateful all through the year for the help of our willing APP Charlie Cox Cantrell.

MONROE

The Monroe Pi Beta Phi Alumnæ Club has had a very exciting year under the able leadership of Ann Grabill Cooksey. We began our year in September with a most successful Arrowcraft Sale in the home of Jody Biedenharn Johnston. We were all thrilled at the community response to our sale. Along with the sale of baked goods, our treasurer Sue Guthrie Chastain reports we grossed over $1700 at the one day sale. Arrowmont is now a well known name in the Monroe area due to the great publicity of Susan Yarbrough Travis. All the Pi Phis enjoyed working together to aid this great project in Gatlinburg.

Our local Pi Phi actives and pledges were honored with a Sherry Party in the home of Lolley Fillmore Neel during the Christmas vacation. This annual event gives the alumna members a chance to become better acquainted with the actives, pledges and their mothers. Dr. Jim Wade spoke to club members and their guests at our February meeting in the home of Sophia Leach Blanks. Dr. Wade is well known locally for his avid interest in antique furniture. We were all delighted to hear about his collection and to hear his advice on how to buy antiques. The Chauvin Racquet Club was the scene of our Spaghetti Supper for all alums and their husbands. We all enjoyed a lovely evening. Sammy Saulsberry was introduced to us, having just moved to Monroe from Chicago. We loved to have new members and Sammy has taken the office of treasurer for next year. We put her right to work. work.

DeeDee Barksdale Buffington hosted our Founders' Day luncheon in April, assisted by Anne Waites Wilson. We all brought covered dishes and enjoyed the food, fun and fellowship. Two Golden Arrow Pi Phis, Francis Ferguson Madden and Olive Guthrie Munholland, were recognized for their faithful years of giving to Pi Phi. We all enjoyed the activities this year and are looking forward to next year. We are already planning a tennis tournament to benefit one of our local charities.

Our exciting fund raising event of the year was the "Grand Slam Brunch" held in October at the Petroleum Club. Before brunch, Arrownont Crafts, novelty stationery items, and Christmas ornaments were on sale for members and guests. A beautiful array of taste-tempting delicacies, all prepared by industrious Pi Phi alumnæ, were served for brunch, after which bridge was played from noon until 3:00 P.M. Prizes for cards were awarded, and the players enjoyed an informal style show during their games. A portion of the proceeds from this event was donated to a local philanthropic endeavor, the Allendale YWCA Building Drive.

A most enjoyable and regular event of the Shreveport Alumnæ Club is the "Potluck Supper," held in February, which alumnæ and their husbands attend. This year, Charlotte Morgan Hanna and husband, Billy, were our hostess and host, and as usual, it was a fun evening for everyone. In March, Nancy Pfeiffer Cosse's home was the setting for a coffee and business meeting, and in April, our Founders' Day luncheon took place in the home of Edie Broyles Williams. After a delicious lunch, members participated in a Founders' Day program. Then, our new alum club officers for 1975-76 were installed.

GREATER PORTLAND

GREATER PORTLAND

The Greater Portland, Maine, Alumnæ Club under president, Minerva French Anderson, and program chairman, Elizabeth Pendleton Hamm, had many interesting programs for the 1974-75 season. One of the most unusual and worthwhile was a visit from Mrs. Nellie Rootes of Standish who spoke and showed slides of Arrowmont which she had taken while attending craft courses there for the past three summers. Her enthusiasm for Arrowmont and Pi Beta Phi was evident in everything she said. She explained that the Fraternity still encourages the cottage crafts in the homes, but most of the classes at Arrowmont, as her pictures showed, were modern crafts. She said that the Fraternity had done so much for the town and the people in the area, that Pi Beta Phi is held in the highest regard and esteem. This seemed especially gratifying to us, as Mrs. Rootes is not a Pi Phi but a member of another sorority. Thus her complimentary remarks made us very proud to be Pi Phis. In December, we were pleased to have Jean McIntyre White, Alpha Alumnæ Province President, as our guest at dinner at the Art Gallery Restaurant and then for a meeting at the home of one of our members. She gave us a résumé of the various alumnæ groups which she had visited and also news of our nearest active chapter, Maine Alpha. We were inspired by her warmth, friendliness, and dedication.

On a pretty day in November, we drove to a garden center in the country. After browsing in the shop for dried flowers, baskets, bows, and other raw materials, we gathered in the classroom for coffee and a demonstration of techniques for "putting it altogether" into dried fall arrangements. The use of natural greenery was stressed for the wide variety of Christmas wreaths, centerpieces, and garlands assembled during the second half of the program. With ideas fresh in our minds, we selected our materials and started home—hoping to create one special masterpiece of our own. our own.

The spring tour planned by the Baltimore Promotional Council provided even long-time residents a chance to learn something new about our historic city. It began with a slide tour, then a walking tour of Charles Center: a new down town complex of office buildings, plazas, hotels, apartments, and a legitimate theater. Lunch was followed by a bus trip to many landmarks in the city. Three favorites were Federal Hill—a skyline overlook of Baltimore and its inner harbor; The Constellation—the oldest warship in the Navy; and the Walters Art Gallery with its expansive new addition. Favorite meetings of past years were, of course, rescheduled and we again enjoyed a Holiday Auction at the home of our president. Prince George's County Alumnæ Club was delighted to welcome Emily Robinson Kunde with a potluck luncheon at Betty McCullough Spillman's Kettering home. Membership calling lists were given out and brought new faces into club involvement during the year. The annual fall picnic at the home of Ellyn Viehoever Chesley and Mabel Johnson Viehoever on the Potomac in Oxon Hill saw farewells made to past president Carol Walker Congdon and her daughter Jean as they moved to Pennsylvania.

Jean Donnelly Maclay kept all on their toes with an informative program on Pi Phi philanthropies followed by a fun quiz with prizes when the alumnæ went to the Upper Marlboro home of Ann Pickens Mack for a winter coffee. A spring visit for dinner at the active chapter house at University of Maryland provided a chance for pleasant visiting. Founders' Day was observed with our own members at Betty Spillman's luncheon. We then joined alumnæ from the metropolitan area for a trip to Normandy Farms and an illustrated travelog featuring Admiral Lukash, the President's doctor, as he traveled to China. Fay Motyka Hoffman is to be our president for the coming year.

The evening was highlighted by the pledging ceremony for two girls. As alums, we have not had the opportunity of attending a pledging since college days, so this brought back memories to all. To get a head start in our Spring planting, the March meeting was held at a local nursery.

The club year ended with our Founders' Day Luncheon at the Holiday Inn in Auburndale. This is always a memorable day for actives as well as alums. We were pleased to honor Carolyn Hyde Fitch as a Golden Arrow this year. Awards were also presented to the actives of Massachusetts Alpha for their achievements during the past year. We all feel much safer and better informed after listening to a lecture on Family First Aid by one of Grand Rapids' Emergency Unit representatives. Another informative and fun meeting left us with beautiful plants and hopefully "greener thumbs." To accommodate even more members, we lunched and toured together at "Voight House," a Victorian architectural landmark in Grand Rapids.

We were especially proud last year of helping to send two Grand Rapids girls to summer camp. Hopefully we will continue to become more active in our community.

Of course we like to just enjoy one another's company, so in addition to our fun at meetings, we met with our husbands and beaux for a Christmas party and a summer barbecue, We're looking forward to another great year!

Pi Phis, their husbands, and friends browsed among the paintings before the auction in the flowering backyard on a delightful spring evening. Our alumnæ club boasts of several new and active members, and we look forward to an even better year with and through Pi Phi.

LANSING-EAST LANSING

The Lansing-East Lansing Alumnæ Club opened its year's activities with a Settlement School Tea and Sale in October. The beautiful hand-made items were enjoyed and purchased by members and guests. November and April were the months chosen to meet jointly with the active girls of Michigan Gamma. The annual auction of "alum-made" items and Founders Day comprised the program on these two occasions. A style show, sponsored jointly by Kappa, Theta and Pi Phi alumnæ was a highlight of the year with some of our members acting as models. A May luncheon honored the housemother, Mrs. Margaret Boyles, of Michigan Gamma who is leaving this year. Two rummage sales during the year provided necessary funds.

The club considers its top priority to be the support of the Michigan Gamma chapter. Since members' time is often limited, we are forming a committee to consider restructuring the club's program, concentrating on support of the active chapter and house and cutting back somewhat on our own social activities for the coming year.

This home offers many exciting possibilities for expansion of our present house.

The active chapter were our hosts in December for a "box" supper and most original program. Our actives "became" the Founders in their later years with humorous reminiscences of their founding years.

Abandoning our summer couples' party, we got together on a "blizzardy," Saturday night in January for tennis, swimming, cards and sociability at the party room and indoor courts of Normandale Tennis Club for an evening of "active" fun.

Minneapolis is fortunate in having a completely remodeled Institute of Arts, which we toured as a group in February.

Last year we took on the Minneapolis Girl's Club as our local philanthropy, supporting them by a donation from the profits of our May Market. This March we became personally involved, going for our meeting to their Club to present an Easter party for the younger girls. The girls themselves were delighted to help in the dying of the eggs.

Founders' Day with the St. Paul Alumnæ Club was a most delightful day at Interlochen Country Club arranged by Jan Van Sickle Billiam.

During all of the "playing," workshops were held for making the handicrafts for May Market, enabling us to have even greater financial success in our sale of Arrowcraft, geraniums, handicraft and baked goods than in previous years.

Despite the obstacles of a particularly rugged Minnesota winter, Minneapolis Alumnæ were able to get out to accomplish their goals of support to Arrowmont, the Minneapolis Girl's Club, and the Minnesota Alphas with "Friendship Tried and True." SALLY STRONG PERKINS

St. Louis Junior

History was repeated again this year for the St. Louis Junior Alumnæ Club. "Champagne and Chatter" allowed friendships to be made and renewed at our first meeting, October brought us all together when the Senior and Junior Alumnæ Clubs and the active chapter at Washington University (Missouri Beta) met for our silent auction. Our speaker had studied at Arrowmont and provided both slides and a personal glimpse into the work being done there.

From then until December our efforts were directed towards "Lunch with Santa." This is our means of raising funds for our local charity. Headed by Cheryl Goodman Davis, with contributions from the entire club, it far ex-

Davis, with contributions from the entire club, it far exceeded last year's lunch.

Travel seemed to highlight our programs. One evening we were taken back to 1904 and the World's Fair. We saw slides actually taken on the fair grounds—including preparation for the fair as much as a year before. Australia was fantastic! Mrs. Marlin Perkins, whose husband narrates "Wild Kingdom" gave us a professional but very personal tour. Amidst the travel we also learned about self defense, each other's favorite desserts, and a potpourri of poise. One night we even had an old-time-up-all-night-slumber party!

We ended as we began. Our husbands came to our October and June gatherings. Bridge, as always, continued throughout the year. Helping others, leaving our town, and just being together all contributed to another worthwhile year for St. Louis Juniors.

ST. LOUIS SENIOR

The St. Louis, Missouri Senior Club gathered for our first meeting in September, and were entertained with "Words and Music by Cole and Noel" by Alice Dehn Davie, a Pi Phi, and Mr. Wayne Arnold of the John Burroughs English and Drama Departments. In October we had a joint Junior-Senior "Supper Social" with the Missouri Beta actives and pledges as our guests. "Arrowmont Update" was the program presented by a teacher who attended Arrowmont last summer; this program included a house corporation meeting and a "Silent Auction" which was fun for all! In November our program "Furniture Yesterday and Today" by Mrs. Ginny Dawson of the St. Louis Art Museum, was most informative. formative.

Our March program found us learning to "Preserve Flowers by Sand Drying"—a timely and informative demonstration. In April the juniors, seniors, and Missouri Beta girls met for our Founders' Day Luncheon. In May the program was "Potpourri of Poise, Make-up, Hair Styling, and Wardrobing" by Dee Dee Swofford and Pat Morris, past-president of our club and currently Director of the John Robert Powers Agency. This meeting was a joint junior-senior luncheon with installation of officers. At this meeting we presented our profits from the Sign of the Arrow to Helen Deppe Vollmar, Chairman, Board of Governors, Arrowmont; The Reverend Ed Stevens, Director of Care and Counseling, Inc.; and Wanda Diedriech (Mrs. Clarence) Director of The Helping Hand Day Care Center. Profits from the Sign of the Arrow this year were $20,000. This was due to the able guidance of Emma Lou Keller, president of Sign of the Arrow; a dynamic Board of Directors; and our "super" volunteers. Thus ended a year of hard work, fun, and friendship. GREAT FALLS

The Great Falls Alumnæ Club had a very successful year. We were honored to have Florence McCarthy chosen as the Rho Province nominee for the Evelyn Peters Kyle Angel Award. Dorothy Williams Lombard, Rho Province President, visited with us in October. Later that month we had a profitable Arrowmont sale and tea. We had both afternoon and evening sessions so those who work could participate. During November we joined with other clubs in a city-wide Bazaar. For Christmas we had a lovely luncheon and then a couples' party in February. The highlight of our year was a Founders' Day tea when we honored new fifty year Golden Arrow Pi Phis. The new officers were also installed at this time and we are looking forward to another active year ahead.

NEBRASKA

Омана

Although Mother Nature dealt harshly with Omaha in recent months, sending a blizzard in January and a tornado in May, the Omaha Alumnæ Club completed another good year under the leadership of our president, Peggy Mathers Berguin.

Beginning with the September meeting at Jan Shrader Mossman's lovely new home where we greeted old and new friends, and ending with our May meeting at Beth Nooven Morsman's, when five Golden Arrow members were especially honored, the alumnæ were busy with many projects. In October, we traveled to Bellevue, Nebraska for dinner with Barbara Guinn Adams and at our November meeting a Chinese auction of "white elephants" was held at Carolyn Steger Hansen's Hansen's.

In December, we gathered for a festive luncheon at the home of Joyce Johnson Mammel. Jan Shrader Mossman's mother, Mrs. George Shrader, presented a lovely program of Christmas songs and poems. Also in December, Marcia Lewis Jones was hostess at a morning coffee honoring Pi Phi actives, pledges and their mothers from the Omaha area.

A delicious potluck dinner and cooky-shine featured the February meeting at the home of Gayle Lyman Stock followed by a March luncheon at the home of Janet Kauffman Faist and election of officers. In April, Pam Nordin Jepsen was dinner hostess when our Province President, Helen Carey Lovejoy, was honored guest. We greatly enjoyed her visit

Once again the highlight of the year for Nevada Alpha Alums was the pre-Christmas boutique. Many hundreds of hours went into creating handcrafted gift items, baked goods, plants, and Christmas decorations. Through these efforts over two thousand dollars was raised, most of which went towards providing items for retarded children at Eagle Valley Children's Home.

We were happy to close out a successful year at our Founders' Day celebration with the awarding of a new scholarship given in the name of retiring Province President Leslie Whittemore and the announcement that Chetty Milbery Sala was chosen Upsilon Province winner of the Evelyn Peters Kyle Award.

We look forward now to another year of fun, service and fellowship in Pi Beta Phi.

JERSEY SHORE

The two-county area served by the Jersey Shore Alumnæ The two-county area served by the Jersey Shore Alumnae Club is a large one, and many of the Pi Phis who live in the area are more than an hour's drive from a meeting or social event. This makes it very difficult to have a large active membership or a full social calendar. As a result, we have a small active group and concentrate most of our efforts on one or two major events each year. We began this year in September with a delightful "Sangria and Cheese party at the charming riverside home of our president, Gini Rose Hagee. We discussed and planned the Arrowmont Sale which was held October 23 at Peg Wetmore Harlan's house in Rumson. Many of us secretly believe that Peg's wonderful house was designed with the Arrowmont Sale in mind—it even has loads of off-street parking!—and we all owe her a real debt of gratitude for playing such a big part in making it the highly successful event it is. The Sale in mind—it even has loads of oil-street parking:—and we all owe her a real debt of gratitude for playing such a big part in making it the highly successful event it is. The Arrowmont Sale is our largest single activity, and we were elated to discover that the final tally exceeded all our expectations. This small but dedicated group had managed to nearly double last year's impressive sales total!

There is a fine Panhellenic group here, and some of our members have contributed in various ways to that organization. They have a number of special projects during the year, and Barbarasue Lovejoy Straughn attends their meetings as our representative and keeps us well informed.

Our Founders' Day luncheon was held on April 26 at the Olde Union House in Red Bank. After an enjoyable meal, we held our annual election of officers. Alice Evans Schlenger had just returned from a trip to Gatlinburg, and she gave a most interesting talk complete with pictures which we all enjoyed very much.

It's been a good year, and we are hoping to have an even more rewarding one when we resume in September.

In October we held our annual Arrowcraft Sale at Ann Dungan Newell's home. In addition to the Arrowcraft products, we had a bake sale which added to the day's profits. One of our own members, Carol Hagaman Miller, gave us a tour of the pottery workshop in her home in November. Emily Kunde, our alumnæ province president, visited us at this meeting.

Everyone enjoyed our annual Christmas champagne buffet at Joan MacBain Stettler's home in December. We invited our husbands to this festive occasion.

Due to a snowstorm our January meeting was cancelled but several members gathered for lunch at Sally Hickok Bockus' home anyway.

In February we met at the home of our president, Vonnie Jividen Eisnaugle, and enjoyed a program on decorating with indoor greenery from a shop called The Wilderness.

We entertained our husbands at a theatre party in March at the Papermill Playhouse where we saw 'Light Up the Sky.' Before the play we met at the home of Diane Jones Carlson for a potluck supper.

Founders' Day was celebrated at Anne Chestnut Bartlett's with a luncheon and cooky-shine. We enjoyed singing Pi Phi songs with one of our members accompanying on the orean.

Our last meeting of the year was a picnic at Joan Mac-Bain Stettler's. We enjoyed a fashion show of tennis outfits and a few lucky members won door prizes.

Also, Youth Life, a drug rehabilitation center benefited by many of the additions and improvements to their home where the show was held. The remaining $4,000 of the proceeds will be used by the house corporation for house improvements for the New Mexico Alpha chapter. chapter.

The chairman of pledges of the advisory board initiated an excellent S.O.S. (slightly older sister) program providing alums an opportunity to sponsor the 23 new pledges on the UNM campus, It was a delightful experience to get to know the pledges and brought back college day memories to those lucky sponsors.

The annual bridge marathon sponsored by Connie McClain

Our alum club is very proud of three outstanding officers in Pi Beta Phi outside our local group. They are: Carrie Mae Blount, National Parliamentarian; Barbara Hyde Kerl. Sigma Province President (active chapters); and Jean Anderson Viney, Sigma Province President of Alumnæ. We are also very proud of Ann Nelson who has been elected as President of the Albuquerque Junior League.

Founders' Day ended our year with awards going to two special alums for giving service to our club over the years.

This coming year will be the 30th anniversary of New Mexico Alpha and everyone is eager to help the actives make it a great year.

WESTCHESTER

The Westchester Alumnæ Club had another busy and profitable year under Rosemary Welden Whiteley. We were sorry to say goodbye to our president at the end of the year when the Whiteleys moved from Westchester, but we're sure she'll be stirring up her new alumnæ club before long! Our first meeting of the year was an outdoor luncheon at the home of Eloise Bilyeu Dibble, where we ate beneath the trees at the foot of the Dibbles' spectacular rock garden which has been featured in House Beautiful magazine. The afternoon's project was a workshop during which we began to put the final touches on our popular felt "Christmas Creatures." These darling Christmas tree ornaments are designed by Virginia Geister Hardgrove, and they range from playful unicorns to rotund brown bears; as our "cottage industry," they are best sellers at our annual fund raising Kaffee Klatsch. We also sell Arrowcraft items at our November Kaffee Klatsch. This year we had an additional attraction, a new "Dibblelog" created by Earl and Eloise Dibble. Their "Dibblelogs" are well known in our area as "Travelogs with a Difference" and are unique entertainment. We enjoyed Earl's excellent photography accompanied by Eloise's sparkling commentary.

We also participated in a Panhellenic bridge which raised money for a new scholarship for a Westchester sorority woman entering her senior year. Our June luncheon was a salad recipe exchange with the Westchester Delta Gammas. We were also happy to meet two new young Pi Phi actives at this meeting.

At our neighborhood meetings in February, we learned more about our Pi Phi sisters' myriad and far-ranging talents as we featured a show and tell of hobbies. In March we had an "historical" luncheon at Jaclin Brackett Farrell's home in Bedford. After cheese fondue made from an authentic old recipe, our hostess gave a talk about the history of home and a tour of the house, which is on the village square in Bedford, one of the earliest settled areas of West-chester.

Our annual "Beaux and Arrows" Christmas party was held at Dorothy Verges Griffin's home in Scarsdale. Pi Phis and their husbands enjoyed a super dinner and evening in the festive atmosphere of the Griffins' home, which was decrated with evergreens and warmed by a blazing fire. We are proud of Dorothy Griffin's newly-published book on indoor gardening and enjoyed the chance to see her own greenouse jammed with flourishing plants. Speaking of parties, our Founders' Day Luncheon was as delightful a tradition as always; it was held for the first time at the Ardsley

Country Club, where we enjoyed seafood crepes in the in-timate atmosphere of the dining room high above the Hud-son River. Our speaker was Josephine Baker Gray, who told us some of her experiences during her long and illustrious career as a volunteer in Westchester. ELIZABETH LITTLE BOLLENBACHER

Chapel Hill Alumnæ Club members celebrated Founders' Day on April 16 with dinner at the North Carolina Alpha chapter house. AAC Chairman Sue Colwell Link presented the Province ABO Award to Priscilla Burt. Then the Chapter Service Award winner Nancy Hoft presented a gift from the chapter to her mother, outgoing AAC Board member Jeanne Basnight Hoft, expressing appreciation for Jeanne's years of service to the chapter.

Other activities for the year included a potluck supper for the chapter in honor of the 38 new pledges, a cooky-shine where we shared traditions from chapters around the country, and a program on Arrowmont by Mrs. Fran Phillips. Fran, a local Chapel Hillian, gave an informal talk about her experiences at Arrowmont last summer. Most of us "not so new" Pi Phis were more than a little surprised at how sorority life has changed. February found us "Living It Up" at our Couples' Party, and March brought "Living Drama" in the form of a play "I Never Sang for My Father" which we enjoyed with the Charlotte Tri Delt alums. Our Founders' Day luncheon came in April with a lovely candle lighting ceremony for "Living Pi Phis, Past and Present." Also in April was the Panhellenic Spring Luncheon and Fashion Show at which one of our own members was installed as president of Charlotte Panhellenic for next year. June brought "The Living End," a delicious salad luncheon which we always look forward to—and a fond farewell to each other "til fall brings us all back together again in the bonds of wine and blue.

In addition to regular meetings, some of us have enjoyed getting together for bridge. Our last social of this season is a couples' cookout at Diane Ahnfeldt Hughes. In September Athens Alumnæ Club gathered at the Ohio Alpha chapter house prior to the return of students. President Carol Carroll Voelz introduced the Alumni Affairs Director of Ohio University with whom her husband, Doug, is associated. We were shown a film of university life and discussed the question of how Greek organizations, including alumni, and the university could promote mutual goals.

October brought a first attempt by alums and active chapter at selling Arrowcraft at the Athens Municipal Fall Festival which features crafts and antiques. Slides of Arrowmont were shown at the sales booth. At a meeting we entertained chapter officers of Ohio Alpha who performed the initiation ritual for us. As usual, we helped some with providing food during October rush. The following month we again entertained guests, this time the pledges and new initiates of Ohio Alpha, at a Pow Wow, where each alum introduced two guests and shared newly learned facts about each one, Popcorn, nutbread with cream cheese, doughnuts, troduced two guests and shared newly learned tacts about each one. Popcorn, nutbread with cream cheese, doughnuts, cider and spiced tea were served. This was the third year we had enjoyed a Pow Wow at the home of Dee Schneider Lawrence, a home set on a hill and in the woods. Acting president Marge Wheaton Walker announced that this year, for the first spring of many, we had voted by mailed ballot to discontinue our annual Easter basket sale due to rising costs of materials. We will be looking for a new project for next year.

At our March meeting a delightful program was presented by Vivian. Thomas Cady and Mary Stalder on the Canadian philanthropies. Plans were initiated under the chairmanship of Edith Humphrey Reed and Jane Maccombs Smith for a May reception at the chapter house in honor of the two Pi Phi daughters of the former George Starr Lasher, who was known as Mr. Theta Chi. Ohio University has named their new Communications Building in honor of this former head of the School of Journalism. On this occasion we welcomed over 100 alumni and others outstanding in journalism, radio over 100 alumni and others outstanding in journalism, radio and TV, as well as alums who have worked over the years with our Greek organizations and family friends of Dorothy Lasher Rodgers and Mary Elizabeth Lasher Myers. The Founders' Day banquet was in April with Edith Humphrey Reed talking of the "good old days" as an Ohio Alpha pledge and Vernah Stewart Gardner, Grand Recording Secretary, covering all that National Pi Beta Phi means for each individual Pi Phi. In late May we had the luncheon at Athens Country Club for graduating seniors.

CANTON

"Small and mighty" is a good label for our Canton Pi Beta Phi Alumnæ Club. We are small in number with fifteen members, but mighty in Pi Phi love, fun and fellowship. Under the able leadership of Sarah Dunn Fisher we have experienced an active, interesting, surprise filled year.

One of our nicest surprises was a visit from our lovely and gracious Province President, Jane Houchens Tuten. Another, was hearing Andries Botha, a foreign exchange student from South Africa, who resided with one of our club members, Barbara Surbeck Borton. And we surprised ourselves at the home of Stephanie Stang Comienski by making enough money at a silent auction of white elephants and hand-made items to help club member Margaret Forrest attend Pi Phi National Convention.

Convention.

Some of our other gatherings included a covered dish dinner at the home of Suzanne Boxwell Potter during which we examined and ordered lovely Arrowcraft items. We celebrated Founders' Day with good food and entertainment planned by the Akron Pi Phi Alumnæ Club. And always a highlight of the year is our traditional cooky-shine. To the home of Louise Dykes, each club member brought finger foods which were served on a lovely silver blue tablecloth embroidered in wine colored thread with signatures of past and present Canton Alumnæ Club members. CINCINNATI

The Cincinnati Alumnæ Club had a most exciting 1974-75 year. September started our year off with a bang—our first "Fall Fest." Our gracious hosts were Carolyn (Huwe) and Peter Ludwig, Husbands and dates were invited to join Pi Phis for a fall party under the stars and under a huge parachute! We were able to renew acquaintances and get into the swing of things for the coming year. At our October meeting, held at the home of Mary Stoner Tomb, Irma Lazarus, a patron of the arts in Cincinnati was our guest speaker. She was indeed an inspiration to all. The holiday season was highlighted by a Christmas luncheon and gift exchange at the Terrace Park Country Club. Things really began to happen in January for Cincinnati alums. Our hostess for the meeting was Jane Houchens Tuten, Eta Province President. We began final preparations for our third annual Ladies' Domino Tournament. At our traditional potluck dinner meeting in February, held at the home of Gloria Larson Wagner, the girls were able to brush up on the rules of dominoes and to be in top shape for the big day. The Domino Tournament was held on a Wednesday this year, March 12, at Corbett Towers, Music Hall in Cincinnati. The gala event, under the most able co-chairmanship of Helen Vankeuren Koenig and Rachel Jinks Foster, was a big success and lots of fun for everyone involved. The tournament was a lot of hard work and well-done this year by all. The club made a profit of $450; Arrowmont received $300, the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra Remembrance Fund was given $100, and $50 went to local philanthropies.

The April meeting, hosted by Anna Gerhart Kier, boasted a delightful visit with Cincinnati City Councilwoman, Helen Hinkley. The wrap-up meeting in May was held at the home of Myrna Hess Kovacs, After the business meeting and visit from Eta Province President, our own Jane Houchens Tuten, we installed our new incoming treasurer, Sandy Ratcliff Caswell, and had a delightful cooky-shine with Arrow cookies and song!

CLEVELAND EAST

The Cleveland East Alumnæ Club has been experimenting quite successfully with a number of different meeting times and formats in order to appeal to a diverse alum group. Particularly with roles of women and their time committement changing, flexability appears to be one way of appealing to the career woman, housewife, mother, volunteer, etc.

Our traditional dinner meeting followed by a program at 6:30 P.M. occurred only four times this year. One of those included husbands and was a catered buffet, while the three others were prepared by Pi Phi gourmets. Since many people prefer evening meetings, but find it difficult to feed families at home and then rush to a dinner meeting, we also had two fun dessert meetings beginning at 7:30 P.M.

For those members who prefer daytime events, we had a luncheon and two brunch meetings. The luncheon is generally one in which the group munches on a salad and sandwich, and then moves on to some cultural institution for the program. This year we visited the Dali Museum which is open to visitors by appointment, and to which we found very few members had been exposed. Our fall brunch meeting at 9:45 A.M. was amazingly successful. This was the earliest meeting we have ever had, and we were amazed at the turnout. People who are unable to attend luncheon meetings because their children come home at noon found they could participate in a brunch and also beat the school bus home. Our other brunch was held on a Saturday with the Cleveland West Alummae Club to celebrate Founders' Day, and we all thoroughly enjoyed being with our sisters across the river.

As in most things, Cleveland East is finding that diversity in program is producing participation by a greater cross section of Pi Phi's and we consider that successful.

CLEVELAND-WEST

Even though Cleveland West Alumnæ Club took time to say a fond farewell to our president, Sarah Jane Inglis, who has moved to New Jersey and a warm hello to our new president, Marga Bales, we didn't seem to lose pace with a fast, fun and profitable year. In September, we feasted ourselves to a delicious potluck supper. After our meal, one well-traveled member showed her most interesting slides of the Antarctic. After leaving the Antarctic, we began to warm up with an October Arrowcraft sale. This first sale was held in my home and it was a very profitable and enjoyable day. Our second sale was held at a country club in December. The Eta Province Scholarship Fund of $925 has been awarded to 14 girls, and the amount of each gift varied from $25 to $160 according to each girl's individual need. Our chapter was also pleased to be able to buy a walker that was much needed for the retarded children at the Children Forever School.

Our chapter was also pleased to be able to buy a walker that was much needed for the retarded children at the Children Forever School.

We have enjoyed good programs for 1974-75 and we were pleasantly surprised with one program called "A Pi Phi Surprise." During this evening, all alumnæ were repledged in an authentic pledging ceremony just like way back when. . . . Before Christmas, we always look forward to our "Do Your Own Thing Auction" where we all bring a guest and auction off our home-made arts, crafts and baked goods. Our Founders' Day program was also a uniting of the east and west, Cleveland East Alumnæ Club joined us for a day of good food and fellowship. To keep in focus with the Bicentennial year, our May program was on "Early American Tin Ware." Don't let the title throw you. We learned how creative and inventive our forefathers were as well as how to use our grandmothers' and great grandmothers' gadgets.

Hard working Barbara Sands Olson has been appointed Director of Membership for Pi Phi. Barbara has been extremely active with Pi Phi affairs for years and we are proud that she is a part of Cleveland West. With all work must come some pleasure and we try never to neglect this area. Our December Open House is a festive and traditional occasion, and we follow it with a February Progressive Dinner again with couples. We will end our year with a potluck supper with actives and we call this a perfect ending.

COLUMBUS

The 1974-1975 year was very enjoyable and profitable under the capable leadership of Becky Miller Dockter and her active board. September was highlighted with a most successful Arrowcraft Sale, organized by Ruth Gladden Brown and Martha Moore Kohr. The sale was held on two successive days in two parts of Columbus so that all of our members and friends could visit the sale. A "Dessert Crepes Demonstration," a "Christmas Cookie-Craft Exchange," a "Plant Party," and a local television personality were a few of our programs this year. We also enjoyed and will continue a Collegiate-Alumnæ Rap Session with the Ohio Beta Chapter at Ohio State University. It was with great pleasure that we had an evening with our Province Officer, Jane Houchens Tuten, who gave us many ideas and challenges. Our continued loyalty and interest in Pi Beta Phi was evident by the well attended annual Founders' Day Brunch in April and our I.C. Incorporated Annual dinner meeting in June.

DAYTON

This has been an interesting year for the Dayton Alumnæ Club. We feel that it has been successful in a variety of areas, and that our group activities have helped us meet our individual needs for fun, friendship, service and personal growth.

For pure fun we took our husbands to the last Cincinnati Reds game of the season and had dinner in Cincinnati afterward. To get to know each other better, and to raise funds, our couples Bridge Marathon met as a total group (8 tables) the first and last meetings of the year. These sessions included potluck dinner. Other fun activities were a November "Wine and Shine," our annual Christmas luncheon at the historic Golden Lamb restaurant in Lebanon, Ohio, and a Christmas couples' cocktail party.

Besides the Bridge Marathon our fund raising activities were a Christmas Holly Sale, and a Spring Card Party complete with dessert, style show, door prizes and a raffle. Most of the money was given to Arrowmont.

plete with dessert, style show, door prizes and a raffle. Most of the money was given to Arrowmont.

The rest of our activities were aimed at furthering our knowledge of Pi Phi, of our community, and toward satisfying some individual interests. We began our year with a program by one of our local alums, Nancy Blaicher Pollock, who is National Director of Undergraduate Activities. She gave us an idea of what Pi Phi is like on the college campus in 1974-75. Harry Ebling, husband of a local member and President of the Dayton Mental Health Association, presented a program on the goals and progress of local mental health programs. At another meeting, we learned of the secrets of the interior decorator. The highlight of our cultural year was a visit to one of the morning coffee concerts and style shows presented by the Dayton Philharmonic, Third National Bank and Rike's

Department Store.

As our 1974-75 activities drew to a close, we were all inspired by our Founders' Day luncheon. For the first time in many years our guests included actives from the Miami University chapter. All of us felt a renewed sense of the bonds that draw us together.

SPRINGFIELD

Alumnæ of the Springfield, Ohio area enjoyed an interesting and exciting year. In the fall, meetings were held at the homes of Marjorie West Malina and Rosemary Chappell Winters with programs centered on our philanthropies. In February, we enjoyed a delightful evening with members from London, Mt. Sterling, South Charleston, and Urbana at the Red Brick Tavern in Lafayette.

The highlight of our year was a special Founders' Day dinner celebrating the 25th anniversary of the chartering of our club along with the 108th birthday of Pi Beta Phi. This event was held at the home of Mildred DuBois Remsberg and was attended by 28 area alumnæ, including nine charter members of our group. The program featured a candlelight ceremony honoring the twelve Founders of our Fraternity, a resume of activities of the Springfield club during the past twenty-five years, and concluded with a songfest. It was indeed an inspirational evening and now we are looking forward to our Golden Jubilee! to our Golden Jubilee!

BARTLESVILLE

In August the Bartlesville Club embarked upon its new schedule of activities under the leadership of Carol Rogers Hewitt, Oklahoma Alpha. Carol is one of a group of young married girls who are so active in our club this year.

In October we entertained our Omicron Province President, Jane Roth Faust, who talked to us on the dialogue between actives and alumnae, which is so important to the growth of a fraternity. This meeting was a salad luncheon at the new home of Mary Beth Tighe Bonnell (our past president from Kansas Beta chapter). It was our largest and most important meeting of the year. Most all club members were present with each member bringing her favorite salad for the luncheon. Mrs. Faust is a favorite with our club because she is friendly and gracious.

In past years we have been quite successful in our Settlement School sales which we have had every two years, but

In past years we have been quite successful in our Settlement School sales which we have had every two years, but this year we feel that we are over exposed in this small community and will adopt another money making project. It is the sale of the small book, "What Can I Do Now, Mommie," selling for $3.25. It is a book of creative activities for very small children. The proceeds of this book will go to the Nursery School Association for Crippled Children of Missouri. Our club will receive one gollat local content we sell. It is going over big.

During the Christmas holidays we entertained our actives from five chapters with a Mother-Daughter Tea in the home of Ruth Stewart Dennis, Kansas Alpha.

Our Founders' Day, April 21, will be a supper meeting in the home of Louise Dodson Houchin with four co-hostesses. This, also, will be a large meeting with all members present.

OKLAHOMA CITY

The Oklahoma City Alumnæ Club had a very productive and interesting year under the leadership of Mary Conner Allen for the senior group and Marsha Finley Shawn for the junior group. The year opened in September with a registration coffee for the seniors and a pizza dinner for the juniors. A dessert meeting was held for the senior group in October with the speaker being the Oklahoma University Vice President for University Relations. The junior group had a fashion show.

In November, for the first time, the junior and senior group In November, for the first time, the junior and senior group worked together to initiate an Antique Show and Sale that was very successful. Arrowcraft goods were also sold. In January the senior group had a Loyalty Day Luncheon with the mothers of actives as the honored guests. The junior group had a Philanthropic Project program. In February the senior and junior group met for a Gourmet Luncheon at one of our clubs. We were to "Bring a Greek, bring a Pi Phi, and/or bring Yourself."

In March the election of officers was held for the seniors.

In March the election of officers was held for the seniors with a program on "Refinishing Wood." The junior group had a potluck supper and election of officers. April was our Founders' Day Luncheon honoring the Golden Arrow Pi Phis for the senior group and the junior group had a Pi Phi Arts Festival. The junior and senior Dessert and the installation of officers was held in May as the final meeting of the year. A program was given on the Art of Growing Bonsai Trees.

TULSA

As always for the Tulsa alumnæ of Pi Beta Phi, the high-light of our year is our annual "Carousel," falling this past season on Wednesday, September 25. "Carousel" has long been synonymous in Tulsa with Pi Phi; and to the women of this community it has come to mean a special bazaar with handmada items galors pass and inconsiste idea the with handmade items galore, new and innovative ideas that any woman could adapt in her own home and, of course, any woman could adapt in her own home and, of course, our Arrowmont items, which always are big sellers. This year "Carousel" was held in the home of Shirley Satterfield Jance, which had special meaning for everyone attending because Shirley's was the first Designers' Showcase home in Tulsa—and this meant an additional drawing card for everyone. Not only were women interested in all Pi Phi had to sell that day, but they were especially anxious to see the changes that Shirley had made in the home in the three years since it had been completely remodeled, redecorated and open since it had been completely remodeled, redecorated and open to the general public. The theme of this year's "Carousel" was 'County Fair,' and under the expert guidance of Elaine to the general public. The theme of this year's "Carousel" was 'County Fair,' and under the expert guidance of Elaine Lykins Shepherd and Nancy Duncan Rice, Pi Phi featured old-fashioned spice cabinets with punched tin doors, lovely handmade dolls, antiqued ceramic pumpkins, handpainted ladderback chairs and lavish ribbon and needlepoint pillows. A special feature was our 'country garden,' with bulbs and plants, as well as macrame hangers, all of which had been started or made by our membership. For the past two years "Carousel" has taken on extra meaning because the major recipient of our efforts is our own Marcia Mobley Mitchell and her Little Lighthouse, a beautifully equipped facility for the blind and partially-sighted children, who previously had nowhere to turn for help in our community.

Another highlight of the year for the Tulsa alumnae is our annual "Beaux and Arrows" Christmas party, when our husbands are the special guests for the evening. This past holiday season we hosted our "beaux" in the home of Betty Griffin McDaniel, who moved into a new home the very next day without our even suspecting it!

In February we now look forward each year to cooky-shine which Mary Lou Armstrong Black revived a few years ago. We all enjoy the Pi Phi tradition of white sheets spread all over the floor and songs we each remember from college days. Sally Barbre McCoy hosted us in her upstairs gameroom, and a special surprise of the evening was a "candle-light" for one of our unsuspecting members.

April is always a busy month for Tulsa because, not only do we have our Founders' Day luncheon, but we also host the high school daughters of our alumnæ—and this year we had a Banana Split party, complete with all the trimmings! We honored three Golden Arrow Pi Phis at Founders' Day.

EUGENE

The Eugene Alumnæ Club had a very enjoyable and successful year. Under the leadership of Bunny Hand Kovack, we held six meetings: A dessert in October at the home of Barbara Baker Rodway, chapter birthday at the Pi Phi house in November, our annual Christmas dinner and auction at the home of Gloria Cloud Skade, a February luncheon at the home of Nancy Carlisle Thomas, a pizza dinner with the active chapter in April at the home of Jane Carlisle Moshofsky, and a dinner with the seniors at the home of Ilene Randolph Hershner in May.

and a dinner with the seniors at the home of Hene Kandolph Hershner in May.

We had three of our alums as guest speakers at selected meetings. Mary Christoferson spoke on the Sculpture Symposium which was held in Eugene during the summer of 1974 and featured internationally famed sculptors. In February, Gloria Cloud Skade spoke on antique tin containers and brought some samples from her large collection. Deborah Lewis Larson related some of her experiences in teaching English to the foreign born.

SALEM

To tell people who we are and what we are doing is the goal of the Salem Nancy Black Wallace Alumnæ Club. Our group provides a local art instructor a scholarship of room, board, tuition and materials for a 2 week summer workshop at the Arrowmont School of Arts and Crafts in Gatlinburg. By doing so, we have been able to publicize the national philanthropy of Pi Phi and at the same time reap the rewards of the innovative and creative work of the school being brought back to our community to be taught to our children. Ken Collins, a young art instructor at McNary High School was last year's recipient of the scholarship. He has had showings around the country and in Salem of the work he did at Arrowmont and in the last year has been guest speaker at local civic groups narrating a slide presentation on the Arrowmont School showing its setting, its offering of arts and crafts and expressing an enthusiasm for its excellence that exceeds all bounds.

A successful Arrowcraft Sale at the Willamette chapter house in November was the kickoff of our fund raising projects and this sale is continued throughout the year by our able Settlement School chairman, Milo Coonradt Pearmine who attends all club functions with a basketload of samples and an order book in hand. A Benefit Bridge Luncheon in March with the alums providing a gorgeous array of salads was held in the lovely setting of spring at the chapter house headed

And we have good parties. A Christmas wine tasting party at the country ranch home of Kennette Kirk Robertson with husbands was a merry time. The Delta Gammas joined us at Illahe Hills Country Club for a luncheon to listen to a talk on antiques and collectables in January.

Our Founders' Day was a great success being held in Portland with the Lake Oswego and Portland Alumnæ groups at the Sheraton Hotel with more than 100 in attendance. Very special guest was Elizabeth Turner Orr, our Grand President. We were proud to announce two Golden Arrows from our group who are Margaret Breitenstein Miller and Bernice Wyman Bone.

Our December meeting was enormously successful, as usual. We had a delightful party to which everyone brought a wrapped, hand-made decoration. Opening and exchanging gifts brought out the child hiding in each of us, and after eating the delicious goodies provided by our hostess, everyone left with a lovely new Christmas decoration for her home. Our other meetings included two day time luncheons, a covered dish dinner, and a silent auction called "Make it, Bake it, Grow it, Sew it." It was a fun filled year in suburban Philadelphia.

Our year began with a visit from Emily Robinson Kunde, our Alumnæ Province President. Then on to our ever popular Arrowmont Sale, chaired by Madeline Yost Royer. Our luncheon, chaired by Tony DeCaro and Jill Shiner Hayward, featured a delicious sandwich loaf with chips and goodies. The financial rewards were great which enabled us to send a large check to Melmark Home for Retarded Children.

We had our annual Christmas party at the lovely Pennsylvania farmhouse of Barbara Higham Winner. Then in January we met with husbands to Ring Ching in the New Year.

The Founders' Day celebration was held at the Covered Wagon in Wayne, Pennsylvania. Virginia Gerding Hagaman organized a lovely party with our group hosting the Wilmington Delaware and Delco Pi Phi Groups. There were several highlights of the day, Barbara Winner lighted the Founders' candles and gave a brief sketch of each Founder utilizing lovely handmade dolls she had made representing each Founder in a charming costume of her day.

COLUMBIA

The Columbia Alumnæ Club has been led through a very full year by Margaret Weinland Brooker. We started with a "Kick Off" potluck supper with the University of South Carolina actives and pledges on September 18. A preview of Arrowcraft was shown in preparation for our Arrowcraft and Bake Sale. Helen Stacey Carr was responsible for the huge success of this sale.

In November, our Province President, Mary Ann Watson Emens, opened her home at Lake Murray for a couples' party. There was a cookout, water activities and lots of fun for those who attended.

LITTLE PIGEON

The Little Pigeon Alumnæ Club started the year on a happy note with the news that once again we had received an award for a good year book. Also in the good news department, we ranked first in the highest commissions per capita category in magazine sales.

We have supported the three Pi Beta Phi philanthropies and made additional memorial contributions to Arrowmont; also we have sent in quite a number of Betty Crocker coupons. Locally, we contribute to the Sevier County Christmas Fund, the Sevier County chapter of the AFS, and give an award of $50 to the Tennessee Gamma sophomore who has made the greatest improvement in grades.

Membership in the club showed an increase this year. Unfortunately, however, two members have moved away, and another had to enter the Sevier County Nursing Home. Since we are located in Gatlinburg, the site of the Arrowcraft Shop, we do not sell Arrowcraft products. Our one money making project of the year is our Bridge Marathon which is composed of two age groups, with the majority being non-Pi Phis. Our annual party for the participants was held in May in the Library of Arrowmont School of Crafts. Highlights of our meetings during the year were the visit of our Alumnæ Province President, Georgia Walker Seagren in November, and the entertaining of guests at our December meeting. We also were privileged to have a program done by a young woman from Gatlinburg who attended Arrowmont the previous summer, and a talk by the AFS student from Greece who attended Sevier County High School while living with a family in Sevierville.

One big project of the year was arranging for the publishing of Marjorie Ohls Chalmers' book, Better I Siay. This book was written many years ago and it tells of Marjorie's experiences as the nurse at the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School. We are happy to have been able to have this book published and make it available to all Pi Phis through the Arrowcraft Shop.

We are happy to have been able to have this book published and make it available to all Pi Phis through the Arrowcraft Shop.

In November we were saddened to learn of the death of Marion Mueller Prince, former Director of the Pi Beta Phi Settlement School. The Little Pigeon Club set up a Marion Prince Memorial Fund within the Arrowmont Memorial Fund, and the money will be used in a suitable way at the school to pay tribute to the contributions made through years of service to Pi Phi by a dedicated member of the fraternity.

Our Founders' Day was celebrated with a luncheon at Staff House, followed by a program in the auditorium at Arrowmont. We were privileged to view the new slide program which will be available to clubs and chapters in the coming year. There were fifty-eight alums and actives from Knoxville who joined with our club members that day, making a total of seventy Pi Phis present for this occasion.

A perfect ending to a good year came with the announcement that Little Pigeon received honorable mention as an Ideal Club. It was most gratifying to know that even a very small club such as ours, has the opportunity to receive national recognition. Our members are most appreciative of this honor.

MEMPHIS

The activities of the Memphis Alumnæ Club of Pi Beta Phi may well be described by the slogan "More in 74."—More members; more and better fellowship and fun; more work; more money (even during this period of economic uncertainty). Our annual Playday was held in August at the home of Mary McNaughton Welch with a renewal of Pi Phi friendships after the long, lazy days of summer. The heat of the day only served to inspire alums to work ever so hard on rush information cards going to chapters in all parts of the country. The fervor of our work was relieved with the pleasure of a social afternoon of swimming and relaxation. relaxation.

Nashville

The Nashville Alumnæ Club experienced a rewarding and productive year under the excellent leadership of our president, Ann Glenn Hayes. We began our year with the annual rush meeting in the fall, followed by an "end of summer" gettogether at Mary Powell's lake home. Husbands were invited for a sunny day full of friendship, water sports, and a potluck dinner. In October we held our membership coffee. After new alumnæ were introduced and welcomed, activities for the coming year were presented and a delicious lunch was served in the garden room.

"Christmas Village" was the center of attraction in our November meeting. The chairmen of this year's Christmas Village, encouraged us to give our time, energy, ideas and enthusiasm for making Christmas Village the best ever. Its success allowed us to increase this year's contribution for Arrowmont to $1,300.00. These funds were used for the purchase of permanent jewelry kits that girls from year to year will be able to use.

TEXAS

AMARILLO

The Amarillo alums have been busy again this year with many wine and blue activities for both actives and alumnæ. Although we are not as large as some of our neghbors in Pi North Province, Amarillo has some 65 active Pi Phis who quietly but diligently work to spread the love and friendship of the arrow. Through alumnæ efforts, Amarillo now has some 18 girls enjoying active Pi Phi membership at six different universities, and we look forward to another Pi Phi rush year. Perhaps the highlight of our alumnæ year was the annual party for our actives and pledges in January. This year we had a lovely and scrumptious "South of the Border" luncheon in the home of our club president, Frances Schneider Bauman. All actives, pledges, and their mothers were invited and were honored with wine and blue corsages. After a delightful Pi Phi sing-along, we were treated to the tastiest Mexican food ever found in Texas. Amarilloans really know how to cook southwestern style!

The Amarillo Alumnæ Club is especially proud this year of its Arrowmont Award for outstanding achievement in financial support of the Arrowmont School of Crafts. Three years ago we pledged five hundred dollars to Arrowmont and raised the money through various alumnæ projects, such as a sherry party, a garage sale, and last year's tasting tea. The tea was called Angels, Arrowmont, and Ambrosia and was done with a little different twist to the typical tasting tea. Twelve different recipes were chosen from the Arrowmont Cookbook, ranging from Wine and Blue Cheese Balls to Brownie Pie to use as tasting dishes, with "extras" sold separately. Then, in addition to selling a complete range of Arrowmont crafts, we also sold many Arrowmont Cookbooks, containing the luscious recipes just sampled. What an easy way to sell a cookbook!

BRAZOS VALLEY

The Brazos Valley Alumnæ Club consisting of Bryan-College Station Pi Phis and commuting members from nearby towns began the new year with a coffee and a review of Pi Phi terminology which proved fun as well as educational. In October a member of the Houston Alumnæ Club spoke to our group concerning current trends of sororities on college campuses; a subject which we discussed further at the following meeting.

our group concerning tanking to the group compuses; a subject which we discussed further at the following meeting.

January brought much excitement as our annual Panhellenic luncheon was turned into a recycled rush party. Pi Phi participated in the program with an Arrow skit and a rousing chorus of "Ring-Ching." Our biggest turnout of the year occurred when a local artist, Mrs. Eleanor Gates, displayed her macrame designs, and discussed the purposes and programs of the Brazos Valley Art League. Founders' Day was celebrated with our traditional bring-a-salad luncheon and an appropriate dessert of Arrow cake.

As of mid-winter, national sororities have arrived in the Texas A&M University community. This has added a new dimension to the alumnæ clubs in the Brazos Valley and a boost to our City Panhellenic. What an effect this has had on the enthusiasm of our local alumnæ!

Already we're in the planning stages for next year, hoping to bring Arrowmont products to the local art festivals, and thereby promoting the name of Pi Beta Phi in the community. We are looking forward to new activities, continued friendships and working together to further the goals of Pi Beta Phi.

Houston

The Houston Alumnæ club of Pi Beta Phi enjoyed a very busy and productive year under the capable leadership of Ann Hill Painter.

Twenty-five girls pledged Pi Phi at the University of Texas, T.C.U., S.M.U., L.S.U., Duke, and Vanderbilt Universities. Shirley Doan Shockley was chairman of two Ways and Means projects. The Holiday in Spain was enjoyed by Pi

Phis and their friends in November. Elena Brineman was the tour guide and a check for $400.00 was presented to the club for its projects.

In March, a Creative Workshop was held at the Con-temporary Arts Museum for two days. Outstanding instructors taught original design Needlepoint, Needle Weaving, Creative Stitchery, and Basketry. Profits were donated locally to the Art After School Program for two classes at the Contemporary Arts Museum.

Pam Sullivan was chosen to receive the Arrowmont Scholarship. She has volunteered weekly to assist in teaching the blind and senior citizens. Once a month, Pi Phis serve luncheon and visit with the senior citizens at Helena House.

The Pi Beta Phi Craft Shop moved into its new location in the Woodlake Shopping Mall with the assistance of Charlie Cox Cantrell, our Province President, and her enthusiastic committee. A wine and cheese party was given and a successful sale benefited Arrowmont.

Interesting programs were given at each meeting. Carol Vance, our District Attorney, and a Pi Phi husband, was our first speaker. The juniors and seniors combined their meetings to hear a Pi Phi editor of the Houston Post editorial page, review the history of Houston. Don Stewart exhibited and spoke on creative jewelry. Dr. Roy Sessions lectured on the pros and cons of Cosmetic Surgery.

A Holiday Brunch honored the new pledges, actives, and their mothers. Something new was tried this year—a Monmouth Duo with the Kappas on Valentine's Day.

Founders' Day was celebrated with a luncheon at the River Oaks Country Club. Six new Golden Arrow members were honored and presented Camation pins. Each gave a little speech on what Pi Phi had meant to them. The juniors entertained with a clever skit.

Charlie Cox Cantrell, Pi South Province President, gave the highlights of Pi Phi activities at the final meeting of the year. The gavel was turned over to Susan Winton Clevenger and the new officers for 1975-76 were installed.

LUBBOCK

The Lubbock Alumnæ Club has had a rewarding year sharing fun and friendship with the active chapter, the pledge class and the Mothers' Club.

Our alum-pledge Big Sister program continues to be very successful. Besides keeping the alumnæ in contact with the pledges, this program helps the pledges realize how Pi Beta Phi can continue to be rewarding after college graduation.

In October we learned the name of our special pledge at the little sister party. At the Christmas party each pledge received a sack of special food to help her through final exams. The Mothers' Club has been very special to both the alumnæ and the chapter. The three groups joined together for a spaghetti supper in August and for Founders' Day in April. The alumnæ invited the Mothers' Club to a salad luncheon in February.

Throughout the year the Mothers' Club has provided food for rush, pledge day, initiation and a Christmas party. As a giraduation gift, the Mothers' Club took the seniors to a dinner theater. The active chapter received one hundred dollars from these special mothers.

We look forward to next year when we again share our friendship with the chapter and the Mothers' Club.

RICHARDSON

The 1974-75 season was an especially enjoyable one for the Richardson Alumnæ Club, under the able direction of Betty Thomas Haynes. Our programs, planned by Pat Havens Shidler, carried out the theme of "The Total Woman." We learned more about consumerism, the Arts in Dallas, and fitting and sewing our own slacks. We had a cooky-shine, prepared by Loydell Nash Seward at one meeting, with each of us telling of our own chapters' cooky-shines. This brought back many memories for all of us.

Our Province President, Mary Jane Johnson, visited us in February and we met with a representative of the Mid-Cities Club. We also participated in the annual Panhellenic Style Show and Luncheon with our own Nancy Benko Gamble serving as one of the models.

Jane Gabe Miller was in charge of our fund raising project which netted $768.82 for the club. It was a Bazaar and Arrowcraft Sale in November, held in the lovely home of Carolyn Kowalik Holland. Each Wednesday for two months prior to the sale, we had workshop sessions in Carolyn's home, where we not only worked on different projects for the sale, but had fun, and really got to know each other well.

In January, we had our third annual Actives Party. This is a salad luncheon, this year held at Cindy Free Frey's beautiful home, for all local Richardson actives and their mothers. This is held before the girls go back to school and it's refreshing and rewarding to meet and chat with them.

Our husbands are not neglected during the year as we annually have a December couples' party. Roseanne Ryan Carroll opened her home to us and, as usual, we enjoyed the chance to meet "our better halfs."

Founders' Day was celebrated in the lovely new home of Glenda Hairston Ledford. Co-hostesses Ila Hansen Miller and Janie Purlee Shirley served a delicious dinner to 41 of us, including 8 actives from Southern Methodist University who entertained us with songs they had sung during rush. The girls and the songs were beautiful, and when they finished, they answered our questions about rush.

Our very successful year ended in May at the home of Pat Davis Marsh and with the installation of officers and an excellent program on Arrowmont. This was truly a rewarding

VIRGINIA

CHARLOTTESVILLE

The Charlottesville Alumnæ Club spent the year installing the 112th Pi Phi chapter, Virginia Epeilon, on the University of Virginia grounds. We assisted with fall rush for a newly formed local which soon became the Pi Phi colony; we opened our homes for two pledging ceremonies and a dinner; we became pledge sponsors for up to three new pledges each. We formed and served on AAC and house corporation; we rented and furnished a Pi Phi apartment for graduate advisor Carolyn Houpt; we found a house to be renovated as the chapter house, and we planned and participated in the April initiation and installation ceremonies.

In addition, we held five morning coffees, an Arrowcraft sale grossing over $900, an evening meeting featuring the Sipherds and their wildflowers, and a "Beau and Arrow' dinner buffet.

All this with a paid membership of only 27 alums!
Two of our alumnæ deserve special recognition. Clara Hall Sipherd is a Golden Arrow who has never quit contributing 100% of herself to Pi Phi. She was alumnæ club vice president and general chairman of the installation weekend, a dent and general chairman of the installation weekend, a massive job, yet she remained a cheerful and gracious friend to all of us.

Carol Cornelius Neiman served the dual role of club president and chairman of AAC and was assistant chairman of installation weekend, banquet toastmistress, and central headquarters for any problems. We all worked hard, but she worked hardest! Thank you to both of these women for leading the rest of us through a hectic year.

HAMPTON ROADS

The Hampton Roads Alumnæ Club featured wine and cheese tasting at its first meeting of the year. We also had Arrowcraft items for sale, thereby combining fun and philanthropy. Our competent president, Jimmie Parrott Espich, published two newsletters during the year. This was an excellent method of informing the club members of both the activities and the duties of the club.

We had another successful pecan sale. This is our annual method of raising money to help meet our budget.

One of the highlights of our year was sharing with Virginia Gamma in the celebration of its fiftieth anniversary. We attended the banquet which was held in Williamsburg. This was an especially exciting event for those of our members who are alumnæ of Virginia Gamma.

This year our club is for the first time sending a delegate to Convention. We are happy that Becky Goolsby McCallum is going to represent us.

We have lost several members because of transfers to other cities, but, hopefully, other Pi Beta Phi alumnæ will move into our area and become a part of our club. As this year ends, we are looking forward to our big event of the summer, a picnic shared with our husbands.

DOROTHEA CROUCH KEMP

NORTHERN VIRGINIA

The Northern Virginia Alumnæ Club enjoyed an exciting year under the leadership of Margaret Connolly Leeper. In September we had our annual potluck dinner at the home of Bettie Alexander Steiger in McLean, at which time we made plans for the year and met many new Pi Phi alums. In addition to our monthly meetings, we took "interest group" tours to various places in the Washington area, such as the Capitol, State Department, White House, Kennedy Center, and some museums. These were arranged by Karen Christopher Mills.

Christopher Mills.

Our most meaningful meeting of the year took place in October at the University of Maryland. Our club met with the active chapter of Maryland Beta for "Nostalgia Night." This was planned by our program chairman, Sara Oliver Millener, to give alums a better understanding of Pi Phi on campus today, while it gave the actives a reflection of past Pi Phi years. Each alum came dressed in the fashion of her college days, yearbook and scrapbook in hand, ready to share an outstanding experience or tradition in her fraternity life. The Maryland Betas provided a cooky-shine, tour of their house, and an eager ear. Not only did the actives get a kick out of the stories the alums shared, but the more recent graduates learned a great deal from each decade represented all the way back to our golden arrows.

The overall interest and exchange of ideas made "Nostalgia Night" a success in the eyes of active and alum alike. It seemed as though everyone went home that evening with the same thought in mind; although the years have changed the dress, life types, and popular campus activities, one thing has never changed—sisterhood in Pi Beta Phi.

The May L. Keller Alumnæ Club again had an active year

The May L. Keller Alumnæ Club again had an active year listening to a Swiss miss tell us about her country and her experiences here, going to an Oriental Rug business to look and learn, and watching a demonstration of wreath making. But by far the one highlight of the year was having our alumnæ nominee, Mrs. Frank O. McFall, initiated into Pi Phi at the initiation of the new Virginia Epsilon chapter. Edna McFall has been an integral part of Pi Phi for many years. She was born in 1910 and graduated from Settlement School. Her large family of 10 children lived in Gatlinburg and her one great desire was to learn to weave at Pi Phi Settlement School, but she was only fourteen. Edna went to Evelyn Bishop, then director of Settlement School, and was allowed to start. She practiced hard and her other grades improved showing her minister father that she was old enough to go to the Pi Phi school. Her weaving won many awards and in April 1924 a length of cream colored material was chosen for a dress to be worn by Mrs. Calvin Coolidge. Later she sold over five hundred dollars worth of things from Gatlinburg.

Mrs. McFall later married and came here to Virginia where she has used her talent since 1959 to help girls at the State Farm for Women learn to weave. She just retired in 1975. As we sat and listened to Mrs. McFall tell of her love and gratefulness to Pi Phi it made each of us feel very humble and proud to be even a small part of so great an enterprise as Settlement School.

In her heart Mrs. McFall had been a Pi Phi for years and we were extremely proud to pay tribute to such a de-

BELLEVUE

Our Eastside Alumnæ Club has completed a very enjoyable year. We have enriched our group with several enthusiastic new members. We have completed a year of programs that has reached our goal of personal growth and service to Pi Phi and our community. We have spent a good deal of time evaluating these goals and trying to put our time, energy and money into areas of priority as would meet the needs and desires of our particular group of Pi Phi women.

Our September Wine Tasting Social brought new members that continued to support us through the year. Our October Settlement School Sale was again a big success. Our experiment with ordering ahead and selling items directly from the sale, rather than ordering after the sale, proved to be a good idea. Our November meeting brought a speaker from a local I.D. Center who shared with us information on job counseling, job opportunities and education for women.

Our December cooky-shine cookie exchange was a fun pre-holiday social event and helped stock our freezers with a variety of pretty goodies. Husbands were invited to our February meeting. Our speaker was an Attorney from the King County Bar Association who led a discussion of wills, trusts, insurance, etc. Our March meeting was for gals only as we saw a Yoga demonstration and discussed its merits with a Yoga instructor.

A great deal of time was spent in preparation for our Second Annual Art Show and Sale in April. Again we were pleased with the results. The profits were sent to Pi Phi philanthropies, our local Pi Phi emergency fund and The Northwest Kidney Foundation. Founders' Day and a fun potluck dinner completed our year.

KARYN DEFANT

FANNY WHITENACK LIBBEY

The Fanny Whitenack Libbey Alumnæ Club enjoyed another congenial year with a variety of activities. Our fall meetings included a visit from our Alumnæ Province President, Mickey Hammer Meechan, and a program on Pi Phi philanthropies. We participated in Yakima Christmas Festival Week activities by selling Arrowcraft items at the downtown cooperation sale. Our Christmas celebration with our local actives was a Panhellenic luncheon.

Emphasis on Fraternity directed our remaining activities for the year. "Getting to Know You" was the theme of our February meeting during which we learned more about each member's family and interests,
Our spring Husbands' Party was certainly the highlight of the year. We had a casino party followed by a buffet supper, Games included dice games, hilarious rounds of poker, and black jack. Door prizes were auctioned at the end of the evening purchased with "winnings." Not only was the event successful in making and renewing acquaintances, but also in bolstering our club treasury.

The final activity was our Founders' Day luncheon. Congregating to appreciate what brings us together for fun and friendship is a perfect ending to a delightful year!

INEZ SMITH SOULE

The Inez Smith Soule Alumnæ Chapter held three meetings during the past season. Our first meeting was held in the Washington Gamma chapter room on the University of Puget Sound Campus. After the business meeting, the actives Puget Sound Campus. After the business meeting, the actives joined us for an informal get acquainted social hour.

Our next meeting was held at the home of Lucille Burtner Thompson, Washington Gamma. Mr. Jon Kowalek, Director of the Tacoma Art Museum showed slides of the many outstanding displays including the Childrens' Gallery that is about ready for the Centennial. The museum also has a picture lending library so that one may enjoy many different artists.

picture lending library so that one may enjoy many different artists.

Pauline Gardner Farrell, Utah Alpha, opened her home to the alumnæ club where a delightful evening was spent with Mr. George Ghilarducci, a Tacoma school teacher, who showed slides on his and his wife Ellen's trip to Napal. Jane Hagen Knapp, Washington Gamma, who is in charge of Settlement School, displayed her Arrowcraft items.

Our Founders' Day banquet was held at Oakbrook Country Club. Chairman was Kathy Kuper Lundquist, Washington Gamma. Helen Clark, Oregon Alpha, introduced the past and present Golden Arrow members. This year's Founders' Day was enjoyed by many old and new alums who had not been able to participate in other alumnæ functions during the year. April was fund raising month.

The Flea Market at the University of Puget Sound is our main project of the year that makes our treasurer, Dianne Dress Curran, Washington Gamma, smile. Our booth sells and takes orders for Arrowcraft items. Many alumnæ also contribute articles that they have been made including macrame, tole paintings and other hand work. Marie Helmer, Washington Gamma, alumnæ club president, organized the project this year. project this year.

OLYMPIA

September began with a business meeting after which everyone adjourned to the living room for a Washington Beta cooky-shine. Twenty members sat around a white sheet which was decorated with the Greek letters, using blue sugar cubes, candles, and wine and blue carnations. Arrow cookies were served but champagne was substituted for the traditional hot chocolate! A nine inch sugar cookie was passed from one person to another. Each rubbed the bottom and made a wish, then took a bite. Pi Phi songs were sung and a good deal of reminiscing was done. It was fun hearing about Pi Phis from fifty years ago to the present. There certainly wasn't a generation gap!

CAROL TRANUM

PULLMAN

The Pullman alums were kept busy during the past year with many events that have become traditional with our club.

After helping out with rush in the fall, we got to meet our own pledges personally at a dessert on September 26. A favorite game, Pi Phi Bingo, helped everyone get acquainted quickly and prizes of home baked goods were awarded the pledges. Somehow the alums never seem to win at that game!

Our next function was the annual husband-wife social which was held in January. The potluck dinner was well at-tended and everyone enjoyed getting to meet some Pi Phi husbands.

husbands. We honored our graduating seniors on April 29. The actives gave us a quick glance at their future plans and then it was our turn to tell our younger sisters what we had been doing since college days. A special event during the evening was awarding Marguerite "Marge" Brown Hinrichs her 50 year pin. It was doubly significant for our seniors to share this experience as Marge was initiated at Washington Beta and has always served Pi Phi as an energetic and talented alumnæ member. We joined her in a cooky-shine and afterwards each active received a hand-made silver blue garter as a going away present from their thoughtful housemother, Viola Rupe. The evening left everyone with a special warmth—a fitting year's end for us and an important beginning for the actives, soon to become alums. soon to become alums.

PATTI MANN KNOWLES

WENATCHEE

Wenatchee Alumnæ Club had some extremely serious moments of indecision as to whether they should continue as an active group or go into semi-retirement—so to speak. Attendance at our meetings, only four times a year, was whimsical and sporadic and we questioned if we should "call it quits." However, when our ex-member and Province President Mickey Hammer Meechan, paid us a visit she really gave us an honest "arrow" of her Pi Phi enthusiasm and loyalty. Suddenly we realized that we could not let this "old" and very cherished group of valuable, and never forgotten friendships to just slip away. . . .

So what a happy and warm occasion then when we all met in the fall at the home of Wardine Jesseph Fenton's! We had a really great turnout. A new member Harriet Stephenson Berman brought her mother who was visiting from Chattanooga, Tennessee, Louise Barnes Stephenson, who was a charter member of Tennessee Alpha. Myhre Arbella Weisel (Wenatchee Beta) visiting from Honolulu, Hawaii was a guest of her friend Sally Horan. Susan Nash Cammack, our most marvelous and unselfish president of many years, has been the person responsible for holding us together and Suannounced that our hostess, Wardine and her efforts as magazine chairman for countless years has put us among the top five in magazine sales.

During the Christmas vacation a coffee party was held at the home of Bettie Tyrrell Kolb to honor the actives in the area. It was great to "share and tell" and the friendship basket was passed which is our favorite and painless money raiser.

Our Founders' Day was celebrated at the home of Helen (Sally) Campbell Horan with a delicious salad buffet and many long missed faces were present and we all enjoyed seeing each other again. Sally's home is such a delight to be in for there are so many memories of her and Walit's life together when he was a U.S. Congressman—really makes you wish you had at least dated your baby pictures when you see all the tender loving preservation of the past that Sally has so beautifully done. CHARLESTON

Our Charleston Alumnæ Club has always been an energetic group, and in the last few years we have been blessed with active participation by newer members, not long out of college. Of course, those of us who have been around a long time are still in there pitching, but it's great to have some bright new blood to help run the bases. Attendance is good, programs are excellent, and it's a happy, congenial group. When our newly elected president, Beverly Hall Rutledge, moved to New York with her family in September, Therese Smith Cox took over the presidency and continued smoothly in the path of Debbie Anderson Faber, our 1973-74 leader. With officers and committee chairmen as co-hostesses, a country casserole dinner and recipe exchange opened the year at the home of Eleanor Hastings Parks, Another annual event was our enjoyable May picnic for husbands and friends at the home of Rita Carper Terry in St. Albans.

Other meetings were structured around Pi Phi traditions. A very special treat was an old fashioned cooky-shine at Debbie Anderson Faber's home. Our al. Jay Arrowcraft sale, with Eleanor Gilchrist Wray as the capable chairman, was held in October at the home of Susie Bell Orders on Parkwood Road. This was followed in the next two weeks with sales in other areas. One was with Doris Whiting Wilson in St. Albans, and another with Eleanor Stone Thornhill on Hampton Road in Louden Heights. There are many arts and crafts groups in West Virginia (our area is the home of the Mountain Artisans) and our sale this year was especially

Betty Carson Brawley, rush information chairman, was again hostess for our annual Christmas coffee honoring actives and pledges. Ten local girls at six schools were pledged by Pi Phi this year. Our local philanthropy, the Kanawha County Clothing Center, received soap and detergent donated at the coffee. A gala event in February was our Valentine treat, the "Beaus and Arrows" dinner at the Army-Navy Club with husbands, beaus, and friends. An impressive ceremony, and Pi Phis from other cities, added to our Founders' Day luncheon at Edgewood Country Club in April. Installation of officers followed. officers followed.

Although many of our members serve the community in responsible government positions, and in cultural, educational, and service activities, they continue their interest in Pi Beta Phi. One delightful spin-off from our alumnæ club is an informal bridge club which meets monthly in the homes of participants. A small group of regulars, spearheaded by Doris Whiting Wilson, welcome each month any Pi Phis in the area who wish to play. We are looking forward to 1975-76 with Jane Foster Adams as president.

BELOIT

The outstanding event of our Beloit Alumnæ Club year was the meeting at which we honored our fifty year Pi Phi members. At a lovely fall luncheon at the home of Helen Macklem Eldred, six fifty year members were present to take part in the program planned by our president, Gretchen Hobbs Allen, and to receive the symbolic gold carnation pin guard. Two were honored in absentia. Those honored were Grace Pike Macklem, Ethel Butcher Shogren, Hazel Murdock Murkland, Elizabeth Arneman Hutchison, Iva Chester, Birdie Newton, Arlene Butts Rice, and Eulalia Drew Van Wart.

We were guests of the Rockford Alumnæ Club in April at a delightful Founders' Day luncheon and book rewiew. The year also included a holiday dinner party at the home of Grace Pike Macklem and a potluck salad luncheon at the home of Virginia Schafer Wolfe. Our year closed with a dinner at the home of Elizabeth Arneman Hutchison, with the meeting devoted to convention plans with our delegate. Shirley Peterson White, and to early planning for our Arrowcraft Sale that is to be held in the fall of 1975.

MADISON

This year was a successful and fun year for our Madison club with Mary Fenn McMillan at the helm. We began our fall activities with the Arrowcraft Sale and with the enthusiasm and concerted effort expended by Mary Ann Webster Schmitz and Mary Busby Bushnell, Arrowcraft chairmen, our sale turned out to be the most successful one ever, with sales over $2,000.

out to be the most successful one ever, with sales over $2,000. Husbands were included in our social activities when we had a terrific pre-football game brunch in October at Rosanne Bothan Raemisch's home and a fabulous cocktail-dinner party in April at Mary Fenn McMillans. One of our most interesting programs of the year was one on "Miniatures" by Jane Kresge Secord during which she showed us of her various collections of miniature things as well as a huge and intricate doll house that she and her whole family had constructed and had tastefully furnished.

The "Make It, Bake It, Sew It, Grow It," Auction was again one of the main highlights of the year. Members donated their talents in the form of just about anything, and our hilarious auctioneer Shirley Capitani Stathas helped them sell to the highest bidder. Due to the many lovely hand made items, and the Pi Phi enthusiasm the club treasury also profited from this endeavor. February found the members visiting the Elvehjem Art Center on the University of Wisconsin-Madison campus. Following the sale of the charter hover the water as Wisconsin-

Center on the University of Wisconsin-Madison campus. Following the sale of the chapter house three years ago, Wisconsin Alpha alumna decided to give a percentage of the interest realized to the Art Center as a tribute to Wisconsin Alpha's 80 years as a leader in the Greek System on the campus. The donation will be used to enrich the permanent art collection of the Center. It had been hoped that the art object would have been purchased by the time of our meeting. However, a later tour will again be planned to view the choice. Pi Phis were treated to a trip around the world via the marvelous slides and presentation of Chuck Obee, husband of Joan Schutt Obee in March. Our season closed with a Founders' Day luncheon, a fitting conclusion to a very good year.

MILWAUKEE

The Milwaukee Alumnæ Club began an active and enjoyable year with a buffet dinner at the home of our president, Jane Foster Doud. We welcomed the chance to greet our friends and to meet new alumnæ in our area. Our annual Arrowmont craft sale and tea was held in October. A very dedicated chairman and committee did a beautiful job of organizing this enjoyable and highly successful sale.

November found Mr. George Watts guiding us on an informative tour of Watts Store which was followed by luncheon in Watts Tea Room. Invitations reading "Hark! the II $\phi$ angels sing" summoned P! Phis and their escorts to a Christmas cocktail-dinner planned by our board and held at the home of Carol Leich Plautz.

A memorable sherry-salad luncheon and fashion show entitled "Swing Into Spring" was held in February at the White-fish Bay Woman's Club. Table decorations made by our Pi Phis were lovely. This event was a benefit for our local philanthropy, The Golden Agers of Neighborhood House.

Our own Marily Wilsch Langill gave a talk on and identified our examples of antique silver and pewter at the March meeting held at the home of Nancy Kelsey Cavanaugh on St. Patrick's Day, We were delighted to have Madison area alumnæ join us for our Founders' Day luncheon which was held in April at the Ramada Inn-Waukesha.

Our 1974-1975 year drew to a close with a lovely luncheon at the Western Racquet Club where 50 year members of Pi Beta Phi were honored and presented with carnations. We were delighted to have so, many of these ladies with us and to have them share in the installation of officers which took place at the luncheon.

Mid-Georgia A.C.

On Saturday, February 15, 1975, in Macon, Ga., an organizational meeting was held for all area Pi Beta Phi alumnæ. Mid-Georgia Alumnæ Club was formed-the second alumnæ group in the state of Georgia. There were enough Pi Phis present at that Saturday morning coffee to sign the alumnæ charter, elect officers, select a name, discuss chapter projects, and plan for a Founders' Day banquet.

Our Founders' Day banquet was held on April 26, at the beautiful colonial Idle Hour Country Club in Macon. This lent southern charm and atmosphere to the very special occasion, our first to honor our Founders. Those twelve women would have glowed with pride at our lovely candle lighting ceremony, our tables with the colorful wine carnations, and the many attractive Pi Phis, some attending a Founders' Day banquet for the first time since college days.

We were especially pleased to have two Golden Arrows in attendance-Doris Onderdonk Jelks and Sara Albright Thomas.

Doing Unto Others . . . Through Chapter Philanthropies

News about chapter philanthropies is of interest always for it indicates a direction being taken by the Greek world on campus in today's world at large.

MICHIGAN DELTA, a chapter of only 16 girls which was just re-colonized last year, raised $528 last spring for the International Special Olympics. The Olympics were held last August on the Central Michigan campus. The money was raised by a ten-mile Walk-a-Thon, with pledges from one cent to ten dollars a mile. Elaine Marvin says that all had a great time and are indebted to the students, parents, and faculty at Albion.

CALIFORNIA ZETAS participated in the Special Olympics also. Each of several girls was responsible for one child all morning. They paraded around the track to the applause of spectators, and took the preschoolers to the campus swimming pool, where, according to Jane Baxter, "they performed brilliantly for their family and friends."

VERMONT BETA'S spring philanthropy project involved three major interests: cystic fibrosis, Arrowmont, and the Kappa Sigma Fire Fund. The chapter bought a 10-speed bike at cost and sold raffle tickets for a dollar each. The entire house participated in the sale, publicity, and promotion of the raffle which was easy to organize and popular with all concerned.

Judy Williams, OHIO DELTA, says her chapter devoted much time and effort to a variety of philanthropies last spring. A Valentine party, with Chi Phi, entertained 25 youngsters from a local orphanage. In late February, the chapter's newest pledge, Anne Preston, sold $81 worth of balloons for the Heart Fund, contributing to a campus total of $3,100. Later in April 25 Pi Phis sold 35 dozen daffodils and donated nearly $90 to the American Cancer Society.

University of Nevada Lambda Chis hold a sorority presidents' kidnap to collect food for area needy families. Sororities must take food and sing to the Lambda Chis in order to get their presidents back. Last year NEVADA ALPHA won third in spirit, second in amount of food, and first in attendance to win an overall first and the trophy. Sue McCoy wrote, "The event is a great time for the Pi Phis, plus it's nice knowing that while we're having fun, we're helping others."

NEBRASKA BETA received the Madeline Girard Philanthropy Trophy awarded for the best philanthropy program among sororities on campus. Activities included a spaghetti feed with Delta Upsilon for the All-University Fund; a canned goods drive for the Lincoln Emergency Relief Pantry, selling candied apples for Arrowmont, and the dance marathon for muscular dystrophy when chapter president, Pat Feala, and her Alpha Gamma Rho partner were named the top couple for the most money pledged. The chapter received a plaque for being the top contributor to the All-University Fund among sororities.

IDAHO ALPHA women and Washington State University Delta Upsilon men teamed in a ten mile walkathon for the City of Hope, a cancer research center near Los Angeles. The walk started at the Pi Phi house at the University of Idaho and ended at the D.U. house at the University of Washington.

According to Karen Morris, "A little sore and tired at the end of the trek, the walkers were happy the combined efforts had made a total of $927 for the City of Hope."

Betsy Gebhart, CALIFORNIA ZETA, and her partner danced 50 hours to help raise $1,500 for Multiple Sclerosis at U.C.-Santa Barbara. They were the winners of the marathon as they raised the most in contributions.

The Lawrence University community celebrated spring last May with a circus-fair called "Celebrate," complete with clowns, balloons, cotton candy, artists, merchants, elephants, youngsters, and oldsters. WISCONSIN GAMMA and their alums joined forces to sell colorful geraniums and macrame plant hangers. In another booth they held a smaller version of their Goodwill hat sale (see Winter '74 Arrow). Kathy Greene says, "We had a great time not only joining the community in some old-time fun, but also making a contribution to the community: $150 to Goodwill!"

Out Nevada way, NEVADA ALPHA is collecting can pop-tops, with each one equaling one minute on a kidney-dialysis machine. Already they have hundreds ready to be turned over. Ginni Land writes that the whole community has become involved in the project which, besides being ecological, is easy to do and very rewarding.

Lost Pi Phis!

EDITOR'S NOTE: Somewhere along the way, many Pi Phis have been misplaced—at least insofar as the Central Office address list is concerned. It is important that all Pi Phis be located, and in an effort to find the lost members, The Arrow will publish a list, by chapter, each issue. If the reader knows the current address of one of those listed, please forward that information to Mrs. Ralph Schulenburg, Director of Central Office, 7730 Carondelet, Suite #333, St. Louis, Missouri 63105.

Invocation

Dear Heavenly Father, be with us and bless us as we begin another day together as Pi Beta Phis. Help us to understand that we express our gratitude to Thee for our many blessings by our actions. Thy teachings have shown us the way.

Give us the wisdom and the will to seek all things beautiful and good; to strive for those eternal verities which will make us worthy in Thy sight—love, honor, and compassion for one another.

Guide us, Oh Lord, in the duties which lie before us. As we contemplate Pi Beta Phi, may we ever reflect upon our many years of growth, and our steadfastness of purpose in living up to our ideals; steadfastness of purpose in living up to our ideals; may we pause to think of today—to judge how well we, who are now the Fraternity, measure up to the aspirations of those who have gone before us; and above all, may we choose those directions for the future which will further enhance the meanings, the purposes, and the stature of Pi Beta Phi. May our actions always be pleasing unto Thee.

We ask these things in Thy Holy Name. Amen.

Marianne Reid Wild Grand President Emeritus
