On the left side, there is a blue sidebar titled "QuickClicks" with a list of links: "Convention Info", "Grad Consultant Application", "RIF Form", "Scholarship Forms", "Collegiate Officers", "Alumnae Officers", "Email Directory", "Dues Payments", "Address Changes", "Central Office", "Contact", "Webmaster", "Site Map", and "Site Search". Below this is a "Calendar of Events" box showing "12/25-1/2 Central Office Closed 1/3 Grad Consultant".

The center of the page has a large "Welcome" heading with a red arrow pointing right. Below it is a paragraph: "to the new, improved Pi Beta Phi Web site! Welcome to the reorganized, redesigned Pi Beta Phi Web site. Why the new site? The Internet is a fast changing tool, which can either be a help or a headache depending on the site. To further Pi Beta Phi's purpose of being a help, the site needed to better meet your needs as a member, a parent or a Greek Adviser. And the changes don't stop with the unveiling, which took place November 21, 2000. Information, such as the Focus Point, will change weekly or monthly keeping you in the know about Fraternity events, business, officers and personnel and draw you in to different sections of the site.

The new introduction page, part of which is shown above, is designed to be your one-stop guide to the site. On this page there is access to collegiate news, Pi Phi Express merchandise, Fraternity history and Convention 2001 information. You can easily find information about the Founders or Pi Phi symbols; access a calendar of Fraternity events; and find club and chapter sites and scholarship forms.

So where do you start? That's up to you. We hope you enjoy this improved tool and that you find it helpful as you learn more about Pi Beta Phi and the benefits it can provide throughout your life.

Badge Alert!

Have you seen Pi Phi badges for sale in antique stores, at estate sales or on the Internet? They may be lost, stolen or a family member may not have been aware of the proper disposition of the badge.

According to the Constitution and Statutes, "upon the death of its owner, a badge may be buried with its owner, bequeathed to a member of the Fraternity or to a collegiate chapter or alumnae club to be used as an honor badge or sent to Central Office for such disposition as directed by Grand Council."

The Pi Phi Archivist regularly checks Ebay for items of historical importance to the Fraternity. When someone is the 'piphichivist' as the bidder, that means the Archivist is buying that item for the Fraternity. Thank you

To help you navigate past the opening page, there will always be a navigation bar at the top of your screen. With a simple click, you can jump from alumnae news to event information without getting lost. Throughout the pages there are back buttons, so that you can easily jump to different material on a page, as well.

To the left of your screen you will find navigation buttons pointing you to more specific topics found under the main categories listed on the top navigational bar. These topic buttons will change according to the category you choose at the top of the page.

Badge Crest Carnation Pledge Pin Angel Colors & Motto

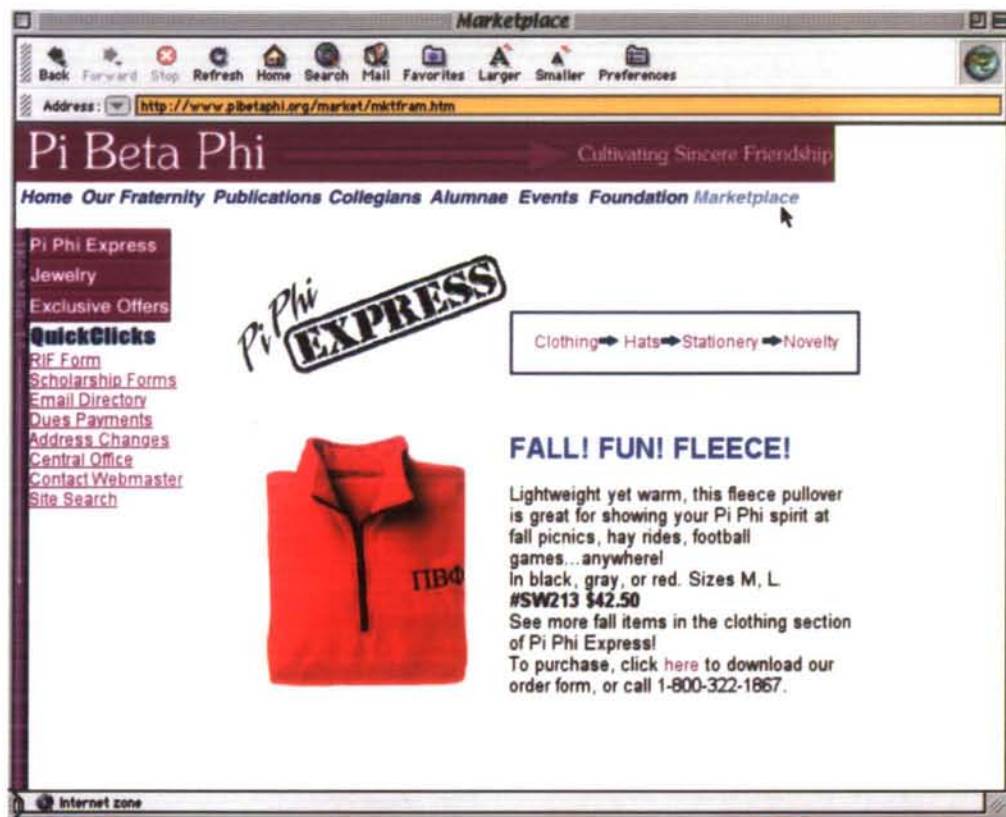

Symbols are an important part of the understanding and appreciation of Pi Beta Phi. These symbols serve as outward signs of unspoken ideas which all Pi Phi's share.

The Badge

The badge of I.C. Sorosis was decided upon by the Founders in 1867, and consisted of a golden arrow with the letters IC on its wings. When the name of the Fraternity was changed to Pi Beta Phi, the Greek letters replaced the IC on the wings. In 1934, at the Yellowstone National Park Convention, the Convention voted that there should be just twelve links in the chain of the badge-one for each Founder. Upon initiation, a member is given a gold-filled arrow badge. If she wishes, she may order a jeweled badge through Central Office at nominal cost. The golden arrow badge is to be worn only by initiated members of Pi Beta Phi and is worn over the heart.

No Vote — No Voice

It's 4 a.m. and as my 8-week old begs for that precious early morning feeding I sit riveted to the latest report on the presidential election. Whether you favor MSNBC, Fox News, CNN or one of the three major networks, the coverage is continuous. In an effort to maintain journalistic integrity (An oxymoron? Perhaps.) I'll try to keep my political bias anonymous. It's Tuesday, November 28 and we were supposed to have a new president-elect three weeks ago! Instead, the election mess continues. Will they hand count the Florida votes or won't they? Will the Supreme Court decide our next president? Isn't it amazing to think that if you live in Florida fewer than 550 voters may determine the outcome of this election?

Did you vote? Whether you're an Al Gore or George W. Bush fan, 50 percent of those who voted are going to be upset by the outcome of this election because their man wasn't elected. If you are one of those who didn't vote, I hope you'll remain silent. No vote — no voice.

What does all of this have to do with Pi Beta Phi? The no vote — no voice concept is applicable to the Greek system, as well. How many times have you seen, heard or read about the latest "incident" involving a Greek organization? XYZ Fraternity was caught hazing again. Another Greek student rushed to the hospital with a blood alcohol level high enough to kill a horse. Fraternity members narrowly escape a house fire.

As a Greek, what are you doing about it? Are you remaining silent while there are those who want to see the Greek system disbanded? Are you dismissing the incidents as "Greeks will be Greeks?" Or are you in the trenches with our chapters helping them with the challenges of being an undergraduate today?

If you aren't part of the solution, you're part of the problem. How can you help? Get involved. If there's a chapter near you, contact the Chapter President and offer your assistance. Let your voice be heard.

Just as your individual involvement in the most recent election can help set the course for the future of our country, so too can your individual involvement with our collegiate chapters help ensure a future for our Fraternity.

It would be a shame if the Greek system, in which each of us has had the opportunity to participate, were no longer around when my daughters are old enough to attend college. I'd hate to think that I wasn't part of the solution, but part of the problem.

No vote — no voice.

From the Reader

Texas Delta Carolyn Pavletich Lesh, Kentucky Beta Cynthia Arnold and Texas Alpha Ann Dudgeon Phy. Carolyn and Ann are long-time friends of Cynthia's and Joanne's.

I once read "Friends are angels who lift us to our feet when our wings have trouble remembering how to fly."

Fortunately, most of us do not have to go through very many troubling times, but when we do, Pi Phis are there to lift our wings. Evidence of this occurred when my dear friend Kentucky Beta Cynthia Arnold lost her mother, Texas Beta Joanne MaGirl Arnold, in a tragic car accident. While with Cynthia at her home in Dallas after the accident, it was incredible to see the outpouring of love and support she received from her friends and her mother's friends from around the country. I know this support was appreciated since Cynthia's family lives in Ohio, and I hope she never felt alone at this difficult time.

I knew Mrs. Arnold from Christmas here in Dallas, the convention in Houston, the Dallas Style Show and other personal visits. I respected her love and devotion to Pi Phi locally, nationally and at the collegiate level. This devotion was passed on from her own Pi Phi mom and she in turn did an incredible job of passing it on to her daughter Cynthia. Cynthia is very involved with the Dallas, Texas Alumnae Club and is currently serving as Moonlight Angel's Night Group president.

Mrs. Arnold and Cynthia had the bond of mother and daughter, but they also had the Pi Phi organization bringing them closer together through the eight conventions they attended. In Houston they held hands as they attended a memorial service for Mrs. Arnold's own mother who passed away in January 1999. I now hope to be there to hold Cynthia's hand when we sit together through this same service in Denver 2001.

I witnessed how Mrs. Arnold touched the lives of women of all ages from her own pledge class to the collegiate members at Texas Beta. Since I am on the Alumnae Advisory Committee at SMU I get to see first hand her influence on Pi Beta Phi and how she touched these young women's lives.

In closing, we should as Pi Phis, strive to be the kind of angel Joanne Arnold was and still is, and remember my friend Cynthia in all of our prayers.

After years of wear and tear, the Virginia Gamma Chapter's house was in dire need of a makeover. The furniture was worn, the walls were bare and the decor was plain. Thanks to Pi Phi alumnae Colorado Alpha Marla Martin Wheat and her daughter Virginia Gamma Brittney Hewitt, and former President Amanda Engstrom, the house was redecorated. Working hard over winter break, the trio completed its difficult task. Sisters arrived back at school for the spring semester at a beautiful, elegant house. Thank you Marla, Brittney and Amanda. You all did an amazing job!

Several weeks ago I was browsing through my Summer ARROW, when I turned to the article on page 44, "Remember 1925, Athletics for Women." I was completely astounded to see the picture of my mother, Kansas Alpha Mary Nestor Moore, with her Kansas University letter sweater. I had never seen this particular picture before. This was taken before she had met my dad at the University of North Dakota where she taught women's physical education.

I know she would be pleased to be remembered for her interest and help in making women's athletics a part of every curriculum.

Thank you for the interesting article.

My aunt, Grace Haldeman Bland, who is in the nursing wing of the Decadia Residence in Honolulu has asked me to send you a note expressing her gratitude for the 75 year recognition that was sent to her from you. She says she has it proudly displayed in her room. At 94, Aunt Grace is alert mentally, but can no longer see well enough to write and was eager to let you know how much Pi Phi meant to her at Stetson, as well as through the years. She was, of course, pleased when I became a Pi Phi at Stetson! I now have her badge, as well as my own.

We both send our appreciation for all that Pi Phi stands for and her recognition.

Officers' Leadership Workshop 2000

A New Century of Leadership

September 15–18, Pi Phi officers converged on Arrowmont for Officers' Leadership Workshop. "A New Century of Leadership" was this year's theme.

New Alumnae and Collegiate Province Presidents arrived a day before veteran officers for an additional day of officer training. During a portion of the weekend, Grand Council, Directors, continuing APPs, CPPs and Central Office staff participated on task forces and learned more about Alcohol-Free Housing.

APPs and CPPs met in separate breakout sessions as well as joint sessions. Kappa Kappa Gamma Mary Frances Henry led sessions on facilitation, problem solving and building a leadership team.

Other events throughout the weekend included a slide presentation and tour of Arrowmont, a picnic and a special Cookie Shine.

Officers' Leadership Workshop was cosponsored with Arrowmont.

Links to Literacy

Program Ideas

Below are Links to Literacy projects that alumnae clubs and chapters have developed and used. They let the Fraternity know about their projects by completing and submitting their Links to Literacy Program Evaluations to the Links to Literacy Chairman.

PROGRAM TYPE: Promoting reading to elementary school children and their parents — An alumnae and collegiate project.

CLUB/CHAPTER SIZE: Club members — 110, Chapter members — 160

TITLE/BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM:

An Evening of Reading — Pi Phi alumnae and collegians set up a reading carnival for third graders in an area Family Center, in conjunction with the Right-to-Read month. Invitations are sent to third graders and their parents, the principal, teachers and the librarian of a local school. R.S.V.P. is required. Confirmations are sent. Dinner is served to all attendees.

All children participating receive award certificates at the dinner. After dinner, the third graders do reading activities with Pi Phis. Each learning center has a different reading activity. For instance, the alumnae club provides bookmark materials so the children design their own bookmarks, and they receive stickers at each learning center. The Pi Phi collegians use rush rotation strategies to keep the children moving through the activities. The parents attend a session on the importance of reading given by librarians.

PROGRAM TYPE: Community and Campus Awareness

CHAPTER SIZE: 90

TITLE/BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM:

Blizzard Bash — A week in the winter dedicated to Arrowmont and Links to Literacy. Each day has one or more activities involving the campus and community in raising money for Arrowmont and increasing literacy awareness and literacy volunteer participation.

Activities include dinners and desserts at the Pi Phi house for a small fee; a literacy video; an Arrowmont booth in the student union; T-shirts that read, for instance, "Not to Read is Not to Know"; and posters.

PROGRAM TYPE: Promoting family literacy

CLUB SIZE: 26

TITLE/BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF PROGRAM:

No one wants reading to become a L.O.S.T A.R.T. so ... Let's Occasionally Stop Together And Read Together — Worked with first, second and third graders, through classroom teachers (many of whom are Pi Phis or friends of Pi Phis). Sent letter and a calendar for the month to parents/guardians asking that they and their child stop, turn off the TV and read together for at least 10 hours during a selected month. The club gave examples in the letter sent to each family and the importance of reading together was emphasized. However, family members could read on their own, as well.

Each family used the calendar sent to them by the Pi Phis to record when, what and how long they read each time. Each student turned the calendar/record into his or her teacher at the end of the month. Pi Phis gave a party to classrooms with total participation.

Former club president, Ontario Beta Wendy Newton Reifel, and the Vancouver, British Columbia Alumnae Club recently donated books to Arrowmont that illustrate being Canadian and living in Canada.

Have you turned in your Links to Literacy Evaluation? If you are in charge of the Links to Literacy program for your chapter or club don't forget to complete your Links to Literacy Evaluation Form after each project, which is found in the Links to Literacy Guide.

Send the completed form to Links to Literacy Chairman Camilla Philson Humphrey, 16 Conifer Square, Augusta, Georgia 30909. Remember to make two copies of the form before you send it to Camilla — send one copy to your Alumnae Province President or Collegiate Province President and keep one copy for your records.

This past summer, Washington Alpha CAROLYN LADD, Miss Oregon in the 1991 Miss America Pageant, spent a week building a bridge with the people of Jamaica. Through Global Volunteers,

Carolyn and six other volunteers traveled to Mount Vernon, a remote community in Jamaica's mountainous interior that becomes harder to reach during the rainy season when the river swells and becomes impassable, denying residents access to schools and markets. Over the past three years, nine volunteer teams have traveled to Mount Vernon to help residents construct three footbridges, using basic, non-electronic tools. Carolyn's team completed the final bridge.

The 1950 MISSOURI ALPHA pledge class visited Branson, Missouri for its 50-year reunion. Jane Turner Campbell and her husband, Ian, organized the three-day event, which included a visit to the Lawrence Welk Theater, a riverboat dinner/entertainment cruise and a banquet and program reminiscing the pledge class' college days. Attendees traveled from 10 states for the "great experience" as Jane writes. "Being around tried and true friends was an act of renewal. I can hardly wait to do it again in five years."

TENNESSEE ALPHA CYNTHIA

ENLERTH DUPREE recently celebrated with her mother when she became a Golden Arrow. Cynthia's aunt reached this mark in 1998. Over the past 74 years, nine women in Cynthia's family, including herself, have been Tennessee Alphas.

TUCSON, ARIZONA ALUMNAE CLUB members and Arizona Alpha collegiate members celebrated Founders' Day over brunch April 15 at the historic Manning House in Tucson. The theme was "Remembering the Legacy — Repledging the Loyalty." During the event, members celebrated Michigan Beta Hazel Storz Eaton's 100th Birthday and gave her a Pi Phi memory book with cards and pictures from Tucson and Bloomfield alumnae, letters from Michigan Betas and greetings from Grand President Beth van Maanen Beatty.

TEXAS BETA BROOKE WILLIAMS is a fourth generation Pi Phi. Her mother is TEXAS BETA SUSAN WHITAKER WILLIAMS, her grandmother is ARKANSAS ALPHA FRANCES GUTHRIE WHITAKER and her great-grandmother is ILLINOIS BETA MILDRED PITTMAN GUTHRIE who was initiated in 1914.

PHOENIX, ARIZONA ALUMNAE CLUB

members and Arizona Beta collegians are working together to read to underprivileged youth at St. Vincent de Paul and make dinner for families residing at a local Ronald McDonald House. Alumnae and collegians enjoyed the annual pledge-alumnae ice cream social.

The Florida Times-Union of Jacksonville, Florida featured FLORIDA ALPHA LOIS THACKER GRAESSLE, one of Florida's first 150 female lawyers, as part of a story about women pioneers in the law field in Florida. During the time Lois was a law student at the University of Florida, there were no female restrooms in the law building and she and other female law students had to sign an affidavit each semester verifying that they were female, over 21 years old and couldn't obtain the courses they needed at any other state institution. After Lois graduated, she was not able to find work as an attorney. Once, when she interviewed for a position she was not hired because she answered the interview question, "Would you type or dictate any briefs?" with, "I would dictate." Soon after the interview she heard there wasn't a secretary who wanted to take dictation from a woman. Now, almost 60 years later, nearly 17,000 women practice law in Florida. Based on her lifetime volunteer service, Lois has twice earned the newspaper's EVE award, which honors outstanding women, and has been named EVE of the decade. The Florida Supreme Court also recently honored Lois.

A fabulous time was had by all at the Reunion 2000 June 23–25 at the Pi Phi house in Pullman, Washington. Thirty WASHINGTON BETA members from the 1974–1980 pledge classes met for a weekend of talking, laughing, a trip to Boyer Park and a Cookie Shine.

OHIO BETA JEANNENE DIETER SOODEK, OD, served three weeks in Kongsberg, Norway this June as a clinical instructor for Norwegian and Danish optometrists studying ocular diagnosis and treatment. Jeannene resides in Sarasota, Florida where she is in part-time clinical practice. She travels as an adjunct professor for the Center for International Studies at the Pennsylvania College of Optometry and has also worked with students from Austria, Germany and Switzerland.

Pi Phi was well represented in the 67th Texas Rose Festival, October 19–22. Ladies in the court included TEXAS ZETAS JAYME FITZPATRICK and KATHRYN COMER, TEXAS GAMMAS TAYLOR PAUL and ASHLEY WARREN and TEXAS ALPHA LAURA LUNDY.

The CENTRAL MARYLAND ALUMNAE CLUB celebrated the club's 5th Anniversary last April. New York Zeta Patti Hennessy, club president and Tennessee Alpha Julie Ingram Tryon and the club's newest member Texas Gamma Jenni Jackson were a few of the attendees at the celebration. Several club members traveled to Lehigh University to assist Pennsylvania Kappas with their initiation.

Pennsylvania Gammas enjoyed the results of a Saturday afternoon cooking lesson at the home of Alumnae Advisory Committee member INDIANA GAMMA PAMELA ULERY BARNEY. When the AAC asked chapter members what they would like the area alumnae to help them with, one of the collegian's suggestions was cooking lessons, especially dinner ideas that are quick and easy, but also elegant.

ABOVE LEFT: California Delta Phyllis Stribley Meyer has found that painting is much more than just a hobby for her, it's her true passion in life. Since beginning watercolor painting in 1994, Phyllis has been accepted in local, regional and national juried shows; is represented in two commercial galleries and one cooperative; has displayed in shows like the Rose Art Show, ArtSplash and Beaverton Showcase; and is a member of local, state and national art organizations.

ABOVE: Michigan Beta Hazel Storz Eaton celebrated her 100th Birthday July 19 in Tucson, Arizona with her granddaughter, Kentucky Beta Mary Hume Neal, daughter, Michigan Beta Betty Eaton Thum, and 30 members of her family. Hazel helped charter the Bloomfield Hills, Michigan Alumnae Club in 1929. While in college, Hazel was the University of Michigan's yearbook editor, women's basketball captain and chapter president. She met her husband, Paul, at a Pi Phi friend's wedding and was married in the Michigan Beta chapter house in 1922. She has been an active member of the Tucson, Arizona Alumnae Club since 1962.

MISSOURI ALPHA KELLY WILLIAMS, PENNSYLVANIA EPSILON ANNE GJESDAHL ANDERSON and OKLAHOMA ALPHA NICOLE COMPTON met during the Semester at Sea Summer 2000 voyage that operates through the University of Pittsburgh. Destinations on the two month trip included Greece, Spain, Norway, Russia, Belgium, Portugal, Italy, Egypt and Israel. Between the ports students attended classes. Anne had accompanied her husband, a professor, on the voyage and Kelly and Nicole met when they were assigned as roommates.

ILLINOIS BETA-DELTA

JOSEPHINE CROOK RICH spoke about her experiences as a volunteer in the U.S. Navy's Women Appointed for Voluntary Emergency Services (WAVES) during World War II. At that time, 83,000 women were employed as WAVES, replacing navy men in the United States who left for overseas duty. After being recommended for the program, Josephine quit her job as an accountant at General Electric and passed the rigorous mental and physical testing needed to enter into duty. Josephine became a Communication Officer, working with the codes for all shipping in and out of New York harbor, which at the time handled 60 percent of the world's shipping, including troop and supply ships for the war. She also relayed information, always in code, about convoys, evasion routes and enemy ship sightings. Josephine finished her tour as a lieutenant and underweight.

While at Smith College for her initial training, Josephine discovered that there were several Pi Phis in her class, and knowing that Grace Coolidge resided near the school, Josephine and a group of Pi Phis decided to invite her to tea.

Much to their surprise, Grace accepted and Josephine still possesses the picture taken with Grace (above) and the thank you note she wrote to the young women.

Currently, dressed in her original uniform, Josephine speaks about her WAVES experience at different gatherings such as at a recent meeting of the Cleveland East, Ohio Alumnae Club.

BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA ALUMNAE CLUB members met in March to celebrate their 72nd Anniversary at the Pi Phi townhouse on the Birmingham-Southern College's campus. All 10 former club presidents attended the event titled Sharing Our Pi Phi Memories. The club's charter, former yearbooks dating to 1939 and the club's history books were on display. The 10 presidents attending were Georgia Alpha Jean Sullivan Curry; Florida Alpha Bet Amidon Kesmodel; Alabama Alphas Elizabeth Williams Copeland, Betty Price Hughes, Mary Collier McIntosh, Almeta Anderson Mitchell, Marilyn Smith Rowell and Becky Thomas Yarboro; Alabama Beta Bitsy Flowers Youngblood; and Alabama Gamma Margaret Stammer Kelly.

Three generations of Pi Phis met during a family event this summer. TEXAS ALPHA JEANNE JOHN HESLEY, her daughter TEXAS BETA MARILYN HESLEY WALKER and two granddaughters, OHIO ZETA PAIGE GILCHRIST and TEXAS ZETA SUZANNE HESLEY used the opportunity for a group photograph.

MICHIGAN EPSILON ELIZABETH MILLICAN spent the summer playing tennis for Freedom Park in the USA Tournament Tennis Women's League. Her team won both the spring and summer championships.

Last spring, TEXAS ALPHA GAY WARREN GADDIS' advertising agency, T3, was selected as one of Inc. magazine's Inner City 100. The Inner City 100 program, which a professor of business administration at Harvard business school founded, is designed to find, celebrate and support high growth inner-city companies and entrepreneurs. T3 was 81 on the list with a sales growth of 131 percent. Nine hundred companies were interviewed for the award, which is based on real revenue growth over a five-year period and measured by stringent criteria.

COLORADO ALPHA ALISON CUTLER was featured in the April edition of Longboard Magazine. The article detailed Alison's life from her first place finish in the World Champion Skateboard Contest as a child to her current position in marketing with Patagonia Inc. for its new apparel line, Watergirl USA. Alison is an excellent skier and surfer, both of which she has been doing since childhood. With Watergirl, Alison has established girls' surf clubs on the West Coast.

The CINCINNATI, OHIO ALUMNAE CLUB, in conjunction with the City of Springdale Police Department and the Calvary Pentecostal Church of Springdale, recently sponsored a self-defense seminar with all proceeds benefiting the local Project Connect chapter, an advocate for homeless children.

This fall, NEW YORK ALPHA VIRGINIA BANER DEWEY moved to New York with her husband, Robert, to assist him in hosting and planning alumni events for Syracuse University at the Lubin House, the university's alumni and educational center in the city. Virginia and Robert also plan to remain active in the Syracuse, New York community.

After almost 60 years, GEORGIA ALPHA JANICE TROY UTLEY met her childhood pen pal from England for the first time this past August. The two started corresponding while in elementary school during World War II.

The KNOXVILLE, TENNESSEE ALUMNAE CLUB hosted its annual Beach Blanket Bingo party for the Tennessee Gamma Chapter where club members presented seniors with a memory frame, an instant photo of the seniors in attendance, and a list of the top 10 reasons to join an alumnae club after graduation. Club members also held a meeting at the home of Tennessee Gamma Elizabeth Nelson Peebles. Elizabeth is a doll collector and she encouraged club members to bring their dolls to the meeting to have them appraised and to learn how to best care for them. At the home of Michigan Gamma Jill Beaver Ottinger, the club held an officer training meeting where the Alumnae Advisory Committee, House Corporation and Alumnae Club Executive Board could share ideas and plan for the coming academic year.

MARYLAND BETA MARION COPPING LISEHORA won 14 gold metals in 18 events at the Delaware Senior Olympics last year and is currently competing in 22 events in the 2000 state games.

ABOVE MIDDLE: Twenty-three members from several late '60s and early '70s pledge classes of California Delta held a reunion at Three Arch Bay in South Laguna, California on Saturday, July 29. The event drew Pi Phis from as far as Hawaii.

ABOVE: Utah Alpha Laurel Ingham walked across the Sydney Harbour Bridge in Sydney, Australia with more than 300,000 people during Corroboree 2000. The walk was to show support for official reconciliation by the Australian government with the Aboriginal community. This was only the third time the bridge has been open solely for walkers since its construction in 1932.

For the past 25 years, OKLAHOMA ALPHA JANIE REDING EMERY has painted portraits for people across the nation including Caspar W. Weinberger, who is Chairman of the Board of Forbes Magazine and is the former U.S. Secretary of Defense and the former U.S. Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare. Janie is also a two-time survivor of breast cancer. During the 2000 calendar year, she is donating 20 percent of all her commissions to benefit research projects of the Susan G.

Komen Breast Cancer Foundation. Janie, who is based in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, recently completed portraits of Nancy Goodman Brinker (pictured) the founding chairman and president of the foundation, and her late sister, Susan Goodman Komen. She also recently donated a commission at the Dallas, Texas, Cattle Baron's Ball benefitting the American Cancer Society, and she is planning to donate a commission for the Pink Tie Ball in New York City.

Montana Alpha Mary Hansen Sandner hosted the first event of the academic year for the SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA ALUMNAE CLUB. Members enjoyed dinner and a Cookie Shine at Mary's home. In October club members visited Embarcadero Farmer's Market and gathered snacks for a picnic lunch. Club members also participated in the 10th Annual Bay Area Race for the Cure.

The CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA ALUMNAE CLUB held its annual poinsettias sale. Members also sold Exam Boxes, composed of homemade goodies and donated items, for North Carolina Beta and North Carolina Gamma collegians. Through the two fund-raisers, the club made more than $1,300 which they will use to send one delegate to convention and send another delegate to a Regional Leadership Retreat.

You may have seen TEXAS DELTA TARA WATSON as she competed in Miss America October 2000. Her platform was AIDS awareness and education. After graduation, Tara plans to obtain a master's degree of science in speech language pathology. Tara is originally from Lufkin, Texas.

The CHICAGO SOUTH SUBURBAN ALUMNAE CLUB recently added two new zip code areas, Mokena and Tinley Park, to the club roster. Special honorees at the club's Founders' Day Celebration at Prestwick Country Club on April 29 included Pi Phis from the newly added areas and Golden Arrow members. Illinois Alpha Dorothy Ternig, Illinois Alpha Lauren Veceles and Illinois Iota Cindy Vacca Murray are all from the Tinley Park area and Indiana Epsilon Joan Zacharias Scheel is a Golden Arrow.

The Dallas-Fort Worth Hospital Council recently named OKLAHOMA ALPHA STEPHANIE ADAMS DAVIS as one of three North Texas Hospital Employees of the Year. Stephanie is a social worker at the Women's Health Centers at Presbyterian Hospital of Dallas. On average, Stephanie helps 10 prenatal and postpartum patients daily, as well as facilitates adoptions and foster care arrangements, coordinates home health care for patients and educates maternity and postpartum patients on safety issues, baby care basics, family planning and parenting. As a certified child safety seat technician, Stephanie also teaches car safety classes monthly. Stephanie is a member of the Dallas, Texas Junior Night Group.

The Indiana University chapters of Pi Beta Phi and Delta Upsilon jointly sponsored a philanthropic event to benefit Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD). Tickets for the event were sold throughout the campus and community, giving people the possibility to participate in a Jeep kissing marathon to win a Jeep Wrangler. To support both the Pi Phi chapter and her husband's alma mater chapter of Delta Upsilon, IOWA ALPHA CAROLYN OTTINGER KOVENER bought a ticket while at her last meeting as a member of Indiana Beta's Alumnae Advisory Committee. Although Carolyn's ticket was drawn, she did not kiss the Jeep nearly as long as the winner, a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon who kissed it 31 hours and 15 minutes. Carolyn gave the Jeep a quick kiss and bowed out. Through the event, the two chapters gave more than $3,000 to MADD.

OKLAHOMA ALPHA 1983-85 pledge classes held a reunion at the chapter house this summer. The weekend was full of fun, fellowship and a Cookie Shine.

KENTUCKY ALPHA celebrated its 75th Anniversary at the University of Louisville. The event began on Friday, September 29, with a reception for Pi Phis and their spouses at the home of Ontario Beta Donna Alford Lansing and her husband, Allan. Pi Phis and their spouses enjoyed live entertainment and hors d'oeuvres on the beautiful fall evening as they caught up with one other. On Saturday, September 30, members convened at the University Club for a brunch. Attending the brunch was one of the chapter's founding members, Thelma Knebelkamp Long, along with three of her granddaughters who are also Kentucky

Alphas: Leslie Long Olson, Elisabeth Long Young and Annemarie Long Wilson. Thelma was given a tribute by her granddaughter, Leslie, and was honored with a special award to commemorate her life-long dedication to Pi Beta Phi. Thelma was still as enthusiastic about Pi Phi as the pledges and collegiate members that were present at the event. Other highlights included a letter from Mayor Dave Armstrong who officially declared Saturday, September 30, 2000, as "The Kentucky Alpha Chapter of Pi Beta Phi Day" in Louisville. Kentucky Alpha Karen Boone, an artist who has created several of the Official Kentucky Derby Posters, created a special anniversary piece and donated it to the Kentucky Alpha chapter house. After the program and dedication, Karen autographed smaller versions of the print for all Pi Phis present. A tour of the chapter house concluded the afternoon.

The NORTHERN VIRGINIA ALUMNAE CLUB is busy with several events this season. In September, the club held its annual pot luck dinner and interest group fair. Chapter spirit night and support of the Reading Connection, a literacy outreach program for children living in shelters, took place in October. In November the club held its 9th Annual Angel Exchange and in December club members will celebrate the holidays during the Beaux and Arrow Holiday Party. The club also awarded its annual $1,000 scholarship for continuing education to Pennsylvania Kappa Barbara MacNeill, a dental student at the University of Pennsylvania. Information about NVAC can be found in Arrow Gram, the club's quarterly newsletter.

ABOVE LEFT: June 9, Texas Eta Paige Lewellen Nordell participated in the "Brocyckling" on the recently completed bridge between Sweden and Denmark. Twenty thousand people from each country participated in the biking event, which was one of several events to celebrate the bridge's opening. The bridge joins the two countries for the first time since the Ice Age. Paige and her husband, Joakim, live in Sweden where she is a paralegal in the patent department at Ericsson Mobile Communications AB.

ABOVE MIDDLE: A group of Iowa Alphas continue to keep in touch through a round-robin letter that began in 1948. Roberta Hauenstein Johnson says that everyone continued to write the letters because they "enjoyed receiving the letters so much that you wanted to send it to the next person. We knew the sooner we sent the letters, the sooner the letter would come back around. We were all anxious to hear about the new baby or other personal news." The letters have traveled all over the United States and the world including the Philippines, Japan, Iran and Venezuela. Every few years the group gets together for a reunion.

ABOVE: The Central Maryland Alumnae Club teamed up with the Northern Virginia Alumnae Club to participate in Washington D.C.'s Race for the Cure. Central Maryland club members also made educational aids for the Harriet Tubman Grassroots Shelter.

SANTA FE, NEW MEXICO ALUMNAE CLUB members recently enjoyed a tour of the famous Santa Fe Opera facilities and grounds. They also attended a fun luncheon and tour at New Mexico Alpha Dorothy Harroun's mountaintop home overlooking Santa Fe and the surrounding mountains. On October 22, club members enjoyed an Arrowmont art and craft exhibition at the LewAllen Contemporary Art Gallery in Santa Fe with a private gallery reception for Arrowmont Director Arizona Beta Sandy Blain.

While in graduate school at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville CALIFORNIA ETA BRIDGETTE JEFFCOAT accepted a graduate assistantship in the panhellenic office. Currently, while the Director of Panhellenic is on maternity leave, Bridgette is the university's Interim Director of Panhellenic. She is also a Knoxville, Tennessee Alumnae Club member and serves on Tennessee Gamma's Alumnae Advisory Committee as the VP Mental and Secretary counterparts.

ILLINOIS ALPHAS always love returning to Holt House since it holds such special memories of their college days in Monmouth, Illinois. So alumnae were excited when an alumni weekend was held at Monmouth College June 2-4, 2000. One of the events of the weekend included attending an open house at Holt House. During their visit, Karin Richter Herriott and Barbara Divinsky Brundage placed a plaque in Holt House's Illinois Alpha room in memory of fellow Illinois Alpha member Janet Miller Willhardt.

From Pi Phi Pens

People worldwide still enjoy KANSAS ALPHA EDITH STODARD WEIGAND's first book, "Out of the Fury," a story of a Holocaust survivor, which has been translated into Polish, Russian and German. In 1995, Edith wrote a whimsical tale about her Scottish Terrier, "The Adventures of Donnechad's Piper." This work won her acclaim as a children's writer and subsequently, she became an associate staff writer for Great Scots Magazine and a member of the Dog Writers Association of America. Edith published a second book about another one of her Scotties titled "Scottie-Robbie: The Story of a True Champion," last February.

Syracuse University Press recently published MICHIGAN ALPHA DOROTHY COLLINS SWANSON's book "The Story of Viewers of Quality Television: From Grassroots to Prime Time," with forwards by journalist Linda Ellerbee and actress Dana Delaney. The book documents Dorothy's work over the last 15 years with the non-profit organization she founded to advocate quality television, Viewers for Quality Television (VQT). Through VQT Dorothy devised a system in which viewers could collectively voice their opinions to those responsible for continuing or discontinuing shows. On several occasions, VQT succeeded in convincing network executives to reconsider programs that would have been cancelled under normal business practices. "Cagney and Lacey," "Designing Women," "Homefront," "Brooklyn Bridge," "I'll Fly Away" and "The Practice" were all at one time influenced by VQT.

CHRISTINA BONDURANT KEFFLER, Rebecca Donnelly and Suzanne Etman, give reasons and definitions of the world's basic virtues such as compassion, loyalty, prudence and sociability in their book "Garden of Virtues: Planting Seeds of Goodness." The women speak frequently to groups about teaching virtues to children and are the creators of a calendar by the same name. Laura Bush endorses the book as "a colorful reminder that some of the greatest lessons in life are learned at home."

Artists-In-Residence David Mark DeLaitsch, Kimberly Geib, Eben Dickinson, Leigh Cohen and Steven Colby work at Arrowmont as they develop their portfolios and hone their skills.

2000–2001 Artists-In-Residence

Arrowmont's Artist-In-Residence program is home to five new artists for the 2000–01 year. The program is designed to give pre-professional, self-directed artists time and space to develop a major body of work in a creative community environment of students and visiting faculty. The 11-month program allows the artists to participate in Arrowmont's one- and two-week workshops, special media conferences, seminars, community classes, Elderhostel and community outreach programs.

David Mark DeLaitsch is a potter from Houston, Texas. He received his bachelor's degree of fine arts at Alfred University, Alfred, New York.

Metalsmith Kimberly A. Geib is from Wilmington, Delaware. In 1996, She received her bachelor's degree of fine arts with a concentration in metals, at the University of Delaware.

Eben Dickinson is a two-dimensional artist from San Luis Obispo, California, who received his bachelor's degree of arts from Willamette University, Salem, Oregon in 2000.

Leigh Cohen is a ceramacist from Lincoln, Nebraska who received her master's degree in fine arts in 2000 from the University of Nebraska and her bachelor's degree of fine arts from the University of Miami. She has also studied ceramics at the University of Massachusetts, Dartmouth and recently completed an assistantship/residency at John Michael Kohler Arts Center, Sheboygan, Wisconsin.

Potter Steven Colby is from Clifton, New Jersey. He received his bachelor's of fine arts in 1999 from New York State College of Ceramics, Alfred, New York. He was also a summer assistant at Arrowmont in 1999.

Taking Time to Make the Grade

- Make sure you have a daily planner and use it! Have a day-by-day, as well as a weekly overview. Put every assignment and exam in your date book along with work, chapter and campus obligations.
- When you feel overwhelmed, break things down into small parts and do them one at a time.
- Be a first timer — get it done, and get it done right the first time, but beware of perfectionism. Don't waste time regretting things that did not go as planned. Set realistic goals.
- Recognize that inevitably some of your time will be spent on activities outside your control and do not get worked up over it.
- Value your time. Listen well and take care of yourself. Remember to eat well, exercise and get enough sleep.

Washington Alphas Julie Maytum, Megan Spriestersbach and Jessica Jones along with Harry the Husky enjoy a University of Washington football game. Megan is a member of the university's track team. Suzanne Culpepper plays varsity soccer.

The OHIO ZETA Chapter placed third in Miami University's Greek Week competition. The games lasted for an entire week and included kickball, soccer, speed pyramid, handball, ultimate frisbee, football and volleyball.

ONTARIO GAMMAS at the University of Guelph participated in the annual indoor beach volleyball tournament held in the University Center. The chapter competed against many of the other student clubs and campus organizations.

The ALABAMA GAMMA Chapter has a well established history of enthusiastic participation in a variety of sports at Auburn University. Chapter members participate in intramural basketball, swimming, soccer and football and won first place in the inner tube race at last spring's intramural swim meet. Halina Obremsky is on the university's diving team.

At the University of Richmond, VIRGINIA ETAS Andrea Fuller, Tiffany Watson, Devon Fallon, Margaret O'Connor and Anne Van Scoy play club soccer.

IOWA ETAS are proud to represent Pi Phi at Drake University through intramural sports such as flag football, volleyball, basketball and broomball. Chapter members are also proud of their varsity athletes like Elizabeth Brockman who is co-captain of the varsity cheerleading squad and Sarah Hill who is a member of the varsity crew team.

OHIO ALPHAS at Miami University are focusing on volleyball this fall. Not only will members be participating in intramural volleyball, but they will also take part in Alpha Omicron Pi's philanthropic event, a volleyball tournament, to raise money for the Arthritis Research Foundation.

PENNSYLVANIA BETAS at Bucknell University participate in a variety of intramural and varsity sports including lacrosse, field hockey, tennis, rugby and soccer.

More than a quarter of NEW JERSEY ALPHAS are Princeton University varsity athletes. Julia Beaver, Jennifer Shingleton and Helen Smith play squash. Their team won the National Championships in 1998 and 1999. Julia was 1998 and 1999 Ivy Player of the Year, 1999 Intercollegiate Individual Champion, 2000 Ivy Player of the Year and Intercollegiate Individual Champion, and in 1998, 1999 and 2000 was First Team All American. Adele McCarthy-Beauvais, Katherine Kixmiller, Megan Bouchier and Lisa Rockefeller are on the water polo team. Adele was also on the junior national team this past summer, which qualified for World's next winter in Australia. She was also on the Senior B team last winter and was a Second Team All American last spring. Martha Moore and Emily Brown, a First Team All-Ivy selection, play volleyball. Brianne Galicinao and Elizabeth Callaway play varsity softball. Brianne was named Player of the Week and Pitcher of the Week three times last season, received Second Team All-Ivy honors and threw a perfect game. Laura Kornhauser plays ice hockey with Melissa Deland, who also plays lacrosse. Elizabeth Boothby, Mali Friedman, Samantha Gingold and Gailor Large play varsity tennis. Gailor was First Team All Ivy in 1999 and is currently the team captain. Anne Austin rows on the crew team, which placed 6th in the NCAA last spring.

TEXAS BETAS at Southern Methodist University participate in such intramural sports as soccer, flag football and volleyball. Varsity athletes include Julie Crooks who plays golf, Emily Childers who is on the women's rowing team and Sara Swaney and Katie Pruett, both members of the women's tennis team.

ABOVE LEFT: This year, Texas Zetas are preparing to keep their intramural championship titles in flag football (pictured), softball, volleyball, basketball, golf, track, swimming and soccer. "The key is to go out there and have fun," intramural chairman Meredith Tenney says. "I've made some of my closet friends and best memories during intramural games." Sports for these women do not stop at the intramural level. Danielle Gurney is a member of Baylor University's varsity soccer team and Kirsten Ward is playing club soccer. Anne Householder runs track for the university and Amanda Edgmon cheers on the Baylor Bears as a varsity cheerleader.

Four Oklahoma Betas, including Gina Gowens and Amanda Burke (above), are members of the pom squad at Oklahoma State University and one member is a cheerleader. Chapter members also excel in intramural sports where they have the privilege of receiving coaching for flag football from the quarterback, kicker, tight end and receiver of OSU's Cowboy football team. Last year, the chapter won intramural sports overall and are looking forward this year to playing co-recreational intramural sports with the men of Phi Gamma Delta.

At Marquette University, WISCONSIN DELTAS Lori Sass is a varsity cheerleader. Carolyn Alsamit competes on an advanced intramural tennis team. Katherine Cashman is on the ski team. Michelle Dulski is preparing to compete in a triathlon. Last year, Mia Gentithes ran in the Boston marathon. The whole chapter participated in Greek Week games that included basketball, tug of war, flag football, volleyball, pool and darts.

Several NORTH CAROLINA GAMMAS play varsity sports for Wake Forest University including Heather Wilkie a defensive specialist for the volleyball team and soccer team members Rachael Lewis, Sarah Noftsinger and Tracy Chao.

NEW MEXICO BETA Chapter members are excited to start off their co-ed intramural year with football, which they play with the men of Alpha Tau Omega.

Although NEVADA ALPHAS participate in most of the intramural sports offered at the University of Nevada including soccer, volleyball, softball and floor hockey, the sport for which members get most fired up is flag football. At the end of each season, Pi Kappa Alphas sponsor the Sorority Bowl to raise funds for their philanthropy. Nevada Alphas have won the championship for the past three years.

California Gammas Christy Politowski (left) and Melissa Loper are members of the University of Southern California dance team that performs at all home basketball games. Anita Loyola (right) is on the tennis team. Breanna Bailey, Sheila Raja and Hannah Gamez are song leaders for USC's football team. Shaelyn Fernandes is on the university's soccer team. All of these women are also actively involved in their chapter. Melissa is Chapter Treasurer and Brianna is the Social Chairman.

IOWA BETAS are active contributors to Simpson College's softball, tennis, volleyball, swimming, track, cross country and basketball programs. Two chapter members are part of the university's 1999 Division II National Softball Champion team. Three Pi Phis on the university swimming team established several personal best records, set eight individual school records and contributed to four different school relay records. Seven chapter members perform with Sweet Sixteen, Simpson's drill team and three members serve as captains.

Last spring, MICHIGAN ALPHAS Amanda Wilson, Lindsay Berlin and Laura Spohn walked on to the women's varsity soccer team at Hillsdale College. Already the women have made an impact on the team, each having scored at least one goal. Chapter members still dominate intramural football and commit at least one team to play basketball and volleyball.

TENNESSEE BETAS Kate Burson and Eloise Harper play tennis for Vanderbilt University. Kinsey Osberg plays lacrosse for the university and Amanda Negron and Kylene Kownurko are members of the track team.

MONTANA ALPHA Sarah Wilkins was crowned Miss Rodeo Western Montana. Sarah participates in barrel racing, goat tying and breakaway roping. Lauren Wing is a Bobcat cheerleader and Hillary Haren is working as an intern for the Montana State University's volleyball department. The chapter is also the reigning champion of flag football.

INDIANA BETA Courtney Sutter has been an active advocate for establishing a Division I field hockey team at Indiana University. "Creating a collegiate-level, Big Ten team is extremely hard work, both physically and emotionally," she says. The university hasn't had such a team since 1982, but did re-establish one in 1999. Courtney is a starting left forward for the new Hoosier team.

WYOMING ALPHA is the defending champion of intramural women's soccer at the University of Wyoming. Heidi Martin is a member of the university's club rugby team and Katie Brogren and Dawn Anderson perform in monthly productions through the school dance program. Several chapter members participate through a new program called Lariats in which women work with the Wyoming Cowboy football program in its recruiting process. Members are also involved in the Cowboy basketball program as members of the 6th Man Club.

MISSISSIPPI BETAS excel in intramural sports such as soccer, flag football and bowling and are undefeated in volleyball. Kira Zschau plays volleyball for the University of Mississippi and Dallas Bird is a member of the university's soccer team.

There are 21 VIRGINIA GAMMAS who are varsity athletes for the College of William and Mary. The sports these women play include lacrosse, field hockey, soccer, gymnastics, volleyball, golf and basketball. In intramural sports, the chapter has won flag football, whiffle ball and croquet.

INDIANA ZETA Jessica Wright is a member of the Ball State University equestrian team. Jessica has been riding hunters and jumpers for 10 years. She participated in the regional competitions last year and not only received high point rider for Ball State in her division, but was the only hunt seat rider to do so from the team. The team also competes in the international Intercollegiate Horse Show Association (IHSA). A few minutes before the IHSA competitions, the rider picks out of a hat the name of the horse that he is to ride. Through this choosing, the rider is able to show his good judgement and ability aside from the horse's training.

TEXAS DELTA members include two Dallas Cowboy cheerleaders, two Texas Christian University cheerleaders, a golfer, a soccer player and three swimmers.

The CALIFORNIA BETA Chapter has 20 varsity athletes competing in a variety of sports at the University of California, Berkeley. Thirteen women are members of the women's water polo team, which is usually ranked among the top three in the nation. Six women participate in Division I lacrosse. One freshman rows for the university's crew team. Dina Khashoggi and Linden Bader have joined the club soccer team.

VIRGINIA ZETAS Danielle Thorsen and Meghan Steele play club field hockey for Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. Tiffany Keplinger is captain of the Virginia Tech water polo team. M.C. Dvoroznak and Lindsay Michael help students stay in shape by teaching cardio-boxing and cycling through the university's fitness program.

ABOVE LEFT: To encourage intramural sports participation Florida Alphas at Stetson University have developed a chapter spirit committee. Committee members give a prize each week to the most spirited fan and the MVP for one of the sports. They also make signs and banners to take to the games and place signs on teammates' doors before a big game. Currently, the chapter's flag football team (pictured) is undefeated.

ABOVE MIDDLE: Pennsylvania Kappa Jen Reid runs cross country for Lehigh University. Other members play university and club sports including swimming, diving, track and field, soccer, crew, rugby and gymnastics. Chapter members have also dominated intramural sports as champions in volleyball, soccer and flag football. For their achievements members were named the spring 2000 intramural champions during the annual Greek awards banquet.

ABOVE: Kansas Beta's three-on-three women's volleyball team made it to the playoffs for the past two consecutive years, and the chapter's volleyball team has won the Sigma Chi Derby Days competition (pictured). Several Pi Phis are members of Kansas State University's Classy Cats dance team and the cheerleading squad. Aubree Moore pole vaults and Jamie Thurman runs the 800 meter for the track team. Beth Fountaine, Lindsey Hill and Andrea Hendrix are members of the new equestrian team.

Kentucky Betas at the University of Kentucky placed first in Pi Kappa Alpha's Basketball Jam, its annual philanthropic event. Members also participated in Sigma Pi's philanthropic Superbowl. Emily Barnell, Julie Taylor and Emily White are involved in the Kentucky Wildcat Danzers that perform at various sports events including the Lexington Thoroughblades' hockey games. Angela Barre works as a state official for high school volleyball games and is a swimming coach at a local high school, as well.

Last semester, South Dakota Alphas played intramural basketball and softball with the men of Beta Theta Pi at the University of South Dakota. This semester, chapter members including Dixie Rounds and Leilani Smith (above), are participating in flag football with the men of Sigma Alpha Epsilon and are playing volleyball with the men of Phi Delta Theta. South Dakota Alphas are defending their undefeated volleyball title. Lindsey Sturm plays soccer for the university. Jacklyn Boub and Tamika Williams run track.

MICHIGAN EPSILONS at Western Michigan University participate in other Greek organizations' philanthropic activities including Delta Chi's annual powder puff football tournament, Alpha Xi Delta's Soccer Cup, Alpha Chi Omega's Crack the Bat and Sigma Kappa's Volleyfest. Members are also preparing for their own philanthropic event with Alpha Sigma Phi called Mud Tug. Currently, the chapters are the only two Greek chapters on campus to sponsor a philanthropic event that is open to the entire campus, not just the Greek community.

CALIFORNIA ALPHAS participate in several varsity sports at Stanford University including tennis, synchronized swimming, track and field, crew, field hockey and rugby. The campus intra-fraternity and panhellenic councils are sponsoring Spike-N-Jam, a volleyball tournament. Members are both participating in the games and volunteering in the booths.

PENNSYLVANIA THETA Allison Majczan is part of Villanova University's championship intramural volleyball team. The team won at the university, local and regional levels to become Inner City 6 Champions. While competing against other universities, including Temple, LaSalle and Drexel Universities the team maintained an undefeated record.

During Greek Week games at Illinois State University, ILLINOIS IOTAS participated with Phi Sigma Kappa in such games as the wheel barrow race, tug of war, a pyramid competition and an egg race. Intramural sports that chapter members compete in include basketball, swimming, softball, soccer and badminton.

After permanently damaging her rotator cuffs as a JV cheerleader for the University of Alabama, ALABAMA BETA Jamie Wilkes was offered the head coaching position of the JV cheer squad. Jennifer Durbin is starting her second year on the award winning Alabama Crimson Cabaret Dance Team. Cheryl Howell has twirled with the majorettes at Alabama for three consecutive years.

MICHIGAN BETAS have been the intramural sports champions in the sorority division at the University of Michigan for the past two years. Last year alone, they were individual champions in water polo, volleyball and track and field. They came in second in basketball, flag football and broomball.

NEBRASKA BETA recently claimed the title 2000 Champions of Sigma Chi's Derby Days partly by winning a volleyball tournament. The chapter along with the men of Phi Gamma Delta were also honorary champions of co-recreational intramural soccer at the University of Nebraska. Members recently took part in Alpha Tau Omega's annual philanthropic ATO Softball.

VIRGINIA THETA Nicola Carpenter is a member of the women's varsity track team at Washington and Lee University. Sara Heusel plays volleyball for the Generals and Allison Harvey is co-captain of the women's swim team. Kimberly Russell, Tracy Stitt and Kimberly Kreider are members of the riding team. Bethany Petrofsky, Charron Hodges and Sybil Prince dance with the R.E. Belles dance team. Chapter members won both intramural bowling and the cross country Turkey Trot race.

KANSAS ALPHA Lauren Murphy is a Crimson Girls team member, a dance squad that performs at the University of Kansas varsity sports events. Other chapter members participate in intramural basketball and soccer in which they claimed the championships in both. They also participate in softball, tennis and sand volleyball.

Texas Alpha Abby Newman cheers on the varsity cheerleading squad at the University of Texas.

Indoor and outdoor soccer, flag football, floor hockey, softball, basketball and volleyball are just a few of the intramural sports INDIANA THETAS participate in. Several chapter members also participate in varsity sports for Valparaiso University. Jenny Rohren plays varsity volleyball and Jessica Grant is on the university dance team. Out of six women on the cheerleading squad, four of them are Indiana Thetas: Dina Mangano, Nicole Squires, Rebecca Testa and Katrina Kidston. Last year, Alison Weaver played tennis and Jessica Radtke played softball, as well.

WASHINGTON BETA members Erin Coffey and Abbie Rayner have been on the chapter's intramural softball team at Washington State University for the past year and a half. Last semester, the team along with the men of Alpha Gamma Rho made it to the final championship round. "It's a fun way to get involved with other chapters and people on campus and have the opportunity to play such a fun sport," Erin says.

LOUISIANA ALPHAS enjoy their involvement in Tulane University varsity sports. Stephanie Donaldson, Emily McArthur and Megan Stack play soccer; Lauren Melchiorre cheers; and Megan Long and Brenna Wurtz are members of Shockwave, Tulane's dance team. Last spring, the chapter's intramural soccer team consisted of nine current and former varsity soccer players and was the only all-female team to participate in the co-ed intramural league. The team won all but one game against predominately male teams.

ABOVE LEFT: More than half of the Colorado School of Mines cheerleading squad are Pi Phis. Colorado Deltas Anne Barnhart, Mariah Forte, Sarah Ghiazza, Leah Hooten, Trisha and Traci Olson along with the school mascot, Blaster, cheer at every football and basketball game. Anne and Sarah serve the squad as captains. Other varsity athletes include Karrie Rein who plays varsity softball for the school. Ruth Coors coaches the sophomore volleyball team at D'Evelyn High School in Golden, Colorado.

ABOVE MIDDLE: The Pennsylvania Epsilon Chapter along with another campus fraternity organize a softball tournament to raise money for Links to Literacy. This year the two chapters donated $2,000 to the Mid State Literacy Fund.

Collegiate

News

Last fall, the TEXAS ALPHA intramural soccer team earned first place in its division and finished the season undefeated. The chapter's basketball team received second place in its division while suffering only one defeat. Several chapter members also play varsity sports at the University of Texas. Alysa Van Dusen is on the Lady Longhorn volleyball team. Elizabeth Munding is a member of the women's golf team. Emily Rostvold is a dance team member and Shea Squires is a member of the Roustabouts dance team. Amy Teten is a cycling team member and Emily Andrews, Lauren Stephens and Pepper Ippolito are members of the water skiing team. Last February, Quincy deSpain competed in the Olympic Trials for Arabian Dressage riding and placed 10th.

At the University of Southern Mississippi, MISSISSIPPI ALPHAS won intramural flag football, floor hockey, volleyball, co-rec volleyball and flag football, ultimate frisbee, soccer and bowling. Chapter members also placed first in Alpha Delta Phi's Rock-N-Bowl and first in Pi Kappa Alpha's annual powder puff flag football. The chapter placed third in Kappa Sigma's volleyball tournament.

NEBRASKA GAMMAS placed third in the all-university divisions of volleyball, basketball and soccer and are currently playing in the flag football league. Chapter members also participated in Creighton University's homecoming week co-ed flag football tournament with the men of Phi Delta Theta and will participate in the Theta Phi Alpha co-ed philanthropy volleyball tournament. Junior Kristi Kuhl recently qualified for Creighton's traveling golf team.

Georgia Alpha Keri O'Connell is a member of the University of Georgia's club equestrian team.

COLORADO GAMMAS took third place in the intramural division at last spring's Greek Night Out at Colorado State University. This year, members are competing in flag football, softball and Pepsi Ball, a unique combination of soccer, dodge ball and lacrosse. Chapter members' favorite intramural sports are inline hockey and inner-tube water polo. Meredith Friermood and Nicole Morley are active in karate and Erin Muehlenkamp is a CSU pom squad member.

Last spring, IDAHO ALPHA members and the men of Phi Gamma Delta played co-ed intramural basketball at the University of Idaho. Chapter members also played co-ed soccer with the men of Sigma Chi. The chapter's recreational flag football team won the championship, and this year the team's record is currently 2-0. Jacqueline Huff is a four-year member of the university's varsity golf team.

INDIANA GAMMAS Kerry O'Connor and Jerilyn Houcek helped organize Spring Sport Spectacular, an all-night sporting event, held in Butler University's basketball gymnasium, Hinkle Fieldhouse. The annual event lasts 12 hours, from 8 p.m. on Friday to 8 a.m. on Saturday and involves sport competitions, including basketball, volleyball, soccer and swimming, between all the housing units. Indiana Gammas placed first in the mile sprint and billiards.

Last winter, two WASHINGTON GAMMAS, Regan Wilson and Abbey Baca, completed a successful year on the University of Puget Sound's ski team. In the spring, Pippa Fordwood, Kristine Reehl, Adi Schwartzman, Malissa Robertson and Kari Davison rowed on the university's crew team. Ann Kellett and Shannon Koszarek play lacrosse.

This September, INDIANA EPSILONS placed third in women's intramural football at DePauw University. The DePauw women's soccer team is also off to a great start this year with the help of three sophomore Pi Phis, Shannon Fimbel, Katie Busch and Mary Palecek. The Lady Tigers currently have a ranking of fifth in the nation for division three schools, which is their best ranking ever. In addition to its outstanding national ranking, the team is ranked first in its division, the Great Lakes Region, with a record of 5-0-1. According to goalie Mary Palecek the team has allowed only four goals overall and has had three shutouts.

FLORIDA BETA members at Florida State University are involved in intramural sports such as football, volleyball, racquetball, tennis and swimming.

Of the sports offered at Monmouth College, ILLINOIS ALPHAS run cross country, dance and play softball, soccer and golf. Plus, half of the varsity cheerleading squad is Pi Phis.

For the third consecutive year, TENNESSEE DELTA was named the women's intramural sorority champions of the year. In addition to the overall sorority champions title, the chapter also won the overall campus women's basketball championship for the spring, a feat no other sorority has ever accomplished. Lindsay Allen, Keli Allsbrooks, Katherine Bryant, Theresa Bailey and Linea Wyatt, are members on the 10-time national, championship winning University of Memphis pom squad. Keli serves as the squad's captain. Marissa Campbell and Jessica McWilliams are cheerleaders.

ABOVE MIDDLE: Erin Gollhofer, Jamie Creekmore, Franci Erdmann and Meredith Kelley (pictured) were part of Missouri Gamma's flag football team that played in Kappa Delta's charity flag football tournament at Drury University. Chapter members enjoy watching the university's women's soccer team, especially since captain Anne Beard leads players Angela Murphy, Rebecca Lins, Julie Hunkins and Catherine Hauser in playing their best. Danielle Drury plays tennis for the university. Chapter President Jill Taylor is also captain of the cheerleading squad that includes members Allison Scott and Lola Jett.

ABOVE: Intramural sports that Arizona Gammas are involved in at Northern Arizona University include soccer (pictured), flag football, volleyball, softball and water polo. Last spring, chapter members were champions in both soccer and softball.

Oklahoma Alphas are working to remain the champions of flag football and Sigma Chi Derby Days during which the chapter raises money for the Children's Miracle Network while playing volleyball and other games. So far this year in intramural sports, the chapter has placed first in co-ed softball. Starria Smith and Lauren Falkner are members of the University of Oklahoma co-ed cheerleading squad. Kristine Mankanani is a member of the all-woman cheer squad. Jennifer Prochaska is part of the JV pom squad.

Badge Day

Enduring Values, Eternal Friendships

As a sorority woman, there is much to be proud of on International Badge Day. The member organizations of the National Panhellenic Conference encourage women to become confident leaders on their campuses and in their communities. Membership in a Greek organization fosters community responsibility and philanthropic efforts. Moreover, Greeks know the priceless gift of lifetime friendship. All of these attributes shape college women into responsible citizens and civic leaders of the world community.

"As Greek women around the continent display their badges on International Badge Day, they can take pride in knowing that to be Greek is to embody the enduring values that we all believe in: community involvement and pride, academic achievement, leadership, integrity and lifetime friendships," NPC Chairman and Kappa Kappa Gamma Marian K. Williams says.

The theme for this year's Badge Day is "Enduring Values, Eternal Friendships." As part of this day, join women world wide as they reflect on the lasting skills learned while in college and the enduring opportunities that their member groups have offered them.

Last year for Badge Day, Tennessee Delta Mary Lu Pendergrast Meixell and California Delta Karen Shelton Chevalier wore their badges and posed in front of U.S. News and World Report, where they work.

Celebration Ideas

- Host a regional alumnae/collegiate luncheon celebration. Focus on NPC history and the contributions famous Greek women have made to society. Focus on Pi Phi's history and the ideals upon which the Founders built this organization.
- Donate toiletries, blankets and clothing items to women's shelters in your area.
- Select a volunteer activity in which your chapter or club can participate with another NPC group in honor of International Badge Day.
- Honor distinguished Pi Beta Phi alumnae with a luncheon or dinner event. Ask them to speak on how Greek membership has helped them succeed in their lives.
- Host an information booth on your campus; create a flyer with information about the NPC organizations that have chapters on your campus; or visit local high schools to inform students about Greek life.
- If you know other fraternity/sorority alumnae in your office or workplace, plan to wear your badges and go to lunch to celebrate your Panhellenic sisterhood.
- Send a press release to your local newspaper and/or campus paper about NPC Badge Day. Include information about local contributions, philanthropic support and community service by NPC chapters at your school or in your alumnae membership area.
- Meet with other alumnae and/or collegiate panhellenics in your state or city and ask the governor or mayor to pronounce March 5, 2001 as Panhellenic or Sisterhood Day. Send a news release to local newspapers and television stations.

Coming Soon Members-only Web site

Pi Beta Phi is pleased to announce the development of a members-only Web site featuring an online directory to help you connect with your sisters. We will include a listing of each member with her address, telephone number(s) and e-mail address. Only Pi Beta Phi members registered with the site will be able to access the directory.

If you do not want to be included in the directory, please notify Central Office by January 15, 2001 via e-mail at centraloffice@piphico.org or via telephone at (314) 727-7338. Watch for more information about the new features of the Web site's private side in future issues of The ARROW and on the Web at www.pibetaphi.org.

Celebrating Alumnae Club Anniversaries

Each year thousands of Pi Phis receive an invitation to return to their chapters to celebrate and participate in the celebration of the anniversary of their chartering.

But there are other important anniversary celebrations for you, the alumnae. Pi Phi has many alumnae clubs across the country that are ready to recognize a significant anniversary that celebrates the chartering of their clubs.

How can your club plan a celebration? First, select a chairman, or better yet co-chairmen. Then check to see if your club has the "Anniversary Celebrations Manual" available through Central Office. After reviewing the manual, contact Anniversary Celebrations Coordinator Nancy Trogman, ntrogman@aol.com, for advice.

The Pi Beta Phi Web site lists the collegiate chapter and alumnae club anniversary celebrations for the current year. Get your club's plans on the site by contacting the Anniversary Celebrations Coordinator or the Web master at Central Office (314) 727-7338. Go to www.pibetaphi.org/events/evfram.htm and check out the upcoming anniversaries.

Marilyn Simpson Ford Award Winner

The following article was written by Kappa Sigma Fraternity's former editor and last year's Marilyn Simpson Ford Award winner, W. Len Rayburn, and appeared in the fall 2000 issue of The Fraternity Editor, a CFEA publication.

Holding down dual roles as FarmHouse's Executive Director and Editor hasn't kept Jim Griffith from contributing greatly to the College Fraternity Editors Association. This year, Jim received the 2000 Marilyn Simpson Ford Award from CFEA for his outstanding and continuing service to the organization. The award was established in 1989 by Pi Beta Phi and honors editors for contributions they have made through distinguished service to CFEA.

Since joining the staff of FarmHouse and the ranks of CFEA's new editors in 1995, Jim has tackled several roles in both organizations. Beginning his fraternal career as Director of Chapter Services and Pearls and Rubies editor in 1995, Jim became FarmHouse's Executive Director in 1997. In CFEA, Jim has held the positions of Annual Conference speakers coordinator, Interfraternity liaison, sponsors manager, member of the Board of The 2000 Marilyn Simpson Ford Award winner Jim Griffith.

Directors and treasurer. He currently serves as CFEA's president-elect.

In times of need, Jim has been one of the first and most reliable contributors to helping CFEA advance. His perspective as both an editor and executive director has contributed greatly to CFEA's relationships with other interfraternal organizations.

"It's a real honor to be recognized by my peers for the achievements that we've made and the future that we've paved for CFEA," Jim states. "As a multi-hat wearing exec, I greatly value the opportunities to get together with my CFEA colleagues to learn and brush up on the latest in magazine design, writing and Web technology."

Interested in Starting an Alumnae Club?

Pi Phi invites alumnae members living in the following locations to establish an alumnae club or pocket. If this sounds like fun, but you don't know where to start, don't worry. There is an alumnae extension packet to guide you through establishing a group in your area, just call Central Office or e-mail pat@piphico.org. It's that easy!

New CD

This fall, the Fraternity announced a new Fraternity Orientation tool. This year's pledges received a CD-ROM instead of a traditional paper pledge manual. Included on the CD are video clips of Arrowmont; Fraternity songs; interactive quizzes; and many additional resources previously not available in the pledge manual.

This new tool is also being offered to alumnae of Pi Beta Phi for $25 plus $2.50 shipping and handling. If you're interested in a personal copy of this historical piece, contact Central Office (314) 727-7338.

Remember 1981

The convention chorus during the Historical Night program, 1981.

In 1981, the convention theme was "Friendship Is ..." a theme that has carried through the year 2000 — and will continue to thrive, 20 years later, in 2001 at the 63rd Biennial Convention in Denver, Colorado. The following is an excerpt from the opening address of then Grand President, Jean Wirths Scott, at the 1981 Convention in Dallas, Texas, found in the Summer 1981 issue of The ARROW.

Friendship Is ...

"Friendship" — that's a difficult word to define. If we were to go around the auditorium today and each one define "friendship" in her own personal way, I expect we'd find a multitude of definitions. There have been millions of words written about friendship and yet, because a part of it is love (and that is ultimately inexpressible), even the greatest authors and poets have been unable to perfectly and completely define "friendship." It means something different to each one of us — yet in our Pi Phi friendships there is a "silver link, a golden tie" which "in heart to heart and mind to mind" has bound us together in so many ways. Pi Phi has been the common denominator in creating some very special friendships. Before this week's end, I have every confidence that your personal definition of "friendship" will have expanded beyond your belief.

Pi Phi is the common denominator — if we had sought some other common denominator, we would have chosen a solely academic society, a service club, or perhaps an organization of purely social aims. But aren't we glad — we chose Pi Phi! And aren't we glad those first 12 young ladies organized to "cultivate sincere friendship." The very first object they set forth for Pi Phi in its first constitution was "the advancement of its members in the most delicate yet strong friendship" And those friendships have carried us for 114 years.

Pi Phi has changed in those 114 years, but so has life since 1867. The Fraternity has survived war and peace, poverty and abundance. Our popularity, along with that of the whole Greek system, has experienced periods of waning, then of resurgence. We've learned to adjust with the times — but all the while keeping in mind our values and our standards. It's much like being a mother — after you've spent 12 years learning how to be a mother, your child reaches the teen years — and you have to learn how to be a mother all over again. But your basic values and standards have not changed. After 114 years, I think we can safely and proudly assume that Pi Phi is here to stay. And I think we can safely say that the spirit of friendship has contributed to the foundation of our very existence. The goals, the wisdom and the friendships of our first 12 young ladies have worked to set our direction. It is remarkable that the same friendship experienced by those 12, has now been experienced by more than 129,000. And Pi Phi continues to grow.

We've come together this week to learn, to share, to listen, to laugh and to renew the bonds of that very special friendship that crept into our lives on initiation day. Conventions provide us with an opportunity to realize that we are "National." All officers, staff, each chapter, each alumnae club, every collegian, every alumna ... all together we are "National." Conventions are a time when names become people. It is a time when we get the whole big picture of Pi Phi ... when friendships become the strengthened ties that bind us. It's a time to have our lives enriched by an association with 1,000 new friends of all ages.

- Friendship Is ... being 30, 50 or 70 years old — and understanding a collegian's point of view because you've taken time to understand her. She's your sister.
- Friendship Is ... being a collegian — and understanding an alumna's point of view because she has a few more years of experience and maturity. She's your sister.
- Friendship Is ... knowing how your Pi Phi sister feels even though no words are spoken, you've listened.
- Friendship Is ... respect, working together, understanding, sharing. It is a never ending and intricately entwined chain of linked together friends. Pi Phi friendship is a circle ... no beginning, no ending ... it just is.

Convention 2001

"Mountains, Mines and Memories"

will be experienced in the mile-high city of Denver, Colorado where members of Pi Beta Phi will gather for the Fraternity's 63rd Biennial Convention June 29–July 3, 2001. Our convention accommodations are at the Adam's Mark Denver Hotel, conveniently located in downtown Denver.

Convention 2001 promises opportunities to renew old friendships, make new friends and have fun while perfecting leadership skills and enjoying outstanding speakers. Alumnae and collegians will be brought together as they share time conducting business, electing officers, voting on legislation, attending award presentations and participating in meaningful ceremonies. Convention is truly what Pi Phi is about ... friendship.

Help create the future direction of the Fraternity. Come to Denver, June 29–July 3 to experience the mountains, explore the Pi Phi gold mines and make memories with old and new friends.

— Grand Council of
Pi Beta Phi

Attendees with Alternate Accommodations

Daily registration fee for Pi Phis attending any general sessions and/or workshops without Adam's Mark Denver Hotel accommodations is $40.

Convention attendees will have the opportunity to receive convention rates at the Adam's Mark Denver Hotel two days before and two days after the official meeting dates. Make reservations early, as the number of rooms available pre- and post-convention are limited.

Denver, Colorado

Alumnae Advisory Committee or Chapter House Corporation

Information for Alumnae Advisory Committee and Chapter House Corporation events will be mailed directly to each AAC and CHC chairman. You must be an official member of an AAC or a CHC to register.

Individual Meals

Pi Phis who do not have hotel accommodations through Pi Beta Phi may request meal reservation information by filling out the form below. Meal reservations must be made through Central Office, with reservation form and payment due June 1, 2001.

Make meal reservations early as space is limited and reservations may close before June 1.

About Denver

There is plenty to do in Denver for you or the entire family if you are able to extend your stay through the July 4 holiday. For those who prefer shopping, gourmet dining and sightseeing, the 16th Street Mall is a beautiful pedestrian promenade with hundreds of restaurants and shops, in an atmosphere of art galleries, street performers and outdoor cafés.

Boasting more than 300 sunny days a year and a temperate climate, Colorado is the perfect vacation and sportsman's paradise. Vail, Aspen, Breckenridge and Steamboat Springs are just some of the world famous destinations for sports and breathtaking vistas. Some of these fabulous resorts are also charming Victorian mining towns that reflect the roots of Colorado. If you have only a few hours, enjoy a drive through Rocky Mountain National Park along Trail Ridge Road, considered one of the most scenic drives in America.

Friday Pre-Convention Tour and Luncheon

A pre-convention tour and luncheon will be available for attendees on Friday, June 29. Look for details in the Spring 2001 ARROW.

Getting to Denver

Pi Beta Phi will have special fares available with United Airlines for the 2001 Convention. To obtain the lowest available airfare, call Cheryl or Sharon at (800) 627-9258. If United Airlines does not service your city, Cheryl or Sharon will confirm the best possible route and fare to Denver. Please make your calls Monday through Friday between the hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. Central Standard Time.

Request for Convention Visitor Information

I will be a full-time or part-time registrant. Please send me registration materials.

I will not need accommodations at the Adam's Mark Denver Hotel. Please send me registration materials including a meal reservation form. I understand that because I will not be an Adam's Mark Denver Hotel guest, I must pay the $40 daily registration fee if I wish to attend general sessions or workshops.

Only visitors need to send for registration packets. All official personnel will receive forms directly through chapter, alumnae club and individual mailings.

Convention materials will be available February 1, 2001.

Requests for registration materials cannot be honored after Monday, April 16, 2001.
